The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on October 15, 2009, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The Division of Enforcement and the Office of the Secretary have provided evidence that the Commission delivered or attempted to deliver the OIP to Respondents by October 20, 2009, in a manner that complies with Rule 141 of the Commission's Rules of Practice. No Respondent filed an Answer and the time for filing Answers has expired.

By Order dated November 3, 2009, I stayed the proceeding in part because two Respondents, Diversified Senior Services, Inc., and Platinum Entertainment, Inc. (n/k/a Vidalia Gichner Holdings, Inc.), had agreed in principle to a settlement on all major terms.¹ I also ordered the other ten Respondents to show cause why they should not be held in default and why the registrations of their registered securities should not be revoked. No replies to that Order have been received and the time for replying has now expired. Accordingly, these ten

Respondents are in default. See Rules 155(a) and 220(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. As permitted by Rule 155(a), the following allegations of the OIP are deemed to be true.

Altiva Financial Corp. (ATVA) (CIK No. 1023334) is a void Delaware corporation located in Atlanta, Georgia, with a class of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12(g). ATVA is delinquent in its periodic filings with the Commission, having not filed any periodic reports since it filed a Form 10-Q for the period ended February 29, 2000. On April 19, 2000, ATVA announced that it was pursuing an orderly winding up of its business activities and seeking an arrangement with its creditors. As of October 13, 2009, the common stock of ATVA was quoted on the Pink Sheets, had four market makers, and was eligible for the "piggyback" exception of Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11(f)(3).
