Policy owners who have policy value allocated to one or more of the variable investment options which correspond to these investment portfolios may leave their policy value in those variable investment options, but future allocations and transfers into those variable investment options are prohibited. If your most recent premium allocation instructions includes a variable investment option which corresponds to one of these investment portfolios, premium received after April 28, 2006, which would have been allocated to a variable investment option corresponding to one of these investment portfolios will be allocated on a pro rata basis among all the other available variable investment options in which your policy value is allocated. If there are no other such variable investment options, you must provide us with alternative allocation instructions or the premium payment will be returned to you. Your failure to provide us with alternative allocation instructions and our return of your premium payment(s) may result in your policy entering the 61 day grace period and/or your policy lapsing without value. See Lapse, page 46.
