1. We note from your response to prior comment 2 that you do not provide hosting for the game play functionality of your game franchises and you are not required to provide support to the companies that provide the hosting; however your response did not address any implicit obligations to game players. Please tell us what consideration was given to ongoing performance obligations to players of Grand Theft Auto V and NBA 2K14. online functionality, such as multiplayer, similar to the analysis you provided for prior comments 8 and 9 in your response letter dated March 13, 2009. Also, describe any significant differences in the online play capabilities, such as multiplayer, of these titles compared to previous titles released under these franchises.

Item 11. Executive Compensation, page 58 (Incorporated by Reference from Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Filed July 28, 2014)

Compensation Discussion and Analysis, page 29

2. We refer to our prior comment 17 in our February 27, 2009 letter and your related response, and note that you continue to identify only four named executive officers in your executive compensation discussion. As noted in our prior comment, Item 402(a)(3)(iii) of Regulation S-K requires disclosure of your three most highly compensated executive officers, other than the principal executive and financial officers, who were serving at the end of the last completed fiscal year. Please provide us with an updated analysis for how you determined that no other individual is an executive officer as defined by Rule 3b-7 of the Exchange Act such that disclosure would be required under Item 402 of Regulation S-K. In preparing your response, please note that the definition of executive officer under that rule includes any vice president in charge of a principal business unit, division or function (such as sales, administration, or finance), any other officer who performs a policy making function, or any other person who performs similar policy making functions for the company.

You may contact David Edgar, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3459 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters.
