SUNGOLD ENTERTAINMENT CORP.
CHAIRMANS' REPORT
Extraordinary General Meeting
July 28, 2003

STATUS OF PROJECTS

Horsepower Broadcasting Network (HBN) International Ltd. ("HBN")

Sungold controls the International rights, title and interest in the Horsepower™, random, progressive virtual, horserace based pari-mutual wagering system. The Horsepower World Pool Wagering System operates in real time online exclusively through licensed, Racetrack operators that are approved to offer Horsepower™ pari-mutual wagering by HBN, a subsidiary company 100% owned and controlled by Sungold. Horsepower is an exciting animated horseracing jackpot system, which is viewed in real time worldwide. Players can win small prizes or multimillion-dollar jackpots from a $1 wager.

The current revenue for online pari-mutual wagering both in North America and in legal Racing jurisdictions is estimated to be $150 billion USD annually. Even larger is the $300.0 billion USD worldwide lottery market. The market for Horsepower currently includes over 20,000 racetracks and off track betting facilities worldwide that can offer the Horsepower World Pool as a pari-mutuel wager. Sungold and it's subsidiaries have the exclusive perpetual right and license to market the Horsepower proprietary system, commercial sponsorships, advertising and other promotional materials in connection with the use of the technology. This includes the rights to all intellectual property including copyrights, patents and trademarks. Horsepower is now positioned to become the first Globally branded World Pool.

- During this fiscal year, Sungold assisted HBN to develop the new Horsepower World Pool pari-mutual wagering system, for worldwide racetrack introduction.
- A system upgrade has been completed to add both traditional Chinese languages for both advertising on the internet and pari-mutual wagering at Authorized Racetrack Affiliates (ARA'S). HBN is providing technical support in software development, graphics creation, translation services, security back up, licenses, computer hardware, wagering systems and establishing 24x7-hosting operations.
- All ticket sales will be transacted through authorized tote companies operating with the authority of the Horsepower ARA and fully regulated by local pari-mutual authorities. Horsepower Systems Management and Horsepower Security are internally managed by Horsepower Broadcasting Network (HBN) International Ltd.
- A Horsepower affiliate marketing program has been established to develop the Horsepower™ World Pool game and HBN is being well received by racetracks and teletheatres everywhere.

- The “Horsepower World Pool Racetrack Jackpot Program” was introduced at the 2002 Breeders Cup at Arlington Park, Illinois, October 26, 2002, and subsequently leadership within the racing industry have enthusiastically endorsed it. The general feeling among racetrack operators and regulators is “the racetrack industry needs a simple lucky bet for those potential fans that do not handicap races and a Global Progressive Jackpot like the Horsepower World Pool program will be a unprecedented force to attract people that chase jackpots”. Racetracks have a huge opportunity, with the Horsepower World Pool to offer a real time jackpot linked together in a real time regulated environment.

Protection of Horsepower and Sungolds’ Proprietary Assets

- Legal protection is an ongoing priority for Horsepower. All developments in Horsepower are protected by an aggressive patent, trademark and copyright program. Trademarks are in place for Sungold™, Horsepower™, Quick 6™ and SafeSpending trademarks and worldwide patents are pending.

Licensing

All Horsepower ARA’S will be required to be licensed, regulated, and in good standing with their pari-mutual authorities as a condition of approval. Horsepower is committed to co-operating with all regulators; industry associations and all tote companies to ensure compliance with all government rules and regulations.

Industry Recognition

Horsepower was awarded the International Innovator Award at the Fifth Annual International Gaming Law that was held in Dublin, Ireland. Horsepower was also featured on the front page of Thoroughbred Times Magazine (America’s premier weekly Thoroughbred magazine). Recently, Horsepower was referred to as “the wave of the future” by The Blood-Horse Magazine.

Vancouver Thoroughbred Park (“VTP”)

Sungold has offered to enter into a long-term joint venture with the operators of Hastings Racetrack in Vancouver, Woodbine Entertainment Corporation (“WEC”). Sungold has an outstanding team with extensive development, financing and operations expertise as well as architects that will work to revive BC’s proud racing heritage. Sungold proposes to renovate the Hastings Park facility in conjunction with the construction of a one-mile thoroughbred training center in Richmond. This proposal would be complementary with the exciting new WEC Hastings Park Improvement initiatives and our mutual corporate objectives to emphasize the B.C. breed and promote the core live racing product. Horsepower is a simple way to double handle and purses for everyone. This proposal will not require slot machines but it is anticipated that government approvals will be necessary for the new Horsepower World Pool Racetrack program or any slot machines to be included at the Hastings Park Racecourse.

The $24,000,000 USD financing agreement with TAC International Investments LLC is for racecourse development in BC. The Letter of Intent between Sungold and T.A.C. International for the option to purchase 6 million shares of Sungold for $4 US per share was extended to October 2003.

Richmond Thoroughbred Training Centre (“RTTC”)

Sungold is not renewing its option on the 227 acre Gilmore property in Richmond B.C. The Company has been advised by city planning however, that the Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR) issues that held back the Richmond Racetrack could be virtually eliminated by building a conforming world-class horse training and auction centre. The Sungold team is prepared to negotiate with operators Woodbine Entertainment Corporation (“WEC”) and the Cities of Vancouver and Richmond as well as to provide the capital and expertise to restore BC’s proud live horse racing heritage. Sungold feels it is essential to begin the trend to export the BC product to the world in the tradition of all great racing centers, such as Kentucky. Keenland Thoroughbred Sales Training Center in Lexington, Kentucky for example is the largest agricultural business in the State of Kentucky making sales in the Billions of $US in horses every year.

100-Acre Option Under Negotiation

Sungold is negotiating a new option to acquire 100+ acres of land in Richmond, British Columbia. Management plans to develop this land into an international-class thoroughbred training/auction facility. The proposed facility is anticipated to include state of the art backstretch facilities, a 30,000 square foot Equine Therapy center, riding trails and an equine sales pavilion. Sungold architects have planned and designed new racing facilities ranging from the modernization of historic tracks like Churchill Downs and Saratoga, to the construction of new racing complexes, including Emerald Downs, Remington Park, Canterbury Downs in Minneapolis and the Award winning Singapore Turf Club in Singapore.

- Sungold has engaged P.C.L. Constructors to act as the general contractor for RTTC. P.C.L. is Canada’s leading building contractor and has successfully constructed major arenas, equine centers and racetracks.
- Sungold has retained Eikos Planning Inc. to provide consulting services with the City of Vancouver and all Provincial Agencies affected by the racetrack development proposal. Sungold President Art Cowie is a former Vancouver Parks Board commissioner, Provincial Member of the Legislature and is considered a leader in the planning and design of “Urban People Places”

SafeSpending Project

In May 2001, the Company signed an agreement for the acquisition of the entire worldwide right, title and interest to the Internet payment system technology of SafeSpending Services Inc (SafeSpending”). The SafeSpending Internet payment system is a prepaid anonymous cash spending system that uses a unique and personalized PIN number, which can be used to make purchases anonymously online from merchants and individuals. Currently Management is change the name of it's US affiliate Sungold Entertainment USA to SafeSpending Inc. (an Arizona Corporation) and granting SafeSpending under the direction of CEO Kim Noble Hart a powerful new mandate to develop and market the SafeSpending proprietary, anonymous payment System in 105 countries through authorized merchants and Horsepower ARA'S

The acquisition agreement with SafeSpending includes all copyrights, trademarks, source codes and SafeSpending's intellectual property. The former CEO of SafeSpending has been retained to work under contract to Sungold during the transition phase. Under the terms of the agreement the Company has agreed to pay a 7.5 percent royalty of net revenue relating to the technology, upon the Company or it's subsidiary Horsepower Broadcasting Network Inc. receiving $1,000,000 in net revenue from operation, sale or license of the technology. In 2003 Sungold has been negotiating for joint venture partners to distribute SafeSpending payment vouchers through retailers (land based) on a worldwide basis. A patent is pending for the anonymous cash payment system in 105 countries. Estimates indicate this is a market in the hundreds of Billions $US. In 2002 online Christmas sales in Canada were estimated at $772 Million up over 100% from 2001 and the reason expressed by most non-participating online Canadian consumers was their fear of online identity theft.

Gun Lake Casino Project

In 1994 the Company entered into an agreement with the Gun Lake Indian Band ("Band") in Michigan, USA to develop and manage a full service casino and gaming operation.

The Company had filed a comprehensive $447,899,000 lawsuit in the Michigan courts against the Band. The litigation arose out of notification that the Band would not honour its agreement with the Company. The Company sued for specific performance and is seeking damages.

The Michigan Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal on the basis of the Defendants' claim of sovereign immunity. The Company applied for permission for a review of these issues with the Michigan Supreme Court and the company's petition was denied. Recently, the Michigan Court ruled that the State of Michigan is required to issue a gaming compact to the Gun Lake Tribe. The tax losses from the Gun Lake Casino Project will be available to SafeSpending Inc.

CORPORATE DEVELOPMENTS

- Currently, Sungold has 23 active market markers on the OTC Bulletin Board and on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.
- In the past year the Horsepower testing program was recognized by International Lottery Standards.
- The Company is currently changing of the name of Horsepower Broadcasting Network Inc. to Racing Unified Network (RUN) Inc. ("RUN") and incorporating the new company as a Canadian Corporation. This company will focus on providing marketing, advertising and promotional services exclusively for the racing industry and its sponsors. Currently the racing industry buys over two Billion $USD per year in advertising. As HBN is committed to the world branding of Horsepower, RUN makes an ideal sister company at a time when the Racing industry leadership openly admit it desperately needs to promote itself in order to grow new racing fans!

SUNGOLD SHAREHOLDERS EQUITY

At the time of printing this Circular, the management of the Company is not aware that any such amendments, variations or other matters are to be presented for action at the Meeting. Furthermore, none of such persons were indebted to a third party during such period where their indebtedness was the subject of a guarantee, support agreement, letter of credit or other similar arrangement or understanding provided by the Company or its subsidiaries.

The Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Horsepower Broadcasting Network (HBN) International Ltd. ("HBN") also has an agreement with Larry Simpson ("Simpson") of Georgetown, Ontario, pursuant to which Simpson agreed to provide marketing services to HBN at a salary of $30,000 per year. Simpson is a director of the Company. Since the commencement of the Company's last completed financial year a total of $52,500 has been paid or is payable by HBN to Simpson for such services.

PARTICULARS OF MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Approval of the Company's shareholders is being sought at the Meeting for the following matters.

Continuation into the Federal Jurisdiction

The Company was incorporated on April 7, 1986 under the Company Act (British Columbia). Due to the fact that the Company's business is carried on throughout Canada and not just in British Columbia and in order to give the Company a national rather than a provincial status, the Board of Directors has determined to continue the Company into the federal jurisdiction. Accordingly, shareholder approval for the continuance will be sought at the Meeting. Under the Company Act (British Columbia), the continuance of a corporation into the federal jurisdiction requires the approval of the shareholders of the corporation by a special resolution.

Shareholders should be aware that there are certain differences between the Company Act (British Columbia) and the Canada Business Corporations Act, in particular,

- ? special resolutions under the Company Act (British Columbia) require a majority of not less than 3/4 of the votes cast whereas the Canada Business Corporations Act requires only a 2/3 majority,
- ? the oppression remedies (being the right of a shareholder to apply to court for relief on the grounds that the Company is acting or proposes to act in a way that is unfairly prejudicial or oppressive to the shareholder) under the Canada Business Corporations Act are substantially broader than those under the Company Act (British Columbia),
- ? under the Canada Business Corporations Act the right of a person bringing a derivative action (being the person's right to commence legal action in the name of and on behalf of the Company, with the permission of the court, to enforce an obligation owed to the Company that could be enforced by the Company itself or to obtain damages for any breach of such an obligation) is broader than that contained in the Company Act (British Columbia),
- ? under the Canada Business Corporations Act a director or officer or former director or officer of a corporation has the right to be indemnified against expenses reasonably incurred by him in a legal proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer if he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company whereas under the Company Act (British Columbia) the party seeking indemnification must first obtain court approval and must have been substantially successful on the merits of their defense of the action or proceeding,
- ? under the Canada Business Corporations Act all meetings of shareholders must be held anywhere in Canada whereas under the Company Act (British Columbia) such meetings must be held in British Columbia unless the Registrar of Companies otherwise consents.
- ? under the Canada Business Corporations Act an individual is not disqualified from acting as a director or officer unless they are less than eighteen years of age, of unsound mind, or bankrupt whereas under the Company Act (British Columbia) a person may also be disqualified because they have been convicted of certain offences or had their registration cancelled under certain legislation. Accordingly, Kim Hart, the former President and director of the Company, who has been found by an order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia to be disqualified from acting as a director or officer would not be disqualified from acting as a director or officer under the Canada Business Corporations Act.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be exhaustive and shareholders should consult their legal advisers regarding particular differences between the two jurisdictions which may be of particular interest to them.

Pursuant to the Company Act (British Columbia), a shareholder has the right to dissent with respect to the special resolution respecting the continuance of the Company into the federal jurisdiction. To exercise the right of dissent a shareholder must give notice of this dissent by registered mail addressed to the Company at Suite 1880, 1055 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6E 3P3, on or before 10:00 am on July 26, 2003.

If the special resolution is passed, the Company shall give any dissenting shareholders notice of the Company's intention to act on the special resolution. On receiving a notice of intention to act, a dissenting shareholder is entitled to require the Company to purchase all their shares in respect of which the notice of dissent was given at the fair value thereof as of the day before the date on which the resolution is passed. The dissenting shareholder must exercise this right by delivering to the registered office of the Company at Suite 1880, 1055 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6E 3P3, within 14 days after the Company gives the notice of intention to act, a notice that the shareholder requires the Company to purchase all their shares with respect to which the shareholder is dissenting and delivering the share certificates representing such shares to the Company whereupon the shareholder is bound to sell such shares to the Company and the Company is bound to purchase them. A dissenting shareholder may apply to the Supreme Court of British Columbia for a determination of the price and terms of such purchase and sale.

In view of the strict requirements of the Company Act (British Columbia) relating to the rights and obligations of dissenting shareholders, shareholders should seek their own legal counsel concerning any consequences which may result from the filing of a notice of dissent or concerning the procedures to be followed to exercise such rights.

Since the Board of Directors may not wish to proceed with the continuance of the Company into the federal jurisdiction if shareholders holding a significant number of shares exercise their right of dissent thereby possibly seriously impairing the Company's financial resources the Board of Directors is also seeking the shareholders' approval to not proceed with the continuance if, in the directors' sole discretion, they determine it not to be in the Company's best interests.

Increase in Authorized Capital

Presently the Company's authorized capital consists of 100,000,000 common shares without par value of which 74,071,211 shares are issued. In connection with the continuation of the Company to the Canadian Federal jurisdiction, and in order to ensure that there are sufficient shares reserved for future issuances the Board of Directors proposes to increase the authorized capital to an unlimited number of common shares without par value.

Change of Name

In connection with the continuation of the Company to the Canadian Federal jurisdiction, the Board of Directors of the Company wish to change the Company's name to "Sungold International Holdings Corp.". If that name is not acceptable to the Corporations Directorate of Industry Canada, the Board wishes to be authorized to choose, without further approval of the shareholders, such other name as is acceptable.

Removal of Melvin R. Reeves as a Director of the Company

The Board of Directors of the Company believe it is in the best interest of the Company to remove Melvin R. Reeves as a director of the Company. Mr. Reeves has been involved in litigation with the Company which led to an order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia that the Company's former President and Director, Kim Hart, is disqualified from acting as a director of the Company. Mr. Reeves is also threatening litigation against the Company in connection with the termination of his consulting contract with the Company's subsidiary Horsepower Broadcasting Network (HBN) International Ltd. The Board of Directors are of the view that in the circumstances, it is detrimental to the ongoing business of the Company to have to include Mr. Reeves in meetings of the directors of the Company. Accordingly, the shareholders of the Company will be asked to pass a resolution removing Mr. Reeves as a director.

Under the Company Act (British Columbia) removal of a director between Annual General Meetings requires authorization by shareholders by way of a special resolution.

Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Company are of the opinion that it would be appropriate to pay a stock dividend to the shareholders of the Company on the basis of one common share for each 20 common shares held. The Board of Directors believe the dividend to be appropriate to reward the shareholders for their support of the Company however, approval of the shareholders is being sought although not legally required in order to confirm that the payment of the dividend is acceptable to the shareholders. The dividend will be paid to shareholders as of a record date to be set by the directors.

Authorization for Directors to Sell up to 25% of Horsepower Broadcasting Network (HBN) International Ltd.

Management has been approached by third parties interested in purchasing a minority position in the Company's wholly owned subsidiary HBN. Management believes it may be advantageous for the subsidiary to have a senior investor partner and seeks shareholder approval to consider offers. While the value in the future may be substantially enhanced by proven operations, management feels that majority control can ensure protection of the shareholders interest as the Company would remain operator with 75% control. Consequently, the Company wishes to sell this minority interest and therefore seeks shareholder approval.

Shareholders' Right of Dissent

Pursuant to the Company Act (British Columbia), a shareholder has the right to dissent with respect to the special resolution to approve the continuation of the Company into the federal jurisdiction. . To exercise the right of dissent a shareholder must give notice of this dissent by registered mail addressed to the Company at 500 Park Place, 666 Burrard Street Vancouver, BC, Canada V6C 3P6, on or before June 26, 2003.

If the special resolution is passed, the Company shall give any dissenting shareholders notice of the Company's intention to act on the special resolution. On receiving a notice of intention to act, a dissenting shareholder is entitled to require the Company to purchase all their shares in respect of which the notice of dissent was given at the fair value thereof as of the day before the date on which the resolution is passed. The dissenting shareholder must exercise this right by delivering to the registered office of the Company at Suite 1880, 1055 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6E 3P3, within 14 days after the Company gives the notice of intention to act, a notice that the shareholder requires the Company to purchase all their shares with respect to which the shareholder is dissenting and delivering the share certificates representing such shares to the Company whereupon the shareholder is bound to sell such shares to the Company and the Company is bound to purchase them. A dissenting shareholder may apply to the Supreme Court of British Columbia for a determination of the price and terms of such purchase and sale.

In view of the strict requirements of the Company Act (British Columbia) relating to the rights and obligations of dissenting shareholders, shareholders should seek their own legal counsel concerning any consequences which may result from the filing of a notice of dissent or concerning the procedures to be followed to exercise such rights.

Since the Board of Directors may not wish to proceed with the continuation of the Company if shareholders holding a significant number of shares exercise their right of dissent thereby possibly seriously impairing the Company's financial resources the Board of Directors is also seeking the shareholders' approval to not proceed with the continuation if, in the directors' sole discretion, they determine it not to be in the Company's best interests.

Other Matters

The management does not know of any other matters to come before the Meeting other than those referred to in the Notice of Meeting. Should any other matters properly come before the Meeting, the shares represented by the Proxy solicited hereby will be voted on such matters in accordance with the best judgment of the persons voting the Proxy.

being appointed, be deemed to have contracted with the Corporation on the terms of the foregoing indemnity.

7.06 Indemnity not Exclusive

(1) The indemnification provided by this by-law shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any valid and lawful agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall enure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

(2) The indemnification provided by this by-law shall not be exclusive of any powers, rights, agreement or undertakings which may be legally permissible or authorized by or under any applicable law.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions set forth in this by-law, the indemnification authorized by these by-laws shall be applicable only to the extent that any such indemnification shall not duplicate indemnity or reimbursement which that person has received or shall receive otherwise than pursuant to this by-law.

7.07 Other Indemnities

The board is authorized from time to time to cause the Corporation to give indemnities to any director, officer, employee, agent or other person who has undertaken or is about to undertake any liability on behalf of the Corporation or any corporation controlled by it.

7.08 Reliance Upon Experts

Directors may rely upon financial statements represented by an officer of the Corporation in a written report of the auditor of the Corporation fairly to reflect the financial condition of the Corporation; and may rely upon a report of a lawyer, accountant, engineer, geologist, appraiser or other person whose profession lends credibility to a statement made by him. A director shall not be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage resulting from acting in good faith upon any such statement or report.

SECTION EIGHT

SHARES

8.01 Allotment and Issuance

(1) Subject to the articles and any unanimous shareholders' agreement, the board may from time to time allot or grant options, warrants or rights to purchase the whole or any part of the authorized and unissued shares of the Corporation at such times and to such persons and for such consideration as the board shall determine but:

- (a) no share shall be issued until it is fully paid as provided by the Act; and
 - (b) if the articles so provide, no shares of a class shall be issued unless the shares have first been offered to the shareholders holding shares of that class, and those shareholders have a preemptive right to acquire the offered shares in proportion to their holdings of the shares of that class, at such price and on such terms as those shares are to be offered to others.
- (2) Shareholders shall not have any preemptive right in respect of shares to be issued:
- (a) for a consideration other than money;
 - (b) as a share dividend; or
 - (c) pursuant to the exercise of conversion privileges, options or rights previously granted by the Corporation.

8.02 Commission

The board may from time to time authorize the Corporation to pay a commission to any person in consideration of his purchasing or agreeing to purchase shares of the Corporation, whether from the Corporation or from any other person, or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for any such shares.

8.03 Registration of Transfers

Subject to the provisions of the Act, no transfer of shares shall be registered in a securities register except upon presentation of the certificate representing such shares with an endorsement, which complies with the Act, made thereon or delivered therewith duly executed by an appropriate person as provided by the Act, together with such reasonable assurance that the endorsement is genuine and effective as the board may from time to time prescribe, upon payment of all applicable taxes and any fees prescribed by the board, upon compliance with such restrictions on transfer as are authorized by the articles and upon satisfaction of any lien referred to in this section.

8.04 Transfer Agents and Registrars

The board may from time to time appoint one or more agents to maintain, in respect of each class of securities of the Corporation issued by it in registered form, a central securities register and one or more branch securities registers. Such a person may be designated as transfer agent or registrar according to his functions and one person may be designated both registrar and transfer agent. The board may at any time terminate such appointment.

8.05 Lien for Indebtedness

If the articles provide that the Corporation shall have a lien on shares registered in the name of a shareholder indebted to the Corporation, such lien may be enforced, subject to any other provision of the articles and to any unanimous shareholder agreement, by the sale of the shares thereby affected or by any other action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by law or by equity and, pending such enforcement, the Corporation may refuse to register a transfer of the whole or any part of such shares.

8.06 Non-Recognition of Trusts

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Corporation may treat as absolute owner of any share the person in whose name the share is registered in the securities register as if that person had full legal capacity and authority to exercise all rights of ownership, irrespective of any indication to the contrary through knowledge or notice or description in the Corporation's records or on the share certificate.

8.07 Share Certificate

Each holder of one or more shares of the Corporation shall be entitled, at his option to a share certificate, or to a non-transferable written acknowledgement of his right to obtain a share certificate, stating the number and class or series of shares held by him as shown on the securities register. Share certificates and acknowledgments of a shareholder's right to a share certificate, respectively, shall be in such form as the board shall from time to time approve. Any share certificate shall be signed in accordance with the provisions of this by-law and need not be under the corporate seal but, unless the board otherwise determines, certificates representing shares in respect of which a transfer agent or registrar has been appointed shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of such transfer agent or registrar. The signature of one of the signing officers or, in the case of share certificates which are not valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of a transfer agent or registrar, the signatures of both signing officers, may be printed or mechanically reproduced in facsimile upon share certificates. Every such facsimile signature shall for all purposes be deemed to be the signature of the officer whose signature it reproduces and shall be binding upon the Corporation. A share certificate executed as aforesaid shall be valid notwithstanding that one or both of the officers whose facsimile signature appears thereon no longer holds office at the date of issue of the certificate.

8.08 Replacement of Share Certificates

The board or any officer or agent designated by the board may in its or his discretion direct the issue of a new share certificate in lieu of and upon cancellation of a share certificate that has been mutilated or in substitution for a share certificate claimed to have been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken on such terms as to indemnity and reimbursement of expenses and evidence of loss and of title as the board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

8.09 Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, the Corporation shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect thereof, and delivery of such certificate to one of such persons shall be sufficient delivery to all of them. Joint holders shall be required to provide one address only which may be the recorded address of all such joint holders. Any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for the certificate issued in respect thereof or for any dividend, bonus, return of capital or other money payable or warrant issuable in respect of such share.

8.10 Deceased Shareholders

In the event of the death of a holder, or of one of the joint holders, of any share, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect thereof or to make payment of any dividends thereon except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation and its transfer agents.

SECTION NINE

DIVIDENDS AND RIGHTS

9.01 Dividends

(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the board may from time to time declare dividends payable to the shareholders according to their respective rights and interest in the Corporation, and to fix the date of record therefor and the time for payment thereof.

(2) Dividends may be paid in money or property or by issuing fully paid shares of the Corporation. A resolution declaring a dividend may direct payment of the dividend wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets or if paid-up shares, bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Corporation, or in any one or more of such ways, and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the board may settle the same as it thinks expedient, and in particular may fix the value for distribution of specific assets, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to a shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed or in lieu of fractional shares, bonds, debentures or debenture stock, in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts, for the person entitled as may seem expedient to the board.

(3) Dividends may be declared to be payable out of the retained earnings, profits or other income of the Corporation in respect of any period or out of any surplus of the Corporation whether created on the issuance or exchange or conversion of shares or securities of the Corporation, or as otherwise permitted by law. The Corporation may retain any dividend or other monies payable on or in respect of a share on which the Corporation has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

(4) If shares of the Corporation are issued in payment of a dividend, the value of the dividend stated as an amount in money shall be added to the stated capital account maintained or to be maintained for the shares of the class or series issued in payment of the dividend.

(5) No dividend shall bear interest against the Corporation.

(6) Should any dividend result in any shareholder being entitled to a fractional part of a share of the Corporation, the board shall have the right to pay such shareholder in lieu of that fractional share, the cash equivalent thereof, calculated on the stated capital thereof, and shall have the further right and complete discretion to carry out such distribution and to adjust the rights of the shareholders with respect thereto on as practical and equitable a basis as possible including the right to arrange through a fiscal agent or otherwise for the sale, consolidation or other disposition of those fractional shares on behalf of those shareholders of the Corporation.

(7) If any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividends as and from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

(8) The board may deduct from any dividend payable to any shareholders, all sums of money, if any, then payable by such shareholder to the Corporation.

9.02 Dividend Cheques

A dividend payable in cash shall be paid by cheque drawn on the Corporation's bankers or one of them to the order of each registered holder of shares of the class or series in respect of which it has been declared and mailed by prepaid ordinary mail to such registered holder at his recorded address, unless such holder otherwise directs. In the case of joint holders the cheque shall, unless such joint holders otherwise direct, be payable to the order of all of such joint holders and mailed to them at their recorded address. The mailing of such cheque as aforesaid, unless the same is not paid on due presentation, shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the dividend to the extent of the sum represented thereby plus the amount of any tax which the Corporation is required to and does withhold in respect of such dividend.

9.03 Non-Receipt of Cheques

In the event of non-receipt of any dividend cheque by the person to whom it is sent as aforesaid, the Corporation shall issue to such person a replacement cheque for a like amount on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of non-receipt and of title as the board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

9.04 Record Date for Dividends and Rights

The board may fix in advance a date, preceding by not more than 50 days the date for the payment of any dividend or the date for the issue of any warrant or other evidence of the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation, as a record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of such dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for such securities, and notice of any such record date shall be given not less than 10 days before such record date in the manner provided by the Act. If no record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of any dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation shall be at the close of business on the day on which the resolution relating to such dividend or right to subscribe is passed by the board.

9.05 Unclaimed Dividends

Any dividend unclaimed after a period of six years from the date on which the same has been declared to be payable shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Corporation.

SECTION TEN

MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

10.01 Annual Meetings

The annual meeting of shareholders shall be held at such time in each year and at such place as the board, the Chairman of the Board or the President may, subject to this section, determine, for the purpose of considering the financial statements and reports required by the Act to be placed before the annual meeting, electing directors, appointing an auditor and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

10.02 Special Meetings

The board, the Chairman of the Board, or the President shall have power to call a special meeting of shareholders at any time.

10.03 Place of Meetings

Meetings of shareholders shall be held at the registered office of the Corporation or elsewhere in the municipality in which the registered office is situated or, if the board shall so determine, at some other place in Canada or, if all the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting so agree, at some place outside Canada.

10.04 Notice of Meetings

Notice of the time and place of each meeting of shareholders shall be given not less than 21 nor more than 50 days before the date of the meeting to each director, to the auditor and to each shareholder who at the close of business on the record date for notice is entered in the securities register as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting. Notice of a meeting of shareholders called for any purpose other than consideration of the financial statements and auditor's report, election of directors and reappointment of the incumbent auditor shall state the nature of such business in sufficient detail to permit the shareholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon and shall state the text of any special resolution to be submitted to the meeting. A shareholder and any other person entitled to attend a meeting of shareholders may in any manner waive notice of or otherwise consent to a meeting of shareholders.

10.05 List of Shareholders Entitled to Notice

For every meeting of shareholders, the Corporation shall prepare a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting. If a record date for the meeting is fixed, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on such record date. If a record date is not fixed, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which notice of the meeting is given, or where no such notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held. The list shall be available for examination by any shareholder during usual business hours at the registered office of the Corporation or at the place where the central securities register is maintained and at the meeting for which the list was prepared. Where a separate list of shareholders has not been prepared, the names of persons appearing in the securities register at the requisite time as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting shall be deemed to be a list of shareholders.

10.06 Record Date for Notice

The board may fix in advance a date, preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders by not more than 50 days and not less than 21 days, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting, and notice of any such record date shall be given not less than seven days before the record date, by newspaper advertisement in the manner provided in the Act. If no record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting shall be at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given or, if no notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held.

10.07 Meetings Without Notice

(1) A meeting of shareholders may be held without notice at any time and place permitted by the Act if:

- (a) all the shareholders entitled to vote thereat are present in person or represented by proxy or if those not present or represented by proxy waive notice of or otherwise consent to such meeting being held, and
- (b) the auditors and the directors are present or waive notice of or otherwise consent to such meeting being held, so long as such shareholders, auditors or directors present are not attending for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

(2) At a meeting held without notice any business may be transacted which the Corporation at the meeting of shareholders may transact. If the meeting is held at a place outside Canada, shareholders not present or represented by proxy, but who have waived notice of or otherwise consented to such meeting, shall also be deemed to have consented to the meeting being held at such place.

10.08 Chairman, Secretary and Scrutineers

The chairman of any meeting of shareholders shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is present at the meeting: Chairman of the Board, President or a Vice-President. If no such officer is present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding the meeting, the persons present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman. If the Secretary of the Corporation is absent, the Chairman shall appoint some person, who need not be a shareholder, to act as Secretary of the meeting. If desired, one or more scrutineers, who need not be shareholders, may be appointed by a resolution or by the Chairman with the consent of the meeting.

10.09 Persons Entitled to be Present

The only persons entitled to be present at a meeting of shareholders shall be those entitled to vote thereat, the directors and auditor of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or the articles or by-laws to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chairman of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.

10.10 Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of shareholders shall be one member present in person or by proxy holding not less than one-third of the issued and outstanding voting shares of the Corporation. If a quorum is present at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present or represented by proxy may proceed with the business of the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, the meeting will be adjourned to the same time of the adjourned meeting on the day seven days following the date of the meeting at which meeting the quorum for the transaction of business shall be reduced to one member present in person or by proxy holding at least one voting share.

10.11 Right to Vote

Subject to the provisions of the Act as to authorized representatives of any other body corporate or association, at any meeting of shareholders for which the Corporation has prepared the list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting, every person who is named in such list shall be entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his name except to the extent that, where the Corporation has fixed a record date in respect of such meeting, such person has transferred any of his shares after such record date and the transferee, having produced properly endorsed certificates evidencing such shares or having otherwise established that he owns such shares, has demanded not later than 10 days before the meeting that his name be included in such list. In any such case the transferee shall be entitled to vote the transferred shares of the meeting. At any meeting of shareholders for which the Corporation has not prepared the list of shareholders entitled to notice, every person shall be entitled to vote at the meeting who at the time is entered in the securities register as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting.

10.12 Proxies

(1) Every shareholder is entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders may appoint a proxyholder, or one or more alternate proxyholders, who need not be shareholders, to attend and act at the meeting in the manner and to the extent authorized and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy shall be in writing executed by the shareholder or his attorney and shall conform with the requirements of the Act. A proxy signed by or on behalf of a corporation need not be under seal.

(2) If the shareholder is a body corporate or association it may authorize by resolution of its directors or governing body an individual to represent it at a meeting of shareholders and that individual may exercise on the shareholder's behalf all the powers it could exercise if it were an individual shareholder. The authority of such an individual shall be established by the deposit with the Corporation of a certified copy of the resolution, or in such other manner as may be satisfactory to the secretary of the Corporation or the chairman of the meeting. Any such proxyholder or representative need not be a shareholder. The proxy shall be signed on behalf of the corporation by its duly authorized officer or officers.

10.13 Time for Deposit of Proxies

The board may specify in a notice calling a meeting of shareholders a time, preceding the time of such meeting by not more than 48 hours exclusive of non-business days, before which time proxies to be used at such meeting must be deposited. A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent thereof specified in such notice or, if no such time is specified in such notice, unless it has been received by the Secretary of the Corporation or by the chairman of the meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

10.14 Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons hold shares jointly, any one of them present in person or represented by proxy at a meeting of shareholders may, in the absence of the other or others, vote the shares; but if two or more of those are present in person or represented by proxy and vote, they shall vote as one the shares jointly held by them.

10.15 Votes to Govern

At any meeting of shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by the articles or by-laws or by law, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In case of an equality of votes either upon a show of hands or upon a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

10.16 Show of Hands

Subject to the provisions of the Act, any question at a meeting of shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot thereon is required or demanded as hereinafter provided. Upon a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the said question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

10.17 Ballots

On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of shareholders, and whether or not a show of hands has been taken thereon, any shareholder or proxyholder entitled to vote at the meeting may require or demand a ballot. A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chairman shall direct. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken each person present shall be entitled, in respect of the shares which he is entitled to vote at the meeting upon the question, to that number of votes provided by the Act or the articles, and the result of the ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon the said question.

10.18 Adjournment

The chairman at a meeting of shareholders may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting may decide, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned for less than 30 days, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the earliest meeting that is adjourned. If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as required by this by-law for an original meeting.

10.19 Resolution in Writing

A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholder is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders unless a written statement with respect to the subject matter of the resolution is submitted by a director or the auditors in accordance with the Act.

10.20 Only One Shareholder

Where the Corporation has only one shareholder or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or by proxy constitutes a meeting.

SECTION ELEVEN

DOCUMENTS, RECORDS, ACCOUNTING

11.01 Documents and Records

(1) The board shall cause minutes to be duly entered in the books provided for the purposes of recording:

- (a) all appointments of officers;
- (b) the names of the directors or their alternates or substitutes present at each meeting of directors and of any committee of directors;
- (c) all orders made by the directors or committee of directors; and
- (d) all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings of the Corporation and all meetings of the board and of committees of directors, and any such minutes as aforesaid, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of such meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting shall be receivable as prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes.

(2) The board shall cause the Corporation to keep at its registered office or at such other place as the Act may permit or require, the documents, copy documents, registers, minutes and records which the Corporation is required by the Act to keep at its registered office or at such other place, and appoint such agent or agents to keep such records and enter into such agreements and pay such remuneration or fee to such agents as the directors shall, from time to time, determine.

11.02 Accounts

(1) The board shall cause records and books of accounts to be kept as necessary to record properly the financial affairs and condition of the Corporation and to comply with the provisions of the Act.

(2) The board may, subject to the provisions of the Act, determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and on what conditions, the records and books of account of the Corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the shareholders or members of the public, and no shareholder shall have any right to inspect any record or book of account or document of the Corporation except as conferred by statute or as authorized by the board or by ordinary resolution whether previous notice has been given thereof or not.

(3) The board shall determine the place at which the accounting records of the Corporation shall be kept and those records shall be open to the inspection of any director during normal business hours of the Corporation.

(4) The board shall cause to be prepared and shall send to the shareholders and place before the shareholders in general meeting the financial statements and reports of the auditors of the Corporation at the times and in the manner prescribed by the Act.

(5) If the Corporation is required, by the Act, to appoint auditors, auditors shall be appointed for the Corporation and their duties regulated according to the provisions of the Act.

SECTION TWELVE

NOTICES

12.01 Method of Giving Notices

Any notice (which term includes any communication or document) to be given (which term includes sent, delivered or served) pursuant to the Act, the regulations thereunder, the articles, the by-laws or otherwise to a shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board shall be sufficiently given unless any other manner is specifically provided or permitted in this or any other by-law of the Corporation for the giving of any notice, if delivered personally to the person to whom it is to be given or if delivered to his recorded address or if mailed to him at his recorded address by prepaid ordinary or air mail or if sent to him at his recorded address by telecopier or by any means of prepaid transmitted or recorded communication. A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been given when it is delivered personally or to the recorded address; a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given on the first non-business day after the day when deposited in a post office or public letter box; and a notice so sent by any means of transmitted or recorded communication shall be deemed to have been given when telecopied or, if sent by any other means, when dispatched or delivered to the appropriate communication company or agency or its representative for dispatch. The Secretary may change or cause to be changed the recorded address of any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board in accordance with any information believed by him to be reliable.

12.02 Notice to Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any notice shall be addressed to all of such joint holders but notice to one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all of them.

12.03 Computation of Time

In computing the date when notice must be given under any provision requiring a specified number of days' notice of any meeting or other event, the date of giving the notice shall be excluded and the date of the meeting or other event shall be included.

12.04 Undelivered Notices

If any notice given to a shareholder is returned on three consecutive occasions because he cannot be found, the Corporation shall not be required to give any further notices to such shareholder until he informs the Corporation in writing of his new address.

12.05 Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

12.06 Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law

Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which shall have been duly given to the shareholder from whom he derives his title to such share prior to his name and address being entered on the securities register whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which he became so entitled and prior to his furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of his entitlement prescribed by the Act.

12.07 Waiver of Notice

Any shareholder (or his duly appointed proxyholder), director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the board may at any time waive any notice, or waive or abridge the time for any notice, required to be given to him under any provision of the Act, the regulations thereunder, the articles, the by-laws or otherwise and such waiver or abridgment, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in the giving or in the time of such notice, as the case may be. Any such waiver or abridgment shall be in writing except a waiver of notice of a meeting of shareholders or of the board or of a committee of the board which may be given in any manner.

SECTION THIRTEEN

EFFECTIVE DATE

13.01 Effective Date

This by-law shall come into force when made by the board in accordance with the Act.

13.02 Repeal

All previous by-laws of the Corporation and the by-laws, articles or regulations governing the affairs of the Corporation prior to the issuance of its articles of incorporation under the Act, are repealed as of the coming into force of this by-law. The repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any by-law, article or regulation as aforesaid, so repealed or affect the validity of any act done or right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under or the validity of any contract or agreement made pursuant to any such by-law prior to its repeal. All officers and persons acting under any by-law, articles or regulation so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of this by-law and all resolutions of shareholders or the board or a committee of the board with continuing effect passed under any repealed by-law, article or regulation shall continue in full force and effect, until amended or repealed, except to the extent that it is inconsistent with this by-law.
