The surety company issuing the bond and the amount of the bond must be acceptable to Employer. All premiums on the bond shall be paid by Employer. Employer shall have no obligation to pay severance benefits to Employee in accordance with paragraph 16 (d) of this Agreement in the event that the Employee's employment is terminated in connection with the Employee's failure to qualify for a surety bond at any time during the term of this Agreement and such failure to qualify results from an occurrence described in paragraph 16(a) (5), (7), (8), (9), (10) or (11, to the extent of an Employee breach).

In consideration for the services to be performed hereunder, Employee shall receive a salary at the rate of One Hundred Twenty-Eight Thousand Dollars ($128,000) per annum, payable in installments during the term of this Agreement of approximately Five Thousand Three Hundred Thirty-Three Dollars and Thirty-Three Cents ($5,333.33) on the fifteenth and last day of each month, subject to applicable adjustments for withholding taxes, prorations for any partial employment period and such other applicable payroll procedures of Employer. (a) Vacation. Employee shall be entitled to twenty-two (22) days of annual vacation leave at his then existing rate of full salary each year during the term of this Agreement. Employee may be absent from his employment for vacation as long as such leave is reasonable and does not jeopardize his responsibilities and duties specified in this Agreement. Employer will pay for or will reimburse Employee for such expenses upon presentation by Employee from time to time of receipts or other appropriate evidence of such expenditures.

16. Termination of Agreement.

(a) Automatic Termination. This Agreement shall terminate automatically without further act of the parties and immediately upon the occurrence of any one of the following events, subject to either party's right, without any obligation whatsoever, to waive an event reasonably susceptible of waiver, and the obligation of Employer to pay the amounts which would otherwise be payable to Employee under this Agreement through the end of the month in which the event occurs shall cease, except that only in the event of termination based upon subparagraphs (1), (4) or (11, to the extent of Employer's breach) below shall Employee be entitled to receive severance payments based upon automatic termination pursuant to paragraph 16 (d) of this Agreement:

- (1) The occurrence of circumstances that make it impossible or impractical for Employer to conduct or continue its business.
- (2) The death of Employee.
- (3) The loss by Employee of legal capacity.
- (4) The loss by Employer of legal capacity to contract.
- (5) The willful, intentional and material breach or the habitual and continued neglect by the Employee of his employment responsibilities and duties.
- (6) The continuous mental or physical incapacity of the Employee, subject to disability rights under this Agreement.
- (7) The Employee's willful and intentional violation of any state or federal banking or securities laws, or of the Bylaws, rules, policies or resolutions of Employer, or the rules or regulations of the California Commissioner of Financial Institutions, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or other regulatory agency or governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Employer, which has a material adverse effect upon the Employer.
- (8) The written determination by a state or federal banking agency or governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Employer that Employee is not suitable to act in the capacity for which he is employed by Employer.
- (9) The Employee's conviction of (i) any felony or (ii) a crime involving moral turpitude, or the Employee's willful and intentional commission of a fraudulent or dishonest act.
- (10) The Employee's willful and intentional disclosure, without authority, of any secret or confidential information concerning Employer or taking any action which the Employer's Board of Directors determines, in its sole discretion and subject to good faith, fair dealing and reasonableness, constitutes unfair competition with or induces any customer to breach any contract with the Employer.

(11) Either party materially breaches the terms or provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Termination by Employer. Employer may, at its election and in its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement for any reason, or for no reason, without prejudice to any other remedy to which Employer may be entitled either at law, in equity or under this Agreement. Upon such termination, Employee shall immediately cease performing and discharging the duties and responsibilities of his position and remove himself and his personal belongings from the Employer's premises. All rights and obligations accruing to Employee under this Agreement shall cease at such termination, except that such termination shall not prejudice Employee's rights regarding employment benefits which shall have accrued prior to such termination, including the right to receive the severance pay specified in paragraph 16 (d) below, and any other remedy which Employee may have at law, in equity or under this Agreement, which remedy accrued prior to such termination.

(c) Termination by Employee. This Agreement may be terminated by Employee for any reason, or no reason. Upon such termination, all rights and obligations accruing to Employee under this Agreement shall cease, except that such termination shall not prejudice Employee's rights regarding employment benefits which shall have accrued prior to such termination and any other remedy which Employee may have at law, in equity or under this Agreement, which remedy accrued prior to such termination.

(d) Severance Pay - Termination by Employer. In the event of termination by Employer pursuant to paragraph 16 (b) or automatic termination based upon paragraph 16 (a) (1), (4) or (11, to the extent of Employer's breach) of this Agreement, Employee shall be entitled to receive severance pay (in addition to salary, incentive compensation, or other payments, if any, due Employee) equal to one-half of Employee's aggregate annual compensation (including an amount equal to the average annual incentive compensation for the two most recent complete years) includable in Employee's gross income for federal income tax purposes during the year the termination occurs, payable in lump sum within thirty (30) days following such termination. In addition, employee shall be reimbursed the amount of COBRA premiums paid for the continuation of health insurance benefits equivalent to those in place at the time of termination for a period of up to six months after the termination date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a "change in control" as defined in subparagraph (e) below, Employee shall not be entitled to severance pay pursuant to this subparagraph (d) and any rights of Employee to severance pay shall be limited to such rights as are specified in paragraph 16 (e) below.

Employee acknowledges and agrees that severance pay pursuant to this subparagraph (d) is in lieu of all damages, payments and liabilities on account of the early termination of this Agreement and the sole and exclusive remedy for Employee terminated at the will of Employer pursuant to paragraph 16 (b) or pursuant to certain provisions of paragraph 16 (a) described herein.

(e) Severance Pay - Change in Control. If, in the event of a "change in control" as defined herein and within a period of two (2) years following consummation of such a change in control, (i) Employee's employment is terminated; or (ii) without Employee's consent there occurs (A) any material adverse change in the nature and scope of Employee's position, responsibilities, duties, or a change of twenty-five (25) miles or more in the Employee's location of employment, and any material reduction in salary or benefits, or (B) any event which reasonably constitutes a demotion, significant diminution or constructive termination (by resignation or otherwise) of Employee's employment, then Employee shall be entitled to receive severance pay (in addition to salary, incentive compensation, or other payments, if any, due Employee). Any such severance pay due Employee shall be in an amount equal to one times Employee's aggregate annual compensation (including an amount equal to the average annual incentive compensation for the two most recent complete years) includable in Employee's gross income for federal income tax purposes during the year the termination occurs, payable in lump sum within thirty (30) days following such termination. In addition, employee shall be reimbursed the amount of COBRA premiums paid for the continuation of health insurance benefits equivalent to those in place at the time of termination for a period of up to one-year after the termination date.

If all or any portion of the amounts payable to the Employee under this Agreement, either alone or together with other payments which the Employee has the right to receive from the Employer, constitute "excess parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), that are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (or similar tax and/or assessment), such amounts payable hereunder shall be reduced to the extent necessary so as to cause a reduction of any excise tax pursuant to Section 4999 of the Code to equal "zero". The determination of the amount of any such excise taxes shall be made by the independent accounting firm employed by the Employer immediately prior to the change in control.

Any such severance shall be payable in lump sum within thirty (30) days following such termination. Such severance payment, if any, shall be in lieu of all damages, payments and liabilities on account of the events described above for which such severance payment, if any, may be due Employee and any severance payment rights of Employee under paragraph 16 (d) of this Agreement. This paragraph 16 (e) shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and any successors or assigns of Employer or any "person" as defined herein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee shall not be entitled to receive nor shall Employer, its successors, assigns or any "person" as defined herein be obligated to pay severance payments pursuant to this paragraph 16 (e) in the event of an occurrence described in paragraph 16 (a), subparagraphs (5), (7), (8), (9), (10) or (11, to the extent of an Employee breach), or in the event Employee terminates employment in accordance with paragraph 16 (c) and the termination is not a result of or based upon the occurrence of any event described in paragraph 16 (e) (ii) above.

A "change in control" of Employer for purposes of this Agreement and paragraph 16 (e) shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events with respect to Employer (with the term "Employer" being defined for such a change in control to include Employer and any of its subsidiaries): (i) a change in control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or in response to any other form or report to the regulatory agencies or governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the Employer or any stock exchange on which the Employer's shares are listed which requires the reporting of a change in control; (ii) any merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Employer in which the Employer does not survive; (iii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions) of any assets of the Employer having an aggregate fair market value of fifty percent (50%) of the total value of the assets of the Employer, reflected in the most recent balance sheet of the Employer; (iv) a transaction whereby any "person" (as such term is used in the Exchange Act) or any individual, corporation, partnership, trust or any other entity is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Employer representing twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the combined voting power of the Employer's then outstanding securities; (v) a situation where, in any one-year period, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board of Directors of the Employer cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election, or the nomination for election by the Employer's shareholders, of each new director is approved by a vote of at least three-quarters (3/4) of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of the period; or (vi) the shareholders of the Employer approve the sale or transfer of substantially all of the Employer's assets to parties that are not within a "controlled group of corporations" (as that term is defined in section 1563 of the Code) in which the Employer is a member.

17. Notices. Any notices to be given hereunder by either party to the other shall be in writing and may be transmitted by personal delivery or by U.S. mail, registered or certified, postage prepaid with return receipt requested. Mailed notices shall be addressed to the parties at the addresses listed as follows:

Employer: Heritage Commerce Corp
150 Almaden Blvd.

San Jose, CA 95113

Employee: At the address listed in Employee's personnel file

Each party may change the address for receipt of notices by written notice in accordance with this paragraph 17. Notices delivered personally shall be deemed communicated as of the date of actual receipt; mailed notices shall be deemed communicated as of three (3) days after the date of mailing.

18. Arbitration. All claims, disputes and other matters in question arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach or interpretation thereof, other than those matters which are to be determined by the Employer in its sole and absolute discretion, shall be resolved by binding arbitration before a representative member, selected by the mutual agreement of the parties, of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. ("JAMS"), presently located in San Francisco, California, in accordance with the rules and procedures of JAMS then in effect. In the event JAMS is unable or unwilling to conduct such arbitration, or has discontinued its business, the parties agree that a representative member, selected by the mutual agreement of the parties, of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), presently located in San Francisco, California, shall conduct such binding arbitration in accordance with the rules and procedures of the AAA then in effect. Notice of the demand for arbitration shall be filed in writing with the other party to this Agreement and with JAMS (or AAA, if necessary). In no event shall the demand for arbitration be made after the date when institution of legal or equitable proceedings based on such claim, dispute or other matter in question would be barred by the applicable statute of limitations. Any award rendered by JAMS or AAA shall be final and binding upon the parties, and as applicable, their respective heirs, beneficiaries, legal representatives, agents, successors and assigns, and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The obligation of the parties to arbitrate pursuant to this clause shall be specifically enforceable in accordance with, and shall be conducted consistently with, the provisions of Title 9 of Part 3 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in San Jose, California, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

19. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In the event of litigation, arbitration or any other action or proceeding between the parties to interpret or enforce this Agreement or any part thereof or otherwise arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its costs related to any such action or proceeding and its reasonable fees of attorneys, accountants and expert witnesses incurred by such party in connection with any such action or proceeding. The prevailing party shall be deemed to be the party which obtains substantially the relief sought by final resolution, compromise or settlement, or as may otherwise be determined by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in the event of litigation, an award or decision of one or more arbitrators in the event of arbitration, or a decision of a comparable official in the event of any other action or proceeding. Every obligation to indemnify under this Agreement includes the obligation to pay reasonable fees of attorneys, accountants and expert witnesses incurred by the indemnified party in connection with matters subject to indemnification.

20. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes any and all other agreements, either oral or in writing, between the parties with respect to the employment of Employee by Employer and contains all of the covenants and agreements between the parties with respect to the employment of Employee by Employer. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that no other representations, inducements, promises, or agreements, oral or otherwise, have been made by any party, or anyone acting on behalf of any party, which are not set forth herein, and that no other agreement, statement, or promise not contained in this Agreement shall be valid or binding on either party.

21. Modifications. Any modification of this Agreement will be effective only if it is in writing and signed by a party or its authorized representative.

22. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist on strict compliance with any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any term, provision, covenant, or condition, individually or in the aggregate, unless such waiver is in writing, nor shall any waiver or relinquishment of any right or power at any one time or times be deemed a waiver or relinquishment of that right or power for all or any other times.

23. Partial Invalidity. If any provision in this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way.

24. Interpretation. This Agreement shall be construed without regard to the party responsible for the preparation of the Agreement and shall be deemed to have been prepared jointly by the parties. Any ambiguity or uncertainty existing in this Agreement shall not be interpreted against either party, but according to the application of other rules of contract interpretation, if an ambiguity or uncertainty exists.

25. Governing Law and Venue. The laws of the State of California, other than those laws denominated choice of law rules, shall govern the validity, construction and effect of this Agreement. Any action which in any way involves the rights, duties and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be brought in the courts of the State of California and venue for any action or proceeding shall be in Santa Clara County or in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and the parties hereby submit to the personal jurisdiction of said courts.

26. Payments Due Deceased Employee. If Employee dies prior to the expiration of the term of his employment, any payments that may be due Employee from Employer under this Agreement as of the date of death shall be paid to Employee's heirs, beneficiaries, successors, permitted assigns or transferees, executors, administrators, trustees, or any other legal or personal representatives.

27. Assignment/Binding Effect. Except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, the Employee may not assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of the Employee's rights, benefits, duties or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Employer. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Employer and its successors and assigns, and the Employee and the Employee's heirs, beneficiaries, successors, permitted assigns or transferees, executors, administrators, trustees, and any other legal or personal representatives.

28. Effect of Termination on Certain Provisions. Upon the termination of this Agreement, the obligations of the Employer and Employee hereunder shall cease except to the extent of Employer's obligation to make payments, if any, to or for the benefit of Employee following termination, and provided that paragraphs 4, 5, 6, 7, 18, 19, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, and 27 shall remain in full force and effect.

29. Advice of Counsel and Advisors. Employee acknowledges and agrees that he has read and understands the terms and provisions of this Agreement and prior to signing this Agreement, he has read and had the advice of counsel and/or such other advisors as he deemed appropriate in connection with his review and analysis of such terms and provisions of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written in the City of San Jose, County of Santa Clara, State of California.
