Note 3 – Segment Reporting, page 10

1. We have considered your response to prior comment one regarding your accounting for compensation received for contractual services performed on behalf of investors and the application of Rule 4-10(c)(6)(iv)(C) of Regulation S-X. We understand that you have been contemplating making a distinction between the role of managing oil and gas producing activities and the responsibilities you may have as an operator of properties in which you hold an interest. However, as expressed in our April 24, 2013 conference call,

Jonathan Samuels
Triangle Petroleum Corporation

we do not believe the guidance in Rule 4-10(c)(6)(iv)(C) of Regulation S-X accommodates the interpretation you have proposed, as we generally regard an operator of oil and gas properties to be a manager that is subject to the prohibition imposed by this guidance. Therefore, you would be precluded from recognizing income for contractual services performed on properties in which you hold an interest and serve as an operator. We understand that you will revise your accounting policy to conform. Please explain how you intend to report the correction in your financial statements to comply with FASB ASC 250-10-45-23. Please also revisit your disclosures about the effectiveness of your disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting.

You may contact Michael Fay, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3812 or Jenifer Gallagher, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3706 if you have questions regarding the comment and related matters. Please contact me at (202) 551-3686 with any other questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Karl Hiller
