NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2003

NOTE 2 - CLEARING AGREEMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK

Clearing Agreements - The Company has entered into agreements with two broker/dealers (Clearing Broker/Dealers) whereby those Clearing Broker/Dealers will execute and clear securities transactions for the Company on a fully disclosed basis. Under the terms of one of the agreements, the Company is prohibited from entering into a similar agreement with another broker/dealer without prior approval of that Clearing Broker/Dealer. The Company has deposited $10,000 with one of the Clearing Broker/Dealers to assure the Company's performance under the agreement. This amount is included in "Receivable from broker/dealers" on the statement of financial condition. Under the terms of one of the agreements, the Company is required to pay a monthly minimum clearing and execution charge of $2,500 and maintain broker's blanket bond coverage of at least $500,000. In both agreements, the Company has agreed to regulatory arbitration regarding disputes between the Company and the Clearing Broker/Dealers. The two aforementioned agreements may be terminated by either party with 60 and 90 days prior notification. Additional provisions of the agreements state that the Company is to be held responsible for any losses arising when the customers introduced by the Company to the Clearing Broker/Dealers fail to meet their contractual commitments pertaining to the purchase, sale and possible financing of securities transactions. The Company may therefore be exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and it is necessary for the Clearing Broker/Dealers to purchase or sell the securities at a loss. The Company's exposure to risk would consist of the amount of the loss realized and any additional expenses incurred pertaining to the transaction or other customer activity.

Customer Transactions - Facilitated by the aforementioned clearing agreements, the Company's customers may enter into various transactions involving off-balance sheet financial instruments. These financial instruments include the purchase and sale of options that are used to meet the needs of customers. As a writer (seller) of options, the Company's customer receives a premium in exchange for giving the counterparty the right to buy or sell the security at a future date at a contracted price. In the normal course of business, these transactions involve the execution, settlement and financing of the customer options. These transactions may expose the Company to off-balance sheet risk in the event that the option is exercised and the customer or contra-broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

NOTE 3 - LEASE COMMITMENT

The Company is party to a noncancellable lease agreement for office space that expires April 30, 2004. The total expenditure for office space for the year ended March 31, 2003 was $87,341. This amount includes additional charges pursuant to the lease agreement. The net expense for the year was $55,073, which equals the total expenditure less the reimbursements mentioned in Note 4.

The minimum annual rentals under this lease, exclusive of additional payments which may be required for certain increases in operating and maintenance costs, are as follows:

Year Ending March 31	Minimum Payments
2004	$ 37,439
2005	3,132
Total	$ 40,571

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A shareholder of the Company is also a general partner of Pioneer Ventures, a Limited Partnership. The Company has received $32,268 from this entity for office space the Company has provided during the year ending March 31, 2003. No written agreement exists between these parties regarding the office space. Note 3 contains additional information regarding the Company's occupancy lease agreement.
