Shinsei Bank to Offer “Nihon-Jikara Yen Deposit”
 with Interest Rate Linked to Nikkei 225 Index

Tokyo (Tuesday, July 18, 2006) -- Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) today announced that, effective July 18, it starts offering “Nihon-Jikara Yen Deposit”, a stock price index-linked yen time deposit .

This is a time deposit with interest rates being re-set each year based on the level of the stock price index^(). If the Nikkei 225 Index^() is equal to or above the level on booking date, the interest rate applicable for the subsequent year is raised by a certain rate set by Shinsei Bank. If, on the contrary, the Nikkei 225 Index falls below the level on booking date, the rate is lowered by the same percentage. Thus, steady Japanese stock prices will result in a higher applicable interest rate each year, and decline of stock prices will result in a lower applicable interest rate.

The maximum deposit term is up to 10 years. However, if the annual increase in the Nikkei 225 Index exceeds a certain percentage, the deposit will be redeemed early, and principal thereon will be repaid before the 10-year maturity. Customers are guaranteed a base level of interest irrespective of the level of the Nikkei 225 Index. (See Appendix for details.)

This time deposit will allow customers to make a stable investment in yen, in anticipation of the “potential strength of the Japanese economy” - steady Japanese stock prices result in favorable applicable interest rate.

Shinsei Bank is aiming to bring the reality of a lifestyle abundant with color to our customers, through the branding concept, “Color your life.” Shinsei Bank continues to strive to develop products and services which offer value and convenience to customers.

Net Income Increases 10.2% in First Quarter Fiscal Year 2006

Tokyo (Tuesday, July 25, 2006) – Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) today reported its financial results for the first three months of fiscal year 2006 ended June 30, 2006.

“The growing diversification of Shinsei’s business and revenue base contributed to net income growth in a volatile market environment” said Mr. Thierry Porte, President and Chief Executive Officer of Shinsei Bank, “Our performance remains on track for the year while new investments and initiatives during the first quarter provide further opportunities for business expansion and profitable growth.”

Financial Overview: First Three Months of Fiscal Year 2006

(All figures compared to first three months of Fiscal Year 2005)

- Revenue grew 3.6 billion yen or 5.6% to 68.1 billion yen
- Ordinary Business Profit (OBP) increased 2.6% to 30.8 billion yen; OBP after net credit costs grew 2.1 billion yen or 8.6% to 27.0 billion yen
- Net income increased 10.2% to 19.2 billion yen; Cash basis net income increased 4.9% to 24.5 billion yen
 - Cash basis diluted EPS was 12.09 yen, an increase of 4.2%
- Expense-to-revenue ratio was 54.8% as compared to 53.5% a year ago
- Return on assets was 0.8%; on a cash basis 1.1%
- Return on equity (diluted) was 9.0%; on a cash basis 11.6%
- Return on tangible equity was 16.7%

Key Highlights: First Three Months of Fiscal Year 2006

- In Institutional Banking, the impact of continuing demand for corporate loans as well as an increase in asset prices which supported revenue growth in credit trading business was partly offset by slower growth in the capital markets business.
- Strong performance at APLUS contributed to a 17.2% growth in revenue in Consumer and Commercial Finance (CCF).

- Retail Banking revenues continue to grow based on sales of an increasingly diverse range of products to a growing customer base.
- In April 2006, Shinsei Bank reached an agreement to form a 50/50 joint venture with Macquarie Group to focus exclusively on advisory services relating to acquisition and management of assets with long-term stable cash flows in infrastructure and related sectors in Japan. This initiative aims to take advantage of favorable economic trends and the ongoing public-to-private sector shift in Japan.
- In May 2006, Shinsei Bank announced an agreement to invest approximately 40 billion yen in common and preferred shares representing 31.8% common ownership in Jih Sun Financial Holding Co., Ltd. This provides Shinsei Bank the opportunity to leverage its strength in credit trading know-how, institutional banking product knowledge, risk management expertise and information technology at Jih Sun.
- On June 9, 2006, The Asian Banker awarded Shinsei Bank the Best Retail Bank in Japan 2005 award, in consideration of its agility and innovativeness in this market, as well as the Excellence in Internet Banking 2005 award for offering the most progressive internet banking service amongst Asian regional peers.
- On June 28, 2006, Japan Credit Ratings (JCR) upgraded Shinsei Bank's long-term senior debt rating from "A-" to "A" citing improved revenue diversification, a strong capital base and a low level of non-performing loans.

1. Income Statement:

Shinsei Bank reported consolidated revenue of 68.1 billion yen for the first three months of fiscal year 2006, an increase of 3.6 billion yen or 5.6% as compared to the same period in the previous year. Net interest income increased by 5.2 billion yen to 24.5 billion yen reflecting higher growth in interest-earning assets and lower borrowing costs in APLUS and Showa Leasing. Revenue from fees and commissions, trading and other non-interest sources, including revenue from leased assets and installment receivables for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 were 43.5 billion yen as compared to 45.1 billion yen in the same period last fiscal year. Non-interest income for the period represented 63.9% of total revenues.

General and administrative expenses increased by 2.8 billion yen to 37.3 billion yen in the first three months of fiscal year 2006 largely due to increased business activities in all the three strategic business pillars. As a result, for the three months ended June 30, 2006, Shinsei Bank's expense-to-revenue ratio was 54.8%.

Ordinary business profit (OBP) for the first three months of fiscal year 2006 was 30.8 billion yen or 2.6% higher than the same period last year. During the period, OBP after net credit costs grew 8.6% to 27.0 billion yen.

Net credit costs were 3.7 billion yen for the three months ended June 30, 2006 compared with net credit costs of 5.1 billion yen during the same period last year. The decrease in credit costs in this fiscal year was attributable to lower credit reserves required on the total claims (non-consolidated) outstanding as of June 30, 2006. This was partly offset by an increase in net credit costs relating to CCF companies.

Consolidated net income for the period was 19.2 billion yen, up 10.2% as compared to the same period last year. Diluted net income per share for the three-month ended June 30, 2006 was 9.46 yen.

Cash Basis Net Income

Shinsei Bank also reports cash basis net income on a voluntary basis in order to provide greater transparency and understanding of its underlying performance. Cash basis net income is calculated by excluding amortization of acquired goodwill and other intangibles, net of tax benefit, from net income under Japanese GAAP. The first three months of this fiscal year included 5.3 billion yen of amortized acquired goodwill and other intangibles, net of tax benefit related to the acquisition of CCF companies. Consolidated cash basis net income for the period was 24.5 billion yen, an increase of 4.9% as compared to the same period last year. Cash basis diluted net income per share for the three-month period of fiscal year 2006 was 12.09 yen, an increase of 4.2%, as compared to the same period last year.

2. Business Line Results:

Shinsei Bank's business model is based on three strategic pillars: Institutional Banking, Consumer and Commercial Finance and Retail Banking. These three pillars cover a broad range of businesses and customer segments which provide the Bank with diversified revenues.

Institutional Banking

The Institutional Banking business has positioned itself as a hybrid commercial and investment bank which provides innovative solutions to institutional customers through an integrated team of relationship managers and product specialists. The business generated revenue of 24.4 billion yen in the first three months of this fiscal year. This is 1.1 billion yen lower than the same period last year partly due to slower growth in capital markets business this quarter. However, the business saw a significant pickup in demand for corporate loans and continuing strength in asset prices contributed to out performance in the credit trading business. In the first three months of this fiscal year, general and administrative expenses were 10.4 billion yen, 0.7 billion yen higher than the same period last year. Ordinary business profit for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 was 13.9 billion yen as compared to 15.7 billion yen in the same period last fiscal year. The expense-to-revenue ratio of this business was 42.9%.

Consumer and Commercial Finance

The CCF business has now been fully integrated as the third strategic business pillar. Shinsei Bank has been acquiring and integrating into its service lines a number of CCF subsidiaries or affiliates that provide products such as sub-prime or near-prime consumer loans, loans to small and medium-sized enterprises and mortgage loans. In the three months ended June 30, 2006, the CCF business contributed revenue of 31.8 billion yen, an increase of 4.6 billion yen or 17.2% as compared to same period in fiscal year 2005. Strong revenue growth during the quarter improved the expense to revenue ratio to 53.7% from 57.0% during the same period a year ago. The business generated ordinary business profit of 14.7 billion yen, an increase of 3.0 billion yen from the same period last year primarily due to increased profitability in APLUS.

Retail Banking

The Retail Banking business continues to optimize its physical and remote channel mix more effectively and efficiently with its "bricks and clicks" business strategy. In the three months ended June 30, 2006, the Retail Banking business added more than 82,000 new PowerFlex retail customers and the business now has close to 1.8 million retail accounts.

During the first three months of this fiscal year, total revenue was 10.5 billion yen, up 8.1% from the same period last year. The main sources of revenue were interest income from retail deposits and loans, option income from structured deposits and fees from asset management products. The ability to successfully sell an increasingly diverse range of products is contributing to more balanced and recurring revenue growth.

Retail Banking incurred general and administrative expenses of 9.9 billion yen during the three month period, an increase of 0.6 billion yen as compared to the same period last fiscal year. The expense increase relates to expansion of distribution channels and the growth of customer driven transactions. The business generated ordinary business profit of 0.5 billion yen for the three months of fiscal year 2006, an increase of 0.1 billion yen from the same period last fiscal year.

ALM/Corporate/Other

Asset Liability Management (ALM), Corporate and Other primarily includes results of corporate treasury activities, income from proprietary investments, inter-company adjustments, and corporate level expenses. In the first three months of this fiscal year ordinary business profit was 1.5 billion yen.

3. Balance Sheet:

Shinsei Bank's loan balance was 4,241.7 billion yen at the end of June 2006 as compared to 4,087.5 billion yen as at March 31, 2006. In the first quarter of fiscal year 2006, loan growth was largely attributable to corporate loans, retail housing loans and lending to CCF customers. Corporate loans increased 3.8% to 2,961.2 billion yen, loans to retail customers, including lending to high net worth individuals, grew 6.8% or 33.7 billion yen to 527.4 billion yen. Lending to CCF customers increased 5.0% to 391.9 billion yen in the first quarter ended June 30, 2006.

Shinsei Bank has been diversifying its funding base through continuing growth in its retail deposits. Total deposits, including negotiable certificates of deposit, increased 384.1 billion yen or 9.4% to 4,455.9 billion yen in the first quarter ended June 30, 2006. The retail deposit balance, including high net worth customers, grew 127.7 billion yen or 4.1% in the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 as compared to the previous quarter, and has now reached over 3.2 trillion yen. As a result, retail funding now represents 68.9% of total customer deposits and debentures.

4. Non-performing Loans (non-consolidated):

As of June 30, 2006, total non-performing loans were 41.9 billion yen, a decline of 0.7 billion yen from March 2006 level. Non-performing loans now represent 0.98% of total claims outstanding.

Shinsei Bank is a Japanese financial institution providing a full range of financial products and services to both institutional and retail customers based on a three pillar business model comprising Institutional Banking, Consumer and Commercial Finance and Retail Banking. The Bank has total assets of US$ 84 billion on a consolidated basis and a network of 29 Shinsei Bank branches in Japan (as of June 2006). Shinsei Bank Commences Resolution of Public Funds

Tokyo, July 31, 2006 -- Shinsei Bank, Limited ("Shinsei Bank") announced that the Deposit Insurance Corporation ("DIC") of Japan has today accepted Shinsei Bank's proposal for The Resolution and Collection Corporation ("RCC") to dispose its holdings of Shinsei Bank Common Shares through a market transaction, following the request by Shinsei Bank for conversion of 300 million shares out of the 600 million of Series 3 Class B Preferred Shares issued by Shinsei Bank into 200,033,338 Shinsei Bank Common Shares.

Shinsei Bank intends to purchase its own Common Shares in response to such sale by RCC upon conversion of 300 million Series 3 Class B preferred shares issued by Shinsei Bank.

Shinsei Bank's Board of Directors has authorized Mr. Thierry Porté, President and Chief Executive Officer of Shinsei Bank, to effect the purchase of up to 201 million Shinsei Bank Common Shares for a maximum amount of 154 billion yen subject to an effective period from August 1, 2006 until the time of conclusion of the 7th Shinsei Bank Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, expected to be held in June 2007. The purchase will be executed, on appropriate terms and conditions, using the ToSTNeT-2 facility of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

The revised conversion price of 735.0 yen will apply effective August 1, 2006 to the remaining 300 million Series 3 Class B preferred shares issued by Shinsei Bank.

"This marks an important milestone for Shinsei Bank" said Mr. Porté. "Our strong capital ratios have positioned us well to commence resolution of public funds to the benefit of all our stakeholders. We are committed to both maintaining strong capital ratios and retaining the financial flexibility to approach the capital markets to support our growth plans. Our target Tier 1 capital ratio remains at 7%-8%. We will target, by taking advantage of the future repayment of public funds, a share count reduction of at least 5%-6%."

Shinsei Bank to Offer “Nihon-Jikara Yen Deposit”
 with Interest Rate Linked to Nikkei 225 Index

Tokyo (Tuesday, July 18, 2006) -- Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) today announced that, effective July 18, it starts offering “Nihon-Jikara Yen Deposit”, a stock price index-linked yen time deposit .

This is a time deposit with interest rates being re-set each year based on the level of the stock price index^(). If the Nikkei 225 Index^() is equal to or above the level on booking date, the interest rate applicable for the subsequent year is raised by a certain rate set by Shinsei Bank. If, on the contrary, the Nikkei 225 Index falls below the level on booking date, the rate is lowered by the same percentage. Thus, steady Japanese stock prices will result in a higher applicable interest rate each year, and decline of stock prices will result in a lower applicable interest rate.

The maximum deposit term is up to 10 years. However, if the annual increase in the Nikkei 225 Index exceeds a certain percentage, the deposit will be redeemed early, and principal thereon will be repaid before the 10-year maturity. Customers are guaranteed a base level of interest irrespective of the level of the Nikkei 225 Index. (See Appendix for details.)

This time deposit will allow customers to make a stable investment in yen, in anticipation of the “potential strength of the Japanese economy” - steady Japanese stock prices result in favorable applicable interest rate.

Shinsei Bank is aiming to bring the reality of a lifestyle abundant with color to our customers, through the branding concept, “Color your life.” Shinsei Bank continues to strive to develop products and services which offer value and convenience to customers.

Net Income Increases 10.2% in First Quarter Fiscal Year 2006

Tokyo (Tuesday, July 25, 2006) – Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) today reported its financial results for the first three months of fiscal year 2006 ended June 30, 2006.

“The growing diversification of Shinsei’s business and revenue base contributed to net income growth in a volatile market environment” said Mr. Thierry Porte, President and Chief Executive Officer of Shinsei Bank, “Our performance remains on track for the year while new investments and initiatives during the first quarter provide further opportunities for business expansion and profitable growth.”

Financial Overview: First Three Months of Fiscal Year 2006

(All figures compared to first three months of Fiscal Year 2005)

- Revenue grew 3.6 billion yen or 5.6% to 68.1 billion yen
- Ordinary Business Profit (OBP) increased 2.6% to 30.8 billion yen; OBP after net credit costs grew 2.1 billion yen or 8.6% to 27.0 billion yen
- Net income increased 10.2% to 19.2 billion yen; Cash basis net income increased 4.9% to 24.5 billion yen
 - Cash basis diluted EPS was 12.09 yen, an increase of 4.2%
- Expense-to-revenue ratio was 54.8% as compared to 53.5% a year ago
- Return on assets was 0.8%; on a cash basis 1.1%
- Return on equity (diluted) was 9.0%; on a cash basis 11.6%
- Return on tangible equity was 16.7%

Key Highlights: First Three Months of Fiscal Year 2006

- In Institutional Banking, the impact of continuing demand for corporate loans as well as an increase in asset prices which supported revenue growth in credit trading business was partly offset by slower growth in the capital markets business.
- Strong performance at APLUS contributed to a 17.2% growth in revenue in Consumer and Commercial Finance (CCF).

- Retail Banking revenues continue to grow based on sales of an increasingly diverse range of products to a growing customer base.
- In April 2006, Shinsei Bank reached an agreement to form a 50/50 joint venture with Macquarie Group to focus exclusively on advisory services relating to acquisition and management of assets with long-term stable cash flows in infrastructure and related sectors in Japan. This initiative aims to take advantage of favorable economic trends and the ongoing public-to-private sector shift in Japan.
- In May 2006, Shinsei Bank announced an agreement to invest approximately 40 billion yen in common and preferred shares representing 31.8% common ownership in Jih Sun Financial Holding Co., Ltd. This provides Shinsei Bank the opportunity to leverage its strength in credit trading know-how, institutional banking product knowledge, risk management expertise and information technology at Jih Sun.
- On June 9, 2006, The Asian Banker awarded Shinsei Bank the Best Retail Bank in Japan 2005 award, in consideration of its agility and innovativeness in this market, as well as the Excellence in Internet Banking 2005 award for offering the most progressive internet banking service amongst Asian regional peers.
- On June 28, 2006, Japan Credit Ratings (JCR) upgraded Shinsei Bank's long-term senior debt rating from "A-" to "A" citing improved revenue diversification, a strong capital base and a low level of non-performing loans.

1. Income Statement:

Shinsei Bank reported consolidated revenue of 68.1 billion yen for the first three months of fiscal year 2006, an increase of 3.6 billion yen or 5.6% as compared to the same period in the previous year. Net interest income increased by 5.2 billion yen to 24.5 billion yen reflecting higher growth in interest-earning assets and lower borrowing costs in APLUS and Showa Leasing. Revenue from fees and commissions, trading and other non-interest sources, including revenue from leased assets and installment receivables for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 were 43.5 billion yen as compared to 45.1 billion yen in the same period last fiscal year. Non-interest income for the period represented 63.9% of total revenues.

General and administrative expenses increased by 2.8 billion yen to 37.3 billion yen in the first three months of fiscal year 2006 largely due to increased business activities in all the three strategic business pillars. As a result, for the three months ended June 30, 2006, Shinsei Bank's expense-to-revenue ratio was 54.8%.

Ordinary business profit (OBP) for the first three months of fiscal year 2006 was 30.8 billion yen or 2.6% higher than the same period last year. During the period, OBP after net credit costs grew 8.6% to 27.0 billion yen.

Net credit costs were 3.7 billion yen for the three months ended June 30, 2006 compared with net credit costs of 5.1 billion yen during the same period last year. The decrease in credit costs in this fiscal year was attributable to lower credit reserves required on the total claims (non-consolidated) outstanding as of June 30, 2006. This was partly offset by an increase in net credit costs relating to CCF companies.

Consolidated net income for the period was 19.2 billion yen, up 10.2% as compared to the same period last year. Diluted net income per share for the three-month ended June 30, 2006 was 9.46 yen.

Cash Basis Net Income

Shinsei Bank also reports cash basis net income on a voluntary basis in order to provide greater transparency and understanding of its underlying performance. Cash basis net income is calculated by excluding amortization of acquired goodwill and other intangibles, net of tax benefit, from net income under Japanese GAAP. The first three months of this fiscal year included 5.3 billion yen of amortized acquired goodwill and other intangibles, net of tax benefit related to the acquisition of CCF companies. Consolidated cash basis net income for the period was 24.5 billion yen, an increase of 4.9% as compared to the same period last year. Cash basis diluted net income per share for the three-month period of fiscal year 2006 was 12.09 yen, an increase of 4.2%, as compared to the same period last year.

2. Business Line Results:

Shinsei Bank's business model is based on three strategic pillars: Institutional Banking, Consumer and Commercial Finance and Retail Banking. These three pillars cover a broad range of businesses and customer segments which provide the Bank with diversified revenues.

Institutional Banking

The Institutional Banking business has positioned itself as a hybrid commercial and investment bank which provides innovative solutions to institutional customers through an integrated team of relationship managers and product specialists. The business generated revenue of 24.4 billion yen in the first three months of this fiscal year. This is 1.1 billion yen lower than the same period last year partly due to slower growth in capital markets business this quarter. However, the business saw a significant pickup in demand for corporate loans and continuing strength in asset prices contributed to out performance in the credit trading business. In the first three months of this fiscal year, general and administrative expenses were 10.4 billion yen, 0.7 billion yen higher than the same period last year. Ordinary business profit for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 was 13.9 billion yen as compared to 15.7 billion yen in the same period last fiscal year. The expense-to-revenue ratio of this business was 42.9%.

Consumer and Commercial Finance

The CCF business has now been fully integrated as the third strategic business pillar. Shinsei Bank has been acquiring and integrating into its service lines a number of CCF subsidiaries or affiliates that provide products such as sub-prime or near-prime consumer loans, loans to small and medium-sized enterprises and mortgage loans. In the three months ended June 30, 2006, the CCF business contributed revenue of 31.8 billion yen, an increase of 4.6 billion yen or 17.2% as compared to same period in fiscal year 2005. Strong revenue growth during the quarter improved the expense to revenue ratio to 53.7% from 57.0% during the same period a year ago. The business generated ordinary business profit of 14.7 billion yen, an increase of 3.0 billion yen from the same period last year primarily due to increased profitability in APLUS.

Retail Banking

The Retail Banking business continues to optimize its physical and remote channel mix more effectively and efficiently with its "bricks and clicks" business strategy. In the three months ended June 30, 2006, the Retail Banking business added more than 82,000 new PowerFlex retail customers and the business now has close to 1.8 million retail accounts.

During the first three months of this fiscal year, total revenue was 10.5 billion yen, up 8.1% from the same period last year. The main sources of revenue were interest income from retail deposits and loans, option income from structured deposits and fees from asset management products. The ability to successfully sell an increasingly diverse range of products is contributing to more balanced and recurring revenue growth.

Retail Banking incurred general and administrative expenses of 9.9 billion yen during the three month period, an increase of 0.6 billion yen as compared to the same period last fiscal year. The expense increase relates to expansion of distribution channels and the growth of customer driven transactions. The business generated ordinary business profit of 0.5 billion yen for the three months of fiscal year 2006, an increase of 0.1 billion yen from the same period last fiscal year.

ALM/Corporate/Other

Asset Liability Management (ALM), Corporate and Other primarily includes results of corporate treasury activities, income from proprietary investments, inter-company adjustments, and corporate level expenses. In the first three months of this fiscal year ordinary business profit was 1.5 billion yen.

3. Balance Sheet:

Shinsei Bank's loan balance was 4,241.7 billion yen at the end of June 2006 as compared to 4,087.5 billion yen as at March 31, 2006. In the first quarter of fiscal year 2006, loan growth was largely attributable to corporate loans, retail housing loans and lending to CCF customers. Corporate loans increased 3.8% to 2,961.2 billion yen, loans to retail customers, including lending to high net worth individuals, grew 6.8% or 33.7 billion yen to 527.4 billion yen. Lending to CCF customers increased 5.0% to 391.9 billion yen in the first quarter ended June 30, 2006.

Shinsei Bank has been diversifying its funding base through continuing growth in its retail deposits. Total deposits, including negotiable certificates of deposit, increased 384.1 billion yen or 9.4% to 4,455.9 billion yen in the first quarter ended June 30, 2006. The retail deposit balance, including high net worth customers, grew 127.7 billion yen or 4.1% in the first quarter of fiscal year 2006 as compared to the previous quarter, and has now reached over 3.2 trillion yen. As a result, retail funding now represents 68.9% of total customer deposits and debentures.

4. Non-performing Loans (non-consolidated):

As of June 30, 2006, total non-performing loans were 41.9 billion yen, a decline of 0.7 billion yen from March 2006 level. Non-performing loans now represent 0.98% of total claims outstanding.
