Credit Suisse First Boston Responds to SEBI Ruling

Mumbai, June 17, 2002 — Credit Suisse First Boston has today been informed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) of its decision to suspend Credit Suisse First Boston India Securities for two years in relation to transactions that took place in 2000 and 2001. The suspension's effective date is April 18, 2001.

CSFB has strenuously defended its position during the SEBI enquiry. The Firm is reviewing the terms of the ruling carefully and shall consider all recourse available to it.

CSFB is very disappointed with this outcome. However, CSFB respects and will abide by the ultimate outcome of the Indian regulatory and legal process, as with the regulatory and legal process in all jurisdictions in which it operates globally.

The Firm remains committed to its Indian clients and its international clients investing in India, and looks forward to resuming its full range of services to those clients.
