BUSINESS AND ANTICIPATED BUSINESS PLAN

7. Describe in detail the business of the issuer and the anticipated business plan of the issuer.

THE SHIFT is unabashedly a science fiction film. It is also unabashedly a faith-based film. A theo fiction. It's something new. Most of all, it is a modern day, sci-fi re-telling of the story of Job.

Job's story is a familiar one to any person of faith, but it's one we rarely see on screen or in fiction. Typically, modern faith-based stories are about a person coming to faith from a place of unbelief. What's striking about Job's story is that he is a person who already has faith and is then seemingly abandoned by God and severely tested. Job's test isn't to change his ways and arrive at a place of faith, it is simply to endure. It's to make the choice, every day, to still believe despite all hardship and evidence to the contrary.

THE SHIFT is a film about choice, in this case the choices made by Kevin Garner, a man whose marriage is struggling and whose employment is in jeopardy. In this moment of crisis, he is approached by the devil, Satan himself, and offered fame, wealth, and happiness in exchange for doing the devil's bidding. Kevin ultimately refuses, but then must live with the consequences of that decision: now, he's on the devil's radar in a whole new way.

All of us, every day, either give into temptation or choose what is right instead. The world is set against us and circumstances fluctuate, but the same choice is always before us: faith in the long haul or self-interest in the short term. In the end, Job proved worthy of God's faith in him. The question is: can Kevin do the same?

This is Kevin's story and the story of THE SHIFT: a Christ-centered story that doesn't preach but simply shows a good, albeit flawed man endure his extraordinary trial of faith as the devil rages against him.

THE SHIFT is not just for the faith-based crowd. Though the faith connections will be there, as a science fiction film and a human story of love and trial, it will be accessible to a number of audiences.

This is not a film designed to preach. As in the short film, characters, ideas, and events will be presented without special commentary, allowing the viewer to have their own experience and decide for themselves what the film is about. Those who do not have faith have already connected with THE SHIFT short film on a completely different level. Some see it as a fable about the importance of communication, others as a humanist parable about the difficulty of existence. Still others just enjoy it for the sci-fi-ness of it all, taking pleasure in the mystery and the speculative nature of its mythology.

Over the last several years, faith-based films have been firmly established as a large and thriving niche market, often breaking into the box office top ten on their week of release. To cite recent examples, Breakthrough (starring Chrissy Metz and Topher Grace) brought in worldwide ticket sales of over $50,000,000 and I Can Only Imagine (starring Dennis Quaid) opened with over $17 million receipts in its first week of release, eventually reaching a total of over $83,000,000. Before that, Heaven is For Real (starring Jennifer Garner) scored a domestic total of over $90,000,000 in receipts in 2014. Faith-based films are in a growth period, but they can only keep growing if they continue to offer audiences something new.

A large part of the appeal of THE SHIFT is in the way its marriage of two genres that almost never otherwise meet opens the film up to all kinds of audiences. As both a sci-fi film and a faith-based film, THE SHIFT has a crossover appeal that could help it potentially reach new people and new markets. The intention is to reach them via a theatrical release, and also through the VidAngel streaming platform.

THE SHIFT is a chance to put something good into the world. It's a chance to share a thought-provoking and challenging story of faith and struggle that can inspire and be appreciated by anyone.

RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

- (1) As a faith-based, niche film, the potential market is smaller than your average blockbuster
- (2) We desire to obtain a theatrical release, among its other methods of distributions, but we cannot guarantee that we can get this for The Shift

- (3) The revenue we could generate will vary greatly based on factors that we cannot quantify, including things such as ultimate cost of production, methods of distribution later negotiated, audience interest, etc.
- (4) Audience tastes change and evolve, thus even if The Shift starts out with good publicity, there is no guarantee that viewership would remain high enough to create a profit for the investors
- (5) Competition for The Shift at the time of release cannot be known, nor its effects on the outcome of viewership to The Shift at the time of release
- (6) We are unable to plan ahead significantly for appropriate distribution channels. One option is through VidAngel, which may or may not be functioning as an ongoing business at the time of our release, pending results of its litigation and bankruptcy filings, and other distribution channels may not be arranged immediately at the time of release, if ever.

THE OFFERING

9. What is the purpose of this offering?

To fund the creation of The Shift, a feature film about a frustrated man struggling with his marriage and in his job who is offered a job by the devil and then must live with the consequence of his choice.

10. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

Use of Funds:	If Target Offering Amount Sold	If Maximum Amount Sold
Portal Intermediary Fees	$32,000	$42,800
Pre-Production Expenses	$70,000	$70,000
Production	$350,000	$450,000
Post-Production	$58,000	$60,000
Misc. Expenses (Accounting, QTP Fees, Locations, Insurance, Travel, Hotels, Food, Rentals, Actors, Advertising, etc.)	$190,000	$263,200
Unknowns (Emergencies, reshoots, loss and damages, etc.)	$100,000	$175,000
Totals:	$800,000	$1,070,000

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

If the offering reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline, we may elect to do an initial closing of the offering and then continue to raise funds up to the maximum amount up to the deadline or until the maximum is raised. Upon closing, a notice will be sent to each investor indicating the amount of securities purchased. The units will not be certificated and you may access your investments in your VAS Portal, LLC user account.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met.

If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled, and the committed funds will be returned.

You may cancel your investment commitment with the above restrictions directly in your VAS Portal, LLC account by clicking on the cancel commitment button.

OWNERSHIP AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The Offering

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered:

The securities being sold are Class A Preferred Units of The Shift, LLC and carry with it a preferred return of the full 120% of the investor's investment before the common unit holders receive any profit payment.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?  Yes  No

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?  Yes  No

Explain: Pursuant to the Operating Agreement and on the rules for Regulation Crowdfunding, the investors holding Preferred Units have limitations on their ability to transfer their interest.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Amendments to the Operating Agreement can be made by a majority of the Membership Interest in the Company and so the Preferred Units are protected from negative changes by the Manager's fiduciary duties to represent all of the members of the Company.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Being Offered

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one-year period beginning when the securities were issued unless such securities are transferred:

- (1) to the issuer;
- (2) to an accredited investor;
- (3) as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
- (4) to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

The securities being offered are also subject to approval and rights of first refusal to the Company and other members.

NOTE: The term “accredited investor” means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term “member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent” includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term “spousal equivalent” means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Description of Issuer’s Securities

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Securities (or Amount) Authorized	Securities (or Amount) Outstanding	Voting Rights	Other Rights

Preferred Units	1,112,800	0	No	Preferred return of 120% before distributions to Common Unit holders

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

Could be diluted by raising more money.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?  Yes  No

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

Because the securities purchasers in this offering do not control the day-to-day operations of the Company, the Manager of the Company may make decisions that the investors do not approve of or that harm the interests of the investors.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The price of the units being offered in this offering were determined based on estimated future revenues. In the future, these securities may be valued based on any number of appropriate methods including a cost approach, market comparables, discounted cash flow, liquidation value, etc. There is currently no set method for determining value.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

As a minority interest holder, the investors in this offering cannot control any day-to-day decisions of the Company that might affect the value of their interest.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including:

- additional issuances of securities,
If additional issuances are made, the investors in this offering may become diluted
- issuer repurchases of securities,
The Company does not have a right to repurchase the securities unless the investor is attempting to transfer them
- a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer; or
The risk here is if the issuer does not want to sell but the Common Members choose to sell. The investors in this offering have the preferred return so if this happens they would get paid out first before Common Unit holder get paid out.
- transactions with related parties?
Although the Manager of the Company may enter into related party contracts, his fiduciary duties to all members are what protect the investors in this offering from abuse.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

The Company owes $800.00 to the State of California as part of its formation costs.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?  Yes  No

28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations.

There is no real operating history. Brock Heasley has expended capital in the formation of the entity, but there are no current operations that would affect the liquidity of the company, and no capital resources are yet needed until if this offering closes, but then the Company would have the capital to produce the project.

As stated in the pitch video for this offering, Brock Heasley's experience with losing his job at the same time as his wife makes him uniquely qualified to write and direct the story of man who finds himself at his lowest point with only his past experiences with God to rely on for faith when all other evidences are absent. Additionally, Brock is an accomplished storyteller in various mediums, including books, comics, and, most crucially, film. He also currently has a tv show in active development with Oops Doughnuts Productions, giving him a well-rounded education not only in storytelling but in the business of making content that an audience wants to see.

There is a short film video on the portal's page for this offering. The short film is the concept video for the project contemplated by this offering. It is described in the Section entitled Business and Business Plan of the Company. If the offering successfully closes, the Company intends to produce a full length film based on the short film.

There is a pitch video on the portal's page for this offering. The pitch video is Brock Heasley describing where the idea for this film came from, the message it is trying to give and why he thinks the offering would interest potential investors.

There is a place-holder for a live-stream video in which Brock Heasley will discuss the short film and the similar concepts for his reasoning in creating it, the message it is intended to portray, the production process, etc. Any questions asked during the live-stream will use the portal's built-in Q&A forum for the offering to allow investors to ask questions and get answers from the offeror that are offering specific. Once filmed, this live-stream will be recorded and stay on the portal's page for this offering.
