Recognition:

Boichik Bagels LLC (DBA Boichik Bagels) opened in late 2019. They were an instant hit and managed to thrive throughout Covid, expanding with wholesale business, web order pickups and their own delivery system to avoid third party fees. In March 2021, The New York Times declared them the best in the country! The demand for excellent bagels is enormous, and they're making plans for massive growth. They've built a huge bagel plant in West Berkeley & shop in Palo Alto, CA, and are now creating more stores across the Bay Area, and then beyond.

About:

Boichik Bagels LLC (DBA Boichik Bagels) successfully recreated one of the most iconic bagels of New York City. They have been a hit since day one and now have a frozen wholesale bagel operation, while producing plenty of fresh bagels for retail, sandwiches, businesses and catering. They'll be using the funds raised for bakery and foodservice equipment for the new retail shops they are building.
