

The background is a comic book illustration. On the right, the Hulk is depicted in a green, muscular form, roaring with his mouth open. On the left, a character with a white mask and a blue suit is shown from the chest up, holding a large, grey, mechanical chain. The Hulk's hand is visible, gripping the chain. The background is a mix of red, yellow, and green colors, with the word 'WOLF' in large yellow letters at the top. The overall style is classic comic book art with bold lines and a limited color palette.
