BUSINESS AND ANTICIPATED BUSINESS PLAN

7. RAIDatech has exclusive rights to the provisionally-patented RAID A (Redundant Array of Independent Detection Agents) technology.

RAIDatech's go-to-market strategy currently outlines six key areas where RAID A is being productized and one sphere for huge potential opportunities.

A $1 trillion market for secure engagement tools; reaching 1% market share in these markets using RAIDatech's unique and patented technology would equate to $10 billion in annual revenues.

Market	Current Market Size	1% Marketshare
Patient Medication Adherence	$400,000,000,000	$4,000,000,000
Customer Engagement	$216,666,666,667	$2,166,666,667
Anti-Counterfeiting	$150,000,000,000	$1,500,000,000
Secure Data Transmission	$125,000,000,000	$1,250,000,000
Secure Communications	$60,000,000,000	$600,000,000
Asset Tokenization	$60,000,000,000	$600,000,000
	$1.01 Trillion	$10.12 Billion

Medication Adherence

Healthcare providers, pharmacists and pharmaceutical companies all know that medication adherence can be the single biggest impact on health outcomes, but that only 40-50% of patients routinely keep to prescribed regimens. This leads to immeasurable human costs, hundreds of billions in avoidable healthcare expenses and equal distress to the bottom line of pharmaceutical companies—money that could be used to develop new and innovative treatments and cures.

Pharmaceutical companies could make an additional $400 billion per year by maximizing medication adherence, and RAIDatech Patient AIO (All-in-One) solution can help them do it. A 1% market share would generate $4 billion in revenue.

Customer Engagement

Customer Engagement is expected to become the single largest component of the marketing mix in the coming years. Half of all companies reported plans to increase spending on customer engagement, currently around $1.3 trillion. One in six marketing dollars is spent on innovation, representing a potential market of at least $200 billion.

Every business faces three challenges with customer engagement:

- Engagement: How can brands get millennials to tune in, interact, become part of their customer family and extend that engagement for a lifetime?
- Stewardship: How can brands reduce their carbon footprint and attract customers concerned about sustainability?
- Security: How can brands stop counterfeiting of brand products using authentication technologies at an affordable price?

OFFERING STATEMENT

1,070,000 Units of Ownership Interest at $1.00 per Unit
	# Of Units	Total Proceeds	Net Proceeds
Target Offering	10,000	$10,000	$9,200
Maximum Amount	1,070,000	$1,070,000	$980,860

RAIDatech's AIO (All-in-One) Engagement tools allow brands to engage in a sustainable, affordable and secure manner that no other solutions company can match. A 1% market share of a $200 billion (and growing) sector would be at least $2 billion.

Anti-Counterfeiting

Counterfeiting costs brand owners at least $1.5 TRILLION annually. RAIDatech provides the most effective and affordable solutions to stopping counterfeiters.

Consumers lose, too. Thousands have died or been sickened by counterfeit food and beverages. Trade in illegal goods costs 4 million legitimate jobs globally. RAIDatech solutions allow consumers identify fake products.

At least $150 billion in tax collection each year worldwide ends up in the hands of criminals instead of being used for schools, hospitals or other worthwhile projects. RAIDatech helps agencies keep counterfeits off the streets and tax dollars flowing where they are most needed.

We have cultivated potential business with major companies interested in RAIDatech anti-counterfeiting solutions. These include companies in the consumer packaging industry, wine/spirit bottle closures, collectibles, and other sectors impacted by counterfeiting.

We are optimistic about closing deals with one of these prospective partners that could generate tens of thousands of dollars each month as a reliable stream of sustained revenue. Anti-counterfeiting solutions globally are a $150 billion per year industry—if RAIDatech could realize a market share of just 1%, it would mean $1.5 billion in revenues. This is a crowded market with many competitors, but all rely on technology that is vulnerable to hacks and none can deliver a solution that can absolutely not be profitably counterfeited.

Secure Data Transmission

We read or hear every day about Fortune 500 companies and governments being hacked or compromised. RAIDatech provides the only 100% secure data transmission protocol. It simply cannot be hacked, intercepted, compromised or manipulated, even by quantum computers.

The global secure file transfer market will grow to a $1.6 billion market in the next five years, and only 10% of enterprises have adequate protection. There is significantly less competition in this sector and, again, none can provide 100% secure, quantum-safe solutions, let alone provide any solution as affordably as RAIDatech. This industry provides significant opportunity to gain market share and brand awareness.

We have generated considerable interest in RAIDA DATA, a protocol for the secure transfer of data in real-time. Possible interested parties include well-known companies in oil and gas, technology and healthcare, where government regulations require the kind of solution only RAIDatech can deliver.

Global spending on information security will top $125 billion in 2019. A 1% market share would equate to over $1.2 billion in revenues.

Secure Communications

OFFERING STATEMENT

1,070,000 Units of Ownership Interest at $1.00 per Unit
	# Of Units	Total Proceeds	Net Proceeds
Target Offering	10,000	$10,000	$9,200
Maximum Amount	1,070,000	$1,070,000	$980,860

Virtually every industry needs to protect private, proprietary or privileged communications. Current encryption technology is ineffective, inefficient and costly. RAIDAtech solutions solve these problems with unique, patented protection while also creating new and innovative ways companies can engage with their clients/customers, employees or other stakeholders.

The market potential for secure communications is estimated to grow to over $60 billion by 2025, without the added benefit of customer engagement/immersion. A 1% share of that market would translate to $600 million in revenues.

Asset Tokenization

Business owners need access to capital to grow their business, yet conventional approaches are time-consuming, costly and complicated. Investors want greater investment opportunities, expanded liquidity and transparent processes. The RAIDAQ Security Tokenization Platform offers fully compliant asset tokenization that's fast, safe and affordable.

The RAIDAQ Tokenization Platform has dozens of prospective clients currently considering using our solutions to tokenize their assets. This is a very immature but potentially revolutionary market sector. Digital asset solutions can speed transactions (and no technology can come anywhere close to approaching RAIDAtech's potential of 8 million transactions per second) while eliminating the cost and friction of countless middlemen and escrows services.

Digital asset tokenization gives investors greater control and more diverse liquidity opportunities. The revenue opportunities are difficult to project, but there are over 6 million private companies in the United States alone that could seek to tokenize their ownership units rather than use traditional (and most costly) public offerings. The average IPO costs $1.5 million to underwrite. RAIDAQ can offer digital tokenization at a fraction of that cost. The Federal Reserve Board estimates the value of non-public US companies at $5.3 trillion. Tokenization also has applications for real estate (globally worth $200 trillion) and just about any form of asset. Were RAIDAQ tokenization to attract just 1% of private companies (60,000 clients), tokenization of those assets alone could generate $600 million.

Quantum Safety

The advent of quantum computing is coming sooner than most expected. These advances were considered decades away just a few short years ago--there are limited-function quantum computers today and their capabilities will only improve. RAIDAtech is the only quantum-safe technology for authentication and data security.

Continuous advances in quantum computing, threaten to completely nullify the centerpiece of distributed ledger (blockchain) technology: asymmetric elliptic curve cryptography. The Quantum Era is near, if not already upon us, as many experts believe. Quantum computers rely on quantum mechanical phenomena like entanglement and superposition to operate on quantum bits of data (qubits). Traditional bits are binary: they are either ones or they are zeros. Qubits, essentially, can be ones, zeros or both at the same time. A quantum computer is able to process data millions of times faster than a traditional one.

We are, then, already in a post-blockchain environment. The next generation of technology to protect privacy, financial security and intellectual property will be effective only if it is quantum-safe and provides solutions to blockchain's problems with scalability, efficiency, governance and ecological harm.

RAIDAtech possesses the world's only quantum-safe technology that solves these problems and more. The future potential of having the only quantum-safe security technology is unlimited—a virtual monopoly on many of the solutions outlined above and potential revenues in the hundreds of billions of dollars.

RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

The SEC requires the company to identify risks that are specific to its business and its financial condition. The company is still subject to all the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments. Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider general risks as well as specific risks when deciding whether to invest.

An investment in the Company's securities involves substantial risk. Prospective investors should consider carefully the factors referred to below as well as others associated with their investment. In addition, this Memorandum contains forward-looking statements regarding future events and the future financial performance of the Company that involve significant risks and uncertainties. Investors are cautioned that such statements are predictions and beliefs of the Company and the Company's actual results may differ materially from those discussed herein. The discussion below includes some of the material risk factors that could cause future results to differ from those described or implied in the forward looking statements and other information appearing elsewhere in this Memorandum. If any of the following risks, or any additional risks and uncertainties not listed below and not presently known to us, actually occur, our business could be harmed or fail. In such case, you may lose all or part of your Investment.

Early Stage Company

This is a brand-new company. If you are investing in this company, it's because you believe in the idea and the market opportunity, the quality of the team, and the direction of the business to date. As a new company we have a limited operating history. The Company was organized on August 5, 2018. We have a limited operating history upon which you may evaluate our business and prospects. We are in the early stages of our business. Accordingly, we are in the initial revenue phase, and our activities to date have involved research and development, business planning, market testing and efforts to raise startup capital. Our business and prospects must be considered in light of the risk, expense and difficulties frequently encountered by companies in early stages of development, particularly companies in highly competitive and evolving markets. If we are unable to effectively allocate our resources, manufacture our products, generate sales, or obtain and grow our customer base, our business operating results and financial condition would be adversely affected and we may be unable to execute our business plan, and our business could fail. Investors could therefore be at risk of losing their investment.

Products and Services

Will there be sufficient market for our products and at what price point? We will only succeed if there is sufficient demand for products and services.

Competition

We compete with other companies. A number of competitors exist that either provide authentication, anti-counterfeiting, cybersecurity or related products and services. None, however, has a comparable security backbone to the patented RAID A technology. Competitors and other companies may directly compete with us.

Many of our competitors have greater brand recognition and greater financial, marketing and other resources. This may place us at a disadvantage in responding to our competitors' pricing strategies, technological advances, advertising campaigns, strategic alliances and other initiatives. Consequently, such competitors may be in a better position than the Company to take advantage of customer acquisition and business opportunities, and devote greater resources to marketing and sale of their product offerings. There cannot be any certainty that the Company will be able to compete successfully. If the Company cannot break through and compete successfully, investors may be at risk of losing their investment.

Management/Team

We depend on a small management team and depend on their skill and experience. Each has a different skill set. Our ability to raise sufficient capital may have an impact on our ability to attract and hire the right talent. Our success is dependent on our key personnel. We believe that our success will depend on the continued employment of our senior management and key personnel. If one or more members of our senior management were unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, our business and operations could be disrupted and this could put the overall business at risk, and therefore investors could be at risk of losing their investments.

We are controlled by our officers and directors. Our officers and directors currently hold the majority voting units, and at the conclusion of this offering will continue to hold a majority of the company's units. Investors in this offering will not have the ability to control a vote the board of directors.

We may not effectively manage growth. The anticipated growth of the Company's business will result in a corresponding growth in the demands on the Company's management and its operating infrastructure and internal controls. While we are planning for managed growth, any future growth may strain resources and operational, financial, human and management information systems, which may not be adequate to support the Company's operations and will require the Company to develop further management systems and procedures. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to develop such systems or procedures effectively on a timely basis. The failure to do so could have a material adverse effect upon the Company's business, operating results and financial condition. Investors could therefore be at risk of losing their investments if growth is not managed effectively.

Our efficiency may be limited while our current employees and future employees are being integrated into our operations. In addition, we may be unable to find and hire additional qualified management and professional personnel to help lead us. There is competition for qualified personnel in the area of the Company's activities, and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to attract and retain qualified personnel necessary for the development of our business. If this business cannot effectively hire employees to help the company grow, the business could be at risk overall of not succeeding, and investors therefore may be at risk of losing their investment.

Management has broad discretion as to the use of proceeds. The net proceeds from this Offering will be used for the purposes described under “USE OF PROCEEDS.” The Company reserves the right to use the funds obtained from this Offering for other similar purposes not presently contemplated, which it deems to be in the best interests of the Company in order to address changed circumstances or opportunities. This poses a risk to an investor should they be relying on current use of proceed forecasts for the investment as business conditions may require a change of the use of these funds.

Projections and Assumptions

It is difficult for us to accurately predict our earnings potential. Because of our short operating history, it is more difficult to accurately assess growth rate and earnings potential. It is possible that our company will face many difficulties typical for early stage companies.

Projections are speculative and are based upon a number of assumptions. Any projected financial results prepared by or on behalf of the Company have not been independently reviewed, analyzed, or otherwise passed upon. Such “forward-looking” statements are based on various assumptions, which assumptions may prove to be incorrect. Such assumptions include, but are not limited to (i) the future status of local, regional and international economies, (ii) anticipated demand for our products, (iii) anticipated costs associated with the development, marketing, sales and distribution of our products, and Accordingly, there can be no assurance that such projections, assumptions, and statements will accurately predict future events or actual performance. Any projections of cash flow should be considered speculative and are qualified in their entirety by the assumptions, information and risks disclosed in this Memorandum. Investors are advised to consult with their own independent tax and business advisors concerning the validity and reasonableness of the factual, accounting and tax assumptions. No representations or warranties whatsoever are made by the Company, its affiliates or any other person or entity as to the future profitability of the Company or the results of making an investment in the Shares. If our future projections end up being significantly different than currently projected, our business could be greatly impacted. Our business therefore may not be able to sustain itself without the projected future revenues. The business could be at risk of closing, and investors may therefore be at risk of losing their investments.

We expect our expenses to grow as the Company grows. Our expenses will increase as we build infrastructure to implement our business plan. For example, we may hire additional employees, expand our product offerings, and lease more space for our corporate offices. This poses a risk to the financial forecasts and current financial model of the Company.

The Company may not reach its sales goals. The Company has forecasted its capitalization requirements based on sales goals and cost containment measures; any reduction to these forecasts could make it difficult for the company to achieve its projected growth, which would affect available cash and working capital, ultimately affecting the Company’s financial condition. This could put the investor at risk of losing their investment.

Financing

The Company may require additional financing to support working capital needs. The

OFFERING STATEMENT

1,070,000 Units of Ownership Interest at $1.00 per Unit
	# Of Units	Total Proceeds	Net Proceeds
Target Offering	10,000	$10,000	$9,200

Company may need to explore additional financing transactions that management determines are in the best interest of the Company, including, without limitation, commercial debt transactions, private offerings of debt or equity securities, a rights offering, and other strategic alternatives. Such additional financing may not be available to the Company, or, if available, the Company may be unable to undertake such additional financing on terms that are advantageous to the Company. If the Company fails to raise additional capital in such an offering, or through other fund raising efforts, such a failure could have a material adverse effect on the Company, and investors in this Offering could be at greater risk of losing their investments due to the inability of the business to proceed with enough working capital to effectively run the Company.

There is no minimum capitalization for this offering and investors' subscription funds will be used by us as soon as they are received. There is no assurance that all or a significant number of units may be sold in this Offering. If only small portions of the units are placed, then we may not have sufficient capital to operate. There is no assurance that we could obtain additional financing or capital from any source, or that such financing or capital would be available to us on terms acceptable to us. Under such circumstances, the project would need to be scaled down, and would have a material adverse effect on our business.

Technology

The general adoption of new technology cannot be assured. The Company's products and services involve new technology and will be subject to social, economic, and technological adoption at the consumer, retail, and corporate level. The success of the Company will depend on the adoption of our products and services by all user groups, which will be dependent, long-term, on the bottom-up adoption cycle from customers vs. a top-down adoption from businesses. It is not possible to predict the adoption rate of the end customer due to the risk that our products will not be commercially or technologically adopted.

We must continue to enhance the features and functionality of our technology and product offerings. The effective performance, reliability and availability of our technology and product offerings are critical to our reputation and our ability to attract and retain users and customers. If we do not continue to make investments in product development and, as a result, or due to other reasons, fail to attract new and retain existing customers and investors, this could significantly decrease the value of our products and services to all customers and stakeholders. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in developing, marketing and selling new products and services that meet changing demands, that we will not experience difficulties that could delay or prevent the successful development, introduction, and marketing of these products and services, or that any new products and services and their enhancements will adequately meet the demands of the marketplace and achieve market acceptance.

General economic and market conditions

Other economic and public health conditions in the markets in which we operate, including rising commodity and fuel prices, higher labor costs, increased transportation costs, natural disasters, terrorist attacks, outbreaks of public health pandemics or other diseases, or third party conduct could negatively impact our business. Various economic and public health conditions can have a significant negative impact on our business. Significant increases in the costs of other products, which are required by consumers, such as gasoline, home heating fuels, or groceries, may reduce discretionary spending by our target market, which would negatively impact our business. Economic conditions may also be negatively impacted by terrorist attacks, wars and other conflicts, increases in critical commodity prices, or the prospect of such events. Such a weakened economic and business climate, as well as consumer uncertainty created by such a climate, could harm our revenues and profitability.

In addition to experiencing potentially lower or no revenues from our products during times of economic difficulty, in an effort to maintain sales during such times we may need to reduce the price of our products, increase our promotional spending, or take other steps to encourage consumer purchases of our products. Those steps may lower our net revenues, if any, decrease our operating margins, increase our costs and/or lower our profitability.

Intellectual Property

We are developing proprietary technologies, processes, software, and products relating to the authenticity and security space. Although reasonable efforts will be taken to protect the rights to our intellectual property and patent, the complexity of international trade secret, copyright, trademark and patent law, coupled with our limited resources and the demands of quick delivery of products and services to market, create risk that our efforts will prove inadequate. Further, the nature of the business demands that considerable detail about our innovative products be exposed to competitors.

If we incur costly litigation and our personnel are not effectively deployed, the expenses and losses incurred may increase, and our business will suffer material adverse effects, or may fail.

Regulation

We could become subject to regulation in various jurisdictions. The technology sector is ever-changing and so is the regulator environment. We cannot anticipate the time and expense it would take to manage compliance issues in a global marketplace.

We are relying on certain exemptions from registration. The units are being offered for sale in reliance upon certain exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. If the sale of the units were to fail to qualify for these exemptions, purchasers may seek rescission of their purchases of the units. If a number of purchasers were to obtain rescission, the Company would face significant financial demands, which could adversely affect the Company as a whole, as well as any non-rescinding purchasers.

The units are restricted securities and a market for such securities may never develop.

Investors should be aware of the potentially long-term nature of their investment. Each purchaser of units will be required to represent that it is purchasing such securities for its own account for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution. Purchasers may be required to bear the economic risks of the investment for an indefinite period of time. The Company has neither registered the Shares, nor any other securities under the Securities Act. Consequently, shareholders may not be able to sell or transfer their securities under applicable federal and state securities laws. Moreover, there is no current public market for the Company's securities, such a market is not likely to develop prior to a registration undertaken by the Company for the public offering of its securities for its own account or the account of others, and there can be no assurance that the Company will ever have such a public offering of its securities. Ultimately, each investor's risk with respect to this Offering includes the potential for a complete loss of his or her investment.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

The Offering price is arbitrary. The price of the Shares offered has been arbitrarily established by the Company, without considering such matters as the state of the Company's business development and the general condition of

VALUATION

The 5 Methods Used

These methods are combined in a weighted average that applies the weights (see above image) according to the stage of development of the company (assessed by the valuation software), giving more emphasis on the 2 qualitative methods for early-stage businesses, and vice versa.

The weights for the above mentioned valuation methods are: Scorecard (33%), Check-list (34%), Venture Capital (11%), DCF- Long Term Growth (11%), and DCF with Multiples (11%). The full valuation report (17 pages) is part of this offering and is to be found on the in the Offering’s Documents Section.

The valuation was calculated at pre money $10,700,000.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

The right to demand current distributions from an operating business is limited. A majority owner, if she is committed to avoiding any distributions to a minority owner, can usually avoid making any distributions of profits. By establishing generous reserves for future expenses, paying a salary to herself or her relatives at the high range of what is reasonable, pre-paying expenses, investing in new business or new equipment, leasing expensive cars, etc., a majority owner can spend enough that there are rarely any profits to be distributed. So long as the expenses are not grossly unreasonable, the investor, probably, won't be able to force the company to allow you to share in any of the current income of the company.

No right to participate in any management decisions of the company. The majority owner may make a decision that the investor think is bad and puts your interest in the company at risk. The investor may see the majority owner running the company into the ground. The investor can try to convince him that it is the wrong decision, but he doesn't have to take your calls.

The investor has limited rights, if any, to have your interest bought out. You may want to cash out your interest and do other things with the money. State law may give you the right to force the company to buy you out, but these rights are limited.

While the investor would be entitled to a share of any profits on sale of the entire business, a sale can be structured in a way to avoid any payout to minority owners, such as a sale of assets over time with the proceeds reinvested in another business.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including:

- Additional issuances of securities:

Following the investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interest to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the investor in the Company. The Investor might have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured. The amount of additional capital needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and the objectives of the Company.

- A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer:

As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for shareholders.

- Transactions with related parties:

The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management and the Board of Directors of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its shareholders. By acquiring an interest in the company, the investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

NONE.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history? Yes No
28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations.

RAIDAtech spent much of its first round of funding to establish the business and in R&D. There have been limited revenues in the form of detection agent licenses, which is a way to expand and enrich the RAID network architecture while generating revenues at the same time.

The company had moderate losses during 2018 and was very close to being profitable for the first quarter of 2019. The company expects similar results for the 2nd quarter of 2019 with the first significant revenues and profits in the third quarter of 2019.

Independent Accountant's Review Report

The Board of Directors
RAIDAQ, LLC.

Accountant's Responsibility

My responsibility is to conduct the review engagements in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require me to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether I am aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. I believe that the results of my procedures provide a reasonable basis for our report.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on my reviews, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
