Loan Agreements, page 89

1. We note that subsequent to year-end, you entered into a $100 million loan facility and that you repaid approximately $77 million of existing loans with proceeds from the new facility. Given that you have had a material change in your outstanding debt, please revise to include the change in debt and any related interest expense in your pro forma financial statements. In addition, please consider providing a pro forma capitalization table and table of contractual obligations to reflect this material change in your outstanding debt.
