Dear Mr. Johnston:

We have reviewed your supplemental response letters dated November 6, 2006 and November 17, 2006 as well as your filings and have the following comment. As noted in our comment letter dated July 17, 2006 we have limited our review to your financial statements and related disclosures and do not intend to expand our review to other portions of your documents.

4. Acquisitions and Dispositions of Businesses, page 43

1. In your response dated November 6, 2006, you state that the terminology used in prior discussions and prior responses (which are consistent with the terminology used in the agreement) "may not have best described the substance of the agreement." In light of this, please explain the business purpose behind why you entered into the Option Agreement and why it was structured in the manner in which it was. Your response should also address why the Option Agreement's term was extended by one month, to January 31, 2008.
