Risk Considerations

It is important for you to understand that this offering summary does not contain all of the material information an investor should consider before investing in the securities, including a more complete description of the risks relating to the securities. This offering summary is not for distribution in isolation and must be read together with the accompanying free writing prospectus.

Risks Relating to the Structure or Features of the Securities

- You may lose your entire initial investment
- You will not receive any contingent quarterly payment for any quarterly period where the determination closing price or the final share price, as applicable, is less than the downside threshold level on the related determination date.
- Your return on the securities is limited to the principal amount plus any contingent quarterly payments, regardless of any appreciation in the value of the underlying shares.
- The securities may be called prior to the maturity date.
- The amounts payable on the securities are not linked to the price of the underlying shares at any time other than on the determination dates, including the final determination date.
- Higher contingent quarterly payments or lower downside threshold levels are generally associated with underlying shares with greater expected volatility and therefore can indicate a greater risk of loss.

Risks Relating to the Underlying Shares

- Single stock risk.
- No affiliation with Exxon Mobil Corporation

General Risk Factors

- Credit risk of HSBC USA Inc.
- The estimated initial value of the securities, which will be determined by us on the pricing date, is expected to be less than the price to public and may differ from the market value of the securities in the secondary market, if any.
- The price of your securities in the secondary market, if any, immediately after the pricing date is expected to be less than the price to public.
- If HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. were to repurchase your securities immediately after the original issue date, the price you receive may be higher than the estimated initial value of the securities.
- Hedging and trading activity by our affiliates could adversely affect the value of the securities.
- The calculation agent, which is HSBC USA Inc. or one of its affiliates, will make determinations with respect to the securities.
- As a holder of the securities, you will not have any ownership interest or rights in the underlying shares.
- There is limited anti-dilution protection.
- In some circumstances, the payment you receive on the securities may be based on the shares of another company and not McDonald's Corporation.
- The securities are not insured by any governmental agency of the United States or any other jurisdiction.
- The market price will be influenced by many unpredictable factors.
- The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange and secondary trading may be limited.
- The U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the securities are uncertain.

Tax Considerations

You should review carefully the discussion in the accompanying free writing prospectus under the caption "Additional Information About the securities —Tax considerations" concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the securities, and you should consult your tax adviser.
