1. We note your response to prior comment 2 that you did not have any material capital commitments for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, and re-issue such comment. Please expand your disclosure to explain any material changes in any capital commitments and anticipated sources of funding for such activities or provide an analysis in necessary detail as to why you continue to believe that you did not have any material capital commitments for the above-referenced fiscal years. In this regard, we note that your research and development expenses doubled for 2012 from 2011. Also, please disclose your capital expenditures budget for 2013. Refer to Item 303(a)(2) of Regulation S-K. For guidance concerning this disclosure requirement, see SEC Release No. 34-26831, Part III.B (May 18, 1989). If you have not determined such budget at the time of your filing, please disclose such information in your filing.
