Dear Mr. Falco:

We have reviewed the above-referenced filings and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this letter within ten business days by amending your filings, by providing the requested information, or by advising us when you will provide the requested response. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing any amendment to your filings and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have further comments.

Form 8-K Amended November 5, 2013

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement, page 3

1. We note that you have deleted disclosure that had responded to comment 2 in our September 24, 2013 letter to you. Please disclose why Cellular Concrete Technologies, LLC separated its business in this way. Include disclosure of whether Cellular Concrete Technologies, LLC currently generates revenue from any source other than its arrangements with you.

Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets, page 3

2. We note your revision in the first paragraph on page 4 in response to prior comment 2. However, it remains unclear what your royalty obligation is. The text says you owe one quarter of one percent, which is 0.0025 or 0.25%; however, in the parenthetical you refer to 0.025%. Please revise as appropriate; if an ambiguity exists in the license, please add appropriate disclosure explaining how the ambiguity will be addressed.

Overview, page 6

3. Your revisions in response to comment 3 of our October 16, 2013 letter removed disclosure that addressed comment 6 in our September 24, 2013 letter to you. Please disclose the material hurdles that remain until you can sell the product commercially. Clarify whether Cellular Concrete Technologies, LLC ever sold the product using the licensed technology; if so, please tell us when the sales occurred, the amount of the sales, whether sales have been consistent since sales began, and whether sales have ever been profitable. From your revised disclosure, it should be clear why you have not yet been able to generate revenue from the product, what material steps have been taken to generate revenue from sales of the product, and when those steps occurred.
4. Please tell us with specificity where you provided the disclosure in response to prior comment 5.

Competitive Advantage, page 9

Competition, page 13

6. Please address that part of prior comment 8 that asked you to tell us the specific steps that you have taken to determine whether there are other lightweight structural concrete products that can provide some or all of the advantages relative to normal weight concrete that you say your product can provide. We note that you continue to refer to specific advantages in the last three bullet points on page 8 and in the first three bullet points on page 9. It remains unclear whether this section adequately discloses your competitive position as required by Regulation S0K Item 101(h)(4)(iv). Also, given your deletion of disclosure on page 8 regarding deterioration of the bubble with “excess free fall and vibration” and the relevance of batch temperature, it is unclear whether you provide balanced disclosure regarding your competitive position relative to other lightweight concrete competitors; please revise your disclosure as appropriate.

Government Regulations, page 13

7. Prior comment 9 sought disclosure in your filing. Please amend your Form 8-K accordingly.

Liquidity and Capital Resources, page 23

8. Please tell us with specificity where you revised the disclosure to address prior comment 10.
9. Please tell us with specificity where you revised the disclosure to address prior comment 11.
10. Please reconcile your response to prior comment 12 with your disclosure in the first risk factor on page 13 and elsewhere in your Form 10 amended May 29, 2012 that Accelerated Ventures Partners “will pay all expenses incurred by the Company until a business combination is effected, without repayment...” Does your response to prior comment 12 mean that the disclosure in your Form 10 was incorrect? If so, please provide us your analysis of the materiality of any potential liability for such Form 10 disclosure.

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions, page 27

11. Please address prior comment 15 as it applies to the other references to your “sole officer” in this section.

Rule 144, page 28

12. We note your disclosure added in response to prior comment 18; however, rather than merely referring to Rule 144(i)(2), please disclose when your shares could be sold pursuant to Rule 144. Avoid disclosure phrased in terms of what “may” be, and instead make clear when you believe the shares can be sold pursuant to Rule 144.

Exhibits, page 32

13. We note your response to prior comment 19. Please note that you may not waive compliance with your obligations under the Exchange Act.

Exhibit 10.7

14. We note your response to prior comment 2. Please file the schedules missing from exhibit 10.7.

Form 10-K for Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2013

15. We note your response to prior comment 21. We may have additional comments after you file your amended Form 10-K.
