INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Board of Directors and Stockholder
ACN Securities Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of ACN Securities Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations and deficit, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ACN Securities Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were made for the purposes of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The additional information on page 7 is presented for the purpose of supplementary analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. ORGANIZATION

ACN Securities Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Angel Capital Network Inc., a California corporation ("ACN Inc."). In 2000, ACN Inc. acquired the 99.9% Partnership interest in Crimson Capital Securities, a "General Partnership" and the holder of a broker dealer license. A newly formed subsidiary, "ACN Securities Inc." acquired all the outstanding shares of Carlyle USA Inc., which held a 0.1% partnership interest as "The General Partner of Crimson Capital". A plan of merger was then executed whereby ACN Securities Inc. was merged into Carlyle USA Inc. ACN Inc. then transferred its Partnership interest in Crimson Capital Securities to Carlyle USA Inc. Immediately after the merger, Carlyle USA Inc. changed its name to ACN Securities Inc., Crimson Capital Securities was dissolved, and all of its assets were distributed to its sole partner, ACN Securities Inc., including its broker dealer license.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures.

3. NET CAPITAL AND RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

Under the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3, the Company is not required to segregate funds in a special reserve account for the exclusive benefit of customers, and is not subject to certain other requirements of the Customer Protection Rule.

4. RESTRICTED SECURITIES

The Company's restricted securities represent securities which if ever sold the proceeds resulting would be distributed to a former partner.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17A-5

To the Stockholder of
ACN Securities Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of ACN Securities Inc. for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and have issued our report thereon dated February 24, 2003. As part of our examination, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards. The purpose of our study and evaluation which included obtaining an understanding of the accounting system, was to determine the nature, timing, and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g), (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures including tests of compliance with such practice and procedures followed by ACN Securities Inc. that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5 (g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3 (a) (11) and the reserve required by rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of a system and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Rule 17a-5 (g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with them may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation made for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of ACN Securities Inc.. taken as a whole. However, our study and evaluation disclosed no condition that we believed to be a material weakness.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 and 2001, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission and should not be used for any other purposes.
