What is the Payment Amount at Maturity of the Securities Assuming a Range of Performance for the Index?

The following table illustrates a range of hypothetical Payments at Maturity of the securities. The “payment return” as used in this term sheet is the number, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the Payment at Maturity per $1,000 Face Amount of securities to $1,000. The hypothetical payment returns set forth below assume an Initial Index Level of 765, an Upper Barrier of 1,147.50 (150% of the Initial Index Level), a Participation Rate of 100%, a Buffer of 15%, and a Rebate of 14.00%. The actual Initial Index Level, Upper Barrier, and Rebate will be set on the Trade Date. The hypothetical payment returns set forth below are for illustrative purposes only and are not the actual payment returns applicable to a purchaser of the securities. The numbers appearing in the following table and examples have been rounded for ease of analysis.

The following hypothetical examples illustrate how the Payments at Maturity set forth in the table above are calculated.

Example 1: The level of the Index increases by 25% from the Initial Index Level of 765 to an Ending Index Level of 956.25, and:

- no Barrier Event occurs. Because the Ending Index Level is greater than the Initial Index Level and no Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $1,250.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + $1,000 \times (\text{Participation Rate} \times \text{Index Return}) = \\ & $1,000 + $1,000 \times (100.00\% \times 25.00\%) = $1,250.00 \end{aligned}$$

- a Barrier Event occurs. Because the Ending Index Level is greater than the Initial Index Level and a Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $1,140.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Rebate}) = \\ & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times 14.00\%) = $1,140.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 2: The level of the Index decreases by 10% from the Initial Index Level of 765 to an Ending Index Level of 688.50, and:

- no Barrier Event occurs. Because the Index decreases by less than the Buffer Amount of 15% and no Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $1,000.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities.
- a Barrier Event occurs. Because the Index decreases by less than the Buffer Amount of 15% and a Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $1,140.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Rebate}) = \\ & $1,000 + ($1,000 \times 14.00\%) = $1,140.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 3: The level of the Index decreases by 40% from the Initial Index Level of 765 to an Ending Index Level of 459.00, and

- no Barrier Event occurs. Because the Index decreases by more than the Buffer Amount of 15% and no Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $750.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + [$1,000 \times (\text{Index Return} + \text{Buffer Amount})] = \\ & $1,000 + [$1,000 \times (-40\% + 15\%)] = $750.00 \end{aligned}$$

- a Barrier Event occurs. Because the Index decreases by more than the Buffer Amount of 15% and a Barrier Event occurs, the investor receives a Payment at Maturity of $890.00 per $1,000 Face Amount of securities, calculated as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} & $1,000 + [$1,000 \times (\text{Index Return} + \text{Buffer Amount} + \text{Rebate})] = \\ & $1,000 + [$1,000 \times (-40\% + 15\% + 14.00\%)] = $890.00 \end{aligned}$$

Selected Purchase Considerations

- APPRECIATION POTENTIAL IS LIMITED — The securities provide the opportunity to enhance equity returns by multiplying a positive Index Return of up to a cap of 50% by the Participation Rate of 100%. If a Barrier Event occurs, your return will be limited to a Rebate of between 11.0% and 17.0%, regardless of any positive performance of the Index. The actual Rebate will be set on the Trade Date. Because the securities are our senior unsecured obligations, payment of any amount at maturity is subject to our ability to pay our obligations as they become due.
- LIMITED PROTECTION AGAINST LOSS — Payment at maturity of the securities is protected against a decline in the Ending Index Level, as compared to the Initial Index Level, of up to 15% (the Buffer Amount) if no Barrier Event occurs and up to between 26.0% and 32.0% (the sum of the Buffer Amount and the Rebate (to be determined on the Trade Date)) if a Barrier Event occurs. If the Ending Index Level declines as compared to the Initial Index Level, for every 1% decline of the Index below 15% of the Initial Index Level if no Barrier Event occurs and below between 26.0% and 32.0% of the Initial Index Level if a Barrier Event occurs, you will lose an amount equal to 1% of the Face Amount of your securities. You may lose up to 85% of your investment if no Barrier Event occurs.
- RETURN LINKED TO THE PERFORMANCE OF THE S&P 500® INDEX — The return on the securities is linked to the performance of the S&P 500® Index. The S&P 500® Index is intended to provide a performance benchmark for the U.S. equity markets. The calculation of the level of the S&P 500® Index is based on the relative value of the aggregate market value of the common stocks of 500 companies as of a particular time as compared to the aggregate average market value of the common stocks of 500 similar companies during the base period of the years 1941 through 1943. This is just a summary of the S&P 500® Index. For more information on the S&P 500® Index, including information concerning its composition, calculation methodology and adjustment policy, please see the section entitled “The S&P Indices — The S&P 500 Index” in the accompanying underlying supplement no. 17 dated August 11, 2008.
- UNCERTAIN TAX CONSEQUENCES — You should review carefully the section of the accompanying product supplement entitled “Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.” Although the tax consequences of an investment in the securities are uncertain, we believe it is reasonable to treat the securities as prepaid financial contracts for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Based on current law, under this treatment you should not be required to recognize taxable income prior to the maturity of your securities, other than pursuant to a sale or exchange, and your gain or loss on the securities should be long-term capital gain or loss if you hold the securities for more than one year. If, however, the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) were successful in asserting an alternative treatment for the securities, the timing and/or character of income on the securities might differ materially and adversely from the description herein. We do not plan to request a ruling from the IRS, and no assurance can be given that the IRS or a court will agree with the tax treatment described in this term sheet and the accompanying product supplement.

On December 7, 2007, the Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”) and the IRS released a notice requesting comments on various issues regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of “prepaid forward contracts” and similar instruments, such as the securities. The notice focuses in particular on whether to require holders of these instruments to accrue income over the term of their investment. It also asks for comments on a number of related topics, including the character of income or loss with respect to these instruments; the relevance of factors such as the nature of the underlying property to which the instruments are linked; the degree, if any, to which income (including any mandated accruals) realized by non-U.S. holders should be subject to withholding tax; and whether these instruments are or should be subject to the “constructive ownership” regime, which very generally can operate to recharacterize certain long-term capital gain as ordinary income that is subject to an interest charge. While the notice requests comments on appropriate transition rules and effective dates, any Treasury regulations or other guidance promulgated after consideration of these issues could materially and adversely affect the tax consequences of an investment in the securities, possibly with retroactive effect.

Under current law, the United Kingdom will not impose withholding tax on payments made with respect to the securities.

For a discussion of certain German tax considerations relating to the securities, you should refer to the section in the accompanying prospectus supplement entitled “Taxation by Germany of Non-Resident Holders.”

We do not provide any advice on tax matters. Both U.S. and non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisers regarding all aspects of the U.S. federal tax consequences of investing in the securities (including possible alternative treatments and the issues presented by the December 7, 2007 notice), as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.

Selected Risk Considerations

An investment in the securities involves significant risks. Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing directly in the Index or any of the component stocks of the Index. These risks are explained in more detail in the “Risk Factors” section of the accompanying product supplement.

- YOUR INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES MAY RESULT IN A LOSS — Payment at maturity of the securities is protected against a decline in the Ending Index Level, as compared to the Initial Index Level, of up to 15% (the Buffer Amount) if no Barrier Event occurs and up to between 26.0% and 32.0% (the sum of the Buffer Amount and the Rebate (to be determined on the Trade Date)) if a Barrier Event occurs. If the Ending Index Level declines as compared to the Initial Index Level, for every 1% decline of the Index below 15% of the Initial Index Level if no Barrier Event occurs and below between 26.0% and 32.0% of the Initial Index Level if a Barrier Event occurs, you will lose an amount equal to 1% of the Face Amount of your securities. You may lose up to 85% of your investment if no Barrier Event occurs.
- IF A BARRIER EVENT OCCURS, YOUR ADDITIONAL AMOUNT WILL BE LIMITED TO THE REBATE, REGARDLESS OF ANY POSITIVE PERFORMANCE OF THE INDEX — If a Barrier Event occurs, your Additional Amount will be limited to the Rebate, regardless of any positive performance of the Index. You will not benefit from any appreciation of the Index beyond the Rebate. If a Barrier Event does not occur, your return will be limited by the Upper Barrier.
- THE SECURITIES DO NOT PAY INTEREST — Unlike ordinary debt securities, the securities do not pay interest and do not guarantee any return of your initial investment at maturity.
- MANY ECONOMIC AND MARKET FACTORS WILL IMPACT THE VALUE OF THE SECURITIES — In addition to the level of the Index during the Observation Period, the value of the securities will be affected by a number of economic and market factors that may either offset or magnify each other, including:

- whether the Index closing level has exceeded the Upper Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period and, if not, whether the level of the Index is close to the Upper Barrier;
 - the expected volatility of the Index;
 - the time remaining to maturity of the securities;
 - the market price and dividend rate on the common stocks underlying the Index;
 - interest and yield rates in the market generally and in the markets of the component stocks underlying the Index, and the volatility of those rates;
 - a variety of economic, financial, political, regulatory or judicial events that affect the component stocks underlying the Index or markets generally;
 - the composition of the Index and any changes to the component stocks underlying it;
 - supply and demand for the securities; and
 - our creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in our credit ratings.
- NO DIVIDEND PAYMENTS OR VOTING RIGHTS — As a holder of the securities, you will not have voting rights or rights to receive cash dividends or other distributions or other rights that holders of stocks comprising the Index would have.
 - THE VALUE OF THE SECURITIES IS SUBJECT TO OUR CREDITWORTHINESS — An actual or anticipated downgrade in our credit rating will likely have an adverse effect on the market value of the securities. The payment at maturity on the securities is subject to our creditworthiness.
 - CERTAIN BUILT-IN COSTS ARE LIKELY TO ADVERSELY AFFECT THE VALUE OF THE SECURITIES PRIOR TO MATURITY — While the payment at maturity described in this term sheet is based on the full Face Amount of your securities, the original Issue Price of the securities includes the agent's commission and the cost of hedging our obligations under the securities through one or more of our affiliates. As a result, the price, if any, at which Deutsche Bank (or its affiliates), will be willing to purchase securities from you in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original Issue Price, and any sale prior to the maturity date could result in a substantial loss to you. The securities are not designed to be short-term trading instruments. Accordingly, you should be able and willing to hold your securities to maturity.
 - THE SECURITIES WILL NOT BE LISTED AND THERE WILL LIKELY BE LIMITED LIQUIDITY — The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange. Deutsche Bank AG or its affiliates intend to offer to purchase the securities in the secondary market but are not required to do so and may cease such market-making activities at any time. Even if there is a secondary market, it may not provide enough liquidity to allow you to trade or sell the securities easily. Because other dealers are not likely to make a secondary market for the securities, the price at which you may be able to trade your securities is likely to depend on the price, if any, at which Deutsche Bank AG or its affiliates is willing to buy the securities.
 - TRADING BY US OR OUR AFFILIATES MAY IMPAIR THE VALUE OF THE SECURITIES — We and our affiliates are active participants in the equity markets as dealers, proprietary traders and agents for our customers, and therefore at any given time we may be a party to one or more equities transactions. In addition, we or one or more of our affiliates may hedge our exposure from the securities by entering into various transactions. We may adjust these hedges at any time and from time to time. Our trading and hedging activities may have a material effect on the prices of the component stocks underlying the Index and consequently have an impact on the performance of the Index, and may adversely affect the Index Return and/or may cause the Index to close above the Upper Barrier. It is possible that we or our affiliates could receive significant returns from these hedging activities while the value of or amounts payable under the securities may decline.

- WE AND OUR AFFILIATES AND AGENTS MAY PUBLISH RESEARCH, EXPRESS OPINIONS OR PROVIDE RECOMMENDATIONS THAT ARE INCONSISTENT WITH INVESTING IN OR HOLDING THE SECURITIES. ANY SUCH RESEARCH, OPINIONS OR RECOMMENDATIONS COULD AFFECT THE LEVEL THE INDEX TO WHICH THE SECURITIES ARE LINKED OR THE MARKET VALUE OF THE SECURITIES — Deutsche Bank AG, its affiliates and agents publish research from time to time on financial markets and other matters that may influence the value of the securities, and we may express opinions or provide recommendations that are inconsistent with purchasing or holding the securities. Any research, opinions or recommendations expressed by Deutsche Bank AG, its affiliates or agents may not be consistent with each other and may be modified from time to time without notice. Investors should make their own independent investigation of the merits of investing in the securities, and the Index to which the securities are linked.
- OUR ACTIONS AS CALCULATION AGENT AND OUR HEDGING ACTIVITY MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT THE VALUE OF THE SECURITIES — We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the securities, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the securities. In performing these duties, the economic interests of the calculation agent and other affiliates of ours are potentially adverse to your interests as an investor in the securities.
- THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES ARE UNCLEAR — There is no direct legal authority regarding the proper U.S. federal income tax treatment of the securities, and we do not plan to request a ruling from the IRS. Consequently, significant aspects of the tax treatment of the securities are uncertain, and no assurance can be given that the IRS or a court will agree with the treatment of the securities as prepaid financial contracts. If the IRS were successful in asserting an alternative treatment for the securities, the timing and/or character of income thereon might differ materially and adversely from the description herein. As described above under “Certain Tax Consequences,” on December 7, 2007, Treasury and the IRS released a notice requesting comments on various issues regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of “prepaid forward contracts” and similar instruments, such as the securities. Any Treasury regulations or other guidance promulgated after consideration of these issues could materially and adversely affect the tax consequences of an investment in the securities, possibly with retroactive effect. Both U.S. and non-U.S. holders should review carefully the section of the accompanying product supplement entitled “Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences,” and consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the securities (including possible alternative treatments and the issues presented by the December 7, 2007 notice), as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.
