Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
McCourtney-Breckenridge & Company:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of McCourtney-Breckenridge & Company (the Company) as of June 30, 2003. The statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of McCourtney-Breckenridge & Company at June 30, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

McCourtney-Breckenridge & Company (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). The Company operates as a fully-disclosed introducing broker and does not maintain customer accounts or securities.

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to generally accepted accounting principles within the broker-dealer industry. Following is a description of the more significant of the Company's accounting practices:

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Security Transactions

Securities transactions and related revenues and expenses are recorded on a settlement date basis, which does not differ materially from a trade date basis.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. When retired or otherwise disposed of, the original cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and the net difference, less any amount realized from disposition, is reflected in operations.

Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes as follows: furniture and fixtures - 2 to 4 years; computer equipment - 3 years.

Income Taxes

Applicable income taxes are computed based on reported income and expenses, adjusted for permanent differences between reported and taxable income. The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes, in which deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using expected tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period which includes the enactment date.

Notes to Financial Statements

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

NOTE 2 - OPERATING LEASES

The Company leases office space and certain equipment under noncancelable operating leases which expire at various dates through December 31, 2006. Minimum rental commitments under these leases for each of the next four years and in the aggregate are as follows:

Year ending June 30:
2004	$ 34,789
2005	35,757
2006	33,846
2007	14,528
	$ 118,920

NOTE 3 - INCOME TAXES

The tax effects of temporary differences which give rise to deferred tax assets at June 30, 2003 are all the result of mutual fund trailing commissions.

The Company is required to provide a valuation reserve on deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not that some portion of the assets will not be realized. The Company has not established a valuation reserve at June 30, 2003, due to management's belief that all criteria for recognition have been met, including the existence of a history of taxes paid sufficient to support the realization of deferred tax assets.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the net capital rules (Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission. These rules prohibit a broker-dealer from engaging in any securities transaction at a time when its ratio of "aggregate indebtedness" to "net capital," as those terms are defined by the rules, exceeds 15 to 1. At June 30, 2003, the Company's net capital and required net capital were $347,818 and $100,000, respectively, and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .027 to 1.

NOTE 5 - UNSETTLED TRADES

The risk of loss on unsettled transactions is identical to settled transactions and relates to customers' or brokers' inability to meet the terms of their contracts. Credit risk is reduced by the industry policy of obtaining and maintaining adequate collateral until the commitment is completed. All unsettled trades at June 30, 2003 have been settled subsequent thereto.
