About YoungBoy Never Broke Again and "Cross Me"

Originally known as NBA YoungBoy, YoungBoy Never Broke Again is a highly prolific rapper from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, who has attracted a loyal following for his uncompromising street narratives. His debut album, the platinum-certified Until Death Call My Name, hit the Top Ten of the Billboard 200 when it appeared in 2018, and the rapper followed up that effort with multiple releases that year, including the album Realer which includes track "Cross Me." That album was also subsequently certified platinum in the United States.

YoungBoy Never Broke Again's 2019 mixtape, AI YoungBoy 2, topped the Billboard 200 chart. The rapper remained in the upper reaches of the chart in 2020 with multiple mixtapes before hitting number one with his sophomore album, Top. He closed his whirlwind year with yet another mixtape and a collaboration with Rich the Kid, Nobody Safe. YoungBoy returned to the top of the Billboard 200 with 2021's Sincerely, Kentrell, additionally collaborating with Birdman for the mixtape From the Bayou and releasing the 2022 mixtape Colors.

The first use recording of "Cross Me" was released by YoungBoy Never Broken Again in December 2018 and features major label artists Lil Baby and Plies. The single was certified platinum in the United States in 2020.

Royalty Share Agreement Terms

The "YoungBoy NBA – Cross Me" Royalty Share Agreement will be between the songwriter and our company. Pursuant to the Agreement, SongVest will have the right to receive 50% of the songwriter's performance revenue share for the life of the copyright listed below. Revenues the company will be entitled to receive from the copyright listed below (asset) pursuant to this agreement include revenues earned in connection with the public performance of the copyright, which will be paid at the percentage interest as defined in the "YoungBoy NBA – Cross Me" Royalty Share Agreement. Sales shall be determined by reference to the royalty statements from the royalties paid to the songwriter quarterly by Royalty Exchange, which shall be conclusive and binding upon the Parties, absent manifest error.

Financial Highlights

The royalties paid over the last four quarters from the revenue stream contemplated in the "YoungBoy NBA – Cross Me" Royalty Share Agreement have averaged approximately $474 per quarter.

The decrease in royalties from Q1 2019 to Q3 2020 was driven by reduced streaming performance royalties as the composition, whose underlying recording was released in December 2018, aged over time.
