

APPOINTMENTS AT AMER SPORTS WINTER SPORTS EQUIPMENT

Following the November 21 announcement regarding the Amer Sports Winter and Outdoor organization, business segment President Michael Schineis has made the following personnel appointments in the Winter Sports Equipment business area.

Bernard Millaud is the new General Manager of Salomon Winter Sports Equipment, a position previously held by Philippe Dubé. Millaud is also now responsible for the legal entity of Salomon S.A. in Annecy and will continue in his role as General Manager of Mavic.

Wolfgang Mayrhofer is the new General Manager of Atomic. He was previously Atomic's Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

Wilhelm Kerl, in addition to his current role as Atomic's Director of Operations, has been appointed to evaluate potential models for the Group's winter sports equipment production.

Mayrhofer and Kerl will also be jointly responsible for the legal entity of Atomic GmbH in Altenmarkt.

Philippe Dubé will focus on special assignments for Amer Sports.

All of these changes are effective immediately.
