General

1. We note your disclosure that any subscriptions that you receive prior to your announcement of a new quarterly NAV per share and the new per share purchase price will be executed at the price per share in effect on the date the subscription is received. Please tell us if there could be a delay in the time a subscription is submitted and the time received such that an investor may not know the actual purchase price at the time submitted. If so, please revise your disclosure to explain the impact of this delay on the pricing information available to investors and that investor orders submitted after a certain time period may be executed at a price not yet published. We may have further comments.
