Anglo American names Cynthia Carroll as new CEO

As previously announced, Tony Trahar intends to retire as Chief Executive Officer of Anglo American plc. Cynthia Carroll, currently President Alcan Primary Metal Group, will join the Anglo American Board in mid January 2007 and will succeed Tony Trahar as Chief Executive Officer on 1 March. Tony Trahar will step down from the board at the Annual General Meeting in April.

As President and Chief Executive Officer of Alcan's Primary Metal Group, Cynthia Carroll's responsibilities include all of Alcan's primary metal facilities, research and development, technology and power generation with 18,000 employees operating in 20 countries around the world. The Primary Metal Group today accounts for approximately $12 billion in turnover and 75% of Alcan's earnings.

Sir Mark Moody-Stuart, Chairman of Anglo American plc commented: "Cynthia Carroll has a very strong track record of improving operational performance, transforming culture, including improving safety performance, and of integrating and realising synergies from newly acquired assets. She has global experience of project management and of overseeing the development and commercialisation of leading-edge technologies. The Board have been impressed by her clear leadership and communication skills, her highly relevant hands-on operational experience and of her record of working with governments and other key stakeholders."

"It's an honour to take the helm at Anglo American," Cynthia Carroll said of her appointment. "Anglo American has a unique collection of assets, skilled and dedicated people, financial and technical strengths, and a strong underpinning of values and

Notes to editors

Cynthia Carroll has spent the last 18 years in the aluminium industry with Alcan. Her responsibilities have embraced mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, plant management, research and technology, energy, finance, marketing and commercial development, human resources and provincial and international government relations. Over this time she resided in the United States, Ireland, and Canada.

Prior to joining Alcan, Cynthia Carroll spent six years in gas and oil exploration, working in Colorado, Alaska, Wyoming, Utah, and Montana.

Career Profile:

- January 2002 – Present: President and Chief Executive Officer, Alcan Primary Metal
- October 1998 - December 2001: President, Alcan Bauxite, Alumina and Specialty Chemicals
- January 1996 to October 1998: Managing Director, Aughinish Alumina Limited
- October 1991 to December 1995: Vice President and General Manager, Alcan Foil Products

Buy out arrangements

Anglo American will compensate Cynthia Carroll for incentives forfeited at Alcan. This will be paid in a combination of an initial cash payment and forfeitable share awards, realisable over three years.

Executive shareholding target

A shareholding in Anglo American to the value of two times base salary within five years of appointment.

Anglo American plc is a global leader in mining with a unique portfolio of world class assets in attractive markets spread across the world covering platinum, diamonds, coal, ferrous and base metals, industrial minerals, paper and packaging and gold underpinned by considerable financial strength and technical expertise.
