1. We note your response to prior comment 2. Please clarify your statement that you do not view "Amount available for dividends or other corporate purposes" as a liquidity or performance measure and tell us why you believe each of the reconciling items is appropriate to arrive at a non-GAAP measure for which the most directly comparable GAAP measure is Cash flows from operating activities. In addition, tell us how you considered Question 102.07 of the C&DI on Non-GAAP Financial Measures as it does not appear that you should imply that this measure represents the residual cash flow available for discretionary expenditures.
