This news release includes forward-looking statements, as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, reflecting management's current analysis and expectations, based on what management believes to be reasonable assumptions. Forward-looking statements may involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause the actual results to differ materially from those projected, stated or implied, depending on such factors as: changes resulting from finalization of earnings, changes resulting from ongoing reviews of tax liabilities, changes in tax laws or regulations and related liabilities, changes in tax rates, environmental and safety regulations and clean-up costs, adverse legal and regulatory developments, including increases in the number or financial exposures of claims, lawsuits, settlements or judgments, the impact of increased accruals and reserves for such exposures, the outcome of litigation and appeals, and adverse changes in economic and political climates around the world, including terrorist activities, international hostilities and potential natural disasters. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Company will meet future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. As appropriate, additional factors are contained in other reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This paragraph is included to provide safe harbor for forward-looking statements, which are not generally required to be publicly revised as circumstances change, and which the Company does not intend to update.

Notes:

- (1) Ongoing operations is a non-GAAP financial measure. The ongoing operations include Paper Technologies and Ventures, the Aqualon Group, and FiberVisions. Results from ongoing operations exclude impairment and accelerated depreciation charges for certain facilities within these businesses, which will have no further operating impact, severance, restructuring and other exit costs, litigation against and settlements with the Company's insurance carriers, and legal accruals, settlements and other charges related to divested businesses. It also excludes the impact of the prepayment and refinancing of long-term debt. Please refer to the above Table for the reconciliation of reported to ongoing operations for the quarter.
- (2) These accruals and settlements exclude asbestos and Vertac litigation matters.
- (3) Other primarily includes gains and losses related to formerly divested businesses and other costs.
- (4) Adjustment items have been tax effected at the U.S. federal statutory tax rate of 35% for 2007 and 2006, except for the loss on sale of FiberVisions. Valuation allowances have been established on this capital loss. Additionally, the related earnings per share impacts are based upon diluted shares totaling 114.9 million and 110.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and 2006, respectively.
- (5) Principally due to the resolution of the remaining IRS audit issues for the years 1993 - 2003.
