RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

Investment in the Issuer is a purchase of a debt security, specifically, a debt security that pays principal plus interest monthly for the duration of the outstanding debt. The primary material factor that makes investment in a debt security speculative or risky is the Issuer's ability to service the debt through cash generated by revenue. Therefore, any material changes to revenue will impact the Issuer's capacity to service the debt. These factors may include, but are not limited to a sufficient decline in sales of its products and/or services, unforeseeable extraordinary expenses incurred in its operations, and/or taking on more debt than is viable for the business to service.

NOTE: Avoid generalized statements and include only those factors that are unique to the issuer. Discussion should be tailored to the issuer's business and the offering and should not repeat the factors addressed in the above. No specific number of risk factors is required to be identified.

THE OFFERING

USE OF FUNDS

1. What is the purpose of this offering?

CaDraftTech LLC intends to use the proceeds from the offering to purchase a second company vehicle and two new pumps which will be used to double their service capabilities and revenue prospects. They also intend to use the proceeds to develop their website and wrap their company vehicle in commercial plastic for further branding and marketing purposes.

2. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

NOTE: An issuer must provide a reasonably detailed description of any intended use of proceeds, such that investors are provided with an adequate amount of information to understand how the offering proceeds will be used. If an issuer has identified a range of possible uses, the issuer should identify and describe each probable use and the factors the issuer may consider in allocating proceeds among the potential uses. If the issuer will accept proceeds in excess of the target offering amount, the issuer must describe the purpose, method for allocating oversubscriptions, and intended use of the excess proceeds with similar specificity.

63% will be used to purchase a second company vehicle, 14% will be used to purchase two new pumps, and 23% will be used for their website, wrapping of the company vehicle and cash reserves.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

3. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

The following describes the method and the process to invest in the Issuer/Company's debt securities, including how the Issuer/Company will complete an investor's transaction(s) and deliver securities to the investor.

- 1) Auction Process – The offering will use the Auction method to arrive at a price for the bond security's final clearing yield (interest rate at which the bond is repaid at). During an auction, potential investors bid within a pre-set range of yields. A successful auction arrives at a single offering yield, which is the yield at which the last available unit of securities in the offering is sold. SMBX's auction method is known as a 'modified-dutch auction' (MDA), which is a type of 'uniform price offering' (UPO). The ultimate goal of an MDA on the SMBX is to arrive at a uniform yield or what we called a final clearing yield for the bonds.
- 2) Investor Commitment – The Investor will place bid order(s) through the SMBX mobile app, the SMBX Investment Center web client, or the SMBX Investment Center mobile web client by inputting the total amount they would like to invest at a preset value of $10 per bond and a preferred yield within the preset yield range that they would like to receive for the repayment of the bond. In an auction process however, the investor should be mindful that there will be other investors that may bid at a lower yield than their own bid(s), so their bid(s) may potentially be outbid in the event there are more investors than available bonds. Once the bid order(s) are placed, the investor will then receive order confirmation(s) via email with their bid order details. An investor has up to 48 hours before the close of an offering's auction to cancel their bid order(s).
- 3) Investor Transfer of Funds – The initiation for a Transfer of Funds will happen simultaneously when an order is placed. The bid order(s) will sit in the investor's portfolio as pending until the transfer of funds is complete. The funds will sit in an escrow account on behalf of the issuer until the close of a successful offering.

- 4) Progress of the Offering – The Investor will receive periodic email updates on the progress of the offering including how much has been raised so far and how many days till the end of the offering.
- 5) Closing of an Offering: Original Date – At the close of the offering, investors with ‘winning bids’ will receive an email notifying that they have been allocated a number of bonds and that the final clearing yield has been defined as a specific interest rate. The final clearing yield may potentially be a higher yield than what an investor has place a bid on, however, it will never be lower than the yield they requested. The investor will also be asked to reconfirm their bid orders within 5 business days by clicking on a link included in the email. Orders not reconfirmed within 5 business days will be cancelled and refunded to investors’ bank accounts or credit cards. For investors that did not get allocated any bonds, they will receive an email notifying them that their bid orders have been outbid and that they will receive a refund to their bank accounts or credit cards.
- 6) Early Closing – In the event an offering has met its 21 day minimum open requirements and has been fully subscribed before the offering’s original close date, the Issuer/Company may choose to settle the auction and close the offering early. The offering’s auction will then be settled on the issuer’s/company’s direction by the SMBX and the final clearing yield will be determined at that moment in time. An email notification will be sent to all investors (both with winning bids and those who have been outbid) and those with winning bids will proceed with the reconfirmation process as per above in #5. All investors who have been outbid will receive notification that they have been outbid and that funds will be refunded to their bank accounts or credit cards. The decision for an early closing and the email notifications will be sent at least 5 business days prior to the original close date.
- 7) Securities Transfer(s): Bond Certificates – After an offering is confirmed to be fully subscribed and all investors with ‘winning bids’ have reconfirmed their bid orders, the Issuer/Company will direct SMBX to issue on their behalf, the electronically signed bond certificates in pdf format to investors via email. The bond certificates will be the investors’ authoritative copy of ownership of the bonds. All bond certificates have unique identification codes that the Issuer/Company and the SMBX have records of. If you misplace or lose your bond certificate(s), please contact support@thesmbx.com and notify them that you need a replacement certificate. SMBX and the Issuer/Company will then update and void your old certificate(s) on our records and issue you new certificate(s) via email.
- 8) Portfolio Entry – On the same day investors receive their bond certificate(s) via email, they will see the bonds registered in their portfolio under Bonds. That bond issuance date will also be the first day their bond securities will start accruing interest for the month. Investors will then start receiving principal + interest (earnings) on their bond securities exactly 1 month on the same day of the bond issuance date (except if the day lands on a holiday or weekend or on a day that a particular month may not have the same day i.e. the 31st, then repayments will be recorded and credited the following business day).

4. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: An Investor’s right to cancel: An investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline and the investor has a 'winning bid', post the closing process including a reconfirmation of the investment commitments by investors, the funds will be released to the issuer upon the closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment(s).

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the investor about the offering and/or the Issuer/Company, the investor will be provided notice of the change and must reconfirm his or her investment commitment within five business days of receipt of the notice. If the investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notifications disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within five business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Issuer/Company, the Issuer/Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the investor will receive, and refund the investor's funds.

Overview

CaDraftTech is a California based independent draft technician business built with the goal to be the most innovative, up-to-date, and environmentally conscious draft tech provider in the state. They provide draft tech services to Bay Area breweries and bars that include tap maintenance, installation and design, equipment rental for events and other range of services to ensure that every glass of beer is represented in the way the brewer intended: clean, bright, fresh, and hoppy.

Over the last 1.75-year period, from 2018 through 2020, CaDraftTech has experienced a 600%+ year over year growth, with minimal marketing due to the low competition and it being one of the few draft technician businesses in the Bay Area.

CaDraftTech intends to continue to grow its products and services to become the premier draft technician business in the Bay Area and beyond. To do so strategically, CaDraftTech will firstly purchase a second company vehicle and additional pumps which will double their resource capabilities and revenue prospects. They also intend to finish their website and push more marketing content through their social channels. Further,

CaDraftTech will conduct a Regulation Crowdfunding offering on the SMBX platform, so as to engage with its community and the businesses they service by rewarding them with the financing profits that would otherwise go to the bank.

Milestones

CaDraftTech was incorporated as California state Limited Liability Company in 2018, doors opened for business in May 2018.

- CaDraftTech has experienced 600%+ year over year growth and continue to grow at a rapid pace

Historical Results of Operations

- Revenues & Gross Margin. For the period ended December 31, 2019, the Company had revenues of $51,296 compared to the year ended December 31, 2017, when the Company had revenues of $6,552 (please note operations began in May 2018 which accounts to why gross profit was distorted due to the initial setting up costs for supplies and equipment). Our gross margin was 100% in fiscal year 2018 and 2019 due to the nature of our business which is a service oriented business with little to no cost of goods sold and only expenses.
- Assets. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had total assets of $17,358 while as of December 31, 2018, the Company had total assets of $2,111. All assets were in cash for both years.
- Net Gain/Loss. The Company has had net gains of $20,972 and net losses of $6,081 for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, respectively.
- Liabilities. The Company's liabilities totaled $739 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 and $0 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018.

The Company's ability to be a going concern is not dependent on reaching our minimum funding target. We have a history of bootstrapping our services and operations and will be able to scale back as necessary to continue operations regardless of capital raised. If our offering is not successful, we will likely still purchase a second company vehicle and additional pumps at some point but the timing will be dependent on our cash flow generated from sales and services or other means of financing. In the event our offering is successful and we reach our minimum funding target, we will deploy approximately 63% to purchase a second company vehicle, 14% to purchase two new pumps, and 23% will be used for our website, the wrapping of the company vehicle and cash reserves.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

The Company has assets in the form of cash, valued at $17,000+.

Runway & Short / Mid Term Expenses

CaDraftTech cash on hand is $17,758 as of December 31, 2019, which makes all of its assets, liquid. Over the last fiscal year, the period of January through December 2019, revenues have averaged $4,000+/month, and operational expenses have averaged $2,500/month. There are no material or extraordinary trends in our financial operating history.

Our intent is to grow our service revenues by 50% through the deployment of a new company vehicle and additional pumps, which will double our resource capabilities and ability to take on additional clients. This amounts to expected average monthly services revenue of $8,000+, with very little additional increase in operational costs.
