Notes:

1. Every member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting convened by this notice (the "Meeting") is entitled to appoint up to two individuals as his proxies to attend and vote instead of him. Where a member appoints two proxies to represent him, the form of proxy must clearly indicate the number of shares in the Company ("Shares") which each proxy represents and which proxy is designated as the voting proxy. If two proxies are appointed, only the voting proxy will be entitled to cast the member's vote(s): (a) on a show of hands; (b) if both proxies purport to cast the member's vote(s) in a different manner; and (c) on the exercise of a discretion. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. The number of proxies appointed by a Clearing House (or its nominee) (as defined in the Company's Bye-Laws) is not subject to the aforesaid limitation. If a member fails to specify the number of Shares which each proxy represents and/or the name of the voting proxy then, subject to the absolute discretion of the Chairman of the Meeting to decide otherwise, the member shall be deemed to have appointed the first-named proxy as his voting proxy and that such first-named proxy shall represent all the Shares held by him.
2. Subject to note 1 above in relation to a Clearing House, a member may only have one form of proxy valid at any one time and if a member submits more than one form of proxy, the last form of proxy received in the manner described in note 4 below shall be treated as the only valid form of proxy.
3. Where there are joint registered holders of any Share, any one of such persons may vote at the Meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such Share as if he were solely entitled thereto; but if more than one of such joint holders be present at the Meeting personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the registers of members in respect of such Share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any Share stands first will for this purpose be deemed joint holders thereof.

4. In order to be valid, the form of proxy, together with the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed (or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority), must be deposited at the Company's share registrars in Hong Kong, Abacus Share Registrars Limited, at G/F, Bank of East Asia Harbour View Centre, 56 Gloucester Road, Wanchai, Hong Kong, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the Meeting (or any adjournment thereof).
