Pitch Story

Title of your pitch: Bum Butt Wipes & Container

Short introduction of your pitch: Invest $2k+ and receive 1 container plus 16 single pkgs/rolls of toilet wipes, each containing 120 wipes, upon successful pitch close.

Your pitch story: Toilet Wipes & Container idea was created when I was changing my daughter's diaper. I was using the baby wipes and had an epiphany why older adults do not use wipes on themselves? We used baby wipes to make sure babies were totally clean to prevent infections from bacteria. Why not use wipes for adults? That's when I thought about wipes for adults to make sure adults were totally clean. Wipes placed in a container to keep to the wipes moist & fresh. That was the idea creation of Toilet Wipes and Container 25 years ago. Today you have similar products, being touted as wipes and some form of a container. My idea Toilet Wipes with Container was sent to Kimberly Clark the major manufacturer of toilet paper, wipes and other products. I was rejected by Kimberly Clark 25 years ago and now they are one of the companies making wipes such as Cottonelle flushable wipes. So the wipes are being used, by many people today. I have changed the name of my wipes to Bum Butt Wipes and Container. Bum is a slang term meaning buttocks, a British origin. The Bum Butt Wipes with Container has been designed to provide a more sanitary manner in which to cleanse yourself after urinating or defecating. The wipes will harness an appropriate amount of hypoallergenic and aloe to create a moist, soft tissue that will be comfortable for the user. Oftentimes, not all of one's waste is cleaned from the rectal or vaginal area. This proposed product will ensure that all of the waste is removed. The wipes will be confined within a moisture contained apparatus that will keep the wipes sanitary, as well as, protected from outside air that will be too arid to keep the wipes' moisture confined. The dispenser could be operated by battery or manually.

Which category does your pitch belong to: Household

Target Market

Target market: The market potential for Bum Butt Wipes with Container should be fairly large with its given market segment(s). This product is designed as a treated toilet tissue that will contain enough moisture to successfully remove all human waste from the rectal and vaginal area of the body. It will be dispensed from a plastic battery or manually operated container that will be designed to harness the moisture within the wipes. With its benefits and /or advantages, this product should have strong appeal when it comes to a consumer purchasing decision. Manufacturers who would have the capability to produce an item in this product category should show interest in the Bum Butt Wipes with Container as they would have a well-defined market in which to sell the product. Any product, such as Bum Butt Wipes with Container that can be used by or targets, the mature market, increases its potential sales volume in the current marketplace and in the future marketplace, as the "baby boomers "enter the mature market segment. Bum Butt Wipes with Container would be classified as a "non-seasonal" product in some parts of the country. In other words, it should enjoy strong and steady sales. The seasons of the year would have little, if any, effect on the sales. As far as the potential market for the Bum Butt Wipes with Container, it is quite large. The market for this product is not limited to the United States. There could be a substantial International Market in which this product could be marketed and sold. Although this may not be true for most third-world countries, it is for most of the world. This would include countries such as those in the European Community (England, France, German, Italy, worth of goods), Australia, Russia and in many South American countries.

Production plan

Production location: North America

Production plan: Although manufacturers are willing to sell directly to the consumer, most go through distributors and wholesalers. This makes the job for the manufacturer much easier and tends to be more effective. This is called a two-step distribution system. The Manufacturer first produces and packages the product, then ships it to a regional wholesaler/distributor. The distributor will break up the large shipment, repackage the product into smaller amounts, and ship it to the retail outlet within his market area. The retail outlet then makes the product available for purchase by the consumer. When analyzing the potential categories of businesses to sell the Bum Butt Wipes with Container, one looks to two areas in particular:

- General merchandise stores
- Miscellaneous retail stores

Within General merchandise stores, the Bum Butt Wipes with Container may be sold in:

- Department stores
- Variety stores
- Miscellaneous general merchandise stores

With Miscellaneous retail stores, the Bum Butt Wipes with Container may be sold in:

- Drug and proprietary stores
- Catalog and mail-order businesses
- Direct selling establishments
- Internet businesses to consumer websites

There should be an ample number of outlets in both the wholesale and retail areas to handle this product and a number of publications available for this item to be advertised for internet and or mail order. The Bum Butt Wipes with Container should be readily available to consumers in any part of the country.
