INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of Equities Trading Corp.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Equities Trading Corp. (the "Company") as of May 31, 2003. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Equities Trading Corp. as of May 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2003

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Equities Trading Corp. (the "Company") was incorporated in the State of New York in June 1985 and commenced operations in February of 1986. The Company acts as a broker, executing transactions for customers and forwarding all such transactions to other broker-dealers and clearing brokers on a fully disclosed basis. The Company does not hold funds or securities for customers. Any funds or securities received by the Company are promptly transmitted to the clearing broker. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Commissions

The Company executes all of its customer trades through other member firms and records all securities transactions on a trade-date basis. The Company maintains its books and records on an accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

b) Income Taxes and Deferred Income Taxes

The Company is liable for federal state and local taxes as applicable. As of May 31, 2002 the Company had a net operating loss carry forward of $20,209 for both state and local taxes. The amount of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable is recognized as of the date of the financial statements, utilizing currently inacted tax laws and rates. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the financial statements for the changes in deferred tax liabilities or assets between years.

c) Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities and related revenue and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2003

3. Clearing Firm Deposits

The clearing firm deposits account consists of shares of money-market funds.

4. Receivable from Clearing Broker

The receivable from clearing broker is from commissions earned and is unsecured. Interest is paid on funds on deposit at fluctuating rates.

5. Securities Owned

The Company owns 500 common stock shares of the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. ("NASDAQ") together with warrants to purchase an additional 800 shares of NASDAQ. These stocks and warrants are recorded at fair market value. Management has elected to classify these equity securities as trading types, accordingly the unrealized loss of $3,650 for the period from June 1, 2002-May 31, 2003 is reported in the statement of operations. The warrants are exercisable as follows:

Exercisable on or after	Void after	Exercise price
June 28, 2002	June 27, 2003	$13.00
June 30, 2003	June 25, 2004	$14.00
June 28, 2004	June 27, 2005	$15.00
June 28, 2005	June 27, 2006	$16.00

As of May 31, 2003, none of the warrants were exercised.

6. Preferred Stock

The preferred stock entitles the holders to receive a cumulative dividend at the rate of 5 percent per annum of the par value of the preferred stock of the Company, payable annually, when, and if declared by the Board of directors, before any dividend shall be set apart or paid to the holders of the common stock.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

6. Preferred Stock (continued)

As of May 31, 2003, accumulated dividends in arrears due to preferred shareholders are as follows:

	•	Amount
Year Ending May 3	31, 1999	$ 3,700
W	2000	- 3,700
	2001	3,700
	2002	3,700
	2003	3,700
	Total	$18,500

In case of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, before any amount shall be paid to the holders of the common stock, the holder of the preferred stock shall be entitled to $100 per share and the dividends accumulated or declared and unpaid thereon, but shall not participate in any further distribution of the assets of the Company. The preferred stock may, at the option of the holder be converted to common shares of the Company at the rate of one common share for each preferred share tendered. The Company may redeem or purchase all or part of its preferred stock by paying to the holders the sum of the par value of each share plus the accumulated dividend per share. Preferred shareholders have limited voting rights.

7. Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the provisions of rule 15c3-3 under paragraph (k)(2)(a) in that the Company carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer refunds and delivers all securities received, does not otherwise hold funds or securities for or owe money or securities to customers, and effectuates all financial transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis.

8. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At May 31, 2003 the Company had net capital of $93,761, which was $43,761 in excess of its required net capital of $50,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .80 to 1.
