Form 10-Q for Fiscal Quarter Ended June 30, 2017

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

1. We note the continual increases in mortgage and non-mortgage revenues and comparable increases in related selling and marketing expenses. We also note that revenues from each of the non-mortgage products in the aggregate exceeded mortgage product revenues in each of the first two quarters of fiscal 2017. Please tell us and revise future filings to discuss the relationship between incremental selling and marketing costs for each mortgage and non-mortgage product and their respective revenues for the periods presented.
