INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Nighthawk Partners, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Nighthawk Partners, Inc. as of January 31, 2003, and the related statements of income and changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nighthawk Partners, Inc. as of January 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The statement of computation of net capital is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
January 31, 2003

Note 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

Nighthawk Partners, Inc. (“Company”) was incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey on January 23, 1997. The Company provides marketing services to hedge fund managers and also arranges private placements of debt and equity securities. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) and is an introducing broker registered with the National Futures Association (NFA). The regulator for the NASD is the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and the regulator for the NFA is the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC).

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results inevitably will differ from those estimates, and such differences may be material to the financial statements.

Property, Equipment and Depreciation

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operating expenses. Additions to property and equipment or expenditures, which increase the useful lives of the assets are capitalized. Depreciation is being provided primarily by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

NIGHTHAWK PARTNERS, INC.
January 31, 2003

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

Income taxes were provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to differences between the bases of certain assets and liabilities for financial and tax reporting. Deferred taxes represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled (See Note 9).

Revenue Recognition

Consulting revenue is recorded when earned. Incentive revenue is recorded at such time that it can be determined by the Company to be a bona fide receivable.

Note 3 - Cash

Cash consists of the following:

Bank Checking Account	$ -
Prime Obligation Money Market Account	250,446
Vanguard Money Market Account	155,299
	$405,745

The Company maintains its cash accounts at various financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At January 31, 2003, the Company had cash on deposit not covered by FDIC insurance of approximately $405,745.

NIGHTHAWK PARTNERS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
January 31, 2003

Note 4 – Property and Equipment

The following is a summary of property and equipment.

	Estimated Useful Lives in Years
Furniture and Fixtures	5	$ 7,325
Machinery and Equipment	5	22,561
		29,886
Less: Accumulated Depreciation		15,951
TOTAL		$13,935

Depreciation expense was $5,059 for the year ended January 31, 2003.

Note 5 – Income Taxes Provision

The income tax provision (benefit) for the Company consists of the following:

Current:

Federal	$5,578
State	2,714
Total Current Income Tax Expense	8,292

Deferred:

Federal	(88,503)
State	(37,264)
Total Deferred Income Taxes	(125,767)

Total Income Tax Provision (Benefit) Charged to Operations	$(117,475)

NIGHTHAWK PARTNERS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
January 31, 2003

Note 5 – Income Taxes Provision (Continued)

The changes in deferred income taxes consists of the following:

	Federal	State	Total
Balance, February 1, 2002	$ 88,503	$ 37,264	$ 125,767
Deferred Income Tax (Benefit) for Current Year	(88,503)	(37,264)	(125,767)
Balance, January 31, 2003	$ -	$ -	$ -

The deferred income taxes resulted primarily from timing differences in income recognition from the use of the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes and the cash basis of accounting for tax purposes. Using cash basis accounting for tax reporting, the Company reported taxable income of approximately $37,000 for the current year. The primary temporary difference that gave rise to the deferred tax liability was due to the fact that revenue is recognized when received for income tax purposes.

The components of the deferred tax liability on the balance sheet as of January 31, 2003 related to the following:

Accounts Receivable	$ -
Accrued Expenses	-
Net Deferred Tax Liability	$ -

Deferred tax assets and liabilities in the balance sheet were classified in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 (SFAS 109), which generally requires the classification be based upon the related asset or liability creating the deferred tax. Deferred taxes not related to a specific asset or liabilities were classified based upon the estimated period of reversal (See Note 9 Subsequent Events).

Contributions are intended to provide not only for benefits attributed to service to date, but also for those expected to be earned in the future.

Note 8 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the “applicable” exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). The Company is also subject to the NASD and NFA minimum financial requirements which require that the Company maintain a minimum net capital.
