COMPANY OVERVIEW

Thanks to its garden patio, Café Guarani is a relaxing spot to sit with a mocha. There's a little, special cafe that leads to a lovely garden, a true oasis alongside the not-soothing environs of Central Avenue in Pacific Grove. Café Guarani has a foreign vibe and makes one think about cities of Paraguay and Argentina, about the Mediterranean or summer cafes in European capitals. On the coffee menu one finds everything from cafe au lait to many iced options. Among the coffee classics, the cafe lists Guatemalan mocha and Guatemalan spiced mocha. Either fits the mood of the place – perfect meeting of coffee and chocolate based on milk of your choice. The spice version will make your blood flow. But Café Guarani is more than a reliable coffee place. It comes with a fun food menu that includes not only lunch options, but also original baked goods, like cookies with maracuja marmalade and heavenly milk horns also with maracuja marmalade (with cream or plain). The cafe is also a kingdom of empanadas and, on the beverage side, a destination for yerba mate drinkers. The interior is wonderful on its own, with worn, comfortable couches, small tables and upholstered armchairs. But it's the back garden that's the real treasure, a space with many plants and flowers. Red umbrellas over barrel tables with tall chairs are inviting, as are the outdoor couches that could fit a group of six. That said, when it's not busy, Café Guarani is a quiet place, perfect for an hour of quiet work on your laptop, a caffeine boost or a quick lunch.

Café Guarani is located at 111 Central Ave., Pacific Grove. 747-1551, cafeguarani.com

Company History

Pandemic Didn't Deter This Family Restaurant on her knowledge and recipes. Soon after, Liliana developed a passion for pastry and cake decoration, and both worked side by side on many projects, including catering an event for Pope John Paul II in the mid 90s with Ofelia in Paraguay. However, she took a hiatus from the culinary industry and accepted a job as a phlebotomist at the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula while honing her culinary skills and gaining recognition through her online business: Liliana's Cakes. After thirteen years at CHOMP she retired. Then in April 2020, of the Covid- 19 pandemic, she opened Cafe Guarani, a unique restaurant and bakery offering Paraguayan food and pastries located at 111 Central Avenue, Pacific Grove in the building formerly occupied by Tilly Gort's, Café Guarani's menu offers traditional Paraguayan empanadas including beef ham, vegan, break-egg) and soy, American Empanadas are also on the menu including

Title: Ceo

Work History: Café Guaraní

Biography: Cafe Guarani brings a taste of Paraguay to Pacific Grove. Now more than ever, food is about so much more than sustenance. Restaurant dining rooms may be empty, but local eateries still bustle with camaraderie and solidarity. It's fitting that Cafe Guarani arrives in Pacific Grove during the coronavirus pandemic, when we're all craving community and connection. The new cafe and bakery has been a lifelong dream of owner Liliana Rodas de Araujo as a celebration of Paraguay's Guarani people. involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

You Might Lose Your Money

When you buy a certificate of deposit from a bank, the Federal government (through the FDIC) guarantees you will get your money back. Buying a Note is not like that at all. The ability of the Company to make the payments you expect, and ultimately to give you your money back, depends on a number of factors, including many beyond our control.

COVID-19 Might Have a Negative Material Effect on the Company

This offering is being launched at a time when the COVID-19 pandemic is requiring the closure of many businesses, large and small. The effects COVID-19 may have on economic activity are likely substantial and unknown; there is no guaranty the Company will not suffer material negative effects as a direct or indirect result of the pandemic.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive. The Company competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality and price of products, location and customer experience. Changes in customer preference away from the Company's core business or the inability to compete successfully against other competitors could negatively affect the Company's financial performance.

Licensing Risk

The Company may face changes in the state and federal laws in connection to any licensing required for the sale of its products. Such changes would require the dedication of Company resources to address or amend its current operations which may adversely affect its business strategy or profitability.

Interest Rate Might Not Adequately Compensate For Risk

Theoretically, the interest rate paid by a company should compensate the creditor for the level of risk the creditor is assuming. There is no certainty that the interest rate on your Note will compensate you adequately for the level of risk.

No Right to Participate in Management

As the owner of a Note, you will not have the right to control the Company in any way or to participate in its management. You should invest (buy a Note) only if you are willing to rely completely on the Company's management team.

Reliance On Management Team

Like almost all small businesses, the Company relies exclusively on the abilities of its management team. Should any of them die, leave the Company, or become ill for a long period of time, the Company would be damaged and might not repay your Note.

Limited Products And Services

Most small, local businesses sell only one or two products or services, making them vulnerable to changes in technology and/or customer preferences.

Supplier Risk

The Company relies on third-party suppliers for the materials used in the manufacture of its products. If any of these suppliers changes the pricing, distribution, terms of service, or relationship with the Company, this could materially affect its business and/or profitability. Factors outside of the Company's control, including general market conditions, may affect its relationship with these suppliers. In addition, its ability to meet the obligations of its customers may be adversely affected if its suppliers fail to comply with agreed-upon services or quality standards in a cost-effective or timely manner.

Risk of Economic Downturn

The products the Company sells are luxuries, not necessities. In the event of a recession or other economic downturn, customers might curtail their purchase of our products.

Environmental Risk

The Company is subject to the risk of environmental liability and limitations on operations due to environmental laws and regulations. The Company is subject to extensive federal, state, and local environmental, health and safety regulations. The risks of substantial costs and liabilities related to compliance with these laws and regulations is an inherent part of the Company's business. Future conditions may develop or be discovered that create substantial environmental compliance or remediation liabilities and costs.

Price Risk

The Company competes in an industry with a commodity product where the Company may not have control of the prices it will receive for its product or the prices it must pay for inputs. Price uncertainty may negatively impact the Company's business and financial situation.

Use of Funds Risk

At the discretion of the Company's executive management team, funds raised in this offering may be used differently than specifically outlined in this document's Use of Funds section.

Personnel Risk

The Company uses human personnel to produce its product. Accidents, illnesses, death, divorce, or lack of productivity could negatively impact the ability of personnel and, therefore, the business.

Lack Of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies like the Company lack these controls, exposing themselves to additional risk.

Reputation Risk

The success of the Company depends on the reputation of its brand. Adverse publicity concerning the Company's products or the Company itself could negatively impact the future of its business.

The Company Might Need More Capital

The Company might need to raise more capital in the future to expand its operations, buy property and equipment, hire drivers and other personnel, market its products and services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests as an investor. If the Company is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations altogether.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If the Company needs more capital in the future, it might borrow money and/or sell stock, and the new investors might have rights superior to those of an investor owning a Note. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to have a greater voice in management, or otherwise.

Inability To Sell Your Note

The law prohibits you from selling your Note (except in certain very limited circumstances) for one year after you acquire it. Even after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. Even if you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these factors, you should be prepared to hold your Note for its full term.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, an individual investor will not have the right to enforce his, her or its rights – for example, by bringing a lawsuit. Instead, the investors will appoint a representative using a procedure set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement. It's possible that the investors as a group will appoint a representative you don't like, or that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. Once a default has occurred and a representative has been appointed, all the expenses of the representative must be paid before any further payments are made with respect to the Notes.

Lack of Key Man Insurance

Although dependent on key personnel, the Company does not have any key man life insurance policies on any such people. In the event that such personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive compensation to assist for their absence and the loss of such person could negatively affect the Company.

The Owners Could Be Bad People Or Do Bad Things

The owners of the Company could be dishonest and take your money. Even people who are very honest sometimes do dishonest things in desperate situations – for example, when their company is on the line, or they're going through a divorce or other stressful life event. It is possible that the management of the Company, or an employee, would steal from or otherwise cheat the Company, and you.

Uninsured Losses

Although the Company will carry some insurance, we might not buy enough insurance to guard against all the risks of our business. Also, there are some kinds of risks that are simply impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Therefore, we could incur an uninsured loss that could damage our business.

Conflict Of Interest

In many ways your interests and the interests of the Company's management team will coincide: you all want the Company to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these:

- You might want to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much as they can.
- You might want the Company to act conservatively to conserve its cash, while the management team might want to grow more quickly.
- You might want the Company to look out for your interests, while the management team might subordinate your interests to the interests of employees, other investors, or others.
- The lawyers who prepared the legal documents represent the interests of the Company, not the interests of investors.

No Registration Under Securities Laws

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither the Company nor the Notes are subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Incomplete Offering Information

Title III does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other kinds of securities offerings, such as a public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Title III does require extensive information, as described above, it is possible that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Lack Of Ongoing Information

The Company will be required to provide some information to investors for at least one year following the offering. However, this information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company; and the Company will be allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements Of National Securities Exchanges

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to a number of rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require listed companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material outside relationships with the company or management), which is responsible for monitoring the company's compliance with the law. The Company will not be required to implement these and other investor protections.

Cost of Enforcement

If the Company defaulted, investors would have to engage lawyers and possibly other third parties to enforce their rights. The cost of enforcement could be prohibitive.

Other Lenders Could Have Superior Rights

The Company will take out other loans. In itself this is not risky, but these lenders will likely have a claim to collateral superior to the collateral claimed by the Note. For example, the lenders might have a claim to the future cash flows or equity ownership of the Company, or the equipment owned by the Company whereas the Note has a claim to the equipment purchased with its own proceeds. Moreover, the lenders might have clauses in their lending agreements with the Company that compel the Company to pay them first over other lenders. If the Company runs out of cash, and has a choice to pay the other lenders or the Holders of the Note, it might decide (or be required) to pay its other lenders first.

The Guarantors Might Not Have Money

The Notes are being personally guaranteed by Liliana Rodas. That means that if the company fails to make the payments required by the Notes, investors can look to the guarantors for payment. However, the guarantors themselves might not have the money to repay investors.

Details of Security Being Offered

The securities being offered to investors are promissory notes, which we refer to as "Notes." The Notes are governed by a separate document called a Note Purchase Agreement, which you can view on the "Investor Info" tab of the campaign page.

This section summarizes the principal features of the Note Purchase Agreement. However, this is only a summary. Before investing, you should read the Note Purchase Agreement in their entirety.

- The principal amount of your Note will be the amount you invest.
- Your Note will accrue interest at a rate of 11.00% per year. The accrual of interest will begin after a 30-day interim period following the closing date of the offering – that is, when the money paid by investors is released to the Company – not on the date you invest.

- The Company must pay the accrued interest on a quarterly basis (every three months), starting 30-days after the closing date of the offering.
- The Company must repay your principal (the amount you invested) 36 months from the end of the 30-day interim period or, if sooner, the date that the Company is sold or otherwise experiences a “change of control.” The Company may also prepay the Note. Any prepayments will first be applied to accrued interest, then to principal.
- All communications from the Company, including but not limited to all tax forms, will be via electronic delivery.
- All payments will be made in U.S. dollars as Automated Clearing House (ACH) deposits into an account you designate. If you don’t authorize the Company to make such ACH distributions into a designated account, payments will be made by check and mailed to you after deducting a $50 processing fee.
- Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company.
- If there is a default under your Note, you may not take collection action personally. Instead, you and the other investors will together appoint a single representative to represent all of you. This Administrative Agent will have the power to take any action against the Company that he or she believes is appropriate. The fees and any expenses of the Administrative Agent will be the responsibility of the Company, but the Administrative Agent will be paid before any additional amounts are paid to you or other investors.
- If you want to sell your Note, you must first offer to sell it back to the company – a so-called “first right of refusal.” If the Company doesn’t buy it, the Company may impose restrictions on the transfer. For example, the Company may require a legal opinion that the transfer is allowed under the securities laws.
- The Note offered does not have any voting rights.
- The Terms of the Note being offered may not be modified or amended.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Being Offered

The Note will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell it) for four reasons:

- The Note Purchase Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company’s consent.
- If you want to sell your Note, the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes as there would be for a publicly-traded company.
- For a period of one year, you will not be allowed to transfer the Note except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an “accredited” investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iv) in a public offering of the Company’s shares.

As a result, you should plan to hold your Note until maturity.

ADDITIONAL MATTERS RELATED TO THE SECURITY

1. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The Company does not have the right to change the terms of the promissory notes or the Note Purchase Agreement. However, it does have the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities. Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the promissory notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

2. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

The owners of the promissory notes will not have the right to share in the profits of the company or participate in the management of the company.

3. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

The principal shareholders could make decisions that are bad for the company and thereby adversely affect the economic interests of investors holding promissory notes. They could also issue other classes of securities with rights superior to those of investors holding promissory notes.

4. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The value of the Notes is determined by the face amount of the note payable to be issued. The terms of the Notes were determined by the Owner based on the Owner's opinion about the value of the project.

The Owner does not expect there to be any reason to place a value on the Notes in the future. In the event that future valuation is required, any value given the notes by the company will be determined in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

5. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

n/a

6. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

The company could issue securities with rights superior to those of the promissory notes.

If the company is sold, the owners of the promissory notes have the right to receive all of the principal and accrued interest.

Transactions with related parties – for example, the payment of excessive compensation – could reduce the amount of money available to make payments with respect to the promissory notes.

7. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

n/a

8. The issuer or any entities controlled by or under the common control with the issuer was not a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

1. any director or officer of the issuer;
2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;
4. or (4) any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

SECURITY INTEREST IN COLLATERAL

The Recitals are incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

1.2 Defined Terms.

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings given to them in the Form C filed by the Issuer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available on the Site, which we refer to as the "Disclosure Document." The Disclosure Document, together with this Agreement, the Notes, any security instruments (if applicable), and any other document or instrument executed in connection with any of the foregoing are collectively referred to as the "Loan Documents."

Whenever any payment is due on a day that is not a business day, such payment will be due on the next following business day. Each payment will be applied first to any fees charges and expenses authorized under the Loan Documents, including the reasonable fees and expenses of the Administrative Agent, then to accrued but unpaid interest on the Notes, and then to the outstanding principal balances of the Notes.

2.4 Equalization Among Holders.

Each Note is on parity with all Notes issued pursuant to this Agreement and rank equally, without preference among themselves. Any amounts to be distributed pursuant to this Agreement and the Notes to the Holders shall be made pro rata in proportion to the amount then outstanding under each Holder’s respective Note.

2.5 Maximum Lawful Rate.

In no event shall Issuer be obligated to pay interest on the Note to the extent it exceeds the highest rate of interest that may be lawfully contracted for, charged or received by such Holder, and in such event the Issuer shall pay such Holder interest at the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

2.6 No Right to Cancel.

Each Holder acknowledges and agrees that this is a commercial transaction and that the Holder has no right to cancel its subscription or rescind this Agreement. Once the Holder signs this Agreement, electronically or otherwise, the Holder is obligated to purchase the Note on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and as described in the Disclosure Document, including, but not limited to, instances where the principal amount of the Note is reduced consistent with the Disclosure Document.

2.7 Issuer's Right to Reject Subscription.

Each Holder acknowledges and agrees that Issuer has the right to reject the Holder's subscription for any reason or for no reason by returning the money provided to the Issuer to the applicable Holder's Designated Account whose subscription has been rejected.

(l) No Government Approval. Holder understands that no state or federal authority has reviewed this Agreement or the Note or made any finding relating to the value or fairness of the investment.

(m) No Advice. Each Holder acknowledges and agrees that the Issuer has not provided the Holder with any investment, financial, or tax advice. Each Holder has been advised to consult with its own legal and financial advisors and tax experts prior to entering into this Agreement.

(n) Tax Treatment. If any withholding tax is imposed on any payment made by Issuer to a Holder pursuant to a Note, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise payable with respect to such payment. Upon request of Issuer, the Holder shall provide the Issuer with an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or other similar withholding certificate of a State, local or foreign governmental authority such that the Issuer may make payments under the Note without deduction for, or at a reduced rate of deduction for, any tax. 3.7.12 5.7 Successor Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent (i) may resign as Administrative Agent by providing Notice ("Notice of Resignation") or (ii) shall resign if such resignation is requested by the Required Holders, by giving not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Holders and the Issuer. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, each Holder hereby acknowledges and agrees that Honeycomb Collateral LLC shall resign as the Administrative Agent and that the Holders must appoint a successor Administrative Agent on or before the date specified in the Notice of Resignation. Each Holder further acknowledges that Honeycomb Collateral LLC cannot hold or distribute funds on behalf of any Holder and that a successor Administrative Agent must be appointed prior to the receipt of any funds on behalf of any Holder in any Enforcement Proceeding or otherwise. If the Administrative Agent resigns under this Agreement, then either (a) the Required Holders shall appoint from among the Holders a successor agent for the Holders or (b) if a successor agent shall not be so appointed and approved within the earlier of: (i) the thirty (30) day period immediately following the Administrative Agent's Notice of Resignation; or (ii) the need to appoint a successor Administrative Agent to receive and distribute funds on behalf of Holders, as reasonably determined by Honeycomb Collateral LLC in its sole discretion, then the Administrative Agent shall appoint a successor agent who shall serve as Administrative Agent until such time as the Required Holders appoint a successor agent. For purposes of appointing a successor Administrative Agent, only, the Required Holders shall be determined by reference to Holders holding at least a majority of the then outstanding amount of the obligations evidenced by the Notes on an aggregate basis that have cast a vote timely. Upon its appointment pursuant to either clause (a) or (b) above, such successor agent shall succeed to the rights, powers and duties of the Administrative Agent, and the term "Administrative Agent" shall mean such successor agent, effective upon its appointment, and the former Administrative Agent's rights, powers and duties as Administrative Agent shall be terminated without any other or further act or deed on the part of such former Administrative Agent or any of the parties to this Agreement. After the resignation of any Administrative Agent hereunder, the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of such former Administrative Agent and such former Administrative Agent shall not by reason of such resignation be deemed to be released from liability for any actions taken or not taken by it while it was an Administrative Agent under this Agreement.

3.7.13 5.8 Calculations. In the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct, Holder acknowledges and agrees that there will be no liability for any error in computing the amount payable to any Holder whether in respect of the Notes, fees or any other amounts due to the Holder under this Agreement. 3.8.2 (b) Representation or Warranty. Any representation, warranty or certification by or on behalf of the Issuer shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect on or as of the date made or deemed made; or

3.8.3 (c) Insolvency. Issuer ceases or fails to be solvent or admits in writing its general inability to pay, its debts as they become due, subject to applicable grace periods, if any;

3.8.4 (d) Breach of Other Obligations. Issuer breaches a material obligation owed to a third party, including breach of any loan documents with another lender; or

3.8.5 (e) Involuntary Proceeding. The Issuer becomes subject to an involuntary proceeding of bankruptcy, insolvency, or otherwise subject to receivership and remains so for a period of ninety (90) days; or

3.8.6 (f) Change of Control. All outstanding principal and accrued interest shall be immediately due and payable upon a Change of Control of the Issuer. For these purposes, the term "Change of Control" means (i) the sale or other disposition of all or any substantial portion of the assets or equity securities of the Issuer; (ii) a change in more than fifty percent (50%) of the effective voting power of the Issuer; or (iii) any merger or reorganization of the Issuer, except a merger in which those in control of the Issuer retain more than fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the resulting entity; or

3.8.7 (g) Bankruptcy. Issuer files a voluntary bankruptcy proceeding.

3.8.8 6.2 Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default in Section 6.1(a)-(f), then the Required Holders may instruct the Administrative Agent to declare all amounts owed under the Notes to be immediately due and payable. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in Section 6.1(g), all amounts owed under the Notes shall automatically be accelerated and become immediately due and payable without prior written notice or demand. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default that is continuing, Holders shall have the right to exercise all rights and remedies available to them under this Agreement, any Loan Document, at law or in equity, consistent with the procedures set forth in this Agreement.

3.8.10 6.4 Force Majeure. An Event of Default shall not be deemed to have occurred if a breach or failure by the Issuer is caused by Acts of God, government restrictions (including the denial or cancellation of any export, close of business or other extraordinary measures), wars, insurrections and/or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Issuer; provided that the Administrative Agent shall give Holders written notice describing the force majeure in reasonable detail given the information presently available. Performance under the Notes is suspended for the period of time in which the force majeure is in effect, plus thirty (30) days thereafter (the "Force Majeure Period"). The Force Majeure Period may be extended further in the discretion of the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Holders pursuant to the procedures outlined in Section 5.3 of this Agreement. Any payments made by any Issuer during the Force Majeure Period are not subject to refund. The term length of the Note shall not be adjusted if the Force Majeure is put into effect.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

3.8.12 7.1 LIMITATIONS ON DAMAGES. NEITHER ISSUER NOR ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT WILL BE LIABLE TO ANY HOLDER FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, EVEN IF HOLDER DISCLOSES IT MIGHT INCUR THOSE DAMAGES. The maximum liability the Issuer or Administrative Agent may have to any Holder is the amount of such Holder's investment as evidenced by the Note.

3.8.13 7.2 NO CLASS ACTION CLAIMS. NO LAWSUIT SHALL PROCEED ON A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, OR COLLECTIVE BASIS. No party may join, consolidate, or otherwise bring claims for or on behalf of two or more individuals or unrelated corporate entities in the same lawsuit unless those persons are parties to a single transaction. An award shall determine the rights and obligations of the named parties only, and only with respect to the claims in the lawsuit, and shall not (i) determine the rights, obligations, or interests of anyone other than a named party, or resolve any claim of anyone other than a named party, or (ii) make an award for the benefit of, or against, anyone other than a named party. No administrator or arbitrator shall have the power or authority to waive, modify, or fail to enforce this paragraph, and any attempt to do so, whether by rule, policy, arbitration decision or otherwise, shall be invalid and unenforceable. Any challenge to the validity of this paragraph shall be determined exclusively by a court and not by the administrator or any arbitrator. If this paragraph shall be deemed unenforceable, then any proceeding in the nature of a class action shall be handled in court, not in arbitration

3.8.14 7.3 Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process; Waiver of Jury Trial.

3.8.15 (a) Issuer and each Holder hereby: (i) irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania and to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania for the purposes of any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any of this Agreement or the Notes or the subject matter thereof and brought by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Holder; (ii) waives and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action or proceeding, any claim that (A) it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts, (B) the action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum or (C) the venue of the action or proceeding is improper; and (iii) agrees that, notwithstanding any right or privilege it may possess at any time, such party and its assets are subject to suit on account of the obligations assumed by it hereunder.

3.8.16 (b) THE PARTIES WAIVE THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO ANY OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS OR THE SUBJECT MATTER THEREOF AND BROUGHT BY ANY OTHER PARTY.

3.8.17 (c) The Holders acknowledge that this is a commercial transaction, that the foregoing provisions for consent to jurisdiction, service of process and waiver of jury trial have been read, understood and voluntarily agreed to by them and that by agreeing to such provisions they are waiving important legal rights. The obligations of the parties under this Section will survive any termination of this Agreement.

3.8.18 7.4 Creditor-Debtor Relationship. The relationship between each Holder, on the one hand, and the Issuer, on the other hand, is solely that of creditor and debtor.

3.8.19 7.5 Expenses. Each party shall be responsible for its own expenses, including without limitation all attorney's fees which arise out of or relate to the documentation of this Agreement or the Notes. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or commencement of an Enforcement Proceeding, the costs and expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Holders, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, shall be added to and become a part of the obligations owed by the Issuer under this Agreement.

3.8.20 7.6 Notices. All notices, consents, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted hereunder: (a) will be in writing; (b) will be sent by electronic delivery, including all tax forms, to the email address provided by the Holder on the Site and shall be deemed transmitted when sent. Notices to the Administrative Agent and the Issuer may be sent electronically to the email addresses provided in their respective signature blocks.

3.8.21 7.7 Amendments. This Agreement and the Notes may be amended only by a writing signed by the Issuer on the one hand and by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Holders on the other hand, and any such amendment will be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

3.8.22 7.8 Confidentiality. Each of the Holders shall maintain in confidence in accordance with its customary procedures for handling confidential information, all written information that the Issuer, furnishes to Holders ("Confidential Information"), other than any such Confidential Information that become generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach by the Holders of its obligations hereunder or that is or becomes available to the Holders from a source other than the Issuer, and that is not, to the actual knowledge of the recipient thereof, subject to obligations of confidentiality with respect thereto.

3.8.23 7.9 Miscellaneous. This Agreement and the Notes: (a) may not be assigned, pledged or otherwise transferred, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior consent of the Issuer; (b) may be executed in electronically and in counterparts by the parties, which shall be deemed effective as an original and will constitute one and the same instrument; (c) contain the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby and supersede all prior written and oral agreements, and all contemporaneous oral agreements, relating to such transactions; (d) are governed by, and will be construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without giving effect to any conflict of laws rules; and (e) are binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. The waiver by a party of any breach or violation of any provision of this Agreement will not operate or be construed a waiver of any subsequent breach or violation hereof. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining portions hereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.
