Anatoly Ufimkin, CEO comments on 1H 2006 results: in the first half of the year we concentrated on the adaptation to the new market conditions which involved liberalization of the long-distance market, new rules interconnection rules and, in the near future, the CPP principle. In our view, the company has carried out all the necessary preparations, and the reported results are a good evidence of that. Despite the loss of revenues from long-distance services, Uralsvyazinform has been able to increase its revenue due to the synergetic effect of Revenues of the Internet segment have doubled. The half-year has demonstrated a great success in terms of our xDSL promotional program. The number of DSL subscriber has more than doubled for the first six months, while we expect it to exceed 100 thousand by the end of the year'.

As presented under Russian Accounting Standards (RAS), the Uralsvyazinform reporting in mobile segment before June 30, 2005 incorporated solely the results of the company's divisions, which provide mobile services on the territory of Perm and Sverdlovsk regions. The results of the 3 subsidiary mobile operators - Ermak RMS, South Urals Cellular Phone, Tyumenruscom, which provide mobile services in Kurgan, Chelyabinsk and Tyumen (including Khanty-Mansyisk and Yamalo-Nenetski ADs) regions, were only consolidated under International Accounting Standards (IAS).

Since July 1, 2005, due to reorganization (consolidation) of the subsidiary mobile operators (Ermak RMS, South Urals Cellular Phone, Tyumenruscom), and formation of the united interregional mobile division of OAO "Uralsvyazinform", the financial results of the mobile division have been included in the financial statements of the company.

As of the reporting period the revenues generated by mobile business were US$ 174.8 mln or 342.5% up on 1H 2005. The segment profitability totaled 43.8%.

New services (SMS, GPRS, MMS, WAP) contributed approx. 10% (12% as of 1H 2005) to the overall mobile revenues.

In the first half of 2006 Uralsvyazinform (mobile trademark - Utel) retained around 30% of regional mobile market in subscriber terms, and 40% market share in revenues. Overall, as of July 1, 2006 Uralsvyazinform had 4.1 mln GSM subscribers across the Urals region. The company added 10% to its subscriber base between January-July 2006.

On the whole, the company's revenues as of 1H 2006 totaled US$568,0 mln. (+19.0% on 1H 2005), including revenues from telecommunications services at US$540.8 mln (+28.4%).
