Sales and Growth Assumptions, page 13

1. Please expand your disclosure to describe the basis of your goals of generating 500 applications per month and an additional 300 applications over the next four months. Please also explain your goal to grow at a monthly rate of over 1%. For example, please explain whether these numbers were generated from any studies that the company has conducted, or comparisons to industries that you feel are analogous to the company. If you have no basis for these goals other than that these are your own ideal amounts, please so state.
