Dear Mr. German:

We have limited our review of your filings to those issues we have addressed in our comments. Where indicated, we think you should revise your filings in response to these comments. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Amendment No. 1 to Registration Statement on Form S-1

General

1. We reviewed your free writing prospectus filed May 11, 2010 and, in particular, the disclosure in the second paragraph that “[t]he additional equity will extend the ability of the company to participate in Marcellus Shale gas transportation....” Please revise your prospectus to describe how the additional equity generated through the rights offering will extend your ability to participate in this project.

Q. What should I do if I have other questions?, page 7

2. We note that you changed the phone number for your subscription agent under this heading and the heading “Guaranteed Delivery Procedures” on page 16 but that these phone numbers are not the same number you include elsewhere in your prospectus or in Appendix A. We also note that the phone number included in the “President’s Letter” filed as a free writing prospectus on May 11, 2010 is not a toll-free number and also is different from all of the other phone numbers. Please revise, as appropriate.

Summary of the United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

3. It appears that your tax counsel has provided a short-form tax opinion. The exhibit 8 short-form opinion and prospectus both must clearly state that the discussion in the prospectus under the heading “Summary of the United States Federal Income Tax Consequences” is counsel’s opinion. It is not acceptable for the short-form opinion to state that the opinion “relates to the accuracy of the information set forth” under this heading or “that the discussion under [this heading] fairly summarizes the federal income tax considerations....” Please revise the prospectus and have counsel revise its short-form tax opinion to clearly state that the discussion in the prospectus is counsel’s opinion.

4. With your next amendment, please revise to include your Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed on May 12, 2010.

Appendix A - Form of Instructions as to Use of Corning Subscription Rights Certificate and Appendix B - Form of Subscription Rights Certificate

5. We reviewed your response to comment three in our letter dated May 4, 2010 and reissue this comment with respect to Appendix A and Appendix B.

Exhibit 8.1- Opinion of Nixon Peabody LLP

6. Please have counsel revise its opinion consistent with comment three above.
7. We note that counsel’s opinion is expressed as of its date and that counsel “undertakes no obligation to advise you of changes in law which may occur after” May 10, 2010. Since the opinion must speak to the date of effectiveness, please have counsel delete this statement or file an updated opinion at the date of effectiveness.
