INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To Ms. Yona Munro, President
Javelin Securities, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Javelin Securities, LLC, as of December 31, 2004 and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Javelin Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

As discussed in Note 6 to the financial statements, in February, 2005, the principal analyst for Javelin Research, LLC, a related party, pled guilty to a felony count in Federal Court. Since the Company's main source of income is derived from the distribution of research from this analyst to institutional investors, this raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 6. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

The accompanying financial statements and our independent auditor's report are for the internal use and regulatory requirements of Javelin Securities, LLC, its Members, and its management and should not be used or relied upon by any other party for any purpose. Additional users of these financial statements and our independent auditor's report are hereby advised that the liability of Porter, Muirhead, Cornia & Howard to third party users who use or rely on this information may be limited pursuant to 1995 Wyoming Session Laws, Chapter 155 creating Wyoming Statute §33-3-201.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2004

---

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Javelin Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company wholly owned by Javelin Financial Group, LLC a wholly owned subsidiary of Athena Group, LLC. The Company is registered as a broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company's principal location is in Wyoming, though they have a nationwide market. The Company distributes research developed by Javelin Research, LLC a wholly owned limited liability company of Javelin Financial Group, LLC to institutional investors. The Company's revenues are derived from shared securities related commissions through an agreement with its clearing broker as noted below.

Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

With respect to all other securities transactions, the Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that Rule. Essentially, the requirements of Paragraph (k)(2)(i) provide that the Company will not hold customer funds or safekeep customer securities.

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accepted accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include all cash, money market accounts, certificate of deposits with ongoing maturities of 3 months or less, and overnight repurchase agreements with a bank.

Revenue Recognition

Commissions are recognized when earned.

Income Taxes

The Company, organized under the Wyoming Limited Liability Act, is taxed under the partnership taxation laws of the Internal Revenue Code which provide that, in lieu of income taxes at the Company level, the members account for the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. Therefore, these statements do not include any provision for Company income taxes. Additionally, no provision has been made for any additional amounts, which may be advance or paid as draws to the members to assist them in paying their income taxes on the income of the company.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2004

Note 2. Agreement with Clearing Broker Dealer

According to the Company's agreement with the clearing broker dealer, the clearing broker dealer will undertake all trading activity on behalf of the Company, and the clients of the Company will be instructed to deal directly with the clearing broker dealer's trading desk. Gross trading commissions are divided 60:40 between the Company and the clearing broker dealer, unless the clearing broker dealer introduces a new, and previously unknown, client to the Company, then the gross trading commissions are split 50:50. The clearing broker dealer pays all clearing and execution costs.

Note 3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of a minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital and minimum net capital requirements of $9,905 and $5,000, respectively. The Company's net capital ratio was 0 to 1.

Note 4. Related-Party Transactions

During the year ended December 31, 2004, payments of $9,000 were made to Javelin Research, LLC, a company affiliated with and owned by the managing member.

Note 5. Major Customers

The Company does not believe it is dependent due to the availability of other investors. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company had at least 10% of the Company's fee income came from two major customers, as noted below:

	Amount
Customer A	$ 6,750
Customer B	$ 14,100

Note 6. Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. In February, 2005, the principal analyst for Javelin Research, LLC, a related party, pled guilty to a felony count in Federal Court. Since the Company's main source of income is derived as a result of the distribution of research to institutional investors prepared by the principal analyst for Javelin Research, LLC, this raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. To address this issue, management is considering the possibility of hiring a new analyst to continue the research. No assurance can be made that these measures will be sufficient to sustain the Company.
