

7/24

08003985

82- SUBMISSIONS FACING SHEET

PROCESSED

JUL 28 2008

THOMSON REUTERS

MICROFICHE CONTROL LABEL

REGISTRANT'S NAME

United Utilities Group PLC

*CURRENT ADDRESS

Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park

Lingley Green Avenue

Great Sankey

Warrington WA5 3LP
England

FORMER NAME

NEW ADDRESS

FILE NO. 82-

35217

FISCAL YEAR

 Complete for initial submissions only  Please note name and address changes*

INDICATE FORM TYPE TO BE USED FOR WORKLOAD ENTRY:

12G3-2B (INITIAL FILING)

AR/S (ANNUAL REPORT)

12G32BR (REINSTATEMENT)

SUPPL (OTHER)

DEF 14A (PROXY)

OICF/BY: MAC

DATE: 24 July 2008

RECEIVED

2008 JUL 24 A 9:23

SECRET

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

1. The prospectus (the "Prospectus") dated June 6, 2008 as filed with the United Kingdom Listing Authority

A copy of this document, which comprises a prospectus relating to United Utilities Group PLC ("United Utilities Group") prepared in accordance with the Prospectus Rules made under section 73A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 has been filed with the Financial Services Authority and made available to the public as required by section 3.2 of the Prospectus Rules.

United Utilities Group whose registered office is at Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP and the Directors, whose names are set out on page 22 of this document accept responsibility for the information contained in this Prospectus. Having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case, the information contained in this Prospectus is, to the best of their knowledge, in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import.

No Ordinary Shares nor any B Shares have been marketed to, nor are any available for purchase in whole or in part, by the public in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in connection with Admission. This document does not constitute or form part of any offer or invitation to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, or any solicitation of any offer to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, Ordinary Shares, B Shares or any other securities of United Utilities Group.

Investors should read the whole of this Prospectus and any information incorporated into it by reference, including the discussion of certain risk factors relating to United Utilities Group, the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares which is set out in the "Risk Factors" section of this Prospectus.

United Utilities Group PLC

(Incorporated in England and Wales under the Companies Act 1985, with registered number 06559020)

Introduction to the Official List and admission to trading on the London Stock Exchange of up to 683,000,000 Ordinary Shares

Joint Sponsors

JPMorgan Cazenove Limited

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch

Application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for all the Ordinary Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the Ordinary Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. No application has been made or is currently intended to be made for the Ordinary Shares to be admitted to listing or dealing on any other exchange. It is expected that Admission will become effective and that dealings on the London Stock Exchange in the Ordinary Shares will commence at 8:00 a.m. (London time) on 28 July 2008. No application has been or is currently intended to be made for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to trading on the London Stock Exchange or to be admitted to listing or dealing on any other exchange.

The Ordinary Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with each other and will rank in full for all dividends and other distributions thereafter declared, made or paid in respect of the Ordinary Shares. The B Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with each other. The B Shares will carry limited rights.

The distribution of this Prospectus and the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law. No action has been taken by United Utilities Group to obtain any approval, authorisation or exemption to permit the allotment or issue of Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares or the possessing or distribution of this document (or any other publicity material relating to the Ordinary Shares and/or the B Shares) in any jurisdiction, other than the United Kingdom. Persons into whose possession this document comes should inform themselves about and observe any applicable restrictions and legal, exchange control or regulatory requirements in relation to the distribution of this document and the Proposals. Any failure to comply with such restrictions or requirements may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be, and are not required to be, registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission under the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof. Neither the SEC nor any other US federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority has approved or disapproved the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares or passed an opinion on the adequacy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

Deutsche Bank, which is authorised under German Banking Law (competent authority: BaFin-Federal Financial Supervisory Authority) and with respect to UK commodity derivatives business by the Financial Services Authority and regulated by the Financial Services Authority for the conduct of UK business and JPMorgan Cazenove, which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority in the United Kingdom are jointly acting as sponsors and financial advisers for United Utilities Group and United Utilities and no one else in relation to Admission and the Proposals and will not be responsible to anyone other than United Utilities Group and United Utilities for providing protections afforded to clients of Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove respectively or providing advice in relation to Admission and the Proposals or any other matters described in this document.

Investors should rely only on the information contained in this document. No person has been authorised to give any information or make any representations other than those contained in this document and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been so authorised by United Utilities Group, United Utilities, the Directors or the Joint Sponsors. In particular, the contents of the Group's website do not form part of this document and investors should not rely on them. Without prejudice to any legal or regulatory obligation on United Utilities Group to publish a supplementary prospectus pursuant to section 87G of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and Rule 3.4 of the Prospectus Rules, neither the delivery of this document nor Admission shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Group since the date of this document or that the information is correct as of any time subsequent to the date of this document.

The contents of this Prospectus are not to be construed as legal, financial or tax advice. Each prospective investor should consult his, her or its own solicitor, independent financial adviser or tax adviser for legal, financial or tax advice.

The date of this document is 6 June 2008.

In the United States, this document is being published and made available only to Shareholders for information purposes only. This document does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire Ordinary Shares.

This document is not an offer of securities for sale in the United States. Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares to be issued to Shareholders in connection with the Scheme have been, will be, nor are required to be, registered with the SEC under the US Securities Act, in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act. For the purpose of qualifying for the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act with respect to the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme, United Utilities will advise the Court that it will rely on Section 3(a)(10) exemption based on the Court's sanctioning of the Scheme, which will be relied upon by United Utilities as an approval of the Scheme following a hearing on its fairness to Shareholders at which hearing all such Shareholders will be entitled to attend in person or through counsel to support or oppose the sanctioning of the Scheme and with respect to which notification has been or will be given to all such Shareholders.

Enforceability of judgments

United Utilities Group is a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales. All of the Directors of United Utilities Group are citizens or residents of countries other than the United States. Substantially all of the assets of such persons and a significant proportion of the assets of United Utilities Group are located outside the United States. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon such persons or United Utilities Group, or to enforce against them judgments of US courts, including judgments predicated upon civil liabilities under the securities laws of the United States or any state or territory within the United States. There is substantial doubt as to the enforceability in the United Kingdom in original actions or in actions for enforcement of judgments of US courts, based on the civil liability provisions of US federal securities laws.

CONTENTS

	Page
SUMMARY	4
RISK FACTORS	10
CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS	19
EXPECTED TIMETABLE OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS	20
DIRECTORS, COMPANY SECRETARY, REGISTERED OFFICE AND ADVISERS	22
PART I INFORMATION ON UNITED UTILITIES AND UNITED UTILITIES GROUP	23
PART II OPERATING AND FINANCIAL REVIEW	42
PART III HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATING TO UNITED UTILITIES GROUP	56
PART IV HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATING TO UNITED UTILITIES	61
PART V UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION	63
PART VI UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION	67
PART VII FURTHER INFORMATION RELATING TO THE PROPOSALS AND THE RETURN OF CAPITAL	71
PART VIII RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS OF THE B SHARES AND THE DEFERRED SHARES	80
PART IX INFORMATION ON REGULATED WATER INDUSTRY	84
PART X ADDITIONAL INFORMATION	93
DEFINITIONS	149

SUMMARY

This summary should be read as an introduction to the Prospectus. Any decision as to whether to invest in Ordinary Shares and B Shares should be based on consideration of this Prospectus as a whole. Where a claim relating to the information contained in this Prospectus is brought before a court, the claimant might, under the national legislation of the European Economic Area member states, have to bear the costs of translating the Prospectus before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to the persons who are responsible for this summary, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with other parts of this Prospectus.

1. Introduction, reasons for and background to the Proposals

On 29 November 2007, the Board of United Utilities announced its intention to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders. The Return of Capital will be comprised of the net equity proceeds of approximately £1,050 million from the sale of United Utilities Electricity and a further £450 million from the Group's pre-existing resources to create a more efficient capital structure.

Under the Companies Acts, a public company requires, amongst other things, "distributable reserves" in order to return cash to its shareholders. The structure intended to be implemented as part of the Proposals will allow United Utilities Group to effect the Return of Capital whilst providing greater flexibility within its capital structure by creating distributable reserves to enable United Utilities Group to pursue the Group's revised dividend policy (as further described in section 5 below).

2. Summary of the Proposals

The Return of Capital will be effected through the insertion of a new listed holding company for the Group, United Utilities Group, through a Court approved scheme of arrangement, the issue of Ordinary Shares and B Shares and the subsequent United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital.

2.1 Scheme and United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The Scheme requires, amongst other things, shareholder approval and the sanction of the Court.

If the Scheme (which is subject to various conditions) becomes effective, Shareholders will be entitled to receive Ordinary Shares and B Shares in exchange for United Utilities Shares they hold at the Scheme Record Time on the following basis:

17 Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares
and
one B Share for each United Utilities Share

Any fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold and the net proceeds of the sale remitted to Shareholders pro rata to their entitlement.

Upon implementation of the Scheme, a holder of Ordinary Shares will (subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements) have the same proportionate interest in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities Group as he had as a holder of United Utilities Shares before the Scheme became effective. The rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares will be substantially the same as those attaching to the United Utilities Shares.

The Scheme will be followed by a reduction of capital of United Utilities Group to create distributable reserves within United Utilities Group to implement the Return of Capital and pay dividends in the future.

Shareholders will not have to pay anything for the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares. Based on the Closing Price of 748.5 pence per United Utilities Share and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue, in each case, on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, the total amount of the Return of Capital (which is expected to be approximately £1.5 billion) is equivalent to approximately 22.7 per cent. of the market capitalisation of United Utilities.

2.2 B Share Alternatives

Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) have three choices as to how to receive their Return of Capital:

- (i) Initial B Share Redemption: an immediate 170 pence redemption per B Share; or
- (ii) B Share Dividend: a single dividend of 170 pence per B Share;
- (iii) Final B Share Redemption: retention of B Shares until they are redeemed on 14 April 2009 for 170 pence per B Share.

Shareholders need not make the same choice for their entire holding of B Shares. Shareholders who do not elect for any of these alternatives will receive the Initial B Share Redemption in respect of all of their B Shares.

Initial B Share Redemption

B Shares for which a Shareholder has chosen this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008) at 170 pence per B Share. It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds will be sent to Shareholders, or that their CREST accounts will be credited with the proceeds, by 19 August 2008.

B Share Dividend

B Shares for which a Shareholder has chosen this alternative will automatically be reclassified as Deferred Shares, which will have negligible value and will be redeemed in whole or in part at a future date or dates at the discretion of United Utilities Group. It is expected that the payment of the B Share Dividend will be made in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, by cheque and, in either case, by 19 August 2008.

Final B Share Redemption

B Shares for which a Shareholder has chosen this alternative will be held by the Shareholder until they are redeemed by United Utilities Group at 170 pence per B Share on the Final B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 14 April 2009). It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds of the redemption will be sent to Shareholders, or that their CREST accounts will be credited with the proceeds, by 20 April 2009. A Shareholder who has elected for this alternative will, whilst he retains the B Shares, be entitled to receive the B Share Continuing Dividend. This is a non-cumulative dividend at the Interest Rate, payable on the nominal amount of 170 pence per B Share retained. It is only payable to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves and is not guaranteed. Payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend will be made in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, by cheque and, in either case, by 20 April 2009.

2.3 Overseas Shareholders

Overseas Shareholders may be affected by the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to the Proposals. US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depositary and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend. In the case of NZ Shareholders, the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

2.4 Admission

Application will be made for the Ordinary Shares (but not the B Shares) to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that Admission will become effective, and that dealings in Ordinary Shares will commence, by no later than 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

3. Information on United Utilities and United Utilities Group

United Utilities is a public limited company registered in England and Wales. Its core regulated business, United Utilities Water, holds licences to provide water and wastewater services to a population of some seven million people in North West England. The Group also applies its expertise in operating utility infrastructure to competitive markets.

United Utilities Group was incorporated on 8 April 2008 in England and Wales. It has not traded since incorporation. Upon the Scheme becoming effective, United Utilities Group will become the new holding company of the Group.

4. Summary financial information

4.1 Summary historical financial information

The financial information set out below has been extracted without material adjustment from United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008, which were announced on 3 June 2008. The financial information in the preliminary results announcement was extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS and which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008.

The results of United Utilities Electricity, the Group's industrial waste and facilities management operations and its share of results from its associate have been disclosed within discontinued operations for the year ended 31 March 2008. Corresponding amounts for the year to 31 March 2007 have been re-presented accordingly.

Consolidated income statements

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,362.9	1,986.7
Other income	21.3	8.9
Employee benefits expense	(317.5)	(254.1)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(248.2)	(221.3)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(120.1)	(101.2)
Other operating costs	(1,035.2)	(776.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,699.7)	(1,344.6)
Operating profit	663.2	642.1
Investment income	146.7	118.3
Finance expense	(331.6)	(258.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(184.9)	(139.8)
Profit before taxation	478.3	502.3
Taxation	(62.0)	(143.9)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	416.3	358.4
Discontinued operations
Profit for the period from discontinued operations	492.9	75.1
Profit for the year	909.2	433.5

Consolidated balance sheets

	As at 31 March 2008	As at 31 March 2007
	£m	£m
Non-current assets	7,907.4	9,315.6
Current assets	2,429.0	2,945.3
Current liabilities	(1,874.9)	(2,502.5)
Non-current liabilities	(5,251.5)	(7,023.6)
Net assets	3,210.0	2,734.8

4.2 Summary unaudited pro forma financial information

Presented below is summary pro forma financial information for the Group which shows the effect of the Proposals as if they had occurred on 31 March 2008.

	United Utilities 31 March 2008	Pro forma total
	£m	£m
Non-current assets	7,907.4	7,907.4
Current assets	2,429.0	2,429.0
Current liabilities	(1,874.9)	(3,381.3)
Non-current liabilities	(5,251.5)	(5,251.5)
Net assets	3,210.0	1,703.6

The Proposals will not change the Group's underlying operational performance, but will alter its capital structure. Given the increased level of gearing assumed by the Group following the Proposals, it is expected that the Group's underlying interest charge will increase, negatively impacting profit after tax, while the reduction in the number of shares in issue at the United Utilities Group level (when compared with the number of shares in issue at the United Utilities level prior to the Scheme Effective Date) will result in a positive impact on earnings per share.

4.3 Capitalisation and indebtedness

As at 31 March 2008, United Utilities had outstanding indebtedness of £4,667.3 million and a total capitalisation of £3,210.0 million. As at 23 April 2008, United Utilities Group had outstanding indebtedness of £50,000 and its total capitalisation was £2.

5. Dividend policy

On 29 November 2007, the Board outlined a new dividend policy which applies from the current financial year (2008/09) to reflect the revised composition and earnings profile of the Group. In light of the sale of United Utilities Electricity and the Return of Capital, the dividend per share from 2008/09 is intended be reduced by 30 per cent. compared with the 2007/08 dividend per share of 46.67 pence. Thereafter, the Group's revised dividend policy is intended to target a growth rate of RPI plus two per cent. to be applied from 2009/10 to the 2008/09 revised dividend per share.

6. Current trading, trends and prospects

As stated in its preliminary results announcement of 3 June 2008, United Utilities has delivered a good financial performance in the year ended 31 March 2008. Underlying profit before tax increased by 17 per cent. to £476 million and underlying operating profit was up by 7 per cent. to £677 million.

The Group's regulated activities have delivered strong growth in the period ended 31 March 2008 with operating profit up 5 per cent., an increase of 8 per cent. on an underlying basis.

Capital investment in the Group's regulated water and wastewater operations, including infrastructure renewals expenditure, amounted to £826 million during the year ended 31 March 2008. The Group has agreed a new strategy with Ofwat for processing and disposing of sewerage sludge, based on increasing capacity at an existing site rather than developing a new site. The capital investment programme has been reprofiled to reflect this agreement and United Utilities is now broadly in line with regulatory assumptions.

The Board expects the Group to continue to deliver a strong financial performance over the remainder of this regulatory period, underpinned by allowed price rises to fund substantial investment in its networks. Continued investment in the Group's assets will help to raise environmental standards further and improve the service the Group offers to customers.

7. Risk factors

7.1 Risks relating to the Group and its business

- Revenue of the Group's regulated business is substantially influenced by the decisions of Ofwat which could adversely affect profitability.
- Failure to deliver the capital investment programmes could adversely affect profitability.
- Failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings implicit in the regulatory reviews could adversely affect profitability.
- Environmental laws and their compliance requirements could increase the Group's costs and adversely affect profitability.
- Failure to comply with applicable law or regulations, or to take corrective action following such a failure could have a material effect on the Group's business.
- Events, service interruptions, water shortages or contamination of water supplies could adversely affect profitability.
- Non-recovery of customer debt could adversely affect profitability.
- Revenue, profitability and cashflow of the Group's non-regulated activities may be substantially influenced by the decisions of regulators or failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings.
- Rapid growth in the infrastructure management sector exposes the Group to execution risk; conversely, slow growth could also affect profitability.
- Pension scheme obligations may require the Group to make additional contributions to the schemes, which could adversely affect profitability.
- Operational risks can result from various parts of the Group's business.
- The Group is involved in proceedings against the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration with a potential liability of approximately £44 million and is exposed to litigation risk generally.
- Future changes to laws or regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business.
- An inability to achieve timely recovery of corporate information systems, or the technology on which such systems rely, could adversely affect the Group's profitability or financial position.

7.2 Risks relating to the Return of Capital

- Confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is within the discretion of the Court.
- The Return of Capital materially reduces the liquidity of United Utilities Group.

7.3 Risks relating to the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares

- The price of United Utilities Shares and the Ordinary Shares may be volatile.
- The future UK tax treatment of the acquisition, ownership and disposal of Ordinary Shares and B Shares could change.
- Future dividends will depend on the progress of the business and United Utilities Group's continuing profitability. The inability of United Utilities Group's direct and indirect subsidiaries to pay dividends in an amount sufficient to enable United Utilities Group to meet its cash requirements at the holding company level could have a material adverse effect on its ability to pay dividends.
- United Utilities Group may issue shares in the future, which may adversely affect the market price of Ordinary Shares.

7.4 Risks relating to the current conditions in the global financial markets

- The credit crisis has increased the cost of and generally made debt issuance more onerous.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares is subject to a number of risks. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information set out in this document, in particular those risks set out below. If any of the following risks actually materialise, United Utilities Group's business, financial condition, prospects and share price could be materially and adversely affected to the detriment of United Utilities Group and its shareholders. Further risks and uncertainties which are not presently known to the Directors at the date of this document, or that the Directors currently consider immaterial, may also have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Group.

1. Risks relating to the Group and its business

1.1 Revenue of the Group's regulated business is substantially influenced by the decisions of Ofwat which could adversely affect profitability

The revenue, profitability and cashflow of the Group's water and wastewater business (the regulated business) is substantially influenced by the service levels, regulatory targets and price limits established every five years by Ofwat, and Ofwat's assessment of delivery against those factors. A description of the process under which Ofwat determines price limits is found in section 4 of Part IX. The most recent price determination was the 2004 Final Determination which set price limits for the five years from 1 April 2005. The next price review will take place in 2009 and will take effect from 1 April 2010.

An adverse price determination, which would adversely affect revenue, profitability and cashflow, may occur as a result of a number of factors, including an inadequate allowed cost of capital or regulatory assumptions concerning operating expenses and required capital expenditure as well as turnover forecasts proving not to be sufficiently accurate. In addition, unforeseen financial obligations or costs may arise (for example, as a result of ensuring regulatory compliance or changes to legislation or regulatory requirements) after a price review which were not taken into account by Ofwat in setting price limits, and are consequently not compensated for, which could have a material adverse effect on financial performance.

Scope to re-open price limits within a particular five-year price review period is limited (as described in section 4 of Part IX) and the Group may not be able to recover any costs using these mechanisms. In addition, these mechanisms are two-way processes and it is possible that Ofwat could seek to use these mechanisms to reduce price limits for the Group, which could have a material adverse effect on financial performance.

Price limits for United Utilities' regulated business for the current period were determined by Ofwat in December 2004. In some areas, Ofwat disallowed, or excluded for later consideration, a number of schemes and operational expenditure, or has cut back on the scale and pace of the progress, for which the Group had planned in its strategic business plan. Such actions could have an adverse effect on the Group's ability to deliver its strategic business plan and could materially adversely affect its profitability. In addition, Ofwat excluded certain increases in the Group's operating costs, which will require the Group to achieve additional operating efficiencies. These savings may not be achievable and/or sustainable and additional costs may therefore need to be incurred in order for the Group to comply with relevant requirements, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.2 Failure to deliver the capital investment programmes could adversely affect profitability

The Group's regulated business requires significant capital expenditure for additions to, or replacement of assets, plant and equipment for its water and wastewater treatment facilities and networks. The price limits set by Ofwat take into account the level of capital expenditure that Ofwat expects to be incurred during the relevant five-year price review period and the associated funding costs.

Historically, the Group has financed the expenditure from cashflows from operations and from debt financing. There can be no assurance that cashflows from operations will not decline, or that in the longer term, additional debt financing or other sources of capital will be available to meet these requirements.

If the Group is unable to deliver the capital programme at expected expenditure levels, or is unable to secure the expected capital efficiencies associated with the capital programme, or if the programme falls behind schedule for other reasons, or adverse legacy effects of earlier capital investment emerge or amounts budgeted in prior capital programmes prove insufficient to meet the actual capital expenditure required, the Group's profitability may suffer. In addition, the Group's ability to meet regulatory and environmental performance standards could be adversely affected by such failure, which may result in fines imposed by Ofwat of an amount of up to ten per cent. of United Utilities' relevant regulated turnover (as described in section 5 of Part IX) or other sanctions.

At the beginning of the 2000–2005 regulatory contract, there had been around 3,000 intermittent discharges recorded in the North West region from wastewater overflows of which a number were determined by the Environment Agency as unsatisfactory (UIDs). There have been ongoing discussions between United Utilities, Ofwat and the Environment Agency regarding the need, scope and cost of the required solutions for a number of these UIDs. The majority of these UID projects were not part of the 2005-2010 regulatory contract and will require additional investment.

In October 2007, the Group submitted a funding submission, or Change Protocol, to Ofwat relating to discharges into inland waters. This submission followed a planning inquiry which dealt with a small number of such UIDs but which was intended to establish precedent for a larger number of similar discharges that were under discussion. A further planning inquiry dealing with discharges to coastal bathing waters was heard in December 2007. United Utilities will be making further Change Protocol submissions to Ofwat dealing with those UIDs affected by that planning inquiry as well as other UIDs.

Taken together, the Group currently estimates that additional funding for capital investment of approximately £700 million is likely to be required to complete the work on these UID programmes. A large proportion of this expenditure is now likely to fall into the 2010-15 regulatory period and so the funding of this investment will be considered as part of the forthcoming price review. This investment programme, if fully endorsed by DEFRA and Ofwat, should be funded through price limits and deliver additional growth in United Utilities Water's regulatory capital values as well as benefits for customers and the environment. The Group cannot be certain, however, that all these additional costs will be recoverable on this basis and will not adversely affect its profitability or financial position.

1.3 Failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings implicit in the regulatory reviews could adversely affect profitability

Operating cost savings to be achieved during the current five-year regulatory period are implicit in the regulatory reviews. To assist the achievement of these operating cost savings, a business change programme has been introduced. If the operating cost savings were not achieved, then the Group's profitability would suffer. Similarly, if operational performance were to deteriorate, this may be reflected by less favourable outcomes from future price reviews and the Group's profitability would suffer.

1.4 Environmental laws and their compliance requirements could increase the Group's costs and adversely affect profitability

There are various environmental laws with which the Group must comply. These laws establish, amongst other things, standards for water abstraction, drinking water quality, the discharge of sewerage and other polluting discharges into the environment, and procedures governing operational development. The Group is required to obtain various environmental consents from regulators – for example, abstraction licences to abstract surface water and groundwater for water supply, discharge consents to discharge sewerage from sewerage treatment works into surface waters and environmental permits for pollution and for the treatment, keeping and disposal of waste.

The Group endeavours to comply with all legal requirements. However, historically, the Group has not been in full compliance, and it cannot guarantee that in the future it will be in full compliance at all times, with all applicable environmental laws and the terms and conditions in its environmental consents. Should the Group fail to comply it could face fines imposed by the courts or otherwise face sanction by the relevant regulator.

In particular, the Group is required to comply with laws and regulations intended to control the release of, or exposure to, contaminants that are potentially harmful to health, safety or the environment. Land that is designated as contaminated land may need to be remediated, with the liability for such remediation falling first on any person who caused the contamination (or who knew of its presence and failed to prevent it), or, if such a person cannot be found, on the current owner or occupier of the land. The Group owns a significant number of sites and operates upon or within land owned, tenanted or trafficked by third parties. None of the land owned or occupied by the Group is currently designated as contaminated but it owns or occupies, or is required to work within, sites that have potentially been adversely affected by virtue of prior use. A site owned or occupied by the Group may therefore in future be designated as contaminated land or the Group may be required to work within a site that is already, or becomes, designated as contaminated land. Whilst the Group has implemented risk controls intended to ensure regulatory and legal compliance it cannot guarantee in the future that it will be in total compliance at all times with these laws and regulations. Should the Group fail to comply, it could face sanctions imposed by the regulator or the courts or claims by third parties. It is possible that if land owned or occupied by the Group is designated as contaminated land, the Group may be liable for the cost of remediation.

In addition to regulatory compliance proceedings, the Group could become involved in a range of third party legal proceedings relating to land use, environmental protection and water quality. Examples are: planning permission applications and appeals against refusal of planning permissions in relation to, for example, sewerage treatment or water treatment works; challenges by third parties to decisions relating to the Group that have been made by regulators; and civil actions by third parties for the alleged infringement of their common law rights, such as nuisance claims relating to odour or other matters. Refusal of planning permission and successful third party claims could materially affect the way that the Group operates, prejudice its reputation and result in the imposition of substantial fines, damages and other costs, each of which could increase the Group's costs, or adversely affect its profitability and financial position.

Other regulatory changes are likely to include the transfer to the Group of private sewers and lateral drains; and the risk of non-renewal of water abstraction licences.

Environmental laws and regulations are complex and change frequently. These laws, and their enforcement, have tended to become more stringent over time. Whilst management seeks to take into account the future capital and operating expenditures necessary to achieve and maintain compliance with current and known future changes in laws and regulations, it is possible that new or stricter standards could be imposed, or current interpretation of existing legislation could be amended, which could increase the Group's costs, or adversely affect its profitability and financial position.

Although these costs may be recoverable in part through the regulatory process of setting appropriate future price limits or, in the case of contaminated land compliance, via litigation, there can be no assurance of this. Therefore, the Group cannot guarantee that the costs of complying with, or discharging its liabilities under, current and future environmental laws will not adversely affect its profitability or financial position.

1.5 A failure to comply with applicable law or regulations, or to take corrective action following such a failure could have a material effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The businesses of the Group are subject to various laws and regulations in the UK, some of which are described in Part IX of this Prospectus. Regulatory authorities may from time to time make enquiries of companies within their jurisdiction regarding compliance with regulations governing their operations and in some cases those companies may become aware of information or circumstances that need to be drawn to the attention of Ofwat or another governmental or regulatory authority. The Group faces the risk that Ofwat or another governmental or regulatory authority could find that it has failed to comply with applicable law or regulations or has not successfully undertaken corrective action. In this case, regulatory action could be taken which could result in adverse publicity for, or negative perceptions regarding the Group, as well as diverting management's attention from day-to-day management of the Group's business. As described in Part IX of this Prospectus, such regulatory action may include the imposition of an enforcement order requiring the Group to incur additional capital or operating expenditure to remedy such non-compliance and/or the imposition of a financial penalty (of up to ten per cent. of relevant regulated turnover) on the Group for any contravention of its appointments respectively as a water and sewerage licensee under the Water Industry Act and, in the most extreme cases, may lead to revocation of a licence or the appointment of a special administrator. There may also be additional or unforeseen costs required in order to bring the Group into compliance. Regulatory action against any member of the Group could therefore have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition. Breach of applicable laws or regulations could also lead to claims by customers or other third parties which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.6 Events, service interruptions, water shortages or contamination of water supplies could adversely affect profitability

In addition to its capital investment programmes, the Group controls utility networks and undertakes maintenance of the associated assets with the objective of providing a continuous service. In some cases these assets and networks, and their supporting plant and equipment, contain resources with high levels of energy or harmful properties. In exceptional circumstances the failure of an asset, or an element of a network or supporting plant or equipment could result in catastrophic damage, including significant loss of life, and/or environmental damage and/or economic and social disruption. In less exceptional circumstances the failure of a key asset could still cause a significant interruption to the continuity and/or quality of services resulting in additional costs which could adversely affect profitability. Although the Group has continued to refine its risk management and business continuity procedures, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such measures will be effective in preventing or, when necessary, managing large-scale incidents to the satisfaction of the lead government department responsible, relevant regulators, customers and the wider stakeholder community. Consequently, it is possible that a catastrophic and/or prolonged incident may result in an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

The Group is under a duty to supply water that is wholesome at the time of supply. Under the Water Industry Act 1991, the Drinking Water Inspectorate is required to take enforcement action against the Group for any breach of quality standards, or of monitoring, treatment, record-keeping and/or information requirements of the Water Quality Regulations. In addition, the Group may be prosecuted and fined for supplying water that is unfit for human consumption.

Water supplies may be subject to interruption or contamination, including contamination from the presence of naturally occurring compounds and pollution from man-made sources or third parties' actions. The Group could be fined for breaches of statutory requirements or regulations or held liable for human exposure to hazardous substances in its water supplies or other environmental damage, which could have an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

In the event that water supply is contaminated or interrupted and the Group is unable to substitute water supply from an uncontaminated water source, or to treat adequately the contaminated water source, it is required to provide an alternative water supply of equivalent quality in a timely manner and in sufficient quantities. An inability to do so may adversely affect the Group's profitability or financial position.

Water shortages may be caused by periods of below average rainfall, long-term increases in demand, short-term exceptional demand or operational problems involving water abstraction, transmission, treatment, storage or distribution (including leakage). Environmental factors such as climate change may exacerbate seasonal fluctuations in supply availability. A combination of any or all of these factors may require restrictions on the use or supply of water (including hosepipe bans and drought orders). If there are water shortages the Group may incur additional costs in order to provide emergency reinforcement to supplies in areas of shortage, which may have an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

Although these costs may be recoverable in part through the regulatory process of setting appropriate future price limits, there can be no assurance of this. The Group maintains insurance policies in relation to loss events and legal liabilities likely to be associated with these risks, although there can be no assurance that coverage extends to the entirety of any loss or that coverage will continue to be available in the future.

1.7 Non-recovery of customer debt could adversely affect profitability

United Utilities Water manages the billing, cash collection and debt management activities for approximately 3.2 million domestic and business wastewater and water customers. The Water Industry Act 1991 (as amended by the Water Industry Act 1999) prohibits the disconnection of a water supply for non-payment and the limiting of a supply with the intention of enforcing payment for certain premises including domestic dwellings.

Non-recovery of debt is therefore a risk to the Group and may cause the Group's profitability to suffer. However, allowance is made by Ofwat in the price limits at each price review for a proportion of debt deemed to be irrecoverable. In addition, the Group can also request a re-setting of its price limits through an IDoK (as explained in section 4 of Part IX) during a review period when costs or savings arising from changes in certain regulatory assumptions (including as to the level of non-recoverable debt) are material, although there can be no guarantee that an IDoK application will be successful.

Although new and existing strategies continue to be implemented to reduce cash collection risks, there can be no assurance that the Group will not suffer losses from the Group's inability to recover its debts fully.

1.8 The revenue, profitability and cashflow of the Group's non-regulated activities may be substantially influenced by the decisions of regulators or failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings

The Group's non-regulated business provides for the operation and management of assets in a number of regulated sectors. These services include the maintenance and operation of electricity, gas and water networks, the design and construction of new assets, the design and construction of new connections to the relevant network and the provision of ancillary services. Adverse price determinations by the regulators of the businesses that the Group provides services to or the failure by the Group to meet operating performance targets or achieve specified operating efficiencies could have a material adverse effect on the turnover, profitability or cashflow of the Group's non-regulated business.

1.9 Rapid growth in the infrastructure management sector exposes the Group to execution risk; conversely, slow growth could adversely affect profitability

The non-regulated business of the Group (previously conducted through United Utilities Contract Solutions) is expanding into new markets domestically and internationally. The delivery of contracts, both existing and future, will be achieved by exploiting the Group's core infrastructure management skills. Overstretching these skills could lead to a loss of customers or an inability to meet contractual commitments, or to penalties, which, in turn, may cause profitability to suffer. Slower than expected expansion could also impact profitability.

1.10 Pension scheme obligations may require the Group to make additional contributions to the schemes, which could reduce profitability

The Group participates in a number of pension schemes principally in the UK. The principal schemes are funded defined benefit schemes and the assets of the schemes are held in trust funds independent of Group finances.

For the Group's main pension schemes, a combined one-off lump sum contribution of £319.5 million was made on 31 March 2005 and the Group entered into a five year contribution holiday for those schemes. However, following a number of changes to its business and pension schemes, it was agreed that employer contributions would recommence from 1 April 2008. Following the sale of United Utilities Electricity in December 2007, the Group is no longer responsible for the funding of pension liabilities relating to the electricity business.

For the Group's main pension schemes there was a combined deficit of £94.3 million (before deferred tax) as at 31 March 2008, compared with a surplus of £62.2 million (before deferred tax) as at 31 March 2007, calculated under IAS 19. This funding position may vary from time to time, in particular if short-term investment performance does not match changes to the value of the liabilities. Further increases in the deficit may impact the profitability of the Group, although some of the additional deficit may be recoverable through the price limits set by Ofwat.

The Group continues to monitor the funding of its schemes and is in the process of reviewing its strategy in relation to pension risks.

1.11 Operating risk

Managing the Group's businesses is dependent upon the ability to process a large number of transactions efficiently and accurately. Operational risk and losses can result from: fraud; employee errors; supply chain disruption; failure to document transactions properly or to obtain proper internal authorisation; failure to comply with regulatory requirements and business principles; resource shortages; failure or under-performance of business processes, assets or equipment; natural disasters; the failure of internal or external systems; or the actions or inactions of third parties.

Although the Group has implemented risk controls and loss mitigation actions, and substantial resources are devoted to developing efficient procedures and to employee training, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such procedures will be effective in controlling each of the operational risks faced by the Group.

1.12 Material litigation could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The Group faces the risk of litigation in connection with its business. In general, liability for litigation is difficult to assess or quantify; recovery may be sought for very large and/or indeterminate amounts and the existence and magnitude of liability may remain unknown for substantial periods of time.

NOSS Consortium ("NOSS"), of which North West Water International Limited ("NWWIL"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Utilities, is a member and the sole remaining active participant, is party to arbitration proceedings in Thailand in relation to a design and construction contract dated 1 November 1993 between NOSS and the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration ("BMA") to build a wastewater treatment plant and network in central Bangkok.

Following disagreements with the engineer (Dorsch Consult) and disputes with the BMA, NOSS served a notice under section 387 of the Thai Civil and Commercial Code on the BMA in November 1997 requiring the BMA to remedy its various breaches of contract. In March 1998 (following the continued failure of the BMA to remedy its breaches) NOSS terminated the contract with the BMA and served a notice of arbitration. NOSS has total claims against the BMA of approximately 6 billion Baht (approximately £83 million). The BMA has counter-claimed for approximately 3.2 billion Baht (approximately £44 million).

Each party has appointed arbitrators, but the arbitration process stalled in 2004 following the arbitrators' failure to agree on the appointment of a third arbitrator. In September 2007, the BMA called a hearing before the Thai Civil Court in an apparent attempt to restart the process. In the event and by agreement the parties appointed the third arbitrator in January 2008. No further steps have so far occurred in the arbitral process since then but it remains possible that the disputes between the parties may proceed to full arbitration in due course.

1.13 Future changes to laws or regulations or the introduction of new laws or regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The Group cannot accurately predict the impact of future changes in law or regulation or the introduction of new legislation or regulation on its business. Additionally, from time to time, interpretation of existing laws and regulations may change. Future changes in law or regulation (including, for example, any changes introduced in order to increase competition in the water industry), the introduction of new laws or regulations and new judicial or regulatory interpretation of existing or future laws or regulations could affect the Group's operations and the condition of its business. The costs associated with future changes to laws or regulations, new laws or regulations or new interpretation of laws or regulations may be wholly or partly recoverable through the mechanisms referred to in Part IX or future price reviews, but, in the event that such recovery is not possible, such costs could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.14 An inability to achieve timely recovery of corporate information systems, or the technology upon which such systems rely could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, profitability or financial condition

Managing the Group's businesses is dependent upon the ability to access, utilise and communicate remotely via electronic software applications mounted upon corporate information technology hardware and communicating through internal and external networks. The ownership, maintenance and recovery of such applications, hardware and networks are not wholly under the Group's control. Although the Group has implemented risk controls and loss mitigation actions, and substantial resources are devoted to enhancing the resilience of such applications, hardware and networks, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such procedures will be effective in controlling their resilience and recovery. In the event that such recovery is not possible, or is protracted, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

2. Risks relating to the Return of Capital

2.1 Confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is within the discretion of the Court

Pursuant to the Proposals, it is expected that the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be issued on 28 July 2008 to Shareholders. It is expected that the Ordinary Shares will be admitted to the Official List and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities on 28 July 2008. It is expected that the Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital will be held on 30 July 2008, although this date is subject to change dependent upon a number of factors, including when the Scheme becomes effective and the date on which the Court is available to hear the claim form for the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital.

The confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is within the discretion of the Court and the Court can refuse to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital if it considers it to be to the detriment of creditors. If the Court refuses to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, United Utilities Group will not have sufficient distributable reserves to implement the Proposals and Shareholders will not receive the Return of Capital.

2.2 The Return of Capital materially reduces liquidity of United Utilities Group

The Return of Capital will result in a material reduction in the amount of liquidity, comprising cash and undrawn committed bank facilities, available to the Group. This means that the Group will need to raise new debt capital in the longer term earlier than it might otherwise need to absent the Return of Capital.

Nothing in this risk factor is intended to constitute qualifications of the working capital statement of United Utilities Group set out in section 12 of Part I.

3. Risks relating to the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares

3.1 The price of Ordinary Shares may be volatile

The Group's share price may be volatile due to a wide range of factors, including the risk factors identified in this document, some of which are beyond the Group's control.

The price of the Ordinary Shares may move in line with the price of shares in companies which operate in the same sector as the Group. Further, other broad economic, market and industry factors may decrease the market price of the Ordinary Shares, regardless of the Group's actual operating performance. Market fluctuations, as well as general political and economic conditions, such as recession or interest rate and currency fluctuations, also may affect the market price of the Ordinary Shares.

3.2 Tax treatment

The summary of the United Kingdom taxation treatment contained in Part VI is intended as a general guide only and relates only to certain UK tax consequences of receiving the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares under the Scheme. It is based on current UK tax law and the current practice of HM Revenue & Customs. Both of these are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. Therefore, the future UK tax treatment of the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares may potentially be subject to change, which could impact on the UK tax position of a Shareholder. The summary is intended to apply only to Shareholders who are resident in the UK for UK tax purposes, who hold the Ordinary Shares and B Shares as investments and not on trading account, to whom Class A Shares are allotted and who are the beneficial owners of the Ordinary Shares, B Shares and the Class A Shares. The summary is not intended to apply to certain classes of shareholders such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, those holding shares by reason of their employment or collective investment schemes.

Any Shareholders or prospective shareholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position regarding the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares and/or who are subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should consult their own tax advisers.

3.3 Dividends

United Utilities Group will be a holding company and will not conduct business of its own. Dividends from United Utilities Group's only direct subsidiary, United Utilities, and its subsidiaries, together with any investment income, are expected to be United Utilities Group's sole source of funds to pay expenses and dividends, if any. Future dividends will depend on the progress of the business, the Group's continuing ability to be profitable and its financial resources. The inability of United Utilities Group's direct and indirect subsidiaries to pay dividends in an amount sufficient to enable United Utilities Group to meet its cash requirements at the holding company level could have a material adverse effect on its business and its ability to pay dividends.

3.4 United Utilities Group may issue shares in the future

United Utilities Group may offer additional shares in the future which may adversely affect the market price of the Ordinary Shares. United Utilities Group has no current plans for a subsequent offer of its shares or to offer rights or any invitation to subscribe for shares other than under the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans. However, it is possible that United Utilities Group may decide to offer additional shares in the future. An additional offering of shares by United Utilities Group, or the public perception that an offer may occur, could have an adverse effect on the market price of the Ordinary Shares.

4. Risks relating to the current conditions in the global financial markets

The current credit problems that are impacting the debt capital markets generally for all borrowers have resulted in the cost of credit increasing significantly over the period since the summer of 2007 and also generally made issuance of new debt capital more onerous.

If the current credit problems persist, it is likely that the costs incurred by the Group may be materially more than those experienced on similar issues of debt capital in the recent past. This would increase the cost of funding for the Group and reduce profits.

Nothing contained in this "Risk Factors" section is intended to qualify the working capital statement of United Utilities Group set out in section 12 of Part I.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

General

This document contains certain “forward-looking statements”, including statements about current beliefs and expectations of the Directors. These statements typically contain words such as “intends”, “expects”, “anticipates”, “targets”, “estimates” and words of similar import. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, may be currently unknown or may be currently unknowable. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, factors set out more fully in the section of this document headed “Risk Factors” as well as the following possibilities: future revenues are lower than expected; competitive pressures in the industry increase; general economic conditions or conditions affecting the industry, whether internationally or in the places the Group does business, are less favourable than expected.

Any forward-looking statements are only made as at the date of this document and save as required by the UK Listing Authority, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, including, without limitation, the Prospectus Rules, the Listing Rules or the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, United Utilities Group does not undertake any obligation to update the forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, or any change in events, conditions or assumptions or other factors, after the date of this document.

Information published by Ofwat

All statements other than statements of historical facts included in any information provided by United Utilities Water PLC (“United Utilities Water”) to Ofwat and which may be published by Ofwat (on its website or otherwise) including, without limitation, those regarding United Utilities Water’s financial position, business strategy, plans, and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of United Utilities Water and/or United Utilities, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding United Utilities Water’s present and future business strategies and the environment in which United Utilities Water will operate in the future and may contain financial modelling based on provisional estimates and assumptions which may be significantly varied. Except as required by the rules of the UK Listing Authority, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, United Utilities Water and United Utilities expressly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revision to any such forward-looking statements contained therein to reflect any change in United Utilities’ or United Utilities Water’s expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. No representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied is made and no responsibility accepted by United Utilities or United Utilities Water as to the accuracy, completeness or adequacy of any such information. Nothing contained in such information is or shall be relied upon as a promise or representation by any of United Utilities, United Utilities Water or any of their affiliates or subsidiaries and they accept no responsibility or liability howsoever arising from the contents of such information or the status of or any omissions in such information.

EXPECTED TIMETABLE OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS

All references to time in this document are to local time in the United Kingdom unless otherwise stated. The dates given in this document are indicative only and may be subject to change. The dates are based on United Utilities Group's current expectations and will depend on, amongst other things, the dates upon which the Court sanctions the Scheme, the Scheme becomes effective and the Court confirms the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. In particular, certain Court dates are subject to confirmation by the Court. If the scheduled dates of the Court hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme or of the Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is changed, United Utilities Group will give adequate notice of the change by issuing an announcement through a Regulatory Information Service.

6 June 2008	Posting of the Circular to Shareholders
27 June 2008	Record date for United Utilities Final Dividend
11:00 a.m. 29 June 2008	Latest time for receipt of blue form of proxy for the Court Meeting ¹
11:15 a.m. 29 June 2008	Latest time for receipt of white form of proxy for the General Meeting ²
6:00 p.m. 29 June 2008	Scheme Voting Record Time (in respect of the General Meeting and the Court Meeting) ³
11:00 a.m. 1 July 2008	Court Meeting
11:15 a.m. 1 July 2008	General Meeting ⁴
24 July 2008	Court hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and confirm the capital reduction of United Utilities
11:00 a.m. 25 July 2008	United Utilities Annual General Meeting
25 July 2008	Last day for dealings in United Utilities Shares
25 July 2008	Scheme Record Date
6:00 p.m. 25 July 2008	Scheme Record Time
28 July 2008	Scheme Effective Date
8:00 a.m. 28 July 2008	Delisting of United Utilities Shares, Admission of Ordinary Shares, crediting of Ordinary Shares and B Shares to CREST accounts and dealings in Ordinary Shares commence on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities
28 July 2008	Sale of fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares
30 July 2008	Court hearing of the claim form to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital
31 July 2008	United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital becomes effective

¹ Blue forms of proxy for the Court Meeting not returned by this time may be handed to the Chairman or the Registrars at the Court Meeting prior to the vote being taken.

² To be valid, the white form of proxy for the General Meeting must be lodged at least 48 hours before the time appointed.

³ If either the Court Meeting or the General Meeting is adjourned, the Scheme Voting Record Time for the adjourned meeting will be 6:00 p.m. on the day which is two days before the date of the adjourned meeting.

⁴ To commence at the time fixed or, if later, immediately following the conclusion or adjournment of the Court Meeting.

4:30 p.m. 8 August 2008	Latest time for receipt of TTE instructions regarding B Share elections through CREST
4:30 p.m. 8 August 2008	Latest time for receipt of Form of Election
8 August 2008	Record date for B Share Dividend
8 August 2008	Payment of the United Utilities Final Dividend either by cheque or to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)
11 August 2008	B Share Dividend allocated and relevant B Shares converted into Deferred Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the B Share Dividend
11 August 2008	Initial B Share Redemption and cancellation of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Initial B Share Redemption (and those not having returned a valid Form of Election or those not having made a valid TTE instruction by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008)
11 August 2008	Despatch of certificates in respect of Ordinary Shares
11 August 2008	Despatch of cheques or crediting CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the sale of fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares
By 15 August 2008	Despatch of certificates in respect of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Final B Share Redemption
By 19 August 2008	Despatch of cheques in relation to the B Share Dividend or payment of the B Share Dividend to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)
By 19 August 2008	Despatch of cheques or crediting of CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the Initial B Share Redemption
14 April 2009	Final B Share Redemption and cancellation of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Final B Share Redemption
By 20 April 2009	Despatch of cheques or crediting of CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the Final B Share Redemption
By 20 April 2009	Despatch of cheques in relation to the B Share Continuing Dividend or payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)

DIRECTORS, COMPANY SECRETARY, REGISTERED OFFICE AND ADVISERS

DIRECTORS

Sir Richard Evans
Philip Green
Tim Weller
Charlie Cornish
Dr Catherine Bell
Norman Broadhurst
Paul Heiden
David Jones CBE
Dr John McAdam
Andrew Pinder CBE
Nick Salmon

COMPANY SECRETARY

Tom Keevil

REGISTERED OFFICE

Haweswater House
Lingley Mere Business Park
Lingley Green Avenue
Great Sankey
Warrington WA5 3LP

JOINT SPONSOR AND FINANCIAL ADVISER

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch
Winchester House
1 Great Winchester Street
London EC2N 2DB

JOINT SPONSOR AND FINANCIAL ADVISER

JPMorgan Cazenove Limited
20 Moorgate
London EC2R 6DA

LEGAL ADVISERS

Slaughter and May
One Bunhill Row
London EC1Y 8YY

AUDITORS AND REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS

Deloitte & Touche LLP
Stonecutter Court
1 Stonecutter Street
London EC4A 4TR

REGISTRARS

Equiniti Limited
Aspect House
Lancing
West Sussex BN99 6DA

DEPOSITARY

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.
4 New York Plaza
New York, 10004

PART I

INFORMATION ON UNITED UTILITIES AND UNITED UTILITIES GROUP

1. The Proposals

1.1 The Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

On 29 November 2007, the Board of United Utilities announced its intention to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders. The Return of Capital will be comprised of the net equity proceeds of approximately £1,050 million from the sale of United Utilities Electricity and a further £450 million from the Group's pre-existing resources in order to create a more efficient capital structure.

Under the Companies Acts, a public company requires, amongst other things, "distributable reserves" in order to return cash to its shareholders. The structure intended to be implemented as part of the Proposals will allow United Utilities Group to effect the Return of Capital whilst providing greater flexibility within its capital structure by creating distributable reserves to enable United Utilities Group to pursue the Group's revised dividend policy (as further described in section 9 of this Part I).

The Return of Capital will be effected by introducing United Utilities Group as the holding company of United Utilities through a Court approved scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006, the issue of Ordinary Shares and B Shares and the subsequent reduction of capital of United Utilities Group under section 135 of the Companies Act 1985.

Shareholders will be asked to approve the Scheme at the Court Meeting convened at the direction of the Court for 11:00 a.m. on 1 July 2008. Shareholders will also be asked to approve the special resolution to approve certain matters required to implement the Scheme at the General Meeting convened for 11:15 a.m. on 1 July 2008.

United Utilities Group has the same directors as United Utilities. Prior to the Scheme becoming effective, United Utilities Group will have no material assets or liabilities. Following the implementation of the Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, United Utilities Group will own no material assets other than the issued share capital of United Utilities. United Utilities will have almost identical assets after the Scheme has become effective as it has before the Scheme becomes effective. As a result, the Scheme will not substantially alter the assets and liabilities of United Utilities and United Utilities Group will have substantially the same business management and operations after the Scheme has become effective as United Utilities has before the Scheme becomes effective.

Application will be made for the Ordinary Shares (but not the B Shares) to be admitted to the Official List and to be traded on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

Under the Scheme, Shareholders will receive Ordinary Shares and B Shares in exchange for United Utilities Shares that they hold at the Scheme Record Time on the following basis:

17 Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares
and
one B Share for each United Utilities Share

Any fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold, and the net proceeds of the sale remitted to Shareholders pro rata to their entitlements.

The number of Ordinary Shares issued under the Scheme will be reduced from the number of United Utilities Shares by the number of United Utilities Shares commensurate with the Return of Capital, with a view to facilitating comparability of share price before and after the Return of Capital. The number of Ordinary Shares and B Shares to be received may be subject to change in the circumstances and in the manner described in section 1.1 in Part VII.

Upon implementation of the Scheme, a holder of Ordinary Shares will (subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements) have the same proportionate interest in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities Group as he had as a holder of United Utilities Shares before the Scheme becomes effective. The rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares will be substantially the same as those attaching to the United Utilities Shares.

Following the Scheme becoming effective, a reduction of share capital of United Utilities Group is intended to be implemented. Subject to the sanction of the Court, the nominal amount of each Ordinary Share issued under the Scheme will be reduced from 500 pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) pursuant to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. This is a legal and accounting adjustment and will not of itself have any direct impact on the market value of the Ordinary Shares. This reduction will create distributable reserves to enable the Return of Capital to take place and for future dividends. In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme becoming effective which will be capitalised into Class A Shares in United Utilities Group. Following such capitalisation, the Class A Shares will be allotted pro rata to the holders of Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) and are then to be cancelled on confirmation of the Court as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. This will create further distributable reserves.

Implementation of the Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is conditional, amongst other things, upon approval of the Scheme by Shareholders at the Court Meeting, approval by Shareholders of the special resolution proposed at the General Meeting and sanction of the Scheme, and confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, by the Court.

Shareholders will not have to pay anything for the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares. Based on the Closing Price of 748.5 pence per United Utilities Share and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue in each case on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, the total amount of the Return of Capital (which is expected to be approximately £1.5 billion) is equivalent to approximately 22.7 per cent. of the market capitalisation of United Utilities.

Further details on the Proposals are set out in the Circular and in Part VII of this document.

1.2 B Share Alternatives

Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) holding B Shares will have three alternatives as to how to receive their Return of Capital:

- (i) Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1): this allows Shareholders to receive an immediate cash redemption payment of 170 pence in respect of each B Share so elected; and
- (ii) B Share Dividend (Alternative 2): this allows Shareholders to receive an immediate cash dividend of 170 pence in respect of each B Share so elected;
- (iii) Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3): this allows Shareholders to defer redemption of the B Shares to the Final B Share Redemption Date and receive on such date a cash redemption payment of 170 pence and the B Share Continuing Dividend in respect of each B Share so elected.

Shareholders need not make the same choice for their entire B Share holding. Shareholders who do not elect for any of these alternatives will receive the Initial B Share Redemption in respect of all of their B Shares.

Overseas Shareholders should read the additional information set out in section 6 of Part VII of this document. US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depository and will only be entitled to receive the Initial B Share Dividend. Any purported election by US Shareholders for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders, the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for those Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

Further details on the B Share Alternatives are set out in the Circular and in Part VII of this document.

2. History and development

2.1 History of United Utilities Group

United Utilities Group was incorporated and registered in England and Wales on 8 April 2008 under the Companies Act 1985 as a private company limited by shares under the name United Utilities Newco Limited with registered number 06559020. It was re-registered as a public company and changed its name to United Utilities Group PLC on 28 April 2008. Its registered office is at Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP. United Utilities Group is a holding company and has not traded since incorporation.

As part of the Proposals, United Utilities Group will become the holding company of the Group through the Scheme.

2.2 History of United Utilities

United Utilities (then known as North West Water Group PLC) was incorporated on 1 April 1989 under the Companies Act 1985 with registered number 02366616 along with its subsidiary United Utilities Water (then known as North West Water Limited).

In November 1995, United Utilities acquired United Utilities Electricity (then known as NORWEB plc), the distributor of electricity in North West England and, at that time, a supplier of electricity and gas in the United Kingdom. In August 2000, United Utilities sold the electricity and gas supply business.

In February 2006, United Utilities disposed of its telecommunications business, Your Communications, to THUS Group in exchange for shares in THUS Group. In June 2007, United Utilities sold its 22.63 per cent. stake in THUS Group via an accelerated book build.

In March 2007, the Group's business process outsourcing business, Vertex, was sold to a consortium of US-based private equity firms led by Oak Hill Capital Partners.

In order to best serve shareholders' interests by focusing on the Group's much larger water asset base, the Group sold its subsidiary company United Utilities Electricity (which owned the licensed electricity distribution network in the North West of England) to North West Electricity Networks, a joint venture between Colonial First State Global Asset Management (part of the Commonwealth Bank of Australia) and IIF Int'l Holding GP Limited (for and on behalf of IIF Int'l Holding L.P., a fund advised by JPMorgan Asset Management Infrastructure Investments Group).

3. Business overview of United Utilities

3.1 Business description

United Utilities is a public limited company registered in England and Wales. Its regulated business, United Utilities Water, holds licences to provide water and sewerage services to a population of some seven million people in North West England. The Group also applies its expertise in operating utility infrastructure to competitive markets.

3.2 Organisational structure

Since 1 April 2007, the Group has reported externally through three business segments: regulated activities, non-regulated activities and other activities.

Regulated activities comprise the regulated activities of United Utilities Water (water and wastewater). This company owns the respective infrastructure network assets representing 75.0 per cent. of the Group's segmental assets at 31 March 2008 (2007: 58.8 per cent.). The business generated 92.2 per cent. of the Group's operating profit from continuing operations in the year ended 31 March 2008 (2007: 90.5 per cent.).

Non-regulated activities comprise the Group's infrastructure management business, providing a service to clients in managing their infrastructure assets, and ownership of the Group's interest in non-regulated utility assets. These activities employ only a limited amount of capital representing 6.7 per cent. of the Group's segmental assets at 31 March 2008 (2007: 4.5 per cent.).

Until 31 March 2007, the Group reported through three business segments: United Utilities North West, United Utilities Contract Solutions, and Other activities.

A breakdown of total revenues of continuing activities by category of activity and geographic market for each of the years ended 31 March 2005, 31 March 2006, 31 March 2007 and 31 March 2008 follows:

Revenue (continuing)	2008	2007
	£m	£m
Regulated activities	1,416.3	1,320.8
Non-regulated activities	949.2	729.2
Other activities	41.3	53.0
Inter-segment revenue	(43.9)	(116.3)
	2,362.9	1,986.7
Revenue (continuing)	2007	2006
	£m	£m
United Utilities North West	1,636.2	1,502.9
United Utilities Contract Solutions	742.2	654.5
Other activities	53.0	39.9
Inter-segment revenue	(108.4)	(111.3)
	2,323.0	2,086.0
Revenue (continuing)	2006	2005
	£m	£m
Licensed Multi Utility operations	1,502.9	1,384.7
Infrastructure management	692.3	512.2
Business process outsourcing	404.7	396.4
Inter-segment revenue	(213.1)	(189.6)
	2,386.8	2,103.7

The basis for the Group's segmental reporting was changed with effect from its financial year ended 31 March 2007, as described below. In the financial statements for that year, the re-statement of the revenue figures for the Group's financial year ended 31 March 2006 was based on management's review of segmental reporting in light of the continuing evolution of the Group. The main impact has been the reclassification of the results of United Utilities Property Solutions from United Utilities Contract Solutions (formerly called Infrastructure management) to Other activities.

The effect of disposals in each of the three years ending 31 March 2008, 31 March 2007 and 31 March 2006 results in comparative information for each year being restated to exclude the activities of the relevant operations that become discontinued in that year.

During the entire period under review, the Group derived at least 90 per cent. of its revenue from the United Kingdom and not more than 4 per cent. from operations in other countries including North America and Australia.

3.3 External segmental reporting

Since 1 April 2007, the Group has reported externally through three business segments: regulated activities, non-regulated activities and other activities:

- Regulated activities (formerly included within United Utilities North West) comprise the regulated activities of United Utilities Water (water and wastewater).
- Non-regulated activities (incorporating the segment formerly described as United Utilities Contract Solutions) apply the core utility skills of the regulated business through outsourcing contracts. In addition, this segment includes the Group's interest in Northern Gas Networks and the Group's overseas business.
- Other activities include United Utilities Property Solutions, the property trading and management subsidiary of the Group, which owns land and property assets. The segment also includes the results of other group holding companies.

3.4 Regulated activities

The Group's regulated activities comprise the operation of the licensed water and wastewater assets owned by United Utilities Water in North West England. This business involves the removal and treatment of wastewater from, and the treatment and distribution of around 1.9 billion litres of water a day to, approximately 3.2 million homes and businesses.

The regulated water business is subject to regulation in terms of price and performance. Ofwat reviews price limits every five years. The next price review (known as PR09) will take place in 2009 and will set price limits for the five years from 1 April 2010. Water companies will be required to submit their draft business plans for this period to Ofwat (and to publish summaries) in August 2008. Final business plans are expected to be submitted in April 2009 and Ofwat is planning to issue its draft determinations for comment in July 2009. Final determinations are expected in November 2009 following which water companies will have two months to decide whether to accept the determination or instead to have price limits referred to and set by the Competition Commission.

The regulated activities undertaken by the Group are:

- capital intensive – improvements to the water and wastewater infrastructure are required in order to comply with applicable United Kingdom and European Union environmental and drinking water quality regulations. Gross capital expenditure (including infrastructure renewals expenditure) relating to water and wastewater in the year ended 31 March 2008 was £826 million;
- subject to economic regulation – in general, the business is subject to incentive-based economic regulation which imposes caps on increases in customer prices, rewards efficiency and high standards of customer service and penalises inefficiency and poor standards of customer service; and
- subject to environmental regulations – the business is subject to regulations governing the abstraction of water, the quality of drinking water supplied to its customers, the discharges it makes into the water environment from its wastewater business and the management of potentially contaminated land it owns, occupies or works upon.

Further developments in the regulatory regime are expected to take effect in the next few years, in particular as a result of EU environmental initiatives (including the Water Framework Directive, the Drinking Water Directive and the Environmental Liability Directive). These developments, which will impact on the operation and capital expenditure requirements of the regulated business, are detailed in section 9 of Part IX.

The wastewater business

United Utilities Water is responsible for the reception, conveyance, treatment and disposal of domestic wastewater, trade effluent (non-domestic wastewater) and surface water in North West England.

United Utilities Water's wastewater treatment works provide a range of treatments. These include primary, secondary and tertiary treatment involving a variety of physical, chemical and biological processes. These aim to ensure the constituents of wastewater are effectively modified before discharge. Fully treated final effluent is discharged into rivers, estuaries or via sea outfalls. The Environment Agency consents to and stringently monitors all these discharges to ensure they comply with all relevant limits. A by-product of the treatment of wastewater is sewerage sludge, which is treated further to produce an end product that is suitable for recycling.

The water business

United Utilities Water obtains water from various sources including surface water catchments (collected in reservoirs), rivers and aquifers. A large proportion of water supplied by United Utilities Water flows freely by gravity and does not need to be pumped. However, due to the nature of the water catchment areas, being peaty moorlands or coal measure strata, enhanced treatment methods are required to ensure the water satisfies all regulatory and quality standards.

This untreated water is conveyed to treatment works by aqueducts. Treated water is delivered to the end customer through a network of large diameter trunk mains to smaller trunk mains, service reservoirs, water towers and distribution mains.

For the regulated business as a whole, capital investment (including infrastructure renewals expenditure) for the year to 31 March 2008 was approximately £826.1 million. This represents an increase in expenditure of 45 per cent. when compared with the previous financial year and reflects the planned profile of the Group's investment programme. Cumulative capital expenditure on water assets matched regulatory assumptions as at 31 March 2008.

3.5 Non-regulated activities

The Group's non-regulated activities incorporate the activities and apply the core utility skills of the regulated business through outsourcing contracts. The business provides gas services to over six million people and in total, including all its businesses, the Group now serves a population of around 17 million people in the United Kingdom. In addition, the Group provides asset management and operational services in respect of its former electricity distribution process.

The International Business develops and operates contracts in selected overseas utility markets and provides services for over seven million people internationally. The overseas businesses focus is on applying core skills on an asset-light basis where the Group identifies opportunities to generate additional shareholder value with little impact on the risk profile of the Group, primarily in the Gulf region and Australia.

The business continues to manage its existing portfolio of water and wastewater operations through a number of joint ventures in parts of Scotland, Australia, Estonia and Bulgaria.

The Connections Business provides multi-utility connections, connecting domestic, industrial and commercial consumers to the existing utility network infrastructure. In providing this service, the business designs and installs new electricity, water and gas infrastructure.

The Metering Business provides installation and maintenance services for electricity and gas meters. The Metering Business completed around 583,215 gas and electricity meter installations in the year ended 31 March 2008 under a contract with British Gas Trading to which an extension to 30 June 2010 was secured in January 2008. Under this contract, both gas and electricity meters are installed by the metering business, with rental income then being received for up to 20 years after installation by a joint venture company (in which the Group has a 50 per cent. interest), and which owns the meter assets.

The Group's non-regulated activities have grown rapidly since their commencement in 2000 with the total order book standing, as at 31 March 2008, at more than £6 billion in revenue (Source: unaudited internal management information). The discipline of operating within strict contractual frameworks ensures that significant focus is placed on improving performance both within the Group's own regulated water and wastewater business as well as for the regulated businesses of the Group's customers. This experience has improved the commercial skillsets of the business and places it in a strong position from which to pursue other infrastructure outsourcing opportunities.

Non-regulated revenue for the year ended 31 March 2008 increased by 30 per cent. to £949.2 million compared with the same period the previous year.

The Group continues to seek opportunities to grow its non-regulated business by applying its core skills where it identifies opportunities to generate additional shareholder value with little impact on the risk profile of the Group. In addition to the UK utility outsourcing market, the Group is currently focusing business development resources on specific opportunities in the UK municipal solid waste treatment market, Australia and the fast developing Gulf region.

Having sold United Utilities Electricity, the Group retained the asset operator function, consistent with its core skills strategy. The services provided to the new asset owner are: operation, maintenance and repair of the electricity network; design and construction of new assets to replace and refurbish the existing network; design and construction of new connections to the network and the provision of services ancillary to the distribution of electricity through the network. An asset services agreement covering these points is in place between Electricity North West Limited (formerly called United Utilities Electricity PLC) and United Utilities Electricity Services. It covers an initial eight year term (which commenced on 1 April 2007) with the potential to extend the contract for a further five years, and contains a mechanism for price negotiation at 31 March 2010 following a regulatory review. There is also a requirement to agree appropriate costs for the final five years of the initial term (2010 to 2015) following the Electricity Distribution Price Control in 2010. A failure to agree these could lead to a breach in the contract but there is a contractual mechanism to cater for the agreement of these costs.

The Group also holds major utility outsourcing contracts in the United Kingdom with Dwr Cymru Welsh Water, Southern Water, Scottish Water, and Northern Gas Networks (in which it also holds a 15 per cent. equity stake). In addition, it has a meter installation contract with British Gas Trading, as well as three Scottish Private Finance Initiative operations (relative to water/wastewater infrastructure renewal contracts).

4. Employees

The average number of employees employed by the Group during the financial years ended 31 March 2008, 31 March 2007, 31 March 2006 and 31 March 2005 were as follows:

Number of employees	2008	2007 (Re-presented)
Regulated activities	3,888	3,633
Non-regulated activities	4,517	3,201
Other activities	268	221
Vertex (discontinued operation)	–	8,277
United Utilities Electricity (discontinued operation)	57	1,198
Facilities Management (discontinued operation)	145	176
Industrial Liquid Waste (discontinued operation)	34	162
Average number of persons employed by the Group during the year	8,909	16,868
Number of employees	2007	2006
United Utilities North West	4,831	4,775
United Utilities Contract Solutions	3,539	3,197
Vertex (discontinued operation)	8,277	8,203
Your Communications (discontinued operation)	–	653
Other activities	221	201
Average number of persons employed by the Group during the year	16,868	17,029
Number of employees		2005
Licensed multi-utility operations		4,889
Infrastructure management		2,510
Business process outsourcing		7,693
Telecommunications		682
Other activities		161
Average number of persons employed by the Group during the year		15,935

Substantially all of the Group's employees are based in the United Kingdom.

The effect of disposals and recategorisation (described above) results in the re-representation of the employee numbers within discontinued operations in the comparative information for 2007.

5. Property assets

5.1 Regulated business

The water business

United Utilities Water owns, operates and manages water network assets in North West England which include:

- 137 operational and 1 emergency impounding reservoirs and associated catchments;
- 95 operational and 5 emergency water treatment works;
- 450 service reservoirs and water towers storing treated water;
- 609 pumping stations; and
- 42,219 kilometres of potable mains.

As at 31 March 2008, the principal water operations facilities owned by United Utilities Water were as shown in the table below:

Location	Description	Hectares	Tenure
Bowland Estate, Lancashire	Reservoir/gathering grounds	10,120	Freehold
Haweswater Estate, Cumbria	Reservoir/gathering grounds	10,522	Freehold
Longdendale Estate, Derbyshire	Reservoir/gathering grounds	10,215	Freehold
West Pennine Moors, Lancashire	Reservoir/gathering grounds	5,564	Freehold
Thirlmere Estate, Cumbria	Reservoir/gathering grounds	4,850	Freehold
Huntington, Cheshire	Water treatment works	107	Freehold
Prescot, Merseyside	Water treatment works	84	Freehold
Woodgate Hill, Greater Manchester	Water treatment works	40	Freehold

United Utilities Water owns approximately 57,800 hectares of catchment land. The key reason for owning and managing this land is to protect and improve the quality of raw water supplies, and thus reduce the risk of non-compliance at water treatment works and avoid unnecessary operating costs.

In the 2004 periodic review, United Utilities Water obtained funds of £10.1 million for an innovative approach to land management entitled the 'Sustainable Catchment Management Programme' (SCaMP). This programme seeks to restore moorland areas so as to meet the government's 'Public Service Agreement' (PSA) targets to bring 'Sites of Special Scientific Interest' into good condition. At the same time, it seeks to enter into long-term agreements with tenant farmers to reduce livestock to acceptable levels so that, once restored, the moorland areas will be protected for the future. This integrated holistic approach should bring multiple benefits. As well as delivering the government's biodiversity targets, it is anticipated that there will be improvements in raw water quality (relating in particular to colour) and potentially reduced risk of downstream flooding.

The programme has just completed its third year. The programme is being applied to all the farms owned by United Utilities Water on its Bowland and Southern estates, and the Group has been successful in concluding agreements with tenant farmers covering over 90 per cent. of the land area in the programme to enable this to happen. Substantial work is now underway in both areas. For the land designated as 'Sites of Special Scientific Interest' (SSSI) that was in the worst condition, the Group has, through the work already undertaken, moved 80 per cent. into favourable or recovering position and created over 250 hectares of upland oak woodland. Along with this, there are substantial stock reductions and farm improvements to allow new livestock management regimes.

The wastewater business

United Utilities Water's wastewater operations involve owning and managing assets, which include:

- 582 wastewater treatment works;
- 43,419 kilometres of sewers;
- 1,826 pumping stations;
- 143 detention tanks;
- 2,275 combined sewer overflows, 325 emergency overflows; and
- 42 sludge treatment facilities.

As at 31 March 2008, the principal wastewater operations facilities owned by United Utilities Water were as shown in the table below:

Location	Description	Hectares	Tenure
Davyhulme, Greater Manchester	Wastewater treatment works	112.6	Freehold
Shell Green, Widnes	Sludge processing centre	5	Freehold
Sandon Dock, Liverpool	Wastewater treatment works	8	Leasehold

As at 31 March 2008, the principal offices owned by United Utilities Water were as shown in the table below:

Property	Use	Floor area in sq ft	Utilisation	Tenure
Lingley Mere, Warrington	Company offices	259,622	100%	Freehold
Winsford	Company offices	20,441	70%	Freehold

5.2 Non-regulated business

At 31 March 2008, the key facilities of the non-regulated business included leased office accommodation at Clearwater Lingley Mere and Old Trafford, Manchester. In addition to these sites, the business occupies various properties in support of specific contracts, typically within the geographic boundaries of the contracts, both in the United Kingdom and overseas. These sites consist of offices, depots and operational facilities that are primarily owned or leased by the client. It is anticipated that the business will be able to negotiate renewals of any expiring leases, or relocate the relevant facilities, without having a material adverse impact on the business.

As at 31 March 2008, the principal offices owned by United Utilities Property Solutions were as shown in the table below:

Property	Use	Floor area in sq ft	Utilisation	Tenure
Borron Street, Stockport	Company offices	15,383	100%	Freehold
Dawson House, Warrington	Company & 3rd party offices	134,800	95%	Freehold
Hadrian Mill, Carlisle	Company & 3rd party offices	92,362	100%	Freehold
Hathersage Road, Manchester	Company & 3rd party offices	86,412	25%	Freehold
Manchester Road, Bolton	Company & 3rd party offices	117,898	60%	Freehold
Linley House, Manchester	Company & 3rd party offices	83,479	50%	Freehold
Whitebirk, Blackburn	Company offices	45,040	100%	Freehold

5.3 Other property assets

In addition to the properties described above, the Group occupies various other properties consisting primarily of offices, depots, warehouses and workshops. These are either owned by the Group or leased. It is anticipated that the Group will be able to negotiate renewals of any expiring leases, or relocate the relevant facilities, without having a material adverse impact on the Group.

As at 31 March 2008, the principal offices owned by third parties and used by the Group were as follows:

Property	Use	Floor area in sq ft	Utilisation	Tenure
Gemini, Warrington	Company offices	10,300	100%	Leasehold
Oakland House, Manchester	Company offices	40,732	100%	Leasehold
Clearwater, Lingley Mere, Warrington	Company offices	27,405	100%	Leasehold
Whitehaven, Cumbria	Company offices	22,141	100%	Leasehold

5.4 Lingley Mere Business Park development

In February 2004, the Group entered into a 15-year joint venture agreement with Muse Developments Limited (formerly AMEC Developments Limited) to develop land at Lingley Mere, Warrington. Over a period of time, the Group will invest up to £20 million in this joint venture, mainly in the form of land.

5.5 Environmental issues

The contaminated land regime in Part IIA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 places liability for the clean-up of contaminated land upon any person who caused the contamination or, in some circumstances, who knew of its presence and failed to prevent it. If no such person can be found after a reasonable enquiry has been made, liability for clean-up falls upon the current owner or occupier of the land. The regime provides for exemptions from liability in certain cases. The Group has a programme of improving, replacing and disposing of property when considered appropriate to meet the needs of its business operations.

None of the land owned or occupied by the Group is currently designated as contaminated but it owns or occupies, or is required to work within sites that have potentially been adversely affected by virtue of prior use. A site owned or occupied by the Group may therefore in future be designated as contaminated land or the Group may be required to work within a site that is already, or becomes, designated as contaminated land.

6. The Group's strategy

The Group's vision is to be a world class operator of utility infrastructure.

It seeks to provide growth for shareholders, value-for-money for customers and positive benefits for society and the environment.

The key elements of the Group's strategy are to improve operational performance, successfully execute its capital investment programme, meet its efficiency targets, prepare for the next water price review and deliver its non-regulated growth strategy.

7. Selected historical financial information

7.1 United Utilities

Presented below is selected historical financial information for United Utilities. United Utilities was required for the first time to prepare consolidated financial statements under IFRS for the year ended 31 March 2006. These 2006 financial statements included restated comparative figures for the year ended 31 March 2005 prepared in accordance with IFRS.

The consolidated financial information for the year ended 31 March 2008 has been extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' preliminary results which were announced on 3 June 2008. The financial information in the preliminary results announcement has been extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008 and which were prepared in accordance with IFRS. The consolidated financial information for the years ended 31 March 2007 and 31 March 2006 has been extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' audited financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2007 which were prepared in accordance with IFRS. The consolidated financial information for the year ended 31 March 2005 has been extracted without material adjustment from the comparative information restated in accordance with IFRS for that year which was presented in the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2006.

The results of United Utilities Electricity, the Group's industrial waste and facilities management operations and its share of results from its associates have been disclosed within discontinued operations for the year ended 31 March 2008, as explained in section 1.6 of Part II. Corresponding amounts for the year to 31 March 2007 have been re-presented accordingly in the preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008. The results of the Group's business process outsourcing business, Vertex, have been disclosed within discontinued operations in the consolidated income and cash flow statements for the year ended 31 March 2007. Corresponding amounts for the year ended 31 March 2006 have been re-presented accordingly in the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2007.

Operating profit and investment income for the year ended 31 March 2006 have also been re-presented, as the Group has changed its presentation of interest income and expenditure associated with its defined benefit pension schemes.

Investors should read the whole of the financial information set out in the preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008, and the audited financial statements for the years ended 31 March 2007, 31 March 2006 and 31 March 2005, and should not rely solely on key or summarised information in this document.

Consolidated income statements

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,362.9	1,986.7
Other income	21.3	8.9
Employee benefits expense	(317.5)	(254.1)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(248.2)	(221.3)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(120.1)	(101.2)
Other operating costs	(1,035.2)	(776.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,699.7)	(1,344.6)
Operating profit	663.2	642.1
Investment income	146.7	118.3
Finance expense	(331.6)	(258.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(184.9)	(139.8)
Profit before taxation	478.3	502.3
Taxation	(62.0)	(143.9)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	416.3	358.4
Discounted operations
Profit for the period from discontinued operations	492.9	75.1
Profit for the year	909.2	433.5

Consolidated income statements

	Year ended 31 March 2007	Year ended 31 March 2006
	£m	£m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,323.0	2,086.0
Other income	22.2	21.1
Employee benefits expense	(280.3)	(257.3)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(288.5)	(282.8)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(101.2)	(70.6)
Other operating costs	(847.7)	(766.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,495.5)	(1,356.5)
Operating profit	827.5	729.5
Investment income	138.2	68.5
Finance expense	(308.4)	(352.9)
Investment income and finance expense	(170.2)	(284.4)
Share of results of associated company	18.7	–
Profit before taxation	676.0	445.1
Taxation	(175.3)	(122.0)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	500.7	323.1
Discounted operations
Loss for the period from discontinued operations	(67.2)	(114.9)
Profit for the year	433.5	208.2
Attributable to:
Equity holders of United Utilities	433.5	207.9
Minority interest	–	0.3
	433.5	208.2

Consolidated income statements

	Year ended 31 March 2006	Year ended 31 March 2005
	£m	£m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,386.8	2,103.7
Other income	21.8	19.8
Employee benefits expense	(429.0)	(392.8)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(320.3)	(330.7)
Other operating costs	(893.8)	(718.9)
Restructuring costs	(25.5)	(29.7)
Total operating expenses	(1,646.8)	(1,452.3)
Operating profit	740.0	651.4
Investment income	54.0	38.3
Finance expense:
Fair value loss on debt and derivative instruments	(15.7)	-
Other finance expense	(339.0)	(322.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(300.7)	(283.8)
Profit before taxation	439.3	367.6
Taxation	(120.3)	(96.1)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	319.0	271.5
Discounted operations
Loss for the period/year from discontinued operations	(110.8)	(9.4)
Profit for the year	208.2	262.1
Attributable to:
Equity holders of the company	207.9	260.3
Minority interest	0.3	1.8
	208.2	262.1

Consolidated balance sheets

	As at 31 March 2008 £m	As at 31 March 2007 £m	As at 31 March 2006 £m	As at 31 March 2005 £m
Non-current assets	7,907.4	9,315.6	9,186.0	8,801.0
Current assets	2,429.0	2,945.3	2,110.4	1,348.3
Current liabilities	(1,874.9)	(2,502.5)	(1,699.9)	(1,576.7)
Non-current liabilities	(5,251.5)	(7,023.6)	(6,965.6)	(6,428.2)
Net assets	3,210.0	2,734.8	2,630.9	2,144.4

Consolidated statements of cash flows

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Cash from operations	876.9	810.8
Interest paid	(299.9)	(341.8)
Interest received and similar income	119.1	99.8
Tax paid	(98.6)	(17.8)
Net cash generated from operating activities (discontinued operations)	99.5	204.3
Net cash generated from operating activities	697.0	755.3
Net cash generated from/(used in) investing activities	398.3	(445.2)
Net cash (used in)/generated from financing activities	(1,879.7)	580.3
Effect of exchange rate changes	148.9	6.4
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents	(635.5)	896.8
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of year	2,340.7	1,443.9
Cash and cash equivalents at end of year	1,705.2	2,340.7

Consolidated statements of cash flows

	Year ended 31 March 2007	Year ended 31 March 2006
	£m	£m
Cash from operations	1,035.8	997.2
Interest paid	(385.3)	(345.0)
Interest received and similar income	111.6	66.2
Tax paid	(35.2)	(2.5)
Net cash generated from/(used in) operating activities (discontinued operations)	28.4	(4.5)
Net cash generated from operating activities	755.3	711.4
Net cash used in investing activities	(445.2)	(779.2)
Net cash generated from financing activities	580.3	654.1
Effect of exchange rate changes	6.4	(8.0)
Net increase in cash and cash equivalents	896.8	578.3
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of year	1,443.9	865.6
Cash and cash equivalents at end of year	2,340.7	1,443.9

	Year ended 31 March 2006	Year ended 31 March 2005
	£m	£m
Cash from operations	1,004.5	732.2
Interest paid	(344.1)	(342.0)
Interest received and similar income	66.2	67.0
Tax paid	(3.2)	(1.7)
Net cash used in operating activities (discontinued operations)	(12.0)	(15.9)
Net cash generated from operating activities	711.4	439.6
Net cash used in investing activities	(779.2)	(852.1)
Net cash generated from financing activities	654.1	237.3
Effect of exchange rate changes	(8.0)	0.9
Net increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	578.3	(174.3)
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of year	865.6	1,039.9
Cash and cash equivalents at end of year	1,443.9	865.6

7.2 United Utilities Group

The financial information set out below has been extracted without material adjustment from the financial information relating to United Utilities Group prepared in accordance with IFRS, the full text of which is set out in Part III of this document.

	As at 23 April 2008
	£
Total current assets	50,002
Total current liabilities	(50,000)
Net assets	2

8. Capitalisation and indebtedness

8.1 Capitalisation and indebtedness of United Utilities

The following tables show the capitalisation and the total indebtedness and net indebtedness of the Group as at 31 March 2008. The information in these tables and the financial information in the preliminary results for the financial year ended 31 March 2008 which were announced on 3 June 2008, has been extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008. There have been no material changes since 31 March 2008 save as disclosed below.

	At 31 March 2008
	£m
Indebtedness
Total current debt
– unguaranteed/unsecured	(878.4)
Total non-current debt
– unguaranteed/unsecured	(3,788.9)
Total indebtedness	(4,667.3)
Shareholders' equity
Share capital	881.6
Share premium account	1,429.3
Revaluation reserve	158.8
Treasury shares	(0.3)
Cumulative exchange reserve	7.6
Other reserves	58.1
Retained earnings	674.9
Total shareholders' equity	3,210.0

The following table shows the net financial indebtedness of the Group as at 31 March 2008.

	At 31 March 2008
	£m
Net financial indebtedness
Cash	140.9
Short term bank deposits	1,669.6
Cash and short term deposits	1,810.5
Bonds	(738.0)
Bank and other term borrowings	(22.4)
Bank overdrafts	(105.3)
Finance lease obligations	(12.7)
Current financial debt	(878.4)
Net current financial indebtedness	932.1
Bonds	(3,031.5)
Bank and other term borrowings	(701.1)
Finance lease obligations	(56.3)
Non-current financial indebtedness	(3,788.9)
Net financial indebtedness	(2,856.8)

On 1 April 2008, borrowings of US$500 million have been repaid, reducing the indebtedness of the Group by approximately £251.8 million. The repayment has no impact on the net indebtedness of the Group.

Contingent and indirect indebtedness

United Utilities and certain subsidiary undertakings have, in the normal course of business, given guarantees and entered into counter-indemnities in respect of bonds relating to the Group's own contracts and given guarantees in respect of the Group's share of certain contractual obligations of joint ventures.

Derivatives

The Group held derivative financial instruments as at 31 March 2008 which are not reflected in the analysis above. The derivatives had the following fair values as at 31 March 2008:

	At 31 March 2008
	£m
Non-current assets
Derivative financial instruments	44.3
Current assets
Derivative financial instruments	99.0
Non-current liabilities
Derivative financial instruments	(53.2)
Current liabilities
Derivative financial instruments	(136.7)
	(46.6)

8.2 Maturity of borrowings and undrawn committed borrowing facilities

Of the Group's indebtedness, £878.4 million matures within one year, £183.2 million between one and two years, £299.9 million between two and five years and £3,305.8 million over five years. The Group had undrawn committed facilities of £1,599.6 million at 31 March 2008. Of the amounts undrawn, £50.0 million expires within one year, £350 million between one and two years, £1,029.6 million between two and five years and £170.0 million over five years.

8.3 Capitalisation and indebtedness of United Utilities Group

United Utilities Group's capitalisation as at 23 April 2008 was £2 and its cash was £2. As at 23 April 2008, United Utilities Group had indebtedness of £50,000. This £50,000 comprises the Redeemable Preference Shares which bear interest at 0.0001 per cent. per annum and are accounted for in accordance with IAS 32 "Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation" and IAS 39 "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" and are presented as a financial liability. As at 23 April 2008, United Utilities Group had no banking facilities in place nor did it have any indirect indebtedness or contingent liabilities or guarantees.

9. Dividend policy

On 29 November 2007, the Board outlined a new dividend policy which applies from the current financial year (2008/09) to reflect the revised composition and earnings profile of the Group. In light of the sale of United Utilities Electricity and the Return of Capital, the dividend per share from 2008/09 will be reduced by 30 per cent. compared with the 2007/08 dividend per share of 46.67 pence. Thereafter, the Group's revised dividend policy is intended to target a growth rate of RPI plus two per cent. to be applied from 2009/10 to the 2008/09 revised dividend per share.

10. Effect on earnings

The Proposals will not change the Group's underlying operational performance, but will alter its capital structure. Given the increased level of gearing assumed by the Group following the Proposals, it is expected that the Group's underlying interest charge will increase, negatively impacting profit after tax, while the reduction in the number of shares in issue at the United Utilities Group level (when compared with the number of shares in issue at the United Utilities level prior to the Scheme Effective Date) will result in a positive impact on earnings per share.

11. Current trading and prospects

United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008 were announced on 3 June 2008. The financial information in the preliminary results announcement has been extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008. The following paragraph contains highlights of those results and summarises the statements made regarding the Group's current trading and prospects.

For the year ended 31 March 2008:

- Underlying operating profit¹ up 7 per cent. to £677 million.
- Completed sale of United Utilities Electricity for a substantial premium to its regulatory asset value.
- Capital expenditure in regulated activities up 45 per cent. to £826 million and in line with regulatory assumptions.
- Focus on core skills delivers operational improvements: outperformed tougher leakage target.
- Enhanced liquidity: pre-funded for capital investment programmes through to 2010.
- Extended major outsourcing contracts with Southern Water and British Gas Trading.

United Utilities has delivered a good financial performance in the year ended 31 March 2008. Underlying profit before tax² increased by 17 per cent. to £476 million and underlying operating profit³ was up by 7 per cent. to £677 million.

1, 2, 3 The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in section 21 of Part X.

The Group is pre-funded for its capital investment programme through to 2010. The Group recently improved its liquidity position by enhancing its committed medium-term bank facilities. This provides the Group with increased flexibility in terms of when and how it raises further debt finance.

The Group's regulated activities have delivered strong growth in the period with operating profit up 5 per cent., an increase of 8 per cent. on an underlying basis⁴. This growth primarily reflects the regulated price increase, which supports high levels of essential investment in the Group's infrastructure. This investment enables the Group to deliver better service for customers and make environmental improvements.

Capital investment in the Group's regulated water and wastewater operations, including infrastructure renewals expenditure, amounted to £826 million during the year. This is 45 per cent. higher than in the previous financial year as the Group is now in the peak phase of its current capital expenditure programmes. The Group has agreed a new strategy with Ofwat for processing and disposing of sewerage sludge, based on increasing capacity at an existing site rather than developing a new site. Its capital investment programme have been re-profiled to reflect this agreement and the Group is now broadly in line with regulatory assumptions. This new strategy will reduce the Group's carbon footprint compared with the original solution.

The Group's business improvement initiatives are delivering cost savings and the Group remains confident of delivering regulatory outputs and meeting its efficiency targets across this price review period.

In non-regulated activities, underlying operating profit⁵ for the year ended 31 March 2008 was slightly higher than that of the previous year, reflecting the first time inclusion of the results of the outsourcing contract with Electricity North West Limited. The Group has a strong order book worth over £6 billion in revenue and recently announced the extension of its contract with Southern Water through to March 2015. In January 2008, the Group also agreed an 18 month extension to June 2010 on the Group's metering contract with British Gas Trading. In addition, the Group has recently been selected as preferred bidder by Townsville City Council in Australia to undertake its water supply upgrade project.

The Board expects the Group to continue to deliver a strong financial performance over the remainder of this regulatory period, underpinned by allowed price rises to fund substantial investment in the Group's networks. Continued investment in the Group's assets will help to raise environmental standards further and improve the service offered to customers.

12. Working capital statement

United Utilities Group is of the opinion that the Group has sufficient working capital for its present requirements, that is, for at least the next twelve months from the date of publication of this Prospectus.

^{4,5} The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in section 21 of Part X.

PART II

OPERATING AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

The section that follows should be read in conjunction with Part I "Information on United Utilities and United Utilities Group" and Part III "Historical financial information relating to United Utilities Group". Investors should read the whole of this document and the documents incorporated herein by reference and should not rely on the summary operating and financial information set out in this Part II. Unless otherwise stated, the financial information for the Group considered in this Part II has been extracted without material adjustment from United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008, which were announced on 3 June 2008, and the audited consolidated financial statements of United Utilities for the years ended 31 March 2007 and 31 March 2006, which are incorporated into this document by reference. The financial information in the preliminary results announcement was extracted, without material adjustment, from United Utilities' audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008. The financial statements for the years ended 31 March 2008, 31 March 2007 and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2006 (including the comparative figures for the year ended 31 March 2005) have been prepared in accordance with IFRS.

The principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group's business that may cause a difference in the Group's actual results include, but are not limited to, those discussed in the section of this document headed "Forward-looking statements" and "Risk Factors".

1. Management discussion and analysis of financial condition and operating results

1.1 Business overview

The Group's principal revenue stream for the three years ended 31 March 2008 was derived from the provision of water and wastewater services and infrastructure management services, which generated revenue from continuing operations of £2,362.9 million and operating profit from continuing operations of £663.2 million for the year ended 31 March 2008.

United Utilities Electricity was sold to North West Electricity Networks in December 2007 as described more fully in section 15 of Part X. United Utilities Electricity Services has an asset services agreement with Electricity North West Limited to manage the electricity distribution assets for an initial eight year term (commencing 1 April 2007) with the potential to extend the contract for a further five years.

1.2 General factors which affect operating results and financial condition

The following industry-related factors have had and are likely to continue to have a material effect on the Group's results of operations and financial condition:

Economic regulation

The water and wastewater services (the "Regulated Business") are subject to incentive-based economic regulations which impose caps on increases in customer prices, rewards efficiency and high standards of customer service and penalises inefficiency and poor standards of customer service. See section 3.4 of Part IX for a description of the regulatory structure of the Regulated Business.

Capital expenditures and capital investment programmes

The Regulated Business requires significant capital expenditure for additions to, or replacement of assets, plant and equipment for its water and wastewater facilities and networks. The price limits set by Ofwat take into account the level of capital expenditure expected to be incurred during the relevant five-year price review period and the associated funding costs.

United Utilities Water prepares for approval by Ofwat an asset management programme (“AMP”) covering a five-year period which seeks to achieve the higher standards required by EU directives as implemented by the UK government. The four programmes since privatisation required or are estimated to require capital investment as follows:

AMP1	5 years to 31 March 1995	£1.8 billion
AMP2	5 years to 31 March 2000	£2.5 billion
AMP3	5 years to 31 March 2005	£3.0 billion
AMP4	5 years to 31 March 2010	£2.9 billion

Ofwat takes account of these investment programmes when setting price limits as described in section 4 of Part IX. Ofwat’s primary duties include a requirement that regulated water and sewerage companies are able to finance their functions.

Capital investment, including £120.1 million of infrastructure renewals expenditure, amounted to £826.1 million during the year ended 31 March 2008. This is 45 per cent. higher than the previous year and reflects the peak phase of the Group’s 2005-10 investment programme. A revised strategy on processing and disposing of sewerage sludge based on increasing capacity at an existing site rather than developing a new site has recently been agreed with Ofwat. After adjusting for this strategy, cumulative capital expenditure on water and wastewater assets was broadly in line with regulatory assumptions as at 31 March 2008. The business remains on course to meet its regulatory efficiency targets and deliver its outputs across the 2005-10 period.

Environmental regulations

Various government environmental protection and health and safety laws and regulations govern the Regulated Business. These laws and regulations establish, amongst other things, standards for drinking water, discharges into the environment and the quality of electricity supply, which affect the Group’s operations. In addition, the Group is required to obtain various environmental permissions from regulatory agencies for its operations. The Group estimates that the additional funding likely to be required to complete UID programmes which are designed to meet statutory obligations and deliver environmental benefits, could be in the order of £700 million.

Debt collection

The Group manages the billing, cash collection and debt management activities for approximately 3.2 million domestic and business customers. The Water Industry Act 1991 (as amended by the Water Industry Act 1999) prohibits the disconnection of a water supply for non-payment and the limiting of a supply with the intention of enforcing payment for certain premises including domestic dwellings. The Group’s aim is to improve continually upon the existing level of customer satisfaction, and to create value from its customer relationships. As the Water Industry Act 1999 prevents licensed water utilities from terminating services to customers for non-payment, the effective management of customer relationships is an important factor in controlling bad debts.

1.3 Significant non-recurring items that affect the Group’s results of operations

Disposal of Your Communications business and interest in THUS Group

On 26 February 2006, the Your Communications business was sold to THUS Group. The initial consideration for the sale of Your Communications was the issue to the Group of 391,532,852 ordinary shares with a market value of 15.5 pence per share in THUS Group, together with the option to acquire up to a further 4.8 per cent. of shares in THUS Group, dependent upon the enlarged THUS group’s future share price performance. In accordance with IFRS, the assets and liabilities were adjusted to their fair value less costs to sell as at September 2005, when the business was deemed to meet the definition of a disposal group under IFRS 5, ‘Non Current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations’. A reduction in the carrying value of Your Communications of £147.7 million before taxation was recorded (£116.1 million post-tax). The Group has subsequently recorded a loss on disposal of £9.1 million before taxation as a result of the exit (£14.3 million gain post-tax).

On 19 June 2007, the Group sold its shares in THUS Group (which represented, at that time, 22.63 per cent. of the issued share capital of THUS Group) with institutional investors at a price of 183 pence per share via an accelerated book build. The placing left the Group with no residual shareholding in THUS Group. The sale of its stake in THUS Group completed the Group's exit from the telecoms sector. The £10.0 million loss on disposal of the stake in THUS Group is treated as an adjustment to the consideration arising on the disposal of Your Communications and so both the loss and the Group's share of THUS's results prior to disposal are disclosed in discontinued operations in the preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008.

Disposal of Vertex

On 26 March 2007, the Group completed the sale of Vertex to a consortium of US-based private equity firms led by Oak Hill Capital Partners. The initial consideration was £217.5 million. The total fair value of consideration was £192.9 million, comprising cash of £206.4 million, the repayment of intra-group debt and the assumption by the vendor of certain liabilities of Vertex. The Group recognised a loss on disposal of £65.1 million and assumed a liability in respect of deferred contingent consideration of £13.5 million, resulting in a total pre-tax loss on disposal of £78.6 million (£67.2 million post-tax).

Disposal of United Utilities Electricity

On 19 December 2007, the Group completed the sale of United Utilities Electricity to Electricity North West Limited for a total enterprise value of £1,782 million. The net equity proceeds of the sale of £1,050 million will form part of the Return of Capital.

United Utilities Electricity Services has an asset services agreement with North West Electricity Networks which covers the operation and maintenance of the electricity distribution assets, delivery of the capital investment programme and the provision of connections.

Disposal of industrial liquid waste and facilities management operations

During the financial year ended 31 March 2008, the Group completed the disposal of its industrial liquid waste operations to Group Tradebe, the parent company of Advanced Waste Solutions Limited, and its facilities management operations were sold to Europa Facility Holdings Limited.

1.4 Operating results for the financial year ended 31 March 2006 compared with prior financial year

The financial table below indicates the development of the Group's business over the course of the two years ended 31 March 2006 in terms of revenue, costs, operating profit, profit before taxation and earnings per share. All numbers are stated on a comparable basis in accordance with IFRS. The results of the Group's business processing outsourcing business, Vertex, have been disclosed within continuing operations in each of the years ended 31 March 2005 and 31 March 2006.

	Year ended 31 March 2006 £m	Year ended 31 March 2005 £m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,386.8	2,103.7
Other income	21.8	19.8
Employee benefits expense	(429.0)	(392.8)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(320.3)	(330.7)
Other operating costs	(893.8)	(718.9)
Restructuring costs	(25.5)	(29.7)
Total operating expenses	(1,646.8)	(1,452.3)
Operating profit	740.0	651.4

	Year ended 31 March 2006 £m	Year ended 31 March 2005 £m
Investment income	54.0	38.3
Finance expense:
Fair value loss of debt and derivative instruments	(15.7)	–
Other finance expense	(339.0)	(322.1)
	(354.7)	(322.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(300.7)	(283.8)
Profit before taxation	439.3	367.6
Taxation	(120.3)	(96.1)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	319.0	271.5
Discontinued operations
Loss for the period/year from discontinued operation	(110.8)	(9.4)
Profit for the year	208.2	262.1
Attributable to:
Equity holders of the company	207.9	260.3
Minority interest	0.3	1.8
	208.2	262.1
Earnings per share
From continuing and discontinued operations:
Basic	24.3p	33.3p
Diluted	24.2p	30.1p
From continuing operations:
Basic	37.3p	34.5p
Diluted	37.1p	31.2p
Adjusted	50.5p	54.5p

Revenue from continuing operations increased by 13.5 per cent. to £2,386.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2006 compared with £2,103.7 million in the year ended 31 March 2005. These movements reflect growth across the licensed multi-utility and support services businesses.

An analysis of the Group's operating expenses for the period under review was as follows:

- Staff costs increased to £449.4 million (£429.0 million attributable to continuing operations) in the year ended 31 March 2006 compared with £418.7 million (£392.8 million attributable to continuing operations) in the year ended 31 March 2005 mainly due to an increase in headcount. The average number of full-time employees during the year ended 31 March 2006 was 17,029 compared with 15,935 for the prior year period.
- Depreciation and amortisation has decreased during the period under review, as a result of one-off write-offs in 2005.
- Other operating costs include materials, power, rates, contractor costs and other expenses. Other operating costs increased by 24.3 per cent. to £893.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2006 compared with £718.9 million in the year ended 31 March 2005 due to increased activity in the non-regulated sector of the business.
- Restructuring costs for the year ended 31 March 2006 were £25.5 million, principally arising from the acquisition by Vertex of Marlborough Stirling plc and from further restructuring, including severances and the rationalisation of property requirements in Vertex. Restructuring costs for the year ended 31 March 2005 of £29.7 million principally related to the restructuring programmes in licensed multi-utility operations in preparation for meeting the 2005 – 2010 efficiency challenges.

Operating profit from continuing operations increased by 13.6 per cent. in the year ended 31 March 2006 to £740.0 million. Operating profit from continuing operations before restructuring costs¹ increased by 12.4 per cent. in the year ended 31 March 2006 to £765.5 million.

The net finance expense for the year ended 31 March 2006 was £300.7 million compared with £283.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2005. The increase in the financial year 2005/06 primarily reflects the impact of IAS 39 introduced for the first time from 1 April 2005 of £15.7 million. Excluding IAS 39, the net finance expense has increased by 0.4 per cent. from £283.8 million to £285.0 million.

Profit before tax from continuing operations in the year ended 31 March 2006 increased by 19.5 per cent. to £439.3 million. This is stated after restructuring charges of £25.5 million (2004/05: £29.7 million).

Basic earnings per share, relating to continuing operations, increased by 8.1 per cent. to 37.3 pence in the year ended 31 March 2006 (2004/05: 34.5 pence), largely as a result of the increase in operating profit. Prior period earnings per share have been re-presented to take account of the bonus element of the rights issue.

Adjusted basic earnings per share² decreased by 7.3 per cent. to 50.5 pence (2004/05: 54.5 pence), principally reflecting the impact of increased continuing operating profit offset by the move from a current tax credit to a current tax charge and the impact of IAS 39.

Total dividend per ordinary share for the year was 43.87 pence, an increase of 3.4 per cent. consistent with the Group's policy of growing dividends in line with inflation compared to 42.43 pence (re-presented for comparative purposes to take account of the bonus element of the rights issue) for the previous year.

The amortisation of certain intangible assets was £9.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2006 and £2.6 million in the year ended 31 March 2005 in respect of continuing operations. The amortisation of certain intangible assets in the year ended 31 March 2006 consisted of £8.7 million relating to business process outsourcing (2004/05: £3.2 million) and £1.1 million relating to infrastructure management (2004/05: £0.6 million credit). The increase in the year ended 31 March 2006 principally reflects the amortisation charge arising from the acquisition of Marlborough Stirling plc by Vertex, which was completed in May 2005.

The valuation of the Group's pensions schemes under IAS 19 resulted in a net pension surplus at 31 March 2006 of £19.3 million compared with a net obligation of £84.6 million at 31 March 2005. The Group made a lump sum pensions contribution of £319.5 million, split between the Group's two defined benefit pension schemes, on 31 March 2005.

1.5 Operating results for the financial year ended 31 March 2007 compared with prior financial year

The financial table below indicates the development of the Group's businesses over the course of the two years ended 31 March 2007 in terms of revenue, costs, operating profit, profit before taxation and earnings per share. All numbers are stated on a comparable basis in accordance with IFRS.

The results of the Group's business process outsourcing business, Vertex, have been disclosed within discontinued operations in the year ended 31 March 2007. Corresponding amounts for the year ended 31 March 2006 have been re-presented accordingly. Operating profit and investment income for the year ended 31 March 2006 have been re-presented, as the Group has changed its presentation of interest income and expenditure associated with its defined benefit pension schemes.

1, 2 The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of these presentations is given on pages 16 and 17 of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2006 and pages 24 and 25 of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2007.

	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m	Year ended 31 March 2006 £m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,323.0	2,086.0
Other income	22.2	21.1
Employee benefits expense	(280.3)	(257.3)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(288.5)	(282.8)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(101.2)	(70.6)
Other operating costs	(847.7)	(766.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,495.5)	(1,356.5)
Operating profit	827.5	729.5
Investment income	138.2	68.5
Finance expense	(308.4)	(352.9)
Investment income and finance expense	(170.2)	(284.4)
Share of results of associated company	18.7	–
Profit before taxation	676.0	445.1
Taxation	(175.3)	(122.0)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	500.7	323.1
Discontinued operations
Loss for the period from discontinued operations	(67.2)	(114.9)
Profit for the year	433.5	208.2
Attributable to:
Equity holders of the company	433.5	207.9
Minority interest	–	0.3
	433.5	208.2
Earnings per share
From continuing and discontinued operations:
Basic	49.4p	24.3p
Diluted	49.2p	24.2p
From continuing operations:
Basic	57.1p	37.8p
Diluted	56.9p	37.6p

Revenue from continuing operations increased by 11.4 per cent. to £2,323.0 million in the year ended 31 March 2007 compared with £2,086.0 million in the year ended 31 March 2006. These movements reflected growth across all of the Group's businesses.

An analysis of the Group's operating expenses for the period under review was as follows:

- Staff costs increased to £477.3 million (£280.3 million attributable to continuing operations) in the year ended 31 March 2007 compared with £469.7 million (£257.3 million attributable to continuing operations) in the year ended 31 March 2006 mainly as a result of inflationary wage increases. The average number of full-time employees during the year ended 31 March 2007 was 16,868 compared with 17,029 for the prior year period.
- Depreciation and amortisation increased during the period under review, reflective of the increase in the regulatory asset base.

- Infrastructure renewals expenditure increased during the period under review as a result of the spend profile for the AMP4 period.
- Other operating costs include materials, power, rates, contractor costs and other expenses. Such costs increased by 10.5 per cent. to £847.7 million in the year ended 31 March 2007 compared with £766.9 million in the year ended 31 March 2006 due to increased power prices, an increased rateable asset base and increased infrastructure renewals activity in the year.

Operating profit from continuing operations increased by 13.4 per cent. in the year ended 31 March 2007 to £827.5 million. Underlying operating profit from continuing operations³ increased 8.4 per cent. in the year ended 31 March 2007 to £816.0 million.

The finance expense relating to continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2007 was £308.4 million compared with £352.9 million in the year ended 31 March 2006. This expense includes considerable volatility in respect of fair value movements on debt and derivative financial instruments. The underlying cost of net borrowings from continuing operations⁴ for the year ended 31 March 2007 was £279.7 million compared with the prior year figure of £285.0 million.

Profit before tax from continuing operations in the year ended 31 March 2007 increased by 51.9 per cent. to £676.0 million. Included within profit before tax from continuing operations is £18.7 million in relation to the Group's share of the results of its then associate, THUS Group. Adjusting for the impact of this, other non-recurring items and for fair value gains and losses on debt and derivative instruments results in an underlying profit before tax from continuing operations⁵ of £561.4 million, an increase of 15.9 per cent. from the prior year period.

Basic earnings per share relating to continuing operations increased by 51.1 per cent. to 57.1 pence in the year ended 31 March 2007 compared with 37.8 pence for the prior year period.

The total dividend per ordinary share for the year was 44.93 pence, an increase of 2.4 per cent. from the prior year.

1.6 Operating results for the financial year ended 31 March 2008 compared with prior financial year

The financial table below indicates the development of the Group's businesses over the course of the two years ended 31 March 2008 in terms of revenue, operating profit, profit before taxation and earnings per share. All numbers are stated on a comparable basis in accordance with IFRS.

United Utilities Electricity is treated as a discontinued operation in the results for the year ended 31 March 2008. In the period 1 April 2007 to 19 December 2007, profit after tax generated from the electricity distribution assets was £121.8 million compared with £118.5 million for the year ended 31 March 2007. The profit on disposal of United Utilities Electricity amounted to £371.2 million.

In the period 1 April 2007 to 26 October 2007, a loss after tax of £0.1 million was recorded from the Group's industrial liquid waste operations compared with profit after tax of £1.7 million for the year ended 31 March 2007. The facilities management operations made a profit after tax of £1.3 million for the period 1 April 2007 to 22 February 2008 compared with a profit after tax of £3.4 million for the year ended 31 March 2007.

The Group sold its 22.63 per cent. stake in THUS Group earlier in the financial year, which completed its exit from the telecoms sector. The £10.0 million loss on disposal of the stake in THUS Group is treated as an adjustment to the consideration arising on the disposal of Your Communications and so both the loss and the Group's share of THUS' results prior to disposal are disclosed in discontinued operations in the preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008.

3, 4, 5 The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of these presentations is given on pages 16 and 17 of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2006 and pages 24 and 25 of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2007.

Having regard to the foregoing, results from continuing operations for the year to 31 March 2007 have been re-presented.

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,362.9	1,986.7
Other income	21.3	8.9
Employee benefits expense	(317.5)	(254.1)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(248.2)	(221.3)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(120.1)	(101.2)
Other operating costs	(1,035.2)	(776.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,699.7)	(1,344.6)
Operating profit	663.2	642.1
Investment income	146.7	118.3
Finance expense	(331.6)	(258.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(184.9)	(139.8)
Profit before taxation	478.3	502.3
Taxation	(62.0)	(143.9)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	416.3	358.4
Discontinued operations
Profit for the period from discontinued operations	492.9	75.1
Profit for the year	909.2	433.5
Earnings per share
From continuing and discontinued operations:
Basic	103.3p	49.4p
Diluted	103.2p	49.2p
From continuing operations:
Basic	47.3p	40.9p
Diluted	47.3p	40.7p

Revenue from continuing operations rose 19 per cent. to £2,362.9 million, reflecting the allowed price rise in the regulated business and the first year of the electricity distribution outsourcing contract in the non-regulated business.

Group operating profit from continuing operations increased by 3 per cent. to £663.2 million, with Group underlying operating profit from continuing operations up by 7 per cent.⁶ This increase was underpinned by a strong performance in the regulated business.

The finance expense of £331.6 million was £73.5 million higher than in the prior year. This expense included a £42.7 million fair value loss on debt and derivative instruments, whereas the prior year included a £26.0 million fair value gain. The volatility in financing expense reflects the fact that, in order to hedge the interest cost implicit in the regulatory contracts, the Group fixes interest rates for the duration of each five-year review period for the majority of its debt using interest rate swaps. IAS 39 limits the use of hedge accounting for these commercial hedges, thereby increasing the potential volatility in the income statement. In addition, the impact of changes in credit spread on debt accounted for at fair value through profit or loss can result in significant additional volatility. However, this volatility has no cash flow impact. Interest expense on swaps (on a pre-IAS 39 basis) and debt under the fair value option was £41.7 million, £15.6 million lower than the prior year.

⁶ The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in section 21 of Part X.

Profit before taxation decreased by 5 per cent. to £478.3 million. Adjusting for the impact of restructuring costs, other one-off items and fair value movements in respect of debt and derivative instruments and the expected short-term interest benefit associated with the cash proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity underlying profit before taxation⁷ was £475.6 million, 17 per cent. ahead of the results for the year ended 31 March 2007.

Basic earnings per share relating to continuing operations increased by 16 per cent. to 47.3 pence.

2. Liquidity and capital resources

2.1 Year ended 31 March 2008 compared with prior financial year

The financial table below indicates the development of the Group's consolidated cashflows for the two years ended 31 March 2008. All numbers are stated on a comparable basis in accordance with IFRS.

The results of United Utilities Electricity, the Group's industrial waste and facilities management operations and its share of results from its associates have been disclosed within discontinued operations for the year ended 31 March 2008, as more fully described in section 1.6 of this Part II above. Corresponding amounts for the year to 31 March 2007 have been re-presented accordingly for the year ended 31 March 2008.

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Operating activities
Cash generated from operations	876.9	810.8
Interest paid	(299.9)	(341.8)
Interest received and similar income	119.1	99.8
Tax paid	(98.6)	(17.8)
Net cash generated from operating activities (continuing operations)	597.5	551.0
Net cash generated from operating activities (discontinued operations)	99.5	204.3
	697.0	755.3
Investing activities
Net cash outflow from group reorganisation	(15.0)	—
Disposal of investments	0.6	—
Disposal of associated company	75.8	—
Disposal of subsidiaries	1,152.7	206.4
Purchase of property, plant and equipment	(644.5)	(548.5)
Purchase of other intangible assets	(25.3)	(5.0)
Proceeds from sale of property, plant and equipment	15.0	27.0
Net cash generated from/(used in) investing activities (continuing operations)	559.3	(320.1)
Net cash used in investing activities (discontinued operation)	(161.0)	(125.1)
	398.3	(445.2)

⁷ The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business, in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in section 21 of Part X.

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)
	£m	£m
Financing activities
Proceeds from issue of ordinary shares	9.2	18.5
Cash (used in)/proceeds from structured financing	(170.1)	81.4
Proceeds from borrowings	1,068.9	1,600.8
Repayment of borrowings	(2,297.2)	(821.0)
Dividends paid to equity holders of the company	(400.4)	(387.3)
Dividends received from discontinued operations	100.0	36.0
Net cash (used in)/generated from financing activities (continuing operations)	(1,689.6)	528.4
Net cash (used in)/generated from financing activities (discontinued operations)	(190.1)	51.9
	(1,879.7)	580.3
Effects of exchange rate changes	148.9	6.4
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents (continuing operations)	(383.9)	765.7
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents (discontinued operation)	(251.6)	131.1
	(635.5)	896.8
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of the year	2,340.7	1,443.9
Cash and cash equivalents at end of the year	1,705.2	2,340.7

The Group's primary source of liquidity is cash generated from its ongoing business operations.

Cash generated from the Group's continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2008 was £876.9 million compared with £810.8 million in the prior year. High levels of capital expenditure continue, principally in the regulated water and wastewater investment programmes. The Group's net capital expenditure on property, plant and equipment for 2007/08 was £629.5 million, excluding infrastructure renewals expenditure which is included as an operating cost in the income statement under IFRS.

Cash and short-term deposits at 31 March 2008 amounted to £1,810.5 million which, inclusive of medium term committed bank facilities and net of short-term debt, results in total available liquidity of £2,494.4 million. During the year the Group redeemed a €1 billion 6.625 per cent bond from existing cash resources primarily generated from issuances of index-linked debt.

The Group retains an excellent pre-funded position for its capital investment programmes through to 2010 and further enhanced its liquidity by arranging or extending the maturity date of £500 million of committed medium-term bank credit facilities since 30 September 2007. Furthermore, the Group is in discussion with the European Investment Bank, with which it has a long-standing relationship, regarding a new £400 million term loan for United Utilities Water.

Net debt, including derivatives at 31 March 2008 was £2,903.4 million, a decrease of £740.7 million compared with 31 March 2007 (after adjusting for £481.6 million of net debt relating to discontinued operations which has exited the Group). This movement principally reflects the receipt of cash proceeds from the sales of United Utilities Electricity and the Group's stake in THUS Group, plus cashflow from operating activities, offset by expenditure on the regulated water and wastewater capital investment programmes and payments of interest, tax and dividends. This reduction in net borrowings is expected to be short-term since the Group intends to return £1.5 billion to Shareholders in August 2008.

Gearing (net borrowings divided by the regulatory capital value) decreased to 39 per cent. at 31 March 2008, compared with 52 per cent. at 31 March 2007. Following the proposed £1.5 billion Return of Capital, gearing will increase and is expected to move the Group towards the upper end of Ofwat's assumed range of 55 to 65 per cent. by the end of this regulatory review period.

In the year ended 31 March 2008, the Group issued a total of £185 million of long-term, index-linked notes through its multi-issuer euro medium-term note programme. This comprised a £50 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.702 per cent. with a 50.5 year maturity, a £100 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.585 per cent. with a 50 year maturity and a £35 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.66 per cent. with a 30 year maturity.

2.2 Year ended 31 March 2007 compared with prior financial year

The financial table below indicates the development of the Group's consolidated cashflows for the two years ended 31 March 2007. All numbers are stated on a comparable basis in accordance with IFRS.

The cashflows for the year ended 31 March 2006 have been re-presented to include Vertex as a discontinued operation.

	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m	Year ended 31 March 2006 £m
Operating activities
Cash generated from operations	1,035.8	997.2
Interest paid	(385.3)	(345.0)
Interest received and similar income	111.6	66.2
Tax paid	(35.2)	(2.5)
Net cash generated from operating activities (continuing operations)	726.9	715.9
Net cash generated from/(used in) operating activities (discontinued operations)	28.4	(4.5)
	755.3	711.4
Investing activities
Disposal of subsidiaries	206.4	–
Purchase of investments	–	(85.3)
Purchase of property, plant and equipment	(659.3)	(598.1)
Purchase of other intangible assets	(5.9)	(31.6)
Proceeds from sale of property, plant and equipment	34.3	29.1
Financial restructuring of joint ventures	–	13.2
Net cash used in investing activities (continuing operations)	(424.5)	(672.7)
Net cash used in investing activities (discontinued operations)	(20.7)	(106.5)
	(445.2)	(779.2)

	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m	Year ended 31 March 2006 £m
Financing activities
Proceeds from issue of ordinary shares	18.5	528.3
Proceeds from structured financing	81.4	–
Proceeds from borrowings	1,700.8	943.8
Repayment of borrowings	(825.4)	(472.6)
Dividends paid to equity holders of the company	(387.3)	(344.7)
Net cash generated from financing activities (continuing operations)	588.0	654.8
Net cash used in financing activities (discontinued operations)	(7.7)	(0.7)
	580.3	654.1
Effects of exchange rate changes	6.4	(8.0)
Net increase in cash and cash equivalents (continuing operations)	896.8	690.0
Net decrease in cash and cash equivalents (discontinued operation)	–	(111.7)
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of the year	1,443.9	865.6
Cash and cash equivalents at end of the year	2,340.7	1,443.9

Net cash inflow from the Group's operating activities (continuing operations) increased to £726.9 million, from £715.9 million in the year ended 31 March 2006.

In the year ended 31 March 2007 tax paid was £35.2 million compared with £2.5 million for the prior year period.

Net cash outflow from the Group's investing activities (continuing operations) decreased to £424.5 million, from £672.7 million for the year ended 31 March 2006.

The capital investment spend on property, plant and equipment of £659.3 million for the year ended 31 March 2007 represented a 10.2 per cent. increase over the year ended 31 March 2006, reflecting the planned re-phasing of the AMP4 capital programme. Cash receipts of £206.4 million from the disposal of subsidiaries arose from the sale of Vertex. As a result of the above, cash and cash equivalents increased by £896.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2007.

Borrowings net of cash and short-term deposits decreased by £225.6 million to £3,961.1 million in the year ended 31 March 2007 (£4,125.7 million including derivatives). Gearing, measured as borrowings net of cash and short-term deposits divided by total capital employed (being shareholders' equity plus borrowings net of cash and short-term deposits), decreased to 59.2 per cent. compared with 61.4 per cent. at 31 March 2006.

2.3 Short-term liquidity

Short-term liquidity requirements are met from the Group's normal operating cashflow. Further liquidity is provided by cash and short-term deposit balances, the Group's US$1.5 billion euro-commercial paper programme, supported by committed bank facilities and committed but undrawn long-term credit facilities.

2.4 Long-term liquidity

The Group has effective access to the international debt capital markets through its €7 billion medium-term note programme. The programme does not represent a funding commitment, with funding only becoming committed when debt securities have been successfully issued.

2.5 Interest rate management

The Group manages interest rate exposure by seeking to match financing costs as closely as possible with the revenues generated by its assets. The Group's exposure to interest rate fluctuations is periodically managed in the medium term through the use of interest rate swaps and the use of financial futures contracts traded on the London International Financial Futures and Options Exchange. The average underlying cost of net borrowings for continuing operations was 5.8 per cent. for the year ended 31 March 2008 (2007: 6.3 per cent.).

3. Qualitative and quantitative disclosures on market risk

3.1 Financial instruments

The Group's financial instruments comprise cash, various debtors and creditors, such as trade debtors and trade and other creditors, that arise directly from its operations.

The primary financial risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk and currency risk.

Interest rate risk

The Group's fixed rate borrowings are exposed to a risk of change in their fair value due to changes in interest rates. The Group's floating rate borrowings are exposed to a risk of change in cashflows due to changes in interest rates. Investments in equity securities and short-term receivables and payables are not exposed to interest rate risk. The Group uses interest rate swap contracts and financial futures to hedge these exposures. Under an interest rate swap, the Group agrees with another party to exchange at specific intervals the difference between fixed rate and floating rate interest amounts calculated by reference to an agreed notional principal amount. The notional principal of these instruments reflects the extent of the Group's involvement in the instruments, but does not represent its exposure to credit risk, which is assessed by reference to the fair value. Non-current asset investments, trade and other receivables and trade and other payables are not directly exposed to interest rate risk.

Currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk on borrowings that are denominated in currencies other than the respective functional currencies of Group entities. The Group utilises cross-currency swap contracts to hedge this exposure. Under a cross-currency swap, the Group agrees with another party to exchange the principal amount of two currencies, together with interest amounts in the two currencies agreed by reference to a specific interest rate basis and the principal amount. The principal of these instruments reflects the extent of the Group's involvement in the instruments, but does not represent its exposure to credit risk, which is assessed by reference to the fair value. The Group uses derivatives to manage its exposure to currency risk on its borrowings. Subsidiary undertakings make no significant sales or purchases in currencies other than their functional currencies. Accordingly, the Group has no material unhedged foreign currency exposures.

3.2 Effects of inflation

Inflation affects revenue, operating expense and finance expense. However, the impact of inflation has not had a material effect on the Group's operating results for the years ended 31 March 2007 or 31 March 2008.

3.3 Other risks

For a discussion of other risk factors faced by the Group which may affect results of operations, please refer to the section of this document headed "Risk Factors".

4. Research and development, patents and licences

The Group undertakes research primarily to provide improved standards of service to customers, together with continuing improvements in business efficiency. Its intention is to strengthen its understanding of science and technology in relation to its range of wastewater and water treatment processes to ensure that treatment plants are able to meet the required current and future standards of environmental performance.

Research and development expenditure by the Group was £1.7 million in the year ended 31 March 2008, £2.4 million in the year ended 31 March 2007, £1.9 million in the year ended 31 March 2006 and £0.8 million in the year ended 31 March 2005.

The Group acquires patents in order to provide protection for those ideas and inventions which it intends to exploit commercially. As at 31 March 2008, there were 25 inventions which have patents awarded in several jurisdictions.

The Group grants licences to third parties for the commercial exploitation of its patent rights and intellectual property. The Group may, as part of such licences, provide support to licensees for the purposes of marketing the product or service.

PART III

HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATING TO UNITED UTILITIES GROUP

1. Accountants' Report on historical financial information relating to United Utilities Group PLC as at 23 April 2008

Deloitte

Deloitte & Touche LLP
Stonecutter Court
1 Stonecutter Street
London EC4A 4TR
Tel: +44 (0) 20 7936 3000
Fax: +44 (0) 20 7583 1198
www.deloitte.co.uk

The Board of Directors
on behalf of United Utilities Group PLC
Haweswater House
Lingley Mere Business Park
Lingley Green Avenue
Great Sankey
Warrington
Cheshire WA5 3LP

JPMorgan Cazenove Limited
20 Moorgate
London EC2R 6DA

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch
Winchester House
1 Great Winchester Street
London EC2N 2DB

6 June 2008

Dear Sirs

United Utilities Group PLC

We report on the financial information set out in section 2 of Part III on pages 58 to 60 of the Prospectus dated 6 June 2008 of United Utilities Group PLC (the "Company") (the "Prospectus"). This financial information has been prepared for inclusion in the Prospectus on the basis of the accounting policies set out in paragraph 2 of the notes to the financial information (the "Notes"). This report is required by Annex I item 20.1 of Commission Regulation (EC) No 809/2004 (the "Prospectus Directive Regulation") for the purpose of complying with that requirement and for no other purpose.

Responsibilities

The Directors of the Company are responsible for preparing the financial information on the basis of preparation set out in paragraph 2 of the Notes and in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the EU.

It is our responsibility to form an opinion as to whether the financial information gives a true and fair view, for the purposes of the Prospectus, and to report our opinion to you.

Save for any responsibility under Prospectus Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f) to any person as and to the extent there provided, to the fullest extent permitted by law we do not assume any responsibility and will not accept any liability to any other person for any loss suffered by any such other person as a result of, arising out of, or in accordance with this report or our statement, required by and given solely for the purposes of complying with Annex I item 23.1 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation, consenting to its inclusion in the Prospectus.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our work in accordance with Standards for Investment Reporting issued by the Auditing Practices Board in the United Kingdom. Our work included an assessment of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial information. It also included an assessment of the significant estimates and judgments made by those responsible for the preparation of the financial information and whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the entity's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our work so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial information is free from material misstatement whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error.

Our work has not been carried out in accordance with auditing or other Standards and practices generally accepted in jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom, including the United States of America, and accordingly should not be relied upon as if it had been carried out in accordance with those Standards and practices.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial information gives, for the purposes of the Prospectus, a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the date stated in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the EU and in accordance with the basis of preparation set out in paragraph 2 of the Notes.

Declaration

For the purposes of Prospectus Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f) we are responsible for this report as part of the Prospectus and declare that we have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the information contained in this report is, to the best of our knowledge, in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import. This declaration is included in the Prospectus in compliance with Annex I item 1.2 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation.

Yours faithfully

Deloitte & Touche LLP
Chartered Accountants

Deloitte & Touche LLP is the United Kingdom member firm of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu ("DTT"), a Swiss Verein whose member firms are separate and independent legal entities. Neither DTT nor any of its member firms has any liability for each other's acts or omissions. Services are provided by member firms or their subsidiaries and not by DTT.

2. Historical financial information relating to United Utilities Group PLC as at 23 April 2008

United Utilities Group PLC
Balance sheet as at 23 April 2008

	Notes	£
Current assets
Debtors – called up redeemable preference shares not paid	3	50,000
Cash		2
Total current assets		50,002
Current liabilities
Redeemable preference shares	3	(50,000)
Total current liabilities		(50,000)
Net current assets		2
Net assets		2
Shareholders' equity
Called up share capital	3	2
Total Shareholders' equity		2

During the period from incorporation on 8 April 2008 to 23 April 2008, the Company has not traded and has received no income and incurred no expenditure. Consequently, during the current period the Company has made neither a profit nor loss. Therefore no income statement is presented. In addition, there has been no other recognised income or expenses.

Notes to the financial information

1. General

The Company was incorporated and registered in England and Wales on 8 April 2008 under the Companies Act 1985 as a private company limited by shares with the name United Utilities Newco Limited and with registered number 06559020. The Company changed its name and re-registered as a public company on 28 April 2008 under the name United Utilities Group PLC. The registered office of the Company is Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP.

2. Basis for preparation and accounting policies

The non-statutory financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union. Going forward the Directors intend to prepare the Company's stand-alone entity financial statements and consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union.

The principal accounting policies applicable to the historical financial information are set out below and are consistent with the accounting policies of United Utilities PLC, and are the policies which the Company will adopt going forward. The Directors have considered the list of accounting standards and interpretations that are issued but not yet effective as at the date of the financial statements. The impact on the Company of adoption of these standards and interpretations is not expected to be material.

Cash

Cash comprises cash in hand. The receipt of the £2 held as cash in hand is the only cash movement arising subsequent to incorporation of the Company and therefore no separate cash flow statement has been presented.

Ordinary share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Preference share capital

Redeemable preference shares bearing interest at 0.0001 per cent. are accounted for in accordance with IAS32 "Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation" and IAS39 "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" and presented as a financial liability when there is a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset.

3. Share capital

As at 23 April 2008, the authorised and issued share capital of the Company was as follows:

	As at 23 April 2008
	£
Share capital:
Authorised
2 subscriber ordinary shares of £1 each	2
50,000 redeemable preference shares of £1 each	50,000
Called up and fully paid
2 subscriber ordinary shares of £1 each	2
50,000 redeemable preference shares of £1 each	50,000

On incorporation, United Utilities Group's authorised share capital was £50,002 divided into 50,002 ordinary shares of £1 each. Of such shares, one was taken by the subscriber to the memorandum of association and was paid up in full in cash.

On 17 April 2008, a further ordinary share was allotted by the Company and was paid up in full in cash.

On 23 April 2008:

- (i) the remaining 50,000 authorised but unissued ordinary shares of £1 each were re-classified as non-voting redeemable preference shares of £1 each. These shares can be redeemed at any time at the discretion of the Directors or at the request of the holders upon the earlier of the reduction of capital of the Company proposed to be implemented subsequently to the scheme of arrangement referred to in (iii) below becoming effective or 31 December 2008. Upon such redemption, the Company shall pay to the holders the nominal amount paid on such shares together with all accrued but unpaid dividend;
- (ii) the Company allotted 50,000 non-voting redeemable preference shares of £1 each. These shares were deemed to be fully paid up to their nominal amount by virtue of the holder giving a written undertaking to pay up £1 against each share at a fixed future date. The shares carry no voting rights unless a resolution to wind up the Company or amend their terms is proposed; and
- (iii) the two issued ordinary shares of £1 each were re-classified as subscriber ordinary shares. These subscriber ordinary shares carry the same voting rights as ordinary shares until the scheme of arrangement between United Utilities PLC and its ordinary shareholders (the "Scheme") becomes effective. Subsequent to this date, the subscriber ordinary shares will carry no voting rights unless a resolution to wind up the Company or amend their terms is proposed.

4. Costs

Costs in respect of the proposed admission will be incurred by United Utilities PLC. It is not intended that any of these costs be charged to the Company.

5. Related party transactions

The two shareholders of the Company, Messrs Keevil and Gardiner, are employees of United Utilities PLC and they were both directors of the Company until 29 April 2008. Mr Keevil is the holder of the 50,000 redeemable preference shares.

6. Post balance sheet events

On 28 April 2008, the Company re-registered as a public company and changed its name to United Utilities Group PLC.

On 30 May 2008, the Company resolved to increase its authorised share capital by the creation of 1,000,000,000 ordinary shares of 500 pence each, 900,000,000 B shares of 170 pence each and 400,000,000,000 class A shares of one pence each.

By special resolution passed on 30 May 2008, the Company resolved, inter alia, that, conditional upon the Scheme becoming effective:

- (i) the share capital of the Company be reduced by reducing the nominal value of the ordinary shares from 500 pence to five pence;
- (ii) the nominal value of each unissued ordinary share in the authorised share capital be reduced from 500 pence to five pence;
- (iii) the subscriber ordinary shares in issue be cancelled;
- (iv) the merger reserve created upon the Scheme becoming effective be capitalised and applied towards paying up class A shares of one pence each in the Company; and
- (v) the authorised and issued class A shares be cancelled.

PART IV

HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATING TO UNITED UTILITIES

1. Basis of financial information

The financial statements of United Utilities included in the Annual Report and Accounts for the financial years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007 together with the audit reports thereon are incorporated by reference into this document. The audit reports for each of the financial years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007 were unqualified.

The financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2007 and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2006 (including the restated comparative figures for the year ended 31 March 2005) were prepared in accordance with IFRS. The financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2005 were prepared in accordance with UK GAAP.

The financial information presented in this document has been extracted from United Utilities' preliminary results which were announced on 3 June 2008 (and the financial information in the preliminary results announcement has been extracted from the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 that are expected to be published at the end of June 2008), and the financial statements for the years ended 31 March 2007 and 31 March 2006, and is accompanied by the comparative figures for the previous financial year as presented in the financial statements for the relevant year.

2. Cross reference list

The following list is intended to enable investors to identify easily specific items of information which have been incorporated by reference into this document.

2.1 Financial information for the year ended 31 March 2007

The page numbers below refer to the relevant pages of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2007:

- Consolidated income statement – page 70
- Consolidated balance sheets – page 71
- Statements of recognised income and expense – page 72
- Consolidated cashflow statements – page 73
- Accounting policies – pages 74-80
- Notes to the consolidated financial statements – pages 81-118
- Independent auditors' report – page 69

2.2 Financial information for the year ended 31 March 2006

The page numbers below refer to the relevant pages of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2006:

- Consolidated income statement – page 64
- Consolidated balance sheets – page 65
- Statements of recognised income and expense – page 66
- Consolidated cashflow statements – page 67
- Accounting policies – pages 68-74

- Notes to the consolidated financial statements – pages 75-114
- Independent auditors' report – page 63

2.3 Financial information for the year ended 31 March 2005

The page numbers below refer to the relevant pages of the Annual Report and Accounts of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2005:

- Consolidated profit and loss account – page 56
- Consolidated balance sheets – page 57
- Statement of total recognised gains and losses – page 59
- Consolidated cash flow statement – page 58
- Notes to the financial statements (including accounting policies) – pages 60-92
- Independent auditors' report – page 55

3. Preliminary results

United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008 were announced on 3 June 2008 and are incorporated by reference into this document.

PART V

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

1. Accountants' Report on pro forma financial information

Deloitte

Deloitte & Touche LLP
Stonecutter Court
1 Stonecutter Street
London EC4A 4TR
Tel: +44 (0) 20 7936 3000
Fax: +44 (0) 20 7583 1198
www.deloitte.co.uk

The Board of Directors
on behalf of United Utilities Group PLC
Haweswater House
Lingley Mere Business Park
Lingley Green Avenue
Great Sankey
Warrington
Cheshire WA5 3LP

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch
Winchester House
1 Great Winchester Street
London EC2N 2DB

JPMorgan Cazenove Limited
20 Moorgate
London EC2R 6DA

6 June 2008

Dear Sirs

United Utilities Group PLC (the "Company")

We report on the pro forma financial information (the "Pro forma financial information") set out in Part V of the prospectus dated 6 June 2008 (the "Prospectus"), which has been prepared on the basis described in notes 1 to 5 for illustrative purposes only, to provide information about how the Proposals might have affected the financial information presented on the basis of the accounting policies adopted by United Utilities PLC in preparing its financial statements for the period ended 31 March 2008. This report is required by Annex I item 20.2 of Commission Regulation (EC) No 809/2004 (the "Prospectus Directive Regulation") and is given for the purpose of complying with that requirement and for no other purpose.

Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the directors of the Company (the "Directors") to prepare the Pro forma financial information in accordance with Annex I item 20.2 and Annex II items 1 to 6 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation.

It is our responsibility to form an opinion, in accordance with Annex I item 20.2 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation, as to the proper compilation of the Pro forma financial information and to report that opinion to you in accordance with Annex II item 7 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation.

Save for any responsibility arising under Prospectus Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f) to any person as and to the extent there provided, to the fullest extent permitted by law we do not assume any responsibility and will not accept any liability to any other person for any loss suffered by any such other person as a result of, arising out of, or in accordance with this report or our statement, required by and given solely for the purposes of complying with Annex I item 23.1 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation, consenting to its inclusion in the Prospectus.

In providing this opinion we are not updating or refreshing any reports or opinions previously made by us on any financial information used in the compilation of the Pro forma financial information, nor do we accept responsibility for such reports or opinions beyond that owed to those to whom those reports or opinions were addressed by us at the dates of their issue.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our work in accordance with the Standards for Investment Reporting issued by the Auditing Practices Board in the United Kingdom. The work that we performed for the purpose of making this report, which involved no independent examination of any of the underlying financial information, consisted primarily of comparing the unadjusted financial information with the source documents, considering the evidence supporting the adjustments and discussing the Pro forma financial information with the Directors.

We planned and performed our work so as to obtain the information and explanations we considered necessary in order to provide us with reasonable assurance that the Pro forma financial information has been properly compiled on the basis stated and that such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of United Utilities PLC and the Company.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the Pro forma financial information has been properly compiled on the basis stated; and
- (b) such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of United Utilities PLC and the Company.

Declaration

For the purposes of Prospectus Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f) we are responsible for this report as part of the Prospectus and declare that we have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the information contained in this report is, to the best of our knowledge, in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import. This declaration is included in the Prospectus in compliance with Annex I item 1.2 of the Prospectus Directive Regulation.

Yours faithfully

Deloitte & Touche LLP
Chartered Accountants

Deloitte & Touche LLP is the United Kingdom member firm of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu ("DTT"), a Swiss Verein whose member firms are separate and independent legal entities. Neither DTT nor any of its member firms has any liability for each other's acts or omissions. Services are provided by member firms or their subsidiaries and not by DTT.

2. Pro forma financial information for United Utilities Group

Set out below is unaudited pro forma financial information on the net assets of United Utilities Group as at 31 March 2008 prepared on the basis of IFRS. The unaudited pro forma statement of net assets is prepared for illustrative purposes only to show the effect of the Proposals as if they had occurred on 31 March 2008 and does not take account of trading or activity since 31 March 2008.

Due to the nature of pro forma financial information, this information addresses a hypothetical situation and does not therefore represent an actual financial position.

The unaudited pro forma statement is based on the net assets of United Utilities Group as at 23 April 2008 as set out in Part III of this document. The net assets of United Utilities as at 31 March 2008 have been extracted without material adjustment from United Utilities' preliminary results which were announced on 3 June 2008. The other adjustments are discussed in the notes below.

	Adjustments				Pro forma total
	United Utilities Group PLC	United Utilities PLC	Cash return	Transaction costs
	Note 1	Note 2	Note 3	Note 4	Note 5
	£m	£m	£m	£m	£m
ASSETS
Non-current assets
Property, plant and equipment	–	7,591.8	–	–	7,591.8
Goodwill	–	2.3	–	–	2.3
Other intangible assets	–	85.3	–	–	85.3
Investments	–	155.5	–	–	155.5
Trade and other receivables	–	28.2	–	–	28.2
Retirement benefit surplus	–	–	–	–	–
Derivative financial instruments	–	44.3	–	–	44.3
	–	7,907.4	–	–	7,907.4
Current assets
Inventories	–	63.3	–	–	63.3
Trade and other receivables	–	456.2	–	–	456.2
Cash and short-term deposits	–	1,810.5	–	–	1,810.5
Derivative financial instruments	–	99.0	–	–	99.0
	–	2,429.0	–	–	2,429.0
Total assets	–	10,336.4	–	–	10,336.4

	Adjustments				Pro forma total
	United Utilities Group PLC	United Utilities PLC	Cash return	Transaction costs
	Note 1	Note 2	Note 3	Note 4	Note 5
	£m	£m	£m	£m	£m
LIABILITIES
Non-current liabilities
Trade and other payables	-	(125.5)	-	-	(125.5)
Borrowings	-	(3,788.9)	-	-	(3,788.9)
Retirement benefit obligations	-	(101.2)	-	-	(101.2)
Deferred tax liabilities	-	(1,164.0)	-	-	(1,164.0)
Provisions	-	(18.7)	-	-	(18.7)
Derivative financial instruments	-	(53.2)	-	-	(53.2)
	-	(5,251.5)	-	-	(5,251.5)
Current liabilities
Trade and other payables	-	(771.9)	-	(6.4)	(778.3)
Borrowings	-	(878.4)	(1,500.0)	-	(2,378.4)
Current income tax liabilities	-	(66.9)	-	-	(66.9)
Provisions	-	(21.0)	-	-	(21.0)
Derivative financial instruments	-	(136.7)	-	-	(136.7)
	-	(1,874.9)	(1,500.0)	(6.4)	(3,381.3)
Total liabilities	-	(7,126.4)	(1,500.0)	(6.4)	(8,632.8)
NET ASSETS	-	3,210.0	(1,500.0)	(6.4)	1,703.6

Notes:

1. The financial information on United Utilities Group has been extracted, without material adjustment, from the IFRS financial information of United Utilities Group as set out in Part III of this document. As at 23 April 2008, United Utilities Group's net assets totalled £2 (represented by ordinary share capital of £2).
2. The financial information on United Utilities has been extracted, without material adjustment, from the preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008 prepared under IFRS which were announced on 3 June 2008. The financial information in the preliminary results announcement has been extracted without material adjustment from United Utilities' audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2008 which are expected to be published at the end of June 2008.
3. The amount of the Return of Capital, at 170 pence per B Share, is expected to be approximately £1.5 billion based on the number of United Utilities Shares in issue on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus and is to be funded by an intra-group loan from United Utilities who in turn will fund this from existing sources of liquidity.
4. Transaction costs under the Proposals amount to £6.4 million, predominantly relating to advisers' fees.
5. This pro forma financial information does not constitute financial statements within the meaning of section 435 of the Companies Act 2006.

Earnings

The expected impact of the Proposals on earnings is disclosed in section 10 of Part I of this document.

PART VI

UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION

1. General

The following summary is intended as a general guide only and relates only to certain UK tax consequences of receiving the Ordinary Shares and B Shares under the Scheme. It is based on current UK tax law and the current practice of HM Revenue & Customs, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. Therefore, the future UK tax treatment of the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares may potentially be subject to change which could impact upon the UK tax position of the Shareholder. The summary is intended to apply only to Shareholders who are resident in the UK for UK tax purposes, who hold the Ordinary Shares and B Shares as investments and not on trading account, to whom Class A Shares are allotted and who are the beneficial owners of the Ordinary Shares, B Shares and the Class A Shares. The summary is not intended to apply to certain classes of shareholders such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, those holding shares by reason of their employment or collective investment schemes.

Any Shareholders or prospective shareholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position regarding the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares and/or who are subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the UK should consult their tax advisers.

The tax treatment of participants in United Utilities Employee Share Plans may be different from that described below.

2. The Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

For the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains, the cancellation of the United Utilities Shares and the issue of Ordinary Shares and B Shares should be treated as a reorganisation of share capital. Accordingly, Shareholders will not be treated as making a disposal in respect of the cancellation of United Utilities Shares or an acquisition in respect of the issue to them of the Ordinary Shares and B Shares. The Ordinary Shares and B Shares will be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration as the United Utilities Shares for the purposes of UK taxation of chargeable gains.

Shareholders who alone, or together with connected persons, hold more than five per cent. of the United Utilities Shares are advised that United Utilities has obtained a clearance under section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 that the Board of HM Revenue & Customs are satisfied that the scheme of reconstruction will be effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangements of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is avoidance of a liability to capital gains tax or corporation tax.

The sale, on behalf of Shareholders, of fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares resulting from the Scheme should not constitute a disposal by UK resident Shareholders. The amounts of any payments received by such Shareholders on the sale of fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares should, in practice, be deducted from the base cost of any Ordinary Shares and B Shares received.

A Shareholder's original base cost (less amounts received on sale of any fractional entitlements, as referred to above) in his United Utilities Shares will be attributed to both the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares, so only a proportion of the base cost of the original holding of United Utilities Shares will be available on a redemption of the B Shares. The attribution of the base cost of the United Utilities Shares should be made on the basis of the respective market values of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares on the first day that the former are listed on the Official List.

For the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains, the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, which will be effected by decreasing the nominal value of each Ordinary Share and by cancelling the Class A Shares which will have been allotted pro rata to holders of Ordinary Shares in capitalisation of the merger reserve created in United Utilities Group on the Scheme Effective Date, should be treated as another reorganisation of share capital. Accordingly, Shareholders should not be treated as making a disposal of the Ordinary Shares and Class A Shares for the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains as a result of that reduction of capital. Furthermore, in practice, because the market value of the Class A Shares will be nil for the duration of their existence, there should be no tax exchange on their cancellation.

3. Dividends

Under current tax law, United Utilities Group will not be required to withhold tax at source from dividend payments it makes.

3.1 Individuals

An individual Shareholder who receives a dividend from United Utilities Group will generally be entitled to a tax credit which may be set off against his total income tax liability on the dividend. Such an individual Shareholder's liability to income tax is calculated on the aggregate of the net dividend and the related tax credit (the "gross dividend") which will be regarded as the top slice of the individual's income. The tax credit will be equal to one-ninth of the cash dividend paid, or ten per cent. of the gross dividend.

An individual Shareholder who is not liable to income tax at the higher rate will be subject to income tax on dividends paid by United Utilities Group at the rate of ten per cent. of the gross dividend so that the tax credit will satisfy in full such Shareholder's liability to income tax on the dividend. If and to the extent that such Shareholder is liable to pay income tax at the higher rate, he will be subject to income tax on the gross dividend at 32.5 per cent. After taking into account the tax credit, such a Shareholder will have to account for tax at an effective rate of 25 per cent. of the net cash dividend received.

Shareholders who are not liable to income tax in respect of the gross dividend will not be entitled to claim payment of any part of the tax credit.

3.2 Companies

Companies will not normally be subject to corporation tax on any dividend received from United Utilities Group and will not be able to claim a tax credit attaching to any dividend.

4. B Shares: Capital gains

4.1 B Share Dividend

Shareholders who receive the B Share Dividend should note that a proportion of the base cost of their original holding of United Utilities Shares will be attributed to the B Shares and this amount should continue to be attributed to those B Shares following their reclassification as Deferred Shares (notwithstanding that the Deferred Shares have limited rights and value). Correspondingly, only a proportion of the base cost of the original holding of United Utilities Shares will be available on a disposal of Ordinary Shares.

Shareholders liable to corporation tax should note that it is possible that section 30 Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 could be applicable to such a Shareholder who elects for the B Share Dividend. If it were applied, the effect would be broadly to deny any loss or impute a chargeable gain attributable to the payment of that dividend, depending on the apportionment of the base cost of the United Utilities Shares between the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares.

4.2 Redemption of B Shares

On redemption of all or any of the B Shares, a Shareholder may, depending on his particular circumstances, be subject to UK tax on the amount of any chargeable gain realised, by reference to the sum received in respect of the redemption and the base cost attributed to the B Shares as described above.

No part of the proceeds received by a Shareholder on redemption of all or part of the B Shares should be treated as an income distribution in the Shareholder's hands.

The UK tax treatment of the redemption of B Shares described above is subject to the possible application of anti-avoidance provisions described in section 6 below.

5. Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax ("SDRT")

5.1 General

Except in relation to depository receipt arrangements or clearance services where special rules apply (see below):

- (A) no stamp duty or SDRT will be payable on the creation of Ordinary Shares or B Shares pursuant to the Scheme or the creation of Class A Shares;
- (B) where Shareholders elect to redeem B Shares, the redemption of those B Shares will not give rise to a liability to stamp duty or SDRT; and
- (C) an agreement to sell Ordinary Shares or B Shares will normally give rise to a liability to SDRT for the purchaser, at the rate of 0.5 per cent. of the actual consideration paid. If an instrument of transfer of the Ordinary Shares or B Shares is subsequently produced it will generally be subject to stamp duty at the rate of 0.5 per cent. (rounded up to the nearest multiple of £5) of the actual consideration paid. When stamp duty is paid within six years of the agreement to transfer, the SDRT charge will generally be cancelled and any SDRT already paid should then be refunded.

5.2 Depository receipt arrangements and clearance services

Where Ordinary Shares or B Shares are issued or transferred: (a) to, or to a nominee for, a person whose business is or includes the provision of clearance services; or (b) to, or to a nominee or agent for, a person whose business is or includes issuing depository receipts, stamp duty (in the case of a transfer to such persons) or SDRT may be payable at the higher rate of 1.5 per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration payable or, in certain circumstances, the value of the Ordinary Shares or B Shares or, in the case of an issue to such persons, the issue price of the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares (rounded up to the nearest £5 in the case of stamp duty). This liability for stamp duty or SDRT will strictly be accountable by the depository or clearance service operator or their nominee, as the case may be, but will in practice generally be reimbursed by participants in the clearance service or depository receipt scheme. Clearance services may opt, under certain circumstances, for the normal rate of stamp duty or SDRT (0.5 per cent. of the consideration paid) to apply to issues or transfers of Ordinary Shares or B Shares into, and to transactions within, such services instead of the higher rate of 1.5 per cent. generally applying to an issue or transfer of shares into the clearance service and the exemption from stamp duty and SDRT on transfer of shares whilst in the service.

However, shareholders who hold their United Utilities Shares through a depository should not suffer SDRT on the issue of Ordinary Shares or B Shares to the Depository and the receipt of ADRs.

6. Anti-avoidance provisions

Chapter 1 Part 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007 ("ITA") permits HM Revenue & Customs in certain circumstances to issue a shareholder within the charge to income tax with a notice stating that it will tax what would otherwise be a capital receipt as an income receipt. This would mean that a higher rate taxpayer who has elected for redemption for his B Shares, rather than the B Share Dividend would be subject to income tax at an effective rate of 25 per cent. of the cash received instead of being subject to the tax treatment described in paragraph 4.2 above. No application has been made to HM Revenue & Customs seeking clearance that these provisions will not be applied. However, having consulted with Tax Counsel, United Utilities Group does not expect Chapter 1 Part 13 ITA will be applied, but recommends that any Shareholder who is in doubt as to his personal tax position in the light of his own particular circumstances, should take professional advice.

7. ISAs

If existing Shareholders of United Utilities currently hold their United Utilities Shares in the stocks and shares component of an ISA, the Ordinary Shares should qualify for inclusion in the same way. However, neither the B Shares nor the Deferred Shares qualify for inclusion in the stocks and shares component of an ISA and Shareholders may be required to receive a transfer of such shares.

PART VII

FURTHER INFORMATION RELATING TO THE PROPOSALS AND THE RETURN OF CAPITAL

1. Description of the Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The establishment of a new holding company for the Group and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital entails a number of steps.

1.1 The Scheme

The insertion of United Utilities Group will be effected through a Court-approved scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006.

Under the Scheme, all the United Utilities Shares will be cancelled on the Scheme Effective Date. In consideration for the cancellation, Shareholders on the register of members of United Utilities at the Scheme Record Time, expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008, will receive:

17 Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares
and
one B Share for each United Utilities Share

Any fractional entitlements to Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold, and the net proceeds of the sale remitted to Shareholders pro rata to their entitlement.

The intention is that, subject to normal market movements, the share price of one Ordinary Share immediately after Admission should be approximately equal to the share price of one United Utilities Share immediately beforehand. The effect of this will be to reduce the number of Ordinary Shares issued under the Scheme from the number of United Utilities Shares to reflect the Return of Capital.

The ratio used for the share conversion has been set by reference to the Closing Price of 748.5 pence per United Utilities Share and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue, in each case on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus. Depending upon the price of a United Utilities Share shortly before the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme, the ratio may no longer achieve the intention referred to above. If the Directors believe that this is materially the case and the Directors believe that to do so would be in the best interests of United Utilities Group and Shareholders as a whole, steps may be taken to effect either an alteration to the share exchange ratio and/or a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares by resolution of the existing members of United Utilities Group which will have substantially the same effect as if the ratio were adjusted. If such steps are taken, notice will be given by issuing an announcement through a Regulatory Information Service.

With effect from implementation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital (subsequent to the Scheme becoming effective), the rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares will be substantially the same as those attaching to the United Utilities Shares. Upon implementation of the Scheme, a holder of Ordinary Shares will (subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements) have the same proportionate interest in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities Group as he had as a holder of United Utilities Shares in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities before the Scheme becomes effective.

A summary of the rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares is set out at section 4.2(B) of Part X and a summary of the rights attaching to the B Shares is set out in section 1 of Part VIII of this document.

Pursuant to the Scheme, the issued share capital of United Utilities will be reduced by cancelling and extinguishing the United Utilities Shares following which the share capital of United Utilities will be restored to its former nominal amount and the credit arising in the books of United Utilities as a result of the cancellation will be applied in paying up in full new shares in United Utilities such that the aggregate nominal value of those shares equals the aggregate nominal value of the United Utilities Shares cancelled. The new shares in United Utilities will be issued to United Utilities Group (and/or its nominee(s)) which will, as a result, become the holding company of United Utilities and the Group.

Further United Utilities Shares may be allotted before or after the Scheme comes into effect (for example, because of the exercise of rights granted by United Utilities under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans). In some cases, the precise timing of their allotment could leave those shares outside the scope of the Scheme. In order to ensure that this does not occur, it is proposed that the United Utilities Articles should be amended in such a way as to ensure that:

- (A) any United Utilities Shares which are allotted and issued prior to confirmation by the Court of the reduction of United Utilities' ordinary share capital provided for under the Scheme will be allotted and issued subject to the terms of the Scheme and that the holders of such shares will be bound by the Scheme accordingly; and
- (B) any United Utilities Shares which are allotted otherwise than to United Utilities Group (or its nominee(s)) at or after such time will be transferred to United Utilities Group (or its nominee(s)) in exchange for the issue of one Ordinary Share for every one United Utilities Share so transferred.

1.2 The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital which will occur following, and subject to, the Scheme becoming effective will involve the reduction of United Utilities Group's ordinary share capital by approximately £3,373 million (based on the number of United Utilities Shares in issue on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Prospectus), by decreasing the nominal amount of each Ordinary Share issued pursuant to the Scheme from 500 pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme). This reduction will create distributable reserves to enable the Return of Capital to take place and for future dividends. In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme becoming effective which will be capitalised into Class A Shares in United Utilities Group. Following such capitalisation, the Class A Shares will be allotted pro rata to the holders of Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) and are then to be cancelled on confirmation by the Court, as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. This will create further distributable reserves.

2. Conditions to and implementation of the Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

2.1 The Scheme

The implementation of the Scheme is conditional upon:

- (A) approval of the Scheme at the Court Meeting by a majority in number, representing not less than 75 per cent. in value, of those Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy;
- (B) the passing of the special resolution set out in the notice of General Meeting to approve certain matters to give effect to the Scheme;
- (C) sanction by the Court of the Scheme and confirmation by the Court of the reduction of capital of United Utilities as part of the Scheme;
- (D) the delivery of a copy of the order of the Court sanctioning the Scheme and confirming the reduction of capital of United Utilities in relation to the Scheme to the Registrar of Companies and the registration of the order by him.

The Court Hearing (at which it is proposed that the Court sanction the Scheme) is expected to be held on or around 24 July 2008. Shareholders or creditors who wish to oppose the Scheme will be informed by advertisement in a newspaper with national distribution of their right to appear in person, or be represented by Counsel, at the Court Hearing.

In addition, the Directors will not take the necessary steps to enable the Scheme to become effective unless, at the relevant time, the following conditions have been satisfied:

- (E) the agreement of the UKLA to admit the Ordinary Shares to be issued in connection with the Scheme to the Official List and its agreement not being withdrawn prior to the Scheme Effective Date; and
- (F) the agreement of the London Stock Exchange to admit the Ordinary Shares to be issued in connection with the Scheme to trading on its main market for listed securities and its agreement not being withdrawn prior to the Scheme Effective Date.

If the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court and conditions (E) and (F) above are satisfied, the Scheme is expected to become effective and dealings in the Ordinary Shares to be issued pursuant to the Scheme are expected to commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

If the Scheme has not become effective by 31 December 2008 (or such later date as the Court may allow), it will lapse, in which event neither the Scheme, the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital nor the Return of Capital will proceed and Shareholders will remain holders of United Utilities Shares and United Utilities Shares will continue to be listed on the Official List.

The Scheme contains a provision for United Utilities and United Utilities Group jointly to consent, on behalf of all persons concerned, to any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme or to any condition that the Court may think fit to approve or impose. The Court would be unlikely to approve or impose any modification of, or addition or condition to, the Scheme which might be material to the interests of Shareholders unless Shareholders were informed of any such modification, addition or condition. It will be a matter for the Court to decide, in its discretion, whether or not the consent of Shareholders should be sought at a further meeting. If the Court approves or imposes a modification of, or addition or condition to, the Scheme which, in the opinion of the Directors, is of such a nature or importance as to require the approval of Shareholders at a further meeting, the Directors will not take the necessary steps to enable the Scheme to become effective unless and until such approval is obtained.

2.2 The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is conditional on the following:

- (A) the Scheme becoming effective and being fully implemented;
- (B) the confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital by the Court; and
- (C) the delivery of a copy of the order of the Court confirming the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital to the Registrar of Companies for registration and the registration of the order by him.

The Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is expected to be held on or around 30 July 2008. Shareholders will have the right to attend the Court hearing to support or oppose the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and to appear in person or be represented by Counsel.

The United Utilities Reduction of Capital is expected to become effective on 31 July 2008.

3. Admission, dealings, share certificates and settlement

Application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for up to 683,000,000 Ordinary Shares of 500 pence each to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for such shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. The ISIN number of the Ordinary Shares will be GB00B39J2M42. There will be no such application for the B Shares to be admitted to listing or trading on any exchange and the B Shares shall remain unlisted.

The last day of dealings in United Utilities Shares is expected to be 25 July 2008. The last time for registration of transfers of United Utilities Shares is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008.

Ordinary Shares and B Shares can be held in certificated form or uncertificated form. With effect from and including the Scheme Effective Date, share certificates for the United Utilities Shares will cease to be valid and should be destroyed. With respect to the United Utilities Shares held in uncertificated form, Euroclear will be instructed to cancel the entitlements of the relevant Shareholders with respect to those United Utilities Shares.

Admission of the Ordinary Shares to the Official List will become effective and dealings in the Ordinary Shares are expected to commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

These dates may be deferred if it is necessary to adjourn any meetings required to approve the Scheme or if there is any delay in obtaining the Court's sanction of the Scheme. In the event of a delay, the application for United Utilities Shares to be delisted will be deferred, so that listing will not be cancelled until immediately before the Scheme takes effect.

No Ordinary Shares nor any B Shares have been marketed to, nor are any available for purchase in whole or in part by the public in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in connection with Admission.

It is expected that Ordinary Shares and B Shares, where relevant, will be credited to CREST accounts on 28 July 2008.

It is expected that certificates for Ordinary Shares and in respect of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Final B Share Redemption will be posted by 11 August 2008 and 15 August 2008 respectively.

Pending the despatch of certificates for Ordinary Shares and B Shares, transfers of Ordinary Shares and B Shares in certificated form will be certified against the share register of United Utilities Group. Temporary documents of title have not been, and will not be, issued in respect of the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares.

All documents, certificates, cheques or other communications sent by or to Shareholders will be sent at their own risk and may be sent by post.

All mandates relating to payment of dividends on United Utilities Shares and all instructions given to United Utilities in relation to notices and other communications in force immediately prior to the Scheme Effective Date will be, unless and until revoked or varied, deemed as from the Scheme Effective Date to be valid and effective mandates or instructions to United Utilities Group in relation to the corresponding holdings of Ordinary Shares and, where appropriate, B Shares.

4. The Return of Capital

Under the Return of Capital, Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) will have the alternatives set out below in relation to their B Shares.

Shareholders need not make the same choice for their entire holding of B Shares. Shareholders who do not elect for any of these alternatives will receive the Initial B Share Redemption in respect of all of their B Shares.

Holders of United Utilities ADRs and Overseas Shareholders should read the additional information set out in sections 5 and 6 of this Part VII respectively. For regulatory reasons, Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs are not in the same position as other Shareholders in relation to the B Share Alternatives and United Utilities Group considers it unduly onerous to make the B Share Alternatives available to Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs.

US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depository and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend. Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders, the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

4.1 B Share Alternatives

Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) holding B Shares will have the choice between the B Share Dividend, the Initial B Share Redemption and the Final B Share Redemption as discussed below. Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) can make any one of these choices in respect of each B Share and can therefore make a combination of choices in respect of their entire holding of B Shares. Further information in relation to the rights attaching to the B Shares is contained in section 1 of Part VIII of this document. Further details of the Return of Capital and the B Share Alternatives are set out in the Circular.

Alternative 1: Initial B Share Redemption

Each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds will be sent, or that CREST accounts will be credited with the proceeds, by 19 August 2008.

Alternative 2: B Share Dividend

For each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative, the Shareholder will receive a single dividend of 170 pence, following which each such B Share will be reclassified as one Deferred Share. It is expected that payment of the B Share Dividend will be made to bank accounts in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, a cheque will be sent by 19 August 2008.

Deferred Shares will not be listed, will have extremely limited rights and negligible value and will be redeemed in whole or in part at a future date or dates at the discretion of United Utilities Group, in each case for an aggregate consideration of one pence. Further information on the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares can be found in section 2 of Part VIII of this document.

Alternative 3: Final B Share Redemption

Each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Final B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 14 April 2009) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds will be sent, or that CREST accounts will be credited with the proceeds, by 20 April 2009.

A Shareholder who has elected for the Final B Share Redemption will, whilst he retains the relevant B Shares, be entitled to receive the B Share Continuing Dividend. This is a dividend at the Interest Rate, payable on the nominal amount of 170 pence per B Share retained. The B Share Continuing Dividend will only be payable to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves and it is therefore not guaranteed. It is expected that payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend will be made in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, a cheque will be sent by 20 April 2009.

4.2 Financing the Return of Capital

In order for United Utilities Group to be able to implement any of the above B Share Alternatives, it will need sufficient distributable reserves which will be dependent on the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital taking place. In order to finance the obligations of United Utilities Group in relation to the B Shares issued under the Scheme, United Utilities will make a loan of up to £1,501 million to United Utilities Group. The making of such loan is to be approved as part of the Scheme in order to ensure compliance with section 151 of the Companies Act 1985.

5. Holders of United Utilities ADRs

In connection with the delisting and cancellation of the United Utilities Shares, the ADR facility which is currently in place in the United States in respect of United Utilities Shares will be terminated. A new ADR facility will be established in respect of the Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme.

Following the Scheme becoming effective the United Utilities Shares underlying each United Utilities ADR will be cancelled and the Depositary will be issued with 17 Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares it holds at the Scheme Record Time and one B Share for each United Utilities Share it holds at the Scheme Record Time.

United Utilities Group ADRs will be issued by the Depositary in respect of the Ordinary Shares that have been issued to the Depositary. Persons registered as holding United Utilities ADRs at 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on 25 July 2008 will be entitled to receive United Utilities Group ADRs when they have surrendered their United Utilities ADRs to the Depositary for cancellation in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement.

To the extent that any fractions arise as a result of the Scheme, holders of United Utilities ADRs will have the net proceeds, if any, of sale on their behalf of the fractional United Utilities Group ADRs remitted to them in US dollars in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement.

The B Shares will not form part of the United Utilities Group ADR facility. They will be issued to the Depositary who will be deemed to have elected for the B Share Dividend in respect of those B Shares. Any cash received by the Depositary in respect of the B Share Dividend will be distributed to the holders of United Utilities ADRs in US dollars following conversion by the Depositary from pounds sterling in the manner set out in and pursuant to the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement.

6. Overseas Shareholders

6.1 General

No Ordinary Shares, B Shares nor any other securities in United Utilities Group have been marketed to, nor are any available for purchase, in whole or in part, by, the public in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in connection with Admission or the Proposals. This document does not constitute or form part of any offer or invitation to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, or any solicitation of any offer to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, Ordinary Shares, B Shares or any other securities of United Utilities Group.

The distribution of this Prospectus and the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law. No action has been taken by United Utilities Group to obtain any approval, authorisation or exemption to permit the allotment or issue of Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares or the possession or distribution of this document (or any other publicity material relating to the Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and/or Class A Shares) in any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom.

Overseas Shareholders may be affected by the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to the distribution of this document or the Proposals. Persons into whose possession this document comes should inform themselves about and observe any applicable restrictions and legal, exchange control or regulatory requirements in relation to the distribution of this document and the Proposals. Any failure to comply with such restrictions or requirements may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

This document is not for publication or distribution in or into any jurisdiction in which such act would constitute a violation of the relevant laws of such jurisdiction. The Ordinary Shares and the B Shares may not be offered, sold or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, in or into any jurisdiction or for the account or benefit of citizens or residents of any such jurisdiction except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable rules and regulations of any such jurisdiction.

It is the responsibility of any person into whose possession this document comes to satisfy themselves as to the full observance of the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in connection with the distribution of this document or the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares and B Shares pursuant to the Scheme, including the obtaining of any governmental, exchange control or other consents which may be required and/or compliance with other necessary formalities which are required to be observed and the payment of any issue, transfer or other taxes or levies due in such jurisdiction.

If, in respect of any Overseas Shareholders, United Utilities or United Utilities Group is advised that the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares would or might infringe the laws of any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom or would or might require United Utilities Group to obtain any governmental or other consent or effect any registration, filing or other formality with which, in the opinion of United Utilities Group, it would be unable to comply or which it regards as unduly onerous, the Scheme provides that:

- (A) in the case of such Ordinary Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that they shall be allotted and issued to such persons as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, on terms that they shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder; or
- (B) where such Ordinary Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where paragraph (A) does not apply), United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such Ordinary Shares shall be sold, and United Utilities Group shall appoint a person who shall be authorised on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder to procure that any shares in respect of which United Utilities Group has made such determination shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions); or
- (C) in the case of such B Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such shares shall be allotted and issued to such person as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, until such time as they are redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption. The net proceeds of such redemption (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder; or
- (D) where such B Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where paragraph (C) does not apply), such B Shares shall be redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption.

Any remittance of the net proceeds of sale or redemption referred to in this section shall be at the risk of the relevant Overseas Shareholder.

Overseas Shareholders should consult their own legal and tax advisers with respect to the legal and tax consequences of the Proposals in their particular circumstances.

6.2 United States

US Shareholders will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them and will only be entitled to receive the Initial B Share Dividend. Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption of the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. Holders of United Utilities ADRs should refer to section 5 of this Part VII.

Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be, and are not required to be, registered under the US Securities Act and will be issued pursuant to the Scheme in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act. For the purpose of qualifying for the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act with respect to the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme, United Utilities will advise the Court that it will rely on the Section 3(a)(10) exemption based on the Court's sanctioning of the Scheme, which will be relied upon by United Utilities as an approval of the Scheme following a hearing on its fairness to Shareholders of United Utilities at which hearing all such Shareholders will be entitled to attend in person or through counsel to support or oppose the sanctioning of the Scheme and with respect to which notification has been or will be given to all such Shareholders.

Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be registered under the securities laws of any state of the United States, and will be issued pursuant to the Scheme in reliance on available exemptions from such state law registration requirements.

Ordinary Shares and B Shares issued to a Shareholder who is neither an affiliate (within the meaning of the US Securities Act) of United Utilities or United Utilities Group prior to the Scheme Effective Date, nor an affiliate of United Utilities Group after the Scheme Effective Date, will not be "restricted securities" under the US Securities Act and such Ordinary Shares and B Shares may be sold by such person in ordinary secondary market transactions without regard to Rules 144 or 145(c) or (d) of the US Securities Act.

Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares have been and will not be listed on a US securities exchange or quoted on any inter-dealer quotation system in the United States. United Utilities Group does not intend to take any action to facilitate a market in Ordinary Shares or B Shares in the United States. Consequently, United Utilities Group believes that it is unlikely that an active trading market in the United States will develop for the Ordinary Shares or B Shares.

Shareholders who are citizens or residents of the United States should consult their own legal and tax advisers with respect to the legal and tax consequences of the Scheme.

6.3 Canada

This Prospectus is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, an offer to any person in Canada and an advertisement or a public offering of the securities described herein. No securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed upon this Prospectus or the merits of the securities described herein and any representation to the contrary is an offence in Canada.

United Utilities prepares its financial statements in UK pounds sterling, the official currency of the United Kingdom. The financial information included in this Prospectus has been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). IFRS differs significantly in certain material respects from generally accepted accounting principles in Canada ("Canadian GAAP"). United Utilities will not provide Canadian investors with any reconciliation of their respective financial statements or any other information contained in this Prospectus to Canadian GAAP. Accordingly, Canadian investors should consult their own legal and financial advisers for additional information regarding United Utilities Group's and United Utilities' financial information included in this Prospectus and should refer to Parts III and IV contained in this Prospectus for additional information.

The Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be issued in Canada pursuant to the Scheme and the issuance of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be exempt from the requirement that United Utilities Group prepare and file a prospectus with the relevant Canadian regulatory authorities pursuant to section 2.11 of National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus and Registration Exemptions. Accordingly, any resale of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares must be made in accordance with applicable securities laws which may require resales to be made pursuant to exemptions from registration and prospectus requirements. These resale restrictions may in some circumstances apply to resales of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares outside of Canada. Canadian investors are advised to seek legal advice prior to any resale of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares.

United Utilities Group is not, and does not intend to become, a “reporting issuer”, as such term is defined under applicable Canadian securities legislation, in any province or territory of Canada in which the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be offered and there is currently no public market for the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares in Canada and no such market may ever develop. Under no circumstances will United Utilities Group be required to file a prospectus or similar document with any securities regulatory authority in Canada qualifying the resale of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares to the public in any province or territory of Canada. Canadian investors are advised that United Utilities Group currently does not intend to file a prospectus or similar document with any securities regulatory authority in Canada qualifying the resale of the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares to the public in any province or territory of Canada.

Any discussion of taxation and related matters contained in this Prospectus does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to acquire the Ordinary Shares and the B Shares and, in particular, does not address Canadian tax considerations. Shareholders who are Canadian residents should consult their own legal, financial and tax advisers with respect to the tax consequences of the Scheme and the Return of Capital in their particular circumstances.

United Utilities Group is incorporated under the laws of England and Wales. All or substantially all of United Utilities Group’s directors and officers may be located outside of Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible for Canadian investors to effect service of process within Canada upon United Utilities Group or such persons. All or a substantial portion of the assets of United Utilities Group and such other persons may be located outside of Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible to satisfy a judgment against United Utilities Group or such persons in Canada or to enforce a judgment in Canadian courts against United Utilities Group or persons outside of Canada.

Upon receipt of this document, each Canadian investor confirms that it has expressly requested that all documents evidencing or relating in any way to the sale of the securities described herein (including for greater certainty any purchase confirmation or any notice) be drawn up in the English language only. French translation: Par la réception de ce document, chaque investisseur canadien confirme par les présentes qu’il a expressément exigé que tous les documents faisant foi ou se rapportant de quelque manière que ce soit à la vente des valeurs mobilières décrites aux présentes (incluant, pour plus de certitude, toute confirmation d’achat ou tout avis) soient rédigés en anglais seulement.

6.4 New Zealand

For regulatory reasons, in the case of NZ Shareholders, B Shares (and Class A Shares) will be allotted and issued to a nominee for such Shareholders appointed by United Utilities Group. The nominee will not make an election in respect of those B Shares. Consequently, such B Shares will be redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption and the nominee shall pay the net proceeds of redemption (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) to the relevant NZ Shareholder.

PART VIII

RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS OF THE B SHARES AND THE DEFERRED SHARES

1. Rights and restrictions of the B Shares

The following summarises the rights of the B Shares and the restrictions to which they are subject, which are reflected in the United Utilities Group Articles.

1.1 Elections in respect of B Shares

- (A) Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) will be sent a Form of Election together with the Circular under which they can elect in relation to any of their B Shares to have them redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date, to receive the B Share Dividend or to have them redeemed on the Final B Share Redemption Date.
- (B) Holders of B Shares (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders) who are deemed to have elected to receive the B Share Dividend) who have not returned a duly completed Form of Election or provided a TTE instruction through the CREST system by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such later time and/or date as the Board may determine) will have all of their B Shares redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date.
- (C) The Board may, if they so determine in their absolute discretion, accept a Form of Election which is received after the relevant time or which is not correctly completed.
- (D) The Board may make such determinations or arrangements with respect to Forms of Election or the ability of certain Shareholders to elect for any of Alternative 1, Alternative 2 or Alternative 3 as the Board may judge necessary or expedient to deal with legal or practical problems arising in any overseas territory or because of shares being represented by depositary receipts or to deal with the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange or with any other matter whatsoever.

1.2 Income – B Share Dividend

Shareholders who have elected for Alternative 2 (B Share Dividend) shall be entitled to receive, out of the profits available for distribution, a single dividend of 170 pence for each B Share elected to be subject to that alternative. Each B Share in respect of which the B Share Dividend is payable, shall on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) be automatically reclassified as a Deferred Share of 170 pence nominal value. The rights and restrictions attaching to the Deferred Shares are summarised in section 2 of this Part VIII.

1.3 Income – B Share Continuing Dividend

Shareholders who have elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption) shall be entitled:

- (A) with effect from 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine), out of the profits available for distribution in respect of each financial year or other accounting period of United Utilities Group, in priority to any payment of dividend or other distribution to the holders of any Ordinary Shares and before profits are carried to reserves but after payment of the preferential dividend on the Redeemable Preference Shares, to be paid a non-cumulative preferential dividend at the Interest Rate on the amount of 170 pence per B Share. The B Share Continuing Dividend shall be payable only to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves. Such dividend shall become payable on 14 April 2009 and be calculated in respect of the period from 11 August 2008 to (and including) 13 April 2009 and on the basis of a 365 day year. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares to the B Share Continuing Dividend in respect of all B Shares held by such holder shall be rounded down to the nearest penny;

- (B) payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend shall be made to holders of the B Shares on the register on 9 April 2009; and
- (C) the holders of the B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits of United Utilities Group.

1.4 Redemption – Initial B Share Redemption

Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for Alternative 1 (Initial B Share Redemption) and, unless the Board of United Utilities Group otherwise determines, those Shareholders not making a valid election before 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine), will have their B Shares redeemed by United Utilities Group on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share in respect of which they have elected, or are deemed to have elected, to be subject to Alternative 1. All B Shares which are redeemed will immediately and automatically be cancelled.

1.5 Redemption – Final B Share Redemption

Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption) will have their B Shares redeemed on 14 April 2009 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share which they have elected to be subject to Alternative 3. At the time of payment of the redemption proceeds, United Utilities Group shall also pay the B Share Continuing Dividend. All B Shares which are redeemed will immediately and automatically be cancelled.

1.6 Capital – return of capital on winding-up

On a return of capital on winding-up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to Shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of B Shares will be entitled, before any payment to the holders of the Ordinary Shares, Deferred Shares, Class A Shares or Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after payment to the holders of Redeemable Preference Shares of the nominal amount of such shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares, to repayment of the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share held by them respectively together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend which would have been payable if the winding-up had taken effect on 14 April 2009. The relevant proportion shall be the number of days from and including 11 August 2008 to, but excluding, the date of such winding-up divided by 246. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares on a winding-up in respect of all B Shares held by such holder shall be rounded down to the nearest whole penny.

The holders of B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of United Utilities Group. If on a winding-up the amount available for payment is insufficient to cover in full the amounts payable on the B Shares, the holders of such shares will share on a pro rata basis in the distribution of assets (if any) in proportion to the amounts to which they would otherwise be entitled.

1.7 Attendance and voting at general meetings

The holders of B Shares will only receive notice of general meetings of United Utilities Group and will only be able to attend, speak and vote at such general meetings if a resolution is to be proposed at the general meeting for the winding-up (excluding any intra-group reorganisation on a solvent basis) of United Utilities Group, in which case the holders of B Shares will receive notice of the general meeting and will have the right to attend, speak and vote on that resolution only.

If the holders of the B Shares are entitled to vote at a general meeting of United Utilities Group, on a show of hands every holder who is present in person at the general meeting shall have one vote and every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a holder shall have one vote. On a poll every holder of B Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each fully paid B Share of which he is the holder.

1.8 Class rights

United Utilities Group may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the B Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the B Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose.

A reduction by United Utilities Group of the capital paid up on the B Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and United Utilities Group shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the Companies Acts) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the B Shares including by paying to the holders of the B Shares the preferential amounts to which they are entitled as set out in section 1.6 above.

1.9 Form, transferability and listing

No share certificates or other documents of title shall be issued in relation to the B Shares in respect of which the B Share Dividend is paid or which are redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date.

The holders of B Shares cannot renounce their B Shares. Any transfer of B Shares must be effected in writing and either in the usual or standard form or in any other form approved by the Directors. Every transfer of uncertificated B Shares must be carried out using a relevant system (e.g. CREST).

No application has been, or will be, made to the UK Listing Authority for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to the London Stock Exchange or for the B Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

2. Rights and restrictions of the Deferred Shares

The following summarises the rights of the Deferred Shares and the restrictions to which they are subject, which are reflected in the United Utilities Group Articles.

2.1 Income

The Deferred Shares shall confer no right to participate in the profits of United Utilities Group.

2.2 Capital

On a return of capital on a winding-up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to Shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of Deferred Shares will be entitled to the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Deferred Share before any payment to the holders of the Class A Shares and the Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after:

- (A) first, paying to the holders of Redeemable Preference Shares the nominal amount of such Redeemable Preference Shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares;
- (B) secondly, paying to the holders of B Shares 170 pence per B Share held by them together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend calculated as described in section 1.6 above; and

- (C) thirdly, paying to the holders of Ordinary Shares the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Ordinary Share together with the sum of £100,000 on each Ordinary Share.

The holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of United Utilities Group.

2.3 Redemption

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and to the provisions of the United Utilities Group Articles, United Utilities Group may at its discretion, at any time after 31 August 2008, without prior notice, redeem some or all of the Deferred Shares then in issue, in each case for a total aggregate price not exceeding one penny for all such Deferred Shares redeemed. This payment may be made, if the Board so determines, to charity. All Deferred Shares shall, upon redemption, immediately and automatically be cancelled.

2.4 Attendance and voting at general meetings

The holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of any general meeting of United Utilities Group or to attend, speak or vote at any such meeting.

2.5 Form and transferability

The Deferred Shares will not be listed on any stock exchange nor shall any share certificates be issued in respect of such shares. The Deferred Shares shall not be transferable except with the written consent of the Board.

2.6 Class rights

United Utilities Group may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the Deferred Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the Deferred Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose or require the consent of holders of Deferred Shares.

A reduction by United Utilities Group of the capital paid up on the Deferred Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and United Utilities Group shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the Companies Acts) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the Deferred Shares.

PART IX

INFORMATION ON REGULATED WATER INDUSTRY

1. Economic regulation of water and wastewater

In England and Wales almost all water and sewerage services are supplied by ten Water and Sewerage Companies ("WaSCs") and twelve Water Only Companies ("WOCs").

Appointments ("licences") were originally granted to each of the WaSCs and WOCs by the Secretary of State for the Environment or for Wales in 1989. United Utilities Water holds WaSC licences for areas of North West England which comprise approximately 3.2 million homes and businesses.

The statutory basis for the regulation of the activities of licensees is now the Water Industry Act 1991, as amended in particular by the Water Act 2003. The fundamental statutory duty of a licensee in respect of its water business is to maintain an efficient and economical system of water supply within its supply area. Similarly, WaSCs are subject to an overriding duty to provide, improve and extend a system of public sewers so as to ensure that its supply area is effectively drained and to make provision for emptying those sewers.

Regulation pursuant to these licences is currently the responsibility of the Water Services Regulation Authority ("Ofwat"). The Independent Consumer Council for Water (the "Council") represents the interests of the customers of appointed water and sewerage undertakers. The Council operates through four regional committees for England and one for Wales. The Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 enables dissolution of the Council and envisages transfer of its functions to the National Consumer Council, but there is no indication of when this change (which would be initiated by the Secretary of State for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform and require the consent of the Welsh Ministers) might occur. If made, it would not have a significant impact upon United Utilities Water.

2. Ofwat

Ofwat is controlled by a board which consists of the chairman, a chief executive, plus a further executive director and five non-executive directors.

Appointments to Ofwat are made by the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs. Appointees to Ofwat are appointed for a fixed term and may only be removed from their post for incapacity or misbehaviour.

Ofwat must comply with its statutory duties as set out in the Water Industry Act 1991. It may receive guidance from the UK government in relation to its contribution to social and environmental policies, and is obliged to have regard to any such guidance in exercising its statutory functions. It also receives views from the government on matters such as the approach to price controls. However, Ofwat is not subject to direction about what its judgements should be and is independent of government ministers. Ofwat must exercise its powers and duties in the manner that it considers is best calculated to:

- protect the interests of consumers wherever appropriate by promoting effective competition between persons engaged in, or in commercial activities connected with, the provision of water and sewerage services;
- secure that the functions of water and sewerage undertakers are properly carried out in respect of every area of England and Wales;
- secure that relevant undertakers are able (in particular, by securing reasonable returns on their capital) to finance the proper carrying out of their functions; and
- secure that the activities authorised by the licence of a licensed water supplier and any statutory functions imposed on it in consequence of the licence, are properly carried out.

Ofwat also has secondary duties which include an obligation to contribute to the achievement of sustainable development. It also has duties in exercising its powers to have regard to the effect on the environment, and to the desirability of preserving any rights of recreational access.

Ofwat also exercises powers under UK competition legislation, most significantly the Competition Act 1998 and the Enterprise Act 2002.

3. Licence provisions

United Utilities Water's licences are subject to a range of conditions including (amongst other things):

- provisions relating to the operation of price control (see below);
- a prohibition on undue discrimination or undue preference in setting charges for water supply or sewerage services;
- restrictions on the payment of dividends. Dividends can only be declared or paid in accordance with a dividend policy that, in the written opinion of Ofwat, will not impair the ability of the regulated business to finance its functions;
- provisions to ensure that the financial affairs of the regulated business can be separately assessed and reported on;
- obligations on the licensee to ensure that it has at its disposal sufficient financial and managerial resources to carry out the regulated activities;
- restrictions on the disposal of land;
- provisions on the payment of fees and the supply of information to Ofwat;
- a provision allowing a licence to be terminated on 25 years' notice;
- provisions relating to WSL competition including those requiring compliance with Access Code and Customer Transfer Protocol; and
- restrictions on dealings with associated companies. The consent of Ofwat is required before transferring any right or asset, guaranteeing any liability, or lending any funds to an associated company and all transactions with associated companies must be on an arm's length basis without cross subsidy.

In relation to the last of these licence obligations, in December 2006 United Utilities Water gave an undertaking to Ofwat to change its arrangements for trading with associated companies to ensure that these were on an arm's length basis and in line with the terms of the licences, by 30 April 2007. Ofwat has confirmed that United Utilities Water has complied with this undertaking. Ofwat also imposed a penalty on United Utilities Water for breach of this obligation of £8.5 million (0.7 per cent. of United Utilities Water's turnover for its regulated activities for the year ended 31 March 2006).

Licence conditions can be modified by Ofwat, either with the licensee's agreement or following reference to the Competition Commission for a decision on public interest grounds. Licence modifications can also result, in certain circumstances, from a merger or market investigation reference to the Competition Commission.

In September 2006 Ofwat announced that it proposes a modification to WOC and WaSC licences in order to introduce cash lock-up provisions similar to those already applied to energy companies. These provisions prohibit, subject to certain limited exceptions, and without the regulator's prior consent, the transfer of cash or other assets to an associated company in certain circumstances where the company's investment grade credit rating is threatened. However, Ofwat does not see any grounds for urgent change and has therefore said that it will only seek to introduce cash lock-up provisions into water company licences as and when suitable opportunities arise. To date this amendment has not been introduced into the United Utilities Water licences but United Utilities Water expects these modifications to be made shortly.

4. Price control

Ofwat regulates water and wastewater charges by capping the average increase in charges that a company can impose in any year. Ofwat conducts a periodic review and sets price caps every five years. Following a consultation process in 2006 Ofwat has announced that it intends to maintain this five-year review of price controls but that it will also seek to place price limits within a longer-term framework. In particular, as part of the preparation for the next price review in 2009, licensees were required to submit to Ofwat by 14 December 2007 a strategic direction statement setting out the licensee's plans and vision over the longer term (at least 25 years ahead). Companies will also be required to include a 25 year forward look as part of their draft and final business plans.

This price cap is set by reference to inflation as measured by the retail price index in the UK plus an adjustment factor known as 'K', which is specific to each company and which can vary for each year of the review period. The size of a company's K factor (which can be positive, negative or zero) reflects the scale of its capital investment programme, its operating cost, its cost of capital and its operational and environmental obligations, taking into account the scope for it to improve efficiency.

The last periodic review was completed in December 2004 and covers the period from 1 April 2005 to 31 March 2010. In the last review, Ofwat set the following K factors for United Utilities Water, being the amount by which prices are allowed to rise above inflation in each of the five financial years commencing on 1 April 2005:

2005/06	5.0 per cent.
2006/07	6.4 per cent.
2007/08	4.4 per cent.
2008/09	3.5 per cent.
2009/10	3.0 per cent.

This equates to a real (i.e. excluding inflation) average annual price increase over the five-year period of 4.5 per cent.

'Price cap' regulation as operated in the United Kingdom is performance based. Companies are incentivised to be efficient, both in terms of their operating costs and in the implementation of their capital expenditure programme. The benefit of any efficiency savings achieved through effective management is retained by the companies for a period of five years, after which time the benefit is passed to customers via the subsequent price setting process. In the current price review period, the cost of any under-performance due to poor management is borne by the companies. For the 2009 periodic review, Ofwat has proposed a new Capex Incentive Scheme under which companies bear the cost of under-performance for five years, giving symmetry with treatment of efficiency savings. Companies are also incentivised to provide a high quality of customer service through the annual overall performance assessment ("OPA") and the guaranteed standards scheme. OPA scores in the period 2004-2008 will be taken into account at the next price review, and licensees can be penalised if they provide a poor quality of service by means of adjustments to the K factor at the subsequent price review. A company that fails to meet the requirements of the guaranteed standards scheme must make a specified payment to the customers affected.

Unexpected capital costs or savings arising from changes in certain regulatory assumptions during a review period are recorded and agreed by United Utilities and Ofwat. This process, known as 'logging up and down', allows prices to be adjusted up or down at the next periodic review to compensate companies or customers respectively for the unexpected change. In addition, where for certain defined categories of change, changes in capital and operating costs or revenues exceed a specified materiality threshold, United Utilities can request, and Ofwat can instigate, a re-setting of its price limit during the five-year period, known as an Interim Determination of K or 'IDoK'.

All water and sewerage companies' licences also include a 'shipwreck' or substantial effect clause, which allows companies' price limits to be revised when events beyond their control have a significant effect on their costs or revenues.

5. Enforcement and special administration

In practice, many regulatory issues arising between licensees and Ofwat are settled without the need to resort to formal proceedings. However, where Ofwat is satisfied that a licensee is in breach of the conditions of its licence or its statutory obligations, it has powers to secure compliance by means of an enforcement order, and to impose financial penalties.

The imposition of financial penalties for breach of licence conditions and other regulatory duties was introduced by the Water Act 2003 to bring Ofwat's powers into line with those of other regulators. Companies may face a penalty of up to ten per cent. of relevant regulated turnover for breaching licence conditions, prescribed standards of performance or other statutory obligations. Ofwat has published a statement of the policy that it intends to apply to the imposition of any penalty and the determination of its amount. Such penalties can be appealed to the High Court should Ofwat have failed to follow the procedure for imposing such penalties set out in the Water Act 2003.

Failure to comply with an enforcement order can lead to court action by Ofwat for an injunction and claims for compensation by any person who suffers loss or damage as a result of the breach. Alternatively, where actual or likely contravention of an enforcement order (or of one of a licensee's principal statutory duties under the Act) is so serious as to make it inappropriate for the licensee to continue to hold its licence, the Secretary of State or, with his consent, Ofwat may apply to the High Court for the appointment of a special administrator to run the company. A special administrator may also be appointed where the licensee is, or is likely to be, unable to pay its debts.

A special administrator has powers similar to those of an administrator under the Insolvency Act 1986, but with certain important differences. He is appointed only for the purposes of transferring to one or more different companies, as a going concern, so much of the business of the licensee as is necessary to transfer in order to ensure the proper carrying out of its water supply or sewerage functions as the case may be and, pending the transfer, of carrying out those functions.

On any application for the winding up of a licensee the court is obliged (if it is otherwise satisfied that it would be appropriate to make the order) to make a special administration order instead. A licensee also cannot be wound up voluntarily, or have an administration order made in relation to it, unless fourteen days notice is given to the Secretary of State or Ofwat (which gives them time to decide whether to apply for a special administration order). Notice must also be given before any step is taken by any person to enforce security over the licensee's property.

6. Competition in the water industry

There are two main forms of competition: inset appointments and water supply licensing

Inset appointments

An inset appointment is made when an existing undertaker is replaced by another as the supplier of water and/or sewerage services for one or more customers within its licensed area.

An inset appointment could be made in relation to a site within United Utilities Water's licensed area:

- with the consent of United Utilities Water;
- where the application relates to an area where none of the premises is served by United Utilities Water;
- with the consent of the customer, where the premises to which the application relates are, or are likely to be, supplied with at least 50 megalitres of water over a 12 month period (reduced from 100 megalitres per year from 1 April 2005 in line with the new Water Licensing Supply ("WSL") regime); or
- where United Utilities Water has been given 25 years' notice of the variation to the scope of its appointment.

To date there have been no inset appointments granted within United Utilities Water's area.

Water supply licensing

The Water Act 2003 has extended opportunities for competition in the water industry in England and Wales by introducing a new WSL regime. From 1 December 2005, water supply licensees have been able to provide both retail supply (i.e. the supply by a licensee of water purchased from a water undertaker's supply system to an eligible customer) and combined supply (i.e. the introduction of water into an incumbent water company's existing network for retail by the licensee to an eligible customer) to non-household users with an annual consumption of not less than 50 megalitres. A water undertaker is obliged to allow a licensed water supplier to use its network for this purpose, subject to payment of charges and certain conditions and rights of refusal.

At the date of this Prospectus, seven such licences have been granted, including one granted to a subsidiary of United Utilities, United Utilities Water Sales Limited. Ofwat has developed a Customer Transfer Protocol which water licensees are obliged to comply with, and which is designed to facilitate the transfer of customers to a new licensee. In addition, water companies must draw up an access code which governs the basis on which water supply licensees may make use of an undertaker's network, and which they are obliged to review annually.

Ofwat has consistently expressed concern about the slow development of competition in WSL. Following a consultation process, it published in December 2007 proposals for a number of changes to the system. It published a further consultation paper on this subject in May 2008. It is intended that this will contribute to the Government's review of competition and innovation in water markets, led by Professor Martin Cave which is due to report by Spring 2009. Whilst some of its recommendations could be pursued under current powers, Ofwat has also advocated legislative change to the regime. In particular it has recommended replacing the 'costs principle' set out in the legislation (which prescribes how fees for network access are calculated) with more flexible criteria that would allow different pricing methodologies to be developed to take account of the different types of access arrangements that exist. It has also recommended a reduction in the 50 megalitres eligibility threshold (which it considers to be set at too high a level), initially to 5 megalitres, to then be followed by a reduction to zero within two years. It has also advocated the removal of statutory restrictions on choice of supplier for private households, the development of retail competition for sewerage services and the introduction of separate price controls for contestable activities and natural monopoly activities. It proposes to work with the Environment Agency on a project to develop a system for the trading of abstraction rights.

7. Environmental regulation of water and wastewater

The water and wastewater industry in the United Kingdom is subject to substantial domestic and European Union regulation, placing significant statutory obligations on United Utilities Water with regard to, amongst other factors, the quality of treated water supplied and of wastewater treatment. European directives including the Drinking Water Directive, the Bathing Water Directive and the Urban Wastewater Treatment Directive are transposed into UK law by primary and secondary legislation.

All water and wastewater companies have a general duty to exercise their powers to conserve and enhance natural beauty and to promote efficient use of water. Environmental regulation is the responsibility of the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs together with:

- the Environment Agency, which is responsible for conserving and redistributing water resources and securing their proper use, including the licensing of water abstraction. The Environment Agency also regulates discharges to controlled waters, including discharges from wastewater treatment works;
- the Drinking Water Inspectorate, which enforces drinking water quality standards; and
- Natural England, which is responsible for the protection of designated sites for nature conservation, e.g. Sites of Special Scientific Interest. There is a statutory requirement to manage these sites to conserve or improve biodiversity. United Utilities Water participates in Sustainable Catchment Management Programmes ("SCAMPs") agreed with Ofwat and implemented in close liaison with Natural England. These are expected to enable sites of special scientific interest owned by United Utilities Water within the designated areas to meet Government's Public Service Agreement targets. Expenditure under this head is approximately £10 million in 2005-2010 and projected at £15 million in 2010-2015.

8. Water Pollution

The Water Resources Act 1991 prohibits causing or knowingly permitting the discharge or other entry of poisonous, noxious or polluting matters to "controlled waters" (as defined in that Act). The Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975 also creates offences where anyone causes or knowingly permits pollution of water which harms fish. While stringent effort is continually made by United Utilities Water to avoid pollution, some incidents do occur. The most frequent of these involve discharges from the sewer network, or from wastewater treatment works in breach of conditions of consents issued by the Environment Agency. Where the Agency considers United Utilities Water liable for pollution, prosecutions are brought or formal Cautions issued.

9. Regulatory and legislative developments

The Water Act 2003 (the "Act") has made significant changes to the regulatory framework for undertakers and introduced scope for further change. These changes include the following:

- amendments to the Water Resources Act 1991 make new water abstraction licences time-limited and unused licences more easily revocable or variable without compensation and has created a new statutory right of civil action where water abstraction causes loss or damage. There is a presumption that time-limited licences will be renewed subject to three tests being met. These tests, in outline, are that: water resources in the area are sustainable and the abstraction will not create unacceptable environmental effects; the holder has a continuing requirement to abstract; and the abstracted water is used efficiently;
- water undertakers must promote water conservation and must publish drought plans and water resource plans. The government may also require publication of flood plans showing the effect of a reservoir dam failure; and
- provision for adoption schemes under which the ownership of certain private sewers and lateral drains may be transferred to undertakers (including United Utilities Water). The scope, timing and method of such a transfer have yet to be finalised;

Other new and ongoing legal requirements include:

- the Water Framework Directive, transposed into UK law by various regulations in 2003, which requires the UK government to:
 - establish comprehensive river basin management plans from 2009, revised on a six-year cycle;
 - implement the first set of river basin management plans by December 2015;
 - prevent deterioration in the ecological status of water bodies; and
 - achieve 'good' water status by 2027;

the Directive is likely to require further improvements in discharges from wastewater networks and treatment works;

- the case of United Utilities Water v Environment Agency [2007] UKHL 41, has confirmed that United Utilities Water will require permits meeting the EU Integrated Pollution Prevention and Control (IPPC) Directive for some operations at sewerage treatment works. These will require higher assets standards including secondary containment and associated reconstruction, with higher levels of monitoring until this is completed. A capital program, prioritised by risk, is intended to cover this work. Revision of the IPPC and Groundwater Directives may impose more onerous requirements;

- continued implementation of the European Union Urban Wastewater Treatment Directive, transposed into UK legislation by the Urban Wastewater Treatment Regulations 1994, which requires improvements in the treatment of wastewater discharges, in particular, the provision of secondary treatment. United Utilities Water continues to make progress towards achieving this for wastewater treatment works serving areas with a population of more than 2,000;
- the Environmental Liability Directive (2004/35/EC), which aims to establish a framework for the prevention and remediation of environmental damage in accordance with the principle that the polluter pays. Strict liability is to apply in respect of damage to land, water and biodiversity from activities regulated by specified European Union legislation. DEFRA intends to bring relevant Regulations into force by December 2008. This legislation may increase United Utilities Water's costs by ensuring that the burden of funding the prevention and remediation of pollution and environmental damage is borne by the undertaker and not the taxpayer; and
- in February 2008, the Government published Future Water, a wide-ranging strategy document setting out in detail what the Government aims to achieve with respect to the water industry by 2035. Future Water has a number of broad objectives including a reduction in water consumption and the sustainable delivery of water supplies. The document contains recommendations and consultations which could be of direct relevance to United Utilities Water including: a review of the abstraction licensing and water resources plan regimes; encouragement of alternative and sustainable methods for drainage of surface water; and alterations to the regulatory framework to encourage greater innovation and competition in the water industry. New and changed legislation arising from Future Water, may have an impact on how the water industry as a whole operates in the future.

10. Drinking water quality

Water undertakers must supply water that is wholesome at the time of supply, i.e. when the water passes from the undertaker's pipe into the consumer's pipe.

"Wholesomeness" is defined by reference to standards and other requirements set out in the Water Supply (Water Quality) Regulations 2000 (98/83/EC) as amended in 2007 (the "Water Quality Regulations"), which transpose the EU Drinking Water Directive. Undertakers must monitor and report on their sources of "raw water" (groundwater and surface water), and on the quality of their supplies. They must disinfect water supplies adequately. The Regulations codify best practice and apply a regulatory framework for water quality risk assessment to the whole chain of water supply from source to end consumer. The Regulations provide in detail for monitoring, sampling, treatment, investigation and reporting of failures, and control of application and introduction of substances and products.

An undertaker may be prosecuted for supplying water that is unfit for human consumption and the maximum penalty is an unlimited fine.

More stringent lead standards from 25 December 2013 introduced by the Water Quality Regulations will require improvements to treatment works and distribution systems. United Utilities Water has a programme of installing additional phosphate dosing and pH control assets, and replacing lead communication pipes.

As part of the AMP4 Consumer Acceptability programme, United Utilities Water must, over a ten year period from 2006, clean and refurbish up to 602 kilometres of large diameter trunk mains, to deal with iron and manganese deposition and corrosion, and report on progress.

11. Infringement proceedings

Infringement proceedings, begun in 2006, by the European Commission against the United Kingdom regarding the implementation of the Urban Wastewater Directive, continue. The European Commission believes that the United Kingdom has not taken all measures needed to reduce the nutrients in wastewater to remedy problems in sensitive areas. Depending upon the outcome of this legal action, some of the Irish Sea could be designated as a sensitive area. This, in turn, could lead to requirements being placed upon United Utilities Water to reduce some nutrient levels in discharges from many of its wastewater treatment facilities which feed into the Irish Sea.

12. Bathing waters

A revised European Union Bathing Water Directive (2006/7/EC) came into force on 24 March 2006. The purpose of this is to establish new bathing water quality standards and to improve the management of bathing waters. Although the UK had a period of two years from 24 March 2006 to transpose the Directive into UK law, the timetable for its implementation has been extended and no transposing legislation is currently in force. United Utilities Water's programme of wastewater network and treatment projects relating to its operational facilities continues to improve the quality of bathing waters in North West England in order to meet the required standards.

13. Sewerage sludge on agricultural land

The operational waste produced by undertakers, includes sewerage sludge-like organic matter and dead bacteria left after the sewerage treatment process. Recycling treated sludge to agricultural land as a fertilizer and soil conditioner is the major outlet for this material and is a highly regulated activity. Current controls are based on the European Union "Directive on the Protection of the Environment, and, in particular, of the Soil, when Sewerage Sludge is used in Agriculture" (86/278/EEC) (the "Sludge Directive"), implemented in the UK by the Sludge (Use in Agriculture) Regulations 1989 (the "Sludge Regulations"). Discussion at a European Union level of a new Waste Framework Directive continues, although it seems likely that the use of sewerage sludge on agricultural land, which is increasingly the favoured method of sludge recycling, will be explicitly excluded from any new regulatory framework on waste disposal. However, it is expected that a revision or superceding of the Sludge Directive itself will be brought into force in the future, which may lead to further restrictions on the use of sewerage sludge in agriculture.

In the United Kingdom, sludge treatment and recycling operations are faced with issues such as odour, poor quality product, the reduction of the available land bank due to the extension of nitrate vulnerable zones, saturated soils and the extension of blanket exclusion clauses for using biosolids on agricultural land for milling wheat, oilseed rape and feed wheat.

Consequently, United Utilities Water is expanding its Shell Green sludge processing centre near Widnes in order to reduce its exposure to sludge disposal on agricultural land and ensure sufficient incineration capacity. United Utilities Water is also investing to improve its digestion facilities to be able to make better use of biogas and to improve the quality of the product for recycling.

14. Odour

Complaints of odour from wastewater treatment works may be actionable as statutory nuisance under the Environmental Protection Act 1990. The current capital programme includes some measures to deal with this issue. United Utilities Water complies with the voluntary 'Code of Practice on Odour Nuisance from Sewerage Treatment Works' published by the Secretary of State on 12 April 2006.

15. Stormwater overflows

Many undertakers (including United Utilities Water) utilise combined sewer systems that convey both foul and surface water in the same pipe. In order to reduce flooding risk, combined sewerage systems incorporate combined system overflows ("CSOs"), which divert excess water flow during storms into nearby surface watercourses. These discharges of water during a storm, containing both foul sewerage and water, contain large amounts of pollutants and are known as unsatisfactory intermittent discharges ("UIDs"). The Urban Wastewater Treatment Directive requires member states to act to limit pollution from CSOs and improve UIDs and the Environment Agency is now responsible for granting discharge consents to operate CSOs which contain certain conditions aimed at making such improvements.

In October 2007, the Group submitted a funding submission, or Change Protocol, to Ofwat relating to discharges into inland waters. This submission followed a planning inquiry which dealt with a small number of such UIDs but which was intended to establish precedent for a larger number of similar discharges that were under discussion. A further planning inquiry dealing with discharges to coastal bathing waters was heard in December 2007. United Utilities will be making further Change Protocol submissions to Ofwat dealing with those UIDs affected by that planning inquiry as well as other UIDs.

16. Contaminated land

Part IIA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 provides a regime for the inspection, identification and remediation of contaminated land. "Contaminated land" is land which appears to the local authority to be in such a condition as to cause or risk significant harm or water pollution. Liability is allocated, in the first instance, to those who caused or knowingly permitted the contamination – the original polluter – and, as a fall-back, if the original polluter cannot be traced, to subsequent owners and occupiers, with the taxpayer being the payer of last resort.

None of the land owned or occupied by the Group is currently designated as contaminated land but it owns or occupies, or is required to work within, sites that have potentially been adversely affected by virtue of prior use. A site owned or occupied by the Group may therefore in future be designated as contaminated land or the Group may be required to work within a site that is already, or becomes, designated as contaminated land.

PART X

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Responsibility

The Directors of United Utilities Group, whose names appear on page 22 of this document, and United Utilities Group accept responsibility for the information contained in this document. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors and United Utilities Group (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this document is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

2. Incorporation and activity of United Utilities Group

United Utilities Group was incorporated and registered in England and Wales on 8 April 2008 under the Companies Act 1985 as a private company limited by shares with registered number 06559020 and with the name United Utilities Newco Limited. It was re-registered as a public limited company and changed its name to United Utilities Group PLC on 28 April 2008.

United Utilities Group is domiciled in the United Kingdom and its registered and head office is at Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP. United Utilities Group's telephone number is +44 (0)1925 237000.

The principal legislation under which United Utilities Group operates, and pursuant to which the share capital of United Utilities Group has been created, is the Companies Acts and regulations made thereunder.

3. Share capital of United Utilities Group

On incorporation, the authorised share capital of United Utilities Group was £50,002 divided into 50,002 ordinary shares of £1 each. Of such shares, one was taken by the subscriber to the memorandum of association of United Utilities Group, Trusec Limited, and was paid up in full by the subscriber. This subscriber share was transferred to the Company Secretary on 17 April 2008.

On 17 April 2008, a further ordinary share was allotted to Simon Gardiner and was paid up in full in cash.

On 23 April 2008, resolutions were passed by the shareholders of United Utilities Group to the effect that:

- (A) the 50,000 authorised but unissued ordinary shares of £1 each were reclassified as Redeemable Preference Shares of £1 each;
- (B) amended United Utilities Group Articles including the rights associated with the Redeemable Preference Shares and other changes relating to the re-registration of United Utilities Group as a public limited company were adopted; and
- (C) each of the existing two issued ordinary shares of £1 each was reclassified into one Subscriber Ordinary Share of £1.

On 23 April 2008, the Company Secretary subscribed to 50,000 Redeemable Preference Shares.

On 30 May 2008, resolutions were passed by the shareholders of United Utilities Group to the effect that:

- (A) the authorised share capital of United Utilities Group was increased by the creation of:
 - (i) 1,000,000,000 Ordinary Shares of 500 pence each having the rights of ordinary shares as set out in the United Utilities Group Articles;
 - (ii) 900,000,000 B Shares of 170 pence each having the rights and being subject to the restrictions set out in the United Utilities Group Articles as summarised in Part VIII of this document; and

- (iii) 400,000,000,000 Class A Shares of one pence each having the rights and being subject to the restrictions as set out in the United Utilities Group Articles; and

- (B) amended United Utilities Group Articles including the rights associated with the B Shares, the Deferred Shares and the Class A Shares were adopted.

In the event that in connection with the Scheme the issue of Ordinary Shares with a nominal value of 500 pence each would or may (in the reasonable opinion of the Directors) result in the issue of shares at a discount, United Utilities Group will, prior to the Scheme becoming effective, take steps (in accordance with the provisions of the United Utilities Group Articles and the Companies Acts) to procure that the Ordinary Shares are issued with a lower nominal value which is, in the reasonable opinion of the Directors, appropriate to ensure that such Ordinary Shares are not issued at a discount to their nominal value.

As at the date of this document, Simon Gardiner, (an employee of United Utilities) and the Company Secretary, each hold one Subscriber Ordinary Share of £1 each. It is expected that following the Scheme becoming effective, these shares will be cancelled as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital.

The Company Secretary holds 50,000 Redeemable Preference Shares of £1 each. It is expected that, in due course, following the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital becoming effective, the Redeemable Preference Shares will be redeemed for an amount equal to the amount paid up on such Redeemable Preference Shares.

Accordingly, as at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, the authorised and issued share capital of United Utilities Group is, and immediately prior to implementation of the Scheme will be, as follows:

Class	Authorised number	Aggregate nominal value	Issued and fully paid up number	Issued and fully paid aggregate value
Ordinary Shares	1,000,000,000	£5,000,000,000	Nil	Nil
B Shares	900,000,000	£1,530,000,000	Nil	Nil
Class A Shares	400,000,000,000	£4,000,000,000	Nil	Nil
Redeemable Preference Shares	50,000	£50,000	50,000	£50,000
Subscriber Ordinary Shares	2	£2	2	£2

On 30 May 2008, resolutions were passed at a general meeting of United Utilities Group to the effect that:

- (A) subject to and conditional upon the Scheme becoming effective:
- (i) the share capital of United Utilities Group be reduced by:
 - (a) cancelling the paid up share capital to the extent of 495 pence on each Ordinary Share in issue as at the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital Record Time and reducing the nominal value of each such Ordinary Share from 500 pence to five pence;
 - (b) reducing the nominal value of each unissued Ordinary Share in the authorised share capital from 500 pence to five pence; and
 - (c) cancelling and extinguishing all of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares in issue as at the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital Record Time on terms that the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall each be paid in cash an amount equal to the nominal value of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares held by them;
 - (ii) the Directors be authorised pursuant to the United Utilities Group Articles to capitalise the full amount standing to the credit of the merger reserve established by United Utilities Group as a result of the Scheme becoming effective and that the Directors be unconditionally authorised and directed to apply the sum so capitalised in issuing to those Shareholders who are registered as holders of United Utilities Shares at the Scheme Record Time, in the same proportions in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them if it were distributed by way of dividend and applying such sum on their behalf in paying up in full Class A Shares and to allot such shares at par pro rata to holders of Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities may procure as nominee for such holders) credited as fully paid with fractional entitlements to Class A Shares to be aggregated into whole Class A Shares and dealt with as the Directors see fit; and

- (iii) the share capital of United Utilities Group be reduced by:
 - (a) cancelling all the Class A Shares in issue as at the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital Record Time without payment of any amount in respect thereof to the holders of such Class A Shares; and
 - (b) cancelling all unissued Class A Shares;
- (B) the Directors be generally and unconditionally authorised for the purposes of section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 to exercise all the powers of United Utilities Group to allot relevant securities (within the meaning of section 80(2) of the said Act):
 - (i) up to a maximum aggregate nominal amount of £10,530,000,000 as required for the purposes of the Scheme (including the B Shares to be issued under the Scheme and the issue of Class A Shares referred to in resolution (A)(ii) above); and
 - (ii) up to a maximum aggregate amount of £11,355,341 (representing approximately one third of the expected issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group immediately following the registration by the Registrar of Companies of the Court order confirming the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital), this authority to expire at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group to be held in 2009 or on 30 September 2009 (whichever is earlier) (unless previously revoked or varied by United Utilities Group in general meeting) save that United Utilities Group, pursuant to the authority granted by this resolution, may before this authority has expired make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted wholly or partly after such expiry and the Directors may allot relevant securities in pursuance to any such offer or agreement as if the authority conferred hereby had not expired;
- (C) the Directors be empowered pursuant to section 95 of the Companies Act 1985 to allot equity securities (within the meaning of section 94 of the said Act) for cash pursuant to the authority conferred by resolution (B) above and/or where such allotment constitutes an allotment of equity securities by virtue of section 94(3A) of the said Act as if section 89(1) of the said Act did not apply to any such allotment, provided that this power shall be limited:
 - (i) to the allotment of equity securities in connection with a rights issue, open offer or any other pre-emptive offer in favour of holders of Ordinary Shares or other equity securities in the capital of United Utilities Group (excluding any holder holding shares as treasury shares) where the equity securities respectively attributable to the interests of all such persons are proportionate (as nearly as may be practicable) to the respective numbers of equity securities held by them or are otherwise allotted in accordance with the rights attaching to such equity securities (but subject in either case to such exclusions or other arrangements as the Directors may deem necessary or expedient in relation to fractional entitlements or any legal or practical problems under the laws of any overseas territory or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange or any other matter whatsoever); and
 - (ii) to the allotment (otherwise than pursuant to sub-paragraph (i) above) of equity securities up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,703,301 (representing approximately five per cent. of the expected issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group immediately following the registration by the Registrar of Companies of the Court order confirming the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital), and this authority shall expire at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group to be held in 2009 or on 30 September 2009 (whichever is earlier), save that United Utilities Group may, before the expiry of the power hereby conferred, make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be allotted after such expiry and the Directors may allot equity securities in pursuance of such an offer or agreement as if the power conferred hereby had not expired;

- (D) United Utilities Group be generally and unconditionally authorised for the purposes of section 166 of the Companies Act 1985 to make one or more market purchases (within the meaning of section 163(3) of the Companies Act 1985) of Ordinary Shares, provided that:
- (i) the maximum number of Ordinary Shares hereby authorised to be purchased is 68,132,046 (representing approximately ten per cent. of the expected issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group immediately following the registration by the Registrar of Companies of the Order of the Court confirming the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital);
 - (ii) the minimum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each Ordinary Share is an amount equal to the nominal value of each such Ordinary Share;
 - (iii) the maximum price which may be paid for any such Ordinary Share is an amount (exclusive of expenses) being not more than 105 per cent. of the average of the upper and lower prices shown in the quotations for the Ordinary Shares as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the five business days preceding the day on which the Ordinary Share is contracted to be purchased;
 - (iv) unless previously revoked or varied, the authority shall expire at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group to be held in 2009 or on 30 September 2009 (whichever is earlier);
 - (v) under this authority, United Utilities Group may, before the expiry of this authority, enter into a contract to purchase Ordinary Shares which would or might be executed wholly or partly after the expiry of this authority, and may make purchases of Ordinary Shares pursuant to it as if this authority had not expired; and
 - (vi) all Ordinary Shares purchased pursuant to the said authority shall be either:
 - (a) cancelled immediately upon completion of the purchase; or
 - (b) held, sold, transferred or otherwise dealt with as treasury shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Acts;
- (E) United Utilities Group be generally and unconditionally authorised to use electronic communications with its shareholders and in particular to serve any notice or send or supply other documents or information to its shareholders (or where applicable a nominee) by making them available on a website or by using other electronic means;
- (F) United Utilities Group and all companies that are its subsidiaries at any time during which this resolution is effective be generally and unconditionally authorised for the purposes of Part 14 of the Companies Act 2006 in aggregate to (a) make political donations to political parties and/or independent election candidates not exceeding £50,000 in total, (b) make political donations to political organisations other than political parties not exceeding £50,000 in total and (c) incur political expenditure not exceeding £50,000 in total, during the period beginning with the passing of this resolution and expiring at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group to be held in 2009. For the purposes of this resolution the terms "political donation", "political parties", "independent election candidates", "political organisation" and "political expenditure" have the meanings given by sections 363 to 365 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (G) subject to the approval of Shareholders to be sought at the General Meeting, with effect from the Scheme Effective Date, the establishment of the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme and the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan, the principal features of each of which are summarised in section 9.4 of this Part X, be approved and the Directors be authorised to do all such acts and things as may be necessary to establish and carry the same into effect and the Directors be authorised to vote and be counted in quorum on any matter connected with those schemes (except that no Director may vote or be counted in quorum in respect of his own participation) and any prohibition on voting contained in the United Utilities Group Articles be relaxed;

- (H) subject to the approval of Shareholders to be sought at the General Meeting, with effect from the Scheme Effective Date, the establishment of the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan, the principal features of each of which are summarised in section 9.4 of this Part X be approved and the Directors be authorised to do all such acts and things as may be necessary to establish and carry the same into effect and the Directors be authorised to vote and be counted in the quorum on any matter connected with those schemes (except that no Director may vote or be counted in the quorum in respect of his own participation) and any prohibition on voting contained in the United Utilities Group Articles be relaxed; and
- (I) subject to the approval of Shareholders to be sought at the General Meeting, with effect from the Scheme Effective Date, the Directors be authorised to establish additional employee share schemes for overseas employees of the Group containing such provisions as the Directors may decide subject to the following:
 - (i) such schemes must operate within the equity dilution limits applicable to the share schemes referred to in (G) and (H) above (the "existing schemes");
 - (ii) such schemes must, except to the extent necessary or desirable to take account of overseas tax, securities or exchange control laws, contain limitations so as to ensure, so far as the Directors consider practicable, that the participants in such schemes obtain no greater benefit than employees participating in the existing schemes;
 - (iii) once established the provisions of such schemes may not be amended without the prior approval of the Company in general meeting if such approval would be required to amend the corresponding provisions in the existing schemes unless such approval to amend the corresponding provisions has already been obtained; and the Directors be authorised to vote and be counted in quorum on any matter connected with the schemes referred to in this resolution (except that no Director may vote or be counted in a quorum in respect of his own participation) and any prohibition on voting contained in the United Utilities Group Articles be relaxed.

Save as disclosed in this section 3, at the date of this Prospectus:

- (A) there has been no issue of shares or loan capital of United Utilities Group since its incorporation; and
- (B) no share or loan capital of United Utilities Group is under option or agreed to be put under option.

As at the date of this Prospectus, United Utilities Group has no subsidiaries and, accordingly, there has been no material issue of share or loan capital by any subsidiary undertaking of United Utilities Group for cash or other consideration.

As at the date of this Prospectus, United Utilities does not hold any United Utilities Shares in treasury.

The Directors of United Utilities Group have no present intention to make any allotments pursuant to the authority contemplated in the resolution described in paragraph (B) on page 95 other than pursuant to the issue of shares following the exercise of options or vesting of share awards granted under the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans.

The Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will, when issued, be in registered form and will be capable of being held in uncertificated form. No temporary documents of title have been or will be issued in respect of the Ordinary Shares or the B Shares.

Neither the Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares have been marketed and are not available in whole or in part to the public otherwise than pursuant to the Scheme.

No commissions, discounts, brokerages or other special terms have been granted in respect of the issue of any share capital of United Utilities Group.

The Redeemable Preference Shares and the Subscriber Ordinary Shares are in registered form but will not be listed or traded and carry limited rights to vote. The Class A Shares are in registered form but will not be listed or traded and no certificates will be issued to the holders of such Class A Shares.

Under the Scheme, United Utilities Group will issue Ordinary Shares and B Shares, credited as fully paid, to Shareholders on the basis of 17 Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares and one B Share for each United Utilities Share held, in each case, at the Scheme Record Time. The Class A Shares resulting from the capitalisation of the merger reserve of United Utilities Group created on the Scheme becoming effective shall be allotted pro rata to the Shareholders of United Utilities Group who are registered as holders of the Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) immediately following the registration as holders of Ordinary Shares of the persons required to be issued with Ordinary Shares by United Utilities Group pursuant to the Scheme and are to be cancelled pursuant to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. It is also intended to cancel the Subscriber Ordinary Shares pursuant to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. Accordingly, the proposed authorised issued and fully paid share capital of United Utilities Group as it will be immediately following the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital (on the basis that there has been no exercise of rights outstanding under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans between the date of this Prospectus and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital Record Time) is expected to be as follows:

Class	Authorised number	Aggregate nominal value	Issued and fully paid number	Aggregate nominal value
Ordinary Shares	1,000,000,000	£50,000,000	681,320,458	£34,066,022.90
B Shares	900,000,000	£1,530,000,000	881,708,828	£1,498,905,007.60
Redeemable Preference Shares	50,000	£50,000	50,000	£50,000

Application has been made to the UK Listing Authority for all the Ordinary Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for such Ordinary Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is intended that the Ordinary Shares will be equivalent to the United Utilities Shares in all material respects, including their dividend, voting and other rights. No applications will be made for the B Shares to be admitted to listing or trading on any exchange. The B Shares will carry entitlement to the B Share Continuing Dividend and will have limited voting rights.

The ISIN number of the Ordinary Shares is GB00B39J2M42. The ISIN number of the B Shares is GB00B39J4S44¹.

4. Summary of the memorandum of association and articles of association of United Utilities Group

4.1 Memorandum of association

United Utilities Group's principal objects and purposes are set out in full in clause 4 of its memorandum of association which is available for inspection at the address specified in section 19 of this Part X and include, amongst other things:

¹ The temporary ISIN for the B shares for the period from the Scheme Effective Date until the B Share Dividend is allocated and the Initial B Share Redemption is made is expected to be 11 August 2008 to allow CREST holders to make their elections electronically through CREST is GB00B39J5363.

- to carry on the business of a holding company;
- to carry on business as a general commercial company; and
- to carry on the business of the planning, provision, operation, development, maintenance, improvement and extension of utility services of every description, including those relating to water, wastewater, electricity, gas and telecommunications systems.

4.2 Articles of Association

There are some differences between the United Utilities Articles and the United Utilities Group Articles as the United Utilities Group Articles have been updated to reflect the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 which came into force and those which will come into force on or before 6 April 2008 and 1 October 2008 respectively and to reflect current practice in relation to the articles of association of a listed company. The United Utilities Group Articles also contain provisions dealing with the rights and restrictions attaching to the B Shares, the Deferred Shares, the Subscriber Ordinary Shares, the Class A Shares and the Redeemable Preference Shares.

The United Utilities Group Articles (in this section 4, the "articles") were adopted on 23 April 2008 and amended on 30 May 2008 and contain, amongst other things, provisions to the following effect:

(A) Share capital

The authorised share capital of United Utilities Group as at the date of this document is £10,530,050,002 divided into 1,000,000,000 Ordinary Shares of 500 pence each, 900,000,000 B Shares of 170 pence each, 400,000,000,000 Class A Shares of one pence each, and 50,000 Redeemable Preference Shares of 100 pence each and two Subscriber Ordinary Shares of 100 pence each.

(B) Share rights

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any shares may be allotted or issued with or have attached to them such preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, transfer, return of capital or otherwise, as United Utilities Group may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the Board may determine.

The rights attaching to the B Shares and the Deferred Shares are summarised in Part VIII of this document. The rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares, the Redeemable Preference Shares, the Subscriber Ordinary Shares and the Class A Shares are set out below.

(i) Votes of members

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, to any special terms as to voting on which any shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to the articles, at any general meeting every member who is present in person or by proxy or by a duly authorised corporate representative shall on a show of hands have one vote and every member who is present in person or by proxy or by a duly authorised corporate representative shall on a poll have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

United Utilities Group shall not be entitled to exercise any voting rights, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares.

If two or more persons are joint holders of a share, then in voting on any question the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy or by corporate representative, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.

(ii) Dividends and other payments

Declaration of dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and of the articles, United Utilities Group may by ordinary resolution declare dividends to be paid to members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits of United Utilities Group. However, no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board and no dividend shall be paid in respect of any shares held by United Utilities Group as treasury shares.

Interim dividends

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the Board may declare and pay such interim dividends (including any dividend payable at a fixed rate) as appear to the Board to be justified by the profits of United Utilities Group available for distribution. If at any time the share capital of United Utilities Group is divided into different classes, the Board may pay such interim dividends to the holders of shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrear. Provided that the Board acts in good faith, it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by the lawful payment of any interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights.

Entitlement to dividends

Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the shares on which the dividend is paid. Subject as aforesaid, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

Calls on debts may be deducted from dividends

The Board may deduct from any dividend or other money payable to any person on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to United Utilities Group on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of United Utilities Group.

Distribution in specie

The Board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution, direct that payment of any dividend declared may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular, the Board may:

- (a) issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions);
- (b) fix the value for distribution of such assets or any part thereof and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (c) vest any such assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

Dividends not to bear interest

Unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share, no dividend or other moneys payable by United Utilities Group or in respect of a share shall bear interest as against United Utilities Group.

Uncashed dividends

If cheques, warrants or orders for dividends or other sums payable in respect of a share sent by United Utilities Group to the person entitled thereto are returned or left uncashed on two consecutive occasions or, following one occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address to be used for the purpose, United Utilities Group shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of that share due to that person until he notifies United Utilities Group of an address to be used for the purpose.

Unclaimed dividends

All dividends, interest or other sum payable and unclaimed for twelve months after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of United Utilities Group until claimed and United Utilities Group shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for a period of twelve years after having been declared or become due for payment shall (if the Board so resolves) be forfeited and shall cease to remain owing by United Utilities Group.

Payment of share dividends

The Board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution of United Utilities Group and subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may determine, offer to any holders of ordinary shares (excluding any ordinary shares held as treasury shares) the right to elect to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the Board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution, subject to a number of provisions set out in the articles.

(iii) Rights of the Redeemable Preference Shares

The Redeemable Preference Shares carry a right to receive, out of the profits of United Utilities Group available for distribution and resolved to be distributed, a fixed non-cumulative preferential (that is, in priority to the other shares of United Utilities Group in issue from time to time) dividend of 0.0001 per cent. per annum on the capital paid up thereon. On a return of capital on a liquidation or otherwise, the assets of United Utilities Group available for distribution among the members will be applied first in repaying to the holders of the Redeemable Preference Shares the amounts paid up on such shares together with all accrued but unpaid dividends. Save as aforesaid, the Redeemable Preference Shares do not carry any other right to participate in profits or assets of United Utilities Group. The holders of Redeemable Preference Shares are not entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at any general meeting of United Utilities Group unless a resolution to wind-up United Utilities Group or to vary, modify or abrogate the rights attaching to the said shares is proposed. United Utilities Group may redeem the Redeemable Preference Shares at any time at the discretion of the Directors or at the request of the holders upon the earlier of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital becoming effective or 31 December 2008. Upon any such redemption, United Utilities Group shall pay to the holder the nominal amount paid up on such shares together with all accrued but unpaid dividends. The Redeemable Preference Shares may only be transferred with the consent of the Board.

(iv) Rights of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares

Prior to the coming into effect of the Scheme, the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall have the same rights in respect of those shares in relation to United Utilities Group as any holder of Ordinary Shares has in respect of those shares.

On the coming into effect of the Scheme, the rights and restrictions attached to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall be as follows:

- (a) the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall not be entitled to any dividends or distributions in respect of such shares;
 - (b) the amount that would otherwise be distributed to the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares out of the surplus assets of United Utilities Group remaining after the payment of its liabilities on a winding up shall be limited to the nominal value of each Subscriber Ordinary Share they hold which shall be paid only after the holders of any and all other classes of share in the capital of United Utilities Group then in issue shall have received the nominal value of those shares (or any capital entitlement specified as an alternative to that nominal value) in respect of the relevant shares held by them at that time;
 - (c) the holders of Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend or vote at any general meeting of United Utilities Group unless a resolution to wind up United Utilities Group or to vary, modify or abrogate the rights attaching to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares is proposed; and
 - (d) the Subscriber Ordinary Shares may only be transferred with the consent of the Board.
- (v) Rights of the Class A Shares

The Class A Shares confer no rights on the holders to vote at any general meeting of United Utilities Group, no right to receive any share in the profits of United Utilities Group and the right to receive on a return of assets in a winding up only up to the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Class A Share after payment to the holders of the Redeemable Preference Shares per Redeemable Preference Share held by them the amount paid up thereon together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends, to the holders of B Shares 170 pence per B Share held by them together with the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend, to the holders of Ordinary Shares per Ordinary Share held by them the amount paid up thereon together with the sum of £100,000 and to the holders of Deferred Shares per Deferred Share held by them the amount paid up thereon together with the sum of £100,000. The holders of the Class A Shares shall not be entitled to any further right to participate in any amount paid or distributed by United Utilities Group whatsoever.

United Utilities Group may at its discretion at any time after 31 August 2008, without prior notice, redeem some or all of the Class A Shares, in each case for a total aggregate price not exceeding one penny for all such Class A Shares redeemed.

No share certificates shall be issued in respect of the Class A Shares.

(C) Variation of rights

Any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares in United Utilities Group may be varied or abrogated either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the class.

(D) Transfer of shares

Each member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form approved by the Board. Such instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a certificated share which is not fully paid up) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of it.

Each member may transfer all or any of his uncertificated shares in accordance with the rules and regulations in force from time to time which are applicable to CREST or to any other relevant system (as defined in the CREST Regulations).

The Board may, in its absolute discretion refuse to register any transfer of a share unless:

- (a) it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
- (b) it is in respect of only one class of shares;
- (c) it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees;
- (d) it is duly stamped (if so required); and
- (e) in the case of a certificated share, it is delivered for registration to the office or such other place as the Board may from time to time determine, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so,

provided that the Board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

If the Board refuses to register a transfer of a share, it shall, within two months after the date on which, in the case of a certificated share, the transfer was lodged with United Utilities Group, or in the case of an uncertificated share, the dematerialised instruction was received by United Utilities Group, send notice of the refusal to the transferee.

(E) General meetings

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Board may determine. All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

The Board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the Board to convene a general meeting, any Director may call a general meeting.

An annual general meeting shall be convened by not less than twenty one clear days' notice in writing. All other general meetings shall be convened by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing.

The notice shall specify:

- (a) (if applicable) that the meeting is an annual general meeting;
- (b) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
- (c) in the case of special business, the general nature of that business;
- (d) if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such; and
- (e) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

The notice shall be given to the members (other than any who, under the provisions of these articles or of any restrictions imposed on any shares, are not entitled to receive notice of the meeting), to the Directors and to the auditors.

A Director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of United Utilities Group.

(F) Alteration of share capital

United Utilities Group may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase, consolidate and divide, cancel and diminish and, subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, sub-divide its shares or any of them.

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the articles and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, United Utilities Group may by special resolution, reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve, share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

(G) Disclosure of interests in shares and restrictions for failure to provide information

United Utilities Group may serve a notice under section 793 Companies Act 2006 on a member or any other person appearing to be interested in the shares (the "default shares") held by that member.

If the information required by the notice is not provided within the prescribed period from the service of the notice, the member is not entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or vote (in person, by representative or proxy) at a general meeting or separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares or on a poll or to exercise other rights conferred by membership in relation to the meeting or the poll.

Where the information in respect of the default shares is not provided in the prescribed period from the service of the notice and such shares represent at least 0.25 per cent. in nominal value of the issued shares of United Utilities Group (excluding any shares held in treasury) (i) a dividend in respect of the default shares may be withheld by United Utilities Group and (ii) no transfer other than an excepted transfer of any shares held by the member shall be registered unless the member is not in default as regards supplying the information required and the member proves to the satisfaction of the Board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

(H) Directors

(i) Number of Directors

Unless and until otherwise determined by United Utilities Group by ordinary resolution, the number of Directors (other than any alternate directors) shall be not more than fifteen nor less than three.

(ii) Power of members to appoint Directors

The members of United Utilities Group may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board, but the total number of Directors shall not exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with the articles.

(iii) Power of Board to appoint Directors

The Board shall have power at any time to appoint any person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board, but the total number of Directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with the articles. Any Director so appointed shall retire at the annual general meeting next following such appointment and shall not be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

(iv) Retirement of Directors

(a) A Director (not being a Director holding any employment or executive office) shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at each annual general meeting if, at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, he has served as a Director for a continuous period of nine years or more.

(b) A Director shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at the third annual general meeting following his appointment or last re-appointment by members of United Utilities Group at a general meeting.

(c) At each annual general meeting, one third of the Directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for re-appointment. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and of the articles, the Directors to retire by rotation shall be, first, any Director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, in the case of any annual general meeting held during or after 2011, any Director who is or will be required to retire under (b), in the case of the annual general meeting held in 2009, any Director who held office at the two preceding annual general meetings of United Utilities and who did not retire at either of them and in the case of the annual general meeting held in 2010, any Directors who held office at the annual general meeting of United Utilities in 2008 and the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group in 2009 and did not retire at either of them and thirdly that Director or those Directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by members at a general meeting of United Utilities Group or United Utilities. As between two or more Directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by members of United Utilities Group or United Utilities at a general meeting, the Director or Directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

(d) Any Director who is or will be required to retire at an annual general meeting under (a) or as a result of being appointed as Director by the Board shall not be taken into account in determining the number or the identity of the Directors to retire by rotation under (c).

(v) Deemed re-appointment

At any annual general meeting at which a Director retires by rotation, United Utilities Group may fill the vacancy and, if it does not do so, the retiring Director shall, if willing, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

(vi) No retirement on account of age

No person shall be or become incapable of being appointed a Director by reason of his having attained the age of seventy or any other age, nor shall any special notice be required in connection with the appointment or the approval of the appointment of such person. No Director shall vacate his office at any time by reason of the fact that he has attained the age of seventy or any other age.

(vii) Removal of Directors by ordinary resolution

The members of United Utilities Group may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a Director in his place.

(viii) Proceedings of the Board

Subject to the provisions of the articles, the Board may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business may be determined by the Board and until otherwise determined shall be two Directors. A duly convened meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board.

One Director may, and the secretary at the request of a Director shall, summon a board meeting at any time on reasonable notice. Notice of a board meeting shall be deemed to be properly given to a Director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to him at his last known address or any other address given by him for that purpose. A Director may waive the requirement that notice be given to him of any board meeting, either prospectively or retrospectively. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a board meeting to a Director who is absent from the United Kingdom unless he has requested the Board in writing that notices of board meetings shall during his absence be given to him at any address in the United Kingdom notified to United Utilities Group for this purpose, but he shall not, in such event, be entitled to a longer period of notice than if he had been present in the United Kingdom at that address.

The Board may appoint one or more of its body chairman or joint chairman and one or more of its body deputy chairman of its meetings and may determine the period for which he is or they are to hold office and may at any time remove him or them from office. If no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected, or if at any meeting neither a chairman nor a deputy chairman is present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting. Any chairman or deputy chairman may also hold executive office.

Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of that meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

Any Director or his alternate may validly participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board through the medium of conference telephone, video conferencing link or any other form of communications equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting, or by a series of telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting. A person so participating by being present or being in telephone or video conference or any other form of communication with those in the meeting or with the chairman of the meeting shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no group which is larger than any other group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

(ix) Directors' power to authorise conflict situations

The Directors of United Utilities Group have the power to authorise, on such terms (including as regards duration and revocation), and subject to such limits or conditions, if any, as they may determine, any matter proposed to them in accordance with the articles which would or might, if not so authorised, constitute or give rise to a situation in which a Director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of United Utilities Group (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not United Utilities Group could take advantage of it). Any authorisation of such a conflict situation pursuant to the articles will extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the conflict situation so authorised.

Any such authorisation of a conflict situation will be effective only if at the meeting of the Directors at which the conflict situation is considered any requirement as to quorum is met without counting the Director who is interested in that conflict situation, and if the authorisation was agreed to without that interested Director voting, or would have been agreed to if the votes of all interested Directors had not been counted.

(x) Directors' interests

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and compliance with the articles, a Director, notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may enter into or otherwise be interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with United Utilities Group or in which United Utilities Group is otherwise interested, either in regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (b) may hold any other office or place of profit under United Utilities Group (except that of auditor or of auditor of a subsidiary of United Utilities Group) in conjunction with the office of director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for United Utilities Group, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Board may arrange, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration provided for by any other article;
- (c) may be a Director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with or otherwise directly or indirectly interested in, any company promoted by United Utilities Group or in which United Utilities Group is otherwise interested or as regards which United Utilities Group has any powers of appointment; and
- (d) shall not be liable to account to United Utilities Group for any profit, remuneration or other benefit which he derives from any such office, employment, contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal, or from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with the articles, and no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal shall be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

A Director who, to his knowledge, is in any way (directly or indirectly) interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with United Utilities Group shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the Board at which the question of entering into the contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal is first considered, if he knows his interest then exists or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the board after he knows that he is or has become so interested.

(xi) Restrictions on voting

A Director shall not vote on, or be counted in the quorum in relation to, any resolution of the Board or of a committee of the Board concerning any contract, arrangement, transaction or any other proposal whatsoever to which United Utilities Group is or is to be a party and in which he has an interest which (together with any interest of any person connected with him within the meaning of section 252 of the Companies Act 2006) is to his knowledge a material interest otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of or otherwise in or through United Utilities Group, unless the resolution concerns any of the following matters:

- (a) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of United Utilities Group or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of United Utilities Group or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by United Utilities Group or any of its subsidiary undertakings in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or subunderwriting of which he is to participate;

- (d) any proposal concerning any other body corporate in which he (together with persons connected with him within the meaning of section 252 of the Companies Act 2006) does not to his knowledge have an interest in one per cent. or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of such body corporate;
- (e) any proposal relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees of United Utilities Group or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates;
- (f) any proposal concerning insurance which United Utilities Group proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of Directors or for the benefit of persons who include Directors; and
- (g) any proposal concerning any arrangement to be entered into by United Utilities Group for the provision of any indemnity in favour of any other current or former Director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of United Utilities Group or any of its subsidiary undertakings in respect of liabilities incurred by any such person in the course of his office or employment with United Utilities Group or any such subsidiary undertaking (notwithstanding the fact that such Director may also be provided with an indemnity on equivalent terms).

(xii) Vacation of office by Directors

Without prejudice to the provisions for retirement contained in the articles, the office of a Director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he resigns by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form received by, the secretary at the office or tendered at a board meeting;
- (b) he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts, is removed from office pursuant to the articles or the Companies Acts or becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
- (c) he becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him, makes any arrangement or compounds with his creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that Act;
- (d) an order is made by any court of competent jurisdiction on the ground (howsoever formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or receiver or other person to exercise powers with respect to his affairs or he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or, in Scotland, under the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 and the Board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (e) both he and his alternate director appointed pursuant to the provisions of the articles (if any) are absent, without the permission of the Board, from board meetings for six consecutive months and the Board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (f) he is removed from office by notice in writing signed by all the other Directors and, for this purpose, a set of like notices each signed by one or more of the Directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of Directors; or
- (g) in the case of any Director who holds any executive office, his appointment as such is terminated or expires and the Directors resolve that his office be vacated.

(xiii) Alternate directors

Each Director (other than an alternate director) may, by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form received by, the secretary at the office, or in any other manner approved by the Board, appoint any other Director or any person approved for that purpose by the Board and willing to act, to be his alternate.

Every alternate director shall (subject to his giving an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the Board and all committees of the Board of which his appointor is a member and, in the absence from such meetings of his appointor, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor. A Director acting as alternate director shall have a separate vote at board meetings for each Director of whom he acts as alternate director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorate is present.

(xiv) Directors' fees

The Directors (other than alternate directors) shall be entitled to receive by way of fees for their services as Directors such sum as the Board may, from time to time, determine (not exceeding, in aggregate, £1,000,000 per annum or such other sum as United Utilities Group in general meeting by ordinary resolution shall, from time to time, determine). Such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolution by which it is voted) shall be divided among the directors in such proportions and in such manner as the Board may determine or, in default of such determination, equally (except that in such event any Director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he holds office).

(xv) Expenses

Each Director shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties as director, including any expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board or any committee of the Board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of United Utilities Group.

(xvi) Remuneration of executive Directors

The salary or remuneration of any Director appointed to hold any employment or executive office may be either a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by business done or profits made or otherwise determined by the Board, and may be in addition to or in lieu of any fee payable to him for his services as director pursuant to the articles.

(xvii) Pensions and other benefits

The Board may exercise all the powers of United Utilities Group to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability benefits or other allowances or gratuities (whether by insurance or otherwise) for, or to institute and maintain any institution, association, society, club, trust, other establishment or profit-sharing, share incentive, share purchase or employees' share scheme calculated to advance the interests of United Utilities Group or any company which is a holding company or a subsidiary undertaking of or allied to or associated with United Utilities Group or any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking or any predecessor in business of United Utilities Group or of any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking, and for any member of his family (including a spouse or former spouse) and any person who is or was dependent on him. For such purpose the Board may establish, maintain, subscribe and contribute to any scheme, institution, association, club, trust or fund and pay premiums and, subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, lend money or make payments to, guarantee or give an indemnity in respect of, or give any financial or other assistance in connection with any of the aforesaid matters. The Board may procure any of such matters to be done by United Utilities Group either alone or in conjunction with any other person. Any Director or former Director shall be entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided under this article and shall not be obliged to account for it to United Utilities Group.

(I) Borrowing powers

The Board may exercise all the powers of United Utilities Group to borrow money and to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of United Utilities Group and, subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, to create and issue debenture and other loan stock and debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of United Utilities Group or of any third party.

The Board shall restrict the borrowings of United Utilities Group and exercise all voting and other rights and powers of control exercisable by United Utilities Group in respect of its subsidiary undertakings so as to procure (as regards its subsidiary undertakings in so far as it can procure by such exercise) that the aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding in respect of moneys borrowed by the group (exclusive of moneys borrowed by one group company from another and after deducting cash deposited) shall not at any time, without the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of United Utilities Group exceed an amount equal to two and a half (2½) times the adjusted capital and reserves.

(J) Indemnity of Directors

As far as the Companies Acts allow, United Utilities Group may indemnify any person who is or was a Director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of United Utilities Group or of any associated company against any liability and may purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for any such person.

5. Directors and Senior Managers of United Utilities Group

5.1 Names and functions

The Directors of United Utilities Group, each of whom is currently also a Director of United Utilities, are as follows:

(A) Directors

Name	Function
Sir Richard Evans	(Non-Executive Chairman)
Philip Green	(Chief Executive)
Tim Weller	(Chief Financial Officer)
Charlie Cornish	(Managing Director, Business Development and International)
Dr. Catherine Bell	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
Norman Broadhurst	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
Paul Heiden	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
David Jones CBE	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
Dr John McAdam	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
Andrew Pinder CBE	(Independent Non-Executive Director)
Nick Salmon	(Senior Independent Non-Executive Director)

(B) Senior Managers

The Senior Managers are the persons listed below:

Name	Function
Martin Bradbury	(Chief Information Officer)
Alison Clarke	(Human Resources Director)

Clive Elphick	(Managing Director, Asset Management and Regulation)
Tom Keevil	(General Counsel and Company Secretary)
Gaynor Kenyon	(Communications Director)
Ian McAulay	(Managing Director, Capital Programmes)
Matthew Wright	(Managing Director, Operations)

5.2 Business address

The business address of each of the Directors and the Senior Managers is Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP.

5.3 Brief biographical details of the Directors and Senior Managers

(A) Directors

Sir Richard Evans

Position	Non-executive chairman
Age	65
Appointment to the Board	Sir Richard Evans was appointed as a non-executive director on 1 September 1997 and chairman in January 2001.
Committee membership	Nomination Committee
Current directorships/Business interests	Chairman of Samruk, the Kazakhstan state holding company
Career experience	He started his career in the Military Aircraft Division of British Aircraft Corporation (BAC), joining the board of British Aerospace plc as marketing director in January 1987. In 1990 he became its chief executive. He was also a director of the Airbus company. He was appointed chairman of British Aerospace plc (now BAE Systems plc) in May 1998, a post from which he retired in July 2004 after more than 30 years with the company and its predecessors. He was also a non-executive director of NatWest plc from 1998 to 2000. Sir Richard will stand down from the Board of United Utilities at the annual general meeting on 25 July 2008 and be replaced as Chairman by John McAdam (subject to his election by Shareholders at that meeting). Sir Richard will then also resign from the Board of United Utilities Group and be replaced as Chairman by John McAdam.

Philip Green

Position	Chief executive officer
Age	55
Appointment to the Board	20 February 2006
Committee membership	Nomination Committee
Current directorships/Business interests	Non-executive director of Lloyds TSB Group plc. A director of Business in the Community and a Trustee of the Philharmonia Orchestra Trust.
Career experience	Before Philip joined United Utilities, he led the container shipping company Royal P&O Nedlloyd through its successful listing in 2004 and subsequent agreed acquisition by AP Moller-Maersk A/S, delivering significant value for shareholders. He has also been a main board director and chief operating officer at the global information company Reuters Group PLC, and chief operating officer at DHL for Europe and Africa.

Qualifications

BA (Hons) Economics and Politics, MBA

Tim Weller

Position

Chief financial officer

Age

44

Appointment to the Board

1 August 2006

Committee membership

Community Investment Committee and Treasury Committee

Current directorships/Business interests

A director of The Carbon Trust

Career experience

Tim was previously group finance director at RWE Thames Water plc and prior to that group finance director of Innogy Holdings plc from 2002 to 2004. He has been a partner at KPMG and director of financial control with the Granada group of companies and a non-executive director of Stanley Leisure plc.

Qualifications

BSc (Hons) Engineering Science, Chartered Accountant FCA

Charlie Cornish

Position

Managing director, business development and international

Age

48

Appointment to the Board

27 January 2004

Committee membership

None

Current directorships/Business interests

None

Career experience

After graduating from Strathclyde University, Charlie worked for British Aerospace, Plessey Telecommunications and Associated British Foods and also served as an executive director of NHS Trusts. In 1998, he joined the West of Scotland Water Authority as human resources director and was involved with major change programmes. He went on to become its customer services director and later chief executive. He joined Thames Water in 2002 as global business performance director, working across Europe, Asia-Pacific and the Americas, eventually becoming chief operating officer with Thames Water UK and Ireland with responsibility for service delivery, including operations and capital programmes. He was also chairman of Young Enterprise North West.

Qualifications

BA (Hons) Economics/Business Studies

Dr Catherine Bell

Position Independent non-executive director

Age 57

Appointment to the Board 19 March 2007

Committee membership Nomination Committee, Audit Committee and Community Investment Committee

Current directorships/Business interests A non-executive director of the Civil Aviation Authority and Ensus Limited

Career experience Catherine is a former civil servant and was acting permanent secretary at the Department for Trade and Industry from March to October 2005. Prior to that, she was the director general of the Corporate Services Group and the Competition and Markets Group overseeing employment law, competition and consumer policy, company law and corporate governance; and was previously the head of Competition and Utility Regulation. Until 7 May 2008, she was a non-executive director of Swiss Re GB plc.

Qualifications MA Geography, PhD Economic History

Norman Broadhurst

Position Independent non-executive director

Age 66

Appointment to the Board 1 April 1999

Committee membership Audit Committee and Nomination Committee

Current directorships/Business interests Chairman of Chloride Group plc, Freightliner Ltd and Cattles plc

Career experience Until 8 May 2008, Norman was a non-executive director of Old Mutual plc having served nine years. Until 22 May 2006, he was a non-executive director of Tomkins plc. He was group finance director of Railtrack plc from 1994 to 2000 and a non-executive director of Taylor Woodrow plc (now called Taylor Wimpey plc) from March 2000 to November 2003. Norman will stand down from the Board of United Utilities at the annual general meeting on 25 July 2008. He will then also resign from the Board of United Utilities Group.

Qualifications Chartered Accountant, FCA, FCT

Paul Heiden

Position Independent non-executive director

Age 51

Appointment to the Board 5 October 2005

Committee membership Audit Committee (Chairman), Nomination Committee and Treasury Committee (Chairman)

Current directorships/Business interests Chief executive of FKI plc

Career experience From 1992, Paul held various senior management positions at Rolls-Royce plc prior to joining the board in 1997 as director of Industrial Businesses and being appointed group finance director in 1999. After qualifying as a chartered accountant at Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co, he worked in senior finance roles at Hanson PLC and Mercury Communications. He was a non-executive director of Bunzl plc from 1998 to 2005 and was a non-executive director of Filtrona plc from 2005 to 2006.

Qualifications BSc (Hons) Biology, Chartered Accountant, ACA

David Jones CBE

Position Independent non-executive director

Age 66

Appointment to the Board 3 January 2005

Committee membership Remuneration Committee (Chairman), Nomination Committee and Audit Committee

Current directorships/Business interests Chairman of UK Coal plc

Career experience He was the group chief executive of The National Grid Company plc from 1994 to 2001, taking National Grid to the stock market and leading it successfully through an extensive business transformation programme. Prior to that, he was chief executive of South Wales Electricity, having previously held senior engineering, commercial and management posts on the South Western and Midlands Electricity Boards.

Qualifications MSc Control System Engineering, BSc Electrical Engineering

Dr John McAdam

Position Independent non-executive director

Age 60

Appointment to the Board 4 February 2008

Committee membership Audit Committee, Remuneration Committee and Nomination Committee

Current directorships/Business interests Chairman of Rentokil Initial plc, senior independent director of J Sainsbury plc, non-executive director of Rolls-Royce plc, Rolls-Royce Group plc and a member of the University of Cambridge Chemistry Advisory Board

Career experience John became a member of the board of ICI in 1999 and was subsequently appointed as its chief executive in 2003, a position he held until ICI's recent takeover by Akzo Nobel. He was a non-executive director of Severn Trent plc between 2000 and 2005. Subject to his election by Shareholders at the United Utilities annual general meeting on 25 July 2008, he will take over from Sir Richard as Chairman of the Board of United Utilities at the annual general meeting. He will then also take over as Chairman of the Board of United Utilities Group.

Qualifications

BSc Chemical Physics, Diploma Advanced Studies in Science, PhD

Andrew Pinder CBE

Position

Independent non-executive director

Age

61

Appointment to the Board

1 September 2001

Committee membership

Remuneration Committee and Nomination Committee

Current directorships/Business interests

Senior independent non-executive director of Spring Group plc, senior executive of Entrust, chairman of Becta (British Educational Communications and Technology Agency) and a member of the Intel Global Advisory Board

Career experience

As the e-Envoy to the UK government from 2000 to 2004, Andrew was responsible to the Prime Minister for the delivery of internet access to all British citizens and businesses. Before his appointment as e-Envoy, he was a partner in a venture capital firm and carried out a number of management consultancy assignments for the British government. Previous executive leadership roles also include positions as the head of European operations and technology at Citibank, director of operations and technology at Prudential Corporation and as director of information technology at the Office of the Inland Revenue.

Qualifications

BA (Hons) Economics and Geography

Nick Salmon

Position

Senior independent non-executive director

Age

55

Appointment to the Board

4 April 2005

Committee membership

Remuneration Committee and Nomination Committee

Current directorships/Business interests

Chief executive of Cookson Group plc

Career experience

From 2001 to 2004, Nick was executive vice president of Alstom S.A., the global energy and transport infrastructure group. From 1997 to 2001 he was executive vice president of ABB Alstom Power and was chief executive of Babcock International Group plc from 1993 to 1997. Prior to joining Babcock, he held senior management positions at GEC and GEC Alstom in the UK and France, and previously spent 11 years with China Light & Power Company Limited in Hong Kong.

Qualifications

BSc (Hons) Mechanical Engineering

(B) Senior Managers

Martin Bradbury (age 52) – Chief Information Officer

Martin was appointed to the new role of Chief Information Officer on 11 May 2007 with a remit to focus on developing the structure of the function and its transformation to the new organisation structure. He was formerly chief operating officer for Scottish Water Solutions, a public-private partnership to upgrade Scotland's water infrastructure. He is a former trustee of WaterAid and a past chairman of Business in the Arts: North West. He took over as managing director of Contract Solutions following the death of Gordon Waters in December 2006, a position he held until 30 April 2007.

Alison Clarke (age 41) – Human Resources Director

Alison joined the Group on 21 May 2007. Previously, she was group international human resources director for global retailer AS Watson in Hong Kong. She started her early career in Ford Motor Company holding a variety of industrial relations roles and then moved into media to specialise in management development. In 1997 she became HR director for Hilton then Whitbread Restaurants. She is responsible for the human resources teams across the Group.

Clive Elphick (age 51) – Managing Director, Asset Management and Regulation

Clive was appointed as Managing Director of Asset Management and Regulation on 8 March 2007. His external roles include non-executive director of the Northern Ireland Authority for Utility Regulation, Chair of the CBI in the North West of England, and a member of the Water UK Council. He joined what was North West Water Group PLC in 1991 and has held positions including being regulation director, group strategic planning director and chief operating officer of the regulated business. Prior to joining United Utilities, he qualified as an accountant with ICI and then worked as a management consultant with Deloitte & Touche. He has also had secondments to the Cabinet Office and Ofwat and for five years was a non-executive director of a department of state. He has a degree in Natural Sciences from Queens' College, Cambridge and a doctorate in operational research from Birmingham University.

Tom Keevil (age 47) – Company Secretary and General Counsel

Tom was appointed Company Secretary and General Counsel on 3 December 2007. From 2002 until 2007 he was company secretary and general counsel of Gallaher Group Plc and a board appointed member of Gallaher's corporate responsibility committee. As such, he was responsible for managing the corporate affairs, legal and security and brand protection departments and acting as secretary to the Plc board and its principal committees. Prior to that, he was a senior legal adviser for Gallaher from 2000 to 2002, having been appointed to that role, following 16 years with Simmons & Simmons, where he was appointed a partner in May 1991. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and an accredited CEDR mediator and is a member of the European advisory board of FM Global.

Gaynor Kenyon (age 47) – Communications Director

Gaynor was appointed Communications Director on 22 May 2006 and joined United Utilities from ScottishPower where she was UK government and community affairs director. In this role, she was responsible for ScottishPower's political strategy in the Scottish Parliament, Welsh Assembly and Westminster and for the group's US and UK corporate responsibility strategy. She previously worked for Manweb until 1995, and before that at the Government's Central Office of Information.

Ian McAulay (age 43) – Managing Director, Capital Programmes

Ian was appointed Managing Director, Capital Programmes in April 2007 to manage the delivery of United Utilities Water's capital programme, valued at £3.5 billion. In addition, he also oversees United Utilities' input to major water capital programmes in the South of England, (4Delivery) and Scotland (Scottish Water Solutions). Prior to joining United Utilities, he was managing director of MWH UK LTD, the UK's largest provider of consultancy services to the water industry. For several years prior to this he was EMEAI director of programme management.

Matthew Wright (age 43) – Managing Director, Operations

Matthew was appointed Managing Director, Operations on 1 April 2008. His role includes management of the operations, maintenance and customer service activities of United Utilities' regulated water and wastewater business, as well as oversight of United Utilities's external contracts with Dwr Cymru Welsh Water, Scottish PFI projects and other industrial customers. Matthew has over 20 years' experience of utility management in both UK and international markets. He joined United Utilities on 1 March 2007, as Managing Director, Water Operations and Maintenance from ScottishPower's US operation, where he was executive vice president of PacifiCorp's transmission, distribution and customer service division. Matthew has also held senior management positions in regulation, corporate strategy and commercial utility functions.

5.4 Other directorships and partnerships

The details of those companies and partnerships outside the Group of which the Directors and Senior Managers are currently directors or partners, or have been directors or partners at any time during the previous five years prior to the date of this Prospectus, are as follows:

Name of Director/ Senior Manager	Current directorships and partnerships	Previous directorships and partnerships
Richard Evans	The Air League Samruk, the Kazakhstan state holding company	BAE Systems PLC BAE Systems (Operations) Limited
Philip Green	Lloyds TSB Group PLC Lloyds TSB Bank PLC Philharmonia Trust Limited Business in the Community	Reuters Limited Reuters Group PLC Arafura Shipping Limited The Chamber of Shipping Limited Nedlloyd Container Line Limited Maersk Line UK Limited Mission Aviation Fellowship International Blaxmill (Eight) Limited Radianz Limited
Tim Weller	The Carbon Trust	RWE NPower PLC RWE Npower Holdings PLC Thames Water Senior Executive Pension Trustees Limited Thames Water Nominees Limited Thames Water Limited Thames Water Share Scheme Trustees Limited Thames Water Pension Trustees (MIS) Limited Thames Water Utilities Finance Limited St. James Group Limited Genting Stanley PLC Electricity North West Limited

Name of Director/ Senior Manager	Current directorships and partnerships	Previous directorships and partnerships
Charlie Cornish	None	Water UK The Mersey Partnership Northern Gas Networks Holdings Limited Northern Gas Networks Finance PLC Northern Gas Networks Limited Electricity North West Limited
Catherine Bell	Ensus Limited Ensus Holdings Limited	Reassure UK Life Assurance Company Limited The Mercantile & General Reinsurance Company Limited Swiss Reinsurance Company UK Limited Swiss Re Life & Health Limited Swiss Re GB PLC
Norman Broadhurst	Chloride Group PLC Management Consortium Bid Limited Freightliner Heavy Haul Limited Freightliner Limited Cattles PLC Freightliner Group Limited Freightliner Acquisitions Limited	Bryant Pensions Trust Limited Team Nominees Limited Taylor Wimpey PLC Cattles Trustee Limited Tomkins PLC Old Mutual PLC
Paul Heiden	FKI PLC Bridon PLC Danks Holdings Limited Fisher-Karpak Holdings Limited FKI Engineering Limited FKI Industries Limited FKI Nominees Limited	FKI USA Holdings Limited (Dissolved) Hawker Siddeley Power Transformers Limited (Dissolved) Dresdner Kleinwort Derivative Investments Limited Bunzl PLC LSE Motors Limited Filtrona PLC
David Jones	UK Coal PLC	National Grid Six Limited Teesside Power Limited
John McAdam	J Sainsbury PLC Rolls-Royce PLC Rolls-Royce Group PLC Rentokil Initial PLC	Severn Trent PLC Imperial Chemical Industries Limited
Andrew Pinder	Andrew Pinder Consultancy Limited Spring Group PLC British Educational Communications and Technology Agency Encommerce Limited Entrust (Europe) Limited	Independent National Will Register Limited (Dissolved) Will Network Limited (Dissolved) Vertex Data Science Limited

Name of Director/ Senior Manager	Current directorships and partnerships	Previous directorships and partnerships
Nick Salmon	Cookson Group PLC	Oakridge Consultancy Limited (Dissolved) Alstom Power UK Alstom Limited Alstom UK Holdings Limited Alstom Pension Trust Limited Alstom Trust Limited (Dissolved)
Martin Bradbury	None	Rivington Heritage Trust Wateraid 4Delivery Limited Scottish Water Solutions Limited UUGM Limited
Alison Clarke	None	None
Clive Elphick	Water UK	Rivington Heritage Trust The UK Business Council for Sustainable Energy
Tom Keevil	None	Gallaher Group Limited Gallaher International Limited Benson & Hedges Limited Cope & Lloyd (Overseas) Limited Cope Brothers & Co. Limited Gallaher Austria (Holdings) Limited Gallaher Austria Limited Gallaher Benelux Limited Gallaher Finance Gallaher Finance and Distribution Limited Gallaher Limited Gallaher Overseas (Holdings) Limited Gallaher Overseas Limited Gallaher Services Limited J.R. Freeman & Son Limited John Cotton Limited Teofani Limited Aegaeus Limited Gallaher Pensions Limited Gallaher Jersey Holdings Limited Gallaher Jersey Overseas Limited Gallaher Pensions Holdings Limited S.N. Woodlands Limited Gallaher Capital Limited Gallaher Europe Finance Bramley Landing Limited Abdulla (U.K.) Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher (Trading Stamps) Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher (Ukraine) Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher Asset Finance 2000 Limited (Dissolved)

Name of Director/ Senior Manager	Current directorships and partnerships	Previous directorships and partnerships
Tom Keevil (continued)		Gallaher Finance Overseas Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher Investments Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher Quest Trustees Limited (Dissolved) Gallaher Tobacco Limited (Dissolved) Gratis Limited (Dissolved) Old Holborn Limited (Dissolved) Senior Service Tobacco Limited (Dissolved) Silk Cut Limited (Dissolved) Sobranie Limited (Dissolved) St. James's Tobacco Company of London Limited (Dissolved) Sullivan & Powell Limited (Dissolved) Sullivan Powell & Co. Limited (Dissolved) Roughburn Forestry Limited (Dissolved) S.N. Farms Limited (Dissolved) Abdulla (Overseas) Limited (Dissolved) Austria Tabak GmbH Gallaher (Austria) GmbH Closed Joint Stock Company Gallaher Properties Gallaher Liggett-Ducat LLC Gallaher Sales LLC Gallaher (CI) Limited Gallaher (CI) Finance Limited Gallaher Switzerland SA Sobranie Marketing & Management SA Western Tobacco Investments LLC
Gaynor Kenyon	None	None
Ian McAulay	4Delivery Limited Scottish Water Solutions Limited UUGM Limited	MWH UK Limited MWH Constructors Limited MWH Europe Limited
Matthew Wright	Catchment Highland Holdings Limited Catchment Tay Holdings Limited Catchment Tay Limited Halkyn District Mines Drainage Company Limited	International Water U.U. (Highland) Limited Catchment Highland Limited Catchment Limited Catchment Moray Holdings Limited Catchment Moray Limited

5.5 Confirmations

There are no family relationships between any of the Directors and Senior Managers and during the five years immediately prior to the date of this Prospectus, none of the Directors or Senior Managers has:

- (A) had any convictions in relation to fraudulent offences;
- (B) been associated with any bankruptcies, receiverships or liquidations acting in the capacity of any of the positions set out against the name of the Director or Senior Manager in paragraph 5.4 above;
- (C) been subject to any official public incrimination and/or sanctions by any statutory or regulatory authorities including, where relevant, designated professional bodies; or
- (D) been disqualified by a court from acting as a member of the administrative management or supervisory body of an issuer or from acting in the management or conduct of the affairs of any issuer.

In respect of any Director or Senior Manager, there are no actual or potential conflicts of interests between any duties they have to United Utilities Group, either in respect of the Proposals or otherwise, and the private interests and/or other duties they may also have. Save as disclosed in sections 6, 8 and 9 of this Part X or by reason of their directorships of United Utilities and United Utilities Group, there are no interests, including conflicting ones, that are material to the Proposals.

No Director or Senior Manager was selected to be a Director or Senior Manager pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any major customer, supplier or other person having a business connection with the Group.

Save as disclosed in section 9.2, no restrictions have been agreed by any Director or Senior Manager on the disposal within a certain period of time of his or her holding in United Utilities or United Utilities Group securities.

6. Interests in shares

6.1 Interests of Directors and Senior Managers

On the Scheme becoming effective, assuming that no further United Utilities Shares have been purchased or issued after 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, certain of the Directors and Senior Managers will have the following beneficial and family interests in Ordinary Shares and B Shares by virtue of the effect of the Scheme on their United Utilities Shares.

Director/ Senior Manager	Number of United Utilities Shares	Number of Ordinary Shares	Proportion of issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group	Number of B Shares
Sir Richard Evans	381	294	0.00%	381
Philip Green	122,612	94,745	0.01%	122,612
Tim Weller	48,789	37,700	0.01%	48,789
Charlie Cornish	14,985	11,579	0.00%	14,985
Dr John McAdam	-	-	-	-
Dr Catherine Bell	-	-	-	-
Norman Broadhurst	530	409	0.00%	530
Paul Heiden	1,852	1,431	0.00%	1,852
David Jones	-	-	-	-
Andrew Pinder	6,222	4,807	0.00%	6,222
Nick Salmon	1,300	1,004	0.00%	1,300
Tom Keevil	30,389	23,482	0.00%	30,389
Alison Clarke	169	130	0.00%	169
Clive Elphick	23,684	18,301	0.00%	23,684
Gaynor Kenyon	3,317	2,563	0.00%	3,317
Martin Bradbury	17,611	13,608	0.00%	17,611
Ian McAulay	-	-	-	-
Matthew Wright	-	-	-	-
Total	271,841	210,053	0.03%	271,841

The interests of the Directors and Senior Managers together represent approximately 0.03 per cent. of the issued share capital of United Utilities in existence as at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Prospectus.

The percentage holding of Ordinary Shares is expected to be the same as the percentage holding of United Utilities Shares, subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements.

In addition to their having an interest in 271,841 United Utilities Shares as detailed in the table above, the Directors and Senior Managers also have interests in United Utilities Shares as a result of their participation in the United Utilities Employee Share Plans. These interests were as follows:

Directors' and Senior Managers' interests in the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	13/02/2006	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	688.5	78,432	78,432	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	82,249	93,420	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	92,359	98,620	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tim Weller	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	47,338	53,767	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	53,157	56,760	01/06/2010	31/08/2010

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Charlie Cornish	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	30,419	30,419	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	40,237	45,700	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	45,183	48,245	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Martin Bradbury	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	14,145	14,145	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	17,308	19,657	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
Alison Clarke	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	19,934	21,285	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Clive Elphick	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	15,810	15,810	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	16,643	18,902	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	14,951	15,964	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tom Keevil	14/12/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	756.5	21,811	23,289	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Gaynor Kenyon	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	11,539	13,104	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	11,961	12,771	01/06/2010	31/08/2010

Directors' and Senior Managers' interests in the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	51,624	55,123	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tim Weller	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	22,015	23,507	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Charlie Cornish	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	14,606	15,596	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Clive Elphick	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	8,264	8,823	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Gaynor Kenyon	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	4,858	5,187	01/06/2010	31/08/2010

Matched share investment scheme for Philip Green

	Award date	Retention period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	16/01/2007	13/02/2006 to 12/02/2011	761	100,000	113,583	13/02/2011	13/05/2011

Matched share investment scheme for Tim Weller

	Award date	Retention period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Tim Weller	14/02/2007	01/07/2006 to 30/06/2011	772.5	39,000	44,296	01/07/2011	01/10/2011

Special long-term incentive scheme for Charlie Cornish

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Charlie Cornish	16/03/2007	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2010	723	47,027	53,413	01/04/2010	01/07/2010

Senior Manager's interests in the United Utilities Executive (Unapproved) Share Option Scheme

	Date of grant	Number of United Utilities Shares	Option price (pence)	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Martin Bradbury	03/12/1998	6,361	750.5	03/12/2001	02/12/2008

The above interests are based upon the interests of the Directors in United Utilities Shares which (i) have been notified by each Director of United Utilities Group to United Utilities pursuant to Chapter 3 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules before 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Prospectus, or (ii) are interests of a connected person (within the meaning of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules) of a Director which have been notified to United Utilities by each connected person (within the meaning of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules) pursuant to Chapter 3 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules.

Each executive Director is a member of the class of discretionary beneficiaries of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust and is therefore treated as having an interest in the 53,601 United Utilities Shares held by United Utilities Employee Share Trust Limited as trustee of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust as at 2 June 2008.

Save as set out above, no Director (nor any person connected with him or her) has any interests (beneficial or non-beneficial) in the share capital of United Utilities or United Utilities Group. Save as set out above, no Director (nor any person connected with him or her) holds an interest in any other securities of United Utilities or United Utilities Group.

6.2 Substantial shareholdings

Insofar as is known to United Utilities Group by reference to relevant notifications made pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, as at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Prospectus, the only persons who hold voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings, whether direct or indirect, of certain financial instruments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire), three per cent. or more of the ordinary share capital of United Utilities were as follows:

Shareholder	Number of United Utilities Shares as at 2 June 2008	Percentage of issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities as at 2 June 2008
Invesco PLC	44,644,578	5.06
Legal and General	35,472,365	4.02
Pictet Asset Management S.A.	44,072,064	5.00

Save as disclosed above, United Utilities Group is not aware of any person who holds voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings whether direct or indirect, of certain financial investments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire) three per cent. or more of the ordinary issued share capital of United Utilities.

Insofar as is known to United Utilities Group by reference to relevant notifications made pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, as at 2 June, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Prospectus, the following persons are expected to be the only persons who will hold voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings, whether direct or indirect, of certain financial instruments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire), three per cent. or more of the ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group immediately following Admission by virtue of the effect of the Scheme (assuming that no further United Utilities Shares have been purchased or issued after 2 June 2008):

Shareholder	Number of Ordinary Shares on Admission	Percentage of issued ordinary shares of United Utilities Group
Invesco PLC	34,498,083	5.06
Legal and General	27,410,463	4.02
Pictet Asset Management S.A.	34,055,685	5.00

None of the shareholders listed above has or will have voting rights that are different to those of any other holder of United Utilities Shares or Ordinary Shares.

As at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, United Utilities Group is not aware of any person who, directly or indirectly, acting jointly or with others or acting alone, could exercise control over United Utilities or, immediately following Admission, over United Utilities Group.

7. Transactions with Directors

None of the Directors has or has had any interest in any transaction which is or was unusual in its nature or conditions or significant to the business of United Utilities Group or United Utilities which was effected by United Utilities Group or any member of the Group during the current or immediately preceding financial year, or which was effected during an earlier financial year and remains in any respect outstanding or unperformed.

Save in respect of their service contracts or letters of appointment, none of the Directors has or had a beneficial interest in any contract to which United Utilities Group or a member of the Group was a party during the current or immediately preceding financial year.

There are no outstanding loans or guarantees granted or provided by United Utilities Group or any member of the Group for the benefit of any of the Directors.

8. Directors' remuneration

This section provides information on the remuneration arrangements for the Directors of United Utilities. It is expected that the current remuneration arrangements of each of the Directors will continue to apply following the Scheme Effective Date.

8.1 Executive Directors

United Utilities has entered into service contracts with each of the executive Directors, the particulars of which as at 30 May 2008 are set out below:

Name	Date of contract	Annual salary (£)
Philip Green	13 February 2006	748,000
Tim Weller	1 July 2006	430,000
Charlie Cornish	5 January 2004	362,000

The executive Directors' salaries are reviewed annually taking into account Group and personal performance. Directors are also entitled to participate in an annual bonus plan, awarded according to the financial and operational performance of United Utilities and the achievement of individual targets. The Remuneration Committee has decided that, for the 2008/09 annual bonus plan, the maximum bonus for the executive Directors will be 130 per cent. of salary. Executive Directors are also entitled to participate in the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan and may be awarded an option over company shares to the value of a percentage of their annual salary at the date of the award, at no cost to them. Executive Directors are further entitled to participate in the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan, under the terms of which up to 50 per cent. of any annual bonus actually payable may be invested in shares. Such investment shares will be matched by an award over such number of additional shares (not exceeding twice the number of investment shares) as the Committee may decide. For 2007/2008 the award was on the basis of either one share for each investment share or two shares for each investment share. In addition, Philip Green and Tim Weller are participants in their individual matched investment arrangement, under the terms of which any investment in shares made on commencement of employment is matched by an award over an equal number of shares. Charlie Cornish has an individual arrangement made on the commencement of his employment under which he has an award which is similar to an award under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan.

Other benefits executive Directors receive include a car allowance of £14,000 a year or the use of a company car, reimbursement of the cost of fuel for business and private use, the provision of medical and life insurance and, if not a member of the defined benefit pension scheme, permanent health insurance.

All current executive Directors have one year notice periods for termination of their service contracts by United Utilities, or six month notice periods where notice is to be given by the executive Director. The normal retirement date of Directors is at age 65; it may be agreed that a Director continues to work after that date.

Executive Directors' service contracts do not explicitly provide for termination payments (other than for holidays due but not taken), liquidated damages or payments in lieu of notice and there is no automatic entitlement to payments under the annual bonus, the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan or the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan. If a contract is terminated, the Remuneration Committee will, in each circumstance, determine the compensation to be paid, normally by reference to fixed elements of remuneration and the notice period.

8.2 Non-executive Directors

Non-executive Directors' appointments are for an initial period of three years. They are subject to reappointment at the first annual general meeting after their initial appointment and at an annual general meeting at least every three years thereafter if they are to be reappointed. Appointments may be extended with the agreement of the non-executive Director and the Board.

Non-executive Directors do not have contracts of service and in the event of early termination, for whatever reason, they are not entitled to compensation. They are paid fees that reflect each of their individual responsibilities (fees can be seen in the table in section 8.3 below). Non-executive Directors do not participate in any annual bonus or incentive plan, the pension scheme, healthcare arrangements, United Utilities' long-term incentive plans or employee share schemes. United Utilities repays the reasonable expenses non-executive Directors incur in carrying out their duties as directors.

The non-executive Directors will enter into new letters of appointment with United Utilities Group substantially on the terms of their existing letters of appointment with United Utilities. The new letters of appointment will take effect upon the Scheme becoming effective, whereupon the non-executive Directors will resign as directors of United Utilities.

8.3 Analysis of Directors' and Senior Managers' emoluments

The remuneration paid by United Utilities (including salary and other benefits and any contingent or deferred compensation), and benefits in kind granted, to each of the Directors and to the Senior Managers for service in all capacities to United Utilities by any person in respect of the year ended 31 March 2008 are set out below:

Director/ Senior Managers	Basic salary/fees £'000	Annual bonus £'000	Other benefits £'000	Total emoluments £'000
Sir Richard Evans	225.8	–	–	225.8
Philip Green	725.9	654.7	26.0	1,406.6
Tim Weller	417.5	417.5	33.6	868.6
Charlie Cornish	352.8	305.0	20.2	678.0
Dr. Catherine Bell	51.1	–	–	51.1
Norman Broadhurst	60.3	–	–	60.3
Paul Heiden	52.0	–	–	52.0
David Jones	61.1	–	–	61.1
Dr. John McAdam	8.2	–	–	8.2
Andrew Pinder	51.1	–	–	51.1
Nick Salmon	51.1	–	–	51.1
Senior Managers	1,271.3	567.7	141.8	1,980.8

There is no arrangement under which any Director has waived or agreed to waive future emoluments nor has there been any waiver of emoluments during the year ended 31 March 2008, the financial year immediately preceding the date of this document.

8.4 Pensions

Several pension schemes operate within the Group. The Group, with trustee agreement where required, has made the rule changes necessary to ensure that the schemes qualify as registered pension schemes under the new legislative regime. From September 2006, all new employees have been offered membership of the defined contribution section of the United Utilities Pension Scheme ("UUPS").

The Remuneration Committee recognises that pension is an important but potentially costly element of remuneration. Decisions have previously been made to close entry to the defined benefit section of UUPS to newly recruited Directors and other senior executives, not to introduce any new unfunded unapproved arrangements to provide pension benefits above those approved by HM Revenue & Customs and to close entry to the defined benefit executive section (which provides enhanced benefits for existing scheme members).

Newly recruited executive Directors may join the defined contribution section of UUPS. They may make a regular contribution of up to seven per cent. of basic pay and may make additional voluntary contributions. United Utilities contributes up to 25 per cent. of basic pay. When scheme members reach the lifetime allowance they are given the choice of continuing to accrue benefits within the pension scheme (and pay the higher tax charge for which no compensation will be paid) or be paid a cash allowance instead of accruing further pension benefits. The cash allowances are calculated as a percentage of salary and do not exceed the cost of the pensions benefits given up. A cash allowance of 12 per cent. is payable in lieu of the standard defined contribution rate of 14 per cent., 22 per cent. in lieu of the enhanced defined contribution rate of 25 per cent. and 25 per cent. in lieu of United Utilities contribution for members in the defined benefit section of the pension scheme. As at 31 March 2008, no executive Director had taken the cash alternative.

The following Senior Managers were members of defined benefit pension arrangements provided by United Utilities during the year to 31 March 2008.

Pension entitlements and corresponding transfer values during the year ended 31 March 2008 were as follows:

	Total accrued pension at 31/03/08	Total accrued pension at 31/03/07	Increase in accrued pension net of inflation	Transfer value of net increase in accrual over period	Transfer value of accrued pension at 31/03/08	Transfer value of accrued pension at 31/03/07	Total change in transfer value during period	Senior Manager's contribution/ salary sacrifice
	£	£	£	£	£	£	£	£
	(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)	(6)	(7)	(8)
Martin Bradbury	162,761	141,730	15,362	247,313	2,799,408	2,183,886	598,188	17,344
Clive Elphick	107,474	94,764	8,919	131,549	1,761,684	1,380,000	367,048	14,636

Notes:

1. Pension accruals shown are the amounts that would be paid annually on retirement at age 60 based on service to the end of the year, or date of leaving employment or death if earlier.
2. Transfer values have been calculated in accordance with version 9.3 of guidance note GN11 issued by the actuarial profession.
3. The transfer value of the net increase in pension (4) represents the incremental value to the Senior Manager of his service during the year, calculated on the assumption service terminated at the year-end, or at the date of leaving employment or death, if earlier. It is based on the accrued pension increase (3) and is calculated after deducting the Senior Manager's contribution/salary sacrifice.
4. The change in transfer value (7) includes the effect of fluctuations in the transfer value due to factors beyond the control of United Utilities and Senior Managers, such as stock market movements. It is calculated after deducting the Senior Manager's contribution/salary sacrifice.
5. The amounts stated in (8) are the amount of the salary sacrifice made by the Senior Managers over the year.
6. Voluntary contributions paid by Senior Managers and resulting benefits are not shown.

In the calculation of Martin Bradbury's accrued pension at 31 March 2008, a bonus of £122,400 earned in respect of the period 1 April 2007 to 31 March 2008 has been assumed. This is equal to 60 per cent. of his current salary.

Directors' regular contribution rates are levied on their pensionable pay, provided the amount for the year, when added to United Utilities' contribution, does not exceed the annual allowance.

Philip Green, Charlie Cornish and Tim Weller are members of the defined contribution section. Prior to participating in the salary sacrifice arrangement, Philip Green's regular contribution rate was three per cent. of basic salary. United Utilities contributed six per cent. of basic salary to the pension scheme and an additional 19 per cent. to his private pension plan. Charlie Cornish and Tim Weller contributed seven per cent. and United Utilities 25 per cent. of their basic salary to the pension scheme. The normal pension age is 65.

The following Directors and Senior Managers were members of defined contribution pension arrangements provided by United Utilities during the year to 31 March 2008. Details of contributions paid during the year to 31 March 2008 were as follows:

	Employer contributions (£)	Salary sacrifice contributions (£)
Philip Green	39,740.98	18,201.26
Tim Weller	102,181.49	25,697.92
Charlie Cornish	83,916.47	23,428.14
Alison Clarke	52,024.28	15,335.99
Gaynor Kenyon	36,923.94	10,867.47
Ian McAulay	17,520.68	10,001.94
Matthew Wright	27,019.98	14,063.26

Notes:

1. Voluntary contributions paid by Directors and Senior Managers are not shown.
2. The contribution information was provided by Winterthur Life.¹
3. The employer contributions shown are the amounts invested with Winterthur Life, i.e. after deduction of the amounts to meet the cost of life cover, income protection and expenses.
4. The salary sacrifice contributions are the employee contributions paid by United Utilities on behalf of those members who participate in the salary sacrifice arrangement. They are paid in addition to the employer contributions shown above.

During the year ended 31 March 2008 United Utilities made available to all members of the pension schemes, the opportunity to participate in a 'salary sacrifice' arrangement. The arrangement allows pension scheme members to cease making their regular pension contributions. Their gross salary is correspondingly reduced by the value of the regular contributions they would have made to the pension scheme. For members of the defined contribution section, United Utilities makes an additional contribution equal to the regular contribution that would have been paid by the member.

The arrangement does not affect accrued, or the future accrual of, benefits for members of defined benefit plans.

¹ This information has been accurately reproduced from Winterthur Life.

9. Share plans

9.1 Options/awards outstanding

As at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus, inclusive of the options and awards granted to Directors and Senior Managers described in section 6.1 above, employees and former employees of the Group held options and awards over the following United Utilities Shares (or, in the case of the International Plan, notional shares):

Share plan	Date of grant	Exercise price (pence)	Number of shares	Expiry date
United Utilities Executive Share Option Scheme	03/07/1998	766.04	23,575	03/07/2008
United Utilities Executive Share Option Scheme	03/12/1998	750.48	92,200	03/12/2008
United Utilities Executive Share Option Scheme	29/06/1999	664.02	173,761	29/06/2009
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	16/12/1999	532.17	17,045	16/12/2009
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	10/07/2000	587.93	134,702	10/07/2010
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	21/12/2000	575.83	29,971	21/12/2010
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	06/07/2001	563.73	142,629	06/07/2011
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	20/12/2001	509.26	68,386	20/12/2011
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	04/07/2002	528.28	244,949	04/07/2012
United Utilities Share Option Plan 1999	23/12/2002	544.70	136,335	23/12/2012
United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan	30/06/2005	Nil cost	1,221,611	31/08/2008
United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan	08/09/2006	Nil cost	958,738	31/08/2009
United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan	11/06/2007	Nil cost	276,934	31/08/2010
United Utilities PLC International Plan	30/06/2005	Nil cost	67,506	31/08,2008
United Utilities PLC International Plan	08/09/2006	Nil cost	37,189	31/08/2009
United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999	02/01/2004	396.0	16,246	31/08/2008
United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan	30/07/2007	Nil cost	108,236	31/08/2010

9.2 Effect of the Proposals on the United Utilities Employee Share Plans

Separate letters will shortly be sent to participants in the United Utilities Employee Share Plans to explain the implications of the Proposals on their options and awards and what action, if any, they need to take. The following is a general summary of the position.

Participants in the Share Option Plans will be able to exercise their options for up to six months after the date of the Court Hearing and acquire United Utilities Shares which will either be exchanged under the Scheme for Ordinary Shares and B Shares or exchanged for Ordinary Shares pursuant to the proposed change in the United Utilities Articles described in section 2.1 of Part II of the Circular. The options of participants who do not choose to exercise them will be exchanged for options over Ordinary Shares with an equivalent value, such options to be held on the same terms as their existing options. In the case of the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999, those terms are substantially the same as the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme summarised in section 9.4 below. All of the options under the remaining Share Option Schemes are currently exercisable and will remain exercisable until the tenth anniversary of their grant subject to provisions providing for their earlier lapsing, for example, on the participant ceasing to be employed within the Group or on a change of control of the Company.

The awards under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan and the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan will be converted into awards over Ordinary Shares and held on the same terms and conditions as the existing awards, with appropriately adjusted performance targets. The terms and conditions of those plans are substantially the same as the corresponding plans of the Company summarised in section 9.4 below.

Awards under the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan are subject to the condition that the participant retains the United Utilities Shares which the participant has acquired with his own funds until the awards vest. The participant will be required to elect for Alternative 3 in respect of the B Shares which he or she receives for those United Utilities Shares, failing which the corresponding award will lapse. However, the redemption of those B Shares on the Final B Share Redemption Date will not result in the corresponding award lapsing.

The awards under the individual arrangements for Philip Green and Tim Weller, which are similar to awards made under the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan (save that performance conditions do not apply), will be treated in the same way as the awards under that plan. The award under the individual arrangement for Charlie Cornish, which is subject to a performance condition, will be treated the same way as awards under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan.

The United Utilities PLC International Plan is a "phantom" plan which mirrors the terms of the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan but under which participants are entitled to a cash payment rather than shares. It is designed principally for use in those countries where the operation of equity plans raises securities law issues. Awards under this plan will be treated in the same way as awards under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan.

Participants in the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan are the beneficial owners of the shares held for them by the trustees of the plan. They will be entitled to instruct the trustees to vote at the Court Meeting and the General Meeting on their behalf. The Scheme will extend to the United Utilities Shares held in the plan and the Ordinary Shares and B Shares received by the trustees on behalf of the participants will be held in accordance with the terms of the plan, the provisions of which are substantially identical to those of the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan summarised in section 9.4 below. Whilst it will in due course be replaced by this latter plan, the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan will continue to operate on an interim basis using Ordinary Shares to ensure a smooth transition between the two plans.

9.3 Employee Benefit Trust

The United Utilities Employee Share Trust was established by a trust deed executed on 21 August 1996. The Trustees hold the trust fund for the benefit of the beneficiaries (being employees and former employees of the Group and their relatives) to the extent determined by the rules of the employee share schemes. As at 2 June 2008, the Trust held 53,601 United Utilities Shares on trust and these shares are used to satisfy awards payable under the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan, the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan and the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan. All dividends payable on the shares during the current and prior years were waived.

9.4 United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans

Subject to shareholder approval at the General Meeting, the Company has established the following new employee share schemes to operate from the Scheme Effective Date: the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme (the "Sharesave Scheme"), the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan (the "Share Incentive Plan"), the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan (the "Performance Share Plan"), the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan (the "International Plan") and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan (the "Matching Plan"). Each of these plans is in substantially the same form as the equivalent United Utilities Employee Share Plan.

In addition (but subject to shareholder approval at the General Meeting), the Company has passed a resolution which will allow it to establish additional employee share schemes for the benefit of the Group's overseas employees provided that such schemes operate within the equity dilution limits described below and (save to the extent necessary or desirable to take account of overseas tax, securities and exchange control laws) such schemes do not confer upon participants benefits which are greater than those which could be obtained from the schemes described below and that, once such schemes have been established, they may not be amended without the approval of the Company in general meeting if such approval would be required to amend the corresponding provision of the schemes described below unless such approval to amend the corresponding provision has already been obtained.

The Board of United Utilities Group also intends to establish a plan for a limited number of senior managers below the executive leadership team level under which a proportion of the annual bonuses earned by the participants will be paid as deferred awards of Ordinary Shares. In normal circumstances, the shares will be released after three years subject to continued employment with the Group. Special rules will apply on termination of employment and a change of control. The deferred awards will not be subject to performance conditions as they simply represent a deferral of bonuses already earned. Executive directors of the Company will not participate in this plan and no new shares or treasury shares will be used to satisfy the deferred awards. Accordingly, the plan does not require shareholders' approval under the Listing Rules.

The following is a summary of the main provisions of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans.

(A) Provisions which are common to all of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans

Administration

The Sharesave Scheme and the Share Incentive Plan will be administered by the Board or a duly authorised committee of it. Each of the other schemes will be administered by the Remuneration Committee of the Board. References to the "Committee" in these summaries are to the Board or the Remuneration Committee as appropriate.

Source of shares

Awards may be satisfied by the issue of new Ordinary Shares or by Ordinary Shares held in treasury or by the purchase of Ordinary Shares in the market either directly or through an employee trust.

Scheme limits

The United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans will be subject to the following limits:

- (i) on any date, the aggregate nominal amount of Ordinary Shares that may be allocated under the plans may not, when added to the nominal amount of Ordinary Shares allocated in the previous ten years under the plans, exceed ten per cent. of the equity share capital of the Company; and
- (ii) on any date, the aggregate nominal amount of Ordinary Shares that may be allocated under the Performance Share Plan and the Matching Plan may not, when added to the nominal amount of Ordinary Shares allocated in the previous ten years under such plans, exceed five per cent. of the then equity share capital of the Company.

For these purposes, shares are allocated when rights to acquire or obtain them are granted and otherwise when they are issued or transferred. Rights which lapse, by reason of non-exercise or otherwise, cease to count. No account is taken of shares which are acquired by purchase in the market (rather than by subscription or from the treasury) and no account is taken of shares which an employee purchases at market value using his own funds.

In calculating these limits, account will be taken of United Utilities Shares allocated under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans. Such allocations will be deemed to have been allocated under the corresponding United Utilities Group Employee Share Plan and, in the case of the Share Option Plans (other than the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999), as if they had been granted under the Performance Share Plan. Where options or awards under those plans are replaced by options or awards over Ordinary Shares, the replacement options and awards will be deemed to have been allocated when the original options and awards were granted.

Listing

Any Ordinary Shares allotted under the United Utilities Group Employee Plans will rank pari passu with other Ordinary Shares then in issue (except for rights arising by reference to a record date prior to their allotment). An application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for any new shares issued to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for permission to trade in those shares.

Variation of capital

In the event of a variation in the share capital of United Utilities Group or in such other circumstances as the Committee considers appropriate, options and awards may be adjusted in such manner as the Committee considers appropriate.

Benefits – non-pensionable

Benefits under the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans will not form part of a participant's remuneration for pension purposes.

Amendments

The Committee may amend the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans, or the terms or awards, to take account of changes to any applicable legislation or to obtain or maintain favourable tax, exchange control or regulatory treatment for participants or for any company in the Group.

Except as described above or for amendments designed to ease the administration of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans, no amendment which is to the advantage of employees or participants may be made, without the prior approval of the Company in general meeting, to those provisions dealing with eligibility, individual or scheme limits, the terms of options or awards, the adjustment of options or awards or the power of amendment.

(B) The Sharesave Scheme

Eligibility

All UK employees of the Company and participating companies who have been employed for a minimum period fixed by the Committee will be entitled to participate in the Sharesave Scheme. In addition, the Committee may permit other employees to participate.

Participating companies may include joint venture companies in which the Group is a shareholder and employees of subsidiaries of such joint ventures.

Options

Options will entitle the participant to acquire Ordinary Shares.

No payment will be required for the grant of an option.

Options will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing

Invitations to apply for options may be issued at the following times: the 42 days after the Sharesave Scheme is approved by HM Revenue & Customs; the 42 days after the Company announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent options being granted during either of the previous two periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist.

Options may not be granted after 1 July 2018.

Savings contracts

To participate in the Sharesave Scheme, an eligible employee must enter into an HM Treasury approved savings contract with an appropriate bank or building society, under which the employee agrees to make monthly contributions for a period of either three or five years. The maximum monthly saving allowed under all savings contracts is £250. Employees who have chosen a five-year contract will have the choice of keeping their savings in their account for an additional two years in order to benefit from the seven-year bonus rates.

A tax-free bonus is payable by the savings institution at the end of the savings period (depending upon the length of the savings contract chosen).

Individual limit

An option will be over such number of Ordinary Shares as have an aggregate exercise price as nearly as possible equal to, but not exceeding, the expected repayment proceeds of the relevant savings contract.

Exercise price

The exercise price may not be less than 80 per cent. of either the average of the middle-market quotations for an Ordinary Share for the three dealing days immediately preceding the date upon which invitations to apply for options are issued to employees or the middle-market quotation on such other day as HM Revenue & Customs may agree.

Exercise of options

An option will normally only be exercisable for a period of six months commencing on the completion of the related savings contract (normally three, five or seven years after its commencement). An option will normally lapse if the employee leaves, but in certain circumstances (such as injury, disability or redundancy), early exercise may be possible.

Change of control etc

In the event of a change of control, a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding-up of the Company, participants may exercise their options. Participants may also be able to exchange their options for options over shares in the acquiring company.

(C) The Share Incentive Plan

Eligibility

All UK employees (including executive directors) of the Company and any participating company having completed a qualifying period of employment are eligible to become a participant of the Share Incentive Plan.

Participating companies may include joint venture companies in which the Group is a shareholder and employees of subsidiaries of such joint ventures.

Awards

Awards under the Share Incentive Plan may take one of three forms:

Free shares: these are Ordinary Shares awarded for no consideration up to a maximum market value of £3,000 in any tax year. Free shares must be held in trust for three years. The Company may specify that all free shares awarded at the same time must be held for up to five years.

If a participant leaves his employment, his free shares will be withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan. However, there will be PAYE and national insurance liabilities if he leaves within five years of the award in circumstances other than by reason of his death or on account of injury, disability, redundancy or retirement or because the subsidiary which employs him or the business in which he is employed is sold.

Partnership shares: these are Ordinary Shares which the participant purchases out of his pre-tax salary up to a maximum of either £125 or 10 per cent. of his salary, whichever is the lower figure. The Company may impose a lower limit in relation to any particular award.

Participants may withdraw their partnership shares from the Share Incentive Plan at any time and the partnership shares will be withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan if the participant leaves employment. There are PAYE and national insurance liabilities when partnership shares are withdrawn within five years of their purchase, unless this is because the participant has left employment for one of the good leaver reasons described above.

Matching shares: these are Ordinary Shares which may be awarded free of charge to participants who have bought partnership shares. The number of matching shares awarded will be based on the number of partnership shares bought by the participant, up to a maximum of two matching shares for each partnership share bought. Matching shares are treated in the same way as free shares and are subject to the same provisions for holding periods and forfeiture as free shares, but, in addition, it may be stipulated that, if a participant withdraws his partnership shares within three years after they were bought, his matching shares are forfeited. The tax consequences of matching shares being withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan are the same as for free shares.

Dividend shares

Participants may be required to invest, or offered the choice of investing, cash dividends in Ordinary Shares. The dividend shares must be held in the Share Incentive Plan for three years except that they must be withdrawn on the participant leaving employment. There will be income tax payable if the dividend shares are withdrawn within three years of their purchase, unless this is because the participant has left employment for one of the good leaver reasons described above.

Timing

Awards may not be made after 1 July 2018.

Voting rights

Participants may direct the trustees of the Share Incentive Plan how to exercise the voting rights attributable to their shares in the plan.

Change of control etc

In the event of a general offer being made to shareholders, or a rights or capitalisation issue, participants will be able to direct the trustees how to act on their behalf.

(D) The Performance Share PlanEligibility

All employees and directors (other than non-executive directors) of the Company and any of its subsidiaries will be eligible to participate at the discretion of the Committee.

Awards

Awards will take the form of deferred rights to receive (or to acquire for no cost) Ordinary Shares.

No payment will be required for an award.

Awards will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing of awards

Awards may be made at any of the following times: the 42 days following the approval of the plan by United Utilities' shareholders; the 42 days after the Company announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent awards from being granted during either of the previous periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist. Awards will be made by the Trustee (the "Trustee") of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust on the recommendation of the Committee.

No awards will be granted after 1 July 2018.

Dividend enhancement

If a dividend or other distribution is made by the Company at any time during the period commencing at the beginning of the performance period relating to an award and ending on the date of vesting, there will be notionally added to the number of Ordinary Shares subject to the award such number of whole Ordinary Shares as could have been acquired with a sum equal to the aggregate cash amount of such dividend or distribution attributable to the Ordinary Shares under the award.

Any Ordinary Shares notionally added in this way to an award are referred to as 'Dividend Equivalent Shares'.

Performance conditions

Each award will be subject to a performance condition which, in normal circumstances, will determine whether or not the award vests. Performance conditions will be disclosed in the Company's Annual Report and Accounts in each year.

Individual limits

Other than in circumstances determined by the Committee to be exceptional, the market value of Ordinary Shares awarded under the Performance Share Plan in any financial year to any individual may not exceed 100 per cent. of his or her annual salary (excluding benefits in kind).

Vesting of awards

In normal circumstances after the end of the performance period, the Committee will notify participants and the Trustee of the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. To the extent to which the performance conditions have not been satisfied, the award shall lapse.

Where the award is in the form of a right to receive Ordinary Shares, the vested Ordinary Shares (and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) will be transferred to the participant within 28 days after vesting. Where the award is in the form of a right to acquire the vested Ordinary Shares (and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares), the participant may exercise that right on one occasion only in the three months after vesting.

Termination of employment

Awards will normally lapse if the participant ceases to be employed within the Group. However, special rules apply if the participant ceases to be employed by reason of normal retirement, early retirement with the consent of the Committee, ill-health, injury, disability, redundancy, the sale of the company or business in which the participant is employed or in other special circumstances as determined by the Trustee with the consent of the Committee. In these cases, the award may vest over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) determined by the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. Where the award takes the form of a right to acquire shares, it may be exercised during such period after vesting as the Trustee may decide. Alternatively (and in the case of death), at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, the award may vest (and be exercised) on termination of employment. In such a case, the award will vest over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) as the Trustee shall determine having regard to the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied over the abbreviated performance period ending with the cessation of employment.

In all circumstances where there is a cessation of employment for one of the reasons mentioned above, the number of shares that vest shall be reduced on the basis of a time apportionment having regard to the proportion of time that has elapsed from the first day of the relevant performance period to the cessation of employment as compared to the applicable unabbreviated performance period.

Change of control

In the event of a change of control or a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding up of the Company, the Trustee may decide that all or part of an award (including any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) may vest if and to the extent that the Trustee, acting on the recommendation of the Committee, considers it fair and reasonable taking into account the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied and such other criteria as the Trustee in its discretion considers relevant. In the event of an offer being made for the Company, the Trustee may similarly determine that awards may vest contingently upon the offer being successful.

(E) The International Plan

The terms of the International Plan are in all material respects similar to the Performance Share Plan except that participants do not have any rights to acquire Ordinary Shares but instead are paid a cash sum equal to the value of the notional shares that vest.

(F) The Matching Plan

Eligibility

All employees and directors (other than non-executive directors) of the Company and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate at the discretion of the Committee.

Awards

Individuals who are invited to participate in the Matching Plan, and who wish to do so, may be required to invest part of their annual bonus in purchasing Ordinary Shares. Alternatively, or in addition, individuals may be invited to elect voluntarily to invest part of their bonus in purchasing such shares. Individuals who accept the invitation to participate will be granted an award over additional Ordinary Shares. The Committee will determine the number of shares over which the award will be granted but it may not exceed twice the number of shares acquired with the bonus that is compulsorily invested and one times the number of shares acquired with the voluntary investment.

Awards will take the form of deferred rights to acquire, for no cost, Ordinary Shares.

Awards will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing of awards

Awards may be made at any of the following times: the 42 days following the approval of the plan by United Utilities' shareholders; the 42 days after the Company announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent awards from being granted during either of the previous periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist. Awards will be made by the Trustee (the "Trustee") of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust upon the recommendation of the Committee.

No awards will be granted after 1 July 2018.

Dividend enhancement

If a dividend or other distribution is made by the Company at any time during the period commencing at the beginning of the performance period relating to an award and ending on the date of vesting, there will be notionally added to the number of Ordinary Shares subject to the award such number of whole Ordinary Shares as could have been acquired with a sum equal to the aggregate cash amount of such dividend or distribution attributable to the Ordinary Shares under award.

Any Ordinary Shares notionally added in this way to an award are referred to as 'Dividend Equivalent Shares'.

Performance conditions

Each award will be subject to a performance condition which, in normal circumstances, will determine whether or not the award vests. Performance conditions will be disclosed in the Company's Annual Report and Accounts each year.

Individual limits

The market value of Ordinary Shares awarded under the Matching Plan in any financial year to an individual may not exceed 100 per cent. of his or her basic salary (excluding benefits in-kind and bonuses) for the previous financial year.

Vesting of awards

In normal circumstances after the end of the performance period, the Committee will notify participants and the Trustee of the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. To the extent to which the performance conditions have not been satisfied, then the award shall lapse.

A participant may exercise his award (to the extent of the vested shares and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) on one occasion only in the three months after vesting.

Termination of employment

An award will normally lapse when a participant ceases to be employed within the Group. However, special rules apply if the participant ceases to be employed by reason of normal retirement, redundancy, injury, disability or ill-health, the sale of a company or the business in which the participant is employed or where the cessation occurs in other special circumstances as determined by the Trustee with the consent of the Committee. In these cases, the award may be exercised over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) determined by the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. Such exercise may occur during such period after vesting as the Trustee may decide. Alternatively, at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, the participant may be permitted to exercise his award during the period of three months following termination of employment. In such case, the exercise of the award may occur over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) as the Trustee shall determine having regard to the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied over the abbreviated performance period ending with the cessation of employment.

In all circumstances where there is a cessation of employment for one of the reasons mentioned above, the number of shares over which the award may be exercised shall be reduced on the basis of a time apportionment having regard to the proportion of time that has elapsed from the first day of the relevant performance period to the cessation of employment as compared to the applicable unabbreviated performance period.

Change of control

In the event of a change of control or a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding up of the Company, all awards may be exercised. In such a circumstance, the award may, at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, be exercised over the shares subject to the award (including any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) but only to the extent the Trustee considers it fair and reasonable, taking into account the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied and such other criteria as the Trustee in its discretion considers relevant. In the event of an offer being made for the Company, the Trustee may similarly determine that awards may vest contingently upon the offer being successful.

10. Board practices

10.1 Compliance with Combined Code

United Utilities has applied the principles and complied with the provisions of the Combined Code.

10.2 Board committees

The Board of United Utilities Group has established, amongst others, the following committees, each of which will be operated with terms of reference that have been approved by the Board and which are substantially in the form of the equivalent terms of reference in place for United Utilities.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee's members are Paul Heiden (chairman since 26 February 2008), Catherine Bell, Norman Broadhurst (chairman until 26 February 2008), David Jones and John McAdam. On taking up the position as Chairman of the Board (assuming he is re-appointed by Shareholders), John McAdam will formally step down from the committee but will be expected to continue to attend its meetings by invitation. The Board is satisfied that Paul Heiden has recent and relevant financial experience and that all members have extensive commercial experience and are independent within the meaning of the Code. Appointments to the committee are made by the Board, on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee in consultation with the Audit Committee chairman. Appointments are initially for a period of up to three years, extendable by no more than two additional three year periods, so long as committee members continue to be deemed to be independent. Notwithstanding the ninth anniversary of his appointment, as part of succession planning it was agreed that Norman Broadhurst should continue as a member of the committee until July 2008, to ensure a smooth handover of the role of chairman to Paul Heiden.

The Audit Committee's principal duties include the following:

- (a) to have primary responsibility for making a recommendation to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditor;
- (b) to keep under review the scope and results of the audit and its effectiveness and the independence and objectivity of the auditor, taking into account relevant UK professional and regulatory requirements;
- (c) to recommend the audit fee to the Board and to establish policies and procedures to pre-approve the engagement of the auditor to provide any audit or non-audit services, and to keep the nature and extent of non-audit services under review;
- (d) to discuss and review the half year and annual financial statements and any formal announcements relating to financial performance before submission to the Board;
- (e) to consider problems and reservations arising from any interim and the final audit and any matters the auditor may wish to raise;
- (f) to review periodically the scope, remit and effectiveness of the internal audit function;
- (g) to review the effectiveness of the Group's internal control systems, to consider reports from management on its monitoring of the system of internal control, to review the Company's statement on internal control systems prior to endorsement by the Board, and to make recommendations to the Board regarding the effectiveness of the Group's internal control systems and to approve the appointment or dismissal of the head of internal audit;
- (h) to review the auditor's management letter and management's response and to consider the major findings of internal investigations and management's response;
- (i) to report to the Board, identifying any matters in respect of which it considers that action or improvement is needed and making recommendations as to steps to be taken; and
- (j) to review arrangements by which staff of the Group may, in confidence, raise concerns about possible improprieties in matters of financial reporting or other matters.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee's members are David Jones, John McAdam, Andrew Pinder and Nick Salmon. All are non-executive Directors determined by the Board to be independent in accordance with the Combined Code. The Remuneration Committee will meet at least twice a year, with a quorum of two members.

The Remuneration Committee's principal duties include the following:

- (a) to make recommendations to the Board on the Group's framework of executive remuneration and its cost;
- (b) to approve for the members of the executive leadership team, the entire individual recruitment terms, remuneration benefits, employment conditions, pension rights, compensation payments and severance terms, individual bonus plans and targets and the subsequent achievement of performance against targets;
- (c) to approve the general recruitment terms, remuneration benefits, employment conditions and severance terms, general incentive and annual and long-term bonus plans and targets for other senior executives;
- (d) to approve the remuneration of the Chairman;
- (e) to propose all new long-term incentive schemes;
- (f) to approve the rules and associated guidelines for the granting of awards under the Company's long-term incentive plans; and
- (g) to assist the Board in reporting to the Company's shareholders on remuneration policies applicable to executive Directors in accordance with the Listing Rules and the Companies Acts.

Nomination Committee

The members of the Nomination Committee are the non-executive Directors, including the Chairman (who is also chairman of the Committee, although the Chairman will not chair the Committee when the Committee deals with the appointment of a successor to the chairmanship) and the Chief Executive. As such, the majority of the members of the committee are non-executive Directors determined by the Board to be independent in accordance with the Combined Code.

The Nomination Committee will meet at least once each year, with a quorum of two members, both of whom must be non-executive Directors. The Nomination Committee considers and makes recommendations to the Board on the composition, balance and membership of the Board.

The Nomination Committee's principal duties include the following:

- (a) to lead the process for Board appointments and to make recommendations to the Board about filling vacancies on the Board, giving full consideration to succession planning for directors and for other senior executives, nominating additional persons to the Board for consideration as directors and the re-election by shareholders of any director under the retirement by rotation provisions in the Company's articles of association;
- (b) to evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the roles and capabilities required for a particular appointment;
- (c) to consider and make recommendations to the Board from time to time on the Board's composition and balance;
- (d) for the appointment of a chairman, the Committee should prepare a job specification, including an assessment of the time commitment expected, recognising the need for availability in the event of crises;
- (e) to review its own performance, constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary for board approval; and
- (f) to review directors' conflict authorisations and make recommendations to the Board from time to time as to whether, due to changing circumstances, the authorisations are appropriate or not, or require amendment.

11. Significant subsidiaries and undertakings and investments

11.1 Significant subsidiaries and undertakings

Upon the Scheme becoming effective, United Utilities Group will become the holding company of the Group, including United Utilities. The following table shows the significant subsidiaries and undertakings of the Group following the implementation of the Scheme, being those companies (other than United Utilities) which United Utilities Group considers will be likely to have significant effect on the assessment of the assets, liabilities, financial position and/or profits and losses of the Group.

Name	Principal activity	Country of incorporation/ registered office	Proportionate holding and voting power held by United Utilities (%)
United Utilities Water PLC	Water and wastewater services network management	Great Britain	100.0
United Utilities Electricity Services Limited	Electricity distribution and related services	Great Britain	100.0
United Utilities Operational Services Limited	Water and wastewater services network management	Great Britain	100.0
United Utilities Networks Limited	Connections and metering	Great Britain	100.0
UUGM Limited	Consulting services and project management	Great Britain	60.0
4Delivery Limited	Consulting services and project management	Great Britain	40.0

11.2 Principal investments

Details of the main investments held by the Group in other undertakings in the four prior financial years and in the current financial year are set out below:

- (i) In June 2005, the Group acquired a 15 per cent. shareholding in Northern Gas Networks Holdings Limited;
- (ii) In February 2006, the Group acquired 391,532,852 ordinary shares in THUS Group as consideration for the sale of the Your Communications business. During the year ended 31 March 2007, the number of shares held in THUS Group was reduced to 39,153,285 as part of a ten for one share consolidation. In February 2007, the Group received a further 2,274,701 shares in THUS Group as a result of the vesting of part of the option received as part of the consideration for the sale of the Your Communications business. In June 2007, the Group disposed of its entire stake in THUS Group; and
- (iii) In March 2003, the Group invested in Manila Water Company Inc of the Philippines and currently holds an 11.7 per cent. shareholding in that company.

The Group has not made any firm material commitments concerning principal investments in progress or any future investments by the Group in the current financial year.

12. Related party transactions

Save as disclosed in the financial information set out in the related party transactions note to the financial statements of United Utilities for the years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007 incorporated by reference into this document, no member of the Group entered into any material transactions with related parties during the financial years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007.

The following transactions were carried out with the Group's associate and joint ventures during the year ended 31 March 2008:

	Sales of services		Purchase of goods and services
	2008	2007	2008	2007
	£m	£m	£m	£m
Joint ventures	130.9	95.3	3.2	3.0
Associate	–	10.2	–	6.2
	Amounts owed by related parties		Amounts owed to related parties
	2008	2007	2008	2007
	£m	£m	£m	£m
Joint ventures	15.0	10.6	0.1	0
Associate	–	1.3	–	0.3

Sales of services to related parties were on the Group's normal trading terms.

The amounts outstanding are unsettled and will be settled in accordance with normal credit terms. No guarantees have been given or received. A £nil provision has been made for doubtful receivables in respect of the amounts owed by related parties (2007: £0.1 million).

United Utilities receives dividend income, pays and receives interest to and from and recharges certain costs to subsidiary undertakings in the normal course of business.

Total dividend income received during the year ended 31 March 2008 amounted to £1,580.7 million (2007: £48.1 million) and total net interest paid during the year was £17.2 million (2007: £4.7 million interest received) and total recharges were £34.6 million (2007: £28.2 million).

In addition, United Utilities also recharges certain costs to its associate in the normal course of business. Total recharges were £nil (2007: £8.6 million) during the period until 19 June 2007 which is the date at which the associate was disposed. There were no amounts outstanding between United Utilities and its associate at 31 March 2007.

Related party receivables and payables are not secured and no guarantees were issued in respect thereof. Balances are settled in accordance with normal credit terms. An allowance for doubtful receivables of £10.1 million (2007: £nil) has been made against amounts owed by subsidiary undertakings. In the year ended 31 March 2008, an expense of £212.1 million was recorded in respect of bad or doubtful receivables due from subsidiary undertakings (2007: £nil).

Information on the remuneration of Directors and is set out in section 8 of this Part X.

The Group has not entered into any material transactions with related parties other than transactions with the parties disclosed above during the period from 1 April 2007 to 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Prospectus.

13. Significant change

There has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of United Utilities since 31 March 2008, being the date to which United Utilities prepared its preliminary results which were announced on 3 June 2008.

Since its incorporation on 8 April 2008, United Utilities Group has not traded and there has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of United Utilities Group since 23 April 2008, the date to which the Accountants' Report contained in Part III was prepared.

14. Litigation

NOSS Consortium ("NOSS"), of which North West Water International Limited ("NWWIL"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Utilities, is a member and the sole remaining active participant, is party to arbitration proceedings in Thailand in relation to a design and construction contract dated 1 November 1993 between NOSS and the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration ("BMA") to build a wastewater treatment plant and network in central Bangkok.

Following disagreements with the engineer (Dorsch Consult) and disputes with the BMA, NOSS served a notice under section 387 of the Thai Civil and Commercial Code on the BMA in November 1997 requiring the BMA to remedy its various breaches of contract. In March 1998 (following the continued failure of the BMA to remedy its breaches) NOSS terminated the contract with the BMA and served a notice of arbitration. NOSS has total claims against the BMA of approximately 6 billion Baht (approximately £83 million). The BMA has counter-claimed for approximately 3.2 billion Baht (approximately £44 million).

Each party has appointed arbitrators, but the arbitration process stalled in 2004 following the arbitrators' failure to agree on the appointment of a third arbitrator. In September 2007, the BMA called a hearing before the Thai Civil Court in an apparent attempt to restart the process. In the event and by agreement the parties appointed the third arbitrator in January 2008. No further steps have so far occurred in the arbitral process since then but it remains possible that the disputes between the parties may proceed to full arbitration in due course.

Save as stated above, during the 12 months preceding the date of this document, neither United Utilities Group nor any member of the Group has been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings nor, as far as the Directors are aware, are any such proceedings pending or threatened by or against United Utilities Group or any member of the Group which have in the recent past had or may have, a significant effect on United Utilities Group's or the Group's financial position or profitability.

15. Material contracts

The following contracts (not being contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business) (i) have been entered into by United Utilities Group or any member of the Group within the two years immediately preceding the date of this document and are, or may be, material to the Group or (ii) contain a provision under which United Utilities Group or any member of the Group has an obligation or entitlement which is material to the Group as at the date of this document:

Sponsors' agreement

On 6 June 2008, an agreement was entered into between United Utilities, United Utilities Group, Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove, whereby Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove agreed to act as joint sponsors to United Utilities Group in connection with the Proposals. Pursuant to this agreement, United Utilities Group and United Utilities have agreed to provide Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove with certain customary indemnities, undertakings and warranties in connection with their role as joint sponsors to United Utilities Group. The indemnities provided by United Utilities Group and United Utilities indemnify Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove against claims made against them or loss suffered or incurred in connection with their role as joint sponsors subject to certain exceptions.

Sale of United Utilities Electricity

Pursuant to an agreement between United Utilities North West and North West Electricity Networks dated 23 November 2007, North West Electricity Networks acquired United Utilities Electricity (now called Electricity North West Limited), United Utilities' electricity distribution subsidiary, for a total enterprise value of £1,782 million (comprising £1,140 million cash consideration and £642 million in net debt at fair value assumed by North West Electricity Networks) (the "UUE Share Purchase Agreement"). The transaction completed on 19 December 2007.

Under the UUE Share Purchase Agreement, United Utilities North West gave certain warranties to North West Electricity Networks which are usual for a transaction of this nature. United Utilities North West's aggregate liability under the warranties and the tax covenant is capped at £850 million. In addition, United Utilities North West is liable only where any loss with respect to an individual matter exceeds (i) £150,000 in the case of the warranties or (ii) £15,000 in the case of the tax warranties and tax covenant (but once the aggregate amount of all claims under the tax warranties and tax covenant has exceeded £150,000 then claims for less than £15,000 are permitted), and the aggregate loss exceeds (i) £15 million, in the case of the warranties or (ii) £150,000 in the case of the tax warranties and tax covenant.

North West Electricity Networks has certain specified time periods within which claims for breach of the UUE Share Purchase Agreement can be made. North West Electricity Networks can bring a claim for breach of the warranties within 18 months from the completion date and for breach of the tax warranties or tax covenant, not later than the date that falls six calendar years after the end of the accounting period in which completion occurred.

The UUE Share Purchase Agreement restricts the Group from soliciting key employees of United Utilities Electricity on or before 31 March 2010.

Sale of Vertex

Pursuant to an agreement between United Utilities and VTX Bidco Limited ("VTX") (a company owned by a consortium of US-based private equity firms led by Oak Hill Capital Partners and also including GenNx360 and Knox Lawrence International) dated 15 January 2007, VTX acquired Vertex, United Utilities' business process outsourcing subsidiary, for an initial consideration of £217.5 million (comprising cash, the repayment of intra-group debt and the retention by VTX of certain liabilities of Vertex) (the "Vertex Share Purchase Agreement"). Following change of control approval by the Financial Services Authority, the transaction completed on 26 March 2007.

Under the Vertex Share Purchase Agreement, United Utilities gave certain warranties to VTX which are usual for a transaction of this nature. United Utilities' aggregate liability under the warranties and the tax covenant is capped at £144,463,370. In addition, United Utilities is liable only where any loss under the warranties or tax covenant with respect to an individual matter exceeds £50,000 and the aggregate loss exceeds £1 million (in which case only the excess is recoverable).

VTX has certain specified time periods within which claims for breach of the Vertex Share Purchase Agreement can be made. VTX can bring a claim for breach of the warranties within 18 months from the completion date and for breach of the tax warranties or tax covenant, not later than 30 business days after the date that falls six calendar years after the end of the accounting period in which completion occurred.

The Vertex Share Purchase Agreement restricts the Group from carrying on a competing business to Vertex in the United Kingdom, the United States of America and Canada and from soliciting key employees, customers or suppliers of Vertex on or before 25 September 2008.

Sale of shares in THUS Group

Pursuant to an agreement dated 20 June 2007 (the "Placing Agreement"), United Utilities appointed HSBC Bank plc and Citigroup Global Markets UK Equity Limited as placing agents to conduct a share placing to institutional investors of its 41,427,986 shares in THUS Group. As announced by United Utilities on 20 June 2007, the shares were subsequently placed at a price of 183p per share. Under the Placing Agreement, United Utilities gave certain warranties and representations which are usual for a transaction of this nature.

Financing arrangements

United Utilities, United Utilities Electricity and North West Water Finance PLC (which was subsequently replaced by United Utilities Water) established an unlisted Euro Commercial Paper Programme ("ECPP") in March 1998. The aggregate principal amount of the notes outstanding at any one time under ECPP may not exceed US$1,500,000,000 or its equivalent in alternative currencies. Under the ECPP the notes may only mature after seven but not more than 365 days (364 days for Sterling denominated notes) from issue. The programme amount may be increased from time to time. United Utilities Electricity ceased to be an issuer under the ECPP in December 2007. As at 31 March 2008, no notes were outstanding under the ECPP.

Indenture between United Utilities and HSBC Bank USA (formerly Marine Midland Bank) as Trustee, dated 28 July 1998 constituting US$ 400,000,000 6.875 per cent. Notes due 15 August 2028.

Indenture between United Utilities and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, dated 17 June 2003 constituting US$ 250,000,000 4.55 per cent. Notes due 17 June 2018 and US$ 350,000,000 5.375 per cent. Notes due 1 February 2019.

United Utilities, United Utilities Electricity (under its then name of NORWEB plc and which subsequently ceased to be an issuer under the EMTN Programme) and United Utilities Water (under its then name North West Water Limited) established a Euro Medium Term Note Programme ("EMTN Programme") by way of a Trust Deed dated 13 October 1998 and superseded from time to time. The aggregate principal amount of the notes (the "Notes") outstanding at any one time under the EMTN Programme may not exceed EUR 7,000,000,000 in nominal amount or its equivalent in other currencies calculated in a prescribed manner. The Notes may be issued in such denominations as may be agreed between the relevant issuer and the relevant dealer save that each Note admitted to trading on a regulated market within the European Economic Area or offered to the public in a Member State of the European Economic Area in circumstances which required the publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Directive will be EUR 50,000 (or the equivalent amount in an alternative currency). The EMTN Programme amount may be increased from time to time. United Utilities Electricity ceased to be an issuer under the EMTN in December 2007. As at 31 March 2008, a total of EUR 4,181,567,615.00 of Notes were outstanding under the EMTN Programme (converted at exchange rate fixed on issuance).

16. Consents

Deloitte & Touche LLP has given and has not withdrawn its written consent to the inclusion in this Prospectus of its reports in Parts III and V and the references thereto and of its name in the form and context in which they appear and has authorised the contents of its reports for the purposes of item 5.5.3R(2)(f) of the Prospectus Rules.

JPMorgan Cazenove has given and not withdrawn its consent to the inclusion in the Prospectus of its name in the form and context in which it appears.

Deutsche Bank has given and not withdrawn its consent to the inclusion in this Prospectus of its name in the form and context in which it appears.

17. Miscellaneous

The total expenses of, or incidental to, the Proposals are estimated to be approximately £6.4 million.

Deloitte & Touche LLP whose registered office is at Stonecutter Court, 1 Stonecutter Street, London EC4A 4TR are the auditors of United Utilities Group and have been the only auditors of United Utilities Group since its incorporation. Deloitte & Touche LLP is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

Deloitte & Touche LLP whose registered office is at Stonecutter Court, 1 Stonecutter Street, London, EC4A 4TR are the auditors of United Utilities and audited the financial statements of United Utilities for the three financial years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007. The reports in respect of the financial statements for United Utilities for the three financial years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007, respectively were unqualified and did not contain a statement under section 237(2) or (3) of the Companies Act 1985. Deloitte & Touche LLP is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

18. Third party information

Where information has been sourced from a third party, United Utilities Group confirms that the information has been accurately reproduced and, as far as United Utilities Group is aware and able to ascertain from information published by that third party, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading. Where third party information has been used, the source of such information has been identified wherever it appears in this document.

19. Documents available for inspection

Copies of the following documents may be inspected at the registered office of United Utilities Group, Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP and the offices of Slaughter and May, One Bunhill Row, London, EC1Y 8YY during normal business hours on any weekday (Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays excepted) until close of business on the Scheme Effective Date and will also be available for inspection for at least 15 minutes before and during the Court Meeting and the General Meeting:

- (a) the Memorandum of Association of United Utilities and the United Utilities Articles in their current form;
- (b) the amendments of the United Utilities Articles proposed at the General Meeting;
- (c) the Memorandum of Association of United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Articles;
- (d) the reports of Deloitte & Touche LLP set out in Parts III and V of this document;
- (e) the audited consolidated accounts of United Utilities for the three years ended 31 March 2005, 2006 and 2007;
- (f) the preliminary results announcement of United Utilities for the year ended 31 March 2008;
- (g) the Directors' service contracts and letters of appointment referred to in sections 8.1 and 8.2 respectively of this Part X;
- (h) the material contracts referred to in section 15 of this Part X;
- (i) the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans;
- (j) the written consents referred to in section 16 of this Part X;
- (k) this Prospectus; and
- (l) the Circular.

20. Documents incorporated by reference

The table below sets out the documents which are incorporated by reference into this document and which are available for inspection as set out in section 19 above:

Information incorporated by reference into this document	Location of incorporation into this document	Page numbers in this document
United Utilities' Annual Report and Accounts 2005, including United Utilities' financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2005, the notes and the auditors' report thereon, pages 55 to 92 (inclusive)	Part IV (Historical information relating to United Utilities)	62
United Utilities' Annual Report and Accounts 2006, including United Utilities' financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2006, the notes and the auditors' report thereon, pages 63 to 114 (inclusive)	Part IV (Historical information relating to United Utilities)	61 and 62

Information incorporated by reference into this document	Location of incorporation into this document	Page number in this document
United Utilities' Annual Report and Accounts 2007, including United Utilities' financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2007, the notes and the auditors' report thereon, pages 69 to 118 (inclusive)	Part IV (Historical information relating to United Utilities)	61
United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008	Part IV (Historical information relating to United Utilities)	62

21. Explanation of underlying profit

In considering the Group's results, the Directors have adjusted the Group's statutory measures for fair value movements on debt and derivative instruments and those significant items identified as non-recurring. Operating profit and profit before taxation from continuing operations are reconciled to underlying operating profit from continuing operations and underlying profit before taxation from continuing operations as follows:

Operating profit for continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2008

	Regulated £m	Non-regulated £m	Other £m	Total £m
Operating profit per published results	611.6	50.6	1.0	663.2
Restructuring costs	2.6	11.6	(0.2)	14.0
Underlying operating profit	614.2	62.2	0.8	677.2

Operating profit for continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2007

(Re-presented)	Regulated £m	Non-regulated £m	Other £m	Total £m
Operating profit/(loss) per published results	581.0	62.6	(1.5)	642.1
Restructuring costs	5.3	0.3	5.0	10.6
Settlement claims ¹	(27.6)	(3.0)	–	(30.6)
Ofwat transfer pricing fine	8.5	–	–	8.5
Total adjustments	(13.8)	(2.7)	5.0	(11.5)
Underlying operating profit	567.2	59.9	3.5	630.6

Profit before taxation for continuing operations

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Profit before taxation per published results	478.3	502.3
Operating profit adjustments (see above)	14.0	(11.5)
Fair value loss/(gain) on debt and derivative instruments	42.7	(26.0)
Interest on swaps and interest on debt under fair value option	(41.7)	(57.3)
Interest associated with cash proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity ²	(17.7)	–
Underlying profit before taxation	475.6	407.5

Notes

- During the year ended 31 March 2007, the Group's regulated and non-regulated activities benefited from one-off credits worth £27.6 million and £3.0 million respectively. These credits were in respect of settlement of claims made by the Group against contractors and the end of the statutory period of potential claims against the Group. Although such claims are a regular occurrence in the ongoing business of the Group, these particular claims were unusual in size.
- The interest associated with the cash proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity has been deducted to provide a more representative view of underlying performance. Since the Group intends to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders (as described in this document), the cash proceeds from the sale are expected to result in a short term net debt and interest reduction.

Dated 6 June 2008

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply throughout this document unless the context requires otherwise.

“Admission”	means the admission of the Ordinary Shares to the Official List in accordance with the Listing Rules and to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market for listed securities in accordance with the Admission and Disclosure Standards;
“Admission and Disclosure Standards”	means the requirements contained in the publication ‘Admission and Disclosure Standards’ dated April 2002 and issued by the London Stock Exchange (as amended from time to time) containing, inter alia , the admission requirements to be observed by companies seeking admission to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market for listed securities;
“ADR”	means an American depositary receipt;
“ADS”	means an American depositary share;
“Alternative 1”	means the Initial B Share Redemption alternative;
“Alternative 2”	means the B Share Dividend alternative;
“Alternative 3”	means the Final B Share Redemption alternative;
“B Share Alternatives”	means the alternatives of the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend and/or the Final B Share Redemption which are available to Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) in connection with the B Shares;
“B Share Continuing Dividend”	means the dividend to be paid on each B Share to Shareholders electing for Alternative 3 on such B Shares, described in section 1.3 of Part VIII of this document;
“B Share Dividend”	means the dividend of 170 pence to be paid on each B Share to Shareholders electing for Alternative 2 on such B Shares, as described in section 1.2 of Part VIII of this document;
“B Shares”	means the B shares of 170 pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme and carrying the rights and restrictions summarised in section 1 of Part VIII of this document;
“Board”	means the Board of Directors of United Utilities or the Board of Directors of United Utilities Group, from time to time as the context may require, or a duly constituted committee thereof;
“Business Day”	means a day (excluding Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday) on which banks generally are open for business in the City of London for the transaction of normal banking business;
“Circular”	means the circular dated the same date as this Prospectus, sent to Shareholders containing details of the Proposals;

“Class A Shares”	means the redeemable class A shares of one pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted pro rata to holders of Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) upon capitalisation of the merger reserve created upon the Scheme becoming effective and which are to be cancelled as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital;
“Closing Price”	means the closing middle market price of a relevant share as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List;
“Companies Acts”	means the Companies Act 1985 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force and any provisions of the Companies Act 2006 for the time being in force;
“Company”	means United Utilities Group PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 06559020;
“Court”	means the High Court of Justice of England and Wales;
“Court Hearing”	means the hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and confirm the reduction of capital of United Utilities involved in the Scheme;
“Court Meeting”	means the meeting of holders of United Utilities Shares convened for 1 July 2008 by order of the Court pursuant to section 896 of the Companies Act 2006 to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Scheme, and any adjournment of that meeting;
“CREST”	means the system for the paperless settlement of trades in securities and the holding of uncertificated securities operated by Euroclear in accordance with the CREST Regulations;
“CREST Regulations”	means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/3755);
“Deferred Shares”	means the class of shares resulting from the re-classification of B Shares on which the B Share Dividend is paid, carrying the rights and restrictions summarised in section 2 of Part VIII of this document;
“DEFRA”	means the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs;
“Depositary”	means JP Morgan Chase Bank N.A. in its capacity as (i) the depositary under the United Utilities Deposit Agreement or, as the case may be, (ii) the depositary under the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement;
“Deutsche Bank”	means Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch;
“Directors”	means the directors of United Utilities, or the directors of United Utilities Group, as the context may require, and whose names are set out on page 22 of this document;

“Disclosure and Transparency Rules”	means the disclosure and transparency rules of the Financial Services Authority made under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as amended from time to time;
“Euroclear”	means Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited;
“Final B Share Redemption”	means the redemption of the B Shares on the Final B Share Redemption Date for a redemption amount of 170 pence per share and the cancellation of such B Shares;
“Final B Share Redemption Date”	means the date on which the Final B Share Redemption shall be made, expected to be 14 April 2009;
“Form of Election”	means in relation to the B Shares the form of election by which a Shareholder (other than a Restricted Overseas Shareholder) may choose one of the alternatives for receipt of the Return of Capital;
“General Meeting”	means the general meeting of United Utilities convened for 1 July 2008, to consider and, if thought fit, approve, inter alia , a special resolution required to give effect to the Scheme, and any adjournment of that meeting;
“Group”	means before the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities and its subsidiary undertakings (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include United Utilities Group) and, from the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities Group and its subsidiary undertakings (which will include United Utilities);
“holder”	means a registered holder, and includes any person(s) entitled by transmission;
“IDoK”	means an Interim Determination of a company’s K factor, a mechanism for adjusting the price limit during a five-year review period as more fully explained in section 4 of Part IX of this document;
“IFRS”	means International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted for use in the European Union;
“in certificated form”	means in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security which is not in uncertificated form;
“Initial B Share Redemption”	means the redemption of the B Shares on the Initial B Share Redemption Date for a redemption amount of 170 pence per share and the cancellation of such B Shares;
“Initial B Share Redemption Date”	means the date on which the Initial B Share Redemption is made, expected to be 11 August 2008;
“Interest Rate”	means the rate per annum equivalent to 75 per cent. of LIBOR or, if LIBOR cannot be established on 11 August 2008, the Reserve Interest Rate;
“JPMorgan Cazenove”	means JPMorgan Cazenove Limited;

“LIBOR”	means the British Bankers’ Association Interest Settlement Rate for eight month sterling deposits as of 11:00 a.m. London time on 11 August 2008;
“Listing Rules”	means the rules and regulations of the Financial Services Authority made under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as amended from time to time;
“London Stock Exchange”	means London Stock Exchange plc or any recognised investment exchange for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which may take over the function of the London Stock Exchange plc;
“North West Electricity Networks”	means North West Electricity Networks Limited;
“NZ Shareholders”	means Shareholders who have an address in New Zealand on United Utilities’ register of members;
“Official List”	means the list maintained by the UKLA pursuant to Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
“Ofwat”	means the Water Services Regulation Authority;
“Ordinary Shares”	means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) prior to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, the ordinary shares of 500 pence each (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme; and (B) subsequent to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, the ordinary shares with a nominal value of five pence each (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) in the capital of United Utilities Group;
“Overseas Shareholder”	means a Shareholder who is resident in, or a citizen or national of, any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom;
“penny”, “pence”, “p”, “£” or “pounds sterling”	means the lawful currency of the United Kingdom;
“Proposals”	means the proposed reorganisation of the Group involving the Scheme, the subsequent United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and the Return of Capital;
“Prospectus”	means this document;
“Prospectus Rules”	means the rules and regulations made by the Financial Services Authority pursuant to Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
“Redeemable Preference Shares”	means the redeemable non-voting preference shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group;

“Reserve Interest Rate”	means 75 per cent. of such rate of interest as United Utilities Group shall determine on the basis of quotations made for eight month deposits of £1,000,000 in any interbank market or markets as United Utilities Group may select on 11 August 2008;
“Restricted Overseas Shareholders”	means US Shareholders and NZ Shareholders;
“Return of Capital”	means the return of 170 pence per United Utilities Share by way of the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend or Final B Share Redemption;
“Scheme”	means the proposed scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 between United Utilities and holders of United Utilities Shares including any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the Court, details of which are set out in the Circular;
“Scheme Effective Date”	means the date on which the Scheme becomes effective in accordance with its terms, expected to be 28 July 2008;
“Scheme Record Date”	means the Business Day immediately preceding the Scheme Effective Date;
“Scheme Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on the Scheme Record Date;
“Scheme Voting Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, 6:00 p.m. on the second day before the date of such adjourned meeting;
“SEC”	means the US Securities and Exchange Commission;
“Securities Act” or “US Securities Act”	means the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;
“Senior Manager”	means an individual listed in section 5.1(B) of Part X;
“Shareholder”	means a registered holder of United Utilities Shares or of Ordinary Shares, as the context may require;
“Share Option Plans”	means the United Utilities Executive (Approved and Unapproved) Share Option Schemes, the United Utilities (Approved and Unapproved) Share Option Plans 1999 and the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999;
“Subscriber Ordinary Shares”	means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group whose rights will be deferred upon the Scheme becoming effective;
“THUS Group”	means THUS Group plc;
“TTE instruction”	means a Transfer to Escrow instruction to be used by Shareholders holding their United Utilities Shares in CREST to enable them to choose one of the B Share Alternatives;
“UK” or “United Kingdom”	means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;
“UKLA” or “UK Listing Authority”	means the Financial Services Authority acting in its capacity as the competent authority for the purposes of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;

“uncertificated” or “in uncertificated form”	means in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security title to which is recorded on the relevant register of the share or security concerned as being held in uncertificated form in CREST and title to which, by virtue of the CREST Regulations, may be transferred by means of CREST;
“United Utilities”	means United Utilities PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 02366616;
“United Utilities ADR”	means an ADR evidencing United Utilities ADSs;
“United Utilities ADS”	means an ADS, representing two United Utilities Shares, issued by the Depositary in accordance with the provisions of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement;
“United Utilities Articles”	means the articles of association of United Utilities as adopted or amended from time to time;
“United Utilities Contract Solutions”	means United Utilities Contract Solutions Limited;
“United Utilities Deposit Agreement”	means the deposit agreement dated 9 June 2006 as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated 2 June 2007 between United Utilities, the Depositary and holders from time to time of United Utilities ADRs issued under it;
“United Utilities Electricity”	means United Utilities Electricity PLC, now called Electricity North West Limited;
“United Utilities Electricity Services”	means United Utilities Electricity Services Limited;
“United Utilities Employee Share Plans”	means the Share Option Plans, the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan, the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities PLC International Plan and the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan;
“United Utilities Final Dividend”	means the dividend of 31.47 pence per United Utilities Share to be paid to holders of United Utilities Shares on the register of members of United Utilities at the close of business on 27 June 2008;
“United Utilities Group” or the “Company”	means United Utilities Group PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 06559020;
“United Utilities Group ADR”	means an ADR evidencing United Utilities Group ADSs;
“United Utilities Group ADS”	means an ADS, representing two Ordinary Shares, issued by the Depositary in accordance with the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement;
“United Utilities Group Articles”	means the articles of association of United Utilities Group as adopted or amended from time to time;
“United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement”	means the deposit agreement expected to take effect as of the Scheme Effective Date between United Utilities Group, the Depositary and holders from time to time of United Utilities Group ADSs issued under it;

“United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans”	means the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme, the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan;
“United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital”	means the proposed reduction of capital of United Utilities Group under section 135 of the Companies Act 1985;
“United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on the Business Day immediately preceding the date of the Court hearing of the claim form to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital;
“United Utilities North West”	means United Utilities North West PLC;
“United Utilities Property Solutions”	means United Utilities Property Solutions Limited;
“United Utilities Shares”	means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities;
“United Utilities Water”	means United Utilities Water PLC;
“US” or “United States”	means the United States of America, its territories and possessions, any state in the United States of America and the District of Columbia and all other areas subject to its jurisdiction;
“US dollars” “US Dollars” or “US$”	means the lawful currency of the United States;
“US Shareholders”	means (i) Shareholders who have an address in the United States on United Utilities’ or United Utilities Group’s register of members and (ii) any person resident in the United States who holds shares in United Utilities or United Utilities Group (including, without limitation, shares now or at any time represented by Amercian depository shares or receipts), including directly or through or as a nominee, and (iii) persons who appear, at any time, to the Directors to fall within paragraph (ii) of this definition of US Shareholders; and
“Vertex”	means Vertex Data Science Limited.

RECEIVED

2008 JUL 24 A 9:23

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

2. The scheme circular as provided to shareholders dated June 6, 2008

THIS DOCUMENT IS IMPORTANT AND REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION. Part II contains an explanatory statement in compliance with section 897 of the Companies Act 2006. If you are in any doubt as to the action you should take, you are recommended to seek your own personal financial advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser who, if you are in the United Kingdom, is duly authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or, if you are not in the United Kingdom, from another appropriately authorised independent financial adviser.

If you have sold or otherwise transferred all of your United Utilities Shares, please send this document (but not the Forms of Proxy nor the Form of Election, which have been personalised) at once to the purchaser or transferee or to the bank, stockbroker or other agent through whom the sale or transfer was effected, for transmission to the purchaser or transferee. However, such documents should not be forwarded or delivered in or into any jurisdiction in which such act would constitute a violation of the relevant laws in such jurisdiction. If you have sold or otherwise transferred part of your holding in United Utilities Shares, please consult the stockbroker, bank or other agent through or by whom the transfer or sale was effected.

United Utilities PLC

(Incorporated in England and Wales under the Companies Act 1985 with registered number 02366616)

Recommended proposals relating to the introduction of United Utilities Group PLC as the holding company of United Utilities PLC and for the Return of Capital of approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders

and

Notice of Court Meeting and General Meeting

This document should be read as a whole. Your attention is drawn to the letter from the Chairman of United Utilities which is set out in Part I of this document and in which the Board of United Utilities unanimously recommends that you vote in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the Court Meeting and General Meeting referred to below. You should note that the Proposals are conditional, amongst other things, upon the approval by the Shareholders of the resolutions at both the Court Meeting and General Meeting. A letter from Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove explaining the Scheme appears in Part II of this document.

Notices convening the Court Meeting and the General Meeting, each of which will be held at Bridgewater Hall, Lower Mosley Street, Manchester M2 3WS on 1 July 2008, are set out in Parts VIII and IX respectively of this document. The Court Meeting will start at 11:00 a.m. and the General Meeting will start at 11:15 a.m. (or as soon thereafter as the Court Meeting concludes or is adjourned).

A summary of the action to be taken by Shareholders in respect of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting is set out in paragraph 16 of Part II of this document. Shareholders will find enclosed with this document a blue Form of Proxy for use in connection with the Court Meeting and a white Form of Proxy for use in connection with the General Meeting. Whether or not you propose to attend the Court Meeting and/or the General Meeting in person, please complete and sign each of the enclosed Forms of Proxy in accordance with the instructions printed on them and return them to the Company's Registrars, Equiniti Limited, Aspect House, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6DA, as soon as possible, and in any event so as to arrive by no later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting (although the blue Form of Proxy for use at the Court Meeting may be handed to the Company's Registrars or the Chairman immediately prior to the Court Meeting).

If you would like to submit your proxy vote electronically, you can do so by visiting www.sharevote.co.uk. You will need to enter your voting reference numbers, the three numbers quoted on your Forms of Proxy and follow the online instructions. The deadline for receipt of electronic proxies is 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting.

If you hold your United Utilities Shares in CREST, you may appoint a proxy by completing and transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction in accordance with the procedures set out in the CREST Manual so that it is received by the Registrars (under CREST participant ID 7RA01) by no later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting.

The return of completed Forms of Proxy, submitting your proxy vote electronically or transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction will not prevent you from attending either of the meetings and voting in person if you so wish and are so entitled.

Shareholders holding share certificates for their United Utilities Shares should use the Form of Election which accompanies this document to elect how they wish to receive their share of the Return of Capital. The Form of Election must be completed and returned to the Registrars in the pre-paid envelope provided or, by hand during normal business hours only, to Equiniti Limited, Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA as soon as possible and in any event by no later than 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

Shareholders holding United Utilities Shares in CREST should use a TTE instruction through the CREST system to elect how they wish to receive their share of the Return of Capital. TTE instructions can be made after CREST accounts have been credited with B Shares, which is expected to be 28 July 2008. The last time for receipt of TTE instructions from CREST Shareholders is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

Guidance on how to complete your Form of Election and how to use a TTE instruction is set out in paragraph 12 of the "Summary" section of this Circular.

If you do not return your Form of Election or make your TTE instruction by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008, you will be deemed to have chosen to receive your Return of Capital as Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1).

US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will only be permitted to participate in the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2) and may not elect to participate in the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) or the Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3). Holders of United Utilities ADRs and US Shareholders should refer to paragraphs 10 and 11.2 of Part II respectively for further information.

If you are a Shareholder and have any questions about the Proposals, the contents of this document or the completion and return of your Forms of Proxy or the Form of Election, please call Equiniti Limited, United Utilities' Registrars, on 0871 384 2898 (or, if you are calling from outside the United Kingdom, +44 121 415 0269) between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Calls to this number are charged at 8p per minute from a BT landline. Other telephony provider costs may vary. Please note that calls to these numbers may be monitored or recorded, and no advice on the Proposals can be given.

Deutsche Bank, which is authorised under German Banking Law (competent authority: BaFin-Federal Financial Supervising Authority) and with respect to UK commodity derivatives business by the Financial Services Authority and regulated by the Financial Services Authority for the conduct of UK business and JPMorgan Cazenove, which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority in the United Kingdom, are jointly acting as sponsors and financial advisers for United Utilities and United Utilities Group and no-one else in connection with the Proposals and will not be responsible to anyone other than United Utilities and United Utilities Group for providing protections afforded to clients of Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove respectively or providing advice in relation to the Proposals or any other matters described in this document.

Application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for all the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that Admission will become effective and that dealings on the London Stock Exchange in the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008. No application has been made or is currently intended to be made for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to listing or dealing on any other exchange. No application has been or is currently intended to be made for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to trading on the London Stock Exchange or to be admitted to listing or dealing on any other exchange.

The Prospectus relating to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares is expected to be published on or around 6 June 2008. The Prospectus will not be sent to you when published, but it will be possible to obtain a copy of the Prospectus from the United Utilities website (www.unitedutilities.com) or, on request, free of charge from United Utilities' Registrars by telephone on 0871 384 2898 (or from outside the UK on +44 121 415 0269). Calls to this number are charged at 8p per minute from a BT landline. Other telephony provider costs may vary. A copy of the Prospectus will also be available for inspection (i) at the Document Viewing Facility of the Financial Services Authority, 25 North Colonnade, London E14 5HS, (ii) at the offices of Slaughter and May, One Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8YY and (iii) at the registered office of United Utilities and of United Utilities Group (being Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP) up until Admission during normal business hours on any weekday (Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays excepted).

No United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares have been marketed to, nor are any available for purchase by, the public in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in connection with the Admission. This document does not constitute an offer or form part of any offer or invitation to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, or a solicitation of any offer to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares or any other securities in United Utilities or United Utilities Group. This document does not constitute a prospectus equivalent document.

This document has been prepared for the purposes of complying with English law, the Listing Rules and the rules of the London Stock Exchange and the information disclosed herein may not be the same as that which would have been disclosed if this document had been prepared in accordance with the laws of any other jurisdiction. The distribution of this document, the Prospectus and the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law. No action has been taken by United Utilities or United Utilities Group to obtain any approval, authorisation or exemption to permit the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares or the possession or distribution of this document and the Prospectus (or any other publicity material relating to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares) in any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom.

Overseas Shareholders may be affected by the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to the Proposals or the distribution of this document. Persons into whose possession this document comes should inform themselves about and observe any applicable restrictions and legal, exchange control or regulatory requirements in relation to the Proposals, the distribution of this document and the Prospectus. Any failure to comply with such restrictions or requirements may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

The contents of this document should not be construed as legal, financial or tax advice. Shareholders should consult their own legal adviser, financial adviser or tax adviser for legal, financial or tax advice.

The statements contained herein are made as at the date of this document, unless some other time is specified in relation to them, and service of this document shall not give rise to any implication that there has been no change in the facts set forth herein since such date. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a forecast, projection or estimate of the future financial performance of the Group except where otherwise stated.

This document, insofar as it constitutes a financial promotion for the purposes of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, is directed exclusively at persons falling within Article 43 of the Financial Services and Markets Act (Financial Promotion Order 2005) (the "Order") or other persons to whom it may lawfully be communicated in accordance with the Order or any other person to whom it may otherwise lawfully be made.

INFORMATION FOR US SHAREHOLDERS

Neither the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be, and are not required to be, registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission under the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof. Neither the SEC nor any other US federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority has approved or disapproved the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares or passed an opinion on the adequacy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

In the United States, this document is being furnished to Shareholders solely to explain the Proposals and to describe the action recommended to be taken by Shareholders in relation to the Court Meeting and the General Meeting. This document is personal to each Shareholder and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares.

This document is not an offer of securities for sale in the United States. Neither the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares to be issued to Shareholders in connection with the Scheme have been, will be, nor are required to be, registered with the SEC under the US Securities Act, in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act. For the purpose of qualifying for the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act with respect to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme, United Utilities will advise the Court that it will rely on Section 3(a)(10) exemption based on the Court's sanctioning of the Scheme, which will be relied upon by United Utilities as an approval of the Scheme following a hearing on its fairness to Shareholders at which hearing all such Shareholders will be entitled to attend in person or through counsel to support or oppose the sanctioning of the Scheme and with respect to which notification has been or will be given to all such Shareholders.

Enforceability of judgments

United Utilities and United Utilities Group are public limited companies incorporated under the laws of England and Wales. All of the Directors of United Utilities and United Utilities Group are citizens or residents of countries other than the United States. Substantially all of the assets of such persons and a significant proportion of the assets of United Utilities and United Utilities Group are located outside the United States. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon such persons or United Utilities and/or United Utilities Group, or to enforce against them judgments of US courts, including judgments predicated upon civil liabilities under the securities laws of the United States or any state or territory within the United States. There is substantial doubt as to the enforceability in the United Kingdom in original actions or in actions for enforcement of judgments of US courts, based on the civil liability provisions of US federal securities laws.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

General

This document contains certain "forward-looking statements", including statements about current beliefs and expectations of the Directors. These statements typically contain words such as "intends", "expects", "anticipates", "targets", "estimates" and words of similar import. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, may be currently unknown or may be currently unknowable. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, factors set out more fully in the section of this document headed "Risk Factors" as well as the following possibilities: future revenues are lower than expected; competitive pressures in the industry increase; general economic conditions or conditions affecting the industry, whether internationally or in the places the Group does business, are less favourable than expected.

Any forward-looking statements are only made as at the date of this document and, save as required by the UK Listing Authority, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, including, without limitation, the Prospectus Rules, the Listing Rules or the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, neither United Utilities nor United Utilities Group undertakes any obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to any forward-looking statements in this document that may occur due to any change in the Board's expectations or to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document.

Information published by Ofwat

All statements other than statements of historical facts included in any information provided by United Utilities Water PLC ("United Utilities Water") to Ofwat and which may be published by Ofwat (on its website or otherwise) including, without limitation, those regarding United Utilities Water's financial position, business strategy, plans, and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of United Utilities Water and/or United Utilities, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding United Utilities Water's present and future business strategies and the environment in which United Utilities Water will operate in the future and may contain financial modelling based on provisional estimates and assumptions which may be significantly varied. Except as required by the rules of the UK Listing Authority, the London Stock Exchange or applicable law, United Utilities Water and United Utilities expressly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revision to any such forward-looking statements contained therein to reflect any change in United Utilities' or United Utilities Water's expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. No representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility accepted by United Utilities or United Utilities Water as to the accuracy, completeness or adequacy of any such information. Nothing contained in such information is or shall be relied upon as a promise or representation by any of United Utilities, United Utilities Water or any of their affiliates or subsidiaries and they accept no responsibility or liability howsoever arising from the contents of such information or the status or any omissions in such information.

CONTENTS

	Page
EXPECTED TIMETABLE OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS	6
SUMMARY	8
RISK FACTORS	18
PART I LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN	27
PART II EXPLANATORY STATEMENT	33
PART III SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT	49
PART IV RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS ATTACHING TO THE B SHARES AND THE DEFERRED SHARES	56
PART V UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION	60
PART VI ADDITIONAL INFORMATION	64
PART VII DEFINITIONS	80
PART VIII NOTICE OF COURT MEETING	87
PART IX NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING	90

EXPECTED TIMETABLE OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS

All times in this document are references to local time in the United Kingdom unless otherwise stated. The dates given in this document are indicative only and may be subject to change. The dates are based on United Utilities' current expectations and will depend on, amongst other things, the dates upon which the Court sanctions the Scheme, the Scheme becomes effective and the Court confirms the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. In particular, certain Court dates are subject to confirmation by the Court. If the scheduled date of the Court hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme or of the Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is changed, United Utilities will give adequate notice of the change by issuing an announcement through a Regulatory Information Service.

6 June 2008	Publishing and posting of this document to Shareholders
27 June 2008	Record date for United Utilities Final Dividend
11:00 a.m. 29 June 2008	Latest time for receipt of blue Form of Proxy for the Court Meeting ¹
11:15 a.m. 29 June 2008	Latest time for receipt of white Form of Proxy for the General Meeting ²
6:00 p.m. 29 June 2008	Scheme Voting Record Time (in respect of the General Meeting and the Court Meeting) ³
11:00 a.m. 1 July 2008	Court Meeting
11:15 a.m. 1 July 2008	General Meeting ⁴
24 July 2008	Court hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and confirm the capital reduction of United Utilities
11:00 a.m. 25 July 2008	United Utilities Annual General Meeting
25 July 2008	Last day for dealings in United Utilities Shares
25 July 2008	Scheme Record Date
6:00 p.m. 25 July 2008	Scheme Record Time
28 July 2008	Scheme Effective Date
8:00 a.m. 28 July 2008	Delisting of United Utilities Shares, Admission of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, crediting of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares to CREST accounts and dealings in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares commence on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities
28 July 2008	Sale of fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares

1 Blue Forms of Proxy for the Court Meeting not returned by this time may be handed to the Chairman or the Registrars at the Court Meeting prior to the vote being taken.

2 To be valid, the white Form of Proxy for the General Meeting must be lodged at least 48 hours before the time appointed.

3 If either the Court Meeting or the General Meeting is adjourned, the Scheme Voting Record Time for the adjourned meeting will be 6:00 p.m. on the day which is two days before the date of the adjourned meeting.

4 To commence at the time fixed or, if later, immediately following the conclusion or adjournment of the Court Meeting.

30 July 2008	Court hearing of the claim form to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital
31 July 2008	United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital becomes effective
4:30 p.m. 8 August 2008	Latest time for receipt of TTE instructions regarding B Share elections through CREST
4:30 p.m. 8 August 2008	Latest time for receipt of Form of Election
8 August 2008	Record Date for B Share Dividend
8 August 2008	Payment of the United Utilities Final Dividend either by cheque or to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)
11 August 2008	B Share Dividend allocated and relevant B Shares converted into Deferred Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the B Share Dividend
11 August 2008	Initial B Share Redemption and cancellation of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Initial B Share Redemption (and those not returning a valid Form of Election or those not having made a valid TTE instruction by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008)
11 August 2008	Despatch of certificates in respect of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares
11 August 2008	Despatch of cheques or crediting of CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the sale of fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares
By 15 August 2008	Despatch of certificates in respect of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Final B Share Redemption
By 19 August 2008	Despatch of cheques in relation to the B Share Dividend or payment of the B Share Dividend to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)
By 19 August 2008	Despatch of cheques or crediting of CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the Initial B Share Redemption
14 April 2009	Final B Share Redemption and cancellation of relevant B Shares pursuant to valid elections by those electing for the Final B Share Redemption
By 20 April 2009	Despatch of cheques or crediting of CREST accounts to Shareholders in respect of the Final B Share Redemption
By 20 April 2009	Despatch of cheques in relation to the B Share Continuing Dividend or payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend to Shareholders' mandated bank accounts through BACS Direct Credit (as applicable)

SUMMARY

This document explains the steps effected to implement the Return of Capital of approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders. We have prepared this summary to help you understand what is involved in the Proposals. You should read the whole of this document and not rely solely on the summary below.

1. What changes are we proposing?

As part of the Proposals, United Utilities Group will be put in place as the new listed holding company of United Utilities. This will allow United Utilities to implement the Return of Capital of approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders. Upon the Scheme becoming effective, United Utilities Group will own all the shares in the current listed company, United Utilities, and you will hold United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares in United Utilities Group in place of your United Utilities Shares. All the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be admitted to the Official List of the UKLA and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. No application has been or is currently intended to be made for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to trading on the London Stock Exchange.

Under the Scheme, you will receive:

17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares that you hold at the Scheme Record Time
and
one B Share for each United Utilities Share
that you hold at the Scheme Record Time

Any fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold and the net proceeds of the sale remitted to you pro rata to your entitlement.

The Scheme Record Time is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008 (subject to the date on which the Court sanctions the Scheme).

You will not have to pay anything for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares issued to you pursuant to the Scheme.

If the Proposals proceed as currently envisaged, it is expected that dealings in United Utilities Shares will continue until close of business on 25 July 2008 and that Admission of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will become effective, and that dealings in the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will commence, at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

The introduction of United Utilities Group as the holding company of United Utilities will be followed by a reduction of share capital in United Utilities Group by reducing the nominal value of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share from 500 pence (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme). This reduction will create distributable reserves to enable the Return of Capital to take place and for future dividends.

In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme becoming effective which, in order to create further distributable reserves in United Utilities Group, will be capitalised into Class A Shares. Following such capitalisation, the Class A Shares will be allotted pro rata to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) (please note that you will not receive a share certificate in respect of the Class A Shares) and are then to be cancelled on confirmation by the Court as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. This will create further distributable reserves.

As an illustration, based on the Closing Price per United Utilities Share of 748.5 pence and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue, each case on 30 May 2008 (being the last practicable date prior to the posting of this Circular), it is expected that the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital would establish distributable reserves in United Utilities Group of approximately £5,067 million after the Return of Capital.

The actual amount of distributable reserves established will be determined by reference to the Closing Price of a United Utilities Share on or about the Scheme Record Date.

2. Why are we proposing these changes?

In December 2007, United Utilities successfully completed the disposal of United Utilities Electricity, enabling the Group to focus on its much larger water asset base. It was the Board's stated intention that, following the disposal, United Utilities would return the net equity proceeds of the sale to Shareholders. As announced on 29 November 2007, United Utilities is now proposing to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders, equivalent to 170 pence per United Utilities Share. The Return of Capital will be comprised of approximately £1.050 billion of the net equity proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity and a further £450 million from the Group's pre-existing resources. The Return of Capital will help create a more efficient capital structure for the Group.

Under the Companies Acts, a public company requires, amongst other things, "distributable reserves" in order to return cash to shareholders. The introduction of United Utilities Group as the holding company of United Utilities facilitates the Return of Capital and it also provides flexibility within United Utilities Group's capital structure by creating distributable reserves to enable United Utilities Group to pursue the Group's revised dividend policy (as further described in paragraph 6 of Part I of this document). The Board of United Utilities Group will be identical to the current Board of United Utilities and the management and business of the Group will not change as a result of the Proposals.

3. Will there be any change to the value of my shareholding?

You will, subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements, own the same proportion of the ordinary share capital of the Group before and after implementation of the Scheme. However, you will hold fewer United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares than you hold United Utilities Shares due to the issue of the B Shares in order to effect the Return of Capital. There is no reason to believe (subject to normal market movements after the date of this document) that the market value of one United Utilities Group Ordinary Share immediately following Admission would not be approximately equal to the market value of one United Utilities Share immediately beforehand.

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is being effected in order to establish sufficient distributable reserves to undertake the Return of Capital and is not expected to affect the value of your United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares after taking into account the cash returned to you.

4. What if I am an employee and participate in the United Utilities Employee Share Plans?

Holders of options and awards granted under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans will be written to separately. A summary of the impact of the Proposals on outstanding options and awards under those arrangements is set out in paragraph 9 of Part I of this document.

United Utilities Group will adopt the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans on the Scheme becoming effective. The principal terms of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans are described in paragraph 3 of Part VI of this document.

5. What if I own United Utilities ADRs or I am an Overseas Shareholder?

Holders of United Utilities ADRs and Overseas Shareholders should read the additional information set out in paragraphs 10 and 11 of Part II respectively. For regulatory reasons, Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs are not in the same position as other Shareholders in relation to the B Share Alternatives and United Utilities Group considers it unduly onerous to make the B Share Alternatives available to Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs.

US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depositary and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend. Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders, the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

6. Why are you implementing the Proposals by way of the Scheme?

The Scheme is a formal procedure under the Companies Acts and this procedure is commonly used to carry out corporate reorganisations involving the introduction of a new holding company. The Scheme requires the approval of Shareholders and sanction by the Court. If the relevant approvals are obtained, all Shareholders will be bound by the Scheme regardless of whether or how they voted.

7. Why am I being sent this document?

The Proposals require the Shareholders to vote on certain matters. This document contains information to inform your voting decision.

The Prospectus relating to United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares is expected to be published on or around the date of this document. The Prospectus will not be sent to you when published, but it will be possible to obtain a copy of the Prospectus from the United Utilities website (www.unitedutilities.com) or, on request, free of charge from United Utilities' Registrars by telephone on 0871 384 2898 (or from outside the UK +44 121 415 0269). A copy of the Prospectus will also be available for inspection (i) at the Document Viewing Facility of the Financial Services Authority, 25 North Colonnade, London E14 5HS, (ii) at the offices of Slaughter and May, One Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8YY and (iii) at the registered office of United Utilities and of United Utilities Group (being Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington, WA5 3LP) up until Admission during normal business hours on any weekday (Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays excepted).

8. Why are there two shareholder meetings?

There are two shareholder meetings: the Court Meeting and the General Meeting, which are being called for different purposes. The Court Meeting is to seek the approval of Shareholders for the Scheme. The General Meeting will be held immediately after the Court Meeting and will enable Shareholders to vote on various matters required to implement the Scheme, as described in the section entitled "Meetings and consents for the implementation of the Proposals" in paragraph 12 of Part II of this document. Both meetings will be held on 1 July 2008.

9. Do I need to vote?

It is important that as many Shareholders as possible cast their votes either in person or by proxy. This applies to both the Court Meeting and the General Meeting.

In order for the Return of Capital to take place, the Scheme needs to be approved by a majority in number, representing not less than 75 per cent. in value, of those Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at the Court Meeting and the special resolution to approve certain matters to give effect to the Scheme needs to be duly passed at the General Meeting by a majority of not less than 75 per cent. of the votes cast.

YOUR VOTES COUNT. It is important that the maximum number of possible votes are cast at the Court Meeting so as to demonstrate that there is a fair representation of shareholder opinion. You are encouraged to vote at both the Court Meeting and the General Meeting.

If you do not wish, or are unable, to attend the Court Meeting and/or the General Meeting you may appoint a proxy to act on your behalf and vote. Your proxy can be the Chairman of United Utilities. At both the Court Meeting and the General Meeting voting will be by way of a poll. You may appoint your proxy by completing the Forms of Proxy and returning them in accordance with the instructions set out in the section entitled "Action to be taken" in paragraph 16 of Part II of this document and on the relevant Form of Proxy.

You will have been sent a blue Form of Proxy for the Court Meeting and a white Form of Proxy for the General Meeting. Whether or not you propose to attend the Court Meeting and/or the General Meeting in person, you are strongly encouraged to complete, sign and return your Forms of Proxy as soon as possible and in any event no later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting (although the blue Form of Proxy for use at the Court Meeting may be handed to the Company's Registrars or the Chairman immediately prior to the Court Meeting).

If you would like to submit your proxy vote electronically you can do so by visiting www.sharevote.co.uk. You will need to enter your voting reference numbers, the three numbers quoted on your Forms of Proxy and follow the online instructions. The deadline for receipt of electronic proxies is 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting.

If you hold your United Utilities Shares in CREST, you may appoint a proxy by completing and transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction in accordance with the procedures set out in the CREST Manual so that it is received by the Registrars (under CREST participant ID 7RA01) by no later than 48 hours before the time appointed for the relevant meeting.

The return of completed Forms of Proxy, transmitting CREST Proxy Instructions or submitting your proxy vote electronically will not prevent you from attending either of the meetings and voting in person if you so wish and are so entitled.

10. What will I end up with after the Scheme comes into effect?

When the Scheme becomes effective, you will receive:

- (A) 17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares you hold at the Scheme Record Time; and
- (B) one B Share for each United Utilities Share you hold at the Scheme Record Time.

Any fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold and the net proceeds of the sale remitted to you pro rata to your entitlement (see question 11 below).

The Scheme Record Time is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008 (subject to the date on which the Court sanctions the Scheme).

You will only receive 17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares that you hold at the Scheme Record Time as the intention is that, subject to normal market movements, the share price of one United Utilities Group Ordinary Share immediately after Admission should be approximately equal to the share price of one United Utilities Share immediately beforehand. The effect of this will be to reduce the number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares issued under the Scheme from the number of United Utilities Shares to reflect the Return of Capital.

The ratio used for the share conversion has been set by reference to the Closing Price of 748.5 pence per United Utilities Share and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue, in each case on 30 May 2008, being the last practicable date before the posting of this Circular. Depending upon the price of a United Utilities Share shortly before the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme, this ratio may no longer achieve the intention referred to above. If the Directors believe that this is materially the case and the Directors believe this to be in the best interests of United Utilities Group and Shareholders as a whole, steps may be taken to effect either an alteration to the share exchange ratio and/or a consolidation or sub-division of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares by resolution of the existing members of United Utilities Group, which will have substantially the same effect as if the ratio were adjusted. If these steps are taken, notice will be given by issuing an announcement through a Regulatory Information Service.

The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will rank equally and in full for all dividends or distributions made, paid or declared after the Scheme Effective Date.

11. What happens if the number of United Utilities Shares I own is not exactly divisible by 22?

A fractional entitlement to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will arise unless a Shareholder has a holding of United Utilities Shares that is exactly divisible by 22. For example:

Holding of United Utilities Shares	Entitlement to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares	Fractional entitlement (United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares)
10	7	0.73
100	77	0.27
500	386	0.36
999	771	0.95
10,000	7,727	0.27

The fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold in the market on behalf of the relevant Shareholders and the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to those Shareholders pro rata to their fractional entitlement. It is expected that cheques in respect of the proceeds of sale of such fractional entitlements will be despatched together with the share certificates for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or CREST accounts credited with the proceeds, as appropriate, by 11 August 2008.

12. What do I do with my B Shares?

Unless you are a Restricted Overseas Shareholder, you have a choice regarding what you do with your B Shares. You may choose between the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend and the Final B Share Redemption, as discussed below. You may make any one of these choices in respect of each B Share and may therefore make a combination of choices in respect of your entire holding of B Shares. Further information in relation to the rights attaching to the B Shares is contained in paragraph 1 of Part IV of this document. A general guide relating to certain UK tax consequences of receiving United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares under the Scheme is contained in Part V of this document.

Alternative 1: Initial B Share Redemption

Each B Share that you elect to be subject to this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds will be sent to you, or that your CREST account will be credited with the proceeds, by 19 August 2008.

Alternative 2: B Share Dividend

For each B Share that you elect to be subject to this alternative, you will receive a single dividend of 170 pence, following which each such B Share will be reclassified as one Deferred Share. It is expected that payment of your B Share Dividend will be made to your bank account in accordance with your existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, a cheque will be sent to you by 19 August 2008.

Your Deferred Shares will not be listed, will have extremely limited rights and negligible value and will be redeemed in whole or in part at a future date or dates at the discretion of United Utilities Group in each case for an aggregate consideration of one pence. You will not receive share certificates in respect of the Deferred Shares and these will not be credited to your CREST account.

Alternative 3: Final B Share Redemption

Each B Share that you elect to be subject to this alternative, will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Final B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 14 April 2009) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the proceeds will be sent to you, or that your CREST account will be credited with the proceeds, by 20 April 2009.

Whilst you retain B Shares, you will be entitled to the B Share Continuing Dividend. The B Share Continuing Dividend will only be payable to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves and it is therefore not guaranteed.

How to notify United Utilities Group of your chosen B Share Alternative(s)

If you hold a share certificate for your United Utilities Shares:

You should indicate your preferred choice with respect to your B Shares by completing and signing the enclosed Form of Election and returning it to the Registrars in the reply paid envelope to reach them by no later than 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008. If you have not received a Form of Election, please ring the helpline on telephone number 0871 384 2898 or, if calling from outside the UK, on +44 121 415 0269. Calls to this number are charged at 8p per minute from a BT landline. Other telephony provider costs may vary.

When completing your Form of Election:

To choose the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1):

- for all of your B Shares, you do not need to complete your Form of Election (or you may mark an X in Box 1 and sign your Form of Election);
- for some of your B Shares only, enter the number of shares you elect for Alternative 1 in Box 1, complete Box 2 and/or Box 3 (as you choose) and sign your Form of Election; or
- for none of your B Shares, leave Box 1 blank.

To choose the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2):

- for all of your B Shares, mark an X in Box 2 and sign your Form of Election;
- for some of your B Shares only enter the number of shares you elect for Alternative 2 in Box 2, complete Box 1 and/or Box 3 (as you choose) and sign your Form of Election; or
- for none of your B Shares, leave Box 2 blank.

To choose the Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3):

- for all of your B Shares, mark an X in Box 3 and sign your Form of Election;
- for some of your B Shares only enter the number of shares you elect for Alternative 3 in Box 3, complete Box 1 and/or Box 2 (as you choose) and sign your Form of Election; or
- for none of your B Shares, leave Box 3 blank.

The following is the default position where Forms of Election are incorrectly completed:

- If you enter a number or numbers in Boxes 1 to 3, which in total exceed your holding of B Shares at 6:00 p.m. on 8 August 2008, or if you mark an X in more than one Box, or if you mark an X in one or more Boxes and enter a number or numbers in any other Box or Boxes, your election will be disregarded to that extent in the following order:
 - first, your election (if any) in respect of Alternative 3: the Final B Share Redemption;
 - second, your election (if any) in respect of Alternative 2: the B Share Dividend; and
 - third, your election (if any) in respect of Alternative 1: the Initial B Share Redemption.
- If you enter a number in Boxes 1 to 3, which in total is less than your holding of B Shares at 6:00 p.m. on 8 August 2008, the balance of your holding will receive Alternative 1: the Initial B Share Redemption.
- If you have entered an X in one of boxes 1 to 3 but also enter an amount of B Shares in the same Box, you will be deemed to have made an election in respect of all of your B Shares.

In any case, you must return your signed and completed Form of Election so as to be received by the Registrars by no later than 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 either by post in the pre-paid envelope provided or by hand (during normal business hours only) to Equiniti Limited, Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA.

If you do not properly complete and return your Form of Election so as to be received by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008, then, unless the Board otherwise determines, you will be deemed to have chosen the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) for all of your B Shares which means your entire holding of B Shares will be redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008) at 170 pence for each B Share held by you.

US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depository and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2). Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders, the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

Holders of ADRs and Overseas Shareholders should also refer to paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively of Part II of this document.

If you hold your United Utilities Shares in CREST:

You will not be sent a Form of Election. You are able to make an election with respect to your B Shares by way of a TTE instruction through the CREST system after your CREST account has been credited with B Shares on 28 July 2008. The latest time for receipt of TTE instructions from CREST Shareholders is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

If you do not send a valid TTE instruction for settlement by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008, you will be treated as having chosen the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) in respect of all of your B Shares.

To choose the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1):

If you wish to elect for the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) in respect of some or all of your B Shares you should use the following procedure after your CREST account has been credited on 28 July 2008. The prescribed form of election is a TTE instruction. If you are a CREST sponsored member, you should refer to your CREST sponsor before taking action. Your CREST sponsor will be able to confirm details of your participant ID and the member account ID under which your B Shares are held. In addition, only your CREST sponsor will be able to send the TTE instruction to Euroclear in relation to your B Shares.

The TTE instruction must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear's specifications and must contain, in addition to the other information that is required for settlement in CREST, the following details:

- (i) the number of B Shares to which the election relates;
- (ii) the participant ID of the holder of the B Shares;
- (iii) the member account ID of the holder of the B Shares from which B Shares are to be debited;
- (iv) the participant ID of the Registrars. This is 2RA62;
- (v) the member account ID of the Registrars. This is UUBSHS01;
- (vi) the temporary ISIN of the B Shares until the B Share Dividend is allocated and the Initial B Share Redemption is made, expected to be on 11 August 2008, which is GB00B39J5363;
- (vii) the Intended Settlement Date. This must be by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008;

- (viii) the corporate action number. This is allocated by Euroclear and can be found by viewing the relevant corporate action details in CREST; and
- (ix) input with standard delivery instruction priority of 80.

In order for an uncertificated election to be valid, the TTE instruction must comply with the requirements as to authentication and contents set out above and must settle by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

CREST members and (where applicable) their CREST sponsors should note that the last time at which a TTE instruction may settle is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

To choose the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2):

If you wish to elect for the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2) in respect of some or all of your B Shares you should use the following procedure after your CREST account has been credited on 28 July 2008. The prescribed form of election is a TTE instruction. If you are a CREST sponsored member, you should refer to your CREST sponsor before taking action. Your CREST sponsor will be able to confirm details of your participant ID and the member account ID under which your B Shares are held. In addition, only your CREST sponsor will be able to send the TTE instruction to Euroclear in relation to your B Shares.

The TTE instruction must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear's specifications and must contain, in addition to the other information that is required for settlement in CREST, the following details:

- (i) the number of B Shares to which the election relates;
- (ii) the participant ID of the holder of the B Shares;
- (iii) the member account ID of the holder of the B Shares from which B Shares are to be debited;
- (iv) the participant ID of the Registrars. This is 2RA62;
- (v) the member account ID of the Registrars. This is UUBSHS02;
- (vi) the temporary ISIN of the B Shares until the B Share Dividend is allocated and the Initial B Share Redemption is made, expected to be on 11 August 2008 which is GB00B39J5363;
- (vii) the Intended Settlement Date. This must be by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008;
- (viii) the corporate action number. This is allocated by Euroclear and can be found by viewing the relevant corporate action details in CREST; and
- (ix) input with standard delivery instruction priority of 80.

In order for an uncertificated election to be valid, the TTE instruction must comply with the requirements as to authentication and contents set out above and must settle by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

CREST members and (where applicable) their CREST sponsors should note that the last time at which a TTE instruction may settle is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

To choose the Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3):

If you wish to elect for the Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3) in respect of some or all of your B Shares you should use the following procedure after your CREST account has been credited on 28 July 2008. The prescribed form of election is a TTE instruction. If you are a CREST sponsored member, you should refer to your CREST sponsor before taking action. Your CREST sponsor will be able to confirm details of your participant ID and the member account ID under which your B Shares are held. In addition, only your CREST sponsor will be able to send the TTE instruction to Euroclear in relation to your B Shares.

The TTE instruction must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear's specifications and must contain, in addition to the other information that is required for settlement in CREST, the following details:

- (i) the number of B Shares to which the election relates;
- (ii) the participant ID of the holder of the B Shares;

- (iii) the member account ID of the holder of the B Shares from which B Shares are to be debited;
- (iv) the participant ID of the Registrars. This is 2RA62;
- (v) the member account ID of the Registrars. This is UUBSHS03;
- (vi) the temporary ISIN of the B Shares until the B Share Dividend is allocated and the Initial B Share Redemption is made, expected to be on 11 August 2008, which is GB00B39J5363;
- (vii) the Intended Settlement Date. This must be by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008;
- (viii) the corporate action number. This is allocated by Euroclear and can be found by viewing the relevant corporate action details in CREST; and
- (ix) input with standard delivery instruction priority of 80.

In order for an uncertificated election to be valid, the TTE instruction must comply with the requirements as to authentication and contents above and must settle by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

CREST members and (where applicable) their CREST sponsors should note that the last time at which a TTE instruction may settle is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

Forms of Election and TTE instructions (in the case of CREST Shareholders) remain revocable and can be varied (by written notice to the Registrars in accordance with the Form of Election or TTE instruction as applicable) up until 2:00 p.m. on 8 August 2008. If you validly revoke your Form of Election (or TTE instruction in the case of CREST Shareholders) and fail to advise the Registrars of your revised choice you will, unless the Board of United Utilities Group otherwise determines, be deemed to have elected for the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) in respect of all of your B Shares.

Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not receive a Form of Election. For regulatory reasons, Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs are not in the same position as other Shareholders in relation to the B Share Alternatives and United Utilities Group considers it unduly onerous to make the B Share Alternatives available to Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs.

Holders of United Utilities ADRs and Overseas Shareholders should also refer to paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively of Part II of this document.

13. Will I receive dividends on my United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares?

United Utilities Group will follow United Utilities' revised dividend policy (further details of which are set out in paragraph 6 of Part I of this document).

14. If I hold share certificates, what do I do with them?

If you hold share certificates for United Utilities Shares, they will cease to be valid on the Scheme Effective Date. When the relevant share certificates for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares are sent to you, your original share certificates for United Utilities Shares should be destroyed. No share certificates will be issued in respect of the Class A Shares, the B Shares converted into Deferred Shares pursuant to Alternative 2 (B Share Dividend) or redeemed and cancelled pursuant to Alternative 1 (Initial B Share Redemption) or the Deferred Shares. You will receive a B Share certificate only in respect of those B Shares for which you have validly elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption).

15. Will I have to pay any tax as a result of the Proposals?

A summary of the UK tax treatment of the Proposals is set out in Part V. If you are in any doubt about your tax position, you should consult a professional adviser.

16. How is United Utilities Group reducing its capital?

The share capital of United Utilities Group will be reduced by reducing the nominal value of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share from 500 pence (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme).

In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme becoming effective and shortly thereafter, in order to create further distributable reserves in United Utilities Group, the share capital of United Utilities Group will be altered by capitalising the merger reserve and allotting Class A Shares pro rata to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) (please note that you will not receive a share certificate in respect of the Class A Shares) which are then to be cancelled, on confirmation by the Court, as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital.

17. Do I need to take any further action?

It is important that you vote at the Court Meeting and the General Meeting. You are strongly encouraged to complete, sign and return your Forms of Proxy, submit your proxy vote electronically or (if you are a CREST Shareholder) transmit a CREST Proxy Instruction. Furthermore, if you hold United Utilities Shares in certificated form, please complete and return your Form of Election or, if you are a CREST Shareholder, make a TTE instruction as soon as possible. See paragraphs 9 and 12 above for further details.

Your present dividend instructions will continue for United Utilities Group. Payment of the B Share Dividend and the B Share Continuing Dividend to you will be made in accordance with your present dividend instructions. Payment of the Initial B Share Redemption and/or the Final B Share Redemption will be made to you by cheque or, for CREST Shareholders, credited to your CREST account. If you hold your United Utilities Shares in certificated form, then upon receipt of your share certificates for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, your share certificates for United Utilities Shares should be destroyed. See paragraph 14 above for further details.

18. What if I still have questions?

If you have read this document and still have questions, please call Equiniti Limited, United Utilities' Registrars, on telephone number 0871 384 2898 (or +44 121 415 0269 if calling from outside the United Kingdom) between 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Calls to this number are charged at 8p per minute from a BT landline. Other telephony provider costs may vary.

NOTE: For legal reasons, Equiniti Limited will only be able to provide practical information about how to complete the enclosed Forms of Proxy and Form of Election and other information contained in this document and will be unable to give advice on the merits of the Proposals described in this document or to provide legal, financial or taxation advice. For legal, financial or taxation advice, you will need to consult an independent adviser.

RISK FACTORS

A number of risks could materially affect the Group or the implementation of the Proposals. Shareholders should carefully consider all the information set out in this document, in particular those risks set out below. If any of the following risks actually materialise, The Group's business, financial condition, prospects and United Utilities' or subsequently United Utilities Group's share price could be materially and adversely affected to the detriment of shareholders. Further risks and uncertainties which are not presently known to the Directors at the date of this document, or that the Directors currently consider immaterial, may also have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Group.

1. Risks relating to the Group and its business

1.1 Revenue of the Group's regulated business is substantially influenced by the decisions of Ofwat which could adversely affect profitability

The revenue, profitability and cashflow of the Group's water and wastewater business (the regulated business) is substantially influenced by the service levels, regulatory targets and price limits established every five years by Ofwat, and Ofwat's assessment of delivery against those factors. A description of the process under which Ofwat determines price limits is found in section 4 of Part IX of the Prospectus. The most recent price determination was the 2004 Final Determination which set price limits for the five years from 1 April 2005. The next price review will take place in 2009 and will take effect from 1 April 2010.

An adverse price determination, which would adversely affect revenue, profitability and cashflow, may occur as a result of a number of factors, including an inadequate allowed cost of capital or regulatory assumptions concerning operating expenses and required capital expenditure as well as turnover forecasts proving not to be sufficiently accurate. In addition, unforeseen financial obligations or costs may arise (for example, as a result of ensuring regulatory compliance or changes to legislation or regulatory requirements) after a price review which were not taken into account by Ofwat in setting price limits, and are consequently not compensated for, which could have a material adverse effect on financial performance.

Scope to re-open price limits within a particular five-year price review period is limited (as described in section 4 of Part IX of the Prospectus) and the Group may not be able to recover any costs using these mechanisms. In addition, these mechanisms are two-way processes and it is possible that Ofwat could seek to use these mechanisms to reduce price limits for the Group, which could have a material adverse effect on financial performance.

Price limits for United Utilities' regulated business for the current period were determined by Ofwat in December 2004. In some areas, Ofwat disallowed, or excluded for later consideration, a number of schemes and operational expenditure, or has cut back on the scale and pace of the progress, for which the Group had planned in its strategic business plan. Such actions could have an adverse effect on the Group's ability to deliver its strategic business plan and could materially adversely affect its profitability. In addition, Ofwat excluded certain increases in the Group's operating costs, which will require the Group to achieve additional operating efficiencies. These savings may not be achievable and/or sustainable and additional costs may therefore need to be incurred in order for the Group to comply with relevant requirements, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.2 Failure to deliver the capital investment programmes could adversely affect profitability

The Group's regulated business requires significant capital expenditure for additions to, or replacement of assets, plant and equipment for its water and wastewater treatment facilities and networks. The price limits set by Ofwat take into account the level of capital expenditure that Ofwat expects to be incurred during the relevant five-year price review period and the associated funding costs.

Historically, the Group has financed the expenditure from cashflows from operations and from debt financing. There can be no assurance that cashflows from operations will not decline, or that in the longer term, additional debt financing or other sources of capital will be available to meet these requirements.

If the Group is unable to deliver the capital programme at expected expenditure levels, is unable to secure the expected capital efficiencies associated with the capital programme or if the programme falls behind schedule for other reasons, or adverse legacy effects of earlier capital investment emerge or amounts budgeted in prior capital programmes prove insufficient to meet the actual capital expenditure required, the Group's profitability may suffer. In addition, the Group's ability to meet regulatory and environmental performance standards could be adversely affected by such failure, which may result in fines imposed by Ofwat of an amount of up to ten per cent. of United Utilities' relevant regulated turnover (as described in section 5 of Part IX of the Prospectus) or other sanctions.

At the beginning of the 2000-2005 regulatory contract, there had been around 3,000 intermittent discharges recorded in the North West region from wastewater overflows of which a number were determined by the Environment Agency as unsatisfactory (UIDs). There have been ongoing discussions between United Utilities, Ofwat and the Environment Agency regarding the need, scope and cost of the required solutions for a number of these UIDs. The majority of these UID projects were not part of the 2005-2010 regulatory contract and will require additional investment.

In October 2007, the Group submitted a funding submission, or Change Protocol, to Ofwat relating to discharges into inland waters. This submission followed a planning inquiry which dealt with a small number of such UIDs but which was intended to establish precedent for a larger number of similar discharges that were under discussion. A further planning inquiry dealing with discharges to coastal bathing waters was heard in December 2007. United Utilities will be making further Change Protocol submissions to Ofwat dealing with those UIDs affected by that planning inquiry as well as other UIDs.

Taken together, the Group currently estimates that additional funding for capital investment of approximately £700 million is likely to be required to complete the work on these UID programmes. A large proportion of this expenditure is now likely to fall into the 2010-15 regulatory period and so the funding of this investment will be considered as part of the forthcoming price review. This investment programme, if fully endorsed by DEFRA and Ofwat, should be funded through price limits and deliver additional growth in United Utilities Water's regulatory capital values as well as benefits for customers and the environment. The Group cannot be certain, however, that all these additional costs will be recoverable on this basis and will not adversely affect its profitability or financial position.

1.3 Failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings implicit in the regulatory reviews could adversely affect profitability

Operating cost savings to be achieved during the current five-year regulatory period are implicit in the regulatory reviews. To assist the achievement of these operating cost savings, a business change programme has been introduced. If the operating cost savings were not achieved, then the Group's profitability would suffer. Similarly, if operational performance were to deteriorate, this may be reflected by less favourable outcomes from future price reviews and the Group's profitability would suffer.

1.4 Environmental laws and their compliance requirements could increase the Group's costs and adversely affect profitability

There are various environmental laws with which the Group must comply. These laws establish, amongst other things, standards for water abstraction, drinking water quality, the discharge of sewage and other polluting discharges into the environment, and procedures governing operational development. The Group is required to obtain various environmental consents from regulators – for example, abstraction licences to abstract surface water and groundwater for water supply, discharge consents to discharge sewage from sewage treatment works into surface waters and environmental permits for pollution and for the treatment, keeping and disposal of waste.

The Group endeavours to comply with all legal requirements. However, historically, the Group has not been in full compliance, and it cannot guarantee that in the future it will be in full compliance at all times, with all applicable environmental laws and the terms and conditions in its environmental consents. Should the Group fail to comply it could face fines imposed by the courts or otherwise face sanction by the relevant regulator.

In particular, the Group is required to comply with laws and regulations intended to control the release of, or exposure to, contaminants that are potentially harmful to health, safety or the environment. Land that is designated as contaminated land may need to be remediated, with the liability for such remediation falling first on any person who caused the contamination (or who knew of its presence and failed to prevent it), or, if such a person cannot be found, on the current owner or occupier of the land. The Group owns a significant number of sites and operates upon or within land owned, tenanted or otherwise used by third parties. None of the land owned or occupied by the Group is currently designated as contaminated but it owns or occupies, or is required to work within, sites that have potentially been adversely affected by virtue of prior use. A site owned or occupied by the Group may therefore in future be designated as contaminated land or the Group may be required to work within a site that is already, or becomes designated as contaminated land. Whilst the Group has implemented risk controls intended to ensure regulatory and legal compliance it cannot guarantee in the future that it will be in total compliance at all times with these laws and regulations. Should the Group fail to comply, it could face sanctions imposed by the regulator or the courts or claims by third parties. It is possible that if land owned or occupied by the Group is designated as contaminated land, the Group may be liable for the cost of remediation.

In addition to regulatory compliance proceedings, the Group could become involved in a range of third party legal proceedings relating to land use, environmental protection and water quality. Examples are: planning permission applications and appeals against refusal of planning permissions in relation to, for example, sewage treatment or water treatment works; challenges by third parties to decisions relating to the Group that have been made by regulators; and civil actions by third parties for the alleged infringement of their common law rights, such as nuisance claims relating to odour or other matters. Refusal of planning permission and successful third party claims could materially affect the way that the Group operates, prejudice its reputation and result in the imposition of substantial fines, damages and other costs, each of which could increase the Group's costs, or adversely affect its profitability and financial position.

Other regulatory changes are likely to include the transfer to the Group of private sewers and lateral drains and the risk of non-renewal of water abstraction licences.

Environmental laws and regulations are complex and change frequently. These laws, and their enforcement, have tended to become more stringent over time. Whilst management seeks to take into account the future capital and operating expenditures necessary to achieve and maintain compliance with current and known future changes in laws and regulations, it is possible that new or stricter standards could be imposed, or current interpretation of existing legislation could be amended, which could increase the Group's costs, or adversely affect its profitability and financial position.

Although these costs may be recoverable in part through the regulatory process of setting appropriate future price limits or, in the case of contaminated land compliance, via litigation, there can be no assurance of this. Therefore, the Group cannot guarantee that the costs of complying with, or discharging its liabilities under, current and future environmental laws will not adversely affect its profitability or financial position.

1.5 A failure to comply with applicable law or regulations, or to take corrective action following such a failure could have a material effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The businesses of the Group are subject to various laws and regulations in the UK, some of which are described in Part IX of the Prospectus. Regulatory authorities may from time to time make enquiries of companies within their jurisdiction regarding compliance with regulations governing their operations and in some cases those companies may become aware of information or circumstances that need to be drawn to the attention of Ofwat or another governmental or regulatory authority. The Group faces the risk that Ofwat or another governmental or regulatory authority could find that it has failed to comply with applicable law or regulations or has not successfully undertaken corrective action. In this case, regulatory action could be taken which could result in adverse publicity for, or negative perceptions regarding the Group, as well as diverting management's attention from day-to-day management of the Group's business. As described in Part IX of the Prospectus, such regulatory action may include the imposition of an enforcement order requiring the Group to incur additional capital or operating expenditure to remedy such non-compliance and/or the imposition of a financial penalty (of up to ten per cent. of relevant regulated turnover) on the Group for any contravention of its appointments respectively as a water and sewerage licensee under the Water Industry Act and, in the most extreme cases, may lead to revocation of a licence or the appointment of a special administrator. There may also be additional or unforeseen costs required in order to bring the Group into compliance. Regulatory action against any member of the Group could therefore have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition. Breach of applicable laws or regulations could also lead to claims by customers or other third parties which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.6 Events, service interruptions, water shortages or contamination of water supplies could adversely affect profitability

In addition to its capital investment programmes, the Group controls utility networks and undertakes maintenance of the associated assets with the objective of providing a continuous service. In some cases these assets and networks, and their supporting plant and equipment, contain resources with high levels of energy or harmful properties. In exceptional circumstances the failure of an asset, or an element of a network or supporting plant or equipment could result in catastrophic damage, including significant loss of life, and/or environmental damage and/or economic and social disruption. In less exceptional circumstances the failure of a key asset could still cause a significant interruption to the continuity and/or quality of services resulting in additional costs which could adversely affect profitability. Although the Group has continued to refine its risk management and business continuity procedures, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such measures will be effective in preventing or, when necessary, managing large-scale incidents to the satisfaction of the lead government department responsible, relevant regulators, customers and the wider stakeholder community. Consequently, it is possible that a catastrophic and/or prolonged incident may result in an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

The Group is under a duty to supply water that is wholesome at the time of supply. Under the Water Industry Act 1991, the Drinking Water Inspectorate is required to take enforcement action against the Group for any breach of quality standards, or of monitoring, treatment, record-keeping and/or information requirements of the Water Quality Regulations. In addition, the Group may be prosecuted and fined for supplying water that is unfit for human consumption.

Water supplies may be subject to interruption or contamination, including contamination from the presence of naturally occurring compounds and pollution from man-made sources or third parties' actions. The Group could be fined for breaches of statutory requirements or regulations or held liable for human exposure to hazardous substances in its water supplies or other environmental damage, which could have an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

In the event that water supply is contaminated or interrupted and the Group is unable to substitute water supply from an uncontaminated water source, or to treat adequately the contaminated water source, it is required to provide an alternative water supply of equivalent quality in a timely manner and in sufficient quantities. An inability to do so may adversely affect the Group's profitability or financial position.

Water shortages may be caused by periods of below average rainfall, long-term increases in demand, short-term exceptional demand or operational problems involving water abstraction, transmission, treatment, storage or distribution (including leakage). Environmental factors such as climate change may exacerbate seasonal fluctuations in supply availability. A combination of any or all of these factors may require restrictions on the use or supply of water (including hosepipe bans and drought orders). If there are water shortages the Group may incur additional costs in order to provide emergency reinforcement to supplies in areas of shortage, which may have an adverse effect on the Group's profitability or financial position.

Although these costs may be recoverable in part through the regulatory process of setting appropriate future price limits, there can be no assurance of this. The Group maintains insurance policies in relation to loss events and legal liabilities likely to be associated with these risks, although there can be no assurance that coverage extends to the entirety of any loss or that coverage will continue to be available in the future.

1.7 Non-recovery of customer debt could adversely affect profitability

United Utilities Water manages the billing, cash collection and debt management activities for approximately 3.2 million domestic and business wastewater and water customers. The Water Industry Act 1991 (as amended by the Water Industry Act 1999) prohibits the disconnection of a water supply for non-payment and the limiting of a supply with the intention of enforcing payment for certain premises including domestic dwellings.

Non-recovery of debt is therefore a risk to the Group and may cause the Group's profitability to suffer. However, allowance is made by Ofwat in the price limits at each price review for a proportion of debt deemed to be irrecoverable. In addition, the Group can also request a re-setting of its price limits through an IDoK (as explained in section 4 of Part IX of the Prospectus) during a review period when costs or savings arising from changes in certain regulatory assumptions (including as to the level of non-recoverable debt) are material, although there can be no guarantee that an IDoK application will be successful.

Although new and existing strategies continue to be implemented to reduce cash collection risks, there can be no assurance that the Group will not suffer losses from the Group's inability to recover its debts fully.

1.8 The revenue, profitability and cashflow of the Group's non-regulated activities may be substantially influenced by the decisions of regulators or failure to deliver operational performance or cost savings

The Group's non-regulated business provides for the operation and management of assets in a number of regulated sectors. These services include the maintenance and operation of electricity, gas and water networks, the design and construction of new assets, the design and construction of new connections to the relevant network and the provision of ancillary services. Adverse price determinations by the regulators of the businesses that the Group provides services to or the failure by the Group to meet operating performance targets or achieve specified operating efficiencies could have a material adverse effect on the turnover, profitability or cashflow of the Group's non-regulated business.

1.9 Rapid growth in the infrastructure management sector exposes the Group to execution risk; conversely, slow growth could adversely affect profitability

The non-regulated business of the Group (previously conducted through United Utilities Contract Solutions) is expanding into new markets domestically and internationally. The delivery of contracts, both existing and future, will be achieved by exploiting the Group's core infrastructure management skills. Overstretching these skills could lead to a loss of customers or an inability to meet contractual commitments, or to penalties, which, in turn, may cause profitability to suffer. Slower than expected expansion could also impact profitability.

1.10 Pension scheme obligations may require the Group to make additional contributions to the schemes, which could reduce profitability

The Group participates in a number of pension schemes principally in the UK. The principal schemes are funded defined benefit schemes and the assets of the schemes are held in trust funds independent of Group finances.

For the Group's main pension schemes, a combined one-off lump sum contribution of £319.5 million was made on 31 March 2005 and, the Group entered into a five year contribution holiday for those schemes. However, following a number of changes to its business and pension schemes, it was agreed that employer contributions would recommence from 1 April 2008. Following the sale of United Utilities Electricity in December 2007, the Group is no longer responsible for the funding of pension liabilities relating to the electricity business.

For the Group's main pension schemes there was a combined deficit of £94.3 million (before deferred tax) as at 31 March 2008, compared with a surplus of £62.2 million (before deferred tax) as at 31 March 2007, calculated under IAS 19. This funding position may vary from time to time, in particular if short-term investment performance does not match changes to the value of the liabilities. Further increases in the deficit may impact the profitability of the Group, although some of the additional deficit may be recoverable through the price limits set by Ofwat.

The Group continues to monitor the funding of its schemes and is in the process of reviewing its strategy in relation to pension risks.

1.11 Operating risk

Managing the Group's businesses is dependent upon the ability to process a large number of transactions efficiently and accurately. Operational risk and losses can result from: fraud; employee errors; supply chain disruption; failure to document transactions properly or to obtain proper internal authorisation; failure to comply with regulatory requirements and business principles; resource shortages; failure or under-performance of business processes, assets or equipment; natural disasters; the failure of internal or external systems; or the actions or inactions of third parties.

Although the Group has implemented risk controls and loss mitigation actions, and substantial resources are devoted to developing efficient procedures and to employee training, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such procedures will be effective in controlling each of the operational risks faced by the Group.

1.12 Material litigation could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The Group faces the risk of litigation in connection with its business. In general, liability for litigation is difficult to assess or quantify; recovery may be sought for very large and/or indeterminate amounts and the existence and magnitude of liability may remain unknown for substantial periods of time.

NOSS Consortium ("NOSS"), of which North West Water International Limited ("NWWIL"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Utilities, is a member and the sole remaining active participant, is party to arbitration proceedings in Thailand in relation to a design and construction contract dated 1 November 1993 between NOSS and the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration ("BMA") to build a wastewater treatment plant and network in central Bangkok.

Following disagreements with the engineer (Dorsch Consult) and disputes with the BMA, NOSS served a notice under section 387 of the Thai Civil and Commercial Code on the BMA in November 1997 requiring the BMA to remedy its various breaches of contract. In March 1998 (following the continued failure of the BMA to remedy its breaches) NOSS terminated the contract with the BMA and served a notice of arbitration. NOSS has total claims against the BMA of approximately 6 billion Baht (approximately £83 million). The BMA has counter-claimed for approximately 3.2 billion Baht (approximately £44 million).

Each party has appointed arbitrators, but the arbitration process stalled in 2004 following the arbitrators' failure to agree on the appointment of a third arbitrator. In September 2007, the BMA called a hearing before the Thai Civil Court in an apparent attempt to restart the process. In the event and by agreement the parties appointed the third arbitrator in January 2008. No further steps have so far occurred in the arbitral process since then but it remains possible that the disputes between the parties may proceed to full arbitration in due course.

1.13 Future changes to laws or regulations or the introduction of new laws or regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition

The Group cannot accurately predict the impact of future changes in law or regulation or the introduction of new legislation or regulation on its business. Additionally, from time to time, interpretation of existing laws and regulations may change. Future changes in law or regulation (including, for example, any changes introduced in order to increase competition in the water industry), the introduction of new laws or regulations and new judicial or regulatory interpretation of existing or future laws or regulations could affect the Group's operations and the condition of business. The costs associated with future changes to laws or regulations, new laws or regulations or new interpretation of laws or regulations may be wholly or partly recoverable through the mechanisms referred to in Part IX of the Prospectus or future price reviews, but, in the event that such recovery is not possible, such costs could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

1.14 An inability to achieve timely recovery of corporate information systems, or the technology upon which such systems rely could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, profitability or financial condition

Managing the Group's businesses is dependent upon the ability to access, utilise and communicate remotely via electronic software applications mounted upon corporate information technology hardware and communicating through internal and external networks. The ownership, maintenance and recovery of such applications, hardware and networks are not wholly under the Group's control. Although the Group has implemented risk controls and loss mitigation actions, and substantial resources are devoted to enhancing the resilience of such applications, hardware and networks, it is only possible to be reasonably, but not absolutely, certain that such procedures will be effective in controlling their resilience and recovery. In the event that such recovery is not possible, or is protracted, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, profitability or financial condition.

2. Risks relating to the Scheme

Completion of the Scheme is subject to the approval of Shareholders at the General Meeting and the Court Meeting, and the sanction of the Court in its discretion. If Shareholders do not approve the Proposals or the Court refuses to sanction the Scheme, the Scheme will not complete. If completion does not occur, then the Group will be unable to implement the Return of Capital.

3. Risks relating to the Return of Capital

3.1 Confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is within the discretion of the Court

Pursuant to the Proposals, it is expected that the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be issued on 28 July 2008 to Shareholders. It is expected that the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be admitted to the Official List and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities on 28 July 2008. It is expected that the Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital will be held on 30 July 2008, although this date is subject to change dependent upon a number of factors, including when the Scheme becomes effective and the date on which the Court is available to hear the claim form for the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital.

The confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is within the discretion of the Court and the Court can refuse to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital if it considers it to be to the detriment of creditors. If the Court refuses to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, United Utilities Group will not have sufficient distributable reserves to implement the Proposals and Shareholders will not receive the Return of Capital.

3.2 The Return of Capital materially reduces liquidity of United Utilities Group

The Return of Capital will result in a material reduction in the amount of liquidity, comprising cash and undrawn committed bank facilities, available to the Group. This means that the Group will need to raise new debt capital in the longer term earlier than it might otherwise need to absent the Return of Capital.

Nothing in this risk factor is intended to constitute qualifications of the working capital statement of United Utilities Group set out in paragraph 5 of Part VI of this Circular.

4. Risks relating to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares

4.1 The price of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares may be volatile

The Group's share price may be volatile due to a wide range of factors, including the risk factors identified in this document, some of which are beyond the Group's control.

The price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares may move in line with the price of shares in companies which operate in the same sector as the Group. Further, other broad economic, market and industry factors may decrease the market price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, regardless of the Group's actual operating performance. Market fluctuations, as well as general political and economic conditions, such as recession or interest rate and currency fluctuations, also may affect the market price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

4.2 Tax treatment

The summary of the United Kingdom taxation treatment contained in Part V of this Circular is intended as a general guide only and relates only to certain UK tax consequences of receiving the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares under the Scheme. It is based on current United Kingdom tax law and the current practice of HM Revenue & Customs. Both of these are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. Therefore, the future United Kingdom tax treatment of the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares may potentially be subject to change, which could impact on the United Kingdom tax position of a Shareholder. The summary is intended to apply only to Shareholders who are resident in the UK for UK tax purposes, who hold the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares as investments and not on trading account, to whom Class A Shares are allotted and who are the beneficial owners of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares and the Class A Shares. The summary is not intended to apply to certain classes of shareholders such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, those holding shares by reason of their employment or collective investment schemes.

Any Shareholders or prospective shareholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position regarding the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares and/or who are subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should consult their own tax advisers.

4.3 Dividends

United Utilities Group will be a holding company and will not conduct business of its own. Dividends from United Utilities Group's only direct subsidiary, United Utilities, and its subsidiaries, together with any investment income, are expected to be United Utilities Group's sole source of funds to pay expenses and dividends, if any. Future dividends will depend on the progress of the business, the Group's continuing ability to be profitable and its financial resources. The inability of United Utilities Group's direct and indirect subsidiaries to pay dividends in an amount sufficient to enable United Utilities Group to meet its cash requirements at the holding company level could have a material adverse effect on its business and its ability to pay dividends.

4.4 United Utilities Group may issue shares in the future

United Utilities Group may offer additional shares in the future which may adversely affect the market price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. United Utilities Group has no current plans for a subsequent offer of its shares or to offer rights or any invitation to subscribe for shares other than under the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans. However it is possible that United Utilities Group may decide to offer additional shares in the future. An additional offering of shares by United Utilities Group or the public perception that an offer may occur, could have an adverse effect on the market price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

5. Risks relating to the current conditions in the global financial markets

The current credit problems that are impacting the debt capital markets generally for all borrowers have resulted in the cost of credit increasing significantly over the period since the summer of 2007 and also generally made issuance of new debt capital more onerous.

If the current credit problems persist, it is likely that the costs incurred by the Group may be materially more than those experienced on similar issues of debt capital in the recent past. This would increase the cost of funding for the Group and reduce profits.

Nothing contained in this "Risk Factors" section is intended to qualify the working capital statement of United Utilities Group set out in paragraph 5 of Part VI of this Circular.

PART I

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

United Utilities PLC

(Registered in England No. 02366616)

Registered Office:

Haweswater House
Lingley Mere Business Park
Lingley Green Avenue
Great Sankey
Warrington
WA5 3LP

Directors:

Sir Richard Evans (Non-Executive Chairman)
Philip Green (Chief Executive Officer)
Tim Weller (Chief Financial Officer)
Charlie Cornish (Managing Director, Business Development and International)
Dr. Catherine Bell (Non-Executive Director)
Norman Broadhurst (Non-Executive Director)
Paul Heiden (Non-Executive Director)
David Jones CBE (Non-Executive Director)
Dr. John McAdam (Non-Executive Director)
Andrew Pinder CBE (Non-Executive Director)
Nick Salmon (Non-Executive Director)

6 June 2008

Dear Shareholder,

RECOMMENDED PROPOSALS RELATING TO THE INTRODUCTION OF A NEW HOLDING COMPANY, CREATION OF DISTRIBUTABLE RESERVES AND RETURN OF CAPITAL OF APPROXIMATELY £1.5 BILLION TO SHAREHOLDERS

1. Introduction

In December 2007, United Utilities successfully completed the disposal of United Utilities Electricity, enabling the Group to focus on its much larger water asset base. It was the Board's stated intention that, following the disposal, United Utilities would return the net equity proceeds to Shareholders. As announced on 29 November 2007, United Utilities is now proposing to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders, equivalent to 170 pence per United Utilities Share. The Return of Capital will be comprised of approximately £1.050 billion of the net equity proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity and a further £450 million from the Group's pre-existing resources to help create a more efficient capital structure.

The Return of Capital is being made using a B share structure, which will give Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) a choice as to when and in what form they receive their proceeds from the Return of Capital.

In this document we set out details of the steps required to implement the Return of Capital and why your Board considers the Proposals to be in the best interests of United Utilities and its shareholders as a whole. The structure we have chosen allows us to effect the Return of Capital whilst creating distributable reserves to enable United Utilities Group to pursue the Group's revised dividend policy. Your Board is unanimously recommending that you vote in favour of the Proposals.

2. Details of the Proposals

We have prepared a summary of the Proposals on pages 8 to 17 to help you understand what is involved. You should nevertheless read the whole of this document and not rely solely on the "Summary" section of this document.

3. Principal features of the Scheme

The reorganisation will be carried out by a formal procedure, known as a scheme of arrangement, under the Companies Acts. The key features of the Scheme are as follows:

3.1 Share capital

Under the Scheme:

- (A) Scheme Shares in United Utilities will be cancelled by way of a reduction of capital;
- (B) the share capital of United Utilities will be increased to its former amount and the reserve arising on the reduction of capital will be applied in paying up and issuing to United Utilities Group the New United Utilities Shares so that United Utilities Group will own all shares in United Utilities and accordingly United Utilities will become a subsidiary of United Utilities Group; and
- (C) you will receive:
 - (i) 17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares you hold at the Scheme Record Time; and
 - (ii) one B Share for each United Utilities Share you hold at the Scheme Record Time.

Any fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold and the net proceeds of sale remitted to you pro rata to your entitlement.

The Scheme Record Time is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008 (subject to the date on which the Court sanctions the Scheme). The number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be received may be subject to change in the circumstances and in the manner described in paragraph 10 of the "Summary" section of this document.

The B Share is the instrument by which you will receive your Return of Capital. Unless you are a Restricted Overseas Shareholder, you have three alternatives as to how to receive your Return of Capital. Alternative 1 allows you to receive an immediate cash redemption payment of 170 pence in respect of each B Share so elected. Alternative 2 allows you to receive an immediate cash dividend of 170 pence in respect of each B Share so elected. Alternative 3 allows you to defer redemption of some or all of your B Shares to the Final B Share Redemption Date (expected to be on 14 April 2009). Upon such date, you will receive a cash redemption payment of 170 pence in respect of each B Share so elected.

We have enclosed a Form of Election for you to complete indicating your preferred alternative if you hold United Utilities Shares in certificated form.

If you hold your United Utilities Shares in CREST, you will not be sent a Form of Election. You are able to make an election with respect to your B Shares by way of a TTE instruction through the CREST system after your CREST account has been credited on 28 July 2008. The latest time for receipt of TTE instructions from CREST Shareholders is 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not receive a Form of Election. US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depositary and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend. Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

Holders of United Utilities ADRs and Overseas Shareholders should refer to paragraphs 10 and 11 of Part II for further information.

3.2 Court Meeting and General Meeting

The Scheme requires the approval of Shareholders at the Court Meeting. If the Scheme is approved by the requisite majority at the Court Meeting, an application will be made to the Court to sanction the Scheme at the Court Hearing.

Shareholders will also be asked to approve resolutions implementing matters in connection with the Scheme at the General Meeting including, amongst other things: (i) providing the Directors with authority to give effect to the Scheme by approving the cancellation of the Scheme Shares and authorising the allotment and issue of New United Utilities Shares in United Utilities to United Utilities Group (and/or its nominee(s)) as part of the Scheme; (ii) approving certain technical scheme-related amendments to the United Utilities Articles; and (iii) approving the adoption of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans, the principal terms of which are substantially the same as those of the equivalent existing United Utilities Employee Share Plan which they replace (and which are summarised in paragraph 3 of Part VI of this document).

4. Admission

The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be listed only in the United Kingdom. Application will be made to the UKLA for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. We expect that the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be admitted, and that dealings in them will commence, at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008. No application has been or is currently intended to be made for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to trading on the London Stock Exchange or to be admitted to listing or dealing on any other exchange.

5. United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The share capital of United Utilities Group will be reduced by reducing the nominal value of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share from 500 pence (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme). United Utilities Group may resolve to adjust the nominal value of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares if necessary to ensure that its shares are not allotted at a discount to their nominal value.

In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme becoming effective and shortly thereafter, in order to create further distributable reserves in United Utilities Group, the share capital of United Utilities Group will be altered by capitalising the merger reserve and allotting Class A Shares pro rata to holders of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) which are then to be cancelled on confirmation by the Court, as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. No share certificates will be issued in respect of the Class A Shares.

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital will establish distributable reserves in United Utilities Group to allow the implementation of the Return of Capital and to pay future dividends. The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital will require the confirmation of the Court. If so confirmed, as an illustration, it is expected that it would (based on the Closing Price per United Utilities Share of 748.5 pence and the number of United Utilities Shares in issue, in each case on 30 May 2008 (being the last practicable date before the posting of this Circular)) create distributable reserves in United Utilities Group of approximately £5,067 million after the Return of Capital. The actual amount of distributable reserves established will be determined by reference to the Closing Price of a United Utilities Share on or about the Scheme Record Date. Prior to confirming the reduction of capital of United Utilities Group, the Court will need to be satisfied that the creditors (if any) of United Utilities Group are not thereby prejudiced. United Utilities Group will put in place such form of creditor protection (if any) as it may be advised is appropriate to satisfy the Court in this regard.

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is expected to become effective on 31 July 2008.

6. Dividend Policy

On 29 November 2007, the Board confirmed its intention to amend its dividend policy, commencing with the year 2008/09 to reflect the revised composition and earnings profile of the Group.

In light of the sale of United Utilities Electricity and the Return of Capital, the dividend per share from 2008/09 will be reduced by 30 per cent. compared with the 2007/08 dividend of 46.67 pence per share. Thereafter, the Group's revised dividend policy is intended to target a growth rate of RPI plus two per cent. to be applied from 2009/10 to the 2008/09 revised dividend per share.

7. Current trading and prospects

United Utilities' preliminary results for the year ended 31 March 2008 were announced on 3 June 2008. The following paragraph contains highlights of those results and summarises the statements made regarding the Group's current trading and prospects.

For the year ended 31 March 2008:

- Underlying operating profit¹ up 7 per cent. to £677 million.
- Completed sale of United Utilities Electricity for a substantial premium to its regulatory asset value.
- Capital expenditure in regulated activities up 45 per cent. to £826 million and in line with regulatory assumptions.
- Focus on core skills delivers operational improvements: outperformed tougher leakage target.
- Enhanced liquidity: pre-funded for capital investment programmes through to 2010.
- Extended major outsourcing contracts with Southern Water and British Gas Trading.

United Utilities has delivered a good financial performance in the year ended 31 March 2008. Underlying profit before tax² increased by 17 per cent. to £476 million and underlying operating profit³ was up by 7 per cent. to £677 million.

The Group is pre-funded for its capital investment programme through to 2010. The Group recently improved its liquidity position by enhancing its committed medium-term bank facilities. This provides the Group with increased flexibility in terms of when and how it raises further debt finance.

The Group's regulated activities have delivered strong growth in the period with operating profit up 5 per cent., an increase of 8 per cent. on an underlying basis⁴. This growth primarily reflects the regulated price increase, which supports high levels of essential investment in the Group's infrastructure. This investment enables the Group to deliver better service for customers and make environmental improvements.

Capital investment in the Group's regulated water and wastewater operations, including infrastructure renewals expenditure, amounted to £826 million during the year. This is 45 per cent. higher than in the previous financial year as the Group is now in the peak phase of its current capital expenditure programme. The Group has agreed a new strategy with Ofwat for processing and disposing of sewage sludge, based on increasing capacity at an existing site rather than developing a new site. Its capital investment programme has been re-profiled to reflect this agreement and the Group is now broadly in line with regulatory assumptions. This new strategy will reduce the Group's carbon footprint compared with the original solution.

^{1, 2, 3, 4} The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in paragraph 10 of Part VI.

The Group's business improvement initiatives are delivering cost savings and the Group remains confident of delivering regulatory outputs and meeting its efficiency targets across this price review period.

In non-regulated activities, underlying operating profit⁵ for the year ended 31 March 2008 was slightly higher than that of the previous year, reflecting the first time inclusion of the results of the outsourcing contract with Electricity North West Limited. The Group has a strong order book worth over £6 billion in revenue and recently announced the extension of its contract with Southern Water through to March 2015. In January 2008, an 18 month extension to June 2010 was agreed on the Group's metering contract with British Gas Trading. In addition, the Group has recently been selected as preferred bidder by Townsville City Council in Australia to undertake its water supply upgrade project.

The Board expects the Group to continue to deliver a strong financial performance over the remainder of this regulatory period, underpinned by allowed price rises to fund substantial investment in the Group's networks. Continued investment in the Group's assets will help raise environmental standards further and improve the service offered to customers.

8. United Kingdom taxation

Guidance on the general tax position of UK Shareholders in respect of the B Share Alternatives as at the date of this document is set out in Part V of this document. You are strongly advised to read Part V of this document before making an election.

All Shareholders, including those who are subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom, are encouraged to consult their professional advisers.

9. United Utilities Employee Share Plans

Separate letters will shortly be sent to participants in the United Utilities Employee Share Plans to explain the implications of the Proposals on their options and awards and what action, if any, they need to take. The following is a general summary of the position.

Participants in the Share Option Plans will be able to exercise their options for up to six months after the date of the Court Hearing and acquire United Utilities Shares which will either be exchanged under the Scheme for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares or exchanged for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares pursuant to the proposed change in the United Utilities Articles described in paragraph 2.1 of Part II. The options of participants who do not choose to exercise them will be exchanged for options over United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares with an equivalent value, such options to be held on the same terms as their existing options.

The awards under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan and the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan will be converted into awards over United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and held on the same terms and conditions as the existing awards, with appropriately adjusted performance targets. The awards under the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan are subject to the condition that the participant retains the United Utilities Shares which the participant has acquired with his own funds until the awards vest. The participant will be required to elect for Alternative 3 in respect of the B Shares which he or she receives for those United Utilities Shares, failing which the corresponding award will lapse. However, the redemption of those B Shares on the Final B Share Redemption Date will not result in the corresponding award lapsing.

The awards under the individual arrangements for Messrs P Green and T Weller, which are similar to awards made under the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan (save that performance conditions do not apply), will be treated in the same way as the awards under that plan. The award under the individual arrangement for Mr C Cornish, which is subject to a performance condition, will be treated in the same way as awards under the United Utilities PLC United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan.

The United Utilities PLC International Plan is a "phantom" plan, which mirrors the terms of the Performance Share Plan but under which participants are entitled to a cash payment rather than shares. It is designed principally for use in those countries where the operation of equity plans raises securities law issues. Awards under this plan will be treated in the same way as awards under the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan.

⁵ The Group gives certain additional information in order to provide an increased insight into the underlying performance of the business in line with management's own view. An explanation of the basis for these presentations in relation to the year ended 31 March 2008 is given in paragraph 10 of Part VI.

Participants in the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan are the beneficial owners of the shares held for them by the trustees of the plan. They will be entitled to instruct the trustees to vote at the Court Meeting and the General Meeting on their behalf. The Scheme will extend to the United Utilities Shares held in the plan and the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares received by the trustees on behalf of participants will be held in accordance with the terms of the plan.

United Utilities Group has resolved to adopt employee share schemes to replace those which United Utilities currently operates. These are in substantially the same form as the equivalent United Utilities Employee Shares Plans that they replace and are summarised in paragraph 3 of Part VI of this document. Approval for the adoption of these schemes is being sought at the General Meeting.

In addition, whilst the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan will in due course be replaced by a plan of United Utilities Group, it will for a temporary period continue to operate using United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. This will ensure a smooth transition between the two plans.

10. Action to be taken

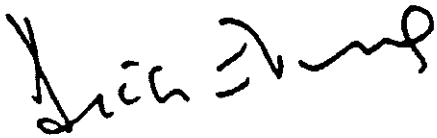

For guidance on what action you need to take with respect to the Court Meeting and the General Meeting and the B Share Alternatives, please refer to paragraph 16 of Part II of this document.

11. Recommendation

The Board, which has received financial advice from Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove, considers the terms of the Proposals to be fair and reasonable. In providing advice to the Board, Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove have each relied upon the Board's commercial assessment of the Proposals.

The Board considers the Proposals and the adoption of the proposed United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans to be in the best interests of Shareholders as a whole and accordingly, your Board unanimously recommends that holders of United Utilities Shares vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions proposed at the General Meeting as the Directors intend to do in respect of their own shareholdings totalling 271,841 United Utilities Shares (representing in aggregate approximately 0.03 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities).

Yours faithfully

Sir Richard Evans
Chairman

PART II

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

(In compliance with section 897 of the Companies Act 2006)

JPMorgan Cazenove Limited
20 Moorgate
London
EC2R 6DA

JPMorgan
CAZENOVE

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch
Winchester House
1 Great Winchester Street
London
EC2N 2DB

Deutsche Bank

6 June 2008

Dear Shareholder,

Proposals for introduction of a new holding company, creation of distributable reserves and Return of Capital of approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders

1. Introduction

On 29 November 2007, United Utilities announced its intention to return approximately £1.5 billion to shareholders, equivalent to a total of 170 pence per United Utilities Share. It is proposed that the Return of Capital will be effected by introducing a new listed holding company, United Utilities Group, as the holding company of United Utilities. The introduction of United Utilities Group is proposed to be effected by way of a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006.

The Scheme is subject to various conditions, including approval by Shareholders and the sanction of the Court. If these conditions are satisfied and the Scheme is implemented in full, United Utilities Group will own the entire issued share capital of United Utilities and Shareholders of United Utilities will hold United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares in place of their United Utilities Shares. It is expected that, if approved, the Scheme will become effective and that trading in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

Your attention is drawn to the Chairman's Letter in Part I of this document which contains, among other things, information on the reasons for the Proposals and the unanimous recommendation by the Board to Shareholders to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting. That letter and Parts VIII and IX of this document form part of this Explanatory Statement.

The Directors have been advised by Deutsche Bank and JPMorgan Cazenove in connection with the Proposals. We have been authorised by the Directors to write to you to explain the terms of the Proposals and to provide you with other relevant information. The Scheme is set out in full in Part III of this document. The Notice of the Court Meeting and the Notice of the General Meeting which contain the full text of each of the resolutions to be proposed at each of the meetings are set out in Parts VIII and IX of this document respectively.

2. Summary of the Proposals

2.1 The Scheme

Under the Scheme, all Scheme Shares will be cancelled on the Scheme Effective Date. In consideration for the cancellation, Shareholders will receive:

17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares that they hold at the Scheme Record Time
and
one B Share for each United Utilities Share
that they hold at the Scheme Record Time

Any fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be aggregated and sold, and the net proceeds of sale remitted to shareholders pro rata to their entitlements.

The Scheme Record Time is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008 (subject to the date on which the Court sanctions the Scheme). The number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares to be received may be subject to change in the circumstances and in the manner described in paragraph 10 of the "Summary" section of this Circular.

With effect from the Scheme Effective Date, the rights attaching to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be substantially the same as those attaching to the United Utilities Shares. Upon implementation of the Scheme, a holder of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will (subject to adjustments for fractional entitlements) have the same proportionate interest in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities Group as he had as a holder of United Utilities Shares in the profits, net assets and dividends of United Utilities before the Scheme becomes effective.

A summary of the rights attaching to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares is set out at paragraph 4.2(B) of Part X of the Prospectus and a summary of the rights attaching to the B Shares and the Deferred Shares is set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Part IV of this document, respectively.

Pursuant to the Scheme, the issued share capital of United Utilities will be reduced by cancelling and extinguishing the Scheme Shares, following which the share capital of United Utilities will be restored to its former nominal amount and the credit arising in the books of United Utilities as a result of the cancellation will be applied in paying up in full the New United Utilities Shares, such that the aggregate nominal value of those shares equals the aggregate nominal value of the Scheme Shares cancelled. The New United Utilities Shares will be issued to United Utilities Group (and/or its nominee(s)) which will, as a result, become the holding company of United Utilities and the Group.

Further United Utilities Shares or New United Utilities Shares may be allotted before or after the Scheme comes into effect (for example, because of the exercise of rights granted by United Utilities under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans). In some cases, the precise timing of their allotment could leave those shares outside the scope of the Scheme. In order to ensure that this does not occur, it is proposed that the United Utilities Articles should be amended in such a way as to ensure that:

- (A) any United Utilities Shares which are allotted and issued prior to confirmation by the Court of the reduction of United Utilities' ordinary share capital provided for under the Scheme will be allotted and issued subject to the terms of the Scheme and that the holders of such shares will be bound by the Scheme accordingly; and
- (B) any New United Utilities Shares which are allotted otherwise than to United Utilities Group (or its nominee(s)) at or after such time will, subject to the Scheme becoming effective, be transferred to United Utilities Group (or its nominee(s)) in exchange for the issue of one United Utilities Group Ordinary Share for every one United Utilities Share so transferred.

Shareholders will be asked to approve the amendments described above at the General Meeting.

2.2 The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital will involve the reduction of United Utilities Group's ordinary share capital by approximately £3,373 million (based on the number of United Utilities Shares in issue on 30 May 2008, the latest practicable date prior to posting this Circular), by decreasing the nominal amount of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share issued pursuant to the Scheme from 500 pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) to five pence (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme). This reduction will create distributable reserves to enable the Return of Capital to take place and for future dividends. In addition, a merger reserve will be created upon the Scheme's becoming effective which will, in order to create further distributable reserves, be capitalised into Class A Shares in United Utilities Group. Following such capitalisation, the Class A Shares will be allotted pro rata to the holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) and are then to be cancelled on confirmation by the Court, as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital. This will create further distributable reserves.

3. Conditions to the implementation of the Proposals

3.1 The Scheme

The implementation of the Scheme is conditional upon:

- (A) approval of the Scheme at the Court Meeting by a majority in number, representing not less than 75 per cent. in value, of those Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy;
- (B) the passing of the special resolution set out in the notice of General Meeting to approve, amongst other things, the cancellation of the Scheme Shares, the creation of New United Utilities Shares, the allotment of New United Utilities Shares by the Directors (pursuant to the Scheme) and certain amendments to the United Utilities Articles;
- (C) sanction by the Court of the Scheme and confirmation by the Court of the reduction of capital of United Utilities which occurs as a result of the cancellation of Scheme Shares as part of the Scheme; and
- (D) the delivery of a copy of the order of the Court sanctioning the Scheme and confirming the reduction of capital of United Utilities in relation to the Scheme to the Registrar of Companies and the registration of the order by him.

The Court Hearing (at which it is proposed that the Court sanction the Scheme) is expected to be held on or around 24 July 2008. Shareholders or creditors who wish to oppose the Scheme will be informed by advertisement in a newspaper with national distribution of their right to appear in person, or be represented by Counsel, at the Court Hearing.

In addition, the Directors will not take the necessary steps to enable the Scheme to become effective unless, at the relevant time, the following conditions have been satisfied:

- (E) the agreement of the UKLA to admit the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be issued in connection with the Scheme to the Official List and its agreement not being withdrawn prior to the Scheme Effective Date; and
- (F) the agreement of the London Stock Exchange to admit the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be issued in connection with the Scheme to trading on its main market for listed securities and its agreement not being withdrawn prior to the Scheme Effective Date.

If the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court and conditions (E) and (F) above are satisfied, the Scheme is expected to become effective and dealings in the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be issued pursuant to the Scheme are expected to commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008.

If the Scheme has not become effective by 31 December 2008 (or such later date as the Court may allow), it will lapse, in which event neither the Scheme, the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital nor the Return of Capital will proceed and Shareholders will remain holders of United Utilities Shares and United Utilities Shares will continue to be listed on the Official List.

The Scheme contains a provision for United Utilities and United Utilities Group jointly to consent, on behalf of all persons concerned, to any modification of, or addition to, the Scheme or to any condition that the Court may think fit to approve or impose. The Court would be unlikely to approve or impose any modification of, or addition or condition to, the Scheme which might be material to the interests of Shareholders unless Shareholders were informed of any such modification, addition or condition. It will be a matter for the Court to decide, in its discretion, whether or not the consent of Shareholders should be sought at a further meeting. If the Court approves or imposes a modification of, addition or condition to, the Scheme which, in the opinion of the Directors, is of such a nature or importance as to require the approval of Shareholders at a further meeting, the Directors will not take the necessary steps to enable the Scheme to become effective unless and until such approval is obtained.

3.2 The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is conditional on the following:

- (A) the Scheme becoming effective and being fully implemented;
- (B) the confirmation of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital by the Court; and
- (C) the delivery of a copy of the order of the Court confirming the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital to the Registrar of Companies for registration and the registration of the order by him.

The Court hearing to confirm the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is expected to be held on or around 30 July 2008. Shareholders will have the right to attend the Court hearing to support or oppose the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and to appear in person or be represented by Counsel.

The United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital is expected to become effective on 31 July 2008.

4. The Return of Capital

4.1 Introduction

Under the Return of Capital, Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) will have the alternatives set out below in relation to their B Shares.

Shareholders need not make the same choice for their entire B Share holding. Shareholders who do not elect for any of these alternatives will receive the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) in respect of all of their B Shares.

For regulatory reasons, Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs are not in the same position as other Shareholders in relation to the B Share Alternatives and United Utilities Group considers it unduly onerous to make the B Share Alternatives available to Restricted Overseas Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs.

US Shareholders and holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them or, as the case may be, the Depositary and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2). Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of the entirety of that Shareholder's B Shares. In the case of NZ Shareholders the B Shares will be allotted to a nominee for such Shareholders who will not make any elections with respect to such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

4.2 B Share Alternatives

Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) holding B Shares will have the choice between the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend and the B Share Final Redemption as discussed below. Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) can make any one of these choices in respect of each B Share and can therefore make a combination of choices in respect of their entire holding of B Shares. Further information in relation to the rights attaching to the B Shares is contained in Part IV of this document.

Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1)

Each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the redemption proceeds will be sent, or that CREST accounts will be credited with the redemption proceeds, by 19 August 2008.

B Share Dividend (Alternative 2)

For each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative, the Shareholder will receive a single dividend of 170 pence, following which each such B Share will be reclassified as one Deferred Share. It is expected that payment of the B Share Dividend will be made to bank accounts in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, a cheque will be sent by 19 August 2008.

Deferred Shares will not be listed, will have extremely limited rights, will have negligible value and will be redeemed in whole or in part at a future date or dates at the discretion of United Utilities Group, in each case for an aggregate consideration of one pence. Further information on the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares can be found in paragraph 2 of Part IV of this document.

Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3)

Each B Share a Shareholder elects to be subject to this alternative will be redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Final B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 14 April 2009) at 170 pence per B Share, free of all dealing expenses and commissions. It is expected that a cheque for the redemption proceeds will be sent, or that CREST accounts will be credited with the redemption proceeds, by 20 April 2009.

A Shareholder who has elected for the Final B Share Redemption will, whilst he retains the relevant B Shares, be entitled to receive the B Share Continuing Dividend. This is a dividend at the Interest Rate, payable on the nominal amount of 170 pence per B Share retained. The B Share Continuing Dividend will only be payable to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves and it is therefore not guaranteed. It is expected that payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend will be made in accordance with existing dividend payment instructions or, if no such instructions are held, a cheque will be sent by 20 April 2009.

4.3 Financing the Return of Capital

In order for United Utilities Group to implement the above B Share Alternatives, it will need sufficient distributable reserves, which will be dependent upon the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital taking place.

In order to finance the obligations of United Utilities Group in relation to the B Shares issued under the Scheme, United Utilities will make a loan to United Utilities Group of up to £1,501 million.

The making of such loan is to be approved by the Court as part of the Scheme in order to ensure compliance with section 151 of the Companies Act 1985.

5. Listings, dealings, share certificates and settlement

Application will be made to the UKLA for the admission of up to 683,000,000 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. No applications will be made in relation to the B Shares. The listing of United Utilities Shares is expected to be cancelled on the Scheme Effective Date and the last day of dealings in United Utilities Shares is expected to be 25 July 2008. The last time for registration of transfers of United Utilities Shares is expected to be 6:00 p.m. on 25 July 2008, the Scheme Record Time. It is expected that Admission will become effective and that dealings in the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will commence at 8:00 a.m. on 28 July 2008, the Scheme Effective Date. These dates may be deferred if it is necessary to adjourn any meetings required to approve the arrangements described in this document or if there is any delay in obtaining the Court's sanction of the Scheme. In the event of a delay, the application for the United Utilities Shares to be delisted will be deferred, so that the listing of those shares will not be cancelled until immediately before the Scheme becomes effective.

With effect from and including the Scheme Effective Date, all share certificates representing United Utilities Shares will cease to be of value and should be destroyed.

CREST is a paperless settlement system enabling securities to be evidenced otherwise than by a certificate and transferred otherwise than by written instrument. The Directors will apply for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be admitted to CREST with effect from Admission. Accordingly, settlement of transactions in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares following Admission may take place within the CREST system.

For those holding their United Utilities Shares in a CREST account at the Scheme Record Time, United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares are expected to be credited to the relevant CREST members' accounts on 28 July 2008, the Scheme Effective Date. In order to facilitate the B Share Alternative elections, the B Shares will, for the purposes of settlement in CREST, be allocated a temporary ISIN under the ISIN: GB00B39J5363 for the period from the Scheme Effective Date, 28 July 2008, until the B Share Dividend is allocated and the Initial B Share Redemption is made, expected to be on 11 August 2008 to allow CREST holders to make their elections electronically through the CREST system. From 11 August 2008, the B Shares will be allocated a new ISIN under the ISIN: GB00B39J4S44. Accordingly, on 11 August 2008, those CREST holders who have elected to retain B Shares under Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption) will have their CREST accounts credited with B Shares under the new ISIN: GB00B39J4S44. CREST is a voluntary system and holders of uncertificated United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares who wish to receive and retain share certificates will be able to remove their United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares from the CREST system following the Scheme becoming effective.

For those holding their United Utilities Shares in certificated form at the Scheme Record Time, definitive certificates for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares are expected to be despatched by 11 August 2008 and (if applicable) certificates for B Shares are expected to be despatched by 15 August 2008, being in each case within fifteen Business Days after the Scheme Effective Date. In the case of joint holders, certificates will be despatched to the joint holder whose name appears first in the relevant register. All certificates will be sent by pre-paid first class post at the risk of the person entitled thereto. Pending the despatch of certificates for United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (and B Shares, where applicable), transfers of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (and B Shares) will be certified against the register of members of United Utilities Group. No share certificates will be issued in respect of the B Shares redeemed and cancelled pursuant to Alternative 1 (Initial B Share Redemption) or converted into Deferred Shares pursuant to Alternative 2 (B Share Dividend). Share certificates will only be issued in respect of the B Shares for which Shareholders have validly elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption). No temporary documents of title will be issued in respect of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares. No share certificates will be issued in respect of the Deferred Shares or the Class A Shares.

United Utilities Shares held in uncertificated form will be disabled in CREST on the Scheme Record Date. United Utilities Group reserves the right to issue United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares to any or all Shareholders in certificated form if, for any reason, it wishes to do so.

All mandates in force at the Scheme Record Time relating to payment of dividends on United Utilities Shares and all instructions then in force relating to notices and other communications will, unless and until varied or revoked, be deemed from the Scheme Effective Date to be valid and effective mandates or instructions to United Utilities Group in relation to the corresponding holding of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares.

All documents, certificates, cheques or other communications sent by or to Shareholders, or as such persons shall direct, will be sent at their own risk and may be sent by post.

6. Directors' and other interests

All of the directors of United Utilities have been appointed directors of United Utilities Group.

The effect of the Scheme on the interests of the Directors (details of which are set out in paragraph 2 of Part VI of this document) does not differ from its effect on the like interests of other persons.

After the Scheme Effective Date, the total emoluments receivable by each of the Directors will not be varied as a result of the Scheme. The existing service agreements between United Utilities and each of the executive Directors will remain unaffected by the Scheme. The existing non-executive Directors will resign as Directors of United Utilities and will take up new appointments as non-executive Directors of United Utilities Group on substantially the same terms as previously with United Utilities.

7. Taxation

Certain UK tax considerations which arise from the implementation of the Proposals and which will apply to Shareholders resident in the UK are summarised in Part V of this document.

Shareholders who are in any doubt about their tax position should consult their own professional adviser.

8. United Utilities Group Articles

A summary of the principal differences between the United Utilities Group Articles and the United Utilities Articles is set out in paragraph 1 of Part VI.

The United Utilities Group Articles have been updated to reflect the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 which came into force and those which will come into force on or before 6 April 2008 and 1 October 2008 and current practice in relation to articles of association of listed companies.

9. United Utilities Employee Share Plans

The effect of the Scheme in relation to the United Utilities Employee Share Plans is described in paragraph 9 of the letter from the Chairman of United Utilities in Part I of this document.

10. Holders of ADRs

10.1 The Scheme and the Return of Capital

The Shareholder elections in respect of the B Shares provide Shareholders with a choice with regard to the timing of the receipt of their share of the Return of Capital. For regulatory reasons, holders of United Utilities ADRs are not in the same position as Shareholders in relation to the B Share Alternatives and United Utilities considers it unduly onerous to make the B Share Alternatives available to holders of United Utilities ADRs. Consequently, holders of United Utilities ADRs will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to the Depositary and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend.

In connection with the delisting and cancellation of the United Utilities Shares, the ADR facility which is currently in place in the United States in respect of the United Utilities Shares will be terminated. A new ADR facility will be established in respect of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme.

Following the Scheme becoming effective, the United Utilities Shares underlying each United Utilities ADR will be cancelled and the Depository will be issued with 17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares it holds at the Scheme Record Time and one B Share for each United Utilities Share it holds at the Scheme Record Time.

United Utilities Group ADRs will be issued by the Depository in respect of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares that have been issued to the Depository. Persons registered as holding United Utilities ADRs at 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on 25 July 2008 will be entitled to receive United Utilities Group ADRs when they have surrendered their United Utilities ADRs to the Depository for cancellation in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement. Accordingly, all persons registered as holders of United Utilities ADRs at 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on 25 July 2008 will be requested to surrender their United Utilities ADRs for cancellation in order to receive delivery of United Utilities Group ADRs.

To the extent that fractions arise as a result of the Scheme, holders of United Utilities ADRs will have the net proceeds, if any, of sale on their behalf of the fractional United Utilities Group ADRs remitted to them in US dollars in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement.

Holders of United Utilities ADRs at 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on 25 July 2008 will, subject to the adjustment for fractional entitlements, own the same proportion of ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group, in the form of United Utilities Group ADRs, immediately after the Scheme Effective Date as they held in the ordinary share capital of United Utilities by virtue of their United Utilities ADRs immediately prior to the Scheme Effective Date. However, the number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares underlying a holder's United Utilities Group ADR will be lower than the number of United Utilities Shares underlying that holder's United Utilities ADR but a holder will also receive his share in the Return of Capital.

The Depository will, in due course, send a notice to the registered holders of United Utilities ADRs regarding the mechanics of surrendering United Utilities ADRs and receiving United Utilities Group ADRs. Holders of certificated United Utilities ADRs will need to follow the instructions set out in that notice.

To the extent United Utilities ADRs are held through a bank, broker or other firm holding United Utilities ADRs in The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), the Depository will arrange with DTC to surrender their entire position of United Utilities ADRs for cancellation and the Depository will deliver the United Utilities Group ADRs through the DTC settlement system, in each case with no action being required on the part of the persons holding United Utilities ADRs. Holders of United Utilities ADRs who hold such United Utilities ADRs via the direct registration system will automatically receive their United Utilities Group ADRs through the direct registration system.

The B Shares will not form part of the United Utilities ADR facility. They will be issued to the Depository who will be deemed to have elected for the B Share Dividend in respect of those Shares. Any cash received by the Depository in respect of the B Share Dividend will be distributed to the holders of the United Utilities ADRs in US dollars following conversion by the Depository from pounds Sterling in the manner set forth in, and pursuant to the terms of, the United Utilities Deposit Agreement. No depositary receipts will be issued by the Depository in respect of any B Shares or Deferred Shares.

10.2 United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement

In connection with the implementation of the Scheme, United Utilities Group and the Depository will enter into the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement. The terms of the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement are expected to be substantially the same as those of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement. It is expected that the fees the Depository will be permitted to charge on cash distributions under the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement will be US$0.04 or less per American Depository Share (as defined therein). The United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement will become effective as of the Scheme Effective Date when the United Utilities Deposit Agreement will be terminated.

The holders of United Utilities ADRs should note that fees will be charged by the Depository for the cancellation of United Utilities ADRs and the creation of new United Utilities Group ADRs. Such fees will be levied in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement and the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement.

United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares issued in respect of United Utilities Shares held under the United Utilities Deposit Agreement will be deposited into this new facility, and United Utilities Group ADRs representing United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will be issued thereunder. All United Utilities Group ADRs initially issued under the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement shall be evidenced by direct registration ADRs, unless certificated ADRs are specifically requested by the holder. A direct registration ADR is one issued in book-entry form through the Depository's direct registration system. Such direct registration system reflects the uncertificated registration of ownership of securities established by DTC, pursuant to which the Depository may record the ownership of ADRs without issuing a certificate. Such ownership is evidenced by periodic statements issued by the Depository to the holders entitled thereto.

United Utilities Group does not expect to enter into a deposit agreement or otherwise take any action to establish a depository receipt facility with respect to the B Shares or the Deferred Shares.

10.3 Voting

Under the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement, you are not entitled to attend or vote at the Court Meeting or the General Meeting or appoint a proxy to attend and vote on your behalf. You may only attend or vote at the meetings if you become a registered holder of United Utilities Shares prior to the Scheme Voting Record Time by arranging for the surrender of your United Utilities ADRs in accordance with the terms of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement.

However, if you are a holder of United Utilities ADRs, you will have received a voting card so that you can instruct the Depository how you want it to vote at the Court Meeting and the General Meeting in respect of the United Utilities Shares represented by your United Utilities ADRs.

Completed voting cards should be returned (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which they are signed or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) to the Depository as soon as possible and in any event so as to arrive by no later than 3:00 p.m. (New York time) on 23 June 2008. Upon completion of the voting card, you should place it in the pre-addressed envelope provided and return it to the Depository. Postage will not be required if mailed in the United States.

If you do not return the voting card in respect of the Court Meeting or the General Meeting or you do not indicate on that form whether the Depository should vote for or against the Scheme at the Court Meeting or how it should vote with respect to the resolutions proposed at the General Meeting, the Depository will not cast any votes at the Court Meeting or the General Meeting (as the case may be) in respect of the United Utilities Shares represented by the United Utilities ADRs.

11. Overseas Shareholders

11.1 General

No United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares nor any other securities in United Utilities Group have been marketed to, nor are any available for purchase, in whole or in part, by, the public in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in connection with Admission or the Proposals. This document does not constitute or form part of any offer or invitation to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, or any solicitation of any offer to purchase, subscribe for, sell or issue, United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares or any other securities of United Utilities Group.

The distribution of this document and the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law. No action has been taken by United Utilities or United Utilities Group to obtain any approval, authorisation or exemption to permit the allotment or issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, B Shares and/or Class A Shares or the possession or distribution of this document (or any other publicity material relating to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and/or Class A Shares) in any jurisdiction other than in the United Kingdom.

Overseas Shareholders may be affected by the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to the distribution of this document or the Proposals. Persons into whose possession this document comes should inform themselves about and observe any applicable restrictions and legal, exchange control or regulatory requirements in relation to the distribution of this document and the Proposals. Any failure to comply with such restrictions or requirements may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

This document is not for publication or distribution in or into any jurisdiction in which such act would constitute a violation of the relevant laws of such jurisdiction. The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares may not be offered, sold or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, in or into any jurisdiction or for the account or benefit of citizens or residents of any such jurisdiction except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable rules and regulations of any such jurisdiction.

It is the responsibility of any person into whose possession this document comes to satisfy themselves as to the full observance of the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in connection with the distribution of this document or the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares pursuant to the Scheme, including the obtaining of any governmental, exchange control or other consents which may be required and/or compliance with other necessary formalities which are required to be observed and the payment of any issue, transfer or other taxes or levies due in such jurisdiction.

If, in respect of any Overseas Shareholders, United Utilities or United Utilities Group is advised that the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares would or might infringe the laws of any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom or would or might require United Utilities Group to obtain any governmental or other consent or effect any registration, filing or other formality with which, in the opinion of United Utilities Group, it would be unable to comply or which it regards as unduly onerous, the Scheme provides that:

- (A) in the case of such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such shares shall be allotted and issued to such persons as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, on terms that they shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder; or
- (B) where such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where paragraph (A) does not apply), United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares shall be sold, and United Utilities Group shall appoint a person who shall be authorised on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder to procure that any shares in respect of which United Utilities Group has made such determination shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder; or
- (C) in the case of such B Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such shares shall be allotted and issued to such person as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, until such time as they are redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption. The net proceeds of such redemption (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder; or

- (D) where such B Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where paragraph (C) does not apply), such B Shares shall be redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption.

Any remittance of the net proceeds of sale or redemption referred to in this section shall be at the risk of the relevant Overseas Shareholder.

Overseas Shareholders should consult their own legal and tax advisers with respect to the legal and tax consequences of the Proposals in their particular circumstances.

11.2 United States

US Shareholders will not be eligible to make an election with respect to the B Shares allotted to them and will only be entitled to receive the B Share Dividend (Alternative 2). Any purported election by a US Shareholder for the Initial B Share Redemption or the Final B Share Redemption will be deemed by United Utilities Group to be an election for the B Share Dividend in respect of all of that Shareholder's B Shares.

Neither the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be, and are not required to be, registered under the US Securities Act and will be issued pursuant to the Scheme in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act. For the purpose of qualifying for the exemption from the registration requirements of the US Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of that act with respect to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares issued pursuant to the Scheme, United Utilities will advise the Court that it will rely on the Section 3(a)(10) exemption based on the Court's sanctioning of the Scheme, which will be relied upon by United Utilities as an approval of the Scheme following a hearing on its fairness to Shareholders of United Utilities at which hearing all such Shareholders will be entitled to attend in person or through counsel to support or oppose the sanctioning of the Scheme and with respect to which notification has been or will be given to all such Shareholders.

Neither the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares will be registered under the securities laws of any state of the United States, and will be issued pursuant to the Scheme in reliance on available exemptions from such state law registration requirements.

Neither United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor B Shares issued to a Shareholder who is neither an affiliate (within the meaning of the US Securities Act) of United Utilities or United Utilities Group prior to the Scheme Effective Date, nor an affiliate of United Utilities Group after the Scheme Effective Date, will be "restricted securities" under the US Securities Act and such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and such B Shares may be sold by such person in ordinary secondary market transactions without regard to Rules 144 or 145(c) or (d) under the US Securities Act.

Neither the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares nor the B Shares have been and will not be listed on a US securities exchange or quoted on any inter-dealer quotation system in the United States. United Utilities Group does not intend to take any action to facilitate a market in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares in the United States. Consequently, United Utilities Group believes that it is unlikely that an active trading market in the United States will develop for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares.

Neither the SEC nor any other US federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority has approved or disapproved of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares or passed an opinion upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

Shareholders who are citizens or residents of the United States should consult their own legal and tax advisers with respect to the legal and tax consequences of the Scheme in their particular circumstances.

11.3 Canada

In Canada, this Circular is being furnished to Shareholders solely to explain the Proposals and the Return of Capital and describe the action recommended to be taken by Shareholders in relation to the Court Meeting and the General Meeting as applicable. This Circular is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, an offer to any person in Canada or an advertisement or a public offering of the securities described herein. No securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed an opinion upon this Circular or the merits of the securities described herein and any representation to the contrary is an offence in Canada.

The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be issued in Canada pursuant to the Scheme and the issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares will be exempt from the requirement that United Utilities Group prepare and file a prospectus with the relevant Canadian regulatory authorities pursuant to section 2.11 of National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus and Registration Exemptions. Accordingly, any resale of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares must be made in accordance with applicable securities laws which may require resales to be made pursuant to exemptions from registration and prospectus requirements. These resale restrictions may in some circumstances apply to resales of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares outside of Canada. Canadian investors are advised to seek legal advice prior to any resale of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares.

United Utilities Group is not, and does not intend to become, a “reporting issuer” as such term is defined under applicable Canadian securities legislation, in any province or territory of Canada in which the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares will be offered and there is currently no public market for the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares in Canada and no such market may ever develop. Under no circumstances will United Utilities Group be required to file a prospectus or similar document with any securities regulatory authority in Canada qualifying the resale of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares to the public in any province or territory of Canada. Canadian investors are advised that United Utilities Group currently does not intend to file a prospectus or similar document with any securities regulatory authority in Canada qualifying the resale of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares to the public in any province or territory of Canada.

Any discussion of taxation and related matters contained in this Circular does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to acquire the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares and, in particular, does not address Canadian tax considerations. Shareholders who are Canadian residents should consult their own legal, financial and tax advisers with respect to the tax consequences of the Scheme in their particular circumstances.

United Utilities Group is incorporated under the laws of England and Wales. All or substantially all of United Utilities Group’s directors and officers, and certain of the experts named herein, may be located outside of Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible for Canadian investors to effect service of process within Canada upon United Utilities Group or such persons. All or a substantial portion of the assets of United Utilities Group and such other persons may be located outside of Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible to satisfy a judgment against United Utilities Group or such persons in Canada or to enforce a judgment obtained in Canadian courts against United Utilities Group or persons outside of Canada.

Upon receipt of this document, each Canadian investor confirms that it has expressly requested that all documents evidencing or relating in any way to the sale of the securities described herein (including for greater certainty any purchase confirmation or any notice) be drawn up in the English language only. French translation: Par la réception de ce document, chaque investisseur canadien confirme par les présentes qu'il a expressément exigé que tous les documents faisant foi ou se rapportant de quelque manière que ce soit à la vente des valeurs mobilières décrites aux présentes (incluant, pour plus de certitude, toute confirmation d'achat ou tout avis) soient rédigé en anglais seulement.

11.4 New Zealand

For regulatory reasons, in the case of NZ Shareholders, B Shares (and Class A Shares) will be allotted and issued to a nominee for such Shareholders, appointed by United Utilities Group. The nominee will not make an election in respect of those B Shares. Consequently, such B Shares will be redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption and the nominee shall pay the net proceeds of redemption (after the reduction of all expenses and commissions) to the relevant NZ Shareholders.

12. Meetings and consents for implementation of the Proposals

The Scheme will require Shareholders to vote on the Scheme at the Court Meeting, convened pursuant to an order of the Court, and the passing of the special resolution relating to the Scheme at the General Meeting, both of which have been convened for 1 July 2008 and will be held at Bridgewater Hall, Lower Mosley Street, Manchester M2 3WS at 11:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. (or, if later, immediately following the conclusion or adjournment of the Court Meeting) respectively.

United Utilities Group has agreed to appear by Counsel on the final hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and to undertake to be bound by the Scheme.

Each of the Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital requires a separate sanction from the Court.

Notices of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting are set out in Parts VIII and IX respectively of this document.

Court Meeting

The Court Meeting has been convened for 11:00 a.m. on 1 July 2008, pursuant to an order of the Court, at which meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, Shareholders appearing on the register at the Scheme Voting Record Time will consider and, if thought fit, approve the Scheme.

At the Court Meeting, voting will be by poll and each Shareholder present in person or by proxy will be entitled to one vote for each United Utilities Share held. The statutory majority required to approve the Scheme at the Court Meeting is a majority in number of the Shareholders present and voting (either in person or by proxy) at the Court Meeting representing 75 per cent. in value of the United Utilities Shares held and voted by them.

In order that the Court can be satisfied that the votes cast constitute a fair representation of the views of the Shareholders, it is important that as many votes as possible are cast at the Court Meeting.

Shareholders are therefore encouraged to take the action referred to in paragraph 16 below.

Shareholders should be aware that if the Scheme is approved and becomes effective, it will be binding on all Shareholders irrespective of whether they attended and voted at the Court Meeting or the way they voted.

General Meeting

The General Meeting has been convened for 11:15 a.m. on 1 July 2008 (or, if later, immediately following the conclusion or adjournment of the Court Meeting). The resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting are set out in full in the Notice of General Meeting set out in Part IX.

The special resolution set out in the notice of the General Meeting is proposed in order to approve:

- (A) the Scheme;

- (B) the cancellation of the Scheme Shares (including the related reduction of share capital);
- (C) the increase in the authorised share capital of United Utilities to its former amount by the creation of New United Utilities Shares to be issued to United Utilities Group (and/or its nominee(s));
- (D) the allotment by the Directors of such New United Utilities Shares to United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s); and
- (E) amendments to the United Utilities Articles to ensure that the holders of United Utilities Shares allotted prior to the confirmation by the Court of the reduction of capital provided for under the Scheme are bound by the Scheme and that any United Utilities Shares allotted at or after that time are transferred to United Utilities Group (and/or its nominee(s)) in consideration for the issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (on a one for one basis).

The special resolution referred to above will be decided on a poll and each Shareholder present in person or by proxy will be entitled to one vote for each United Utilities Share held. The majority required for the passing of such resolution is not less than 75 per cent. of the votes cast.

The ordinary resolutions set out in the notice of the General Meeting are proposed in order to approve the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans.

13. Authorities relating to United Utilities Group's share capital

A general meeting of United Utilities Group has already been held at which, among other matters, the Directors were granted authority to undertake the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and to issue and allot United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares requisite to the implementation of the Scheme. The Directors have been granted authorities to allot United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, to make allotments otherwise than in accordance with pre-emption rights and to make purchases of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares which update the authorities as implemented in respect of United Utilities at its annual general meeting on 27 July 2007.

For additional information on the authorities relating to United Utilities Group's share capital which have been granted, please see section 3 of Part X of the Prospectus.

14. Electronic and website communication and political donations

A general meeting of United Utilities Group was held at which, amongst other things:

- (A) United Utilities Group was authorised to use electronic communications with its shareholders and to serve any notice or supply other documents or information to its shareholders by making them available on a website or by using other electronic means; and
- (B) United Utilities Group and any of its subsidiaries were authorised in aggregate to (i) make political donations to political parties and/or independent election candidates not exceeding £50,000 in total (ii) make political donations to political organisations other than political parties not exceeding £50,000 in total, and (iii) incur political expenditure not exceeding £50,000 in total. Such authority will expire at the conclusion of the annual general meeting of United Utilities Group to be held in 2009.

Part 14 of the Companies Act 2006 requires companies to seek shareholder approval for political donations to political parties and other political organisations, and for other political expenditure. Although United Utilities Group does not make, and does not intend to make, donations to political parties, within the normal meaning of that expression, the definition of political donations is very broad and includes expenses legitimately incurred as part of the process of talking to members of parliament and opinion-formers to ensure that the issues and concerns of the Group are considered and addressed. These activities are not intended to support any political party and the Group's policy is not to make any donations for political purposes in the normally accepted sense. The authorities were sought from shareholders to ensure that United Utilities Group, and its subsidiaries, act within the law in case any of their normal activities are caught by the legislation.

Accordingly, Shareholders of United Utilities will not be required separately to approve the authorisation of electronic communications or the making of political donations by United Utilities Group once they have become Shareholders of United Utilities Group pursuant to the Scheme.

15. Prospectus

The Prospectus relating to United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares which is required to be published to effect the introduction of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to the Official List, can be accessed in electronic form via www.unitedutilities.com. Should you wish to receive a paper copy of the Prospectus free of charge, please contact United Utilities' Registrars on 0871 384 2898 (or from outside the UK +44 121 415 0269). The Prospectus contains information (including financial information) in relation to United Utilities Group, a business overview of the Group, an operating and financial review in relation to the Group and a section of additional information, including details of the remuneration and shareholding of the Directors and material contracts of the Group.

16. Action to be taken

16.1 Voting at the Court Meeting and the General Meeting

On 1 July 2008, the Court Meeting and the General Meeting will be held to seek approval for the Proposals. Notices of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting are set out as Parts VIII and IX of this document respectively.

Forms of proxy are enclosed as follows:

- (a) for the Court Meeting, a blue Form of Proxy; and
- (b) for the General Meeting, a white Form of Proxy.

Whether or not you propose to attend the meetings in person, you are requested, if you hold United Utilities Shares in certificated form, to complete and sign both Forms of Proxy.

Completed Forms of Proxy should be returned (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) to the Registrars, Equiniti Limited either by post to, Aspect House, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6DA or, by hand during normal business hours only, to Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA, as soon as possible, and in any event so as to arrive not later than 11:00 a.m. on 29 June 2008 in respect of the blue Form of Proxy for the Court Meeting and 11:15 a.m. on 29 June 2008 in respect of the white Form of Proxy for the General Meeting. In each case, the Forms of Proxy should be completed in accordance with the instructions printed on them.

The blue Form of Proxy in respect of the Court Meeting may also be handed to the Registrars or the Chairman at the Court Meeting before the start of such meeting. However, in the case of the General Meeting, unless the white Form of Proxy is returned to the Registrars so as to arrive by 11:15 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, it will be invalid.

Alternatively, you can submit your proxy vote electronically by visiting www.sharevote.co.uk. You will need to enter your voting reference numbers, the three numbers quoted on your Forms of Proxy and follow the online instructions. The deadline for receipt of electronic proxies is 11:00 a.m. for the Court Meeting and 11:15 a.m. for the General Meeting on 29 June 2008 or, if either of the meetings is adjourned, 48 hours before the time appointed for the adjourned meeting(s).

If you hold your United Utilities Shares in CREST, you can appoint a proxy by completing and transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction in accordance with the procedures set out in the CREST Manual. Your CREST Proxy Instruction must be received by the Registrars by 11:15 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time appointed for the adjourned meeting.

The lodging of the Forms of Proxy, submitting your proxy vote electronically or transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction will not prevent you from attending either the Court Meeting or the General Meeting and voting in person should you decide to do so.

Holders of United Utilities ADRs should refer to paragraph 10 of this Part II for more information on what action they should take.

16.2 Making an election in respect of the Return of Capital

Using the enclosed Form of Election, you should elect for one of the B Share Alternatives in relation to your B Shares. Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) wishing to elect for one or more of the alternatives should tick and sign the relevant boxes on the Form of Election accompanying this document and return it to the Registrars in the reply-paid envelope to be received by no later than 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008.

If you do not properly complete and return your Form of Election (or TTE instruction for CREST Shareholders) so as to be received by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008, unless the Board of United Utilities Group otherwise determines, you will be deemed to have chosen the Initial B Share Redemption (Alternative 1) for all of your B Shares which means your entire holding of B Shares will be redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date (expected to be 11 August 2008).

If you have any further questions relating to this document or the completion of the Forms of Proxy or the Form of Election, please call Equiniti Limited, United Utilities Registrars, on 0871 384 2898 (or, if you are calling from outside the United Kingdom, +44 121 415 0269) between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Please note that calls to these numbers may be monitored and recorded and no advice on the merits of the Proposals can be given, nor any legal, financial or tax advice.

No action with respect to the B Shares issued under the Scheme is required from Restricted Overseas Shareholders or holders of United Utilities ADRs.

17. Further information

Your attention is drawn to the Chairman's Letter set out in Part I of this document, the Scheme (which is set out in full in Part III of this document) and the additional information set out in Part VI of this document.

Yours faithfully

Martin Pengelley
for and on behalf of
Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch

David Clasen
for and on behalf of
JPMorgan Cazenove Limited

PART III

SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE
CHANCERY DIVISION
COMPANIES COURT

No. 4197 of 2008

IN THE MATTER OF UNITED UTILITIES PLC
and
IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES ACT 2006
SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT
(under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006)

between
UNITED UTILITIES PLC
and
THE SCHEME SHAREHOLDERS
(as hereinafter defined)

PRELIMINARY

(A) In this Scheme of Arrangement, references to Clauses are references to clauses of this scheme of arrangement and, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall bear the following meanings:

“B Shares”	means the B shares of 170 pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme;
“business day”	means a day (excluding Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday) on which banks generally are open for business in the City of London for the transaction of normal banking business;
“Circular”	means this document of which the Scheme forms part;
“Class A Shares”	means the redeemable class A shares of one pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted pro rata to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) upon capitalisation of the merger reserve created upon the Scheme becoming effective and which are to be cancelled as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital;
“Companies Acts”	means the Companies Act 1985 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force and any provisions of the Companies Act 2006 for the time being in force;
“Court”	means the High Court of Justice of England and Wales;
“Court Hearing”	means the hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and confirm the reduction of capital of United Utilities involved in the Scheme;

“Court Meeting”	means the meeting of the holders of United Utilities Shares convened for 1 July 2008 by order of the Court pursuant to section 896 of the Companies Act 2006 to consider and, if thought fit, approve this Scheme, and any adjournment of that meeting;
“CREST”	means the system for the paperless settlement of trades in securities and the holding of uncertificated securities operated by Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited in accordance with the CREST Regulations;
“CREST Regulations”	means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/3755);
“holder”	means a registered holder, and includes any person(s) entitled by transmission;
“in certificated form”	means in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security which is not in uncertificated form;
“New United Utilities Shares”	means the ordinary shares of United Utilities created following the cancellation under the Scheme which shall be of an aggregate nominal amount equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the Scheme Shares cancelled;
“NZ Shareholders”	means Shareholders who have an address in New Zealand on the Register;
“Overseas Shareholder”	means a Scheme Shareholder who is a citizen, resident or national of any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom;
“penny”, “pence”, “p”, “£” or “pounds sterling”	means the lawful currency of the United Kingdom;
“Proposals”	means the Scheme, the subsequent United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and the proposed return of capital of approximately £1.5 billion to shareholders;
“Prospectus”	means the prospectus relating to United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, expected to be published on or around the date of the Circular;
“Redeemable Preference Shares”	means the redeemable non-voting preference shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group;
“Register”	means the register of members of United Utilities;
“Scheme”	means this scheme of arrangement in its present form or with or subject to any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the Court;
“Scheme Effective Date”	means the date on which this Scheme becomes effective in accordance with Clause 7;
“Scheme Record Date”	means the business day immediately preceding the Scheme Effective Date;
“Scheme Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on the Scheme Record Date;
“Scheme Shareholder”	means a holder of Scheme Shares as appearing in the Register at the Scheme Record Time;

“Scheme Shares”	means:
	(A) all United Utilities Shares in issue at the date of the Scheme and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time;
	(B) all (if any) additional United Utilities Shares in issue prior to the Scheme Voting Record Time and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time; and
	(C) all (if any) further United Utilities Shares which may be in issue immediately prior to the confirmation by the Court of the capital reduction provided for under the Scheme on terms that the original or any subsequent holders thereof shall be bound by the Scheme and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time;
“Scheme Voting Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, 6:00 p.m. on the second day before the date of such adjourned meeting;
“Subscriber Ordinary Shares”	means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group whose rights will be deferred upon the Scheme becoming effective;
“UK” or “United Kingdom”	means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;
“uncertificated” or “in uncertificated form”	means, in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security title to which is recorded on the relevant register of the share or security concerned as being held in uncertificated form in CREST and title to which, by virtue of the CREST Regulations, may be transferred by means of CREST;
“United Utilities” or the “Company”	means United Utilities PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 02366616;
“United Utilities Group”	means United Utilities Group PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 06559020;
“United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares”	means the ordinary shares of 500 pence each (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme;
“United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital”	means the proposed reduction of capital of United Utilities Group under section 135 of the Companies Act 1985 to be undertaken shortly after the Scheme Effective Date; and
“United Utilities Shares”	means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities.

All times referred to in this Scheme are references to London time unless otherwise specified.

- (B) The authorised share capital of United Utilities at the date of this Scheme is £1,300,000,000 divided into 1,300,000,000 United Utilities Shares of £1 each, of which as at 30 May 2008 (being the latest practicable date prior to the posting of the Circular), 881,708,819 United Utilities Shares have been issued and are credited as fully paid and the remainder were unissued. It is intended to issue one share in the capital of United Utilities as one non-voting deferred A share shortly before the hearing when the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme and confirm the capital reduction of United Utilities.

- (C) United Utilities Group was incorporated and registered in England and Wales as a private limited company on 8 April 2008, with registered number 06559020 and with the name United Utilities Newco Limited. It re-registered as a public limited company and changed its name to United Utilities Group PLC on 28 April 2008.
- (D) The authorised share capital of United Utilities Group at the date of this document is £10,530,050,002 divided into 1,000,000,000 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares of 500 pence each, 900,000,000 B Shares of 170 pence each, 400,000,000,000 Class A Shares of one pence each, 50,000 Redeemable Preference Shares of £1 each and two Subscriber Ordinary Shares of £1 each. The two Subscriber Ordinary Shares and the 50,000 Redeemable Preference Shares have been issued. All other shares are unissued.
- (E) No Scheme Shares are or will be beneficially owned by United Utilities Group.
- (F) United Utilities Group has agreed to appear by Counsel at the Court Hearing, to consent to the Scheme and to undertake to be bound thereby and to execute and do or procure to be executed and done all such documents, acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to be executed or done by it for the purpose of giving effect to this Scheme.

THE SCHEME

1. Cancellation of Scheme Shares

- (A) The share capital of United Utilities shall be reduced by cancelling and extinguishing all of the Scheme Shares.
- (B) Forthwith and contingent upon the reduction of capital referred to in sub-clause (A) of this Clause 1 taking effect:
 - (i) the authorised share capital of United Utilities shall be increased to its former amount by the creation of such number of New United Utilities Shares as shall be equal to the aggregate number of Scheme Shares cancelled pursuant to sub-clause (A) of this Clause 1; and
 - (ii) United Utilities shall apply the credit arising in its books of account as a result of such reduction of capital in paying up in full, at par, the New United Utilities Shares created pursuant to sub-clause (B)(i) of this Clause 1 and shall allot and issue the same, credited as fully paid up, to United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s).

2. Consideration for the cancellation of the Scheme Shares and issue of New United Utilities Shares

In consideration of the cancellation of the Scheme Shares and the issue of the New United Utilities Shares to United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s) pursuant to Clause 1, United Utilities Group shall (subject to the remaining provisions of this Scheme) allot and issue (credited as fully paid) United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares to the holders of Scheme Shares on the basis of 17 United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares for every 22 United Utilities Shares held at the Scheme Record Time (as appearing in the Register) and one B Share for each United Utilities Share held at the Scheme Record Time (as appearing in the Register).

No fractions of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares shall be allotted and issued to any holder. Instead, all fractions to which holders would have otherwise been entitled shall be aggregated and sold in the market on behalf of such holders as soon as reasonably practicable after the Scheme Effective Date and the net proceeds of such sale shall be paid in cash to such holders entitled thereto in due proportions in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4, rounding downwards to the nearest whole penny. None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group or any person acting on behalf of them or any broker or agent of any of them shall have any liability (save in the case of fraud) for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of any such sale.

3. Allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares

- (A) The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be issued pursuant to Clause 2 shall rank in full for all dividends or distributions made, paid or declared after the Scheme Effective Date on the ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group.
- (B) The provisions of Clause 2 shall be subject to any prohibition or condition imposed by law. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, if, in respect of any Overseas Shareholder, United Utilities Group is advised that the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares pursuant to Clause 2 would or might infringe the laws of any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom or would or might require United Utilities Group to obtain any governmental or other consent or effect any registration, filing or other formality with which, in the opinion of United Utilities Group, it would be unable to comply or which it regards as unduly onerous, then United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that:
- (i) in the case of the allotment and issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such shares shall be allotted and issued to such person as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, on terms that they shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4. None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group or any nominee so appointed or any broker or agent of any of them shall have any liability (save in the case of fraud) for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of any such sale; or
 - (ii) where such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where sub-clause (B)(i) of this Clause 3 does not apply), such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares shall be sold, and United Utilities Group shall appoint a person to act pursuant to this sub-clause (B)(ii) and such person shall be authorised on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder to procure that any shares in respect of which United Utilities Group has made such determination shall, as soon as practicable following the Scheme Effective Date, be sold at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4. To give effect to any such sale, the person so appointed shall be authorised on behalf of such Overseas Shareholder to execute and deliver a form of transfer and to give such instructions and to do all such things which he may consider necessary or expedient in connection with such sale. None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group or the person so appointed or any broker or agent or any of them shall have any liability (save in the case of fraud) for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of any such sale; or
 - (iii) in the case of the allotment and issue of B Shares, United Utilities Group may in its sole discretion determine that such shares shall be allotted and issued to such person as United Utilities Group may procure, as nominee for such Overseas Shareholder, until such time as they are redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption. The net proceeds of such redemption (after the reduction of all expenses and commissions) shall be paid to such Overseas Shareholder in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4. None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group or any nominee so appointed or any broker or agent of any of them shall have any liability (save in the case of fraud) for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of any such redemption; or
 - (iv) where such B Shares have already been allotted and issued (in circumstances where sub-clause (B)(iii) of this Clause 3 does not apply), such B Shares shall be redeemed pursuant to the Initial B Share Redemption.

- (C) The provisions of Clause 2 shall be subject to this sub-clause (C) of this Clause 3. In the case of NZ Shareholders, B Shares will be allotted and issued to a nominee appointed by United Utilities who will not make any elections with respect of such B Shares and then pay the net proceeds of the Initial B Share Redemption (after the reduction of all expenses and commissions) to the relevant NZ Shareholders. None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group or any nominee so appointed or any broker or agent of any of them shall have any liability (save in the case of fraud) for any loss or damage arising as a result of the timing or terms of any such redemption.

4. Certificates and payments

- (A) Not later than five business days after the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities Group shall allot and issue all United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares which it is required to allot and issue to give effect to this Scheme and, not later than fifteen business days after the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities Group shall send by first class post to the allottees of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (and those B Shares in respect of which an election was made for the Final B Share Redemption (Alternative 3)) certificates in respect of due entitlement to such shares save that where United Utilities Shares are held in uncertificated form, United Utilities Group will procure that Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited is instructed to cancel the entitlement to United Utilities Shares of each of the Scheme Shareholders concerned and to credit to the appropriate stock account in CREST of each such Scheme Shareholder the due entitlement to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares.
- (B) Not later than five business days following the sale of any relevant United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or redemption of any relevant B Shares pursuant to sub-clauses (B) and (C) of Clause 3, United Utilities Group shall procure that the nominee or appointee, as the case may be, shall account for the cash payable by either despatching to the persons respectively entitled thereto cheques and/or warrants by post or where United Utilities Shares are held in uncertificated form, crediting the relevant amount to the appropriate account in CREST of each such Scheme Shareholder.
- (C) All certificates required to be sent by United Utilities Group pursuant to sub-clause (A) of this Clause 4 and all cheques or warrants required to be sent pursuant to sub-clause (B) of this Clause 4 shall be sent by first class post in envelopes addressed to and at the risk of the persons respectively entitled thereto at their respective addresses appearing in the Register at the Scheme Record Time (or, in the case of joint holders, to the address of that one of the joint holders whose name stands first in the Register in respect of the joint holding) or in accordance with any special instructions regarding communications received at the registered office of United Utilities prior to the Scheme Record Time.
- (D) If United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares are consolidated or subdivided or if the nominal value of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and/or B Shares is reduced prior to the despatch of any certificates or the giving of any instructions in accordance with this Clause 4, the certificates or instructions shall relate to such United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares as so consolidated, subdivided and/or reduced.
- (E) None of United Utilities, United Utilities Group, any nominee referred to in sub-clauses (B)(i), (B)(iii) or (C) of Clause 3, such person appointed to act under sub-clause (B)(ii) of Clause 3 or any agent of any of them shall be responsible for any loss or delay in transmission of certificates, cheques or warrants sent in accordance with this Clause 4.
- (F) All cheques and warrants shall be made payable to the holder(s) and posted to the registered address of the first named of the joint holders whose name stands first in the Register at the Scheme Record Time in respect of that joint holding and the encashment of any such cheque or warrant shall be a complete discharge of United Utilities Group for the monies represented thereby.
- (G) This Clause 4 shall be subject to any prohibition or condition imposed by law.

5. Certificates representing Scheme Shares

With effect from and including the Scheme Effective Date, all certificates representing holdings of Scheme Shares shall cease to be valid in respect of such holdings. The holders of such shares shall be bound at the request of United Utilities or United Utilities Group to deliver such certificates for cancellation to United Utilities, United Utilities Group or to any person appointed by United Utilities to receive the same, unless such certificates have been destroyed on receipt of the share certificates in respect of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares to which they are entitled.

6. Mandated payments and other instructions

Each mandate in force at the Scheme Record Time relating to the payment of dividends on Scheme Shares and each instruction then in force as to notices and other communications from United Utilities shall, unless and until varied or revoked, be deemed as from the Scheme Effective Date to be a valid and effective mandate or instruction to United Utilities Group in relation to the corresponding United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares to be allotted and issued to Scheme Shareholders pursuant to this Scheme.

7. Scheme Effective Date

- (A) This Scheme shall become effective as soon as an office copy of the order of the Court sanctioning this Scheme under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 and confirming the reduction of capital provided for by this Scheme under section 137 of the Companies Act 1985 shall have been duly delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration and been registered by him.
- (B) Unless this Scheme shall have become effective on or before 31 December 2008 or such later date, if any, as United Utilities and United Utilities Group may agree and the Court may allow, it shall lapse.

8. Loans by United Utilities

United Utilities is authorised and permitted to lend to United Utilities Group the sum of £1,501 million, or such lesser sum as the directors of United Utilities may consider necessary, to enable United Utilities Group to finance the proposed return of approximately £1.5 billion to shareholders.

9. Costs

United Utilities is authorised and permitted to pay all costs and expenses relating to the issue of the Circular and the Prospectus and the negotiation, preparation and implementation of the Proposals.

10. Modification

United Utilities and United Utilities Group may jointly consent on behalf of all persons concerned to any modification of or addition to this Scheme or to any condition which the Court may think fit to approve or impose.

Dated 6 June 2008

PART IV

RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS ATTACHING TO THE B SHARES AND THE DEFERRED SHARES

1. Rights and restrictions of the B Shares

The following summarises the rights of the B Shares and the restrictions to which they are subject, which are reflected in the United Utilities Group Articles.

1.1 Elections in respect of B Shares

- (A) Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) will be sent a Form of Election together with the Circular under which they can elect in relation to any of their B Shares to have them redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date, to receive the B Share Dividend or to have them redeemed on the Final B Share Redemption Date.
- (B) Holders of B Shares (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders) who are deemed to have elected to receive the B Share Dividend) who have not returned a duly completed Form of Election or provided a TTE instruction through the CREST system by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such later time and/or date as the Board may determine) will have all of their B Shares redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date.
- (C) The Board may, if they so determine in their absolute discretion, accept a Form of Election which is received after the relevant time or which is not correctly completed.
- (D) The Board may make such determinations or arrangements with respect to Forms of Election or the ability of certain Shareholders to elect for any of Alternative 1, Alternative 2 or Alternative 3 as the Board may judge necessary or expedient to deal with legal or practical problems arising in any overseas territory or because of shares being represented by depositary receipts or to deal with the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange or with any other matter whatsoever.

1.2 Income – B Share Dividend

Shareholders who have elected for Alternative 2 (B Share Dividend) shall be entitled to receive, out of the profits available for distribution, a single dividend of 170 pence for each B Share elected to be subject to that alternative. Each B Share in respect of which the B Share Dividend is payable, shall on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) be automatically reclassified as a Deferred Share of 170 pence nominal value. The rights and restrictions attaching to the Deferred Shares are summarised in paragraph 2 of this Part IV.

1.3 Income – B Share Continuing Dividend

Shareholders who have elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption) shall be entitled:

- (A) with effect from 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine), out of the profits available for distribution in respect of each financial year or other accounting period of United Utilities Group, in priority to any payment of dividend or other distribution to the holders of any United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and before profits are carried to reserves but after payment of the preferential dividend on the Redeemable Preference Shares, to be paid a non-cumulative preferential dividend at the Interest Rate on the amount of 170 pence per B Share. The B Share Continuing Dividend shall be payable only to the extent that United Utilities Group has sufficient distributable reserves. Such dividend shall become payable on 14 April 2009 and be calculated in respect of the period from 11 August 2008 to (and including) 13 April 2009 and on the basis of a 365 day year. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares to the B Share Continuing Dividend in respect of all B Shares held by such holder shall be rounded down to the nearest penny;

- (B) payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend shall be made to holders of the B Shares on the register on 9 April 2009; and
- (C) the holders of the B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits of United Utilities Group.

1.4 Redemption – Initial B Share Redemption

Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for Alternative 1 (Initial B Share Redemption) and, unless the Board of United Utilities Group otherwise determines, those Shareholders not making a valid election before 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine), will have their B Shares redeemed by United Utilities Group on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share in respect of which they have elected, or are deemed to have elected, to be subject to Alternative 1. All B Shares which are redeemed will immediately and automatically be cancelled.

1.5 Redemption – Final B Share Redemption

Shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for Alternative 3 (Final B Share Redemption) will have their B Shares redeemed on 14 April 2009 (or such other date as the Board of United Utilities Group shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share which they have elected to be subject to Alternative 3. At the time of payment of the redemption proceeds, United Utilities Group shall also pay the B Share Continuing Dividend. All B Shares which are redeemed will immediately and automatically be cancelled.

1.6 Capital – return of capital on winding-up

On a return of capital on winding-up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to Shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of B Shares will be entitled before any payment to the holders of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, Deferred Shares, Class A Shares or Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after payment to the holders of Redeemable Preference Shares of the nominal amount of such Shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares, to repayment of the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share held by them respectively together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend which would have been payable if the winding-up had taken effect on 14 April 2009. The relevant proportion shall be the number of days from and including 11 August 2008 to, but excluding, the date of such winding-up divided by 246. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares on a winding-up in respect of all B Shares held by them shall be rounded down to the nearest whole penny.

The holders of B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of United Utilities Group. If on a winding-up the amount available for payment is insufficient to cover in full the amounts payable on the B Shares, the holders of such shares will share on a pro rata basis in the distribution of assets (if any) in proportion to the amounts to which they would otherwise be entitled.

1.7 Attendance and voting at general meetings

The holders of B Shares will only receive notice of general meetings of United Utilities Group and will only be able to attend, speak and vote at such general meetings if a resolution is to be proposed at the general meeting for the winding-up (excluding any intra-group reorganisation on a solvent basis) of United Utilities Group, in which case the holders of B Shares will receive notice of the general meeting and will have the right to attend, speak and vote on that resolution only.

If the holders of the B Shares are entitled to vote at a general meeting of United Utilities Group, on a show of hands every holder who is present in person at the general meeting shall have one vote and every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a holder shall have one vote. On a poll every holder of B Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each fully paid B Share of which he is the holder.

1.8 Class rights

United Utilities Group may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the B Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the B Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose.

A reduction by United Utilities Group of the capital paid up on the B Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and United Utilities Group shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the Companies Acts) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the B Shares including by paying to the holders of the B Shares the preferential amounts to which they are entitled as set out in paragraph 1.6 above.

1.9 Form, transferability and listing

No share certificates or other documents of title shall be issued in relation to the B Shares in respect of which the B Share Dividend is paid or which are redeemed by United Utilities Group on the Initial B Share Redemption Date.

The holders of B Shares cannot renounce their B Shares. Any transfer of B Shares must be effected in writing and either in the usual or standard form or in any other form approved by the Directors. Every transfer of uncertificated B Shares must be carried out using a relevant system (e.g. CREST).

No application has been, or will be, made to the UK Listing Authority for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List or to the London Stock Exchange or for the B Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

2. Rights and restrictions of the Deferred Shares

The following summarises the rights of the Deferred Shares and the restrictions to which they are subject, which are reflected in the United Utilities Group Articles.

2.1 Income

The Deferred Shares shall confer no right to participate in the profits of United Utilities Group.

2.2 Capital

On a return of capital on a winding-up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to Shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of Deferred Shares will be entitled to the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Deferred Share before any payments to the holders of the Class A Shares and the Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after:

- (A) first, paying to the holders of Redeemable Preference Shares the nominal amount of such Redeemable Preference Shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares;
- (B) secondly, paying to the holders of B Shares 170 pence per B Share held by them together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend calculated as described in paragraph 1.6 above; and

- (C) thirdly, paying to the holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share together with the sum of £100,000 on each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share.

The holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of United Utilities Group.

2.3 Redemption

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and to the provisions of the United Utilities Group Articles, United Utilities Group may at its discretion, at any time after 31 August 2008, without prior notice, redeem some or all of the Deferred Shares then in issue, in each case for a total aggregate price not exceeding one pence for all such Deferred Shares redeemed. This payment may be made, if the Board so determines, to charity. All Deferred Shares shall, upon redemption, immediately and automatically be cancelled.

2.4 Attendance and voting at general meetings

The holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of any general meeting of United Utilities Group or to attend, speak or vote at any such meeting.

2.5 Form and transferability

The Deferred Shares will not be listed on any stock exchange nor shall any share certificates be issued in respect of such shares. The Deferred Shares shall not be transferable except with the written consent of the Board.

2.6 Class rights

United Utilities Group may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the Deferred Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the Deferred Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose or require the consent of holders of Deferred Shares.

A reduction by United Utilities Group of the capital paid up on the Deferred Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and United Utilities Group shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the Companies Acts) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the Deferred Shares.

PART V

UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION

1. General

The following summary is intended as a general guide only and relates only to certain UK tax consequences of receiving the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares under the Scheme. It is based on current UK tax law and the current practice of HMRC, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. Therefore the future UK tax treatment of the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares may potentially be subject to change, which could impact upon the UK tax position of the Shareholder. The summary is intended to apply only to Shareholders who are resident in the UK for UK tax purposes, who hold the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares as investments and not on trading account, to whom Class A Shares are allotted and who are the beneficial owners of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the Class A Shares and the B Shares. The summary is not intended to apply to certain classes of shareholders such as dealers in securities, insurance companies, those holding shares by reason of their employment or collective investment schemes.

Any Shareholders or prospective shareholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position regarding the acquisition, ownership and/or disposal of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the B Shares and the Class A Shares and/or who are subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the UK should consult their tax advisers.

The tax treatment of participants in United Utilities Employee Share Plans may be different from that described below.

2. The Scheme and the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital

For the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains, the cancellation of the United Utilities Shares and the issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares should be treated as a reorganisation of share capital. Accordingly, Shareholders will not be treated as making a disposal in respect of the cancellation of United Utilities Shares or an acquisition in respect of the issue to them of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares. The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares will be treated as having been acquired at the same time and for the same consideration as the United Utilities Shares for the purposes of UK taxation of chargeable gains.

Shareholders who alone, or together with connected persons, hold more than five per cent. of the United Utilities Shares are advised that United Utilities has obtained a clearance under section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 that the Board of HMRC are satisfied that the scheme of reconstruction will be effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangements of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is avoidance of a liability to capital gains tax or corporation tax.

The sale, on behalf of Shareholders, of fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares resulting from the Scheme should not constitute a disposal by UK resident Shareholders. The amounts of any payments received by such Shareholders on the sale of fractional entitlements to United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares should, in practice, be deducted from the base cost of any United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares received.

A Shareholder's original base cost (less amounts received on sale of any fractional entitlements, as referred to above) in his United Utilities Shares will be attributed to both the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares, so only a proportion of the base cost of the original holding of United Utilities Shares will be available on a redemption of the B Shares. The attribution of the base cost of the United Utilities Shares should be made on the basis of the respective market values of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares on the first day that the former are listed on the Official List.

For the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains, the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, which will be effected by decreasing the nominal value of each United Utilities Group Ordinary Share and by cancelling the Class A Shares which will have been allotted pro rata to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares on capitalisation of the merger reserve created in United Utilities Group on the Scheme Effective Date, should be treated as another reorganisation of share capital. Accordingly, Shareholders should not be treated as making a disposal of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and Class A Shares for the purposes of the UK taxation of chargeable gains as a result of that reduction of capital. Furthermore, in practice, because the market value of the Class A Shares will be nil for the duration of their existence, there should be no tax charge on their cancellation.

3. Dividends

Under current tax law, United Utilities Group will not be required to withhold tax at source from dividend payments it makes.

3.1 Individuals

An individual Shareholder who receives a dividend from United Utilities Group will generally be entitled to a tax credit which may be set off against his total income tax liability on the dividend. Such an individual Shareholder's liability to income tax is calculated on the aggregate of the net dividend and the related tax credit (the "gross dividend") which will be regarded as the top slice of the individual's income. The tax credit will be equal to one-ninth of the cash dividend paid, or ten per cent. of the gross dividend.

An individual Shareholder who is not liable to income tax at the higher rate will be subject to income tax on dividends paid by United Utilities Group at the rate of ten per cent. of the gross dividend so that the tax credit will satisfy in full such Shareholder's liability to income tax on the dividend. If and to the extent that such Shareholder is liable to pay income tax at the higher rate, he will be subject to income tax on the gross dividend at 32.5 per cent. After taking into account the tax credit, such a Shareholder will have to account for tax at an effective rate of 25 per cent. of the net cash dividend received.

Shareholders who are not liable to income tax in respect of the gross dividend will not be entitled to claim payment of any part of the tax credit.

3.2 Companies

Companies will not normally be subject to corporation tax on any dividend received from United Utilities Group and will not be able to claim a tax credit attaching to any dividend.

4. B Shares: capital gains

4.1 B Share Dividend

Shareholders who receive the B Share Dividend should note that a proportion of the base cost of their original holding of United Utilities Shares will be attributed to the B Shares and this amount should continue to be attributed to those B Shares following their reclassification as Deferred Shares (notwithstanding that the Deferred Shares have limited rights and value). Correspondingly, only a proportion of the base cost of the original holding of United Utilities Shares will be available on a disposal of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

Shareholders liable to corporation tax should note that it is possible that section 30 Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 could be applicable to such a Shareholder who elects for the B Share Dividend. If it were applied, the effect would be broadly to deny any loss or impute a chargeable gain attributable to the payment of that dividend, depending on the apportionment of the base cost of the United Utilities Shares between the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and the B Shares.

4.2 Redemption of B Shares

On redemption of all or any of the B Shares, a Shareholder may, depending on his particular circumstances, be subject to UK tax on the amount of any chargeable gain realised, by reference to the sum received in respect of the redemption and the base cost attributed to the B Shares as described above.

No part of the proceeds received by a Shareholder on redemption of all or part of the B Shares should be treated as an income distribution in the Shareholder's hands.

The UK tax treatment of the redemption of B Shares described above is subject to the possible application of anti-avoidance provisions described in paragraph 6 below.

5. Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax ("SDRT")

5.1 General

Except in relation to depositary receipt arrangements or clearance services where special rules apply (see below):

- (A) no stamp duty or SDRT will be payable on the creation of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares pursuant to the Scheme or the creation of Class A Shares;
- (B) where Shareholders elect to redeem B Shares, the redemption of those B Shares will not give rise to a liability to stamp duty or SDRT; and
- (C) an agreement to sell United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares will normally give rise to a liability to SDRT for the purchaser, at the rate of 0.5 per cent. of the actual consideration paid. If an instrument of transfer of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares is subsequently produced it will generally be subject to stamp duty at the rate of 0.5 per cent. (rounded up to the nearest multiple of £5) of the actual consideration paid. When stamp duty is paid within six years of the agreement to transfer, the SDRT charge will generally be cancelled and any SDRT already paid should then be refunded.

5.2 Depositary receipt arrangements and clearance services

Where United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares are issued or transferred: (a) to, or to a nominee for, a person whose business is or includes the provision of clearance services; or (b) to, or to a nominee or agent for, a person whose business is or includes issuing depositary receipts, stamp duty (in the case of a transfer to such persons) or SDRT may be payable at the higher rate of 1.5 per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration payable or, in certain circumstances, the value of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares or, in the case of an issue to such persons, the issue price of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or the B Shares (rounded up to the nearest £5 in the case of stamp duty). This liability for stamp duty or SDRT will strictly be accountable by the depositary or clearance service operator or their nominee, as the case may be, but will in practice generally be reimbursed by participants in the clearance service or depositary receipt scheme. Clearance services may opt, under certain circumstances, for the normal rate of stamp duty or SDRT (0.5 per cent. of the consideration paid) to apply to issues or transfers of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares into, and to transactions within, such services instead of the higher rate of 1.5 per cent. generally applying to an issue or transfer of shares into the clearance service and the exemption from stamp duty and SDRT on transfer of shares whilst in the service.

However, shareholders who hold their United Utilities Shares through a depositary should not suffer SDRT on the issue of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or B Shares to the Depositary and the receipt of ADRs.

6. Anti-avoidance provisions

Chapter 1, Part 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007 ("ITA") permits HMRC in certain circumstances to issue a shareholder within the charge to income tax with a notice stating that it will tax what would otherwise be a capital receipt as an income receipt. This would mean that a higher rate taxpayer who has elected for redemption of his B Shares, rather than the B Share Dividend would be subject to income tax at an effective rate of 25 per cent. of the cash received instead of being subject to the tax treatment described in paragraph 4.2 above. No application has been made to HMRC seeking clearance that these provisions will not be applied. However, having consulted with Tax Counsel, United Utilities does not expect that Chapter 1 Part 13 ITA will be applied, but recommends that any Shareholder who is in doubt as to his personal tax position in the light of his own particular circumstances, should take professional advice.

7. ISAs

If existing Shareholders of United Utilities currently hold their United Utilities Shares in the stocks and shares component of an ISA, the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares should qualify for inclusion in the same way. However, neither the B Shares nor the Deferred Shares qualify for inclusion in the stocks and shares component of an ISA and Shareholders may be required to receive a transfer of such shares.

PART VI

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Summary of principal differences between the United Utilities Articles and the United Utilities Group Articles

The principal differences between the United Utilities Articles and the United Utilities Group Articles are explained below.

The reasons for the changes are to update the United Utilities Articles in light of the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 which came into force and those which will come into force on or before 6 April 2008 and 1 October 2008 respectively as well as to reflect current practice in relation to the articles of association of listed companies. These changes will not generally affect the substance of the rights which Shareholders have under the United Utilities Articles and are not referred to below unless considered material.

The United Utilities Group Articles also contain provisions dealing with the rights and restrictions attaching to the B Shares, the Deferred Shares, the Subscriber Ordinary Shares, the Redeemable Preference Shares and the Class A Shares. The rights attaching to the B Shares and the Deferred Shares are summarised in Part IV of this document. The rights attaching to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares, the Redeemable Preference Shares and the Class A Shares are summarised in section 4.2(B) of Part X of the Prospectus.

The Companies Act 2006 is being implemented in phases with the final phase due to come into force on 1 October 2009. Further changes to the United Utilities Group Articles will be made in due course to reflect the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 intended to come into force on 1 October 2009.

The main changes that have been made are:

Share capital: The United Utilities Group Articles reflect the composition of the share capital of United Utilities Group, details of which are given in this document.

Register of members: The provision in the United Utilities Articles permitting the board to suspend the registration of transfers of shares is not included in the United Utilities Group Articles.

Refusing registration on the transfer of shares: The Companies Act 2006 requires the reason for a refusal by the board of directors to register a transfer of shares on the register of members to be given. The United Utilities Articles allow the board to refuse to register any transfer of shares "in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason" which is no longer appropriate. The United Utilities Group Articles reflect the requirement of the Companies Act 2006.

Members' requisitions: The United Utilities Articles contain provisions which entitle a member or a group of members, if they satisfy certain minimum share ownership thresholds, to requisition a general meeting of the company, or to require that a resolution or statement provided by them is circulated by the company to all members. Equivalent provisions are now contained in the Companies Act 2006 and therefore these specific sections have been omitted from the United Utilities Group Articles.

Form of resolution: The United Utilities Articles provide for both special and extraordinary resolutions. References to extraordinary resolutions are not being included in the United Utilities Group Articles as the concept of extraordinary resolutions has not been retained under the Companies Act 2006.

Notice of general meetings: In accordance with changes introduced in the Companies Act 2006, the United Utilities Group Articles allow any general meeting, other than an annual general meeting to be convened by not less than fourteen clear days' notice. This is different from the United Utilities Articles, which require not less than twenty one clear days notice for an extraordinary general meeting which is convened for the passing of a special resolution.

Chairman's casting vote: The United Utilities Articles provide that in the case of an equality of votes of members at a general meeting of the company, the chairman of that meeting would be entitled to a second or casting vote. The United Utilities Group Articles provide that the chairman shall not be entitled to such a casting vote.

Proxies: The United Utilities Group Articles provide for the right of a person appointed as proxy for a member to speak on behalf of that member at a general meeting of the company, whereas under the United Utilities Articles a proxy was not entitled to speak at a general meeting. Under the Companies Act 2006 and the United Utilities Group Articles, proxies are entitled to vote on a show of hands whereas under the United Utilities Articles proxies are only entitled to vote on a poll. The time limits for the appointment or termination of a proxy appointment have been altered by the Companies Act 2006 so that articles cannot provide that they should be received more than 48 hours before the meeting or, in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after the meeting, more than 24 hours before the time for the taking of a poll, with weekends and bank holidays being permitted to be excluded for this purpose. The United Utilities Group Articles give the directors discretion, when calculating time limits, to exclude weekend and bank holidays. Multiple proxies may be appointed under the United Utilities Group Articles provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share held by the shareholder.

Retirement by rotation: A transitional article dealing with the retirement by rotation has been included in the United Utilities Group Articles to take account at the annual general meetings of the company to be held in 2009 and 2010 of any period of service by a director on the board of United Utilities.

Directors' fees: The United Utilities Articles place a limit on the aggregate amount which may be paid to directors of the company in return for their holding the office of director, such limit being £750,000. This is effectively a limit on the amount which may be paid as fees to non-executive directors, since it does not apply to limit the amounts which may be paid to executive directors under their service contracts. In the United Utilities Group Articles this limit has been increased to £1,000,000.

Directors' ability to authorise conflict situations: The United Utilities Group Articles contain a new provision, not included in the United Utilities Articles. With effect from 1 October 2008, under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, a director of a company will be under a duty to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the company. This duty is not infringed if the relevant conflict situation is authorised by the other directors of the company, and in order to give that authorisation the directors must be permitted to do so by the company's articles of association. The United Utilities Group Articles include provision for the directors to authorise such conflict situations, and include related amendments to the provisions in the United Utilities Articles which refer to directors' interests.

There are safeguards which will apply when directors decide whether to authorise a conflict or potential conflict. First, only directors who have no interest in the matter being considered will be able to take the relevant decision, and secondly, in taking the decision the directors must act in a way they consider, in good faith, will be most likely to promote the company's success. The directors will be able to impose limits or conditions when giving authorisation if they think this is appropriate.

It is also proposed that the United Utilities Group Articles should contain provisions relating to confidential information, attendance at board meetings and availability of board papers to protect a director being in breach of duty if a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest arises. These provisions will only apply where the position giving rise to the potential conflict has previously been authorised by the directors.

Borrowing powers: Some minor changes have been made to the provisions dealing with borrowing powers in the United Utilities Group Articles, mainly to update references to the relevant Companies Act 2006 provisions or conform the language to IFRS terminology.

Electronic and web communications: Provisions of the Companies Act 2006 which came into force in January 2007 enable companies to communicate with members by electronic and/or website communications. The United Utilities Group Articles continue to allow communications to members in electronic form and, in addition, as do the United Utilities Articles, they also permit the company to take advantage of the new provisions relating to website communications. The United Utilities Group Articles make it clear that United Utilities Group can also take advantage of website communications with respect to the provision to members of its annual accounts.

Directors' indemnities and loans to fund expenditure: The Companies Act 2006 has in some areas widened the scope of the powers of a company to indemnify directors and to fund expenditure incurred in connection with certain actions against directors. The United Utilities Group Articles reflect this change by stating that the company may indemnify any director of the company against any liability to the extent permitted by company law.

Updated references to legislation: The United Utilities Group Articles provide updated references to relevant sections of legislation which have been enacted and come into force since the time when the United Utilities Articles were adopted and/or last amended, including specifically references to the Companies Act 2006.

Notwithstanding the differences between the United Utilities Articles and the United Utilities Group Articles outlined above, United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will carry substantially the same rights as the United Utilities Shares (in particular the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares will rank pari passu for dividends).

Copies of the United Utilities Articles and the United Utilities Group Articles are available for inspection as described in paragraph 9 of this Part VI.

2. Interests in shares

2.1 Interests of Directors and Senior Managers

On the Scheme becoming effective, assuming that no further United Utilities Shares have been purchased or issued after 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Circular, certain of the Directors and Senior Managers will have the following beneficial and family interests in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares and B Shares by virtue of the effect of the Scheme on their United Utilities Shares.

Director/ Senior Manager	Number of United Utilities Shares	Number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares	Proportion of issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group	Number of B Shares
Sir Richard Evans	381	294	0.00%	381
Philip Green	122,612	94,745	0.01%	122,612
Tim Weller	48,789	37,700	0.01%	48,789
Charlie Cornish	14,985	11,579	0.00%	14,985
Dr John McAdam	-	-	-	-
Dr Catherine Bell	-	-	-	-
Norman Broadhurst	530	409	0.00%	530
Paul Heiden	1,852	1,431	0.00%	1,852
David Jones	-	-	-	-
Andrew Pinder	6,222	4,807	0.00%	6,222
Nick Salmon	1,300	1,004	0.00%	1,300
Tom Keevil	30,389	23,482	0.00%	30,389
Alison Clarke	169	130	0.00%	169
Clive Elphick	23,684	18,301	0.00%	23,684
Gaynor Kenyon	3,317	2,563	0.00%	3,317
Martin Bradbury	17,611	13,608	0.00%	17,611
Ian McAulay	-	-	0.00%	-
Matthew Wright	-	-	0.00%	-
Total	271,841	210,053	0.03%	271,841

The interests of the Directors and Senior Managers together represent approximately 0.03 per cent. of the issued share capital of United Utilities in existence as at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Circular.

The Directors' and Senior Managers' percentage holding of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares is expected to remain the same as their percentage holding of United Utilities Shares, subject to fractional entitlements.

In addition to their having an interest in 271,841 United Utilities Shares as detailed in the table above, the Directors and Senior Managers also have interests in United Utilities Shares as a result of their participation in the United Utilities Employee Share Plans. These interests were as follows:

Directors' and Senior Managers' interests in the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	13/02/2006	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	688.5	78,432	78,432	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	82,249	93,420	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	92,359	98,620	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tim Weller	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	47,338	53,767	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	53,157	56,760	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Charlie Cornish	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	30,419	30,419	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	40,237	45,700	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	45,183	48,245	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Martin Bradbury	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	14,145	14,145	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	17,308	19,657	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
Alison Clarke	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	19,934	21,285	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Clive Elphick	30/05/2005	01/04/2005 to 31/03/2008	657.5	15,810	15,810	01/06/2008	31/08/2008
	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	16,643	18,902	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	14,951	15,964	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tom Keevil	14/12/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	756.5	21,811	23,289	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Gaynor Kenyon	08/09/2006	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2009	676	11,539	13,104	01/06/2009	31/08/2009
	11/06/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	752.5	11,961	12,771	01/06/2010	31/08/2010

Directors' and Senior Managers' interests in the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	51,624	55,123	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Tim Weller	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	22,015	23,507	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Charlie Cornish	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	14,606	15,596	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Clive Elphick	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	8,264	8,823	01/06/2010	31/08/2010
Gaynor Kenyon	30/07/2007	01/04/2007 to 31/03/2010	662	4,858	5,187	01/06/2010	31/08/2010

Matched share investment scheme for Philip Green

	Award date	Retention period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Philip Green	16/01/2007	13/02/2006 to 12/02/2011	761	100,000	113,583	13/02/2011	13/05/2011

Matched share investment scheme for Tim Weller

	Award date	Retention period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Tim Weller	14/02/2007	01/07/2006 to 30/06/2011	772.5	39,000	44,296	01/07/2011	01/10/2011

Special long-term incentive scheme for Charlie Cornish

	Award date	Performance period	Market price of a share at award date (pence)	Maximum number of shares at award date	Maximum number of shares at 2 June 2008	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Charlie Cornish	16/03/2007	01/04/2006 to 31/03/2010	723	47,027	53,413	01/04/2010	01/07/2010

Senior Manager's interests in the United Utilities Executive (Unapproved) Share Option Scheme

	Date of grant	Number of United Utilities Shares	Option price (pence)	Date exercisable from	Normal expiry date
Martin Bradbury	03/12/1998	6,361	750.5	03/12/2001	02/12/2008

The above interests are based upon the interests of the Directors in United Utilities Shares which (i) have been notified by each Director of United Utilities Group to United Utilities pursuant to Chapter 3 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules before 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Circular, or (ii) are interests of a connected person (within the meaning of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules) of a Director which have been notified to United Utilities by each connected person (within the meaning of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules) pursuant to Chapter 3 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules.

Each executive Director is a member of the class of discretionary beneficiaries of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust and is therefore treated as having an interest in the 53,601 United Utilities Shares held by United Utilities Employee Share Trust Limited as trustee of the United Utilities Share Trust as at 2 June 2008.

Save as set out above, no Director (nor any person connected with him or her) has any interests (beneficial or non-beneficial) in the share capital of United Utilities or United Utilities Group. Save as set out above, no Director (nor any person connected with him or her) holds an interest in any other securities of United Utilities or United Utilities Group.

2.2 Substantial shareholdings

Insofar as is known to United Utilities Group by reference to relevant notifications made pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, as at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Circular, the only persons who hold voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings, whether direct or indirect, of certain financial instruments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire), three per cent. or more of the ordinary share capital of United Utilities were as follows:

Shareholder	Number of United Utilities Shares as at 2 June 2008	Percentage of issued ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group as at 2 June 2008
Invesco PLC	44,644,578	5.06%
Legal and General	35,472,365	4.02%
Pictet Asset Management S.A.	44,072,064	5.00%

Save as disclosed above, United Utilities Group is not aware of any person who holds voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings, whether direct or indirect, of certain financial instruments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire) three per cent. or more of the ordinary issued share capital of United Utilities.

Insofar as is known to United Utilities Group by reference to relevant notifications made pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Disclosure and Transparency Rules, as at 2 June, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this Circular, the following persons are expected to be the only persons who will hold voting rights, whether direct or indirect, of (and/or holdings, whether direct or indirect, of certain financial instruments which give the holder an unconditional right or a right exercisable in his sole discretion to acquire), three per cent. or more of the ordinary share capital of United Utilities Group immediately following Admission by virtue of the effect of the Scheme (assuming that no further United Utilities Shares have been purchased or issued after 2 June 2008):

Shareholder	Number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares on Admission	Percentage of issued ordinary shares of United Utilities Group
Invesco PLC	34,498,083	5.06%
Legal and General	27,410,463	4.02%
Pictet Asset Management S.A.	34,055,685	5.00%

None of the shareholders listed above has or will have voting rights that are different to those of any other holder of United Utilities Shares or United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

As at 2 June 2008, the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Circular, United Utilities Group is not aware of any person who, directly or indirectly, acting jointly or with others or acting alone, could exercise control over United Utilities or, immediately following Admission, over United Utilities Group.

3. United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans

Subject to shareholder approval at the General Meeting, United Utilities Group has established the following new employee share schemes to operate from the Scheme Effective Date: the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme (the "Sharesave Scheme"), the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan (the "Share Incentive Plan"), the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan (the "Performance Share Plan"), the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan (the "International Plan"), and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan (the "Matching Plan"). Each of these plans is in substantially the same form as the equivalent United Utilities Employee Share Plan.

In addition (but subject to shareholders' approval), United Utilities Group has passed a resolution which will allow it to establish additional employee share schemes for the benefit of the Group's overseas employees provided that such schemes operate within the equity dilution limits described below and (save to the extent necessary or desirable to take account of overseas tax, securities and exchange control laws) such schemes do not confer upon participants benefits which are greater than those which could be obtained from the schemes described below and that, once such schemes have been established, they may not be amended without the approval of United Utilities Group in general meeting if such approval would be required to amend the corresponding provision of the schemes described below unless such approval to amend the corresponding provision has already been obtained.

The Board of United Utilities Group also intends to establish a plan for a limited number of senior managers below the executive leadership team level under which a proportion of the annual bonuses earned by the participants will be paid as deferred awards of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. In normal circumstances, the shares will be released after three years subject to continued employment with the Group. Special rules will apply on termination of employment and a change of control. The deferred awards will not be subject to performance conditions as they simply represent a deferral of bonuses already earned. Executive directors of United Utilities Group will not participate in this plan and no new shares or treasury shares will be used to satisfy the deferred awards. Accordingly, the plan does not require shareholders' approval under the Listing Rules.

The following is a summary of the main provisions of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans.

3.1 Provisions which are common to all of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans

Administration

The Sharesave Scheme and the Share Incentive Plan will be administered by the Board or a duly authorised committee of it. Each of the other schemes will be administered by the Remuneration Committee of the Board. References to the "Committee" in these summaries are to the Board or the Remuneration Committee as appropriate.

Source of shares

Awards may be satisfied by the issue of new United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares or by United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares held in treasury or by the purchase of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares in the market either directly or through an employee trust.

Scheme limits

The United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans will be subject to the following limits:

- (A) on any date, the aggregate nominal amount of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares that may be allocated under the plans may not, when added to the nominal amount of United Utilities

Group Ordinary Shares allocated in the previous ten years under the plans, exceed ten per cent. of the equity share capital of United Utilities Group; and

- (B) on any date, the aggregate nominal amount of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares that may be allocated under the Performance Share Plan and the Matching Plan may not, when added to the nominal amount of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares allocated in the previous ten years under such plans, exceed five per cent. of the then equity share capital of United Utilities Group.

For these purposes, shares are allocated when rights to acquire or obtain them are granted and otherwise when they are issued or transferred. Rights which lapse, by reason of non-exercise or otherwise, cease to count. No account is taken of shares which are acquired by purchase in the market (rather than by subscription or from the treasury) and no account is taken of shares which an employee purchases at market value using his own funds.

In calculating these limits, account will be taken of United Utilities Shares allocated under the United Utilities Employee Share Plans. Such allocations will be deemed to have been allocated under the corresponding United Utilities Group Employee Share Plan and, in the case of the Share Option Plans, (other than the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999), as if they had been granted under the Performance Share Plan under (ii) above. Where options or awards under those plans are replaced by options or awards over United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the replacement options and awards will be deemed to have been allocated when the original options and awards were granted.

Listing

Any United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares allotted under the United Utilities Group Employee Plans will rank pari passu with other United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares then in issue (except for rights arising by reference to a record date prior to their allotment). An application will be made to the UK Listing Authority for any new shares issued to be admitted to the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for permission to trade in those shares.

Variation of capital

In the event of a variation in the share capital of United Utilities Group or in such other circumstances as the Committee considers appropriate, options and awards may be adjusted in such manner as the Committee considers appropriate.

Benefits – non-pensionable

Benefits under the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans will not form part of a participant's remuneration for pension purposes.

Amendments

The Committee may amend the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans, or the terms or awards, to take account of changes to any applicable legislation or to obtain or maintain favourable tax, exchange control or regulatory treatment for participants or for any company in the Group.

Except as described above or for amendments designed to ease the administration of the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans, no amendment which is to the advantage of employees or participants may be made, without the prior approval of United Utilities Group in general meeting, to those provisions dealing with eligibility, individual or scheme limits, the terms of options or awards, the adjustment of options or awards or the power of amendment.

3.2 The Sharesave Scheme

Eligibility

All UK employees of United Utilities Group and participating companies who have been employed for a minimum period fixed by the Committee will be entitled to participate in the Sharesave Scheme. In addition, the Committee may permit other employees to participate.

Participating companies may include joint venture companies in which the Group is a shareholder and employees of subsidiaries of such joint ventures.

Options

Options will entitle the participant to acquire United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

No payment will be required for the grant of an option.

Options will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing

Invitations to apply for options may be issued at the following times: the 42 days after the Sharesave Scheme is approved by HMRC; the 42 days after United Utilities Group announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent options from being granted during either of the previous two periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist.

Options may not be granted after 1 July 2018.

Savings contracts

To participate in the Sharesave Scheme, an eligible employee must enter into an HM Treasury approved savings contract with an appropriate bank or building society, under which the employee agrees to make monthly contributions for a period of either three or five years. The maximum monthly saving allowed under all savings contracts is £250. Employees who have chosen a five-year contract will have the choice of keeping their savings in their account for an additional two years in order to benefit from the seven-year bonus rates.

A tax-free bonus is payable by the savings institution at the end of the savings period (depending upon the length of the savings contract chosen).

Individual limit

An option will be over such number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares as have an aggregate exercise price as nearly as possible equal to, but not exceeding, the expected repayment proceeds of the relevant savings contract.

Exercise price

The exercise price may not be less than 80 per cent. of either the average of the middle-market quotations for an United Utilities Group Ordinary Share for the three dealing days immediately preceding the date upon which invitations to apply for options are issued to employees or the middle-market quotation on such other day as HMRC may agree.

Exercise of options

An option will normally only be exercisable for a period of six months commencing on the completion of the related savings contract (normally three, five or seven years after its commencement). An option will normally lapse if the employee leaves, but in certain circumstances (such as injury, disability or redundancy), early exercise may be possible.

Change of control etc

In the event of a change of control, a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding-up of United Utilities Group, participants may exercise their options. Participants may also be able to exchange their options for options over shares in the acquiring company.

3.3 The Share Incentive Plan

Eligibility

All UK employees (including executive directors) of United Utilities Group and any participating company having completed a qualifying period of employment will be eligible to become a participant in the Share Incentive Plan.

Participating companies may include joint venture companies in which the Group is a shareholder and employees of subsidiaries of such joint ventures.

Awards

Awards under the Share Incentive Plan may take one of three forms:

Free shares: these are United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares awarded for no consideration up to a maximum market value of £3,000 in any tax year. Free shares must be held in trust for three years. United Utilities Group may specify that all free shares awarded at the same time must be held for up to five years.

If a participant leaves his employment, his free shares will be withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan. However, there will be PAYE and national insurance liabilities if he leaves within five years of the award in circumstances other than by reason of his death or on account of injury, disability, redundancy or retirement or because the subsidiary which employs him or the business in which he is employed is sold.

Partnership shares: these are United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares which the participant purchases out of his pre-tax salary up to a maximum of either £125 or 10 per cent. of his salary, whichever is the lower figure. United Utilities Group may impose a lower limit in relation to any particular award.

Participants may withdraw their partnership shares from the Share Incentive Plan at any time and the partnership shares will be withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan if the participant leaves employment. There are PAYE and national insurance liabilities when partnership shares are withdrawn within five years of their purchase, unless this is because the participant has left employment for one of the good leaver reasons described above.

Matching shares: these are United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares which may be awarded free of charge to participants who have bought partnership shares. The number of matching shares awarded will be based on the number of partnership shares bought by the participant, up to a maximum of two matching shares for each partnership share bought. Matching shares are treated in the same way as free shares and are subject to the same provisions for holding periods and forfeiture as free shares, but, in addition, it may be stipulated that, if a participant withdraws his partnership shares within three years after they were bought, his matching shares are forfeited. The tax consequences of matching shares being withdrawn from the Share Incentive Plan are the same as for free shares.

Dividend shares

Participants may be required to invest, or offered the choice of investing, cash dividends in United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. The dividend shares must be held in the Share Incentive Plan for three years except that they must be withdrawn on the participant leaving employment. There will be income tax payable if the dividend shares are withdrawn within three years of their purchase, unless this is because the participant has left employment for one of the good leaver reasons described above.

Timing

Awards may not be made after 1 July 2018.

Voting rights

Participants may direct the trustees of the Share Incentive Plan how to exercise the voting rights attributable to their shares in the plan.

Change of control etc

In the event of a general offer being made to shareholders, or a rights or capitalisation issue, participants will be able to direct the trustees how to act on their behalf.

3.4 The Performance Share Plan

Eligibility

All employees and directors (other than non-executive directors) of United Utilities Group and any of its subsidiaries will be eligible to participate at the discretion of the Committee.

Awards

Awards will take the form of deferred rights to receive (or to acquire for no cost) United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

No payment will be required for an award.

Awards will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing

Awards may be made at any of the following times: the 42 days following the approval of the plan by the United Utilities Shareholders; the 42 days after United Utilities Group announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent awards from being granted during either of the previous periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist. Awards will be made by the Trustee (the "Trustee") of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust on the recommendation of the Committee.

No awards will be granted after 1 July 2018.

Dividend enhancement

If a dividend or other distribution is made by United Utilities Group at any time during the period commencing at the beginning of the performance period relating to an award and ending on the date of vesting, there will be notionally added to the number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares subject to the award such number of whole United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares as could have been acquired with a sum equal to the aggregate cash amount of such dividend or distribution attributable to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares under the award.

Any United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares notionally added in this way to an award are referred to as 'Dividend Equivalent Shares'.

Performance conditions

Each award will be subject to a performance condition which, in normal circumstances, will determine whether or not the award vests. Performance conditions will be disclosed in United Utilities Group's Annual Report and Accounts in each year.

Individual limits

Other than in circumstances determined by the Committee to be exceptional, the market value of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares awarded under the Performance Share Plan in any financial year to any individual may not exceed 100 per cent. of his or her annual salary (excluding benefits in kind).

Vesting of awards

In normal circumstances after the end of the performance period, the Committee will notify participants and the Trustee of the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. To the extent to which the performance conditions have not been satisfied, the award shall lapse.

Where the award is in the form of a right to receive United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, the vested United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) will be transferred to the participant within 28 days after vesting. Where the award is in the form of a right to acquire the vested United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares), the participant may exercise that right on one occasion only in the three months after vesting.

Termination of employment

Awards will normally lapse if the participant ceases to be employed within the Group. However, special rules apply if the participant ceases to be employed by reason of normal retirement, early retirement with the consent of the Committee, ill-health, injury, disability, redundancy, the sale of the company or business in which the participant is employed or in other special circumstances as determined by the Trustee with the consent of the Committee. In these cases, the award may vest over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) determined by the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. Where the award takes the form of a right to acquire shares, it may be exercised during period after vesting as the Trustee may decide. Alternatively (and in the case of death), at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, the award may vest (and be exercised) on termination of employment. In such a case, the award will vest over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) as the Trustee shall determine having regard to the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied over the abbreviated performance period ending with the cessation of employment.

In all circumstances where there is a cessation of employment for one of the reasons mentioned above, the number of shares that vest shall be reduced on the basis of a time apportionment having regard to the proportion of time that has elapsed from the first day of the relevant performance period to the cessation of employment as compared to the applicable unabbreviated performance period.

Change of control

In the event of a change of control or a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding up of United Utilities Group, the Trustee may decide that all or part of an award (including any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) may vest if and to the extent that the Trustee, acting on the recommendation of the Committee, considers it fair and reasonable taking into account the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied and such other criteria as the Trustee in its discretion considers relevant. In the event of an offer being made for United Utilities Group, the Trustee may similarly determine that awards may vest contingently upon the offer being successful.

3.5 The International Plan

The terms of the International Plan are in all material respects similar to the Performance Share Plan except that participants do not have any rights to acquire United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares but instead are paid a cash sum equal to the value of the notional shares that vest.

3.6 The Matching Plan

Eligibility

All employees and directors (other than non-executive directors) of United Utilities Group and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate at the discretion of the Committee.

Awards

Individuals who are invited to participate in the Matching Plan, and who wish to do so, may be required to invest part of their annual bonus in purchasing United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. Alternatively, or in addition, individuals may be invited to elect voluntarily to invest part of their bonus in purchasing such shares. Individuals who accept the invitation to participate will be granted an award over additional United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares. The Committee will determine the number of shares over which the award will be granted but it may not exceed twice the number of shares acquired with the bonus that is compulsorily invested and one times the number of shares acquired with the voluntary investment.

Awards will take the form of deferred rights to acquire, for no cost, United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares.

Awards will be personal to the participant and may not be transferred.

Timing

Awards may be made at any of the following times: the 42 days following the approval of the plan by the United Utilities Shareholders; the 42 days after United Utilities Group announces its results for any period; the 42 days following the lifting of any restrictions which prevent awards from being granted during either of the previous periods; and at other times when the Committee considers that exceptional circumstances exist. Awards will be made by the Trustee (the "Trustee") of the United Utilities Employee Share Trust upon the recommendation of the Committee.

No awards will be granted after 1 July 2018.

Dividend enhancement

If a dividend or other distribution is made by United Utilities Group at any time during the period commencing at the beginning of the performance period relating to an award and ending on the date of vesting, there will be notionally added to the number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares subject to the award such number of whole United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares as could have been acquired with a sum equal to the aggregate cash amount of such dividend or distribution attributable to the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares under award.

Any United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares notionally added in this way to an award are referred to as 'Dividend Equivalent Shares'.

Performance conditions

Each award will be subject to a performance condition which, in normal circumstances, will determine whether or not the award vests. Performance conditions will be disclosed in United Utilities Group Annual Report and Accounts each year.

Individual limits

The market value of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares awarded under the Matching Plan in any financial year to an individual may not exceed 100 per cent. of his or her basic salary (excluding benefits in kind and bonuses) for the previous financial year.

Vesting of awards

In normal circumstances after the end of the performance period, the Committee will notify participants and the Trustee of the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. To the extent to which the performance conditions have not been satisfied, the award shall lapse.

A participant may exercise his award (to the extent of the vested shares and any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) on one occasion only in the three months after vesting.

Termination of employment

An award will normally lapse when a participant ceases to be employed within the Group. However, special rules apply if the participant ceases to be employed by reason of normal retirement, redundancy, injury, disability, ill-health, the sale of the company or the business in which the participant is employed or in other special circumstances as determined by the Trustee with the consent of the Committee. In these cases, the award may be exercised over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) determined by the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied. Such exercise may occur during such period after vesting as the Trustee may decide. Alternatively, at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, the participant may be permitted to exercise his award during the period of three months following termination of employment. In such case, the exercise of the award may occur over such number of shares (taking into account any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) as the Trustee shall determine having regard to the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied over the abbreviated performance period ending with the cessation of employment.

In all circumstances where there is a cessation of employment for one of the reasons mentioned above, the number of shares over which the award may be exercised shall be reduced on the basis of a time apportionment having regard to the proportion of time that has elapsed from the first day of the relevant performance period to the cessation of employment as compared to the applicable unabbreviated performance period.

Change of control

In the event of a change of control or a scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 or a voluntary winding up of United Utilities Group, all awards may be exercised. In such a circumstance, the award may, at the discretion of the Trustee acting on the recommendation of the Committee, be exercised over the shares subject to the award (including any accrued Dividend Equivalent Shares) but only to the extent the Trustee considers it fair and reasonable, taking into account the extent to which the performance conditions have been satisfied and such other criteria as the Trustee in its discretion considers relevant. In the event of an offer being made for United Utilities Group, the Trustee may similarly determine that awards may vest contingently upon the offer being successful.

4. Deferred A Share issue to United Utilities Group

As at 2 June 2008 (the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this Circular), United Utilities Group did not own or control any United Utilities Shares. It is intended that, in the period after the General Meeting and before the Court Hearing, the Board will exercise its authority under the United Utilities Articles to issue to United Utilities Group one share in the capital of United Utilities as a non-voting deferred A share (the "Deferred A Share").

The Deferred A Share will confer no rights on the holder to vote at any general meetings of United Utilities, no right to receive any share in the profits of United Utilities and the right to receive on a return of assets in a winding-up only up to the nominal amount of the Deferred A Share after payment of £1,000,000 per ordinary share but no other right to participate in any amount paid or distributed by United Utilities whatsoever. As the Deferred A Share will have no voting rights or dividend rights and very limited rights on any return of assets in a winding-up, it will be of effectively no economic value. The Deferred A Share will be a separate class of shares from the United Utilities Shares and, therefore, will not be subject to the Scheme.

It is intended that the Deferred A Share will be subscribed by United Utilities Group for a subscription price of £1 payable in cash. By acquiring the Deferred A Share, United Utilities Group will be a member of United Utilities on the Scheme Effective Date and accordingly, there will be no requirement under section 103 of the Companies Act 1985 for an independent valuation of the New United Utilities Shares to be allotted to United Utilities Group under the Scheme. The Deferred A Share will be allotted under the general authority to allot shares granted to the Directors at the annual general meeting of United Utilities held on 27 July 2007.

5. Working capital statement

United Utilities is of the opinion that following the return of capital of approximately £1.5 billion to shareholders, the Group has sufficient working capital for its present requirements, that is, for at least the next twelve months from the date of publication of this Circular.

6. Significant change

There has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of United Utilities since 31 March 2008, being the date to which United Utilities prepared its preliminary results which were announced on 3 June 2008.

Since its incorporation on 8 April 2008, United Utilities Group has not traded and there has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of United Utilities Group since 23 April 2008, the date to which the Accountants' Report contained in Part III of the Prospectus was prepared.

7. Costs and expenses

All costs and expenses relating to the issue of this document and the Prospectus and the negotiation, preparation and implementation of the Proposals will be borne by United Utilities. The Court's approval will be sought for this as part of the Scheme in order to ensure compliance with section 151 of the Companies Act 1985.

8. Consent

Deutsche Bank has given and not withdrawn its written consent to the issue of this document with the inclusion herein of the references to its name in the form and context in which it appears.

JPMorgan Cazenove has given and not withdrawn its written consent to the issue of this document with the inclusion herein of the references to its name in the form and context in which it appears.

9. Documents on display

Copies of the following documents will be available for inspection at the offices of Slaughter and May at One Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8YY, and at the registered office of United Utilities and United Utilities Group (being Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington, WA5 3LP) during normal business hours on any weekday (Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays excepted) from the date of this document until Admission and will also be available for inspection for at least 15 minutes prior to and during the Court Meeting and the General Meeting:

- (A) the Memorandum of Association of United Utilities and the United Utilities Articles (as currently in force, and as they will be following the proposed amendments at the General Meeting);
- (B) the current Memorandum of Association of United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Articles;
- (C) the United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans;
- (D) the consent letters referred to in paragraph 8 above;
- (E) the Prospectus; and
- (F) this Circular.

10. Explanation of underlying profit

In considering the Group's results, the Directors have adjusted the Group's statutory measures for fair value movements on debt and derivative instruments and those significant items identified as non-recurring. Operating profit and profit before taxation from continuing operations are reconciled to underlying operating profit from continuing operations and underlying profit before taxation from continuing operations as follows:

Operating profit for continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2008

	Regulated	Non-regulated	Other	Total
	£m	£m	£m	£m
Operating profit per published results	611.6	50.6	1.0	663.2
Restructuring costs	2.6	11.6	(0.2)	14.0
Underlying operating profit	614.2	62.2	0.8	677.2

Operating profit for continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2007

(Re-presented)

	Regulated	Non-regulated	Other	Total
	£m	£m	£m	£m
Operating profit/(loss) per published results	581.0	62.6	(1.5)	642.1
Restructuring costs	5.3	0.3	5.0	10.6
Settlement claims ¹	(27.6)	(3.0)	–	(30.6)
Ofwat transfer pricing fine	8.5	–	–	8.5
Total adjustments	(13.8)	(2.7)	5.0	(11.5)
Underlying operating profit	567.2	59.9	3.5	630.6

Profit before taxation for continuing operations

	Year ended	Year ended
	31 March 2008	31 March 2007
Profit before taxation per published results	478.3	502.3
Operating profit adjustments (see above)	14.0	(11.5)
Fair value loss/(gain) on debt and derivative instruments	42.7	(26.0)
Interest on swaps and interest on debt under fair value option	(41.7)	(57.3)
Interest associated with cash proceeds from sale of United Utilities Electricity ²	(17.7)	–
Underlying profit before taxation	475.6	407.5

Note

1 During the year ended 31 March 2007, the Group's regulated and non-regulated activities benefited from one-off credits worth £27.6 million and £3.0 million respectively. These credits were in respect of settlement of claims made by the Group against contractors and the end of the statutory period of potential claims against the Group. Although such claims are a regular occurrence in the ongoing business of the Group, these particular claims were unusual in size.

2 The interest associated with the cash proceeds from the sale of United Utilities Electricity has been deducted to provide a more representative view of underlying performance. Since the Group intends to return approximately £1.5 billion to Shareholders (as described in this document), the cash proceeds from the sale are expected to result in a short term net debt and interest reduction.

PART VII

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply throughout this document (except in those parts of this document containing the Scheme, the Notice of Court Meeting and the Notice of the General Meeting which contain separate definitions) unless the context requires otherwise.

- “Admission” means the admission of the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to the Official List in accordance with the Listing Rules and to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market for listed securities in accordance with the Admission and Disclosure Standards;
- “Admission and Disclosure Standards” means the requirements contained in the publication ‘Admission and Disclosure Standards’ dated April 2002 and issued by the London Stock Exchange (as amended from time to time) containing, inter alia, the admission requirements to be observed by companies seeking admission to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market for listed securities;
- “ADR” means an American depositary receipt;
- “ADS” means an American depositary share;
- “Alternative 1” means the Initial B Share Redemption alternative;
- “Alternative 2” means the B Share Dividend alternative;
- “Alternative 3” means the Final B Share Redemption alternative;
- “B Share Alternatives” means the alternatives of the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend and/or the Final B Share Redemption which are available to Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Shareholders) in connection with the B Shares;
- “B Share Continuing Dividend” means the dividend to be paid on each B Share to Shareholders electing for Alternative 3 on such B Shares, described in paragraph 1.3 of Part IV of this document;
- “B Share Dividend” means the dividend of 170 pence to be paid on each B Share to Shareholders electing for Alternative 2 on such B Shares, as described in paragraph 1.2 of Part IV of this document;
- “B Shares” means the B shares of 170 pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme and carrying the rights and restrictions summarised in paragraph 1 of Part IV of this document;
- “Board” means the Board of Directors of United Utilities or the Board of Directors of United Utilities Group, from time to time as the context may require, or a duly constituted committee thereof;
- “Business Day” means a day (excluding Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday) on which banks generally are open for business in the City of London for the transaction of normal banking business;
- “Circular” means this document;
- “Class A Shares” means the redeemable class A shares of one pence each in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted pro rata to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares (or, if United Utilities Group so determines, to such person as United Utilities Group may procure as nominee for such holders) upon capitalisation of the merger reserve created upon the Scheme becoming effective and which are to be cancelled as part of the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital;

“Closing Price”	means the closing middle market price of a relevant share as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List;
“Companies Acts”	means the Companies Act 1985 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force and any provisions of the Companies Act 2006 for the time being in force;
“Company”	means United Utilities PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 02366616;
“Court”	means the High Court of Justice of England and Wales;
“Court Hearing”	means the hearing of the claim form to sanction the Scheme and confirm the reduction of capital of United Utilities involved in the Scheme;
“Court Meeting”	means the meeting, notice of which is set out in Part VIII of this document, of the holders of United Utilities Shares convened for 1 July 2008 by order of the Court pursuant to section 896 of the Companies Act 2006 to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Scheme, and any adjournment of that meeting;
“CREST”	means the system for the paperless settlement of trades in securities and the holding of uncertificated securities operated by Euroclear in accordance with the CREST Regulations;
“CREST Manual”	means the manual, as amended from time to time, produced by Euroclear describing the CREST system and supplied by Euroclear to users and participants thereof;
“CREST Regulations”	means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/3755);
“Deferred A Share”	means the deferred share intended to be issued by United Utilities to United Utilities Group in the period after the General Meeting and before the Court Hearing having the rights and restrictions described in paragraph 4 of Part VI of this document (being a separate class from the United Utilities Shares and, therefore, not forming part of the Scheme Shares);
“Deferred Shares”	means the class of shares resulting from the re-classification of the B Shares on which the B Share Dividend is paid, carrying the rights and restrictions summarised in paragraph 2 of Part IV of this document;
“Depository”	means JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. in its capacity as (i) the depository under the United Utilities Deposit Agreement or, as the case may be, (ii) the depository under the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement;
“Deutsche Bank”	means Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch;
“Directors”	means the directors of United Utilities, or the directors of United Utilities Group, as the context may require;

“Disclosure and Transparency Rules”	means the disclosure and transparency rules of the Financial Services Authority made under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as amended from time to time;
“Euroclear”	means Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited;
“Final B Share Redemption”	means the redemption of the B Shares on the Final B Share Redemption Date for a redemption amount of 170 pence per share and the cancellation of such B Shares;
“Final B Share Redemption Date”	means the date on which the Final B Share Redemption shall be made, expected to be 14 April 2009;
“Form of Election”	means in relation to the B Shares the form of election accompanying this document by which a Shareholder (other than a Restricted Overseas Shareholder) may choose between the alternatives for receipt of the Return of Capital;
“Forms of Proxy”	means the blue form of proxy for use at the Court Meeting and the white form of proxy for use at the General Meeting both of which accompany this document;
“General Meeting”	means the general meeting of United Utilities convened for 1 July 2008, notice of which is set out in Part IX of this document, to consider and, if thought fit, approve, inter alia , a special resolution required to give effect to the Scheme, and any adjournment of that meeting;
“Group”	means, before the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities and its subsidiary undertakings (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include United Utilities Group) and, from the Scheme Effective Date, United Utilities Group and its subsidiary undertakings (which will include United Utilities);
“HMRC”	means HM Revenue & Customs;
“holder”	means a registered holder, and includes any person(s) entitled by transmission;
“in certificated form”	means in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security which is not in uncertificated form;
“Initial B Share Redemption”	means the redemption of the B Shares on the Initial B Share Redemption Date for a redemption amount of 170 pence per share and the cancellation of such B Shares;
“Initial B Share Redemption Date”	means the date on which the Initial B Share Redemption shall be made, expected to be 11 August 2008;
“Interest Rate”	means the rate per annum equivalent to 75 per cent. of LIBOR or, if LIBOR cannot be established on 11 August 2008, the Reserve Interest Rate;
“JPMorgan Cazenove”	means JPMorgan Cazenove Limited;
“LIBOR”	means the British Bankers’ Association Interest Settlement Rate for eight month sterling deposits as of 11:00 a.m. London time on 11 August 2008;
“Listing Rules”	means the rules and regulations of the Financial Services Authority made under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as amended from time to time;

“London Stock Exchange”	means the London Stock Exchange plc or any recognised investment exchange for the purpose of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which may take over the function of the London Stock Exchange plc;
“New United Utilities Shares”	means the ordinary shares of United Utilities created following the cancellation of the Scheme Shares which shall be of an aggregate nominal amount equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the Scheme Shares cancelled;
“NZ Shareholders”	means Shareholders who have an address in New Zealand on United Utilities’ register of members;
“Official List”	means the list maintained by the UKLA pursuant to Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
“Ofwat”	means the Water Services Regulation Authority;
“Overseas Shareholder”	means a Shareholder who is resident in, or a citizen or national of, any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom;
“penny”, “pence”, “p”, “£” or “pounds sterling”	means the lawful currency of the United Kingdom;
“Proposals”	means the proposed reorganisation of the Group involving the Scheme, the subsequent United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital and the Return of Capital;
“Prospectus”	means the prospectus relating to United Utilities Group and the United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, expected to be published on or around the date of this Circular which can be accessed in electronic form via www.unitedutilities.com ;
“Prospectus Rules”	means the rules and regulations made by the Financial Services Authority pursuant to Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
“Redeemable Preference Shares”	means the redeemable non-voting preference shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group;
“Registrars”	means Equiniti Limited;
“Reserve Interest Rate”	means 75 per cent. of such rate of interest as United Utilities Group shall determine on the basis of quotations made for eight month deposits of £1,000,000 in any interbank market or markets as United Utilities Group may select on 11 August 2008;
“Restricted Overseas Shareholders”	means US Shareholders and NZ Shareholders;
“Return of Capital”	means the return of capital of 170 pence per United Utilities Share by way of the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend or the Final B Share Redemption;
“Scheme”	means the proposed scheme of arrangement under section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 between United Utilities and Scheme Shareholders including any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the Court, details of which are set out in Part III of this document;
“Scheme Effective Date”	means the date on which the Scheme becomes effective in accordance with Clause 7 of the Scheme, expected to be 28 July 2008;

“Scheme Record Date”	means the Business Day immediately preceding the Scheme Effective Date;
“Scheme Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on the Scheme Record Date;
“Scheme Shareholder”	means a holder of Scheme Shares as appearing in the register of members of United Utilities at the Scheme Record Time;
“Scheme Shares”	means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) all United Utilities Shares in issue at the date of the Scheme and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time; (B) all (if any) additional United Utilities Shares in issue prior to the Scheme Voting Record Time and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time; and (C) all (if any) further United Utilities Shares which may be in issue immediately prior to the confirmation by the Court of the capital reduction provided for under the Scheme on terms that the original or any subsequent holders thereof shall be bound by the Scheme and remaining in issue at the Scheme Record Time;
“Scheme Voting Record Time”	means 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, 6:00 p.m. on the second day before the date of such adjourned meeting;
“SEC”	means the US Securities and Exchange Commission;
“Securities Act” or “US Securities Act”	means the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;
“Senior Managers”	means Martin Bradbury (Chief Information Officer), Alison Clarke (Human Resources Director), Clive Elphick (Managing Director, Asset Management and Regulation), Tom Keevil (General Counsel and Company Secretary), Gaynor Keynon (Communications Director), Ian McAulay (Managing Director, Capital Programmes) and Matthew Wright (Managing Director, Operations);
“Shareholder”	means a registered holder of United Utilities Shares or of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, as the context may require;
“Share Option Plans”	means the United Utilities Executive (Approved and Unapproved) Share Option Schemes, the United Utilities (Approved and Unapproved) Share Option Plans 1999 and the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999;
“Subscriber Ordinary Shares”	means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities Group whose rights will be deferred upon the Scheme becoming effective;
“TTE instruction”	means Transfer to Escrow instruction to be used by Shareholders holding their United Utilities Shares in CREST to enable them to choose one of the B Share Alternatives;
“UK” or “United Kingdom”	means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

“UKLA” or “UK Listing Authority”	means the Financial Services Authority acting in its capacity as the competent authority for the purposes of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
“uncertificated” or “in uncertificated form”	means in relation to a share or other security, a share or other security title to which is recorded on the relevant register of the share or security concerned as being held in uncertificated form in CREST and title to which, by virtue of the CREST Regulations, may be transferred by means of CREST;
“United Utilities” or the “Company”	means United Utilities PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 02366616;
“United Utilities ADR”	means an ADR evidencing United Utilities ADSs;
“United Utilities ADS”	means an ADS, representing two United Utilities Shares, issued by the Depositary in accordance with the provisions of the United Utilities Deposit Agreement;
“United Utilities Articles”	means the articles of association of United Utilities as adopted or amended from time to time;
“United Utilities Deposit Agreement”	means the deposit agreement dated 9 June 2006 as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated 2 June 2007 between United Utilities, the Depositary and holders from time to time of United Utilities ADSs issued under it;
“United Utilities Electricity”	means United Utilities Electricity PLC, now called Electricity North West Limited;
“United Utilities Employee Share Plans”	means the Share Option Plans, the United Utilities PLC Share Incentive Plan, the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities PLC International Plan and the United Utilities PLC 2007 Matching Share Award Plan;
“United Utilities Final Dividend”	means the dividend of 31.47 pence per United Utilities Share to be paid to holders of United Utilities Shares on the register of members of United Utilities at the close of business on 27 June 2008;
“United Utilities Group”	means United Utilities Group PLC, a public limited company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 06559020;
“United Utilities Group ADR”	means an ADR evidencing United Utilities Group ADSs;
“United Utilities Group ADS”	means an ADS, representing two United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares, issued by the Depositary in accordance with the United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement;
“United Utilities Group Articles”	means the articles of association of United Utilities Group as adopted or amended from time to time;
“United Utilities Group Deposit Agreement”	means the deposit agreement expected to take effect as of the Scheme Effective Date between United Utilities Group, the Depositary and holders from time to time of United Utilities Group ADSs issued under it;
“United Utilities Group Employee Share Plans”	means the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme, the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan;

“United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares”

means:

- (A) prior to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, the ordinary shares of 500 pence each (or such lower nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) in the capital of United Utilities Group to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Scheme; and
- (B) subsequent to the United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital, the ordinary shares of five pence each (or such other nominal value as United Utilities Group shall resolve prior to the date on which the Court is asked to sanction the Scheme) in the capital of United Utilities Group;

“United Utilities Group Reduction of Capital” means the proposed reduction of capital of United Utilities Group under section 135 of the Companies Act 1985;

“United Utilities Shares” means the ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities;

“US” or “United States” means the United States of America, its territories and possessions, any state in the United States of America and the District of Columbia and all other areas subject to its jurisdiction; and means (i) Shareholders who have an address in the United States on United Utilities’ or United Utilities Group’s register of members and (ii) any person resident in the United States who holds shares in United Utilities or United Utilities Group (including, without limitation, shares now or at any time represented by American depository shares or receipts), including directly or through or as a nominee, and (iii) persons who appear at any time, to the Directors to fall within paragraph (ii) of this definition of US Shareholders.

“US Shareholders”

PART VIII

NOTICE OF COURT MEETING

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE
CHANCERY DIVISION
COMPANIES COURT

No. 4197 of 2008

IN THE MATTER OF UNITED UTILITIES PLC

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES ACT 2006

Notice is hereby given that by an order dated 3 June 2008 made in the above matters the Court has directed a meeting (the "Court Meeting") to be convened of the holders (the "Shareholders") of ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of United Utilities PLC (the "Company") for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving (with or without modification) a scheme of arrangement (the "Scheme") proposed to be made between the Company and the Scheme Shareholders (as defined in the Scheme) and that such meeting will be held at Bridgewater Hall, Lower Mosley Street, Manchester M2 3WS on 1 July 2008 at 11:00 a.m. at which place and time all Shareholders are requested to attend.

A copy of the Scheme and the explanatory statement required to be furnished pursuant to section 897 of the Companies Act 2006 are incorporated in the document of which this notice forms a part.

Shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at the Court Meeting in person or they may appoint another person, whether a member of the Company or not, as their proxy to attend and vote in their stead. A blue form of proxy for use at the Court Meeting is enclosed herewith.

Shareholders are entitled to appoint a proxy in respect of some or all of their shares. Shareholders are also entitled to appoint more than one proxy provided each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member. A space has been included in the blue form of proxy to allow Shareholders to specify the number of shares in respect of which that proxy is appointed. Shareholders who return the blue form of proxy duly executed but leave this space blank will be deemed to have appointed the proxy in respect of all their shares. To appoint more than one proxy, please contact Equiniti Limited, the Company's Registrars, on telephone number 0871 384 2898 (or, if you are calling from outside the United Kingdom, +44 121 415 0269) for further blue forms of proxy. Such Shareholders should also read the notes to the Notice of General Meeting and note the principles that will be applied in relation to multiple proxies.

It is requested that the blue form of proxy be lodged (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) with the Registrars, Equiniti Limited either by post to Aspect House, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6DA or, by hand during normal business hours only, to Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA, no later than 11:00 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, in the event that the Court Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time fixed for any adjourned meeting but, if forms are not so lodged, they may be handed to the Company's registrars or the Chairman at the Court Meeting prior to the vote being taken. For the form of proxy to be valid, it must be clearly signed in the relevant space provided indicating the Shareholder's instruction to vote either in favour or against the Scheme. Completion and return of the blue form of proxy will not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting in person at the Court Meeting, or any adjournment thereof.

A proxy may be appointed electronically by visiting www.sharevote.co.uk. Shareholders will need to enter their voting reference numbers, the three numbers quoted on the enclosed form of proxy and follow the online instructions. The deadline for receipt of electronic proxies is 11:00 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time fixed for any adjourned meeting. Any electronic communications found to contain a virus will not be accepted.

If shares are held in uncertificated form, a proxy may also be appointed by completing and transmitting a CREST Proxy Instruction in accordance with the procedures set out in the CREST Manual and ensuring that it is received by the Company's Registrars, Equiniti Limited (under CREST participant ID 7RA01), by no later than 11:00 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time of any adjourned meeting. For the CREST Proxy Instruction to be valid, the Shareholder's instruction to vote either in favour or against the Scheme must be clearly entered in the relevant box provided.

In order to facilitate voting by corporate representatives at the meeting, arrangements will be put in place at the meeting so that (i) if a corporate Shareholder has appointed the Chairman of the meeting as its corporate representative with instructions to vote on a poll in accordance with the directions of all of the other corporate representatives for that Shareholder at the meeting, then on a poll those corporate representatives will give voting directions to the Chairman and the Chairman will vote as corporate representative in accordance with those directions; and (ii) if more than one corporate representative for the same corporate Shareholder attends the meeting but the corporate Shareholder has not appointed the Chairman of the meeting as its corporate representative, a designated corporate representative will be nominated, from those corporate representatives who attend, who will vote on a poll and the other corporate representatives will give voting directions to that designated corporate representative. Corporate Shareholders are referred to the guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators on proxies and corporate representatives (www.icsa.org.uk) for further details of this procedure. The guidance includes a sample form of representation letter if the Chairman is being appointed as described in (i) above.

Any person to whom this notice is sent who is a person nominated under section 146 of the Companies Act 2006 to enjoy information rights (a "Nominated Person") may, under an agreement between him/her and the Shareholder by whom he/she was nominated, have a right to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy for the Court Meeting. If a Nominated Person has no such proxy appointment right or does not wish to exercise it, he/she may, under any such agreement, have a right to give instructions to the Shareholder as to the exercise of voting rights.

The statement of the rights of shareholders in relation to the appointment of proxies above does not apply to Nominated Persons. The rights described in these paragraphs can only be exercised by Shareholders of the Company.

Where the appointer is a corporation, for the blue form of proxy to be valid, it must be executed either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised in writing.

In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holder(s) and for this purpose seniority will be determined by the order in which the names appear in the register of members of the Company in respect of the joint holding.

The Company, pursuant to Regulation 41 of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, specifies that only those Shareholders registered in the register of members of the Company as at 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, in the register of members as at 6:00 p.m. two days before the time of any adjourned meeting, shall be entitled to attend or vote in respect of the number of shares registered in their name at the relevant time. Changes to entries in the register of members after 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the Court Meeting is adjourned, after 6:00 p.m. two days before the time of any adjourned meeting, shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the Court Meeting.

As at 30 May 2008, being the last practicable date prior to the publication of this Notice, the Company's issued share capital consisted of 881,708,819 ordinary shares carrying one vote each. Therefore, the total voting rights in the Company as at 30 May 2008 were 881,708,819.

By the said order, the Court has appointed Sir Richard Harry Evans CBE or, failing him, Philip Nevill Green or, failing him, Timothy Peter Weller to act as chairman of the Court Meeting and has directed the chairman to report the result thereof to the Court.

The said Scheme will be subject to the subsequent sanction of the Court.

Dated 6 June 2008

Slaughter and May
One Bunhill Row
London EC1Y 8YY
Solicitors for the Company

NOTES FOR CREST MEMBERS

Electronic proxy appointment through CREST

CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the Court Meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST Personal Members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.

In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a "CREST Proxy Instruction") must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited's specifications, and must contain the information required for such instruction, as described in the CREST Manual. The message, regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy or is an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by the issuer's agent (ID 7RA01) by the latest time for receipt of proxy appointments specified in this notice of meeting. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Application Host) from which the issuer's agent is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.

CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors, or voting service providers should note that Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular message. Normal system timings and limitations will, therefore, apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member, or sponsored member, or has appointed a voting service provider, to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting system providers are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

PART IX

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

United Utilities PLC

(Registered in England No. 02366616)

Notice is hereby given that a General Meeting of United Utilities PLC (the "Company") will be held at Bridgewater Hall, Lower Mosley Street, Manchester M2 3WS on 1 July 2008 at 11:15 a.m. (or, if later, immediately following the conclusion or adjournment of the meeting of the holders of ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of the Company convened for 11:00 a.m. on the same day, and at the same place, by an order of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales) to consider and, if thought fit, to pass the following resolutions. Resolution 1 is proposed as a special resolution and resolutions 2 to 4 are proposed as ordinary resolutions.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

1. THAT:

- (A) the directors of the Company be and are hereby authorised to take all such action as they may consider necessary or appropriate for carrying into effect the scheme of arrangement dated 6 June 2008 in its original form or with or subject to any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the Court (the "Scheme") proposed to be made between the Company and the Scheme Shareholders (as defined in the Scheme);
- (B) for the purpose of giving effect to the Scheme:
- (i) the share capital of the Company be reduced by cancelling and extinguishing the Scheme Shares (as defined in the Scheme);
 - (ii) forthwith and contingently upon such reduction of capital taking effect:
 - (a) the authorised share capital of the Company be increased to its former amount by the creation of such number of New United Utilities Shares (as defined in the Scheme) as shall be equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the Scheme Shares cancelled pursuant to paragraph (B)(i) of this resolution; and
 - (b) the Company shall apply the credit arising in its books of account as a result of such reduction of capital in paying up in full, at par, the number of New United Utilities Shares created pursuant to paragraph (B)(ii)(a) of this resolution which shall be allotted and issued, credited as fully paid, to United Utilities Group PLC and/or its nominee(s); and
 - (c) the directors of the Company be and they are hereby generally and unconditionally authorised, for the purposes of section 80 of the Companies Act 1985, to allot the New United Utilities Shares referred to in paragraph (B)(ii)(a) and (b) of this resolution provided that (i) the maximum aggregate nominal amount of the shares which may be allotted hereunder shall be £1,000,000,000; (ii) this authority shall expire on 31 December 2008; and (iii) this authority shall be in addition to any subsisting authority conferred on the directors of the Company pursuant to the said section 80; and
- (C) the articles of association of the Company be amended by the adoption and inclusion of the following new article as Article 171.

"171 Shares not otherwise subject to the Scheme

- 171.1 For the purpose of this article 171, references to the "Scheme" are to the scheme of arrangement dated 6 June 2008 under Section 899 of the Companies Act 2006 between the company and its members subject to that scheme of arrangement in its original form or with or subject to any modification, addition or condition approved or imposed by the Court. Terms defined in the Scheme shall have the same meanings in this article. References to "Spouse" include a civil partner under the UK Civil Partnership Act 2004.

171.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, if any United Utilities Shares are allotted and issued to any person (a "new member") other than United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s) after the time at which this article becomes effective they will:

- (a) if allotment and issue is prior to the confirmation by the Court of the reduction of capital provided for under the Scheme, be allotted and issued subject to the terms of the Scheme and the new member, and any subsequent holder other than United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s), shall be bound by the terms of the Scheme; and
- (b) if allotment and issue is at or after confirmation by the Court of the reduction of capital provided for under the Scheme they will, provided the Scheme has become effective and that United Utilities Group is a member of the company and subject to article 171.3, be immediately transferred to United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s) in consideration of and conditional on the issue or transfer to the new member of one United Utilities Group Ordinary Share for every one United Utilities Share so transferred. The United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to this article 171.2(b) to the new member will be credited as fully paid and will rank equally in all respects with all United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares in issue at the time (other than as regards any dividend or other distribution payable, or return of capital made, by reference to a record time preceding the date of exchange) and be subject to the memorandum and articles of association of United Utilities Group.

171.3 Any new member may, prior to the issue of the United Utilities Shares to him or her pursuant to the exercise of an option or other right under one of the company's employee share schemes, give no less than two business days' written notice to the company of his or her intention to transfer some or all of those shares to his or her Spouse and may, if such notice has been validly given, on such shares being issued to him or her immediately transfer to his or her Spouse any such shares, provided that such shares will then be immediately transferred from that Spouse to United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s) pursuant to article 171.2(b) as if the Spouse were a new member.

171.4 The number of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares to be issued or transferred to the new member under article 171.2(b) may be adjusted by the board in such manner as the auditors may determine to be appropriate on any reorganisation or material alteration of the share capital of either the company or of United Utilities Group or any other return of capital to holders of United Utilities Group Ordinary Shares effected after the Scheme Effective Date, provided always that any fractions of a United Utilities Group Ordinary Share shall be disregarded and shall be aggregated and sold for the benefit of the relevant new members and the proceeds of the sale will be distributed to those members pro rata to their fractional entitlements.

171.5 In order to give effect to any such transfer required by this article 171, the company may appoint any person to execute and deliver as transferor a form of transfer on behalf of the new member in favour of United Utilities Group and/or its nominee(s) and to agree for and on behalf of the new member to become a member of United Utilities Group. Pending the registration of United Utilities Group as a holder of any share to be transferred pursuant to this article 171, United Utilities Group shall be empowered to appoint a person nominated by the directors of the company to act as attorney on behalf of the new member in accordance with such directions as United Utilities Group may give in relation to any dealings with or disposal of such share (or any interest therein), exercising any rights attached thereto or receiving any distribution or other benefit accruing or payable in respect thereof and the registered holder of such share shall exercise all rights attached thereto in accordance with the directions of United Utilities Group but not otherwise.”

ORDINARY RESOLUTIONS

2. THAT, subject to and conditionally upon the resolution numbered 1 in this notice being approved, the establishment by United Utilities Group PLC of the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme and the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan, the principal terms of each of which are summarised at paragraph 3 in Part VI of the circular to Shareholders dated 6 June 2008 and accompanying this Notice (the “Circular”), be and is hereby approved.
3. THAT, subject to and conditional upon the resolution numbered 1 in this notice being approved, the establishment by United Utilities Group PLC of the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan, the principal terms of each of which are summarised at paragraph 3 in Part VI of the Circular, be and is hereby approved.
4. THAT, subject to and conditional upon the resolution numbered 1 in this notice being approved, the directors of United Utilities Group PLC be and are hereby authorised to establish employee share schemes in addition to those mentioned in resolutions numbered 2 and 3 in this notice (the “Schemes”) for the benefit of overseas employees of United Utilities Group PLC and its subsidiaries provided that such additional schemes operate within the equity dilution limits applicable to the Schemes and (save to the extent necessary or desirable to take account of overseas tax, securities and exchange control laws) such additional schemes do not confer upon participants benefits which are greater than those which could be obtained from the Schemes and that, once such additional schemes have been established, they may not be amended without the approval of United Utilities Group PLC in general meeting if such approval would be required to amend the corresponding provisions of the Schemes or unless such approval to amend those corresponding provisions has already been obtained.

By order of the Board

Tom Keevil
Company Secretary

Registered Office:
Haweswater House
Lingley Mere Business Park
Lingley Green Avenue
Great Sankey
Warrington
WA5 3LP

Dated 6 June 2008

Notes:

1. A member of the Company who is unable or does not wish to attend the General Meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to exercise all or any of his/her rights to attend, speak and vote on his/her behalf at the meeting. A proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. Appointing a proxy will not preclude you from attending and voting at the meeting if you later decide to do so.
2. A white form of proxy which may be used to make such appointment and give proxy instructions accompanies this notice. If you do not have a white form of proxy and believe that you should have one, or if you require additional forms, please contact Equiniti Limited, the Company's Registrars, on telephone number 0871 384 2898 (or, if you are calling from outside the United Kingdom, +44 121 415 0269). You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes and the notes to the proxy form.
3. A member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to the General Meeting provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member.
4. If you want to appoint multiple proxies, you may: (i) photocopy the white form of proxy, fill in each copy in respect of different shares and return the multiple forms together to the Company's Registrars, Equiniti Limited, either by post to Aspect House, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6DA or by hand during normal business hours only to Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA, or alternatively (ii) call Equiniti Limited on telephone number 0871 384 2898 (or, if you are calling from outside the United Kingdom, +44 121 415 0269) who will then issue you with multiple white forms of proxy. In each case, please ensure that all of the multiple white forms of proxy are sent in the same envelope if possible.
5. Subject to the following principles, where more than one proxy is appointed, where a form of proxy does not state the number of shares to which it applies (a "blank proxy") then that proxy is deemed to have been appointed in relation to the total number of shares registered in your name ("your entire holding" or the "member's entire holding"). In the event of a conflict between a blank form of proxy and a form of proxy which does state the number of shares to which it applies (a "specific proxy"), the specific proxy shall be counted first, regardless of the time it was sent or received (on the basis that as far as possible, the conflicting forms of proxy should be judged to be in respect of different shares) and remaining shares will be apportioned to the blank proxy (pro rata if there is more than one).
6. Where there is more than one proxy appointed and the total number of shares in respect of which proxies are appointed is no greater than your entire holding, it is assumed that proxies are appointed in relation to different shares rather than that conflicting appointments have been made in relation to the same shares.
7. When considering conflicting proxies, later proxies will prevail over earlier proxies, and which proxy is later will be determined on the basis of which proxy is last sent (or, if the Company is unable to determine which is last sent, last received). Proxies in the same envelope will be treated as sent and received at the same time, to minimise the number of conflicting proxies.
8. If conflicting proxies are sent or received at the same time in respect of (or deemed to be in respect of) a member's entire holding, none of them shall be treated as valid.
9. Where the aggregate number of shares in respect of which proxies are appointed exceeds a member's entire holding and it is not possible to determine the order in which they were sent or received (or they were sent or received at the same time), the number of votes attributed to each proxy will be reduced pro rata (on the basis that as far as possible, conflicting forms of proxy should be judged to be in respect of different shares).
10. Where the application of paragraph 9 above gives rise to fractions of shares, such fractions will be rounded down.
11. If you appoint a proxy or proxies and then decide to attend the meeting, your vote in person will override the proxy vote(s). If your vote in person is in respect of your entire holding then all proxy votes will be disregarded. If, however, you vote at the meeting in respect of less than your entire holding and you do not specifically revoke proxies, then your vote in person will be treated in the same way as if it were the last received proxy and earlier proxies will only be disregarded to the extent that to count them would result in the number of votes being cast exceeding your entire holding.
12. In relation to paragraph 11 above, if you do not specifically revoke proxies, it will not be possible for the Company to determine your intentions in this regard. However, in light of the aim to include votes wherever and to the fullest extent possible, it will be assumed that earlier proxies should continue to apply to the fullest extent possible.
13. To be valid, the white form of proxy must be completed, signed and lodged (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) with the Registrars, Equiniti Limited either by post, to Aspect House, Lancing, West Sussex BN99 6DA or, by hand during normal business hours only, to Corporate Actions, The Causeway, Worthing, West Sussex BN99 6DA by no later than 11:15 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, if the meeting is adjourned, not less than 48 hours before the time of the adjourned meeting.
14. A proxy may be appointed electronically by visiting www.sharevote.co.uk. Members will need to enter their voting reference numbers, the three numbers quoted on the enclosed form of proxy and follow the online instructions. The deadline for receipt of electronic proxies is 11:15 a.m. on 29 June 2008 or, in the event the meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before the time of the adjourned meeting.
15. In the case of a member which is a company, the white proxy form must be executed under its common seal or signed on its behalf by an officer or attorney duly authorised in writing.
16. Any power of attorney or any other authority under which the white proxy form is signed (or a duly certified copy of such power of attorney) must be included with the proxy form.

17. A vote withheld is not a vote in law, which means that the vote will not be counted in the calculation of votes for or against the resolution. If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion.
18. In the case of joint holders, where more than one of the joint holders purports to appoint a proxy, only the appointment submitted by the most senior holder will be accepted. Seniority is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the Company's register of members in respect of the joint holding (the first-named being the most senior).
19. Any person to whom this notice is sent who is a person nominated under section 146 of the Companies Act 2006 to enjoy information rights (a "Nominated Person") may, under an agreement between him/her and the shareholder by whom he/she was nominated, have a right to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy for the General Meeting. If a Nominated Person has no such proxy appointment right or does not wish to exercise it, he/she may, under any such agreement, have a right to give instructions to the shareholder as to the exercise of voting rights.
20. The statement of the rights of shareholders in relation to the appointment of proxies above does not apply to Nominated Persons. The rights described in these paragraphs can only be exercised by shareholders of the Company.
21. Pursuant to Regulation 41 of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, the Company specifies that only those shareholders registered in the register of members of the Company as at 6:00 p.m. on 29 June 2008 or, in the event that the General Meeting is adjourned, registered in the register of members as at 6:00 p.m. two days before the adjourned meeting, shall be entitled to attend or vote at the meeting in respect of the number of shares registered in their name at that time.
22. In order to facilitate voting by corporate representatives at the meeting, arrangements will be put in place at the meeting so that (i) if a corporate shareholder has appointed the Chairman of the meeting as its corporate representative with instructions to vote on a poll in accordance with the directions of all of the other corporate representatives for that shareholder at the meeting, then on a poll those corporate representatives will give voting directions to the Chairman and the Chairman will vote (or withhold a vote) as corporate representative in accordance with those directions; and (ii) if more than one corporate representative for the same corporate shareholder attends the meeting but the corporate shareholder has not appointed the Chairman of the meeting as its corporate representative, a designated corporate representative will be nominated, from those corporate representatives who attend, who will vote on a poll and the other corporate representatives will give voting directions to that designated corporate representative. Corporate shareholders are referred to the guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators on proxies and corporate representatives (www.icsa.org.uk) for further details of this procedure. The guidance includes a sample form of representation letter if the Chairman is being appointed as described in (i) above.
23. As at 30 May 2008, being the last practicable date prior to the publication of this Notice, the Company's issued share capital consisted of 881,708,819 ordinary shares carrying one vote each. Therefore, total voting rights in the Company as at 30 May 2008 were 881,708,819.
24. CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the General Meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST Personal Members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.
25. In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST message (a "CREST Proxy Instruction") must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited's specifications, and must contain the information required for such instruction, as described in the CREST Manual. The message, regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy or is an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by the issuer's agent (ID 7RA01) by the latest time for receipt of proxy appointments specified in this notice of meeting. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Application Host) from which the issuer's agent is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.
26. CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors, or voting service providers should note that Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular message. Normal system timings and limitations will, therefore, apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member, or sponsored member, or has appointed a voting service provider, to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting system providers are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.
27. The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.
28. Voting on all resolutions will be conducted by way of a poll rather than a show of hands.
29. The following documents will be available for inspection at the offices of Slaughter and May at One Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8YY and at the Company's registered office at Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP during normal business hours on any weekday (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) from the date of this notice until close of business on the date of the meeting and will also be available for inspection at the place of the meeting for at least 15 minutes before and during the meeting:

- (A) the Company's existing articles of association;
- (B) the Company's articles of association as proposed to be amended by paragraph C of resolution 1 set out in the notice of meeting;
- (C) the articles of association of United Utilities Group PLC; and
- (D) copies of the United Utilities Group 2008 Savings-Related Share Option Scheme, the United Utilities Group 2008 Share Incentive Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities Group 2008 International Plan and the United Utilities Group 2008 Matching Share Award Plan.

RECEIVED

2009 JUL 24 A 9:23

RECEIVED

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

3. The memorandum of association and articles of association of United Utilities

Company number 2366616

THE COMPANIES ACTS
PUBLIC COMPANY
LIMITED BY SHARES

MEMORANDUM
AND
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION
OF
UNITED UTILITIES PLC

7009 JUL 24 A 9:23

Clause	Page
MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION	i
AUTHORISED SHARE CAPITAL SINCE INCORPORATION	ix
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION	1
PRELIMINARY
1 No other regulations to apply	1
2 Interpretation	1
3 Form of resolution	4
4 Registered office	4
SHARE CAPITAL
5 Authorised share capital.....	4
6 Allotment	4
7 Redeemable shares	4
8 Power to attach rights	4
9 Share warrants to bearer	4
10 Commission and brokerage	5
11 Trusts not to be recognised	5
ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL
12 Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division	5
13 Fractions of shares.....	6
14 Reduction of capital.....	6
15 Purchase of own shares.....	6
VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS
16 Sanction to variation.....	7
17 Class meetings.....	7
18 Deemed variation	7
EVIDENCE OF TITLE
19 Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities	7
20 Right to share certificates.....	8
21 Replacement certificates.....	8
LIEN ON SHARES
22 Lien on shares not fully paid	9
23 Enforcement of lien by sale.....	9
24 Application of proceeds of sale	9
CALLS ON SHARES
25 Calls	9
26 Liability of joint holders10
27 Interest on calls10
28 Rights of member when call unpaid10
29 Sums due on allotment treated as calls10
30 Power to differentiate10
31 Payment in advance of calls10
32 Delegation of power to make calls11

	FORFEITURE OF SHARES
33	Notice if call not paid11
34	Forfeiture for non-compliance11
35	Notice after forfeiture11
36	Forfeiture may be annulled11
37	Surrender11
38	Disposal of forfeited shares12
39	Effect of forfeiture12
40	Extinction of claims12
41	Evidence of forfeiture12
	TRANSFER OF SHARES
42	Transfer of certificated shares13
43	Transfer of uncertificated shares13
44	Right to refuse registration13
45	Notice of refusal13
46	Fees on registration14
47	Transfers by renunciation14
	TRANSMISSION OF SHARES
48	On death14
49	Election of person entitled by transmission14
50	Rights on transmission14
	DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
51	Destruction of documents15
	GENERAL MEETINGS
52	Annual general meetings15
53	Other general meetings15
54	Convening of general meetings16
55	Notice of general meetings16
56	Omission to send notice16
57	Special business17
	PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS
58	Quorum17
59	If quorum not present17
60	Chairman17
61	Directors may attend and speak18
62	Power to adjourn18
63	Notice of adjourned meeting18
64	Business of adjourned meeting18
65	Accommodation of members and security arrangements18
	VOTING
66	Method of voting19
67	Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands19
68	Objection to error in voting19
69	Amendment to resolutions20
70	Procedure on a poll20
71	Votes of members20
72	Casting vote21
73	Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc.21
74	Voting by proxy21
75	Form of proxy21

- 76 Deposit of proxy22
- 77 More than one proxy may be appointed24
- 78 Board may supply proxy cards24
- 79 Revocation of proxy24
- 80 Corporate representative24
- 81 Failure to disclose interests in shares25

UNTRACED MEMBERS

- 82 Power of sale26
- 83 Application of proceeds of sale27

APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- 84 Number of directors28
- 85 Power of company to appoint directors28
- 86 Power of board to appoint directors28
- 87 Appointment of executive directors28
- 88 Eligibility for appointment as a director28
- 89 Share qualification28
- 90 Resolution for appointment29
- 91 Retirement at intervals of one year and three years29
- 92 Directors to retire by rotation29
- 93 Position of retiring director29
- 94 Deemed re-appointment30
- 95 No retirement on account of age30
- 96 Removal by ordinary resolution30
- 97 Vacation of office by director30
- 98 Resolution as to vacancy conclusive31

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 99 Appointment31
- 100 Participation in board meetings31
- 101 Alternate director responsible for own acts31
- 102 Interests of alternate director31
- 103 Revocation of appointment32

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS

- 104 Directors' fees32
- 105 Expenses32
- 106 Remuneration of executive directors32
- 107 Pensions and other benefits33

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

- 108 Powers of the board33
- 109 Powers of directors being less than minimum number33
- 110 Powers of executive directors33
- 111 Delegation to committees34
- 112 Local management34
- 113 Power of attorney34
- 114 Use of the title "director"34
- 115 Exercise of voting power35
- 116 Provision for employees35
- 117 Overseas registers35
- 118 Borrowing powers35

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

- 119 Board meetings39

120	Notice of board meetings39
121	Quorum39
122	Chairman of the board39
123	Voting39
124	Participation by telephone or video conference39
125	Resolution of the directors in writing40
126	Proceedings of committees40
127	Minutes of proceedings40
128	Validity of proceedings41
	DIRECTORS' INTERESTS
129	Directors' power to authorise conflict situations41
130	Director may have interests42
131	Disclosure of interests to board43
132	Interested director not to vote or count for quorum43
133	Director's interest in own appointment44
134	Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest44
135	Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest45
136	Connected persons45
	SEALS
137	Safe custody45
138	Application of seals45
139	Official seal for use abroad45
	THE SECRETARY
140	The secretary45
	AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS
141	Power to authenticate46
	DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS
142	Declaration of dividends46
143	Interim dividends46
144	Entitlement to dividends46
145	Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends47
146	Distribution in specie47
147	Dividends not to bear interest47
148	Method of payment47
149	Uncashed dividends48
150	Unclaimed dividends48
151	Payment of share dividends48
152	Reserves50
153	Capitalisation of reserves50
154	Record dates51
	ACCOUNTS
155	Accounting records51
156	Inspection of records51
157	Accounts to be sent to members51
158	Summary financial statements52
	NOTICES
159	Notices to be in writing52
160	Service of notice on members52
161	Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder53
162	Evidence of service53

- 163 Notice binding on transferees54
- 164 Notice by advertisement54
- 165 Suspension of postal services54
- 166 Service of notices on the company54

WINDING UP

- 167 Division of assets55
- 168 Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 198655

INDEMNITY

- 169 Indemnity and insurance55

THE COMPANIES ACT 1985
PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES
MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION
OF
UNITED UTILITIES PLC

(Including amendments made on or before 21st July 2000)

-
- 1 The company's name is UNITED UTILITIES PLC¹
- 2 The company is to be a public company.
- 3 The company's registered office is to be situated in England and Wales.
- 4 The company's objects are:²
- (a)
- (i) To carry on the business of a holding company and to co-ordinate and regulate the activities and businesses of subsidiary and associated companies for the time being and the financing of the companies.
 - (ii) To acquire and hold either in the name of the company or in that of any nominee shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever issued, created or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in any part of the world or by any government, sovereign ruler, commissioners, public body or authority, supreme, dependent, municipal, local or otherwise in any part of the world.
 - (iii) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments by original subscription, contract, tender, purchase, exchange, participation in syndicates or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to subscribe for the same subject to such terms and conditions (if any) as may be thought fit.
 - (iv) To exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incidental to the ownership of any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments.
 - (v) To provide any form of capital for and take part in the formation, management, supervision or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking and for such purposes to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants or other experts, advisers or agents and to act as agents for and to manage supervise or control and provide services to the business, property or operations of any person, company or undertaking, or any property in which the company may be interested.

¹ The name of the company was changed from North West Water Group PLC to its present name with effect from 1st January 1998

² Clause 4 was amended by special resolution passed on 25th July 1997.

- (b) To carry on the business of the planning, provision, operation, development, maintenance, improvement and extension of utility services of every description, including those relating to water, wastewater, electricity, gas and telecommunications systems.
- (c) To carry on business as a general commercial company.
- (d) To carry on all or any of the businesses of inspectors, maintainers, repairers, reconditioners, cleaners, clearers, servicers, coaters, designers, developers, manufacturers, constructors, installers, layers, fitters, hirers, letters on hire, suppliers, distributors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, mains, sewers, drains, pipes, pipelines, equipment ancillary to the operation or use of any of them, installations and facilities of all kinds, tools and machinery of every description, plumbing, engineering and other equipment, plant, components, accessories and supplies of every description.
- (e) To carry on all or any of the businesses of consultants, advisers and suppliers of management, personnel and training services, whether generally or in respect of one or more of the types of business or activity which the company has power to carry on, and to provide training and educational courses, instruction and materials, of every description, for employees of the company and for other persons.
- (f) To carry on all or any of the businesses of, and provide services associated with, plumbers, engineers (including, without limitation, water, sewerage, mechanical, gas, electrical, heating, ventilation, civil construction, chemical and telecommunications engineers), mechanics, technicians, geologists, draughtsmen, designers, surveyors, architects, builders, painters and decorators.
- (g) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, developers and promoters of recreational, sporting and leisure services, facilities and activities, whether or not connected with the use of water or land associated with water.
- (h) To carry on all or any of the businesses of bankers, financiers, factors, debt collectors, dealers in securities, underwriters, insurers, brokers of any kinds, storage contractors, freight contractors, carriers by land, water and air of freight and passengers, forwarding agents, shipping agents and agents of any other kind.
- (i) To carry on all or any of the businesses of developers of, and dealers in, property, real or personal, and interests and rights in such property, and of estate agents.
- (j) To carry on all or any of the businesses of running, operating, managing, supplying, servicing, repairing and dealing in:
 - (i) telecommunication systems, systems of other kinds for the conveyance by any means of sounds, visual images and signals; and
 - (ii) data processing and information retrieval systems, computers, computer programs and software, computer bureaux and databases, and services, facilities and equipment ancillary to, or for use in connection with, any of the same.

- (k) To carry on all or any of the businesses of nurserymen, gardeners, landscapers and funeral undertakers.
- (l) To provide and supply laboratory, scientific, biological, biochemical, technological, analytical and environmental services of all kinds.
- (m) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, producers, processors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, fertilisers, compost and foodstuffs.
- (n) To carry on business as inventors, researchers and developers, to conduct, promote and commission research and development in connection with the activities of the company and its subsidiaries, to establish and maintain research stations, laboratories, workshops, testing and proving grounds, facilities and establishments and installations and to exploit and turn to account the results of any research and development carried out by or for it.
- (o) To invent, design, develop, construct, manufacture, produce, erect, assemble, test, alter, install, maintain, repair, renovate, refurbish, recondition, utilise, operate, manage, purchase, sell, hire, hire out, import, export, supply and otherwise deal in all kinds of equipment, apparatus, plant, machinery, appliances, articles, furniture, things, accessories, components, fittings, tools, materials, substances, products, systems, computers, computer programs and software which are required or are likely to be required by the company for the purposes of, or in connection with, any of its businesses, or by other persons, or which in the opinion of the directors may be conveniently or advantageously dealt with by the company in connection or association with any of its objects or the objects of any of its subsidiaries.
- (p) To purchase, charter, lease, take or let on hire, operate, use, employ or turn to account, build, equip, service, repair, maintain, supply and deal in ships and vessels and craft of every description (including, without limitation, submersible craft), hovercraft, motor vehicles, aircraft, airships, railway locomotives, wagons, trucks and any means of transport and parts and accessories of all kinds for any of the same.
- (q) To enter into, carry on and participate in financial transactions and operations of all kinds and to undertake, carry on and execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, trust, agency and other operations, including, without limitation, acting as agents for the collection, receipt or payment of money.
- (r) To establish, acquire, produce, transmit, broadcast, publish, print and reproduce in any form whatsoever (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, visual or audible form and forms capable of being used by, in, or in connection with, computers), and to buy, sell, supply and otherwise deal in brochures, manuals, journals, periodicals, magazines, newspapers, books, pictures, photographs, stationery and other documents, sound and visual recordings, tapes, films, and programmes for radio, television, cinema and other means of communication.
- (s) To carry on any other business or activity which the directors consider is, or may be capable of being carried on directly or indirectly for the benefit of the company.
- (t) To acquire by any means and hold and deal with any real or personal property or rights whatsoever and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and hold any real property and any estate or interest in such property, including, without limitation any lands, buildings, installations, structures, servitudes, easements, rights, privileges and concessions and to exploit and develop the same.

- (u) To explore for, acquire and exploit natural resources, lands, claims, wells, mines, minerals, mineral, drilling and mining rights, exploration and production rights, and interests of all descriptions in or relating to the same.
- (v) To further the conservation, enhancement and appreciation of features of the natural and physical environment.
- (w) To acquire by any means the whole or any part of the assets, and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities, of any person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business which the company is authorised to carry on or which can be carried on in connection with any such business, and to acquire an interest in, amalgamate or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for mutual assistance, with any such person and to give or accept, for any of the acts or things aforesaid or property acquired, such consideration as the company thinks fit, including, without limitation, any shares, whether fully or partly paid up, debentures, or other securities or rights.
- (x) To apply for and take out, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, patent rights, inventions, secret processes, designs, copyrights, trade marks, service marks, commercial names and designations, know-how, formulae, licences, concessions and the like (and any interest in any of them) or any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to, any invention or secret process of any kind and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account or deal with, the property, rights or information so acquired.
- (y) To subscribe for, underwrite, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, and deal with, any shares, stocks, debentures, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever and any options or rights in respect of them; and otherwise to invest and deal with the money and assets of the company.
- (z) To borrow or raise money or secure or discharge any debt or obligation (whether of the company or of any other person) in such manner as the company thinks fit and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) by the creation or issue, upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the company thinks fit, of securities of any kind or mortgages or charges (fixed or floating) founded or based upon all or any part of the undertaking, property, assets and rights (present and future) of the company, including its uncalled capital, or without any such security; and to receive money on deposit and advance payments with or without allowance of interest thereon.
- (aa) To enter into any guarantee, contract of indemnity or suretyship and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) to guarantee, support or secure, with or without consideration, whether by personal obligation or by mortgaging or charging all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company or by both such methods or in any other manner, the performance of any contracts, obligations or commitments of, and the repayment or payment of the principal amounts of and any premiums, interest, dividends and other moneys payable on or in respect of any securities or liabilities of, any person, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any company which is a subsidiary or a holding company of the company or another subsidiary of a holding company of the company or otherwise associated with the company and whether or not any consideration or advantage is received by the company.

- (bb) To advance, lend or deposit money, and to give credit or financial accommodation to any person on such terms as may be thought fit by the company.
- (cc) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, negotiate, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
- (dd) To accept securities of any person or any property or interest therein of whatsoever nature in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale or supply made to, or debt owing from, any such person.
- (ee) To insure any property, asset, matter or interest and against any potential liability or loss of the company or of any other person and the life or health of any person for the benefit of the company.
- (ff) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for partnership or joint working or joint venture in business or for the sharing of profits or for amalgamation with any other person.
- (gg) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, privilege, concession, licence, appointment, consent, or authorisation of any government, state, municipality, minister, department, local authority, or other authority or public body for enabling the company to carry any of its objects into effect or for extending any of the company's powers or for effecting any modification of the company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any actions, steps, proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the interests of the company or of its members.
- (hh) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities (national, municipal, local, international, or otherwise), or any corporations, companies, public bodies, or persons that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government, authority, corporation, company, body or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions.
- (ii) To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities, and bonuses to present and former directors, officers and employees of the company or of any subsidiary of the company or the dependants of such persons, and for that purpose to establish, maintain, administer and contribute to any pension or superannuation funds and to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of welfare, sports and social facilities, any educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or trade societies, whether or not such societies be connected with the trade carried on by the company or by any subsidiary of the company, and any club or other establishment or profit sharing scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or any subsidiary of the company and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects calculated to promote the interests of the company, its employees, former employees and their respective families and dependants.
- (jj) To purchase, establish and maintain and or participate in or contribute to the cost of insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers or employees of the company, or of any other company which is its holding company or the subsidiary or subsidiary undertaking of the company or of any such holding company, or who are or were at any time trustees of any pension fund in which any employees or former employees of the company or of any such other companies as aforesaid are beneficiaries or otherwise interested, including insurance against any liability incurred by such persons in relation howsoever to any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of the duties of any such person and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of the powers of any such person and/or otherwise in relation to the company or any other such companies as aforesaid or such pension fund and to the extent permitted by law to indemnify or to exempt any such person from or against such liability.

- (kk) To establish, maintain, manage, support and contribute to any schemes for the acquisition of shares in the company or its holding company by or for the benefit of any individuals who are or were at any time in the employment of, or directors or officers of:
 - (i) the company;
 - (ii) any company which is or was its holding company or is or was a subsidiary of the company or any such holding company; or
 - (iii) any other company or former company connected or associated in any way with the company or with the whole or any part of its undertaking, and to lend money to any such individuals to enable them to acquire shares in the company or in its holding company and to establish, maintain, manage and support (financially or otherwise) any schemes for sharing profits of the company or any other such company as aforesaid with any such individuals.
- (ll) To subscribe or contribute (in cash or in kind) to, and to promote or sponsor, any charitable, benevolent or useful object of a public character or any object which may in the opinion of the company be likely directly or indirectly to further the interests of the company, its employees or its members.
- (mm) To pay and discharge all or any expenses, costs and disbursements, to pay commissions and to remunerate any person for services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the formation, promotion and flotation of the company and the underwriting or placing or issue at any time of any securities of the company or of any other person.
- (nn) To issue, allot and grant options over securities of the company for cash or otherwise or in payment or part payment for any real or personal property or rights therein purchased or otherwise acquired by the company or any services rendered to, or at the request of, or for the benefit of, the company or as security for, or indemnity for, or towards satisfaction of, any liability or obligation undertaken or agreed to be undertaken by or for the benefit of the company, or in consideration of any obligation (even if valued at less than the nominal value of such securities) or for any other purpose.
- (oo) To procure the company to be registered or recognised in any part of the world.
- (pp) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or undertaking any of the liabilities of the company, or both, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit the company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire all or any part of the shares, debentures or other securities of any such company.

- (qq) To dispose by any means of the whole or any part of the assets of the company or of any interest therein.
- (rr) To distribute in specie or otherwise by way of dividends or bonus or reduction of capital all or any of the property or assets of the company among its members and particularly, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the company or any proceeds of sale or other disposal of any property or assets of the company.
- (ss) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, trustees, sub-contractors or otherwise.
- (tt) To do all such other things as may be deemed, or as the directors consider, incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that in this clause:

- (i) unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular include the plural and vice versa;
 - (ii) unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to a person includes a reference to a company, and a reference to a person or company includes a reference to a firm, partnership, corporation, government or other authority (municipal, local or otherwise), undertaking, organisation, association, statutory, public or other body and any other legal entity, whether resident, domiciled or situated (in any such case) in the United Kingdom or elsewhere;
 - (iii) references to "other" and "otherwise" shall not be construed where a wider construction is possible;
 - (iv) the words "subsidiary" (except in paragraph (v) below) and "holding company" have the same meaning as in section 736 of the Companies Act 1985 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of it;
 - (v) the objects specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs of this clause shall be separate and distinct objects of the company and accordingly shall not be in any way limited or restricted (except so far as otherwise expressly stated in any paragraph) by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the order in which the paragraphs occur or the name of the company, and none of the paragraphs shall be deemed merely subsidiary or incidental to any other paragraph.
- 5 The liability of the members is limited.
- 6 The company's share capital is £50,000 divided into 50,000 shares of £1 each³.

³ The capital history of the company is set out on page xi.

WE, the subscribers to this Memorandum of Association, wish to be formed into a company pursuant to this Memorandum; and we agree to take the number of shares shown opposite our respective names.

NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF SUBSCRIBERS	Number of Shares taken by each Subscriber
------------------------------------	---

Signed: J Samuels

ONE

JACQUELINE SAMUELS

For and on behalf of
Legibus Secretaries Limited
Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London
EC2V 7LD

Signed: C Lee

ONE

CHRISTINE ANNE LEE

For and on behalf of
Legibus Secretaries Limited
Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London
EC2V 7LD

Total shares taken

TWO

DATED the 16th day of March, 1989.

WITNESS to all the above signatures:

Signed: D Ward

DENISE WARD

Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London EC2V 71D

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

AUTHORISED SHARE CAPITAL SINCE INCORPORATION

Effective date	£	Event
On Incorporation (1st April 1989)	50,000	Divided into 50,000 shares of £1 each
29th August 1989	50,001	Increased to £50,001 by the creation of 1 special rights redeemable preference share of £1 and the 50,000 existing shares were redesignated as ordinary shares.
20th November 1989	2,216,001	Increased by creation of 2,166,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
12th December 1989	475,000,001	Increased by creation of 472,784,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
31st December 1994	475,000,001	Redemption of the special rights redeemable preference share
8th November 1995	660,000,001	Increased by creation of 185,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
26th July 1996	660,000,000	Reduced by cancellation of the authorised and unissued special rights redeemable preference share
26th July 1996	720,000,000	Increased by creation of 60,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
21st July 2000	800,000,000	Increased by creation of 80,000,000 ordinary share of £1 each
26th August 2003	1,119,000,000	Increased by the creation of 638,000,000 A shares of 50 pence each.
6th July 2005	1,119,000,000	The 638,000,000 A shares of 50 pence each were consolidated into, and reclassified as, 319,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
27 July 2007	1,300,000,000	Increased by the creation of 181,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each

THE COMPANIES ACTS

PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

(Adopted by special resolution passed on 25th July 2008)

PRELIMINARY

1 No other regulations to apply

No regulations set out in any statute or in any statutory instrument or other subordinate legislation concerning companies shall apply to the company, but the following shall be the articles of association of the company.

2 Interpretation

2.1 In these articles, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the following meanings:

these articles means these articles of association as originally adopted or altered or varied from time to time (and "article" means one of these articles)

auditors means the auditors for the time being of the company or, in the case of joint auditors, any one of them

board means the board of directors for the time being of the company or the directors present or deemed to be present at a duly convened meeting of directors at which a quorum is present

CA 1985 means the Companies Act 1985

CA 2006 means the Companies Act 2006

certificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in certificated form

chairman means the chairman (if any) of the board or, where the context requires, the chairman of a general meeting of the company

clear days means (in relation to the period of a notice) that period, excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given, and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect

depository means a custodian or other person (or a nominee for such custodian or other person) appointed under contractual arrangements with the company or other arrangements approved by the board whereby such custodian or other person or nominee holds or is interested in shares of the company or rights or interests in shares of the company and issues securities or other documents of title or otherwise evidencing the entitlement of the holder thereof to or to receive such shares, rights or interests, provided and to the extent that such arrangements have been approved by the board for the purpose of these articles, and shall include, where approved by the board, the trustees (acting in their capacity as such) of any employees' share scheme established by the company or any other scheme or arrangement principally for the benefit of employees or those in the service of the company and/or its subsidiaries or their respective businesses and the managers (acting in their capacity as such) of any investment or savings plan, which in each case the board has approved

dematerialised instruction shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

director means a director for the time being of the company

electronic form and electronic means shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

execution includes any mode of execution (and "executed" shall be construed accordingly)

hard copy and hard copy form shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

holder means (in relation to any share) the member whose name is entered in the register as the holder or, where the context permits, the members whose names are entered in the register as the joint holders, of that share

London Stock Exchange means London Stock Exchange plc

member means a member of the company or, where the context requires, a member of the board or of any committee

office means the registered office for the time being of the company

ordinary share means an ordinary share in the capital of the company

Other Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is of a procedural nature, including without limitation any resolution to correct a patent error in a Substantive Resolution, any resolution for adjournment of a meeting or any resolution for the election of a chairman of the meeting

paid up means paid up or credited as paid up

qualifying person shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in section 318(3) CA 2006

recognised person means a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange which is designated as mentioned in section 185(4) CA 1985 or section 778 CA 2006

register means the register of members of the company to be kept (in the case of shares held in certificated form) by the company pursuant to section 352 CA 1985 or section 113 CA 2006 or (in the case of shares held in uncertificated form) by the operator of a relevant system pursuant to paragraph 20 of the Regulations

Regulations means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001 No. 3755

relevant system shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

seal means any common seal of the company

secretary means the secretary for the time being of the company or any other person appointed to perform any of the duties of the secretary of the company including (subject to the provisions of the statutes) a joint, temporary, assistant or deputy secretary

securities seal means an official seal kept by the company pursuant to section 40 CA 1985 or section 50 CA 2006

share means a share of the company

statutes means CA 1985, CA 2006 and every other statute (and any regulations subordinate thereto) for the time being in force concerning companies and affecting the company

Substantive Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is not an Other Resolution

the company means United Utilities PLC, company number 2366616

uncertificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in uncertificated form

United Kingdom means Great Britain and Northern Ireland

writing or written means and includes printing, typewriting, lithography, photography and any other mode or modes of representing or reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form including (to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes) electronic form.

2.2 Unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and vice versa;
- (b) words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender; and
- (c) a reference to a person includes a body corporate and an unincorporated body of persons.

2.3 A reference to any statute or provision of a statute shall include any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force. A reference to any provision of CA 1985 and CA 2006 shall be interpreted by applying the relevant provision of such Acts as shall be in force for the time being.

2.4 Save as aforesaid, and unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in CA 1985 or CA 2006, as the case may be, and words and expressions used in the Regulations have the same meanings when used in these articles.

- 2.5 The headings are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of these articles.

3 Form of resolution

Subject to the statutes, where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

4 Registered office

The office shall be at such place in England and Wales as the board shall from time to time appoint.

SHARE CAPITAL

5 Authorised share capital

The authorised share capital of the company at the date of the adoption of these articles is £1,300,000,000 divided into 1,300,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each.

6 Allotment

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any relevant authority of the company in general meeting required by the statutes, unissued shares at the date of adoption of these articles and any shares hereafter created and any shares held by the company in treasury shall be at the disposal of the board, which may allot (with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant options over, offer, sell or otherwise deal with or dispose of them or rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares to such persons (including the directors themselves), at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as the board may decide, provided that no share shall be issued at a discount.

7 Redeemable shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any share may be issued which is, or at the option of the company or of the holder of such share is liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as these articles may provide.

8 Power to attach rights

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any shares may be allotted or issued with or have attached to them such preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, transfer, return of capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the board may determine.

9 Share warrants to bearer

- 9.1 The company may, with respect to any fully paid shares, issue a warrant (a share warrant) stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified in it and may provide (by coupons or otherwise) for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in a share warrant.

9.2 The powers referred to in article 9.1 may be exercised by the board, which may determine and vary the conditions on which share warrants shall be issued, and in particular on which:

- (a) a new share warrant or coupon will be issued in the place of one damaged, defaced, worn out or lost (provided that no new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the board is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed);
- (b) the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend, vote and demand a poll at general meetings;
- (c) dividends will be paid; and
- (d) a share warrant may be surrendered and the name of the holder entered in the register in respect of the shares specified in it.

Subject to such conditions and to these articles, the bearer of a share warrant shall be deemed to be a member for all purposes. The bearer of a share warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force and applicable thereto, whether made before or after the issue of such share warrant.

10 Commission and brokerage

The company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the statutes. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash, the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, the grant of an option to call for an allotment of shares or any combination of such methods.

11 Trusts not to be recognised

Except as otherwise expressly provided by these articles, as required by law or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the company shall not recognise any person as holding any share on any trust, and (except as aforesaid) the company shall not be bound by or recognise (even if having notice of it) any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in any share except an absolute right of the holder to the whole of the share.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

12 Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division

The company in general meeting may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

- (a) increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;
- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
- (c) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled; and

- (d) subject to the provisions of the statutes, sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of a smaller amount, and may by such resolution determine that, as between the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of the shares may, as compared with the others, have any such preferred, deferred or other special rights or be subject to any such restrictions as the company has power to attach to unissued or new shares.

13 Fractions of shares

13.1 Whenever as the result of any consolidation, division or sub-division of shares any difficulty arises, the board may settle it as it thinks fit, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) where the number of shares held by any holder is not an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share and as a result of such consolidation such holder would become entitled to a fraction of a consolidated share:

- (a) the board may determine which of the shares of such holder are to be treated as giving rise to such fractional entitlement and may decide that any of those shares shall be consolidated with any of the shares of any other holder or holders which are similarly determined by it to be treated as giving rise to a fractional entitlement for such other holder or holders, into a single consolidated share and the board may, on behalf of all such holders, sell such consolidated share for the best price reasonably obtained to any person (including the company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale after deduction of the expenses of sale in due proportion among those holders (except that any amount otherwise due to a holder, being less than £[2.50] or such other sum as the board may from time to time determine, may be retained for the benefit of the company); or
- (b) provided that the necessary unissued shares are available, the board may issue to such holder credited as fully paid by way of capitalisation the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding to an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share (such issue being deemed to have been effected prior to consolidation); and the amount required to pay up such shares shall be appropriated at the board's discretion from any of the sums standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or to the credit of profit and loss account and capitalised by applying the same in paying up the share. In relation to such a capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on it by article 153 without an ordinary resolution of the company.

13.2 For the purposes of any sale of consolidated shares pursuant to article 13.1, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of (or, as the case may be, to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of) the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser, and the transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14 Reduction of capital

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, these articles and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

15 Purchase of own shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, these articles and any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may purchase any of its own shares of any class (including any redeemable shares). Any shares to be so purchased may be selected in any manner whatsoever.

VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

16 Sanction to variation

If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into shares of different classes, any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares in the company (and notwithstanding that the company may be or be about to be in liquidation) may be varied or abrogated in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights or, in the absence of any such provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class duly convened and held as hereinafter provided (but not otherwise).

17 Class meetings

All the provisions in these articles as to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply to every meeting of the holders of any class of shares. The board may convene a meeting of the holders of any class of shares whenever it thinks fit and whether or not the business to be transacted involves a variation or abrogation of class rights. The quorum at every such meeting shall be not less than two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third of the nominal amount paid up on the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares). Every holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy, may demand a poll. Each such holder shall on a poll be entitled to one vote for every share of the class held by him. If at any adjourned meeting of such holders such quorum as aforesaid is not present, not less than one person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

18 Deemed variation

Subject to the terms of issue of or rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued or by the reduction of the capital paid up on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the company of its own shares in accordance with the provisions of the statutes and these articles.

EVIDENCE OF TITLE

19 Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities

19.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, title to any securities of the company may be evidenced and may be transferred without a written instrument in accordance with regulations from time to time made under the statutes and subject to such regulations the board shall have power to implement any arrangements it may think fit for such evidencing and transfer which accord with those regulations.

19.2 Where any provision of these articles confers authority on the company or the board or any of the directors to enter into (or to authorise some other person to enter into) any transaction in respect of shares held in uncertificated form (including, without limitation, article 23, article 38, article 49 and article 81) the board may authorise some person to give notice on behalf of the company to the operator of a relevant system, requiring that such shares be converted into certificated form and stating that such conversion is required in order to enable the company to give effect to the provisions of these articles.

20 Right to share certificates

- 20.1 On becoming the holder of any certificated share, every person (except a recognised person in respect of whom the company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall be entitled, without charge, to have issued within two months after allotment or lodgement of a transfer (unless the terms of issue of the shares provide otherwise) one certificate for all the certificated shares of each class registered in his name. Such certificate shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon and shall be issued as provided in article 138.
- 20.2 The issued shares of a particular class which are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes shall not bear a distinguishing number. All other shares shall bear a distinguishing number.
- 20.3 The company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of shares held jointly by two or more persons. Delivery of a certificate to the person first named on the register as the holder of such shares shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.
- 20.4 Where a member (other than a recognised person) has transferred part only of the shares comprised in a certificate, he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance of such shares without charge.
- 20.5 No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class or in respect of shares held by a recognised person, or in respect of any uncertificated shares.

21 Replacement certificates

- 21.1 Any two or more certificates representing certificated shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued in lieu without charge on surrender of the original certificates for cancellation.
- 21.2 If any member shall surrender for cancellation a share certificate representing certificated shares held by him and request the company to issue in lieu two or more share certificates representing such shares in such proportions as he may specify, the board may, if it thinks fit, comply with such request.
- 21.3 Share certificates may be renewed or replaced on such terms as to provision of evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional out of pocket expenses, including those incurred by the company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity and security, as the board may decide, and on surrender of the original certificate (where it is defaced, damaged or worn out), but without any further charge.
- 21.4 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, any such request as is mentioned in this article 21 may be made by any one of the joint holders.

LIEN ON SHARES

22 Lien on shares not fully paid

The company shall have a first and paramount lien on each of its shares which is not fully paid, for all amounts payable to the company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share and to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the statutes. The board may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this article.

23 Enforcement of lien by sale

The board may sell all or any of the shares subject to any lien at such time or times and in such manner as it may determine. However, no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys in respect of which such lien exists or some part thereof are or is presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of which such lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, and until a demand and notice in writing stating the amount due or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding payment or fulfilment or discharge thereof and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on the holder or the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment, fulfilment or discharge shall have been made by him or them for fourteen clear days after service of such notice. For giving effect to any such sale, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of, or to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of, the shares sold in the name and on behalf of the holder or the persons entitled by transmission in favour of the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and the title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

24 Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to any lien, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of so much of the amount due to the company or of the liability or engagement (as the case may be) as is presently payable or is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged. The balance (if any) shall (in the case of a sale of certificated shares, on surrender to the company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold), subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable or any liability or engagement not liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged as existed on the shares before the sale, be paid to the holder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so sold, without interest.

CALLS ON SHARES

25 Calls

Subject to the terms of allotment of shares, the board may from time to time make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on the shares, of any class, held by them respectively (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made and whether or not by instalments) be liable to pay the amount of every call so made on him as required by the notice. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising such call was passed or (as the case may require) any person to whom power has been delegated pursuant to these articles serves notice of exercise of such power. A call may be required to be paid by instalments and may, before receipt by the company of any sum due thereunder, be either revoked or postponed in whole or part as regards all or any such members as the board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

26 Liability of joint holders

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect thereof.

27 Interest on calls

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at the rate fixed by the terms of the allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is so fixed, at such rate, not exceeding five per cent per annum above the Bank of England base rate (compounded on a six monthly basis), as the board shall determine. The board may waive payment of such costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

28 Rights of member when call unpaid

Unless the board otherwise determines, no member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present and vote at a general meeting or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares either in person or (save as proxy for another member) by proxy, or be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) to the company.

29 Sums due on allotment treated as calls

Any sum payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall for all purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call duly made. If it is not paid, the provisions of these articles shall apply as if such amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

30 Power to differentiate

The board may make arrangements on the allotment or issue of shares for a difference as between the allottees or holders of such shares in the amount and time of payment of calls.

31 Payment in advance of calls

The board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on the shares held by him. Such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability on the shares on which it is made. The company may pay interest on the money paid in advance, or so much of it as exceeds the amount for the time being called up on the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, at such rate as the board may decide. The board may at any time repay the amount so advanced on giving to such member not less than three months' notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

32 Delegation of power to make calls

If any uncalled capital of the company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the board may delegate on such terms as it thinks fit to the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, to sue in the name of the company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for such moneys. The power so delegated shall subsist during the continuance of the mortgage or security, notwithstanding any change of directors, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

33 Notice if call not paid

If any member fails to pay the whole of any call or any instalment of any call on or before the day appointed for payment, the board may at any time serve a notice in writing on such member or on any person entitled to the shares by transmission, requiring payment, on a date not less than fourteen clear days from the date of the notice, of the amount unpaid and any interest which may have accrued thereon and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where the payment is to be made and state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

34 Forfeiture for non-compliance

If the notice referred to in article 33 is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

35 Notice after forfeiture

When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served on the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share or the person entitled to such share by transmission (as the case may be). An entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register in respect of such share. However, no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

36 Forfeiture may be annulled

The board may, at any time before any share so forfeited has been cancelled or sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture, on terms that payment shall be made of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and on such further terms (if any) as the board shall see fit.

37 Surrender

The board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited. In such case references in these articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

38 Disposal of forfeited shares

Every share which shall be forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the company. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person, on such terms and in such manner as the board shall determine. The board may, for the purposes of the disposal, authorise some person to transfer the share in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred share in the register notwithstanding (in the case of a certificated share) the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof. An instrument of transfer executed by that person, or a dematerialised instruction given at the request of that person, shall be as effective as if it had been executed or given by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share. The company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal.

39 Effect of forfeiture

A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares forfeited and shall surrender to the company for cancellation the certificate (if any) for such shares. He shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the company all calls made and not paid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, and interest thereon from the date of the forfeiture to the date of payment, in the same manner in all respects as if the shares had not been forfeited, and to satisfy all (if any) claims, demands and liabilities which the company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the time of forfeiture, without any reduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.

40 Extinction of claims

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the holder whose share is forfeited and the company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these articles expressly saved, or as are by the statutes given or imposed in the case of past members.

41 Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited in pursuance of these articles, and stating the date on which it was forfeited, shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share adversely to the forfeiture thereof, be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated. The declaration, together with the receipt of the company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer or the giving of a dematerialised instruction) constitute a good title to the share. Subject to the execution of any necessary transfer, such person shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall be discharged from all calls made prior to such sale or disposition and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share. Such person shall not (except by express agreement with the company) become entitled to any dividend which might have accrued on the share before the completion of the sale or disposition thereof.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

42 Transfer of certificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form approved by the board. Such instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a certificated share which is not fully paid up) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the company.

43 Transfer of uncertificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his uncertificated shares in accordance with the rules and regulations in force from time to time which are applicable to a relevant system.

44 Right to refuse registration

44.1 The board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register any transfer of a share (or renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment) unless:

- (a) it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
- (b) it is in respect of only one class of shares;
- (c) it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees;
- (d) it is duly stamped (if so required); and
- (e) (if it is in respect of a certificated share) it is delivered for registration to the office or such other place as the board may from time to time determine, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer by a recognised person where a certificate has not been issued or in the case of a renunciation) by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so;

provided that the board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

44.2 Transfers of shares will not be registered in the circumstances referred to in article 81.

45 Notice of refusal

If the board refuses to register a transfer of a share it shall, within two months after the date on which, in the case of a certificated share, the transfer was lodged with the company, or, in the case of an uncertificated share, the dematerialised instruction was received by the company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee. Any instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall (except in the case of suspected or actual fraud) be returned to the person depositing it.

46 Fees on registration

No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or on the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

47 Transfers by renunciation

Nothing in these articles shall preclude the board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

48 On death

If a member dies, the survivors or survivor, where he was a joint holder, and his executors or administrators, where he was a sole or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his shares. Nothing in these articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which has been solely or jointly held by him.

49 Election of person entitled by transmission

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, may, on such evidence as to his title being produced as the board may require, elect either to become registered as a member or to have some person nominated by him registered as a member. If he elects to become registered himself, he shall give notice to the company to that effect. If he elects to have some other person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of such share to that person or, as the case may be, procure the transfer of such share to that person by means of a dematerialised instruction. All the provisions of these articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice, instrument of transfer or dematerialised instruction (as the case may be) as if it were executed or given by the member and his death, bankruptcy or other event as aforesaid had not occurred. Where the entitlement of a person to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to its transmission by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the board, the board shall within two months after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the register.

50 Rights on transmission

Where a person becomes entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, the rights of the holder in relation to such share shall cease. However, the person so entitled may give a good discharge for any dividends and other moneys payable in respect of it and shall have the same rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before he is registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company. The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within sixty days, the board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

51 Destruction of documents

51.1 The company may destroy:

- (a) any instrument of transfer, after six years from the date on which it is registered;
- (b) any dividend mandate or any variation or cancellation thereof or any notification of change of name or address, after two years from the date on which it is recorded;
- (c) any share certificate, after one year from the date on which it is cancelled;
- (d) any proxy form which has been used for a poll, after one year from the date on which the poll was taken;
- (e) any proxy form which has not been used for a poll, after one month from the general meeting or class meeting to which it relates; and
- (f) any other document on the basis of which any entry in the register is made, after six years from the date on which an entry was first made in the register in respect of it, provided that the company may destroy any such type of document at a date earlier than that authorised by this article if a copy of such document is retained on microfilm or by other similar means on which such copy is retained until the expiration of the period applicable to the destruction of the original of such document.

51.2 It shall be conclusively presumed in favour of the company that every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was duly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was duly cancelled, that every other document so destroyed had been properly dealt with in accordance with its terms and was valid and effective in accordance with the particulars in the records of the company, provided that:

- (a) this article 51 shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant;
- (b) nothing in this article 51 shall be construed as imposing on the company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document otherwise than as provided for in this article 51 which would not attach to the company in the absence of this article 51; and
- (c) references in this article 51 to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal of it in any manner.

GENERAL MEETINGS

52 Annual general meetings

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place as the board may determine.

53 Other general meetings

All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

54 Convening of general meetings

The board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the board to convene a general meeting, any director may call a general meeting.

55 Notice of general meetings

55.1 An annual general meeting shall be convened by not less than twenty one clear days' notice in writing. All other general meetings shall be convened by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing.

55.2 The notice shall specify:

- (a) (if applicable) that the meeting is an annual general meeting;
- (b) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
- (c) in the case of special business, the general nature of that business;
- (d) if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such; and
- (e) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

55.3 The notice shall be given to the members (other than any who, under the provisions of these articles or of any restrictions imposed on any shares, are not entitled to receive notice from the company), to the directors and to the auditors.

55.4 If, after a notice convening a general meeting of the company has been despatched or made available to members, the board becomes aware of any fact, event or circumstances which, in the board's opinion, would make it impractical or inappropriate to hold the general meeting on the date or time or at the place for which notice has been given, the board may give notice pursuant to article 164 to those entitled to receive the notice pursuant to article 55.3 either cancelling such meeting or postponing such meeting to a time and date which is not less than twenty one clear days from the date of such notice, which shall also specify the place at which such postponed meeting shall be held.

56 Omission to send notice

For the purpose of determining whether notice of any meeting was duly given, each of the following shall be disregarded and shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting:

- (a) the accidental failure to give notice of the meeting;
- (b) the accidental failure to send or supply any document or other information relating to any meeting;
- (c) the accidental failure to provide an instrument of proxy to any person, in cases where it is intended that such an instrument be sent out with the notice convening the meeting to which it relates; or

- (d) the non-receipt of any document referred to at (a), (b) or (c) above by any person entitled to receive the same.

57 Special business

All business that is transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special, except the following transactions at an annual general meeting:

- (a) the declaration of dividends;
- (b) the receipt and consideration of the annual accounts and the reports of the directors and the auditors and any other document required to be annexed to the annual accounts;
- (c) the election or re-election of directors;
- (d) the appointment or re-appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors or the determination of the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed;
- (e) the approval of a directors' remuneration report required to be prepared and approved pursuant to sections 234B and 241A CA 1985 or sections 420, 422 and 439 CA 2006.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Two qualifying persons shall be a quorum.

59 If quorum not present

If within thirty minutes (or such longer interval as the chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time (not being less than seven nor more than sixty days later) and place as the chairman (or, in default, the board) may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

60 Chairman

60.1 The chairman of the board shall preside at every general meeting of the company. If there be no such chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling to act as chairman, the directors present shall choose one of their number to act or, if there be only one director present, he shall be chairman if willing to act. If there be no director present and willing to act, then any member present at the meeting in person may be elected to be chairman of the meeting by a resolution passed at the meeting.

60.2 The chairman of the meeting who presides pursuant to the provisions of article 60.1 may, at any time during a general meeting of the company, nominate any director of the company to be the chairman of the meeting for the remainder of or for any part of the meeting.

61 Directors may attend and speak

A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company.

62 Power to adjourn

The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. However, without prejudice to any other power which he may have under these articles or at common law, the chairman may, without the need for the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period if he is of the opinion that it has become necessary to do so in order to secure the comfort, safety and security of those attending and the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of attending, speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

63 Notice of adjourned meeting

Where a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the board shall fix the time and place for the adjourned meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more or indefinitely, seven clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

64 Business of adjourned meeting

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

65 Accommodation of members and security arrangements

65.1 The board may, for the purpose of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements as the board shall consider to be appropriate in the circumstances and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place thereof. In the case of any meeting to which such arrangements apply the board may, for the purposes of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending, when specifying the place of the meeting:

- (a) direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside (the principal place); and
- (b) make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but who cannot be accommodated in the principal place and who are excluded therefrom under the provisions of this article or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the principal place and at any of such other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the principal place and at such other places, by any means.

Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for regulating the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid as between the principal place and any of such other places, provided that they shall operate so that any member who cannot be accommodated in the principal place as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the principal place.

- 65.2 For the purpose of ensuring the safety and security of those attending any meeting the board may require that any person wishing to attend any meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements as the board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse entry to any meeting to any person who refuses to cooperate with or to submit to such searches or to otherwise comply with such security arrangements.

VOTING

66 Method of voting

- 66.1 At any general meeting all Substantive Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a poll, and all Other Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by:

- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) at least five members having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (c) a member or members (or their proxies) representing not less than 10 per cent of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to shares in the company held as treasury shares); or
- (d) a member or members (or their proxies) holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10 per cent of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding shares in the company held as treasury shares).

- 66.2 The chairman of a general meeting may, in his absolute discretion, determine whether a resolution is a Substantive Resolution or an Ordinary Resolution and his decision shall be final.

- 66.3 At general meetings, resolutions shall be put to the vote by the chairman and there shall be no requirement for the resolution to be proposed or seconded by any person.

67 Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands

Unless a poll is duly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

68 Objection to error in voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

69 Amendment to resolutions

- 69.1 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, any error in such ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution.
- 69.2 In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted on and in the case of a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may be considered or voted on unless either at least forty-eight hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such ordinary resolution is to be proposed notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move the same has been lodged at the office or validly received by the company by electronic means, or the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that it may be considered or voted on.

70 Procedure on a poll

- 70.1 Any poll duly demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll duly demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time and place, not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded, as the chairman shall direct. The chairman shall determine the manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets or electronic means) in which a poll shall be taken and may appoint scrutineers who need not be members. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 70.2 The demand for a poll (other than on the election of a chairman or any question of adjournment) shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 70.3 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn, but only with the consent of the chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall validate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 70.4 On a poll, votes may be given in person or by proxy. Subject to the provisions of section 323 CA 2006, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

71 Votes of members

- 71.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, to any special terms as to voting on which any shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these articles, at any general meeting every qualifying person who is present shall on a show of hands have one vote and every member present in person, or by proxy shall on a poll have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

- 71.2 The company shall not be entitled to exercise any voting rights, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares.
- 71.3 If two or more persons are joint holders of a share, then in voting on any question the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.
- 71.4 Where in England or elsewhere a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court claiming jurisdiction in that behalf to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the board may in its absolute discretion, on or subject to production of such evidence of the appointment as the board may require, permit such receiver or other person to vote in person or, on a poll, by proxy on behalf of such member at any general meeting. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be received by the company by electronic means or be deposited at the office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

72 Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.

73 Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc.

No member shall, unless the board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of that share whether alone or jointly with any other person together with interest and expenses (if any) have been paid to the company.

74 Voting by proxy

Any person (whether a member of the company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy. Deposit of an instrument of proxy or, where the appointment of the proxy was communicated by electronic means, receipt of such appointment by the company or its agent, shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed or at any adjournment thereof.

75 Form of proxy

- 75.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall:
- (a) be in writing in any common form or in such other form as the board may approve, under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of some officer or attorney or other person duly authorised in that behalf;

- (b) be deemed (subject to any contrary direction contained in the same) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution or amendment of a resolution put to the meeting (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resolution which properly comes before the meeting where notice of the same was not included in the notice of the meeting nor specific reference thereto made in the instrument appointing the proxy) as the proxy thinks fit, and shall also be deemed to confer on the proxy the right to speak at the meeting;
- (c) unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; and
- (d) where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.

75.2 In addition, the board may determine that, if and to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes, and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may specify, a proxy may be appointed by electronic means.

76 Deposit of proxy

76.1 The instrument appointing a proxy shall:

- (a) in the case of an appointment which is not made by electronic means, be deposited at the office or at such other place or places within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, together with (if required by the board) any authority under which it is made (or a copy thereof certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board);
- (b) in the case of an appointment made by electronic means where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving proxy appointments in electronic form in the notice convening the meeting, or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, or in any invitation to appoint a proxy contained in electronic form issued by the company in relation to the meeting, be received at such address not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote. Any authority pursuant to which an appointment is made by an electronic means (or a copy thereof certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board) must, if required by the board, be received at the office (or such other place in the United Kingdom as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in either case any accompanying document) not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or
- (c) in the case of a poll taken more than forty eight hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

- (d) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman of the meeting or to any director;

and subject to article 76.3 an instrument of proxy not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

In this article and article 79, address, in relation to communications made in electronic form, includes any number or address (including, in the case of any uncertificated proxy instruction permitted pursuant to article 76.2, an identification number of a participant in the relevant system concerned) used for the purposes of such electronic communications.

When calculating the periods mentioned in this article, the directors can decide not to take account of any part of a day that is not a working day.

76.2 Without limiting the foregoing, in relation to any uncertificated shares the directors may from time to time permit appointments of a proxy to be made by electronic means in the form of an uncertificated proxy instruction (that is, a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system concerned and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the company as the directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned)), and may in a similar manner permit supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such uncertificated proxy instruction to be made by like means. The directors may, in addition, prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such properly authenticated dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) is to be treated as received by the company or such participant. The directors may treat any such uncertificated proxy instruction which purports to be, or is expressed to be, sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

76.3 A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may:

- (a) accept a photocopy, or a copy delivered by facsimile transmission, of the instrument appointing the proxy (and of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board); and/or
- (b) accept an instrument appointing a proxy which has not been properly executed as required by article 76.1 or is not supported by the relevant documents as required by article 76.2

as a valid instrument of proxy where such person determines, in good faith, that the documents deposited (including, where relevant, by electronic means) indicate in sufficient detail the member's intention to appoint a proxy.

76.4 No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiry of twelve months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve months from such date.

76.5 To the extent (if any) that the board determines that proxies may be appointed by electronic means, any provisions of articles 75 and 76 may be disappplied or varied, insofar as they relate to any appointment made in this way, in such manner as the board may specify.

77 More than one proxy may be appointed

A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion and if he does he shall specify the number of shares in respect of which each proxy is entitled to exercise the related votes and shall ensure that no proxy is appointed to exercise the votes which any other proxy has been appointed by that member to exercise. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the company is unable to determine which instrument was last validly delivered, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

78 Board may supply proxy cards

The board may at the expense of the company send or make available, by post or otherwise, instruments of proxy (reply-paid or otherwise) to members for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the company, such invitations shall, subject to article 56, be issued to all (and not some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

79 Revocation of proxy

Subject to section 330 CA 2006, a vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or mental disorder of the principal or the revocation of the instrument of proxy, or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument of proxy is given, unless notice in writing of such death, mental disorder, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at the office, or at such other place as has been appointed for the deposit of instruments of proxy, or, where the appointment of a proxy was made by electronic means, at the address at which such appointment was duly received, at least forty eight hours (or such shorter period as the directors may determine) (such period to include or exclude any part of a day which is not a working day, if so determined by the directors) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the instrument of proxy is used.

80 Corporate representative

A corporation (whether or not a company within the meaning of CA 2006) which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. Any person so authorised shall (subject to section 323 CA 2006) be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's holdings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. The corporation shall for the purposes of these articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it; and all references to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly. A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or such other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to them before permitting him to exercise his powers.

81 Failure to disclose interests in shares

81.1 If a member, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares held by that member, has been issued with a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 and has failed in relation to any shares (the default shares, which expression includes any shares issued after the date of such notice in respect of those shares) to give the company the information thereby required within the prescribed period from the service of the notice, the following sanctions shall apply unless the board otherwise determines:

- (a) the member shall not be entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares or on any poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll; and
- (b) where the default shares represent at least 0.25 per cent in nominal value of the issued shares of their class (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares):
 - (i) any dividend or other money payable in respect of the shares shall be withheld by the company, which shall not have any obligation to pay interest on it, and the member shall not be entitled to elect, pursuant to article 151, to receive shares instead of that dividend; and
 - (ii) no transfer, other than an excepted transfer, of any shares held by the member shall be registered unless:
 - (A) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and
 - (B) the member proves to the satisfaction of the board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

81.2 Where the sanctions under article 81.1 apply in relation to any shares, they shall cease to have effect (and any dividends withheld under article 81.1(b) shall become payable):

- (a) if the shares are transferred by means of an excepted transfer but only in respect of the shares transferred; or
- (b) at the end of the period of seven days (or such shorter period as the board may determine) following receipt by the company of the information required by the notice mentioned in that paragraph and the board being fully satisfied that such information is full and complete.

81.3 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the company issues a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of article 81.1.

81.4 Where default shares in which a person appears to be interested are held by a depositary, the provisions of this article 81 shall be treated as applying only to those shares held by the depositary in which such person appears to be interested and not (insofar as such person's apparent interest is concerned) to any other shares held by the depositary.

81.5 Where the member on which a notice under section 793 CA 2006 is served is a depositary acting in its capacity as such, the obligations of the depositary as a member of the company shall be limited to disclosing to the company such information relating to any person appearing to be interested in the shares held by it as has been recorded by it pursuant to the arrangements entered into by the company or approved by the board pursuant to which it was appointed as a depositary.

81.6 For the purposes of this article 81:

- (a) a person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if the company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a notice under section 793 CA 2006, from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is, or may be, so interested;
- (b) interested shall be construed as it is for the purpose of sections 820 and 822 to 825 CA 2006;
- (c) reference to a person having failed to give the company the information required by a notice, or being in default as regards supplying such information, includes reference:
 - (i) to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and
 - (ii) to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular, or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular;
- (d) prescribed period means fourteen days;
- (e) excepted transfer means, in relation to any shares held by a member:
 - (i) a transfer by way of, or pursuant to, acceptance of a takeover offer for the company (within the meaning of section 974 CA 2006); or
 - (ii) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in section 285 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the company's shares are normally traded; or
 - (iii) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the board to be made in consequence of a sale of the whole of the beneficial interest in the shares to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares.

81.7 Nothing contained in this article 81 shall be taken to limit the powers of the company under sections 794 and 795 CA 2006.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

82 Power of sale

82.1 The company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if and provided that:

- (a) during the period of twelve years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (b) below (or, if published on different dates, the earlier or earliest thereof) no cheque, order or warrant in respect of such share sent by the company through the post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member or to the person entitled by transmission to the share, at his address on the register or other last known address given by the member or person to which cheques, orders or warrants in respect of such share are to be sent has been cashed and the company has received no communications in respect of such share from such member or person, provided that during such period of twelve years the company has paid at least three cash dividends (whether interim or final) and no such dividend has been claimed by the person entitled to it;
- (b) on or after expiry of the said period of twelve years the company has given notice of its intention to sell such share by advertisements in two newspapers of which one shall be a national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and the other shall be a newspaper circulating in the area of the address on the register or other last known address of the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share or the address for the service of notices notified under article 160.3;
- (c) the said advertisements, if not published on the same day, shall have been published within thirty days of each other; and
- (d) during the further period of three months following the date of publication of the said advertisements (or, if published on different dates, the later or latest thereof) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale the company has not received any communication in respect of such share from the member or person entitled by transmission.

82.2 To give effect to any sale of shares pursuant to this article the board may authorise some person to transfer the shares in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred shares in the register notwithstanding the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof and may issue a new certificate to the transferee. An instrument of transfer executed by (or a dematerialised instruction given by) that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed or effected by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

82.3 If during the period of twelve years referred to in article 82.1, or during any period ending on the date when all the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied, any additional shares have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of, or previously so issued during, any such period and all the requirements of paragraphs (b) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied in regard to such additional shares, the company shall also be entitled to sell the additional shares.

83 Application of proceeds of sale

The company shall account to the member or other person entitled to such share for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account. The company shall be deemed to be a debtor to, and not a trustee for, such member or other person in respect of such moneys. Moneys carried to such separate account may either be employed in the business of the company or invested in such investments as the board may from time to time think fit. No interest shall be payable to such member or other person in respect of such moneys and the company shall not be required to account for any money earned on them.

APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

84 Number of directors

Unless and until otherwise determined by the company by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than any alternate directors) shall be not more than fifteen nor less than three.

85 Power of company to appoint directors

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles.

86 Power of board to appoint directors

Without prejudice to the power of the company to appoint any person to be a director pursuant to these articles, the board shall have power at any time to appoint any person who is willing to act as a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles. Any director so appointed shall retire at the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment and shall not be taken into account in determining the number of directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

87 Appointment of executive directors

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may from time to time appoint one or more of its body to hold any employment or executive office (including that of executive chairman, chief executive or managing director) for such term (subject to the provisions of CA 2006) and subject to such other conditions as the board thinks fit in accordance with article 110. The board may revoke or terminate any such appointment without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of contract between the director and the company.

88 Eligibility for appointment as a director

No person, other than a director retiring (by rotation or otherwise), shall be appointed or re-appointed a director at any general meeting unless:

- (a) he is recommended by the board; or
- (b) not less than seven nor more than forty-two clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice duly executed or authenticated by a member (other than the person to be proposed) qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the company of the intention to propose that person for appointment or re-appointment, stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the company's register of directors, together with notice executed or authenticated by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed, is lodged at the office.

89 Share qualification

A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the company.

90 Resolution for appointment

A resolution for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall be void unless an ordinary resolution that it shall be so proposed has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

91 Retirement at intervals of one year and three years

91.1 A director (not being a director holding any employment or executive office pursuant to article 87) shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at each annual general meeting if, at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, he has served as a director for a continuous period of nine years or more, and for the purpose of this article 91.1 the retirement and re-appointment of a director at the same general meeting, whether pursuant to these articles or otherwise, shall not constitute an interruption to that director's period of continuous service.

91.2 A director shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at the third annual general meeting following his appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting.

92 Directors to retire by rotation

92.1 Any director who is or will be required to retire at an annual general meeting pursuant to article 86 or article 91.1 shall not be taken into account in determining the number or the identity of the directors to retire by rotation at that meeting pursuant to this article 92.

92.2 The directors to retire by rotation at an annual general meeting pursuant to this article 92 shall be determined, both as to number and identity, by the composition of the board at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, notwithstanding any change in the number or the identity of the directors after that time and before the conclusion of that annual general meeting.

92.3 At each annual general meeting, one third of the directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for re-appointment. Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the directors to retire by rotation pursuant to this article 92 shall be, first, any director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, any director who is or will be required to retire pursuant to article 91.2, and thirdly that director or those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting. As between two or more directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting, the director or directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

93 Position of retiring director

A director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he is not re-appointed or deemed to have been re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

94 Deemed re-appointment

At any annual general meeting at which a director retires by rotation the company may fill the vacancy and, if it does not do so, the retiring director shall, if willing, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

95 No retirement on account of age

No person shall be or become incapable of being appointed a director by reason of his having attained the age of seventy or any other age, nor shall any special notice be required in connection with the appointment or the approval of the appointment of such person. No director shall vacate his office at any time by reason of the fact that he has attained the age of seventy or any other age.

96 Removal by ordinary resolution

In addition to any power of removal conferred by the statutes, the company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract of service between him and the company, and may (subject to these articles) by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a director in his place. Any person so appointed shall be treated, for the purposes of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire, as if he had become a director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or re-appointed a director.

97 Vacation of office by director

Without prejudice to the provisions for retirement (by rotation or otherwise) contained in these articles, the office of a director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he resigns by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office or tendered at a board meeting;
- (b) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the statutes, is removed from office pursuant to these articles or the statutes or becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
- (c) he becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him, makes any arrangement or compounds with his creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that Act;
- (d) an order is made by any court of competent jurisdiction on the ground (howsoever formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or receiver or other person to exercise powers with respect to his affairs or he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or, in Scotland, under the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 and the board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (e) both he and his alternate director appointed pursuant to the provisions of these articles (if any) are absent, without the permission of the board, from board meetings for six consecutive months and the board resolves that his office be vacated;

- (f) he is removed from office by notice in writing signed by all the other directors (without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract between him and the company) and, for this purpose, a set of like notices each signed by one or more of the directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of directors; or
- (g) in the case of any director who holds any executive office with the company, his appointment as such is terminated or expires and the directors resolve that his office be vacated.

98 Resolution as to vacancy conclusive

A resolution of the board declaring a director to have vacated office under the terms of article 97 shall be conclusive as to the fact and grounds of vacation stated in the resolution.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

99 Appointment

- 99.1 Each director (other than an alternate director) may, by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office, or in any other manner approved by the board, appoint any other director or any person approved for that purpose by the board and willing to act, to be his alternate.
- 99.2 No appointment of an alternate director who is not already a director shall be effective until his consent to act as a director in the form prescribed by the statutes has been received at the office.
- 99.3 An alternate director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum or minimum number of directors allowed by these articles.

100 Participation in board meetings

Every alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the board and all committees of the board of which his appointor is a member and, in the absence from such meetings of his appointor, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor. A director acting as alternate director shall have a separate vote at board meetings for each director for whom he acts as alternate director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

101 Alternate director responsible for own acts

Every person acting as an alternate director shall be an officer of the company, shall alone be responsible to the company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing him.

102 Interests of alternate director

An alternate director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements with the company and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a director. However, he shall not be entitled to receive from the company any fees for his services as alternate, except only such part (if any) of the fee payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the company direct.

Subject to this article, the company shall pay to an alternate director such expenses as might properly have been paid to him if he had been a director.

103 Revocation of appointment

An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director:

- (a) if his appointor revokes his appointment; or
- (b) if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director, provided that if any director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to be re-appointed at the same meeting, any valid appointment of an alternate director which was in force immediately before his retirement shall remain in force; or
- (c) if any event happens in relation to him which, if he were a director otherwise appointed, would cause him to vacate office.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS

104 Directors' fees

The directors (other than alternate directors) shall be entitled to receive by way of fees for their services as directors such sum as the board may, from time to time, determine (not exceeding, in aggregate, £1,000,000 per annum or such other sum as the company in general meeting by ordinary resolution shall, from time to time, determine). Such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolution of the company by which it is voted) shall be divided among the directors in such proportions and in such manner as the board may determine or, in default of such determination, equally (except that in such event any director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he holds office). Any fees payable pursuant to this article shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration, expenses or other amounts payable to a director pursuant to any other provisions of these articles and shall accrue from day to day.

105 Expenses

Each director shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties as director, including any expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board or any committee of the board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company. If in the opinion of the directors it is desirable that any of their number should go or reside abroad or make any special journeys or perform any special services on behalf of the company or its business, such director or directors may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise and expenses therefore as the directors may from time to time determine.

106 Remuneration of executive directors

The salary or remuneration of any director appointed to hold any employment or executive office in accordance with the provisions of these articles may be either a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by business done or profits made or otherwise determined by the board, and may be in addition to or in lieu of any fee payable to him for his services as director pursuant to these articles.

107 Pensions and other benefits

The board may exercise all the powers of the company to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability benefits or other allowances or gratuities (whether by insurance or otherwise) for, or to institute and maintain any institution, association, society, club, trust, other establishment or profit-sharing, share incentive, share purchase or employees' share scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or to benefit, any person who is or has at any time been a director or employee of the company or any company which is a holding company or a subsidiary undertaking of or allied to or associated with the company or any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking or any predecessor in business of the company or of any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking, and for any member of his family (including a spouse or former spouse) and any person who is or was dependent on him. For such purpose the board may establish, maintain, subscribe and contribute to any scheme, institution, association, club, trust or fund and pay premiums and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, lend money or make payments to, guarantee or give an indemnity in respect of, or give any financial or other assistance in connection with any of the aforesaid matters. The board may procure any of such matters to be done by the company either alone or in conjunction with any other person. Any director or former director shall be entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided under this article and shall not be obliged to account for it to the company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

108 Powers of the board

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the memorandum of association of the company and these articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the company, the business of the company shall be managed by the board, which may exercise all the powers of the company, whether relating to the management of the business or not. No alteration of the memorandum of association or of these articles and no such direction given by the company shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. Provisions contained elsewhere in these articles as to any specific power of the board shall not be deemed to limit the general powers given by this article.

109 Powers of directors being less than minimum number

If the number of directors is less than the minimum for the time being prescribed by these articles, the remaining director or directors shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional director or directors to make up such minimum or of convening a general meeting of the company for the purpose of making such appointment. If there are no director or directors able or willing to act, any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors. Subject to the provisions of these articles, any additional director so appointed shall hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting.

110 Powers of executive directors

The board may from time to time:

- (a) delegate or entrust to and confer on any director holding executive office (including a chief executive or managing director) such of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit; and

- (b) revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

111 Delegation to committees

111.1 The board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to any committee consisting of one or more directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons, provided that:

- (a) a majority of the members of a committee shall be directors; and
- (b) no resolution of a committee shall be effective unless a majority of those present when it is passed are directors or alternate directors.

111.2 The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers and discharge any such committee in whole or in part. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is so delegated, any reference in these articles to the exercise by the board of such power, authority or discretion shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise of such power, authority or discretion by such committee.

112 Local management

The board may establish any local or divisional boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the company in any specified locality, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be members of such local or divisional board, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration. The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent so appointed any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local or divisional board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies; and any such appointment or delegation may be made for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the board may think fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. Subject to any terms and conditions expressly imposed by the board, the proceedings of any local or divisional board or agency with two or more members shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board, so far as they are capable of applying.

113 Power of attorney

The board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person or persons to be the agent of the company and may delegate to any such person or persons any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate), in each case for such purposes and for such time, on such terms (including as to remuneration) and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers.

114 Use of the title "director"

The board may appoint any person (not being a director) to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the company such designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that such person is, or is deemed to be, or is empowered in any respect to act as, a director for any of the purposes of the statutes or these articles.

115 Exercise of voting power

The board may exercise or cause to be exercised the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the company, or any power of appointment to be exercised by the company, in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including the exercise of the voting power or power of appointment in favour of the appointment of any director as a director or other officer or employee of such company or in favour of the payment of remuneration to the directors, officers or employees of such company).

116 Provision for employees

The board may exercise any power conferred on the company by the statutes to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (or any member of his family or any person who is dependent on him) in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary undertaking.

117 Overseas registers

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may exercise the powers conferred on the company with regard to the keeping of an overseas branch, local or other register and may make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

118 Borrowing powers

118.1 The board may exercise all the powers of the company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, to create and issue debenture and other [loan stock and] debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.

118.2 The board shall restrict the borrowings of the company and exercise all voting and other rights and powers of control exercisable by the company in respect of its subsidiary undertakings so as to procure (as regards its subsidiary undertakings in so far as it can procure by such exercise) that the aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding in respect of moneys borrowed by the group (exclusive of moneys borrowed by one group company from another and after deducting cash deposited) shall not at any time, without the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of the company exceed an amount equal to two and a half (2½) times the adjusted capital and reserves.

118.3 For the purposes only of this article 118:

- (a) adjusted capital and reserves means a sum equal to the aggregate from time to time of:
 - (i) the amount paid up (or credited as paid up) on the allotted or issued share capital of the company (including any shares held as treasury shares); and
 - (ii) the amount standing to the credit of the reserves, whether or not distributable (including, without limitation, any revaluation reserve, merger reserve, share premium account or capital redemption reserve), after adding thereto or deducting therefrom any balance standing to the credit or debit of the profit and loss account;

all as shown in the relevant balance sheet, but after:

(iii) making such adjustments as may be appropriate to reflect:

(A) any variation in the amount of the paid up share capital and the amount standing to the credit of any of such reserves since the date of the relevant balance sheet and so that for the purpose of making such adjustments, if any proposed allotment of shares by the company for cash has been underwritten, then such shares shall be deemed to have been allotted and the amount (including the premium) of the subscription monies payable in respect thereof (not being monies payable later than six months after the date of allotment) shall be deemed to have been paid up to the extent so underwritten on the date when the issue of such shares was underwritten (or, if such underwriting was conditional, the date on which it became unconditional);

(B) any variation since the date of the relevant balance sheet of the companies comprising the group;

(iv) excluding (so far as not already excluded):

(A) amounts attributable to the proportion of the issued equity share capital of any subsidiary undertaking which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;

(B) any sum set aside for taxation (other than deferred taxation);

(C) the effect on the reserves of the company of any surplus or any deficit in the funding of any retirement benefit scheme which would otherwise be reflected in accordance with any applicable accounting standards;

(v) deducting:

(A) sums equivalent to the book values of goodwill and other intangible assets shown in the relevant balance sheet; and

(B) the amount of any distribution declared, recommended or made by any group company to a person other than a group company out of profits accrued up to and including the date of (and not provided for in) the relevant balance sheet;

(vi) making such other adjustments as the company's auditors, after consulting with the company, consider appropriate;

(b) cash deposited means an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts beneficially owned by group companies which are deposited for the time being with any bank or other person (not being a group company) and which are repayable to any group company on demand or within three months of such demand, subject, in the case of amounts deposited by a partly-owned subsidiary undertaking, to the exclusion of a proportion thereof equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;

- (c) group means the company and its subsidiary undertakings from time to time;
- (d) group company means any company in the group;
- (e) moneys borrowed include not only moneys borrowed but also the following except in so far as otherwise taken into account:
 - (i) the nominal amount of any issued share capital, and the principal amount of any debenture or borrowings of, any person, the beneficial interest in which or right to repayment to which is not for the time being owned by a group company but the payment or repayment of which is the subject of a guarantee or indemnity by a group company or is secured on the assets of a group company;
 - (ii) the principal amount raised by any group company by acceptances or under any acceptance credit opened on its behalf by any bank or acceptance house (not being a group company) other than acceptances and acceptance credits relating to the purchase of goods or services in the ordinary course of trading and outstanding for six months or less;
 - (iii) the principal amount of any debenture (whether secured or unsecured) of any group company owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (iv) the principal amount of any preference share capital of any subsidiary undertaking owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (v) any fixed or minimum premium payable on final repayment of any borrowing or deemed borrowing (but any premium payable on final repayment of an amount not to be taken into account as moneys borrowed shall not be taken into account); and

but do not include:

- (vi) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of repaying, within six months of being first borrowed, the whole or any part of any moneys borrowed and then outstanding (including any premium payable on final repayment) of that or any other group company pending their application for such purpose within that period;
- (vii) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of financing any contract in respect of which any part of the price receivable under the contract by that or any other group company is guaranteed or insured, up to an amount equal to that part of the price receivable under the contract which is so guaranteed or insured;
- (viii) an amount equal to the moneys borrowed of any company outstanding immediately after it becomes a group company, provided that it became a group company during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (ix) an amount equal to the amount secured on an asset immediately after it was acquired by a group company, provided that it was acquired during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (x) notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (i) to (v) above, the proportion of moneys borrowed by a group company (and not owing to another group company) which is equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;

and in sub-paragraphs (vi) to (x) above references to amounts of moneys borrowed include references to amounts which, but for the exclusion under those sub-paragraphs, would fall to be included;

- (f) relevant balance sheet means the latest published audited consolidated balance sheet of the group but, where the company has no subsidiary undertakings, it means the balance sheet and profit and loss account of the company and, where the company has subsidiary undertakings but there are no consolidated accounts of the group, it means the respective balance sheets of the companies comprising the group;
- (g) subsidiary undertaking means a subsidiary undertaking (within the meaning of CA 2006) of the company (except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation by virtue of the provisions of section 229 CA 1985 or section 405 CA 2006); and group and group company and references to any company which becomes a group company or to companies comprising the group shall, in such a case, be construed so as to include subsidiary undertakings except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation as aforesaid and equity share capital shall be construed in relation to a subsidiary undertaking without a share capital in the same manner as shares are defined in relation to an undertaking without a share capital under section 259(2)(b) and (c) CA 1985 or section 1161(2) CA 2006.

118.4 When the aggregate amount of moneys borrowed required to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 118 on any particular day is being ascertained, any of such moneys denominated or repayable in a currency other than sterling shall be converted for the purpose of calculating the sterling equivalent either:

- (a) at the rate of exchange used for the conversion of that currency in the relevant balance sheet; or
- (b) if no rate was so used, at the middle market rate of exchange prevailing at the close of business in London on the date of that balance sheet; or
- (c) where the repayment of such moneys is expressly covered by a forward purchase contract, currency option, back-to-back loan, swap or other arrangements taken out and entered into to reduce the risk associated with fluctuations in exchange rates, at the rate of exchange specified in that document

but if the amount in sterling resulting from conversion at that rate would be greater than that resulting from conversion at the middle market rate prevailing in London at the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day on which the calculation falls to be made, the latter rate shall apply instead.

118.5 A report or certificate of the auditors as to the amount of the adjusted capital and reserves or the amount of moneys borrowed falling to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 118 or to the effect that the limit imposed by this article 118 has not been or will not be exceeded at any particular time or times or as a result of any particular transaction or transactions shall be conclusive evidence of the amount or of that fact.

118.6 No debt incurred or security given in respect of moneys borrowed in excess of the limit imposed by this article 118 shall be invalid or ineffectual, except in the case of express notice to the lender or recipient of the security at the time when the debt was incurred or security given that the limit had been or would thereby be exceeded, but no lender or other person dealing with the company shall be concerned to see or enquire whether such limit is observed.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

119 Board meetings

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the board may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

120 Notice of board meetings

One director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, summon a board meeting at any time on reasonable notice. Notice of a board meeting shall be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to him at his last known address or any other address given by him to the company for that purpose. A director may waive the requirement that notice be given to him of any board meeting, either prospectively or retrospectively. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a board meeting to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom unless he has requested the board in writing that notices of board meetings shall during his absence be given to him at any address in the United Kingdom notified to the company for this purpose, but he shall not, in such event, be entitled to a longer period of notice than if he had been present in the United Kingdom at that address.

121 Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business may be determined by the board and until otherwise determined shall be two directors. A duly convened meeting of the board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board.

122 Chairman of the board

The board may appoint one or more of its body chairman or joint chairman and one or more of its body deputy chairman of its meetings and may determine the period for which he is or they are to hold office and may at any time remove him or them from office. If no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected, or if at any meeting neither a chairman nor a deputy chairman is present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting. Any chairman or deputy chairman may also hold executive office under the company.

123 Voting

Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of that meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

124 Participation by telephone or video conference

124.1 Any director or his alternate may validly participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board through the medium of conference telephone, video conferencing link or any other form of communications equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting, or by a series of telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting.

124.2 A person so participating by being present or being in telephone or video conference or any other form of communication with those in the meeting or with the chairman of the meeting shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no group which is larger than any other group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

124.3 A resolution passed at any meeting held in the above manner, and signed by the chairman of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be) duly convened and held.

125 Resolution of the directors in writing

A resolution in writing signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a board meeting and not being less than a quorum, or by all the members of a committee of the board for the time being entitled to receive notice of such committee meeting and not being less than a quorum of that committee, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be). Such a resolution:

- (a) may consist of several copies of a document (each signed by one or more of the directors or members of the relevant committee, including signatures evidenced by means of facsimile transmission), which copies may be transmitted by electronic means, in which event, subject to any terms and conditions determined from time to time by the board, no signatures shall be required;
- (b) need not be signed by an alternate director if it is signed by the director who appointed him;
- (c) if signed by an alternate director, need not also be signed by his appointor;
- (d) to be effective, need not be signed by a director who is prohibited by these articles from voting thereon, or by his alternate.

126 Proceedings of committees

All committees of the board shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated to them and in the transaction of business, conform with any mode of proceedings and regulations which the board may prescribe and subject thereto shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board as are capable of applying.

127 Minutes of proceedings

127.1 The board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of recording:

- (a) all appointments of officers and committees made by the board; and
- (b) the names of directors present at every meeting of the board, of a committee of the board, of the company or of the holders of any class of shares or debentures of the company, and all orders, resolutions and proceedings of such meetings.

127.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting or the secretary, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes without any further proof.

128 Validity of proceedings

All acts done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee of the board, or by any person acting as a director, alternate director or member of a committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any person or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were or was disqualified from holding office or not entitled to vote, or had in any way vacated their or his office, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was duly qualified and had continued to be a director, alternate director or member of a committee and entitled to vote.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

129 Directors' power to authorise conflict situations

129.1 For the purposes of section 175 of CA 2006, the directors shall have the power to authorise, on such terms (including as regards duration and revocation), and subject to such limits or conditions, if any, as they may determine, any matter proposed to them in accordance with these articles which would or might, if not so authorised, constitute or give rise to a situation (a Relevant Situation) in which a director (an Interested Director) has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the company could take advantage of it). Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation pursuant to this article 129 shall extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Relevant Situation so authorised.

129.2 Where directors give authority under article 129.1:

- (a) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (b) the directors may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

129.3 Any such authorisation will be effective only if:

- (a) at the meeting of the directors at which the Relevant Situation is considered any requirement as to quorum is met without counting the Interested Director; and
- (b) the authorisation was agreed to without any Interested Director voting, or would have been agreed to if the votes of all Interested Directors had not been counted.

129.4 Subject to article 129.3(b), any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a Relevant Situation shall be dealt with in the same way as that in which any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors.

129.5 For the purposes of this article 129, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

129.6 An Interested Director shall be obliged:

- (a) to disclose to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in any Relevant Situation, such disclosure to be made as soon as reasonably practicable; and

- (b) to act in accordance with any terms, limits or conditions determined by the directors under article 129.1.

129.7 Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation given by the directors under article 129.1 may provide that:

- (a) where the Interested Director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the company or to use it in relation to the company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (b) where the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest in a matter which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, he may absent himself from the discussion of such matter at any meeting of the directors and be excused from reviewing papers prepared by or for the directors to the extent that they relate to that matter; and
- (c) the Interested Director be excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at directors' meetings or otherwise) related to the matter which the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, and anything done (or omitted to be done) by the Interested Director in accordance with any such provision (or otherwise in accordance with the terms of any authorisation given under Article 129.1) will not constitute a breach by him of his duties under sections 172 to 174 CA 2006.

130 Director may have interests

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and provided that article 131 is complied with, a director, notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may enter into or otherwise be interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested, either in regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (b) may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (except that of auditor or of auditor of a subsidiary of the company) in conjunction with the office of director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the company, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the board may arrange, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration provided for by any other article;
- (c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested or as regards which the company has any powers of appointment; and
- (d) shall not be liable to account to the company for any profit, remuneration or other benefit which he derives from:
 - (i) any such office, employment, contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal; or
 - (ii) from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been authorised by the directors pursuant to article 129 (subject, in any such case, to any terms, limits or conditions to which such authorisation was subject), and no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal as is referred to in this article 130 shall be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit and the receipt by a director of any such remuneration or other benefit shall not constitute a breach of his duties under section 176 CA 2006.

131 Disclosure of interests to board

131.1 A director who, to his knowledge, is in any way (directly or indirectly) interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the board at which the question of entering into the contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal is first considered, if he knows his interest then exists or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the board after he knows that he is or has become so interested.

131.2 For the purposes of this article and article 129:

- (a) a general notice given to the board by a director that he is to be regarded as having an interest (of the nature and extent specified in the notice) in any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure under this article in relation to such contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal; and
- (b) an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

131.3 A director need not declare an interest pursuant to article 131.1, or in order to take advantage of article 129, if:

- (a) it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- (b) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
- (c) if, or to the extent that, it concerns terms of his service contract that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors or by a committee of the directors appointed for the purpose under the company's constitution.

132 Interested director not to vote or count for quorum

Save as provided in this article, a director shall not vote on, or be counted in the quorum in relation to, any resolution of the board or of a committee of the board concerning any contract, arrangement, transaction or any other proposal whatsoever to which the company is or is to be a party and in which he has an interest which (together with any interest of any person connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) is to his knowledge a material interest otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of or otherwise in or through the company, unless the resolution concerns any of the following matters:

- (a) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;

- (b) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;
- (d) any proposal concerning any other body corporate in which he (together with persons connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) does not to his knowledge have an interest in one per cent or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of such body corporate;
- (e) any proposal relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates; or
- (f) any proposal concerning insurance which the company proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors; and
- (g) any proposal concerning any arrangement to be entered into by the company for the provision of any indemnity in favour of any other current or former director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in respect of liabilities incurred by any such person in the course of his office or employment with the company or any such subsidiary undertaking (notwithstanding the fact that such director may also be provided with an indemnity on equivalent terms).

133 Director's interest in own appointment

A director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the board or committee of the board concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of his appointment or its termination) as the holder of any office or place of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment or its termination) of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested, such proposals may be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each director. In such case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under these articles) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

134 Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of a director's interest (other than the chairman's interest) or as to the entitlement of any director (other than the chairman) to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The chairman's ruling in relation to the director concerned shall be final and conclusive.

135 Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of the chairman's interest or as to the entitlement of the chairman to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be decided by resolution of the directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the chairman), whose majority vote shall be final and conclusive.

136 Connected persons

For the purposes of articles 129 to 135 (which shall apply equally to alternate directors) an interest of a person who is for the purposes of the statutes connected (which word shall have the meaning given to it by section 252 CA 2006) with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director.

SEALS

137 Safe custody

The board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, the securities seal and of any other seal of the company.

138 Application of seals

138.1 The seal shall be used only by the authority of a resolution of the board or of a committee of the board so authorised, which resolution may include a resolution for the giving of a general authority to any director, the secretary, an assistant secretary or other officer of the company to affix the seal from time to time. The board may determine whether any instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed and, if it is to be signed, who shall sign it and by what means. The board may also determine, either generally or in a particular case, that a signature may be dispensed with or affixed by mechanical, electronic or other means.

138.2 Every certificate or share warrant shall be issued either:

- (a) by affixing the securities seal to it, by mechanical, electronic or other means;
- (b) by printing a representation of the securities seal on it, by mechanical, electronic or other means, including laser printing; or
- (c) in such other manner as the board, having regard to the statutes and the regulations of the London Stock Exchange, may authorise.

139 Official seal for use abroad

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may have an official seal for use in any place abroad.

THE SECRETARY

140 The secretary

140.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board shall appoint a secretary or joint secretaries and shall have power to appoint one or more persons to be an assistant or deputy secretary at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and any such person so appointed may be removed by the board.

- 140.2 If the office of secretary is vacant, or if for any reason the secretary is incapable of acting, anything required or authorised by the statutes or these articles to be done by the secretary may be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary, or if there is no assistant or deputy secretary, by any officer of the company authorised either generally or specifically by the board in that regard.
- 140.3 Any provision of the statutes or of these articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

141 Power to authenticate

Any director or the secretary or any person appointed for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the company and any resolutions passed by the company or the directors or any committee of the directors, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts. Where any books, records, documents or accounts are elsewhere than at the office the local manager or other officer of the company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the directors as aforesaid. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the company or of the directors or any committee of the directors which is certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that such minutes or extract is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

142 Declaration of dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends to be paid to members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits of the company. However, no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board and no dividend shall be paid in respect of any shares held by the company as treasury shares.

143 Interim dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may declare and pay such interim dividends (including any dividend payable at a fixed rate) as appear to the board to be justified by the profits of the company available for distribution. If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into different classes, the board may pay such interim dividends to the holders of shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrear. Provided that the board acts in good faith, it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by the lawful payment of any interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights.

144 Entitlement to dividends

Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the shares on which the dividend is paid. Subject as aforesaid, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

145 Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends

The board may deduct from any dividend or other money payable to any person on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.

146 Distribution in specie

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company, direct that payment of any dividend declared may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular, the board may:

- (a) issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions);
- (b) fix the value for distribution of such assets or any part thereof and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (c) vest any such assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

147 Dividends not to bear interest

Unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share, no dividend or other moneys payable by the company or in respect of a share shall bear interest as against the company.

148 Method of payment

148.1 The company may pay any dividend, interest or other sum payable in respect of a share in cash or by direct debit, bank transfer, cheque, dividend warrant, or money order, by any method provided by the rules of a relevant system, or by any other method (including by electronic media) as the board may consider appropriate and may send the same by post or other delivery service (or by such other means offered by the company as the member or persons entitled to it may agree in writing) to the registered address (or in the case of a depositary, subject to the approval of the board, such persons and addresses as the depositary may require) of the member or person entitled to it (or, if two or more persons are holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the member or otherwise by operation of law, to the registered address of such of those persons as is first named in the register) or to such person and such address as such member or person or persons may direct in writing.

148.2 Every cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented by it, shall (where relevant) be crossed in accordance with the Cheques Act 1992 and shall be made payable to the person or persons entitled, or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may direct in writing. Payment of the cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment shall be a good discharge to the company. If any such cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment has or shall be alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the board may, at the request of the person entitled thereto, issue a replacement cheque or warrant or order or make payment in some other form, subject to compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the company in connection with the request as the board may think fit.

148.3 Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share may give an effective receipt for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of such share.

148.4 The board may, at its discretion, make provisions to enable a depositary and/or any member as the board shall from time to time determine to receive duly declared dividends in a currency or currencies other than sterling. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such rate or rates and the payment thereof shall be on such terms and conditions as the board may in its absolute discretion determine.

149 Uncashed dividends

If cheques, warrants or orders for dividends or other sums payable in respect of a share sent by the company to the person entitled thereto are returned to the company or left uncashed on two consecutive occasions or, following one occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address to be used for the purpose, the company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of that share due to that person until he notifies the company of an address to be used for the purpose.

150 Unclaimed dividends

All dividends, interest or other sum payable and unclaimed for twelve months after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the board for the benefit of the company until claimed and the company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for a period of twelve years after having been declared or become due for payment shall (if the board so resolves) be forfeited and shall cease to remain owing by the company.

151 Payment of share dividends

The board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution of the company and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may determine, offer to any holders of ordinary shares (excluding any ordinary share held as a treasury share) the right to elect to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The following provisions shall apply:

- (a) the said resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period or periods;
- (b) the entitlement of each holder of ordinary shares to new ordinary shares shall be such that the relevant value of the entitlement shall be as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder would have received by way of dividend. For this purpose "relevant value" shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the ordinary shares on the London Stock Exchange, as derived from the Daily Official List, for the day on which the ordinary shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in such other manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution. A certificate or report by the auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount;

- (c) no fractions of a share shall be allotted. The board may make such provisions as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlements including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, the benefit thereof accrues to the company and/or under which fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained and in each case accumulated on behalf of any member and such accruals or retentions are applied to the allotment by way of bonus to or cash subscription on behalf of such member of fully paid ordinary shares and/or provisions whereby cash payments may be made to members in respect of their fractional entitlements;
- (d) the board shall, after determining the basis of allotment, notify the holders of ordinary shares in writing of the right of election offered to them, and specify the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections must be lodged in order to be effective;
- (e) the board may exclude from any offer any holders of ordinary shares or any ordinary shares held by a depository or any ordinary shares on which dividends are payable in foreign currency where the board considers that the making of the offer to them or in respect of such shares would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them or in respect of such shares;
- (f) the board may establish or vary from time to time a procedure for election mandates in respect of future rights of election and may determine that every duly effected election in respect of any ordinary shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the holder thereof;
- (g) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on ordinary shares in respect of which an election has been duly made (the elected ordinary shares) and instead additional ordinary shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose the board may capitalise, out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve) or of any of the profits which could otherwise have been applied in paying dividends in cash as the board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on that basis. A board resolution capitalising any part of such reserve or fund or profits shall have the same effect as if such capitalisation had been declared by ordinary resolution of the company in accordance with article 153 and in relation to any such capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on them by article 153 without need of such ordinary resolution;
- (h) the additional ordinary shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with each other and with the fully paid ordinary shares in issue on the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered, except that they will not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement which has been declared, paid or made by reference to such record date; and
- (i) the board may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive ordinary shares in lieu of any cash dividend at any time and generally may implement any share dividend scheme on such terms and conditions as the board may from time to time determine and take such other action as the board may deem necessary or desirable from time to time in respect of any such scheme.

152 Reserves

The board may, before recommending any dividend (whether preferential or otherwise), carry to reserve out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit. All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time, at the discretion of the board, for any purpose to which the profits of the company may properly be applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments as the board thinks fit. The board may divide the reserve into such special funds as it thinks fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as it thinks fit. Any sum which the board may carry to reserve out of the unrealised profits of the company shall not be mixed with any reserve to which profits available for distribution have been carried. The board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute.

153 Capitalisation of reserves

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company:

- (a) subject as provided in this article, resolve to capitalise any undivided profits of the company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the company which is available for distribution or standing to the credit of share premium account or capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve;
- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the holders of shares in proportion to the nominal amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were then distributable and were distributed by way of dividend, and unless the relevant resolution specifies otherwise, if on the relevant record date the company holds as treasury shares any shares of the same class as those whose holders would be entitled to receive such notional distribution, then the company is to be treated as if it were entitled to receive such distribution in respect of those treasury shares as would have been payable if a person other than the company had held those treasury shares;
- (c) apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those holders of shares or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that:
 - (i) the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, any other undistributable reserve and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this article, only be applied in paying up unissued shares to be allotted to holders of shares credited as fully paid; and
 - (ii) in a case where any sum is applied in paying amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares of the company or in paying up in full debentures of the company, the amount of the net assets of the company at that time is not less than the aggregate of the called up share capital of the company and its undistributable reserves as shown in the latest audited accounts of the company or such other accounts as may be relevant and would not be reduced below that aggregate by the payment thereof;

- (d) resolve that any shares so allotted to any member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as such shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that such partly paid shares rank for dividends;
- (e) make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates (or by ignoring fractions or by accruing the benefit thereof to the company rather than to the holders of shares concerned) or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions;
- (f) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the holders of ordinary shares concerned into an agreement with the company providing for either:
 - (i) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares or debentures to which they may be entitled on such capitalisation; or
 - (ii) the payment up by the company on behalf of such holders by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares(any agreement made under such authority being effective and binding on all such holders); and
- (g) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution.

154 Record dates

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles but without prejudice to the rights attached to any shares and subject always to the statutes the company or the board may by resolution specify any date (the record date) as the date at the close of business (or such other time as the board may determine) on which persons registered as the holders of shares or other securities shall be entitled to receipt of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment, issue, notice, information, document or circular and such record date may be on or at any time before the date on which the same is paid, made, given or served or (in the case of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment or issue) at any time after the same is recommended, resolved, declared or announced but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of the same of transferors and transferees of any such shares or other securities. No change in the register of such holders after the record date shall invalidate the same.

ACCOUNTS

155 Accounting records

The board shall cause accounting records to be kept in accordance with the statutes.

156 Inspection of records

No member (other than a director) shall have any right to inspect any accounting record or other document of the company unless he is authorised to do so by statute, by order of the court, by the board or by ordinary resolution of the company.

157 Accounts to be sent to members

Except as provided in article 158, a printed copy of the directors' and auditors' reports accompanied by printed copies of the annual accounts shall, not less than twenty one clear days before the general meeting before which they are to be laid, be delivered or sent by post to every member and holder of debentures of the company and to the auditors and to every other person who is entitled to receive notice of general meetings. However, this article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person who under the provisions of these articles is not entitled to receive notices from the company or of whose address the company is unaware or to any holder of debentures of whose address the company is unaware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures. If and to the extent permitted by the statutes, all or any of such documents may be delivered to a member by electronic means. If all or any of the shares in or debentures of the company are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, there shall at the same time be forwarded to the secretary of that stock exchange such number of copies of each of those documents as the regulations of that stock exchange may require.

158 Summary financial statements

The company may, in accordance with section 426 CA 2006 and any regulations made under it, send (including, to the extent permitted by the statutes, by electronic means) a summary financial statement to any member instead of or in addition to the documents referred to in article 157. Where it does so, the statement shall be delivered or sent by post to the member not less than twenty one clear days before the annual general meeting before which those documents are to be laid.

NOTICES

159 Notices to be in writing

Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to these articles shall be in writing, except that a notice convening a board or board committee meeting need not be in writing.

160 Service of notice on members

160.1 The company may give any notice, document or information to a member:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post or other delivery service in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address or by any other means, authorised in writing by the member concerned;
- (c) by electronic means to an address authorised in writing by the member concerned; or
- (d) by making it available on a website provided that the company has notified such member that the notice, document or information is so available by giving notice in the manner specified in any of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this article 160.1.

In the case of a member registered on an overseas branch register any such, document or information which is posted may be posted either in the United Kingdom or in the territory in which such branch register is maintained.

160.2 In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices or documents shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders. Where there are joint holders of a share, anything which needs to be agreed or specified in relation to any notice, document or other information to be sent or supplied to them can be agreed or specified by any one of the joint holders. The agreement or specification of the joint holder whose name stands earliest in the register will be accepted to the exclusion of the agreement or specification of any other joint holder(s) whose name(s) stand later in the register."

- 160.3 Where a member (or, in the case of joint holders, the person first named in the register) has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has notified the company of an address within the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to him, he shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address or, where applicable, to be notified at that address of the availability of the notice, documents or other information on a website. Alternatively, a member whose registered address is outside the United Kingdom can give the company an address for the purposes of communications in electronic form. If he does, notices, documents or other information may (at the company's absolute discretion), subject to these articles, be sent or supplied to him at that address. Otherwise, no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice or document from the company.
- 160.4 If on three consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any member at his registered address or his address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such member shall not thereafter be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the company until he shall have communicated with the company and supplied in writing a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom for the service of notices.
- 160.5 The provisions of this article 160 and of articles 161 to 165 do not affect any provision of the statutes or these articles requiring notices or documents to be delivered in a particular manner.
- 160.6 Where a member authorises the company to serve notices, documents or information on that member by electronic means, if the company receives an immediate electronic notification that such electronic mail address has ceased to be maintained, the company shall serve such notices, documents or information on the shareholder by such other means as may be permitted in accordance with article 160.1.

161 Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder

The company may give notice to the person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law, by sending or delivering it in any manner authorised by these articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to that person by name, or by the title of representative of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt or representative by operation of law or by any like description, at the address (if any) within the United Kingdom supplied for the purpose by the person claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been so supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy or operation of law had not occurred.

162 Evidence of service

- 162.1 Any member present, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the company or of the holders of any class of shares of the company shall be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting, and, where requisite, of the purposes for which such meeting was called.
- 162.2 Any notice, certificate or other document, addressed to a member at his registered address or address for service in the United Kingdom shall, if sent by post, be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day after the day when it was put in the post (or, where second class mail is employed, on the second day after the day when it was put in the post). Proof that an envelope containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post as a pre-paid letter shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Any notice, certificate or other document not sent by post but delivered or left at a registered address, or address for service in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day on which it was so delivered or left. Any notice, document or information sent by electronic means shall be deemed to be delivered on the day it was sent even if the company subsequently sends a hard copy of such notice, document or other information by post. Any notice, document or information made available on a website shall be treated as being delivered when the material was first made available on the website, or if later, when the recipient received (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.

162.3 In calculating the number of days referred to in article 162.2 for deemed receipt of a notice, certificate or other document, non working days shall be included within the relevant time period.

163 Notice binding on transferees

Every person who, by operation of law, transfers or by any other means becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share (other than a notice given by the company under section 793 CA 2006) which, before his name is entered in the register, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title.

164 Notice by advertisement

Any notice to be given by the company to the members or any of them, and not otherwise provided for by these articles, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement first appears.

165 Suspension of postal services

If at any time by reason of the suspension, interruption or curtailment of postal services or electronic form of communications or threat thereof within the United Kingdom the company is or would be unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post or by electronic means, a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Such notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on all members entitled thereto at noon on the day on which the first of such advertisements appears. In any such case the company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice by post or by electronic means if, at least seven days prior to the meeting, the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom or, as the case may be, the sending of such notices by electronic means again becomes practicable.

166 Service of notices on the company

Subject to the statutes, articles 160.1 and 162.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the service by members of notices and documents on the company, save that any notice, certificate (but not a share certificate) or document sent by electronic means to the company shall be deemed to have been served or delivered at the time it is actually received by the company.

WINDING UP

167 Division of assets

If the company is wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. Any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members, but if any division is resolved otherwise than in accordance with such rights, the members shall have the same right of dissent and consequential rights as if such resolution were a special resolution passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees on such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the like sanction shall determine, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets on which there is a liability.

168 Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 1986

A special resolution sanctioning a transfer or sale to another company duly passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986 may in the like manner authorise the distribution of any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidator among the members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights, and any such determination shall be binding on all the members, subject to the right of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the said section.

INDEMNITY

169 Indemnity and insurance

169.1 As far as the statutes allow this, the company:

- (a) can indemnify any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company against any liability; and
- (b) can purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company.

169.2 A director of the company or of any associated company will not be accountable to the company or the shareholders for any benefit provided pursuant to this article 169. Anyone receiving such a benefit will not be disqualified from being or becoming a director of the company.

RECEIVED

2003 JUL 24 A 9:24

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

4. Proposed amendments of the United Utilities articles of association

Company number 2366616

THE COMPANIES ACTS

PUBLIC COMPANY
LIMITED BY SHARES

MEMORANDUM

AND

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

Contents

Clause		Page
	MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION	i
	AUTHORISED SHARE CAPITAL SINCE INCORPORATION	ix
	ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION	1
	PRELIMINARY
1	No other regulations to apply	1
2	Interpretation	1
3	Form of resolution	4
4	Registered office	4
	SHARE CAPITAL
5	Authorised share capital.....	4
6	Allotment	4
7	Redeemable shares	4
8	Power to attach rights	4
9	Share warrants to bearer	4
10	Commission and brokerage	5
11	Trusts not to be recognised	5
	ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL
12	Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division	5
13	Fractions of shares.....	6
14	Reduction of capital.....	6
15	Purchase of own shares.....	7
	VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS
16	Sanction to variation.....	7
17	Class meetings.....	7
18	Deemed variation	7
	EVIDENCE OF TITLE
19	Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities	7
20	Right to share certificates	8
21	Replacement certificates.....	8
	LIEN ON SHARES
22	Lien on shares not fully paid	9
23	Enforcement of lien by sale.....	9
24	Application of proceeds of sale	9
	CALLS ON SHARES
25	Calls	9
26	Liability of joint holders	10
27	Interest on calls	10
28	Rights of member when call unpaid.....	10
29	Sums due on allotment treated as calls	10
30	Power to differentiate	10
31	Payment in advance of calls	10
32	Delegation of power to make calls	11

FORFEITURE OF SHARES
33	Notice if call not paid11
34	Forfeiture for non-compliance11
35	Notice after forfeiture.....11
36	Forfeiture may be annulled11
37	Surrender11
38	Disposal of forfeited shares12
39	Effect of forfeiture12
40	Extinction of claims12
41	Evidence of forfeiture12
TRANSFER OF SHARES
42	Transfer of certificated shares13
43	Transfer of uncertificated shares13
44	Right to refuse registration.....13
45	Notice of refusal13
46	Fees on registration14
47	Transfers by renunciation.....14
TRANSMISSION OF SHARES
48	On death14
49	Election of person entitled by transmission.....14
50	Rights on transmission.....14
DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
51	Destruction of documents15
GENERAL MEETINGS
52	Annual general meetings15
53	Other general meetings.....16
54	Convening of general meetings16
55	Notice of general meetings16
56	Omission to send notice.....16
57	Special business17
PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS
58	Quorum17
59	If quorum not present.....17
60	Chairman.....17
61	Directors may attend and speak18
62	Power to adjourn18
63	Notice of adjourned meeting18
64	Business of adjourned meeting.....18
65	Accommodation of members and security arrangements18
VOTING
66	Method of voting.....19
67	Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands19
68	Objection to error in voting.....20
69	Amendment to resolutions20
70	Procedure on a poll20
71	Votes of members21
72	Casting vote21
73	Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc.21
74	Voting by proxy21
75	Form of proxy22

76	Deposit of proxy	22
77	More than one proxy may be appointed	24
78	Board may supply proxy cards.....	24
79	Revocation of proxy	24
80	Corporate representative	25
81	Failure to disclose interests in shares.....	25
	UNTRACED MEMBERS
82	Power of sale	27
83	Application of proceeds of sale	28
	APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS
84	Number of directors.....	28
85	Power of company to appoint directors.....	28
86	Power of board to appoint directors	28
87	Appointment of executive directors	28
88	Eligibility for appointment as a director	28
89	Share qualification.....	29
90	Resolution for appointment	29
91	Retirement at intervals of one year and three years	29
92	Directors to retire by rotation.....	29
93	Position of retiring director	30
94	Deemed re-appointment	30
95	No retirement on account of age.....	30
96	Removal by ordinary resolution	30
97	Vacation of office by director.....	30
98	Resolution as to vacancy conclusive	31
	ALTERNATE DIRECTORS
99	Appointment.....	31
100	Participation in board meetings.....	31
101	Alternate director responsible for own acts.....	32
102	Interests of alternate director	32
103	Revocation of appointment	32
	DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS
104	Directors' fees	32
105	Expenses	32
106	Remuneration of executive directors	33
107	Pensions and other benefits	33
	POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD
108	Powers of the board.....	33
109	Powers of directors being less than minimum number	33
110	Powers of executive directors	34
111	Delegation to committees.....	34
112	Local management.....	34
113	Power of attorney	35
114	Use of the title "director".....	35
115	Exercise of voting power.....	35
116	Provision for employees.....	35
117	Overseas registers	35
118	Borrowing powers	35
	PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES
119	Board meetings	39

120	Notice of board meetings	39
121	Quorum	39
122	Chairman of the board	40
123	Voting	40
124	Participation by telephone or video conference	40
125	Resolution of the directors in writing	40
126	Proceedings of committees	41
127	Minutes of proceedings	41
128	Validity of proceedings	41
DIRECTORS' INTERESTS
129	Directors' power to authorise conflict situations	41
130	Director may have interests	42
131	Disclosure of interests to board	43
132	Interested director not to vote or count for quorum	44
133	Director's interest in own appointment	45
134	Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest	45
135	Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest	45
136	Connected persons	45
SEALS
137	Safe custody	45
138	Application of seals	46
139	Official seal for use abroad	46
THE SECRETARY
140	The secretary	46
AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS
141	Power to authenticate	46
DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS
142	Declaration of dividends	47
143	Interim dividends	47
144	Entitlement to dividends	47
145	Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends	47
146	Distribution in specie	47
147	Dividends not to bear interest	48
148	Method of payment	48
149	Uncashed dividends	48
150	Unclaimed dividends	49
151	Payment of share dividends	49
152	Reserves	50
153	Capitalisation of reserves	51
154	Record dates	52
ACCOUNTS
155	Accounting records	52
156	Inspection of records	52
157	Accounts to be sent to members	52
158	Summary financial statements	53
NOTICES
159	Notices to be in writing	53
160	Service of notice on members	53
161	Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder	54
162	Evidence of service	54

163	Notice binding on transferees	55
164	Notice by advertisement.....	55
165	Suspension of postal services	55
166	Service of notices on the company	55
WINDING UP
167	Division of assets	55
168	Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 1986.....	56
INDEMNITY
169	Indemnity and insurance.....	56

THE COMPANIES ACT 1985
PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES
MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION
OF
UNITED UTILITIES PLC

(Including amendments made on or before 21st July 2000)

- 1 The company's name is UNITED UTILITIES PLC¹
- 2 The company is to be a public company.
- 3 The company's registered office is to be situated in England and Wales.
- 4 The company's objects are:²
 - (a)
 - (i) To carry on the business of a holding company and to co-ordinate and regulate the activities and businesses of subsidiary and associated companies for the time being and the financing of the companies.
 - (ii) To acquire and hold either in the name of the company or in that of any nominee shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever issued, created or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in any part of the world or by any government, sovereign ruler, commissioners, public body or authority, supreme, dependent, municipal, local or otherwise in any part of the world.
 - (iii) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments by original subscription, contract, tender, purchase, exchange, participation in syndicates or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to subscribe for the same subject to such terms and conditions (if any) as may be thought fit.
 - (iv) To exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incidental to the ownership of any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments.
 - (v) To provide any form of capital for and take part in the formation, management, supervision or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking and for such purposes to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants or other experts, advisers or agents and to act as agents for and to manage supervise or control and provide services to the business, property or operations of any person, company or undertaking, or any property in which the company may be interested.

¹ The name of the company was changed from North West Water Group PLC to its present name with effect from 1st January 1996.

² Clause 4 was amended by special resolution passed on 25th July 1997.

- (b) To carry on the business of the planning, provision, operation, development, maintenance, improvement and extension of utility services of every description, including those relating to water, wastewater, electricity, gas and telecommunications systems.
- (c) To carry on business as a general commercial company.
- (d) To carry on all or any of the businesses of inspectors, maintainers, repairers, reconditioners, cleaners, clearers, servicers, coaters, designers, developers, manufacturers, constructors, installers, layers, fitters, hirers, letters on hire, suppliers, distributors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, mains, sewers, drains, pipes, pipelines, equipment ancillary to the operation or use of any of them, installations and facilities of all kinds, tools and machinery of every description, plumbing, engineering and other equipment, plant, components, accessories and supplies of every description.
- (e) To carry on all or any of the businesses of consultants, advisers and suppliers of management, personnel and training services, whether generally or in respect of one or more of the types of business or activity which the company has power to carry on, and to provide training and educational courses, instruction and materials, of every description, for employees of the company and for other persons.
- (f) To carry on all or any of the businesses of, and provide services associated with, plumbers, engineers (including, without limitation, water, sewerage, mechanical, gas, electrical, heating, ventilation, civil construction, chemical and telecommunications engineers), mechanics, technicians, geologists, draughtsmen, designers, surveyors, architects, builders, painters and decorators.
- (g) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, developers and promoters of recreational, sporting and leisure services, facilities and activities, whether or not connected with the use of water or land associated with water.
- (h) To carry on all or any of the businesses of bankers, financiers, factors, debt collectors, dealers in securities, underwriters, insurers, brokers of any kinds, storage contractors, freight contractors, carriers by land, water and air of freight and passengers, forwarding agents, shipping agents and agents of any other kind.
- (i) To carry on all or any of the businesses of developers of, and dealers in, property, real or personal, and interests and rights in such property, and of estate agents.
- (j) To carry on all or any of the businesses of running, operating, managing, supplying, servicing, repairing and dealing in:
 - (i) telecommunication systems, systems of other kinds for the conveyance by any means of sounds, visual images and signals; and
 - (ii) data processing and information retrieval systems, computers, computer programs and software, computer bureaux and databases, and services, facilities and equipment ancillary to, or for use in connection with, any of the same.

- (k) To carry on all or any of the businesses of nurserymen, gardeners, landscapers and funeral undertakers.
- (l) To provide and supply laboratory, scientific, biological, biochemical, technological, analytical and environmental services of all kinds.
- (m) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, producers, processors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, fertilisers, compost and foodstuffs.
- (n) To carry on business as inventors, researchers and developers, to conduct, promote and commission research and development in connection with the activities of the company and its subsidiaries, to establish and maintain research stations, laboratories, workshops, testing and proving grounds, facilities and establishments and installations and to exploit and turn to account the results of any research and development carried out by or for it.
- (o) To invent, design, develop, construct, manufacture, produce, erect, assemble, test, alter, install, maintain, repair, renovate, refurbish, recondition, utilise, operate, manage, purchase, sell, hire, hire out, import, export, supply and otherwise deal in all kinds of equipment, apparatus, plant, machinery, appliances, articles, furniture, things, accessories, components, fittings, tools, materials, substances, products, systems, computers, computer programs and software which are required or are likely to be required by the company for the purposes of, or in connection with, any of its businesses, or by other persons, or which in the opinion of the directors may be conveniently or advantageously dealt with by the company in connection or association with any of its objects or the objects of any of its subsidiaries.
- (p) To purchase, charter, lease, take or let on hire, operate, use, employ or turn to account, build, equip, service, repair, maintain, supply and deal in ships and vessels and craft of every description (including, without limitation, submersible craft), hovercraft, motor vehicles, aircraft, airships, railway locomotives, wagons, trucks and any means of transport and parts and accessories of all kinds for any of the same.
- (q) To enter into, carry on and participate in financial transactions and operations of all kinds and to undertake, carry on and execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, trust, agency and other operations, including, without limitation, acting as agents for the collection, receipt or payment of money.
- (r) To establish, acquire, produce, transmit, broadcast, publish, print and reproduce in any form whatsoever (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, visual or audible form and forms capable of being used by, in, or in connection with, computers), and to buy, sell, supply and otherwise deal in brochures, manuals, journals, periodicals, magazines, newspapers, books, pictures, photographs, stationery and other documents, sound and visual recordings, tapes, films, and programmes for radio, television, cinema and other means of communication.
- (s) To carry on any other business or activity which the directors consider is, or may be capable of being carried on directly or indirectly for the benefit of the company.

- (t) To acquire by any means and hold and deal with any real or personal property or rights whatsoever and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and hold any real property and any estate or interest in such property, including, without limitation any lands, buildings, installations, structures, servitudes, easements, rights, privileges and concessions and to exploit and develop the same.
- (u) To explore for, acquire and exploit natural resources, lands, claims, wells, mines, minerals, mineral, drilling and mining rights, exploration and production rights, and interests of all descriptions in or relating to the same.
- (v) To further the conservation, enhancement and appreciation of features of the natural and physical environment.
- (w) To acquire by any means the whole or any part of the assets, and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities, of any person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business which the company is authorised to carry on or which can be carried on in connection with any such business, and to acquire an interest in, amalgamate or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for mutual assistance, with any such person and to give or accept, for any of the acts or things aforesaid or property acquired, such consideration as the company thinks fit, including, without limitation, any shares, whether fully or partly paid up, debentures, or other securities or rights.
- (x) To apply for and take out, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, patent rights, inventions, secret processes, designs, copyrights, trade marks, service marks, commercial names and designations, know-how, formulae, licences, concessions and the like (and any interest in any of them) or any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to, any invention or secret process of any kind and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account or deal with, the property, rights or information so acquired.
- (y) To subscribe for, underwrite, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, and deal with, any shares, stocks, debentures, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever and any options or rights in respect of them; and otherwise to invest and deal with the money and assets of the company.
- (z) To borrow or raise money or secure or discharge any debt or obligation (whether of the company or of any other person) in such manner as the company thinks fit and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) by the creation or issue, upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the company thinks fit, of securities of any kind or mortgages or charges (fixed or floating) founded or based upon all or any part of the undertaking, property, assets and rights (present and future) of the company, including its uncalled capital, or without any such security; and to receive money on deposit and advance payments with or without allowance of interest thereon.
- (aa) To enter into any guarantee, contract of indemnity or suretyship and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) to guarantee, support or secure, with or without consideration, whether by personal obligation or by mortgaging or charging all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company or by both such methods or in any other manner, the performance of any contracts, obligations or commitments of, and the repayment or payment of the principal amounts of and any premiums, interest, dividends and other moneys payable on or in respect of any securities or liabilities of, any person, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any company which is a subsidiary or a holding company of the company or another subsidiary of a holding company of the company or otherwise associated with the company and whether or not any consideration or advantage is received by the company.

- (bb) To advance, lend or deposit money, and to give credit or financial accommodation to any person on such terms as may be thought fit by the company.
- (cc) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, negotiate, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
- (dd) To accept securities of any person or any property or interest therein of whatsoever nature in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale or supply made to, or debt owing from, any such person.
- (ee) To insure any property, asset, matter or interest and against any potential liability or loss of the company or of any other person and the life or health of any person for the benefit of the company.
- (ff) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for partnership or joint working or joint venture in business or for the sharing of profits or for amalgamation with any other person.
- (gg) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, privilege, concession, licence, appointment, consent, or authorisation of any government, state, municipality, minister, department, local authority, or other authority or public body for enabling the company to carry any of its objects into effect or for extending any of the company's powers or for effecting any modification of the company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any actions, steps, proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the interests of the company or of its members.
- (hh) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities (national, municipal, local, international, or otherwise), or any corporations, companies, public bodies, or persons that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government, authority, corporation, company, body or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions.
- (ii) To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities, and bonuses to present and former directors, officers and employees of the company or of any subsidiary of the company or the dependants of such persons, and for that purpose to establish, maintain, administer and contribute to any pension or superannuation funds and to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of welfare, sports and social facilities, any educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or trade societies, whether or not such societies be connected with the trade carried on by the company or by any subsidiary of the company, and any club or other establishment or profit sharing scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or any subsidiary of the company and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects calculated to promote the interests of the company, its employees, former employees and their respective families and dependants.

- (jj) To purchase, establish and maintain and or participate in or contribute to the cost of insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers or employees of the company, or of any other company which is its holding company or the subsidiary or subsidiary undertaking of the company or of any such holding company, or who are or were at any time trustees of any pension fund in which any employees or former employees of the company or of any such other companies as aforesaid are beneficiaries or otherwise interested, including insurance against any liability incurred by such persons in relation howsoever to any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of the duties of any such person and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of the powers of any such person and/or otherwise in relation to the company or any other such companies as aforesaid or such pension fund and to the extent permitted by law to indemnify or to exempt any such person from or against such liability.
- (kk) To establish, maintain, manage, support and contribute to any schemes for the acquisition of shares in the company or its holding company by or for the benefit of any individuals who are or were at any time in the employment of, or directors or officers of:
 - (i) the company;
 - (ii) any company which is or was its holding company or is or was a subsidiary of the company or any such holding company; or
 - (iii) any other company or former company connected or associated in any way with the company or with the whole or any part of its undertaking, and to lend money to any such individuals to enable them to acquire shares in the company or in its holding company and to establish, maintain, manage and support (financially or otherwise) any schemes for sharing profits of the company or any other such company as aforesaid with any such individuals.
- (ll) To subscribe or contribute (in cash or in kind) to, and to promote or sponsor, any charitable, benevolent or useful object of a public character or any object which may in the opinion of the company be likely directly or indirectly to further the interests of the company, its employees or its members.
- (mm) To pay and discharge all or any expenses, costs and disbursements, to pay commissions and to remunerate any person for services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the formation, promotion and flotation of the company and the underwriting or placing or issue at any time of any securities of the company or of any other person.
- (nn) To issue, allot and grant options over securities of the company for cash or otherwise or in payment or part payment for any real or personal property or rights therein purchased or otherwise acquired by the company or any services rendered to, or at the request of, or for the benefit of, the company or as security for, or indemnity for, or towards satisfaction of, any liability or obligation undertaken or agreed to be undertaken by or for the benefit of the company, or in consideration of any obligation (even if valued at less than the nominal value of such securities) or for any other purpose.
- (oo) To procure the company to be registered or recognised in any part of the world.

- (pp) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or undertaking any of the liabilities of the company, or both, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit the company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire all or any part of the shares, debentures or other securities of any such company.
- (qq) To dispose by any means of the whole or any part of the assets of the company or of any interest therein.
- (rr) To distribute in specie or otherwise by way of dividends or bonus or reduction of capital all or any of the property or assets of the company among its members and particularly, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the company or any proceeds of sale or other disposal of any property or assets of the company.
- (ss) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, trustees, sub-contractors or otherwise.
- (tt) To do all such other things as may be deemed, or as the directors consider, incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that in this clause:

- (i) unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- (ii) unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to a person includes a reference to a company, and a reference to a person or company includes a reference to a firm, partnership, corporation, government or other authority (municipal, local or otherwise), undertaking, organisation, association, statutory, public or other body and any other legal entity, whether resident, domiciled or situated (in any such case) in the United Kingdom or elsewhere;
- (iii) references to "other" and "otherwise" shall not be construed where a wider construction is possible;
- (iv) the words "subsidiary" (except in paragraph (v) below) and "holding company" have the same meaning as in section 736 of the Companies Act 1985 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of it;
- (v) the objects specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs of this clause shall be separate and distinct objects of the company and accordingly shall not be in any way limited or restricted (except so far as otherwise expressly stated in any paragraph) by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the order in which the paragraphs occur or the name of the company, and none of the paragraphs shall be deemed merely subsidiary or incidental to any other paragraph.

5 The liability of the members is limited.

6 The company's share capital is £50,000 divided into 50,000 shares of £1 each³.

³ The capital history of the company is set out on page xi.

WE, the subscribers to this Memorandum of Association, wish to be formed into a company pursuant to this Memorandum; and we agree to take the number of shares shown opposite our respective names.

NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF SUBSCRIBERS	Number of Shares taken by each Subscriber
------------------------------------	---

Signed: J Samuels	ONE
-------------------	-----

JACQUELINE SAMUELS

For and on behalf of
Legibus Secretaries Limited
Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London
EC2V 7LD

Signed: C Lee	ONE
---------------	-----

CHRISTINE ANNE LEE

For and on behalf of
Legibus Secretaries Limited
Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London
EC2V 7LD

Total shares taken	TWO
--------------------	-----

DATED the 16th day of March, 1989.

WITNESS to all the above signatures:

Signed: D Ward

DENISE WARD

Royex House
Aldermanbury Square
London EC2V 71D

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

AUTHORISED SHARE CAPITAL SINCE INCORPORATION

Effective date	£	Event
On Incorporation (1st April 1989)	50,000	Divided into 50,000 shares of £1 each
29th August 1989	50,001	Increased to £50,001 by the creation of 1 special rights redeemable preference share of £1 and the 50,000 existing shares were redesignated as ordinary shares.
20th November 1989	2,216,001	Increased by creation of 2,166,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
12th December 1989	475,000,001	Increased by creation of 472,784,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
31st December 1994	475,000,001	Redemption of the special rights redeemable preference share
8th November 1995	660,000,001	Increased by creation of 185,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
26th July 1996	660,000,000	Reduced by cancellation of the authorised and unissued special rights redeemable preference share
26th July 1996	720,000,000	Increased by creation of 60,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
21st July 2000	800,000,000	Increased by creation of 80,000,000 ordinary share of £1 each
26th August 2003	1,119,000,000	Increased by the creation of 638,000,000 A shares of 50 pence each.
6th July 2005	1,119,000,000	The 638,000,000 A shares of 50 pence each were consolidated into, and reclassified as, 319,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each
27 July 2007	1,300,000,000	Increased by the creation of 181,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each

THE COMPANIES ACTS

PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

(Adopted by special resolution passed on 25th July 2008)

PRELIMINARY

1 No other regulations to apply

No regulations set out in any statute or in any statutory instrument or other subordinate legislation concerning companies shall apply to the company, but the following shall be the articles of association of the company.

2 Interpretation

2.1 In these articles, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the following meanings:

these articles means these articles of association as originally adopted or altered or varied from time to time (and "article" means one of these articles)

auditors means the auditors for the time being of the company or, in the case of joint auditors, any one of them

board means the board of directors for the time being of the company or the directors present or deemed to be present at a duly convened meeting of directors at which a quorum is present

CA 1985 means the Companies Act 1985

CA 2006 means the Companies Act 2006

certificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in certificated form

chairman means the chairman (if any) of the board or, where the context requires, the chairman of a general meeting of the company

clear days means (in relation to the period of a notice) that period, excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given, and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect

depository means a custodian or other person (or a nominee for such custodian or other person) appointed under contractual arrangements with the company or other arrangements approved by the board whereby such custodian or other person or nominee holds or is interested in shares of the company or rights or interests in shares of the company and issues securities or other documents of title or otherwise evidencing the entitlement of the holder thereof to or to receive such shares, rights or interests, provided and to the extent that such arrangements have been approved by the board for the purpose of these articles, and shall include, where approved by the board, the trustees (acting in their capacity as such) of any employees' share scheme established by the company or any other scheme or arrangement principally for the benefit of employees or those in the service of the company and/or its subsidiaries or their respective businesses and the managers (acting in their capacity as such) of any investment or savings plan, which in each case the board has approved

dematerialised instruction shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

director means a director for the time being of the company

electronic form and electronic means shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

execution includes any mode of execution (and "executed" shall be construed accordingly)

hard copy and hard copy form shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

holder means (in relation to any share) the member whose name is entered in the register as the holder or, where the context permits, the members whose names are entered in the register as the joint holders, of that share

London Stock Exchange means London Stock Exchange plc

member means a member of the company or, where the context requires, a member of the board or of any committee

office means the registered office for the time being of the company

ordinary share means an ordinary share in the capital of the company

Other Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is of a procedural nature, including without limitation any resolution to correct a patent error in a Substantive Resolution, any resolution for adjournment of a meeting or any resolution for the election of a chairman of the meeting

paid up means paid up or credited as paid up

qualifying person shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in section 318(3) CA 2006

recognised person means a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange which is designated as mentioned in section 185(4) CA 1985 or section 778 CA 2006

register means the register of members of the company to be kept (in the case of shares held in certificated form) by the company pursuant to section 352 CA 1985 or section 113 CA 2006 or (in the case of shares held in uncertificated form) by the operator of a relevant system pursuant to paragraph 20 of the Regulations

Regulations means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001 No. 3755

relevant system shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

seal means any common seal of the company

secretary means the secretary for the time being of the company or any other person appointed to perform any of the duties of the secretary of the company including (subject to the provisions of the statutes) a joint, temporary, assistant or deputy secretary

securities seal means an official seal kept by the company pursuant to section 40 CA 1985 or section 50 CA 2006

share means a share of the company

statutes means CA 1985, CA 2006 and every other statute (and any regulations subordinate thereto) for the time being in force concerning companies and affecting the company

Substantive Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is not an Other Resolution

the company means United Utilities PLC, company number 2366616

uncertificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in uncertificated form

United Kingdom means Great Britain and Northern Ireland

writing or written means and includes printing, typewriting, lithography, photography and any other mode or modes of representing or reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form including (to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes) electronic form.

2.2 Unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and vice versa;
- (b) words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender; and
- (c) a reference to a person includes a body corporate and an unincorporated body of persons.

2.3 A reference to any statute or provision of a statute shall include any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force. A reference to any provision of CA 1985 and CA 2006 shall be interpreted by applying the relevant provision of such Acts as shall be in force for the time being.

2.4 Save as aforesaid, and unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in CA 1985 or CA 2006, as the case may be, and words and expressions used in the Regulations have the same meanings when used in these articles.

2:5 The headings are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of these articles.

3 Form of resolution

Subject to the statutes, where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

4 Registered office

The office shall be at such place in England and Wales as the board shall from time to time appoint.

SHARE CAPITAL

5 Authorised share capital

The authorised share capital of the company at the date of the adoption of these articles is £1,300,000,000 divided into 1,300,000,000 ordinary shares of £1 each.

6 Allotment

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any relevant authority of the company in general meeting required by the statutes, unissued shares at the date of adoption of these articles and any shares hereafter created and any shares held by the company in treasury shall be at the disposal of the board, which may allot (with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant options over, offer, sell or otherwise deal with or dispose of them or rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares to such persons (including the directors themselves), at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as the board may decide, provided that no share shall be issued at a discount.

7 Redeemable shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any share may be issued which is, or at the option of the company or of the holder of such share is liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as these articles may provide.

8 Power to attach rights

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any shares may be allotted or issued with or have attached to them such preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, transfer, return of capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the board may determine.

9 Share warrants to bearer

9.1 The company may, with respect to any fully paid shares, issue a warrant (a share warrant) stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified in it and may provide

(by coupons or otherwise) for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in a share warrant.

9.2 The powers referred to in article 9.1 may be exercised by the board, which may determine and vary the conditions on which share warrants shall be issued, and in particular on which:

- (a) a new share warrant or coupon will be issued in the place of one damaged, defaced, worn out or lost (provided that no new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the board is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed);
- (b) the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend, vote and demand a poll at general meetings;
- (c) dividends will be paid; and
- (d) a share warrant may be surrendered and the name of the holder entered in the register in respect of the shares specified in it.

Subject to such conditions and to these articles, the bearer of a share warrant shall be deemed to be a member for all purposes. The bearer of a share warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force and applicable thereto, whether made before or after the issue of such share warrant.

10 Commission and brokerage

The company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the statutes. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash, the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, the grant of an option to call for an allotment of shares or any combination of such methods.

11 Trusts not to be recognised

Except as otherwise expressly provided by these articles, as required by law or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the company shall not recognise any person as holding any share on any trust, and (except as aforesaid) the company shall not be bound by or recognise (even if having notice of it) any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in any share except an absolute right of the holder to the whole of the share.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

12 Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division

The company in general meeting may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

- (a) increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;
- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
- (c) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled; and

- (d) subject to the provisions of the statutes, sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of a smaller amount, and may by such resolution determine that, as between the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of the shares may, as compared with the others, have any such preferred, deferred or other special rights or be subject to any such restrictions as the company has power to attach to unissued or new shares.

13 Fractions of shares

13.1 Whenever as the result of any consolidation, division or sub-division of shares any difficulty arises, the board may settle it as it thinks fit, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) where the number of shares held by any holder is not an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share and as a result of such consolidation such holder would become entitled to a fraction of a consolidated share:

- (a) the board may determine which of the shares of such holder are to be treated as giving rise to such fractional entitlement and may decide that any of those shares shall be consolidated with any of the shares of any other holder or holders which are similarly determined by it to be treated as giving rise to a fractional entitlement for such other holder or holders, into a single consolidated share and the board may, on behalf of all such holders, sell such consolidated share for the best price reasonably obtained to any person (including the company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale after deduction of the expenses of sale in due proportion among those holders (except that any amount otherwise due to a holder, being less than £2.50 or such other sum as the board may from time to time determine, may be retained for the benefit of the company); or
- (b) provided that the necessary unissued shares are available, the board may issue to such holder credited as fully paid by way of capitalisation the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding to an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share (such issue being deemed to have been effected prior to consolidation); and the amount required to pay up such shares shall be appropriated at the board's discretion from any of the sums standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or to the credit of profit and loss account and capitalised by applying the same in paying up the share. In relation to such a capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on it by article 153 without an ordinary resolution of the company.

13.2 For the purposes of any sale of consolidated shares pursuant to article 13.1, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of (or, as the case may be, to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of) the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser, and the transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14 Reduction of capital

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, these articles and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

15 Purchase of own shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, these articles and any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may purchase any of its own shares of any class (including any redeemable shares). Any shares to be so purchased may be selected in any manner whatsoever.

VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

16 Sanction to variation

If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into shares of different classes, any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares in the company (and notwithstanding that the company may be or be about to be in liquidation) may be varied or abrogated in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights or, in the absence of any such provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class duly convened and held as hereinafter provided (but not otherwise).

17 Class meetings

All the provisions in these articles as to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply to every meeting of the holders of any class of shares. The board may convene a meeting of the holders of any class of shares whenever it thinks fit and whether or not the business to be transacted involves a variation or abrogation of class rights. The quorum at every such meeting shall be not less than two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third of the nominal amount paid up on the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares). Every holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy, may demand a poll. Each such holder shall on a poll be entitled to one vote for every share of the class held by him. If at any adjourned meeting of such holders such quorum as aforesaid is not present, not less than one person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

18 Deemed variation

Subject to the terms of issue of or rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued or by the reduction of the capital paid up on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the company of its own shares in accordance with the provisions of the statutes and these articles.

EVIDENCE OF TITLE

19 Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities

19.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, title to any securities of the company may be evidenced and may be transferred without a written instrument in accordance with regulations from time to time made under the statutes and subject to such regulations the board shall have power to implement any arrangements it may think fit for such evidencing and transfer which accord with those regulations.

19.2 Where any provision of these articles confers authority on the company or the board or any of the directors to enter into (or to authorise some other person to enter into) any transaction in respect of shares held in uncertificated form (including, without limitation, article 23, article 38, article 49 and article 81) the board may authorise some person to give notice on behalf of the company to the operator of a relevant system, requiring that such shares be converted into certificated form and stating that such conversion is required in order to enable the company to give effect to the provisions of these articles.

20 Right to share certificates

20.1 On becoming the holder of any certificated share, every person (except a recognised person in respect of whom the company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall be entitled, without charge, to have issued within two months after allotment or lodgement of a transfer (unless the terms of issue of the shares provide otherwise) one certificate for all the certificated shares of each class registered in his name. Such certificate shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon and shall be issued as provided in article 138.

20.2 The issued shares of a particular class which are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes shall not bear a distinguishing number. All other shares shall bear a distinguishing number.

20.3 The company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of shares held jointly by two or more persons. Delivery of a certificate to the person first named on the register as the holder of such shares shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.

20.4 Where a member (other than a recognised person) has transferred part only of the shares comprised in a certificate, he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance of such shares without charge.

20.5 No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class or in respect of shares held by a recognised person, or in respect of any uncertificated shares.

21 Replacement certificates

21.1 Any two or more certificates representing certificated shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued in lieu without charge on surrender of the original certificates for cancellation.

21.2 If any member shall surrender for cancellation a share certificate representing certificated shares held by him and request the company to issue in lieu two or more share certificates representing such shares in such proportions as he may specify, the board may, if it thinks fit, comply with such request.

21.3 Share certificates may be renewed or replaced on such terms as to provision of evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional out of pocket expenses, including those incurred by the company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity and security, as the board may decide, and on surrender of the original certificate (where it is defaced, damaged or worn out), but without any further charge.

21.4 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, any such request as is mentioned in this article 21 may be made by any one of the joint holders.

LIEN ON SHARES

22 Lien on shares not fully paid

The company shall have a first and paramount lien on each of its shares which is not fully paid, for all amounts payable to the company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share and to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the statutes. The board may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this article.

23 Enforcement of lien by sale

The board may sell all or any of the shares subject to any lien at such time or times and in such manner as it may determine. However, no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys in respect of which such lien exists or some part thereof are or is presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of which such lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, and until a demand and notice in writing stating the amount due or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding payment or fulfilment or discharge thereof and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on the holder or the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment, fulfilment or discharge shall have been made by him or them for fourteen clear days after service of such notice. For giving effect to any such sale, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of, or to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of, the shares sold in the name and on behalf of the holder or the persons entitled by transmission in favour of the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and the title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

24 Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to any lien, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of so much of the amount due to the company or of the liability or engagement (as the case may be) as is presently payable or is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged. The balance (if any) shall (in the case of a sale of certificated shares, on surrender to the company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold), subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable or any liability or engagement not liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged as existed on the shares before the sale, be paid to the holder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so sold, without interest.

CALLS ON SHARES

25 Calls

Subject to the terms of allotment of shares, the board may from time to time make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on the shares, of any class, held by them respectively (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made and whether or not by instalments) be liable to pay the amount of every call so made on him as required by the notice. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising such call was passed or (as the case may require) any person to whom power has been delegated pursuant to these articles serves notice of exercise of such power.

A call may be required to be paid by instalments and may, before receipt by the company of any sum due thereunder, be either revoked or postponed in whole or part as regards all or any such members as the board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

26 Liability of joint holders

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect thereof.

27 Interest on calls

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at the rate fixed by the terms of the allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is so fixed, at such rate, not exceeding five per cent per annum above the Bank of England base rate (compounded on a six monthly basis), as the board shall determine. The board may waive payment of such costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

28 Rights of member when call unpaid

Unless the board otherwise determines, no member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present and vote at a general meeting or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares either in person or (save as proxy for another member) by proxy, or be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) to the company.

29 Sums due on allotment treated as calls

Any sum payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall for all purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call duly made. If it is not paid, the provisions of these articles shall apply as if such amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

30 Power to differentiate

The board may make arrangements on the allotment or issue of shares for a difference as between the allottees or holders of such shares in the amount and time of payment of calls.

31 Payment in advance of calls

The board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on the shares held by him. Such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability on the shares on which it is made. The company may pay interest on the money paid in advance, or so much of it as exceeds the amount for the time being called up on the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, at such rate as the board may decide. The board may at any time repay the amount so advanced on giving to such member not less than three months' notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

32 Delegation of power to make calls

If any uncalled capital of the company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the board may delegate on such terms as it thinks fit to the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, to sue in the name of the company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for such moneys. The power so delegated shall subsist during the continuance of the mortgage or security, notwithstanding any change of directors, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

33 Notice if call not paid

If any member fails to pay the whole of any call or any instalment of any call on or before the day appointed for payment, the board may at any time serve a notice in writing on such member or on any person entitled to the shares by transmission, requiring payment, on a date not less than fourteen clear days from the date of the notice, of the amount unpaid and any interest which may have accrued thereon and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where the payment is to be made and state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

34 Forfeiture for non-compliance

If the notice referred to in article 33 is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

35 Notice after forfeiture

When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served on the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share or the person entitled to such share by transmission (as the case may be). An entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register in respect of such share. However, no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

36 Forfeiture may be annulled

The board may, at any time before any share so forfeited has been cancelled or sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture, on terms that payment shall be made of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and on such further terms (if any) as the board shall see fit.

37 Surrender

The board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited. In such case references in these articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

38 Disposal of forfeited shares

Every share which shall be forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the company. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person, on such terms and in such manner as the board shall determine. The board may, for the purposes of the disposal, authorise some person to transfer the share in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred share in the register notwithstanding (in the case of a certificated share) the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof. An instrument of transfer executed by that person, or a dematerialised instruction given at the request of that person, shall be as effective as if it had been executed or given by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share. The company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal.

39 Effect of forfeiture

A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares forfeited and shall surrender to the company for cancellation the certificate (if any) for such shares. He shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the company all calls made and not paid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, and interest thereon from the date of the forfeiture to the date of payment, in the same manner in all respects as if the shares had not been forfeited, and to satisfy all (if any) claims, demands and liabilities which the company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the time of forfeiture, without any reduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.

40 Extinction of claims

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the holder whose share is forfeited and the company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these articles expressly saved, or as are by the statutes given or imposed in the case of past members.

41 Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited in pursuance of these articles, and stating the date on which it was forfeited, shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share adversely to the forfeiture thereof, be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated. The declaration, together with the receipt of the company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer or the giving of a dematerialised instruction) constitute a good title to the share. Subject to the execution of any necessary transfer, such person shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall be discharged from all calls made prior to such sale or disposition and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share. Such person shall not (except by express agreement with the company) become entitled to any dividend which might have accrued on the share before the completion of the sale or disposition thereof.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

42 Transfer of certificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form approved by the board. Such instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a certificated share which is not fully paid up) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the company.

43 Transfer of uncertificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his uncertificated shares in accordance with the rules and regulations in force from time to time which are applicable to a relevant system.

44 Right to refuse registration

44.1 The board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register any transfer of a share (or renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment) unless:

- (a) it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
- (b) it is in respect of only one class of shares;
- (c) it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees;
- (d) it is duly stamped (if so required); and
- (e) (if it is in respect of a certificated share) it is delivered for registration to the office or such other place as the board may from time to time determine, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer by a recognised person where a certificate has not been issued or in the case of a renunciation) by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so;

provided that the board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

44.2 Transfers of shares will not be registered in the circumstances referred to in article 81.

45 Notice of refusal

If the board refuses to register a transfer of a share it shall, within two months after the date on which, in the case of a certificated share, the transfer was lodged with the company, or, in the case of an uncertificated share, the dematerialised instruction was received by the company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee. Any instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall (except in the case of suspected or actual fraud) be returned to the person depositing it.

46 Fees on registration

No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or on the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

47 Transfers by renunciation

Nothing in these articles shall preclude the board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

48 On death

If a member dies, the survivors or survivor, where he was a joint holder, and his executors or administrators, where he was a sole or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his shares. Nothing in these articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which has been solely or jointly held by him.

49 Election of person entitled by transmission

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, may, on such evidence as to his title being produced as the board may require, elect either to become registered as a member or to have some person nominated by him registered as a member. If he elects to become registered himself, he shall give notice to the company to that effect. If he elects to have some other person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of such share to that person or, as the case may be, procure the transfer of such share to that person by means of a dematerialised instruction. All the provisions of these articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice, instrument of transfer or dematerialised instruction (as the case may be) as if it were executed or given by the member and his death, bankruptcy or other event as aforesaid had not occurred. Where the entitlement of a person to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to its transmission by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the board, the board shall within two months after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the register.

50 Rights on transmission

Where a person becomes entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, the rights of the holder in relation to such share shall cease. However, the person so entitled may give a good discharge for any dividends and other moneys payable in respect of it and shall have the same rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before he is registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company. The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within sixty days, the board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

51 Destruction of documents

51.1 The company may destroy:

- (a) any instrument of transfer, after six years from the date on which it is registered;
- (b) any dividend mandate or any variation or cancellation thereof or any notification of change of name or address, after two years from the date on which it is recorded;
- (c) any share certificate, after one year from the date on which it is cancelled;
- (d) any proxy form which has been used for a poll, after one year from the date on which the poll was taken;
- (e) any proxy form which has not been used for a poll, after one month from the general meeting or class meeting to which it relates; and
- (f) any other document on the basis of which any entry in the register is made, after six years from the date on which an entry was first made in the register in respect of it,

provided that the company may destroy any such type of document at a date earlier than that authorised by this article if a copy of such document is retained on microfilm or by other similar means on which such copy is retained until the expiration of the period applicable to the destruction of the original of such document.

51.2 It shall be conclusively presumed in favour of the company that every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was duly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was duly cancelled, that every other document so destroyed had been properly dealt with in accordance with its terms and was valid and effective in accordance with the particulars in the records of the company, provided that:

- (a) this article 51 shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant;
- (b) nothing in this article 51 shall be construed as imposing on the company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document otherwise than as provided for in this article 51 which would not attach to the company in the absence of this article 51; and
- (c) references in this article 51 to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal of it in any manner.

GENERAL MEETINGS

52 Annual general meetings

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place as the board may determine.

53 Other general meetings

All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

54 Convening of general meetings

The board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the board to convene a general meeting, any director may call a general meeting.

55 Notice of general meetings

55.1 An annual general meeting shall be convened by not less than twenty one clear days' notice in writing. All other general meetings shall be convened by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing.

55.2 The notice shall specify:

- (a) (if applicable) that the meeting is an annual general meeting;
- (b) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
- (c) in the case of special business, the general nature of that business;
- (d) if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such; and
- (e) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

55.3 The notice shall be given to the members (other than any who, under the provisions of these articles or of any restrictions imposed on any shares, are not entitled to receive notice from the company), to the directors and to the auditors.

55.4 If, after a notice convening a general meeting of the company has been despatched or made available to members, the board becomes aware of any fact, event or circumstances which, in the board's opinion, would make it impractical or inappropriate to hold the general meeting on the date or time or at the place for which notice has been given, the board may give notice pursuant to article 164 to those entitled to receive the notice pursuant to article 55.3 either cancelling such meeting or postponing such meeting to a time and date which is not less than twenty one clear days from the date of such notice, which shall also specify the place at which such postponed meeting shall be held.

56 Omission to send notice

For the purpose of determining whether notice of any meeting was duly given, each of the following shall be disregarded and shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting:

- (a) the accidental failure to give notice of the meeting;
- (b) the accidental failure to send or supply any document or other information relating to any meeting;

- (c) the accidental failure to provide an instrument of proxy to any person, in cases where it is intended that such an instrument be sent out with the notice convening the meeting to which it relates; or
- (d) the non-receipt of any document referred to at (a), (b) or (c) above by any person entitled to receive the same.

57 Special business

All business that is transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special, except the following transactions at an annual general meeting:

- (a) the declaration of dividends;
- (b) the receipt and consideration of the annual accounts and the reports of the directors and the auditors and any other document required to be annexed to the annual accounts;
- (c) the election or re-election of directors;
- (d) the appointment or re-appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors or the determination of the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed;
- (e) the approval of a directors' remuneration report required to be prepared and approved pursuant to sections 234B and 241A CA 1985 or sections 420, 422 and 439 CA 2006.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Two qualifying persons shall be a quorum.

59 If quorum not present

If within thirty minutes (or such longer interval as the chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time (not being less than seven nor more than sixty days later) and place as the chairman (or, in default, the board) may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

60 Chairman

- 60.1 The chairman of the board shall preside at every general meeting of the company. If there be no such chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling to act as chairman, the directors present shall choose one of their number to act or, if there be only one director present, he shall be chairman if willing to act. If there be no director present and willing to act, then any member present at the meeting in person may be elected to be chairman of the meeting by a resolution passed at the meeting.

60.2 The chairman of the meeting who presides pursuant to the provisions of article 60.1 may, at any time during a general meeting of the company, nominate any director of the company to be the chairman of the meeting for the remainder of or for any part of the meeting.

61 Directors may attend and speak

A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company.

62 Power to adjourn

The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. However, without prejudice to any other power which he may have under these articles or at common law, the chairman may, without the need for the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period if he is of the opinion that it has become necessary to do so in order to secure the comfort, safety and security of those attending and the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of attending, speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

63 Notice of adjourned meeting

Where a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the board shall fix the time and place for the adjourned meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more or indefinitely, seven clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

64 Business of adjourned meeting

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

65 Accommodation of members and security arrangements

65.1 The board may, for the purpose of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements as the board shall consider to be appropriate in the circumstances and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place thereof. In the case of any meeting to which such arrangements apply the board may, for the purposes of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending, when specifying the place of the meeting:

- (a) direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside (the principal place); and
- (b) make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but who cannot be accommodated in the principal place and who are excluded therefrom under the provisions of this article or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the principal place and at any of such other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the principal place and at such other places, by any means.

Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for regulating the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid as between the principal place and any of such other places, provided that they shall operate so that any member who cannot be accommodated in the principal place as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the principal place.

- 65.2 For the purpose of ensuring the safety and security of those attending any meeting the board may require that any person wishing to attend any meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements as the board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse entry to any meeting to any person who refuses to cooperate with or to submit to such searches or to otherwise comply with such security arrangements.

VOTING

66 Method of voting

- 66.1 At any general meeting all Substantive Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a poll, and all Other Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by:

- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) at least five members having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (c) a member or members (or their proxies) representing not less than 10 per cent of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to shares in the company held as treasury shares); or
- (d) a member or members (or their proxies) holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10 per cent of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding shares in the company held as treasury shares).

- 66.2 The chairman of a general meeting may, in his absolute discretion, determine whether a resolution is a Substantive Resolution or an Ordinary Resolution and his decision shall be final.

- 66.3 At general meetings, resolutions shall be put to the vote by the chairman and there shall be no requirement for the resolution to be proposed or seconded by any person.

67 Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands

Unless a poll is duly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

68 Objection to error in voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

69 Amendment to resolutions

69.1 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, any error in such ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution.

69.2 In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted on and in the case of a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may be considered or voted on unless either at least forty-eight hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such ordinary resolution is to be proposed notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move the same has been lodged at the office or validly received by the company by electronic means, or the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that it may be considered or voted on.

70 Procedure on a poll

70.1 Any poll duly demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll duly demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time and place, not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded, as the chairman shall direct. The chairman shall determine the manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets or electronic means) in which a poll shall be taken and may appoint scrutineers who need not be members. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

70.2 The demand for a poll (other than on the election of a chairman or any question of adjournment) shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

70.3 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn, but only with the consent of the chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall validate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

70.4 On a poll, votes may be given in person or by proxy. Subject to the provisions of section 323 CA 2006, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

71 Votes of members

71.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, to any special terms as to voting on which any shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these articles, at any general meeting every qualifying person who is present shall on a show of hands have one vote and every member present in person, or by proxy shall on a poll have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

71.2 The company shall not be entitled to exercise any voting rights, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares.

71.3 If two or more persons are joint holders of a share, then in voting on any question the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.

71.4 Where in England or elsewhere a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court claiming jurisdiction in that behalf to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the board may in its absolute discretion, on or subject to production of such evidence of the appointment as the board may require, permit such receiver or other person to vote in person or, on a poll, by proxy on behalf of such member at any general meeting. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be received by the company by electronic means or be deposited at the office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

72 Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.

73 Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc.

No member shall, unless the board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of that share whether alone or jointly with any other person together with interest and expenses (if any) have been paid to the company.

74 Voting by proxy

Any person (whether a member of the company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy. Deposit of an instrument of proxy or, where the appointment of the proxy was communicated by electronic means, receipt of such appointment by the company or its agent, shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed or at any adjournment thereof.

75 Form of proxy

75.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall:

- (a) be in writing in any common form or in such other form as the board may approve, under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of some officer or attorney or other person duly authorised in that behalf;
- (b) be deemed (subject to any contrary direction contained in the same) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution or amendment of a resolution put to the meeting (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resolution which properly comes before the meeting where notice of the same was not included in the notice of the meeting nor specific reference thereto made in the instrument appointing the proxy) as the proxy thinks fit, and shall also be deemed to confer on the proxy the right to speak at the meeting;
- (c) unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; and
- (d) where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.

75.2 In addition, the board may determine that, if and to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes, and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may specify, a proxy may be appointed by electronic means.

76 Deposit of proxy

76.1 The instrument appointing a proxy shall:

- (a) in the case of an appointment which is not made by electronic means, be deposited at the office or at such other place or places within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, together with (if required by the board) any authority under which it is made (or a copy thereof certified notari ally or in some other way approved by the board);
- (b) in the case of an appointment made by electronic means where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving proxy appointments in electronic form in the notice convening the meeting, or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, or in any invitation to appoint a proxy contained in electronic form issued by the company in relation to the meeting, be received at such address not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote. Any authority pursuant to which an appointment is made by an electronic means (or a copy thereof certified notari ally or in some other way approved by the board) must, if required by the board, be received at the office (or such other place in the United Kingdom as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in either case any accompanying document) not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

- (c) in the case of a poll taken more than forty eight hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- (d) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman of the meeting or to any director;

and subject to article 76.3 an instrument of proxy not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

In this article and article 79, address, in relation to communications made in electronic form, includes any number or address (including, in the case of any uncertificated proxy instruction permitted pursuant to article 76.2, an identification number of a participant in the relevant system concerned) used for the purposes of such electronic communications.

When calculating the periods mentioned in this article, the directors can decide not to take account of any part of a day that is not a working day.

76.2 Without limiting the foregoing, in relation to any uncertificated shares the directors may from time to time permit appointments of a proxy to be made by electronic means in the form of an uncertificated proxy instruction (that is, a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system concerned and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the company as the directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned)), and may in a similar manner permit supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such uncertificated proxy instruction to be made by like means. The directors may, in addition, prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such properly authenticated dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) is to be treated as received by the company or such participant. The directors may treat any such uncertificated proxy instruction which purports to be, or is expressed to be, sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

76.3 A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may:

- (a) accept a photocopy, or a copy delivered by facsimile transmission, of the instrument appointing the proxy (and of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board); and/or
- (b) accept an instrument appointing a proxy which has not been properly executed as required by article 76.1 or is not supported by the relevant documents as required by article 76.2

as a valid instrument of proxy where such person determines, in good faith, that the documents deposited (including, where relevant, by electronic means) indicate in sufficient detail the member's intention to appoint a proxy.

76.4 No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiry of twelve months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve months from such date.

76.5 To the extent (if any) that the board determines that proxies may be appointed by electronic means, any provisions of articles 75 and 76 may be disapplied or varied, insofar as they relate to any appointment made in this way, in such manner as the board may specify.

77 More than one proxy may be appointed

A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion and if he does he shall specify the number of shares in respect of which each proxy is entitled to exercise the related votes and shall ensure that no proxy is appointed to exercise the votes which any other proxy has been appointed by that member to exercise. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the company is unable to determine which instrument was last validly delivered, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

78 Board may supply proxy cards

The board may at the expense of the company send or make available, by post or otherwise, instruments of proxy (reply-paid or otherwise) to members for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the company, such invitations shall, subject to article 56, be issued to all (and not some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

79 Revocation of proxy

Subject to section 330 CA 2006, a vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or mental disorder of the principal or the revocation of the instrument of proxy, or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument of proxy is given, unless notice in writing of such death, mental disorder, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at the office, or at such other place as has been appointed for the deposit of instruments of proxy, or, where the appointment of a proxy was made by electronic means, at the address at which such appointment was duly received, at least forty eight hours (or such shorter period as the directors may determine) (such period to include or exclude any part of a day which is not a working day, if so determined by the directors) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the instrument of proxy is used.

80 Corporate representative

A corporation (whether or not a company within the meaning of CA 2006) which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. Any person so authorised shall (subject to section 323 CA 2006) be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's holdings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. The corporation shall for the purposes of these articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it; and all references to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly. A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or such other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to them before permitting him to exercise his powers.

81 Failure to disclose interests in shares

81.1 If a member, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares held by that member, has been issued with a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 and has failed in relation to any shares (the default shares, which expression includes any shares issued after the date of such notice in respect of those shares) to give the company the information thereby required within the prescribed period from the service of the notice, the following sanctions shall apply unless the board otherwise determines:

- (a) the member shall not be entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares or on any poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll; and
- (b) where the default shares represent at least 0.25 per cent in nominal value of the issued shares of their class (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares):
 - (i) any dividend or other money payable in respect of the shares shall be withheld by the company, which shall not have any obligation to pay interest on it, and the member shall not be entitled to elect, pursuant to article 151, to receive shares instead of that dividend; and
 - (ii) no transfer, other than an excepted transfer, of any shares held by the member shall be registered unless:
 - (A) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and
 - (B) the member proves to the satisfaction of the board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

81.2 Where the sanctions under article 81.1 apply in relation to any shares, they shall cease to have effect (and any dividends withheld under article 81.1(b) shall become payable):

- (a) if the shares are transferred by means of an excepted transfer but only in respect of the shares transferred; or

- (b) at the end of the period of seven days (or such shorter period as the board may determine) following receipt by the company of the information required by the notice mentioned in that paragraph and the board being fully satisfied that such information is full and complete.
- 81.3 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the company issues a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of article 81.1.
- 81.4 Where default shares in which a person appears to be interested are held by a depositary, the provisions of this article 81 shall be treated as applying only to those shares held by the depositary in which such person appears to be interested and not (insofar as such person's apparent interest is concerned) to any other shares held by the depositary.
- 81.5 Where the member on which a notice under section 793 CA 2006 is served is a depositary acting in its capacity as such, the obligations of the depositary as a member of the company shall be limited to disclosing to the company such information relating to any person appearing to be interested in the shares held by it as has been recorded by it pursuant to the arrangements entered into by the company or approved by the board pursuant to which it was appointed as a depositary.
- 81.6 For the purposes of this article 81:
- (a) a person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if the company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a notice under section 793 CA 2006, from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is, or may be, so interested;
 - (b) interested shall be construed as it is for the purpose of sections 820 and 822 to 825 CA 2006;
 - (c) reference to a person having failed to give the company the information required by a notice, or being in default as regards supplying such information, includes reference:
 - (i) to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and
 - (ii) to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular, or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular;
 - (d) prescribed period means fourteen days;
 - (e) excepted transfer means, in relation to any shares held by a member:
 - (i) a transfer by way of, or pursuant to, acceptance of a takeover offer for the company (within the meaning of section 974 CA 2006); or
 - (ii) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in section 285 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the company's shares are normally traded; or

- (iii) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the board to be made in consequence of a sale of the whole of the beneficial interest in the shares to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares.

81.7 Nothing contained in this article 81 shall be taken to limit the powers of the company under sections 794 and 795 CA 2006.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

82 Power of sale

82.1 The company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if and provided that:

- (a) during the period of twelve years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (b) below (or, if published on different dates, the earlier or earliest thereof) no cheque, order or warrant in respect of such share sent by the company through the post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member or to the person entitled by transmission to the share, at his address on the register or other last known address given by the member or person to which cheques, orders or warrants in respect of such share are to be sent has been cashed and the company has received no communications in respect of such share from such member or person, provided that during such period of twelve years the company has paid at least three cash dividends (whether interim or final) and no such dividend has been claimed by the person entitled to it;
- (b) on or after expiry of the said period of twelve years the company has given notice of its intention to sell such share by advertisements in two newspapers of which one shall be a national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and the other shall be a newspaper circulating in the area of the address on the register or other last known address of the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share or the address for the service of notices notified under article 160.3;
- (c) the said advertisements, if not published on the same day, shall have been published within thirty days of each other; and
- (d) during the further period of three months following the date of publication of the said advertisements (or, if published on different dates, the later or latest thereof) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale the company has not received any communication in respect of such share from the member or person entitled by transmission.

82.2 To give effect to any sale of shares pursuant to this article the board may authorise some person to transfer the shares in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred shares in the register notwithstanding the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof and may issue a new certificate to the transferee. An instrument of transfer executed by (or a dematerialised instruction given by) that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed or effected by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

82.3 If during the period of twelve years referred to in article 82.1, or during any period ending on the date when all the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied, any additional shares have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of, or previously so issued during, any such period and all the requirements of paragraphs (b) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied in regard to such additional shares, the company shall also be entitled to sell the additional shares.

83 Application of proceeds of sale

The company shall account to the member or other person entitled to such share for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account. The company shall be deemed to be a debtor to, and not a trustee for, such member or other person in respect of such moneys. Moneys carried to such separate account may either be employed in the business of the company or invested in such investments as the board may from time to time think fit. No interest shall be payable to such member or other person in respect of such moneys and the company shall not be required to account for any money earned on them.

APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

84 Number of directors

Unless and until otherwise determined by the company by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than any alternate directors) shall be not more than fifteen nor less than three.

85 Power of company to appoint directors

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles.

86 Power of board to appoint directors

Without prejudice to the power of the company to appoint any person to be a director pursuant to these articles, the board shall have power at any time to appoint any person who is willing to act as a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles. Any director so appointed shall retire at the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment and shall not be taken into account in determining the number of directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

87 Appointment of executive directors

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may from time to time appoint one or more of its body to hold any employment or executive office (including that of executive chairman, chief executive or managing director) for such term (subject to the provisions of CA 2006) and subject to such other conditions as the board thinks fit in accordance with article 110. The board may revoke or terminate any such appointment without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of contract between the director and the company.

88 Eligibility for appointment as a director

No person, other than a director retiring (by rotation or otherwise), shall be appointed or re-appointed a director at any general meeting unless:

- (a) he is recommended by the board; or
- (b) not less than seven nor more than forty-two clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice duly executed or authenticated by a member (other than the person to be proposed) qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the company of the intention to propose that person for appointment or re-appointment, stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the company's register of directors, together with notice executed or authenticated by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed, is lodged at the office.

89 Share qualification

A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the company.

90 Resolution for appointment

A resolution for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall be void unless an ordinary resolution that it shall be so proposed has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

91 Retirement at intervals of one year and three years

91.1 A director (not being a director holding any employment or executive office pursuant to article 87) shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at each annual general meeting if, at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, he has served as a director for a continuous period of nine years or more, and for the purpose of this article 91.1 the retirement and re-appointment of a director at the same general meeting, whether pursuant to these articles or otherwise, shall not constitute an interruption to that director's period of continuous service.

91.2 A director shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at the third annual general meeting following his appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting.

92 Directors to retire by rotation

92.1 Any director who is or will be required to retire at an annual general meeting pursuant to article 86 or article 91.1 shall not be taken into account in determining the number or the identity of the directors to retire by rotation at that meeting pursuant to this article 92.

92.2 The directors to retire by rotation at an annual general meeting pursuant to this article 92 shall be determined, both as to number and identity, by the composition of the board at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, notwithstanding any change in the number or the identity of the directors after that time and before the conclusion of that annual general meeting.

92.3 At each annual general meeting, one third of the directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for re-appointment. Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the directors to retire by rotation pursuant to this article 92 shall be, first, any director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, any director who is or will be required to retire pursuant to article 91.2, and thirdly that director or those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting. As between two or more directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting, the director or directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

93 Position of retiring director

A director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he is not re-appointed or deemed to have been re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

94 Deemed re-appointment

At any annual general meeting at which a director retires by rotation the company may fill the vacancy and, if it does not do so, the retiring director shall, if willing, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

95 No retirement on account of age

No person shall be or become incapable of being appointed a director by reason of his having attained the age of seventy or any other age, nor shall any special notice be required in connection with the appointment or the approval of the appointment of such person. No director shall vacate his office at any time by reason of the fact that he has attained the age of seventy or any other age.

96 Removal by ordinary resolution

In addition to any power of removal conferred by the statutes, the company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract of service between him and the company, and may (subject to these articles) by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a director in his place. Any person so appointed shall be treated, for the purposes of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire, as if he had become a director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or re-appointed a director.

97 Vacation of office by director

Without prejudice to the provisions for retirement (by rotation or otherwise) contained in these articles, the office of a director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he resigns by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office or tendered at a board meeting;
- (b) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the statutes, is removed from office pursuant to these articles or the statutes or becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
- (c) he becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him, makes any arrangement or compounds with his creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that Act;

- (d) an order is made by any court of competent jurisdiction on the ground (howsoever formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or receiver or other person to exercise powers with respect to his affairs or he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or, in Scotland, under the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 and the board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (e) both he and his alternate director appointed pursuant to the provisions of these articles (if any) are absent, without the permission of the board, from board meetings for six consecutive months and the board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (f) he is removed from office by notice in writing signed by all the other directors (without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract between him and the company) and, for this purpose, a set of like notices each signed by one or more of the directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of directors; or
- (g) in the case of any director who holds any executive office with the company, his appointment as such is terminated or expires and the directors resolve that his office be vacated.

98 Resolution as to vacancy conclusive

A resolution of the board declaring a director to have vacated office under the terms of article 97 shall be conclusive as to the fact and grounds of vacation stated in the resolution.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

99 Appointment

99.1 Each director (other than an alternate director) may, by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office, or in any other manner approved by the board, appoint any other director or any person approved for that purpose by the board and willing to act, to be his alternate.

99.2 No appointment of an alternate director who is not already a director shall be effective until his consent to act as a director in the form prescribed by the statutes has been received at the office.

99.3 An alternate director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum or minimum number of directors allowed by these articles.

100 Participation in board meetings

Every alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the board and all committees of the board of which his appointor is a member and, in the absence from such meetings of his appointor, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor. A director acting as alternate director shall have a separate vote at board meetings for each director for whom he acts as alternate director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

101 Alternate director responsible for own acts

Every person acting as an alternate director shall be an officer of the company, shall alone be responsible to the company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing him.

102 Interests of alternate director

An alternate director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements with the company and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a director. However, he shall not be entitled to receive from the company any fees for his services as alternate, except only such part (if any) of the fee payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the company direct. Subject to this article, the company shall pay to an alternate director such expenses as might properly have been paid to him if he had been a director.

103 Revocation of appointment

An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director:

- (a) if his appointor revokes his appointment; or
- (b) if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director, provided that if any director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to be re-appointed at the same meeting, any valid appointment of an alternate director which was in force immediately before his retirement shall remain in force; or
- (c) if any event happens in relation to him which, if he were a director otherwise appointed, would cause him to vacate office.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS

104 Directors' fees

The directors (other than alternate directors) shall be entitled to receive by way of fees for their services as directors such sum as the board may, from time to time, determine (not exceeding, in aggregate, £1,000,000 per annum or such other sum as the company in general meeting by ordinary resolution shall, from time to time, determine). Such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolution of the company by which it is voted) shall be divided among the directors in such proportions and in such manner as the board may determine or, in default of such determination, equally (except that in such event any director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he holds office). Any fees payable pursuant to this article shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration, expenses or other amounts payable to a director pursuant to any other provisions of these articles and shall accrue from day to day.

105 Expenses

Each director shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties as director, including any expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board or any committee of the board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company. If in the opinion of the directors it is desirable that any of their number should go or reside abroad or make any special journeys or perform any special services on behalf of the company or its business, such director or directors may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise and expenses therefore as the directors may from time to time determine.

106 Remuneration of executive directors

The salary or remuneration of any director appointed to hold any employment or executive office in accordance with the provisions of these articles may be either a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by business done or profits made or otherwise determined by the board, and may be in addition to or in lieu of any fee payable to him for his services as director pursuant to these articles.

107 Pensions and other benefits

The board may exercise all the powers of the company to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability benefits or other allowances or gratuities (whether by insurance or otherwise) for, or to institute and maintain any institution, association, society, club, trust, other establishment or profit-sharing, share incentive, share purchase or employees' share scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or to benefit, any person who is or has at any time been a director or employee of the company or any company which is a holding company or a subsidiary undertaking of or allied to or associated with the company or any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking or any predecessor in business of the company or of any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking, and for any member of his family (including a spouse or former spouse) and any person who is or was dependent on him. For such purpose the board may establish, maintain, subscribe and contribute to any scheme, institution, association, club, trust or fund and pay premiums and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, lend money or make payments to, guarantee or give an indemnity in respect of, or give any financial or other assistance in connection with any of the aforesaid matters. The board may procure any of such matters to be done by the company either alone or in conjunction with any other person. Any director or former director shall be entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided under this article and shall not be obliged to account for it to the company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

108 Powers of the board

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the memorandum of association of the company and these articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the company, the business of the company shall be managed by the board, which may exercise all the powers of the company, whether relating to the management of the business or not. No alteration of the memorandum of association or of these articles and no such direction given by the company shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. Provisions contained elsewhere in these articles as to any specific power of the board shall not be deemed to limit the general powers given by this article.

109 Powers of directors being less than minimum number

If the number of directors is less than the minimum for the time being prescribed by these articles, the remaining director or directors shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional director or directors to make up such minimum or of convening a general meeting of the company for the purpose of making such appointment. If there are no director or directors able or willing to act, any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors. Subject to the provisions of these articles, any additional director so appointed shall hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting.

110 Powers of executive directors

The board may from time to time:

- (a) delegate or entrust to and confer on any director holding executive office (including a chief executive or managing director) such of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit; and
- (b) revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

111 Delegation to committees

111.1 The board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to any committee consisting of one or more directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons, provided that:

- (a) a majority of the members of a committee shall be directors; and
- (b) no resolution of a committee shall be effective unless a majority of those present when it is passed are directors or alternate directors.

111.2 The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers and discharge any such committee in whole or in part. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is so delegated, any reference in these articles to the exercise by the board of such power, authority or discretion shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise of such power, authority or discretion by such committee.

112 Local management

The board may establish any local or divisional boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the company in any specified locality, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be members of such local or divisional board, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration. The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent so appointed any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local or divisional board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies; and any such appointment or delegation may be made for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the board may think fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. Subject to any terms and conditions expressly imposed by the board, the proceedings of any local or divisional board or agency with two or more members shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board, so far as they are capable of applying.

113 Power of attorney

The board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person or persons to be the agent of the company and may delegate to any such person or persons any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate), in each case for such purposes and for such time, on such terms (including as to remuneration) and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers.

114 Use of the title "director"

The board may appoint any person (not being a director) to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the company such designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that such person is, or is deemed to be, or is empowered in any respect to act as, a director for any of the purposes of the statutes or these articles.

115 Exercise of voting power

The board may exercise or cause to be exercised the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the company, or any power of appointment to be exercised by the company, in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including the exercise of the voting power or power of appointment in favour of the appointment of any director as a director or other officer or employee of such company or in favour of the payment of remuneration to the directors, officers or employees of such company).

116 Provision for employees

The board may exercise any power conferred on the company by the statutes to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (or any member of his family or any person who is dependent on him) in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary undertaking.

117 Overseas registers

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may exercise the powers conferred on the company with regard to the keeping of an overseas branch, local or other register and may make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

118 Borrowing powers

118.1 The board may exercise all the powers of the company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, to create and issue debenture and other [loan stock and] debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.

118.2 The board shall restrict the borrowings of the company and exercise all voting and other rights and powers of control exercisable by the company in respect of its subsidiary undertakings so as to procure (as regards its subsidiary undertakings in so far as it can procure by such exercise) that the aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding in respect of moneys borrowed by the group (exclusive of moneys borrowed by one group company from another and after deducting cash deposited) shall not at any time, without the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of the company, exceed an amount equal to two and a half (2½) times the adjusted capital and reserves.

118.3 For the purposes only of this article 118:

(a) adjusted capital and reserves means a sum equal to the aggregate from time to time of:

- (i) the amount paid up (or credited as paid up) on the allotted or issued share capital of the company (including any shares held as treasury shares); and
- (ii) the amount standing to the credit of the reserves, whether or not distributable (including, without limitation, any revaluation reserve, merger reserve, share premium account or capital redemption reserve), after adding thereto or deducting therefrom any balance standing to the credit or debit of the profit and loss account;

all as shown in the relevant balance sheet, but after:

(iii) making such adjustments as may be appropriate to reflect:

- (A) any variation in the amount of the paid up share capital and the amount standing to the credit of any of such reserves since the date of the relevant balance sheet and so that for the purpose of making such adjustments, if any proposed allotment of shares by the company for cash has been underwritten, then such shares shall be deemed to have been allotted and the amount (including the premium) of the subscription monies payable in respect thereof (not being monies payable later than six months after the date of allotment) shall be deemed to have been paid up to the extent so underwritten on the date when the issue of such shares was underwritten (or, if such underwriting was conditional, the date on which it became unconditional);
- (B) any variation since the date of the relevant balance sheet of the companies comprising the group;

(iv) excluding (so far as not already excluded):

- (A) amounts attributable to the proportion of the issued equity share capital of any subsidiary undertaking which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;
- (B) any sum set aside for taxation (other than deferred taxation);
- (C) the effect on the reserves of the company of any surplus or any deficit in the funding of any retirement benefit scheme which would otherwise be reflected in accordance with any applicable accounting standards;

(v) deducting:

- (A) sums equivalent to the book values of goodwill and other intangible assets shown in the relevant balance sheet; and
 - (B) the amount of any distribution declared, recommended or made by any group company to a person other than a group company out of profits accrued up to and including the date of (and not provided for in) the relevant balance sheet;
- (vi) making such other adjustments as the company's auditors, after consulting with the company, consider appropriate;
- (b) cash deposited means an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts beneficially owned by group companies which are deposited for the time being with any bank or other person (not being a group company) and which are repayable to any group company on demand or within three months of such demand, subject, in the case of amounts deposited by a partly-owned subsidiary undertaking, to the exclusion of a proportion thereof equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;
- (c) group means the company and its subsidiary undertakings from time to time;
- (d) group company means any company in the group;
- (e) moneys borrowed include not only moneys borrowed but also the following except in so far as otherwise taken into account:
- (i) the nominal amount of any issued share capital, and the principal amount of any debenture or borrowings of, any person, the beneficial interest in which or right to repayment to which is not for the time being owned by a group company but the payment or repayment of which is the subject of a guarantee or indemnity by a group company or is secured on the assets of a group company;
 - (ii) the principal amount raised by any group company by acceptances or under any acceptance credit opened on its behalf by any bank or acceptance house (not being a group company) other than acceptances and acceptance credits relating to the purchase of goods or services in the ordinary course of trading and outstanding for six months or less;
 - (iii) the principal amount of any debenture (whether secured or unsecured) of any group company owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (iv) the principal amount of any preference share capital of any subsidiary undertaking owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (v) any fixed or minimum premium payable on final repayment of any borrowing or deemed borrowing (but any premium payable on final repayment of an amount not to be taken into account as moneys borrowed shall not be taken into account); and

but do not include:

- (vi) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of repaying, within six months of being first borrowed, the whole or any part of any moneys borrowed and then outstanding (including any premium payable on final repayment) of that or any other group company pending their application for such purpose within that period;

- (vii) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of financing any contract in respect of which any part of the price receivable under the contract by that or any other group company is guaranteed or insured, up to an amount equal to that part of the price receivable under the contract which is so guaranteed or insured;
- (viii) an amount equal to the moneys borrowed of any company outstanding immediately after it becomes a group company, provided that it became a group company during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (ix) an amount equal to the amount secured on an asset immediately after it was acquired by a group company, provided that it was acquired during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (x) notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (i) to (v) above, the proportion of moneys borrowed by a group company (and not owing to another group company) which is equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;

and in sub-paragraphs (vi) to (x) above references to amounts of moneys borrowed include references to amounts which, but for the exclusion under those sub-paragraphs, would fall to be included;

- (f) relevant balance sheet means the latest published audited consolidated balance sheet of the group but, where the company has no subsidiary undertakings, it means the balance sheet and profit and loss account of the company and, where the company has subsidiary undertakings but there are no consolidated accounts of the group, it means the respective balance sheets of the companies comprising the group;
- (g) subsidiary undertaking means a subsidiary undertaking (within the meaning of CA 2006) of the company (except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation by virtue of the provisions of section 229 CA 1985 or section 405 CA 2006); and group and group company and references to any company which becomes a group company or to companies comprising the group shall, in such a case, be construed so as to include subsidiary undertakings except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation as aforesaid and equity share capital shall be construed in relation to a subsidiary undertaking without a share capital in the same manner as shares are defined in relation to an undertaking without a share capital under section 259(2)(b) and (c) CA 1985 or section 1161(2) CA 2006.

118.4 When the aggregate amount of moneys borrowed required to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 118 on any particular day is being ascertained, any of such moneys denominated or repayable in a currency other than sterling shall be converted for the purpose of calculating the sterling equivalent either:

- (a) at the rate of exchange used for the conversion of that currency in the relevant balance sheet; or

- (b) if no rate was so used, at the middle market rate of exchange prevailing at the close of business in London on the date of that balance sheet; or
- (c) where the repayment of such moneys is expressly covered by a forward purchase contract, currency option, back-to-back loan, swap or other arrangements taken out and entered into to reduce the risk associated with fluctuations in exchange rates, at the rate of exchange specified in that document

but if the amount in sterling resulting from conversion at that rate would be greater than that resulting from conversion at the middle market rate prevailing in London at the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day on which the calculation falls to be made, the latter rate shall apply instead.

- 118.5 A report or certificate of the auditors as to the amount of the adjusted capital and reserves or the amount of moneys borrowed falling to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 118 or to the effect that the limit imposed by this article 118 has not been or will not be exceeded at any particular time or times or as a result of any particular transaction or transactions shall be conclusive evidence of the amount or of that fact.
- 118.6 No debt incurred or security given in respect of moneys borrowed in excess of the limit imposed by this article 118 shall be invalid or ineffectual, except in the case of express notice to the lender or recipient of the security at the time when the debt was incurred or security given that the limit had been or would thereby be exceeded, but no lender or other person dealing with the company shall be concerned to see or enquire whether such limit is observed.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

119 Board meetings

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the board may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

120 Notice of board meetings

One director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, summon a board meeting at any time on reasonable notice. Notice of a board meeting shall be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to him at his last known address or any other address given by him to the company for that purpose. A director may waive the requirement that notice be given to him of any board meeting, either prospectively or retrospectively. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a board meeting to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom unless he has requested the board in writing that notices of board meetings shall during his absence be given to him at any address in the United Kingdom notified to the company for this purpose, but he shall not, in such event, be entitled to a longer period of notice than if he had been present in the United Kingdom at that address.

121 Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business may be determined by the board and until otherwise determined shall be two directors. A duly convened meeting of the board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board.

122 Chairman of the board

The board may appoint one or more of its body chairman or joint chairman and one or more of its body deputy chairman of its meetings and may determine the period for which he is or they are to hold office and may at any time remove him or them from office. If no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected, or if at any meeting neither a chairman nor a deputy chairman is present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting. Any chairman or deputy chairman may also hold executive office under the company.

123 Voting

Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of that meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

124 Participation by telephone or video conference

124.1 Any director or his alternate may validly participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board through the medium of conference telephone, video conferencing link or any other form of communications equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting, or by a series of telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting.

124.2 A person so participating by being present or being in telephone or video conference or any other form of communication with those in the meeting or with the chairman of the meeting shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no group which is larger than any other group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

124.3 A resolution passed at any meeting held in the above manner, and signed by the chairman of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be) duly convened and held.

125 Resolution of the directors in writing

A resolution in writing signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a board meeting and not being less than a quorum, or by all the members of a committee of the board for the time being entitled to receive notice of such committee meeting and not being less than a quorum of that committee, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be). Such a resolution:

- (a) may consist of several copies of a document (each signed by one or more of the directors or members of the relevant committee, including signatures evidenced by means of facsimile transmission), which copies may be transmitted by electronic means, in which event, subject to any terms and conditions determined from time to time by the board, no signatures shall be required;
- (b) need not be signed by an alternate director if it is signed by the director who appointed him;
- (c) if signed by an alternate director, need not also be signed by his appointor;

- (d) to be effective, need not be signed by a director who is prohibited by these articles from voting thereon, or by his alternate.

126 Proceedings of committees

All committees of the board shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated to them and in the transaction of business, conform with any mode of proceedings and regulations which the board may prescribe and subject thereto shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board as are capable of applying.

127 Minutes of proceedings

127.1 The board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of recording:

- (a) all appointments of officers and committees made by the board; and
- (b) the names of directors present at every meeting of the board, of a committee of the board, of the company or of the holders of any class of shares or debentures of the company, and all orders, resolutions and proceedings of such meetings.

127.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting or the secretary, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes without any further proof.

128 Validity of proceedings

All acts done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee of the board, or by any person acting as a director, alternate director or member of a committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any person or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were or was disqualified from holding office or not entitled to vote, or had in any way vacated their or his office, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was duly qualified and had continued to be a director, alternate director or member of a committee and entitled to vote.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

129 Directors' power to authorise conflict situations

129.1 For the purposes of section 175 of CA 2006, the directors shall have the power to authorise, on such terms (including as regards duration and revocation), and subject to such limits or conditions, if any, as they may determine, any matter proposed to them in accordance with these articles which would or might, if not so authorised, constitute or give rise to a situation (a Relevant Situation) in which a director (an Interested Director) has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the company could take advantage of it). Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation pursuant to this article 129 shall extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Relevant Situation so authorised.

129.2 Where directors give authority under article 129.1:

- (a) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and

- (b) the directors may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

129.3 Any such authorisation will be effective only if:

- (a) at the meeting of the directors at which the Relevant Situation is considered any requirement as to quorum is met without counting the Interested Director; and
- (b) the authorisation was agreed to without any Interested Director voting, or would have been agreed to if the votes of all Interested Directors had not been counted.

129.4 Subject to article 129.3(b), any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a Relevant Situation shall be dealt with in the same way as that in which any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors.

129.5 For the purposes of this article 129, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

129.6 An Interested Director shall be obliged:

- (a) to disclose to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in any Relevant Situation, such disclosure to be made as soon as reasonably practicable; and
- (b) to act in accordance with any terms, limits or conditions determined by the directors under article 129.1.

129.7 Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation given by the directors under article 129.1 may provide that:

- (a) where the Interested Director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the company or to use it in relation to the company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (b) where the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest in a matter which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, he may absent himself from the discussion of such matter at any meeting of the directors and be excused from reviewing papers prepared by or for the directors to the extent that they relate to that matter; and
- (c) the Interested Director be excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at directors' meetings or otherwise) related to the matter which the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, and anything done (or omitted to be done) by the Interested Director in accordance with any such provision (or otherwise in accordance with the terms of any authorisation given under Article 129.1) will not constitute a breach by him of his duties under sections 172 to 174 CA 2006.

130 Director may have interests

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and provided that article 131 is complied with, a director, notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may enter into or otherwise be interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested, either in regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (b) may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (except that of auditor or of auditor of a subsidiary of the company) in conjunction with the office of director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the company, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the board may arrange, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration provided for by any other article;
- (c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested or as regards which the company has any powers of appointment; and
- (d) shall not be liable to account to the company for any profit, remuneration or other benefit which he derives from:
 - (i) any such office, employment, contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal; or
 - (ii) from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been authorised by the directors pursuant to article 129 (subject, in any such case, to any terms, limits or conditions to which such authorisation was subject), and no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal as is referred to in this article 130 shall be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit and the receipt by a director of any such remuneration or other benefit shall not constitute a breach of his duties under section 176 CA 2006.

131 Disclosure of interests to board

131.1 A director who, to his knowledge, is in any way (directly or indirectly) interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the board at which the question of entering into the contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal is first considered, if he knows his interest then exists or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the board after he knows that he is or has become so interested.

131.2 For the purposes of this article and article 129:

- (a) a general notice given to the board by a director that he is to be regarded as having an interest (of the nature and extent specified in the notice) in any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure under this article in relation to such contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal; and
- (b) an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

131.3 A director need not declare an interest pursuant to article 131.1, or in order to take advantage of article 129, if:

- (a) it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- (b) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
- (c) if, or to the extent that, it concerns terms of his service contract that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors or by a committee of the directors appointed for the purpose under the company's constitution.

132 Interested director not to vote or count for quorum

Save as provided in this article, a director shall not vote on, or be counted in the quorum in relation to, any resolution of the board or of a committee of the board concerning any contract, arrangement, transaction or any other proposal whatsoever to which the company is or is to be a party and in which he has an interest which (together with any interest of any person connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) is to his knowledge a material interest otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of or otherwise in or through the company, unless the resolution concerns any of the following matters:

- (a) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;
- (d) any proposal concerning any other body corporate in which he (together with persons connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) does not to his knowledge have an interest in one per cent or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of such body corporate;
- (e) any proposal relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates; or
- (f) any proposal concerning insurance which the company proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors; and

- (g) any proposal concerning any arrangement to be entered into by the company for the provision of any indemnity in favour of any other current or former director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in respect of liabilities incurred by any such person in the course of his office or employment with the company or any such subsidiary undertaking (notwithstanding the fact that such director may also be provided with an indemnity on equivalent terms).

133 Director's interest in own appointment

A director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the board or committee of the board concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of his appointment or its termination) as the holder of any office or place of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment or its termination) of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested, such proposals may be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each director. In such case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under these articles) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

134 Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of a director's interest (other than the chairman's interest) or as to the entitlement of any director (other than the chairman) to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The chairman's ruling in relation to the director concerned shall be final and conclusive.

135 Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of the chairman's interest or as to the entitlement of the chairman to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be decided by resolution of the directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the chairman), whose majority vote shall be final and conclusive.

136 Connected persons

For the purposes of articles 129 to 135 (which shall apply equally to alternate directors) an interest of a person who is for the purposes of the statutes connected (which word shall have the meaning given to it by section 252 CA 2006) with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director.

SEALS

137 Safe custody

The board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, the securities seal and of any other seal of the company.

138 Application of seals

- 138.1 The seal shall be used only by the authority of a resolution of the board or of a committee of the board so authorised, which resolution may include a resolution for the giving of a general authority to any director, the secretary, an assistant secretary or other officer of the company to affix the seal from time to time. The board may determine whether any instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed and, if it is to be signed, who shall sign it and by what means. The board may also determine, either generally or in a particular case, that a signature may be dispensed with or affixed by mechanical, electronic or other means.
- 138.2 Every certificate or share warrant shall be issued either:
- (a) by affixing the securities seal to it, by mechanical, electronic or other means;
 - (b) by printing a representation of the securities seal on it, by mechanical, electronic or other means, including laser printing; or
 - (c) in such other manner as the board, having regard to the statutes and the regulations of the London Stock Exchange, may authorise.

139 Official seal for use abroad

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may have an official seal for use in any place abroad.

THE SECRETARY

140 The secretary

- 140.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board shall appoint a secretary or joint secretaries and shall have power to appoint one or more persons to be an assistant or deputy secretary at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and any such person so appointed may be removed by the board.
- 140.2 If the office of secretary is vacant, or if for any reason the secretary is incapable of acting, anything required or authorised by the statutes or these articles to be done by the secretary may be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary, or if there is no assistant or deputy secretary, by any officer of the company authorised either generally or specifically by the board in that regard.
- 140.3 Any provision of the statutes or of these articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

141 Power to authenticate

Any director or the secretary or any person appointed for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the company and any resolutions passed by the company or the directors or any committee of the directors, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts. Where any books, records, documents or accounts are elsewhere than at the office the local manager or other officer of the company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the directors as aforesaid. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the company or of the directors or any committee of the directors which is certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that such minutes or extract is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

142 Declaration of dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends to be paid to members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits of the company. However, no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board and no dividend shall be paid in respect of any shares held by the company as treasury shares.

143 Interim dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may declare and pay such interim dividends (including any dividend payable at a fixed rate) as appear to the board to be justified by the profits of the company available for distribution. If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into different classes, the board may pay such interim dividends to the holders of shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrear. Provided that the board acts in good faith, it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by the lawful payment of any interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights.

144 Entitlement to dividends

Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the shares on which the dividend is paid. Subject as aforesaid, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

145 Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends

The board may deduct from any dividend or other money payable to any person on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.

146 Distribution in specie

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company, direct that payment of any dividend declared may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular, the board may:

- (a) issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions);
- (b) fix the value for distribution of such assets or any part thereof and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (c) vest any such assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

147 Dividends not to bear interest

Unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share, no dividend or other moneys payable by the company or in respect of a share shall bear interest as against the company.

148 Method of payment

148.1 The company may pay any dividend, interest or other sum payable in respect of a share in cash or by direct debit, bank transfer, cheque, dividend warrant, or money order, by any method provided by the rules of a relevant system, or by any other method (including by electronic media) as the board may consider appropriate and may send the same by post or other delivery service (or by such other means offered by the company as the member or persons entitled to it may agree in writing) to the registered address (or in the case of a depositary, subject to the approval of the board, such persons and addresses as the depositary may require) of the member or person entitled to it (or, if two or more persons are holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the member or otherwise by operation of law, to the registered address of such of those persons as is first named in the register) or to such person and such address as such member or person or persons may direct in writing.

148.2 Every cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented by it, shall (where relevant) be crossed in accordance with the Cheques Act 1992 and shall be made payable to the person or persons entitled, or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may direct in writing. Payment of the cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment shall be a good discharge to the company. If any such cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment has or shall be alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the board may, at the request of the person entitled thereto, issue a replacement cheque or warrant or order or make payment in some other form, subject to compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the company in connection with the request as the board may think fit.

148.3 Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share may give an effective receipt for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of such share.

148.4 The board may, at its discretion, make provisions to enable a depositary and/or any member as the board shall from time to time determine to receive duly declared dividends in a currency or currencies other than sterling. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such rate or rates and the payment thereof shall be on such terms and conditions as the board may in its absolute discretion determine.

149 Uncashed dividends

If cheques, warrants or orders for dividends or other sums payable in respect of a share sent by the company to the person entitled thereto are returned to the company or left uncashed on two consecutive occasions or, following one occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address to be used for the purpose, the company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of that share due to that person until he notifies the company of an address to be used for the purpose.

150 Unclaimed dividends

All dividends, interest or other sum payable and unclaimed for twelve months after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the board for the benefit of the company until claimed and the company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for a period of twelve years after having been declared or become due for payment shall (if the board so resolves) be forfeited and shall cease to remain owing by the company.

151 Payment of share dividends

The board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution of the company and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may determine, offer to any holders of ordinary shares (excluding any ordinary share held as a treasury share) the right to elect to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The following provisions shall apply:

- (a) the said resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period or periods;
- (b) the entitlement of each holder of ordinary shares to new ordinary shares shall be such that the relevant value of the entitlement shall be as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder would have received by way of dividend. For this purpose "relevant value" shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the ordinary shares on the London Stock Exchange, as derived from the Daily Official List, for the day on which the ordinary shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in such other manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution. A certificate or report by the auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount;
- (c) no fractions of a share shall be allotted. The board may make such provisions as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlements including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, the benefit thereof accrues to the company and/or under which fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained and in each case accumulated on behalf of any member and such accruals or retentions are applied to the allotment by way of bonus to or cash subscription on behalf of such member of fully paid ordinary shares and/or provisions whereby cash payments may be made to members in respect of their fractional entitlements;
- (d) the board shall, after determining the basis of allotment, notify the holders of ordinary shares in writing of the right of election offered to them, and specify the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections must be lodged in order to be effective;
- (e) the board may exclude from any offer any holders of ordinary shares or any ordinary shares held by a depository or any ordinary shares on which dividends are payable in foreign currency where the board considers that the making of the offer to them or in respect of such shares would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them or in respect of such shares;

- (f) the board may establish or vary from time to time a procedure for election mandates in respect of future rights of election and may determine that every duly effected election in respect of any ordinary shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the holder thereof;
- (g) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on ordinary shares in respect of which an election has been duly made (the elected ordinary shares) and instead additional ordinary shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose the board may capitalise, out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve) or of any of the profits which could otherwise have been applied in paying dividends in cash as the board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on that basis. A board resolution capitalising any part of such reserve or fund or profits shall have the same effect as if such capitalisation had been declared by ordinary resolution of the company in accordance with article 153 and in relation to any such capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on them by article 153 without need of such ordinary resolution;
- (h) the additional ordinary shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with each other and with the fully paid ordinary shares in issue on the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered, except that they will not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement which has been declared, paid or made by reference to such record date; and
- (i) the board may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive ordinary shares in lieu of any cash dividend at any time and generally may implement any share dividend scheme on such terms and conditions as the board may from time to time determine and take such other action as the board may deem necessary or desirable from time to time in respect of any such scheme.

152 Reserves

The board may, before recommending any dividend (whether preferential or otherwise), carry to reserve out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit. All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time, at the discretion of the board, for any purpose to which the profits of the company may properly be applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments as the board thinks fit. The board may divide the reserve into such special funds as it thinks fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as it thinks fit. Any sum which the board may carry to reserve out of the unrealised profits of the company shall not be mixed with any reserve to which profits available for distribution have been carried. The board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute.

153 Capitalisation of reserves

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company:

- (a) subject as provided in this article, resolve to capitalise any undivided profits of the company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the company which is available for distribution or standing to the credit of share premium account or capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve;
- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the holders of shares in proportion to the nominal amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were then distributable and were distributed by way of dividend, and unless the relevant resolution specifies otherwise, if on the relevant record date the company holds as treasury shares any shares of the same class as those whose holders would be entitled to receive such notional distribution, then the company is to be treated as if it were entitled to receive such distribution in respect of those treasury shares as would have been payable if a person other than the company had held those treasury shares;
- (c) apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those holders of shares or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that:
 - (i) the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, any other undistributable reserve and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this article, only be applied in paying up unissued shares to be allotted to holders of shares credited as fully paid; and
 - (ii) in a case where any sum is applied in paying amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares of the company or in paying up in full debentures of the company, the amount of the net assets of the company at that time is not less than the aggregate of the called up share capital of the company and its undistributable reserves as shown in the latest audited accounts of the company or such other accounts as may be relevant and would not be reduced below that aggregate by the payment thereof;
- (d) resolve that any shares so allotted to any member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as such shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that such partly paid shares rank for dividends;
- (e) make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates (or by ignoring fractions or by accruing the benefit thereof to the company rather than to the holders of shares concerned) or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions;
- (f) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the holders of ordinary shares concerned into an agreement with the company providing for either:

- (i) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares or debentures to which they may be entitled on such capitalisation; or
- (ii) the payment up by the company on behalf of such holders by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares

(any agreement made under such authority being effective and binding on all such holders); and

- (g) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution.

154 Record dates

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles but without prejudice to the rights attached to any shares and subject always to the statutes the company or the board may by resolution specify any date (the record date) as the date at the close of business (or such other time as the board may determine) on which persons registered as the holders of shares or other securities shall be entitled to receipt of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment, issue, notice, information, document or circular and such record date may be on or at any time before the date on which the same is paid, made, given or served or (in the case of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment or issue) at any time after the same is recommended, resolved, declared or announced but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of the same of transferors and transferees of any such shares or other securities. No change in the register of such holders after the record date shall invalidate the same.

ACCOUNTS

155 Accounting records

The board shall cause accounting records to be kept in accordance with the statutes.

156 Inspection of records

No member (other than a director) shall have any right to inspect any accounting record or other document of the company unless he is authorised to do so by statute, by order of the court, by the board or by ordinary resolution of the company.

157 Accounts to be sent to members

Except as provided in article 158, a printed copy of the directors' and auditors' reports accompanied by printed copies of the annual accounts shall, not less than twenty one clear days before the general meeting before which they are to be laid, be delivered or sent by post to every member and holder of debentures of the company and to the auditors and to every other person who is entitled to receive notice of general meetings. However, this article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person who under the provisions of these articles is not entitled to receive notices from the company or of whose address the company is unaware or to any holder of debentures of whose address the company is unaware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures. If and to the extent permitted by the statutes, all or any of such documents may be delivered to a member by electronic means. If all or any of the shares in or debentures of the company are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, there shall at the same time be forwarded to the secretary of that stock exchange such number of copies of each of those documents as the regulations of that stock exchange may require.

158 Summary financial statements

The company may, in accordance with section 426 CA 2006 and any regulations made under it, send (including, to the extent permitted by the statutes, by electronic means or made available on a website) a summary financial statement to any member instead of or in addition to the documents referred to in article 157. Where it does so, the statement shall be delivered or sent by post to the member not less than twenty one clear days before the annual general meeting before which those documents are to be laid.

NOTICES

159 Notices to be in writing

Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to these articles shall be in writing, except that a notice convening a board or board committee meeting need not be in writing.

160 Service of notice on members

160.1 The company may give any notice, document or information to a member:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post or other delivery service in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address or by any other means, authorised in writing by the member concerned;
- (c) by electronic means to an address authorised in writing by the member concerned; or
- (d) by making it available on a website provided that the company has notified such member that the notice, document or information is so available by giving notice in the manner specified in any of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this article 160.1.

In the case of a member registered on an overseas branch register any such, document or information which is posted may be posted either in the United Kingdom or in the territory in which such branch register is maintained.

160.2 In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices or documents shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders. Where there are joint holders of a share, anything which needs to be agreed or specified in relation to any notice, document or other information to be sent or supplied to them can be agreed or specified by any one of the joint holders. The agreement or specification of the joint holder whose name stands earliest in the register will be accepted to the exclusion of the agreement or specification of any other joint holder(s) whose name(s) stand later in the register.

160.3 Where a member (or, in the case of joint holders, the person first named in the register) has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has notified the company of an address within the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to him, he shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address or, where applicable, to be notified at that address of the availability of the notice, documents or other information on a website. Alternatively, a member whose registered address is outside the United Kingdom can give the company an address for the purposes of communications in electronic form. If he does, notices, documents or other information may (at the company's absolute discretion), subject to these articles, be sent or supplied to him at that address. Otherwise, no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice or document from the company.

- 160.4 If on three consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any member at his registered address or his address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such member shall not thereafter be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the company until he shall have communicated with the company and supplied in writing a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom for the service of notices.
- 160.5 The provisions of this article 160 and of articles 161 to 165 do not affect any provision of the statutes or these articles requiring notices or documents to be delivered in a particular manner.
- 160.6 Where a member authorises the company to serve notices, documents or information on that member by electronic means, if the company receives an immediate electronic notification that such electronic mail address has ceased to be maintained, the company shall serve such notices, documents or information on the shareholder by such other means as may be permitted in accordance with article 160.1.

161 Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder

The company may give notice to the person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law, by sending or delivering it in any manner authorised by these articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to that person by name, or by the title of representative of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt or representative by operation of law or by any like description, at the address (if any) within the United Kingdom supplied for the purpose by the person claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been so supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy or operation of law had not occurred.

162 Evidence of service

- 162.1 Any member present, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the company or of the holders of any class of shares of the company shall be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting, and, where requisite, of the purposes for which such meeting was called.
- 162.2 Any notice, certificate or other document, addressed to a member at his registered address or address for service in the United Kingdom shall, if sent by post, be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day after the day when it was put in the post (or, where second class mail is employed, on the second day after the day when it was put in the post). Proof that an envelope containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post as a pre-paid letter shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Any notice, certificate or other document not sent by post but delivered or left at a registered address, or address for service in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day on which it was so delivered or left. Any notice, document or information sent by electronic means shall be deemed to be delivered on the day it was sent even if the company subsequently sends a hard copy of such notice, document or other information by post. Any notice, document or information made available on a website shall be treated as being delivered when the material was first made available on the website, or if later, when the recipient received (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.

162.3 In calculating the number of days referred to in article 162.2 for deemed receipt of a notice, certificate or other document, non working days shall be included within the relevant time period.

163 Notice binding on transferees

Every person who, by operation of law, transfers or by any other means becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share (other than a notice given by the company under section 793 CA 2006) which, before his name is entered in the register, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title.

164 Notice by advertisement

Any notice to be given by the company to the members or any of them, and not otherwise provided for by these articles, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement first appears.

165 Suspension of postal services

If at any time by reason of the suspension, interruption or curtailment of postal services or electronic form of communications or threat thereof within the United Kingdom the company is or would be unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post or by electronic means, a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Such notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on all members entitled thereto at noon on the day on which the first of such advertisements appears. In any such case the company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice by post or by electronic means if, at least seven days prior to the meeting, the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom or, as the case may be, the sending of such notices by electronic means again becomes practicable.

166 Service of notices on the company

Subject to the statutes, articles 160.1 and 162.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the service by members of notices and documents on the company, save that any notice, certificate (but not a share certificate) or document sent by electronic means to the company shall be deemed to have been served or delivered at the time it is actually received by the company.

WINDING UP

167 Division of assets

If the company is wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. Any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members, but if any division is resolved otherwise than in accordance with such rights, the members shall have the same right of dissent and consequential rights as if such resolution were a special resolution passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees on such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the like sanction shall determine, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets on which there is a liability.

168 Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 1986

A special resolution sanctioning a transfer or sale to another company duly passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986 may in the like manner authorise the distribution of any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidator among the members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights, and any such determination shall be binding on all the members, subject to the right of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the said section.

INDEMNITY

169 Indemnity and insurance

169.1 As far as the statutes allow this, the company:

- (a) can indemnify any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company against any liability; and
- (b) can purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company.

169.2 A director of the company or of any associated company will not be accountable to the company or the shareholders for any benefit provided pursuant to this article 169. Anyone receiving such a benefit will not be disqualified from being or becoming a director of the company.

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

5. The memorandum of association and articles of association of United Utilities Group

No. 6559020

PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES GROUP PLC

-
- 1 The company's name is UNITED UTILITIES GROUP PLC.
 - 2 The company is to be a public company.
 - 3 The company's registered office is to be situated in England and Wales.
 - 4 The company's objects are:
 - (a)
 - (i) To carry on the business of a holding company and to co-ordinate and regulate the activities and businesses of subsidiary and associated companies for the time being and the financing of the companies.
 - (ii) To acquire and hold either in the name of the company or in that of any nominee shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever issued, created or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in any part of the world or by any government, sovereign ruler, commissioners, public body or authority, supreme, dependent, municipal, local or otherwise in any part of the world.
 - (iii) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments by original subscription, contract, tender, purchase, exchange, participation in syndicates or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to subscribe for the same subject to such terms and conditions (if any) as may be thought fit.
 - (iv) To exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incidental to the ownership of any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, notes, securities, obligations and investments.
 - (v) To provide any form of capital for and take part in the formation, management, supervision or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking and for such purposes to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants or other experts, advisers or agents and to act as agents for and to manage supervise or control and provide services to the business, property or operations of any person, company or undertaking, or any property in which the company may be interested.

- (b) To carry on the business of the planning, provision, operation, development, maintenance, improvement and extension of utility services of every description, including those relating to water, wastewater, electricity, gas and telecommunications systems.
- (c) To carry on business as a general commercial company.
- (d) To carry on all or any of the businesses of inspectors, maintainers, repairers, reconditioners, cleaners, clearers, servicers, coaters, designers, developers, manufacturers, constructors, installers, layers, fitters, hirers, letters on hire, suppliers, distributors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, mains, sewers, drains, pipes, pipelines, equipment ancillary to the operation or use of any of them, installations and facilities of all kinds, tools and machinery of every description, plumbing, engineering and other equipment, plant, components, accessories and supplies of every description.
- (e) To carry on all or any of the businesses of consultants, advisers and suppliers of management, personnel and training services, whether generally or in respect of one or more of the types of business or activity which the company has power to carry on, and to provide training and educational courses, instruction and materials, of every description, for employees of the company and for other persons.
- (f) To carry on all or any of the businesses of, and provide services associated with, plumbers, engineers (including, without limitation, water, sewerage, mechanical, gas, electrical, heating, ventilation, civil construction, chemical and telecommunications engineers), mechanics, technicians, geologists, draughtsmen, designers, surveyors, architects, builders, painters and decorators.
- (g) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, developers and promoters of recreational, sporting and leisure services, facilities and activities, whether or not connected with the use of water or land associated with water.
- (h) To carry on all or any of the businesses of bankers, financiers, factors, debt collectors, dealers in securities, underwriters, insurers, brokers of any kinds, storage contractors, freight contractors, carriers by land, water and air of freight and passengers, forwarding agents, shipping agents and agents of any other kind.
- (i) To carry on all or any of the businesses of developers of, and dealers in, property, real or personal, and interests and rights in such property, and of estate agents.
- (j) To carry on all or any of the businesses of running, operating, managing, supplying, servicing, repairing and dealing in:
 - (i) telecommunication systems, systems of other kinds for the conveyance by any means of sounds, visual images and signals; and
 - (ii) data processing and information retrieval systems, computers, computer programs and software, computer bureaux and databases, and services, facilities and equipment ancillary to, or for use in connection with, any of the same.

- (k) To carry on all or any of the businesses of nurserymen, gardeners, landscapers and funeral undertakers.
- (l) To provide and supply laboratory, scientific, biological, biochemical, technological, analytical and environmental services of all kinds.
- (m) To carry on all or any of the businesses of suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, producers, processors, importers and exporters of, and dealers in, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, fertilisers, compost and foodstuffs.
- (n) To carry on business as inventors, researchers and developers, to conduct, promote and commission research and development in connection with the activities of the company and its subsidiaries, to establish and maintain research stations, laboratories, workshops, testing and proving grounds, facilities and establishments and installations and to exploit and turn to account the results of any research and development carried out by or for it.
- (o) To invent, design, develop, construct, manufacture, produce, erect, assemble, test, alter, install, maintain, repair, renovate, refurbish, recondition, utilise, operate, manage, purchase, sell, hire, hire out, import, export, supply and otherwise deal in all kinds of equipment, apparatus, plant, machinery, appliances, articles, furniture, things, accessories, components, fittings, tools, materials, substances, products, systems, computers, computer programs and software which are required or are likely to be required by the company for the purposes of, or in connection with, any of its businesses, or by other persons, or which in the opinion of the directors may be conveniently or advantageously dealt with by the company in connection or association with any of its objects or the objects of any of its subsidiaries.
- (p) To purchase, charter, lease, take or let on hire, operate, use, employ or turn to account, build, equip, service, repair, maintain, supply and deal in ships and vessels and craft of every description (including, without limitation, submersible craft), hovercraft, motor vehicles, aircraft, airships, railway locomotives, wagons, trucks and any means of transport and parts and accessories of all kinds for any of the same.
- (q) To enter into, carry on and participate in financial transactions and operations of all kinds and to undertake, carry on and execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, trust, agency and other operations, including, without limitation, acting as agents for the collection, receipt or payment of money.
- (r) To establish, acquire, produce, transmit, broadcast, publish, print and reproduce in any form whatsoever (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, visual or audible form and forms capable of being used by, in, or in connection with, computers), and to buy, sell, supply and otherwise deal in brochures, manuals, journals, periodicals, magazines, newspapers, books, pictures, photographs, stationery and other documents, sound and visual recordings, tapes, films, and programmes for radio, television, cinema and other means of communication.

- (s) To carry on any other business or activity which the directors consider is, or may be capable of being carried on directly or indirectly for the benefit of the company.
- (t) To acquire by any means and hold and deal with any real or personal property or rights whatsoever and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and hold any real property and any estate or interest in such property, including, without limitation any lands, buildings, installations, structures, servitudes, easements, rights, privileges and concessions and to exploit and develop the same.
- (u) To explore for, acquire and exploit natural resources, lands, claims, wells, mines, minerals, mineral, drilling and mining rights, exploration and production rights, and interests of all descriptions in or relating to the same.
- (v) To further the conservation, enhancement and appreciation of features of the natural and physical environment.
- (w) To acquire by any means the whole or any part of the assets, and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities, of any person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business which the company is authorised to carry on or which can be carried on in connection with any such business, and to acquire an interest in, amalgamate or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for mutual assistance, with any such person and to give or accept, for any of the acts or things aforesaid or property acquired, such consideration as the company thinks fit, including, without limitation, any shares, whether fully or partly paid up, debentures, or other securities or rights.
- (x) To apply for and take out, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, patent rights, inventions, secret processes, designs, copyrights, trade marks, service marks, commercial names and designations, know-how, formulae, licences, concessions and the like (and any interest in any of them) or any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to, any invention or secret process of any kind and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account or deal with, the property, rights or information so acquired.
- (y) To subscribe for, underwrite, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, and deal with, any shares, stocks, debentures, bonds, notes and other securities, obligations and other investments of any nature whatsoever and any options or rights in respect of them; and otherwise to invest and deal with the money and assets of the company.
- (z) To borrow or raise money or secure or discharge any debt or obligation (whether of the company or of any other person) in such manner as the company thinks fit and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) by the creation or issue, upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the company thinks fit, of securities of any kind or mortgages or charges (fixed or floating) founded or based upon all or any part of the undertaking, property, assets and rights (present and future) of the company, including its uncalled capital, or without any such security; and to receive money on deposit and advance payments with or without allowance of interest thereon.

- (aa) To enter into any guarantee, contract of indemnity or suretyship and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) to guarantee, support or secure, with or without consideration, whether by personal obligation or by mortgaging or charging all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company or by both such methods or in any other manner, the performance of any contracts, obligations or commitments of, and the repayment or payment of the principal amounts of and any premiums, interest, dividends and other moneys payable on or in respect of any securities or liabilities of, any person, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any company which is a subsidiary or a holding company of the company or another subsidiary of a holding company of the company or otherwise associated with the company and whether or not any consideration or advantage is received by the company.
- (bb) To advance, lend or deposit money, and to give credit or financial accommodation to any person on such terms as may be thought fit by the company.
- (cc) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, negotiate, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
- (dd) To accept securities of any person or any property or interest therein of whatsoever nature in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale or supply made to, or debt owing from, any such person.
- (ee) To insure any property, asset, matter or interest and against any potential liability or loss of the company or of any other person and the life or health of any person for the benefit of the company.
- (ff) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for partnership or joint working or joint venture in business or for the sharing of profits or for amalgamation with any other person.
- (gg) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, privilege, concession, licence, appointment, consent, or authorisation of any government, state, municipality, minister, department, local authority, or other authority or public body for enabling the company to carry any of its objects into effect or for extending any of the company's powers or for effecting any modification of the company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any actions, steps, proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the interests of the company or of its members.

- (hh) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities (national, municipal, local, international, or otherwise), or any corporations, companies, public bodies, or persons that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government, authority, corporation, company, body or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions.
- (ii) To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities, and bonuses to present and former directors, officers and employees of the company or of any subsidiary of the company or the dependants of such persons, and for that purpose to establish, maintain, administer and contribute to any pension or superannuation funds and to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of welfare, sports and social facilities, any educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or trade societies, whether or not such societies be connected with the trade carried on by the company or by any subsidiary of the company, and any club or other establishment or profit sharing scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or any subsidiary of the company and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects calculated to promote the interests of the company, its employees, former employees and their respective families and dependants.
- (jj) To purchase, establish and maintain and or participate in or contribute to the cost of insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or were at any time directors, officers or employees of the company, or of any other company which is its holding company or the subsidiary or subsidiary undertaking of the company or of any such holding company, or who are or were at any time trustees of any pension fund in which any employees or former employees of the company or of any such other companies as aforesaid are beneficiaries or otherwise interested, including insurance against any liability incurred by such persons in relation howsoever to any act or omission in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of the duties of any such person and/or in the exercise or purported exercise of the powers of any such person and/or otherwise in relation to the company or any other such companies as aforesaid or such pension fund and to the extent permitted by law to indemnify or to exempt any such person from or against such liability.
- (kk) To establish, maintain, manage, support and contribute to any schemes for the acquisition of shares in the company or its holding company by or for the benefit of any individuals who are or were at any time in the employment of, or directors or officers of:
- (i) the company;
 - (ii) any company which is or was its holding company or is or was a subsidiary of the company or any such holding company; or
 - (iii) any other company or former company connected or associated in any way with the company or with the whole or any part of its undertaking, and to lend money to any such individuals to enable them to acquire shares in the company or in its holding company and to establish, maintain, manage and support (financially or otherwise) any schemes for sharing profits of the company or any other such company as aforesaid with any such individuals.

- (ll) To subscribe or contribute (in cash or in kind) to, and to promote or sponsor, any charitable, benevolent or useful object of a public character or any object which may in the opinion of the company be likely directly or indirectly to further the interests of the company, its employees or its members.
- (mm) To pay and discharge all or any expenses, costs and disbursements, to pay commissions and to remunerate any person for services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the formation, promotion and flotation of the company and the underwriting or placing or issue at any time of any securities of the company or of any other person.
- (nn) To issue, allot and grant options over securities of the company for cash or otherwise or in payment or part payment for any real or personal property or rights therein purchased or otherwise acquired by the company or any services rendered to, or at the request of, or for the benefit of, the company or as security for, or indemnity for, or towards satisfaction of, any liability or obligation undertaken or agreed to be undertaken by or for the benefit of the company, or in consideration of any obligation (even if valued at less than the nominal value of such securities) or for any other purpose.
- (oo) To procure the company to be registered or recognised in any part of the world.
- (pp) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or undertaking any of the liabilities of the company, or both, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit the company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire all or any part of the shares, debentures or other securities of any such company.
- (qq) To dispose by any means of the whole or any part of the assets of the company or of any interest therein.
- (rr) To distribute in specie or otherwise by way of dividends or bonus or reduction of capital all or any of the property or assets of the company among its members and particularly, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the company or any proceeds of sale or other disposal of any property or assets of the company.
- (ss) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, trustees, sub-contractors or otherwise.
- (tt) To do all such other things as may be deemed, or as the directors consider, incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that in this clause:

- (i) unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular include the plural and vice versa;
 - (ii) unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to a person includes a reference to a company, and a reference to a person or company includes a reference to a firm, partnership, corporation, government or other authority (municipal, local or otherwise), undertaking, organisation, association, statutory, public or other body and any other legal entity, whether resident, domiciled or situated (in any such case) in the United Kingdom or elsewhere;
 - (iii) references to "other" and "otherwise" shall not be construed where a wider construction is possible;
 - (iv) the words "subsidiary" (except in paragraph (v) below) and "holding company" have the same meaning as in section 736 of the Companies Act 1985 or any statutory modification or re-enactment of it;
 - (v) the objects specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs of this clause shall be separate and distinct objects of the company and accordingly shall not be in any way limited or restricted (except so far as otherwise expressly stated in any paragraph) by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the order in which the paragraphs occur or the name of the company, and none of the paragraphs shall be deemed merely subsidiary or incidental to any other paragraph.
- 5 The liability of the members is limited.
- 6 The company's share capital is £50,002 divided into 50,000 non-voting redeemable preference shares of £1 each and 2 subscriber ordinary shares of £1 each.¹

DATED the 28th day of April, 2008.

¹ By an ordinary resolution dated 30 May 2008, the authorised share capital of the company was increased from £50,002 to £10,530,050,002 by the creation of 1,000,000,000 ordinary shares of 500 pence each, 900,000,000 B Shares of 170 pence each and 400,000,000,000 Class A Shares of one pence each.

Company number 6559020

THE COMPANIES ACTS

PUBLIC COMPANY
LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES GROUP PLC

Contents

Clause		Page
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION		1
PRELIMINARY
1	No other regulations to apply	1
2	Interpretation	1
3	Form of resolution	5
4	Registered office	5
SHARE CAPITAL
5	Authorised share capital.....	5
6	Allotment	5
7	Redeemable shares	6
8	Power to attach rights	6
9	Share warrants to bearer	13
10	Commission and brokerage	14
11	Trusts not to be recognised	14
ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL
12	Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division	14
13	Fractions of shares.....	14
14	Reduction of capital.....	15
15	Purchase of own shares.....	15
VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS
16	Sanction to variation.....	15
17	Class meetings.....	16
18	Deemed variation	16
EVIDENCE OF TITLE
19	Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities	16
20	Right to share certificates.....	16
21	Replacement certificates.....	17
LIEN ON SHARES
22	Lien on shares not fully paid	17
23	Enforcement of lien by sale.....	17
24	Application of proceeds of sale	18
CALLS ON SHARES
25	Calls	18
26	Liability of joint holders.....	18
27	Interest on calls	18
28	Rights of member when call unpaid.....	19
29	Sums due on allotment treated as calls	19
30	Power to differentiate	19
31	Payment in advance of calls	19
32	Delegation of power to make calls	19

FORFEITURE OF SHARES
33	Notice if call not paid 19
34	Forfeiture for non-compliance 20
35	Notice after forfeiture..... 20
36	Forfeiture may be annulled 20
37	Surrender 20
38	Disposal of forfeited shares 20
39	Effect of forfeiture..... 20
40	Extinction of claims 21
41	Evidence of forfeiture 21
TRANSFER OF SHARES
42	Transfer of certificated shares 21
43	Transfer of uncertificated shares 21
44	Right to refuse registration..... 21
45	Notice of refusal 22
46	Fees on registration 22
47	Transfers by renunciation..... 22
TRANSMISSION OF SHARES
48	On death 22
49	Election of person entitled by transmission..... 22
50	Rights on transmission..... 23
DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
51	Destruction of documents 23
GENERAL MEETINGS
52	Annual general meetings 24
53	Other general meetings..... 24
54	Convening of general meetings 24
55	Notice of general meetings 24
56	Omission to send notice..... 25
57	Special business 25
PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS
58	Quorum 25
59	If quorum not present 26
60	Chairman..... 26
61	Directors may attend and speak 26
62	Power to adjourn 26
63	Notice of adjourned meeting 26
64	Business of adjourned meeting..... 27
65	Accommodation of members and security arrangements 27
VOTING
66	Method of voting..... 27
67	Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands 28
68	Objection to error in voting..... 28
69	Amendment to resolutions 28
70	Procedure on a poll 28
71	Votes of members 29
72	Casting vote 30
73	Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc. 30
74	Voting by proxy 30
75	Form of proxy 30

76	Deposit of proxy	30
77	More than one proxy may be appointed	32
78	Board may supply proxy cards	32
79	Revocation of proxy	33
80	Corporate representative	33
81	Failure to disclose interests in shares	33
UNTRACED MEMBERS
82	Power of sale	35
83	Application of proceeds of sale	36
APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS
84	Number of directors	36
85	Power of company to appoint directors	36
86	Power of board to appoint directors	36
87	Appointment of executive directors	37
88	Eligibility for appointment as a director	37
89	Share qualification	37
90	Resolution for appointment	37
91	Retirement at intervals of one year and three years	37
92	Directors to retire by rotation	37
93	Retirement of directors by rotation: Transitional article	38
94	Position of retiring director	39
95	Deemed re-appointment	39
96	No retirement on account of age	39
97	Removal by ordinary resolution	39
98	Vacation of office by director	39
99	Resolution as to vacancy conclusive	40
ALTERNATE DIRECTORS
100	Appointment	40
101	Participation in board meetings	40
102	Alternate director responsible for own acts	40
103	Interests of alternate director	41
104	Revocation of appointment	41
DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS
105	Directors' fees	41
106	Expenses	41
107	Remuneration of executive directors	42
108	Pensions and other benefits	42
POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD
109	Powers of the board	42
110	Powers of directors being less than minimum number	42
111	Powers of executive directors	43
112	Delegation to committees	43
113	Local management	43
114	Power of attorney	43
115	Use of the title "director"	44
116	Exercise of voting power	44
117	Provision for employees	44
118	Overseas registers	44
119	Borrowing powers	44

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES
120	Board meetings 48
121	Notice of board meetings 48
122	Quorum 48
123	Chairman of the board 48
124	Voting 48
125	Participation by telephone or video conference 49
126	Resolution of the directors in writing 49
127	Proceedings of committees 49
128	Minutes of proceedings 49
129	Validity of proceedings 50
DIRECTORS' INTERESTS
130	Directors' power to authorise conflict situations 50
131	Director may have interests 51
132	Disclosure of interests to board 52
133	Interested director not to vote or count for quorum 52
134	Director's interest in own appointment 53
135	Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest 54
136	Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest 54
137	Connected persons 54
SEALS
138	Safe custody 54
139	Application of seals 54
140	Official seal for use abroad 54
THE SECRETARY
141	The secretary 55
AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS
142	Power to authenticate 55
DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS
143	Declaration of dividends 55
144	Interim dividends 55
145	Entitlement to dividends 56
146	Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends 56
147	Distribution in specie 56
148	Dividends not to bear interest 56
149	Method of payment 56
150	Uncashed dividends 57
151	Unclaimed dividends 57
152	Payment of share dividends 57
153	Reserves 59
154	Capitalisation of reserves 59
155	Record dates 60
ACCOUNTS
156	Accounting records 60
157	Inspection of records 61
158	Accounts to be sent to members 61
159	Summary financial statements 61
NOTICES
160	Notices to be in writing 61
161	Service of notice on members 61

162	Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder.....	62
163	Evidence of service	63
164	Notice binding on transferees	63
165	Notice by advertisement.....	63
166	Suspension of postal services	63
167	Service of notices on the company	64
	WINDING UP
168	Division of assets	64
169	Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 1986.....	64
	INDEMNITY
170	Indemnity and insurance.....	64

THE COMPANIES ACTS

PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

UNITED UTILITIES GROUP PLC¹

(Articles adopted on 23 April 2008 as amended by special resolution passed on 30 May 2008)

PRELIMINARY

1 No other regulations to apply

No regulations set out in any statute or in any statutory instrument or other subordinate legislation concerning companies shall apply to the company, but the following shall be the articles of association of the company.

2 Interpretation

2.1 In these articles, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the following meanings:

these articles means these articles of association as originally adopted or altered or varied from time to time (and "article" means one of these articles)

auditors means the auditors for the time being of the company or, in the case of joint auditors, any one of them

board means the board of directors for the time being of the company or the directors present or deemed to be present at a duly convened meeting of directors at which a quorum is present

B Share Continuing Dividend means the dividend to be paid on each B Share to shareholders electing for the Final B Share Redemption on such B Shares

B Share Dividend means the dividend of 170 pence to be paid on each B Share to shareholders electing for the B Share Dividend in respect of those shares

B Shares means the B Shares of 170 pence each in the capital of the company, the rights attaching to which are set out in article 8C

¹ The company changed its name from "United Utilities Newco Limited" and re-registered as a public company with effect from 28 April 2008.

CA 1985 means the Companies Act 1985

CA 2006 means the Companies Act 2006

certificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in certificated form

chairman means the chairman (if any) of the board or, where the context requires, the chairman of a general meeting of the company

Circular means the circular to be sent to shareholders on or around 6 June 2008 relating, amongst other things, to the Scheme

Class A Shares means the redeemable class A shares of one pence each in the capital of the company to be allotted pro rata to holders of ordinary shares (or, if the board so determines, to such person as the company may procure as nominee for such holders) upon capitalisation of the merger reserve created upon the Scheme becoming effective and which are to be cancelled as part of the reduction of capital of the company proposed to be implemented subsequent to the Scheme becoming effective clear days means (in relation to the period of a notice) that period, excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given, and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect

Deferred Shares means the class of shares into which those B Shares on which the B Share Dividend is paid will be reclassified, the rights attaching to which are set out in article 8D

depository means a custodian or other person (or a nominee for such custodian or other person) appointed under contractual arrangements with the company or other arrangements approved by the board whereby such custodian or other person or nominee holds or is interested in shares of the company or rights or interests in shares of the company and issues securities or other documents of title or otherwise evidencing the entitlement of the holder thereof to or to receive such shares, rights or interests, provided and to the extent that such arrangements have been approved by the board for the purpose of these articles, and shall include, where approved by the board, the trustees (acting in their capacity as such) of any employees' share scheme established by the company or any other scheme or arrangement principally for the benefit of employees or those in the service of the company and/or its subsidiaries or their respective businesses and the managers (acting in their capacity as such) of any investment or savings plan, which in each case the board has approved

dematerialised instruction shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

director means a director for the time being of the company

electronic form and electronic means shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

execution includes any mode of execution (and "executed" shall be construed accordingly)

Final B Share Redemption means the redemption of the B Shares on the Final B Share Redemption Date for a redemption amount of 170 pence per B Share and the cancellation of such B Shares

Final B Share Redemption Date means the date on which the Final B Share Redemption shall be made, to be 14 April 2009 (or such other date as the board may determine)

Form of Election means in relation to the B Shares the form of election accompanying the Circular by which shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) may elect for the B Share Dividend, the Initial B Share Redemption and the Final B Share Redemption

hard copy and hard copy form shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in CA 2006

holder means (in relation to any share) the member whose name is entered in the register as the holder or, where the context permits, the members whose names are entered in the register as the joint holders, of that share

Initial B Share Redemption means the redemption of the B Shares for a redemption amount of 170 pence per B Share and the cancellation of such B Shares

Initial B Share Redemption Date means the date on which the Initial B Share Redemption shall be made, to be 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the board may determine)

Interest Rate means the rate per annum equivalent to 75 per cent. of LIBOR or, if LIBOR cannot be established on 11 August 2008, the Reserve Interest Rate

LIBOR means the British Bankers' Association Interest Settlement Rate for eight month sterling deposits as of 11:00 a.m. London time on 11 August 2008

London Stock Exchange means London Stock Exchange plc

member means a member of the company or, where the context requires, a member of the board or of any committee

Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares means the non-voting redeemable preference shares in the capital of the company, the rights attaching to which are described in article 8B office means the registered office for the time being of the company

ordinary share means an ordinary share in the capital of the company

Other Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is of a procedural nature, including without limitation any resolution to correct a patent error in a Substantive Resolution, any resolution for adjournment of a meeting or any resolution for the election of a chairman of the meeting

Overseas Shareholder means a shareholder who is resident in, or a citizen or national of, any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom

paid up means paid up or credited as paid up

qualifying person shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in section 318(3) CA 2006

recognised person means a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange which is designated as mentioned in section 185(4) CA 1985 or section 778 CA 2006

register means the register of members of the company to be kept (in the case of shares held in certificated form) by the company pursuant to section 352 CA 1985 or section 113 CA 2006 or (in the case of shares held in uncertificated form) by the operator of a relevant system pursuant to paragraph 20 of the Regulations

Regulations means the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001 No. 3755

relevant system shall have the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph 3 of the Regulations

Reserve Interest Rate means 75 per cent. of such rate of interest as the company shall determine on the basis of quotations made for eight month deposits of £1,000,000 in any interbank market or markets as the company may select on 11 August 2008

Scheme means the scheme of arrangement under section 899 CA 2006 between United Utilities PLC and holders of ordinary shares in United Utilities PLC the anticipated effective date of which is 28 July 2008, including any modification, addition or condition approved by the High Court of Justice of England and Wales

seal means any common seal of the company

secretary means the secretary for the time being of the company or any other person appointed to perform any of the duties of the secretary of the company including (subject to the provisions of the statutes) a joint, temporary, assistant or deputy secretary

securities seal means an official seal kept by the company pursuant to section 40 CA 1985 or section 50 CA 2006

share means a share of the company

statutes means CA 1985, CA 2006 and every other statute (and any regulations subordinate thereto) for the time being in force concerning companies and affecting the company

Subscriber Ordinary Shares means the subscriber ordinary shares in the capital of the company, the rights attaching to which are described in article 8A

Substantive Resolution means any resolution put to a general meeting of the company which is not an Other Resolution

TTE instruction means Transfer to Escrow instruction to be used by shareholders holding their shares in CREST to enable them to make their elections with respect to the B Shares

uncertificated share means a share, title to which is recorded on the register as being held in uncertificated form

United Kingdom means Great Britain and Northern Ireland

United States means the United States of America, its territories and possessions, any state in the United States of America and the District of Columbia and all other areas subject to its jurisdiction

US Shareholders means (i) shareholders who have an address in the United States on the register, and (ii) any person resident in the United States who holds shares in the company (including, without limitation, shares now or at any time represented by American depository shares or receipts), including directly or through or as a nominee, and (iii) persons who appear, at any time, to the directors to fall within paragraph (ii) of this definition of US Shareholders writing or written means and includes printing, typewriting, lithography, photography and any other mode or modes of representing or reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form including (to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes) electronic form.

2.2 Unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural, and vice versa;
- (b) words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender; and
- (c) a reference to a person includes a body corporate and an unincorporated body of persons.

2.3 A reference to any statute or provision of a statute shall include any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force. A reference to any provision of CA 1985 and CA 2006 shall be interpreted by applying the relevant provision of such Acts as shall be in force for the time being.

2.4 Save as aforesaid, and unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in CA 1985 or CA 2006, as the case may be, and words and expressions used in the Regulations have the same meanings when used in these articles.

2.5 The headings are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of these articles.

3 Form of resolution

Subject to the statutes, where for any purpose an ordinary resolution of the company is required, a special resolution shall also be effective.

4 Registered office

The office shall be at such place in England and Wales as the board shall from time to time appoint.

SHARE CAPITAL

5 Authorised share capital

The authorised share capital of the company at the date of the adoption of these articles is £50,002 divided into two Subscriber Ordinary Shares of £1 each and 50,000 Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares of £1 each.²

6 Allotment

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any relevant authority of the company in general meeting required by the statutes, unissued shares at the date of adoption of these articles and any shares hereafter created and any shares held by the company in treasury shall be at the disposal of the board, which may allot (with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant options over, offer, sell or otherwise deal with or dispose of them or rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares to such persons (including the directors themselves), at such

² By an ordinary resolution dated 30 May 2008, the authorised share capital of the company was increased from £50,002 to £10,530,050,002 divided into 1,000,000,000 ordinary shares of 500 pence each, two Subscriber Ordinary Shares of £1 each, 50,000 Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares of £1 each, 900,000,000 B Shares of 170 pence each and 400,000,000,000 Class A Shares of one pence each times and generally on such terms and conditions as the board may decide, provided that no share shall be issued at a discount.

7 Redeemable shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any share may be issued which is, or at the option of the company or of the holder of such share is liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as these articles may provide.

8 Power to attach rights

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any special rights for the time being attached to any existing shares, any shares may be allotted or issued with or have attached to them such preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, transfer, return of capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the board may determine.

8A Rights attaching to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares

The rights and restrictions attached to Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall be as set out below:

(a) prior to the coming into effect of the Scheme, the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall have the same rights in respect of those shares in relation to the company as any holder of ordinary shares has in respect of those shares;

(b) on the coming into effect of the Scheme, the rights and restrictions attached to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall be as set out below:

(i) Income

the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall not be entitled to any dividends or distributions in respect of such shares;

(ii) Capital

the amount that would otherwise be distributed to the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares out of the surplus assets of the company remaining after the payment of its liabilities on a winding up shall be limited to the nominal value of each Subscriber Ordinary Share they hold which shall be paid only after the holders of any and all other classes of share in the capital of the company then in issue shall have received the nominal value of those shares (or any capital entitlement specified as an alternative to that nominal value) in respect of the relevant shares held by them at that time;

(iii) Transfer the board may decline to register any transfer of any of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares to any person of whom they do not approve. If the board declines to register a transfer of any of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares, it shall within two months after the date the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of its declining to register the transfer and the relevant instrument of transfer; and

(iv) Voting rights

the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares shall have no right as such to receive notice of or attend or vote at any general meeting of the company unless a resolution is to be proposed to wind up the company or a resolution is to be proposed which varies, modifies, alters or abrogates the rights attaching to the Subscriber Ordinary Shares.

8B Rights attaching to the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares

The rights and restrictions attached to Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall be as set out below:

(a) Income

the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall, with effect from the date on which those shares are issued, have the right to receive, out of the profits of the company available for distribution and resolved to be distributed, a fixed non-cumulative preferential dividend at a rate of 0.0001 per cent. per annum on the capital paid up thereon. The Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall rank for dividends in priority to any other shares in the capital of the company from time to time in issue; except as provided in this article 8B(a), the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall not have any other right to participate in the profits of the company;

(b) Capital

the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares on a return of capital on a winding up shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the company available for distribution among the members the nominal amount of those shares, together with any accrued but unpaid dividend on those shares, in priority to any distribution to any holder of other shares in the company from time to time in issue; except as provided in this article 8B(b), the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall not have any other right to participate in the assets of the company;

(c) Redemption

(i) subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may redeem the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares at any time at the discretion of the board and shall redeem them at the request of the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares at any time after the earlier of the reduction of capital of the company proposed to be implemented subsequently to the Scheme becoming effective or 31 December 2008 and shall on redemption pay the nominal amount thereof (together with any accrued but unpaid dividend on those shares) PROVIDED ALWAYS that if the company shall at any time be unable, by reason of any provision of the statutes, to redeem the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares on the date specified by the board or requested by the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares, then the company shall redeem such shares as soon as it is able to comply with such provisions of the statutes; and

(ii) subject to article 8B(c)(i), any notice of redemption served shall specify the date fixed for redemption and upon such date the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall present the certificate(s) thereof in order that the same may be cancelled. Upon such delivery the company shall pay to the holders the amount due to them in respect of such redemption;

(d) Transfer the board may decline to register any transfer of any of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares to any person of whom they do not approve. If the board declines to register a transfer of any of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares, it shall within two months after the date the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of its declining to register the transfer and the relevant instrument of transfer; and

(e) Voting rights

the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares shall have no right as such to receive notice of or attend or vote at any general meeting of the company unless a resolution is to be proposed to wind up the company or a resolution is to be proposed which varies, modifies, alters or abrogates any of the rights attaching to the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares.

8C Rights attaching to the B Shares

The rights and restrictions attached to the B Shares shall be as set out below:

(a) Elections in respect of B Shares:

(i) shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) will be sent a Form of Election together with the Circular under which they can elect in relation to any of their B Shares to have them redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date, to receive the B Share Dividend or to have them redeemed on the Final B Share Redemption Date;

(ii) holders of B Shares (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders) who are deemed to have elected to receive the B Share Dividend) who have not returned a duly completed Form of Election or provided a TTE instruction through the CREST system by 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such later time and/or date as the board may determine) will have all of their B Shares redeemed on the Initial B Share Redemption Date;

(iii) the board may, if it so determines in its absolute discretion, accept a Form of Election which is received after the relevant time or which is not correctly completed;

(iv) the board may make such determinations or arrangements with respect to Forms of Election or the ability of certain shareholders to elect for any of the Initial B Share Redemption, the B Share Dividend or the Final B Share Redemption as the board may judge necessary or expedient to deal with legal or practical problems arising in any overseas territory or because of shares being represented by depositary receipts or to deal with the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange or with any other matter whatsoever;

(b) Income

- (i) out of the profits available for distribution, a single dividend of 170 pence for each B Share shall be payable to those holders of B Shares who have elected to receive the B Share Dividend in respect of those B Shares in respect of which they have made such an election. The B Share Dividend shall become payable on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the board shall determine). Each B Share in respect of which the B Share Dividend becomes payable shall, on such date (or such other date as the board may determine), be automatically reclassified into a Deferred Share of 170 pence nominal value. The rights and restrictions attaching to the Deferred Shares are set out in article 8D;
- (ii) holders of B Shares who have elected for the Final B Share Redemption shall be entitled:
 - (A) with effect from 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the board shall determine), out of the profits available for distribution in respect of each financial year or other accounting period of the company, in priority to any payment of dividend or other distribution to the holders of any ordinary shares and before profits are carried to reserves but after payment of the preferential dividend on the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares, to be paid a non-cumulative preferential dividend at the Interest Rate on the amount of 170 pence per B Share. The B Share Continuing Dividend shall be payable only to the extent that the company has sufficient distributable reserves. Such dividend shall become payable on 14 April 2009 and be calculated in respect of the period from 11 August 2008 to (and including) 13 April 2009 and on the basis of a 365 day year. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares entitled to the B Share Continuing Dividend in respect of all B Shares held by such holder shall be rounded down to the nearest penny;
 - (B) payment of the B Share Continuing Dividend shall be made to holders of the B Shares on the register at the close of business on 9 April 2009; and
 - (C) the holders of the B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the profits of the company;

(c) Redemption

subject to the provisions of the statutes and to the provisions of these articles, the B Shares will be redeemed in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for the Initial B Share Redemption and, unless the board otherwise determines, those shareholders not making a valid election before 4:30 p.m. on 8 August 2008 (or such other date as the board shall determine), will have their B Shares redeemed by the company on 11 August 2008 (or such other date as the board shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share in respect of which they have elected, or are deemed to have elected, the Initial B Share Redemption;

- (ii) shareholders (other than certain Overseas Shareholders (including US Shareholders)) who have elected for the Final B Share Redemption, will have their B Shares redeemed on 14 April 2009 (or such other date as the board shall determine) for the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share in respect of which they have elected the Final B Share Redemption. At the time of payment of the redemption proceeds, the company shall also pay the B Share Continuing Dividend;
 - (iii) all B Shares which are redeemed will immediately and automatically be cancelled;
- (d) Capital
 - (i) on a return of capital on a winding up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of B Shares will be entitled before any payment to the holders of the ordinary shares, Deferred Shares, Class A Shares or Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after payment to the holders of the Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares of the nominal amount of such shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares, to repayment of the sum of 170 pence in respect of each B Share held by them respectively together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend which would have been payable if the winding-up had taken effect on 14 April 2009. The relevant proportion shall be the number of days from and including 11 August 2008 to, but excluding, the date of such winding-up divided by 246. The aggregate entitlement of each holder of B Shares on a winding-up in respect of all B Shares held by them shall be rounded down to the nearest whole penny;
 - (ii) the holders of B Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of the company. If on a winding up the amount available for payment is insufficient to cover in full the amounts payable on the B Shares, the holders of such shares will share on a pro rata basis in the distribution of assets (if any) in proportion to the amounts to which they would otherwise be entitled;
- (e) Attendance and voting at general meetings
 - (i) the holders of B Shares will only receive notice of general meetings of the company and will only be able to attend, speak and vote at such general meetings if a resolution is to be proposed at the general meeting for the winding-up (excluding any intra-group reorganisation on a solvent basis) of the company, in which case the holders of B Shares will receive notice of the general meeting and will have the right to attend, speak and vote on that resolution only;
 - (ii) if the holders of the B Shares are entitled to vote at a general meeting of the company, on a show of hands every holder who is present at the general meeting shall have one vote and every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a holder shall have one vote. On a poll every holder of B Shares who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each fully paid B Share of which he is the holder;
- (f) Class rights

- (i) the company may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the B Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the B Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose;
 - (ii) a reduction by the company of the capital paid up on the B Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the B Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and the company shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the statutes) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the B Shares including by paying to the holders of the B Shares the preferential amounts to which they are entitled as set out in article 8C(d)(i);
- (g) Form, transferability and listing
- (i) no share certificates or other documents of title shall be issued in relation to the B Shares in respect of which the B Share Dividend is paid or which are redeemed by the company on the Initial B Share Redemption Date;
 - (ii) the holders of B Shares cannot renounce their B Shares. Any transfer of B Shares must be effected in writing and either in the usual or standard form or in any other form approved by the board. Every transfer of uncertificated B Shares must be carried out using a relevant system (e.g. CREST); and
 - (iii) no application has been, or will be, made to the UK Listing Authority for the B Shares to be admitted to the Official List maintained by the UK Listing Authority or to the London Stock Exchange for the B Shares to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

8D Rights attaching to the Deferred Shares

(a) Income

the Deferred Shares shall confer no right to participate in the profits of the company;

(b) Capital

- (i) on a return of capital on a winding up (but in no other circumstances involving a repayment of capital or distribution of assets to shareholders whether by reduction of capital, redeeming or buying back shares or otherwise), the holders of Deferred Shares will be entitled to the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Deferred Share before any payment to the holders of the Class A Shares and the Subscriber Ordinary Shares but after:
 - (A) first, paying to the holders of Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares the nominal amount of such shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares;
 - (B) secondly, paying to the holders of B Shares 170 pence per B Share held by them together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend; and

- (C) thirdly, paying to the holders of ordinary shares the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each ordinary share together with the sum of £100,000 on each ordinary share;
 - (ii) the holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to any further right of participation in the assets of the company;
- (c) Redemption

subject to the provisions of the statutes and to the provisions of these articles, the company may at its discretion, at any time after 31 August 2008, without prior notice, redeem some or all of the Deferred Shares then in issue, in each case for a total aggregate price not exceeding one pence for all such Deferred Shares redeemed. This payment may be made, if the board so determines, to charity. All Deferred Shares shall, upon redemption, immediately and automatically be cancelled;
- (d) Attendance and voting at general meetings

the holders of the Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of any general meeting of the company or to attend, speak or vote at any such meeting;
- (e) Form and transferability

the Deferred Shares will not be listed on any stock exchange nor shall any certificates be issued in respect of such shares. The Deferred Shares shall not be transferable except with the written consent of the board;
- (f) Class rights
 - (i) the company may from time to time create, allot and issue further shares, whether ranking pari passu with or in priority to the Deferred Shares, and on such creation, allotment or issue any such further shares (whether or not ranking in any respect in priority to the Deferred Shares) shall be treated as being in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose or require the consent of holders of Deferred Shares; and
 - (ii) a reduction by the company of the capital paid up on the Deferred Shares shall be in accordance with the rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and shall not involve a variation of such rights for any purpose and the company shall be authorised at any time to reduce its capital (in accordance with the statutes) without obtaining the consent of the holders of the Deferred Shares.

8E Rights attaching to the Class A Shares

The rights attached to the Class A Shares shall be as set out below:

- (a) Income

the Class A Shares shall confer no right to participate in the profits of the company;
- (b) Capital
 - (i) the holders of the Class A Shares on a return of capital on a winding up shall be entitled to the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Class A Share before any payment to the holders of the Subscriber Ordinary Shares but:

- (A) first, paying to the holders of Non-Voting Redeemable Preference Shares the nominal amount of such Shares together with the relevant proportion of accrued but unpaid dividends on such shares;
- (B) secondly, paying to the holders of B Shares 170 pence per B Share held by them together with a sum equal to the relevant proportion of the B Share Continuing Dividend;
- (C) thirdly, paying to the holders of ordinary shares the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each ordinary share together with the sum of £100,000 on each ordinary share; and
- (D) fourthly, paying to the holders of Deferred Shares the amount paid up or treated as paid up on the nominal value of each Deferred Share together with the sum of £100,000 on each Deferred Share;

(c) Attendance and voting at general meetings

the holders of the Class A Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of any general meeting of the company or to attend, speak or vote at any such meeting;

(d) Redemption

subject to the provisions of the statutes and to the provisions of these articles, the company may at its discretion at any time after 31 August 2008, without prior notice, redeem some or all of the Class A Shares then in issue, in each case for a total aggregate price not exceeding one penny for all such Class A Shares redeemed. This payment may be made, if the directors so determine, to charity. All Class A Shares shall, upon redemption, immediately and automatically be cancelled; and

(e) Form and transferability

no share certificates shall be issued in respect of Class A Shares. The Class A Shares shall not be transferable except with the written consent of the board.

9 Share warrants to bearer

9.1 The company may, with respect to any fully paid shares, issue a warrant (a share warrant) stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified in it and may provide (by coupons or otherwise) for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in a share warrant.

9.2 The powers referred to in article 9.1 may be exercised by the board, which may determine and vary the conditions on which share warrants shall be issued, and in particular on which:

- (a) a new share warrant or coupon will be issued in the place of one damaged, defaced, worn out or lost (provided that no new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the board is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed);
- (b) the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend, vote and demand a poll at general meetings;

- (c) dividends will be paid; and
- (d) a share warrant may be surrendered and the name of the holder entered in the register in respect of the shares specified in it.

Subject to such conditions and to these articles, the bearer of a share warrant shall be deemed to be a member for all purposes. The bearer of a share warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force and applicable thereto, whether made before or after the issue of such share warrant.

10 Commission and brokerage

The company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the statutes. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash, the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, the grant of an option to call for an allotment of shares or any combination of such methods.

11 Trusts not to be recognised

Except as otherwise expressly provided by these articles, as required by law or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the company shall not recognise any person as holding any share on any trust, and (except as aforesaid) the company shall not be bound by or recognise (even if having notice of it) any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in any share except an absolute right of the holder to the whole of the share.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

12 Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division

The company in general meeting may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

- (a) increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution prescribes;
- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
- (c) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled; and
- (d) subject to the provisions of the statutes, sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of a smaller amount, and may by such resolution determine that, as between the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of the shares may, as compared with the others, have any such preferred, deferred or other special rights or be subject to any such restrictions as the company has power to attach to unissued or new shares.

13 Fractions of shares

- 13.1 Whenever as the result of any consolidation, division or sub-division of shares any difficulty arises, the board may settle it as it thinks fit, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) where the number of shares held by any holder is not an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share and as a result of such consolidation such holder would become entitled to a fraction of a consolidated share:

- (a) the board may determine which of the shares of such holder are to be treated as giving rise to such fractional entitlement and may decide that any of those shares shall be consolidated with any of the shares of any other holder or holders which are similarly determined by it to be treated as giving rise to a fractional entitlement for such other holder or holders, into a single consolidated share and the board may, on behalf of all such holders, sell such consolidated share for the best price reasonably obtained to any person (including the company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale after deduction of the expenses of sale in due proportion among those holders (except that any amount otherwise due to a holder, being less than £2.50 or such other sum as the board may from time to time determine, may be retained for the benefit of the company); or
- (b) provided that the necessary unissued shares are available, the board may issue to such holder credited as fully paid by way of capitalisation the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding to an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share (such issue being deemed to have been effected prior to consolidation); and the amount required to pay up such shares shall be appropriated at the board's discretion from any of the sums standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or to the credit of profit and loss account and capitalised by applying the same in paying up the share. In relation to such a capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on it by article 154 without an ordinary resolution of the company.

13.2 For the purposes of any sale of consolidated shares pursuant to article 13.1, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of (or, as the case may be, to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of) the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser, and the transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14 Reduction of capital

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

15 Purchase of own shares

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, these articles and any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the company may purchase any of its own shares of any class (including any redeemable shares). Any shares to be so purchased may be selected in any manner whatsoever.

VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

16 Sanction to variation

If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into shares of different classes, any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares in the company (and notwithstanding that the company may be or be about to be in liquidation) may be varied or abrogated in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights or, in the absence of any such provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class duly convened and held as hereinafter provided (but not otherwise).

17 Class meetings

All the provisions in these articles as to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply to every meeting of the holders of any class of shares. The board may convene a meeting of the holders of any class of shares whenever it thinks fit and whether or not the business to be transacted involves a variation or abrogation of class rights. The quorum at every such meeting shall be not less than two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third of the nominal amount paid up on the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares). Every holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy, may demand a poll. Each such holder shall on a poll be entitled to one vote for every share of the class held by him. If at any adjourned meeting of such holders such quorum as aforesaid is not present, not less than one person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

18 Deemed variation

Subject to the terms of issue of or rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued or by the reduction of the capital paid up on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the company of its own shares in accordance with the provisions of the statutes and these articles.

EVIDENCE OF TITLE

19 Arrangements relating to uncertificated securities

19.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, title to any securities of the company may be evidenced and may be transferred without a written instrument in accordance with regulations from time to time made under the statutes and subject to such regulations the board shall have power to implement any arrangements it may think fit for such evidencing and transfer which accord with those regulations.

19.2 Where any provision of these articles confers authority on the company or the board or any of the directors to enter into (or to authorise some other person to enter into) any transaction in respect of shares held in uncertificated form (including, without limitation, article 23, article 38, article 49 and article 81) the board may authorise some person to give notice on behalf of the company to the operator of a relevant system, requiring that such shares be converted into certificated form and stating that such conversion is required in order to enable the company to give effect to the provisions of these articles.

20 Right to share certificates

20.1 On becoming the holder of any certificated share, every person (except a recognised person in respect of whom the company is not by law required to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall be entitled, without charge, to have issued within two months after allotment or lodgement of a transfer (unless the terms of issue of the shares provide otherwise) one certificate for all the certificated shares of each class registered in his name. Such certificate shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon and shall be issued as provided in article 139.

- 20.2 The issued shares of a particular class which are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes shall not bear a distinguishing number. All other shares shall bear a distinguishing number.
- 20.3 The company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of shares held jointly by two or more persons. Delivery of a certificate to the person first named on the register as the holder of such shares shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.
- 20.4 Where a member (other than a recognised person) has transferred part only of the shares comprised in a certificate, he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance of such shares without charge.
- 20.5 No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class or in respect of shares held by a recognised person, or in respect of any uncertificated shares.

21 Replacement certificates

- 21.1 Any two or more certificates representing certificated shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued in lieu without charge on surrender of the original certificates for cancellation.
- 21.2 If any member shall surrender for cancellation a share certificate representing certificated shares held by him and request the company to issue in lieu two or more share certificates representing such shares in such proportions as he may specify, the board may, if it thinks fit, comply with such request.
- 21.3 Share certificates may be renewed or replaced on such terms as to provision of evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional out of pocket expenses, including those incurred by the company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity and security, as the board may decide, and on surrender of the original certificate (where it is defaced, damaged or worn out), but without any further charge.
- 21.4 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, any such request as is mentioned in this article 21 may be made by any one of the joint holders.

LIEN ON SHARES

22 Lien on shares not fully paid

The company shall have a first and paramount lien on each of its shares which is not fully paid, for all amounts payable to the company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share and to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the statutes. The board may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this article.

23 Enforcement of lien by sale

The board may sell all or any of the shares subject to any lien at such time or times and in such manner as it may determine. However, no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys in respect of which such lien exists or some part thereof are or is presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of which such lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, and until a demand and notice in writing stating the amount due or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding payment or fulfilment or discharge thereof and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on the holder or the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment, fulfilment or discharge shall have been made by him or them for fourteen clear days after service of such notice. For giving effect to any such sale, the board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of, or to give a dematerialised instruction in respect of, the shares sold in the name and on behalf of the holder or the persons entitled by transmission in favour of the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and the title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

24 Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to any lien, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of so much of the amount due to the company or of the liability or engagement (as the case may be) as is presently payable or is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged. The balance (if any) shall (in the case of a sale of certificated shares, on surrender to the company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold), subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable or any liability or engagement not liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged as existed on the shares before the sale, be paid to the holder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so sold, without interest.

CALLS ON SHARES

25 Calls

Subject to the terms of allotment of shares, the board may from time to time make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on the shares, of any class, held by them respectively (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made and whether or not by instalments) be liable to pay the amount of every call so made on him as required by the notice. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising such call was passed or (as the case may require) any person to whom power has been delegated pursuant to these articles serves notice of exercise of such power. A call may be required to be paid by instalments and may, before receipt by the company of any sum due thereunder, be either revoked or postponed in whole or part as regards all or any such members as the board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

26 Liability of joint holders

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect thereof.

27 Interest on calls

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at the rate fixed by the terms of the allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is so fixed, at such rate, not exceeding five per cent per annum above the Bank of England base rate (compounded on a six monthly basis), as the board shall determine. The board may waive payment of such costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

28 Rights of member when call unpaid

Unless the board otherwise determines, no member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present and vote at a general meeting or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares either in person or (save as proxy for another member) by proxy, or be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) to the company.

29 Sums due on allotment treated as calls

Any sum payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall for all purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call duly made. If it is not paid, the provisions of these articles shall apply as if such amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

30 Power to differentiate

The board may make arrangements on the allotment or issue of shares for a difference as between the allottees or holders of such shares in the amount and time of payment of calls.

31 Payment in advance of calls

The board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on the shares held by him. Such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability on the shares on which it is made. The company may pay interest on the money paid in advance, or so much of it as exceeds the amount for the time being called up on the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, at such rate as the board may decide. The board may at any time repay the amount so advanced on giving to such member not less than three months' notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

32 Delegation of power to make calls

If any uncalled capital of the company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the board may delegate on such terms as it thinks fit to the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital, to sue in the name of the company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for such moneys. The power so delegated shall subsist during the continuance of the mortgage or security, notwithstanding any change of directors, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

33 Notice if call not paid

If any member fails to pay the whole of any call or any instalment of any call on or before the day appointed for payment, the board may at any time serve a notice in writing on such member or on any person entitled to the shares by transmission, requiring payment, on a date not less than fourteen clear days from the date of the notice, of the amount unpaid and any interest which may have accrued thereon and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where the payment is to be made and state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

34 Forfeiture for non-compliance

If the notice referred to in article 33 is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

35 Notice after forfeiture

When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served on the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share or the person entitled to such share by transmission (as the case may be). An entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register in respect of such share. However, no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

36 Forfeiture may be annulled

The board may, at any time before any share so forfeited has been cancelled or sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture, on terms that payment shall be made of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and on such further terms (if any) as the board shall see fit.

37 Surrender

The board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited. In such case references in these articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

38 Disposal of forfeited shares

Every share which shall be forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the company. Subject to the provisions of the statutes, any such share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person, on such terms and in such manner as the board shall determine. The board may, for the purposes of the disposal, authorise some person to transfer the share in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred share in the register notwithstanding (in the case of a certificated share) the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof. An instrument of transfer executed by that person, or a dematerialised instruction given at the request of that person, shall be as effective as if it had been executed or given by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share. The company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal.

39 Effect of forfeiture

A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares forfeited and shall surrender to the company for cancellation the certificate (if any) for such shares. He shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the company all calls made and not paid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, and interest thereon from the date of the forfeiture to the date of payment, in the same manner in all respects as if the shares had not been forfeited, and to satisfy all (if any) claims, demands and liabilities which the company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the time of forfeiture, without any reduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.

40 Extinction of claims

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the holder whose share is forfeited and the company, except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by these articles expressly saved, or as are by the statutes given or imposed in the case of past members.

41 Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share has been forfeited in pursuance of these articles, and stating the date on which it was forfeited, shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share adversely to the forfeiture thereof, be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated. The declaration, together with the receipt of the company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer or the giving of a dematerialised instruction) constitute a good title to the share. Subject to the execution of any necessary transfer, such person shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall be discharged from all calls made prior to such sale or disposition and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share. Such person shall not (except by express agreement with the company) become entitled to any dividend which might have accrued on the share before the completion of the sale or disposition thereof.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

42 Transfer of certificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form approved by the board. Such instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a certificated share which is not fully paid up) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect of it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the company.

43 Transfer of uncertificated shares

Subject to such of the restrictions of these articles as may be applicable, each member may transfer all or any of his uncertificated shares in accordance with the rules and regulations in force from time to time which are applicable to a relevant system.

44 Right to refuse registration

44.1 The board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register any transfer of a share (or renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment) unless:

- (a) it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;
- (b) it is in respect of only one class of shares;

- (c) it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees;
- (d) it is duly stamped (if so required); and
- (e) (if it is in respect of a certificated share) it is delivered for registration to the office or such other place as the board may from time to time determine, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer by a recognised person where a certificate has not been issued or in the case of a renunciation) by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so;

provided that the board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

44.2 Transfers of shares will not be registered in the circumstances referred to in article 81.

45 Notice of refusal

If the board refuses to register a transfer of a share it shall, within two months after the date on which, in the case of a certificated share, the transfer was lodged with the company, or, in the case of an uncertificated share, the dematerialised instruction was received by the company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee. Any instrument of transfer which the board refuses to register shall (except in the case of suspected or actual fraud) be returned to the person depositing it.

46 Fees on registration

No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or on the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

47 Transfers by renunciation

Nothing in these articles shall preclude the board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

48 On death

If a member dies, the survivors or survivor, where he was a joint holder, and his executors or administrators, where he was a sole or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his shares. Nothing in these articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which has been solely or jointly held by him.

49 Election of person entitled by transmission

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, may, on such evidence as to his title being produced as the board may require, elect either to become registered as a member or to have some person nominated by him registered as a member. If he elects to become registered himself, he shall give notice to the company to that effect. If he elects to have some other person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of such share to that person or, as the case may be, procure the transfer of such share to that person by means of a dematerialised instruction. All the provisions of these articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice, instrument of transfer or dematerialised instruction (as the case may be) as if it were executed or given by the member and his death, bankruptcy or other event as aforesaid had not occurred. Where the entitlement of a person to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or of any other event giving rise to its transmission by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the board, the board shall within two months after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the register.

50 Rights on transmission

Where a person becomes entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law, the rights of the holder in relation to such share shall cease. However, the person so entitled may give a good discharge for any dividends and other moneys payable in respect of it and shall have the same rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before he is registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company. The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within sixty days, the board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

51 Destruction of documents

51.1 The company may destroy:

- (a) any instrument of transfer, after six years from the date on which it is registered;
- (b) any dividend mandate or any variation or cancellation thereof or any notification of change of name or address, after two years from the date on which it is recorded;
- (c) any share certificate, after one year from the date on which it is cancelled;
- (d) any proxy form which has been used for a poll, after one year from the date on which the poll was taken;
- (e) any proxy form which has not been used for a poll, after one month from the general meeting or class meeting to which it relates; and
- (f) any other document on the basis of which any entry in the register is made, after six years from the date on which an entry was first made in the register in respect of it,

provided that the company may destroy any such type of document at a date earlier than that authorised by this article if a copy of such document is retained on microfilm or by other similar means on which such copy is retained until the expiration of the period applicable to the destruction of the original of such document.

51.2 It shall be conclusively presumed in favour of the company that every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was duly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was duly cancelled, that every other document so destroyed had been properly dealt with in accordance with its terms and was valid and effective in accordance with the particulars in the records of the company, provided that:

- (a) this article 51 shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant;
- (b) nothing in this article 51 shall be construed as imposing on the company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document otherwise than as provided for in this article 51 which would not attach to the company in the absence of this article 51; and
- (c) references in this article 51 to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal of it in any manner.

GENERAL MEETINGS

52 Annual general meetings

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place as the board may determine.

53 Other general meetings

All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

54 Convening of general meetings

The board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the board to convene a general meeting, any director may call a general meeting.

55 Notice of general meetings

55.1 An annual general meeting shall be convened by not less than twenty one clear days' notice in writing. All other general meetings shall be convened by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing.

55.2 The notice shall specify:

- (a) (if applicable) that the meeting is an annual general meeting;
- (b) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
- (c) in the case of special business, the general nature of that business;
- (d) if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such; and
- (e) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

55.3 The notice shall be given to the members (other than any who, under the provisions of these articles or of any restrictions imposed on any shares, are not entitled to receive notice from the company), to the directors and to the auditors.

55.4 If, after a notice convening a general meeting of the company has been despatched or made available to members, the board becomes aware of any fact, event or circumstances which, in the board's opinion, would make it impractical or inappropriate to hold the general meeting on the date or time or at the place for which notice has been given, the board may give notice pursuant to article 165 to those entitled to receive the notice pursuant to article 55.3 either cancelling such meeting or postponing such meeting to a time and date which is not less than twenty one clear days from the date of such notice, which shall also specify the place at which such postponed meeting shall be held.

56 Omission to send notice

For the purpose of determining whether notice of any meeting was duly given, each of the following shall be disregarded and shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting:

- (a) the accidental failure to give notice of the meeting;
- (b) the accidental failure to send or supply any document or other information relating to any meeting;
- (c) the accidental failure to provide an instrument of proxy to any person, in cases where it is intended that such an instrument be sent out with the notice convening the meeting to which it relates; or
- (d) the non-receipt of any document referred to at (a), (b) or (c) above by any person entitled to receive the same.

57 Special business

All business that is transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special, except the following transactions at an annual general meeting:

- (a) the declaration of dividends;
- (b) the receipt and consideration of the annual accounts and the reports of the directors and the auditors and any other document required to be annexed to the annual accounts;
- (c) the election or re-election of directors;
- (d) the appointment or re-appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors or the determination of the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed;
- (e) the approval of a directors' remuneration report required to be prepared and approved pursuant to sections 234B and 241A CA 1985 or sections 420, 422 and 439 CA 2006.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Two qualifying persons shall be a quorum.

59 If quorum not present

If within thirty minutes (or such longer interval as the chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time (not being less than seven nor more than sixty days later) and place as the chairman (or, in default, the board) may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

60 Chairman

60.1 The chairman of the board shall preside at every general meeting of the company. If there be no such chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling to act as chairman, the directors present shall choose one of their number to act or, if there be only one director present, he shall be chairman if willing to act. If there be no director present and willing to act, then any member present at the meeting in person may be elected to be chairman of the meeting by a resolution passed at the meeting.

60.2 The chairman of the meeting who presides pursuant to the provisions of article 60.1 may, at any time during a general meeting of the company, nominate any director of the company to be the chairman of the meeting for the remainder of or for any part of the meeting.

61 Directors may attend and speak

A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the company.

62 Power to adjourn

The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. However, without prejudice to any other power which he may have under these articles or at common law, the chairman may, without the need for the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period if he is of the opinion that it has become necessary to do so in order to secure the comfort, safety and security of those attending and the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of attending, speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

63 Notice of adjourned meeting

Where a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the board shall fix the time and place for the adjourned meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more or indefinitely, seven clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

64 Business of adjourned meeting

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

65 Accommodation of members and security arrangements

65.1 The board may, for the purpose of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements as the board shall consider to be appropriate in the circumstances and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place thereof. In the case of any meeting to which such arrangements apply the board may, for the purposes of ensuring the comfort, safety and security of those attending, when specifying the place of the meeting:

- (a) direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside (the principal place); and
- (b) make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but who cannot be accommodated in the principal place and who are excluded therefrom under the provisions of this article or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the principal place and at any of such other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the principal place and at such other places, by any means.

Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for regulating the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid as between the principal place and any of such other places, provided that they shall operate so that any member who cannot be accommodated in the principal place as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the principal place.

65.2 For the purpose of ensuring the safety and security of those attending any meeting the board may require that any person wishing to attend any meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements as the board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse entry to any meeting to any person who refuses to cooperate with or to submit to such searches or to otherwise comply with such security arrangements.

VOTING

66 Method of voting

66.1 At any general meeting all Substantive Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a poll, and all Other Resolutions put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by:

- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) at least five members having the right to vote on the resolution; or

- (c) a member or members (or their proxies) representing not less than 10 per cent of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to shares in the company held as treasury shares); or
- (d) a member or members (or their proxies) holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 10 per cent of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding shares in the company held as treasury shares).

66.2 The chairman of a general meeting may, in his absolute discretion, determine whether a resolution is a Substantive Resolution or an Ordinary Resolution and his decision shall be final.

66.3 At general meetings, resolutions shall be put to the vote by the chairman and there shall be no requirement for the resolution to be proposed or seconded by any person.

67 Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands

Unless a poll is duly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

68 Objection to error in voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

69 Amendment to resolutions

69.1 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, any error in such ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution.

69.2 In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted on and in the case of a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution no amendment thereto (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may be considered or voted on unless either at least forty-eight hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such ordinary resolution is to be proposed notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move the same has been lodged at the office or validly received by the company by electronic means, or the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that it may be considered or voted on.

70 Procedure on a poll

70.1 Any poll duly demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll duly demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time and place, not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded, as the chairman shall direct. The chairman shall determine the manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets or electronic means) in which a poll shall be taken and may appoint scrutineers who need not be members. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

- 70.2 The demand for a poll (other than on the election of a chairman or any question of adjournment) shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 70.3 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn, but only with the consent of the chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall validate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 70.4 On a poll, votes may be given in person or by proxy. Subject to the provisions of section 323 CA 2006, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

71 Votes of members

- 71.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, to any special terms as to voting on which any shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these articles, at any general meeting every qualifying person who is present shall on a show of hands have one vote and every member present in person, or by proxy shall on a poll have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
- 71.2 The company shall not be entitled to exercise any voting rights, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares.
- 71.3 If two or more persons are joint holders of a share, then in voting on any question the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.
- 71.4 Where in England or elsewhere a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court claiming jurisdiction in that behalf to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the board may in its absolute discretion, on or subject to production of such evidence of the appointment as the board may require, permit such receiver or other person to vote in person or, on a poll, by proxy on behalf of such member at any general meeting. Evidence to the satisfaction of the board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be received by the company by electronic means or be deposited at the office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

72 Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.

73 Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc.

No member shall, unless the board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of that share whether alone or jointly with any other person together with interest and expenses (if any) have been paid to the company.

74 Voting by proxy

Any person (whether a member of the company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy. Deposit of an instrument of proxy or, where the appointment of the proxy was communicated by electronic means, receipt of such appointment by the company or its agent, shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed or at any adjournment thereof.

75 Form of proxy

75.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall:

- (a) be in writing in any common form or in such other form as the board may approve, under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of some officer or attorney or other person duly authorised in that behalf;
- (b) be deemed (subject to any contrary direction contained in the same) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution or amendment of a resolution put to the meeting (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resolution which properly comes before the meeting where notice of the same was not included in the notice of the meeting nor specific reference thereto made in the instrument appointing the proxy) as the proxy thinks fit, and shall also be deemed to confer on the proxy the right to speak at the meeting;
- (c) unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; and
- (d) where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.

75.2 In addition, the board may determine that, if and to the extent permitted from time to time by the statutes, and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may specify, a proxy may be appointed by electronic means.

76 Deposit of proxy

76.1 The instrument appointing a proxy shall:

- (a) in the case of an appointment which is not made by electronic means, be deposited at the office or at such other place or places within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, together with (if required by the board) any authority under which it is made (or a copy thereof certified notari ally or in some other way approved by the board);
- (b) in the case of an appointment made by electronic means where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving proxy appointments in electronic form in the notice convening the meeting, or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting, or in any invitation to appoint a proxy contained in electronic form issued by the company in relation to the meeting, be received at such address not less than forty eight hours (or such shorter time as the directors may determine) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote. Any authority pursuant to which an appointment is made by an electronic means (or a copy thereof certified notari ally or in some other way approved by the board) must, if required by the board, be received at the office (or such other place in the United Kingdom as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in either case any accompanying document) not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or
- (c) in the case of a poll taken more than forty eight hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- (d) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman of the meeting or to any director;

and subject to article 76.3 an Instrument of proxy not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

In this article and article 79, address, in relation to communications made in electronic form, includes any number or address (including, in the case of any uncertificated proxy instruction permitted pursuant to article 76.2, an identification number of a participant in the relevant system concerned) used for the purposes of such electronic communications.

When calculating the periods mentioned in this article, the directors can decide not to take account of any part of a day that is not a working day.

- 76.2 Without limiting the foregoing, in relation to any uncertificated shares the directors may from time to time permit appointments of a proxy to be made by electronic means in the form of an uncertificated proxy instruction (that is, a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, which is sent by means of the relevant system concerned and received by such participant in that system acting on behalf of the company as the directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned)), and may in a similar manner permit supplements to, or amendments or revocations of, any such uncertificated proxy instruction to be made by like means. The directors may, in addition, prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such properly authenticated dematerialised instruction (and/or other instruction or notification) is to be treated as received by the company or such participant. The directors may treat any such uncertificated proxy instruction which purports to be, or is expressed to be, sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

- 76.3 A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may:
- (a) accept a photocopy, or a copy delivered by facsimile transmission, of the instrument appointing the proxy (and of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the board); and/or
 - (b) accept an instrument appointing a proxy which has not been properly executed as required by article 76.1 or is not supported by the relevant documents as required by article 76.2

as a valid instrument of proxy where such person determines, in good faith, that the documents deposited (including, where relevant, by electronic means) indicate in sufficient detail the member's intention to appoint a proxy.

- 76.4 No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiry of twelve months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve months from such date.
- 76.5 To the extent (if any) that the board determines that proxies may be appointed by electronic means, any provisions of articles 75 and 76 may be disapplied or varied, insofar as they relate to any appointment made in this way, in such manner as the board may specify.

77 More than one proxy may be appointed

A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion and if he does he shall specify the number of shares in respect of which each proxy is entitled to exercise the related votes and shall ensure that no proxy is appointed to exercise the votes which any other proxy has been appointed by that member to exercise. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the company is unable to determine which instrument was last validly delivered, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

78 Board may supply proxy cards

The board may at the expense of the company send or make available, by post or otherwise, instruments of proxy (reply-paid or otherwise) to members for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the company, such invitations shall, subject to article 56, be issued to all (and not some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

79 Revocation of proxy

Subject to section 330 CA 2006, a vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or mental disorder of the principal or the revocation of the instrument of proxy, or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument of proxy is given, unless notice in writing of such death, mental disorder, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at the office, or at such other place as has been appointed for the deposit of instruments of proxy, or, where the appointment of a proxy was made by electronic means, at the address at which such appointment was duly received, at least forty eight hours (or such shorter period as the directors may determine) (such period to include or exclude any part of a day which is not a working day, if so determined by the directors) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the instrument of proxy is used.

80 Corporate representative

A corporation (whether or not a company within the meaning of CA 2006) which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any meeting of the company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares. Any person so authorised shall (subject to section 323 CA 2006) be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's holdings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. The corporation shall for the purposes of these articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it; and all references to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly. A director, the secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or such other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to them before permitting him to exercise his powers.

81 Failure to disclose interests in shares

81.1 If a member, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares held by that member, has been issued with a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 and has failed in relation to any shares (the default shares, which expression includes any shares issued after the date of such notice in respect of those shares) to give the company the information thereby required within the prescribed period from the service of the notice, the following sanctions shall apply unless the board otherwise determines:

- (a) the member shall not be entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares or on any poll or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting or poll; and
- (b) where the default shares represent at least 0.25 per cent in nominal value of the issued shares of their class (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares):
 - (i) any dividend or other money payable in respect of the shares shall be withheld by the company, which shall not have any obligation to pay interest on it, and the member shall not be entitled to elect, pursuant to article 152, to receive shares instead of that dividend; and

(ii) no transfer, other than an excepted transfer, of any shares held by the member shall be registered unless:

(A) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and

(B) the member proves to the satisfaction of the board that no person in default as regards supplying such information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.

81.2 Where the sanctions under article 81.1 apply in relation to any shares, they shall cease to have effect (and any dividends withheld under article 81.1(b) shall become payable):

(a) if the shares are transferred by means of an excepted transfer but only in respect of the shares transferred; or

(b) at the end of the period of seven days (or such shorter period as the board may determine) following receipt by the company of the information required by the notice mentioned in that paragraph and the board being fully satisfied that such information is full and complete.

81.3 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the company issues a notice pursuant to section 793 CA 2006 to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of article 81.1.

81.4 Where default shares in which a person appears to be interested are held by a depositary, the provisions of this article 81 shall be treated as applying only to those shares held by the depositary in which such person appears to be interested and not (insofar as such person's apparent interest is concerned) to any other shares held by the depositary.

81.5 Where the member on which a notice under section 793 CA 2006 is served is a depositary acting in its capacity as such, the obligations of the depositary as a member of the company shall be limited to disclosing to the company such information relating to any person appearing to be interested in the shares held by it as has been recorded by it pursuant to the arrangements entered into by the company or approved by the board pursuant to which it was appointed as a depositary.

81.6 For the purposes of this article 81:

(a) a person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if the company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a notice under section 793 CA 2006, from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is, or may be, so interested;

(b) interested shall be construed as it is for the purpose of sections 820 and 822 to 825 CA 2006;

(c) reference to a person having failed to give the company the information required by a notice, or being in default as regards supplying such information, includes reference:

(i) to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and

- (ii) to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular, or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular;
- (d) prescribed period means fourteen days;
- (e) excepted transfer means, in relation to any shares held by a member:
 - (i) a transfer by way of, or pursuant to, acceptance of a takeover offer for the company (within the meaning of section 974 CA 2006); or
 - (ii) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in section 285 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the company's shares are normally traded; or
 - (iii) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the board to be made in consequence of a sale of the whole of the beneficial interest in the shares to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares.

81.7 Nothing contained in this article 81 shall be taken to limit the powers of the company under sections 794 and 795 CA 2006.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

82 Power of sale

82.1 The company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if and provided that:

- (a) during the period of twelve years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (b) below (or, if published on different dates, the earlier or earliest thereof) no cheque, order or warrant in respect of such share sent by the company through the post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member or to the person entitled by transmission to the share, at his address on the register or other last known address given by the member or person to which cheques, orders or warrants in respect of such share are to be sent has been cashed and the company has received no communications in respect of such share from such member or person, provided that during such period of twelve years the company has paid at least three cash dividends (whether Interim or final) and no such dividend has been claimed by the person entitled to it;
- (b) on or after expiry of the said period of twelve years the company has given notice of its intention to sell such share by advertisements in two newspapers of which one shall be a national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and the other shall be a newspaper circulating in the area of the address on the register or other last known address of the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share or the address for the service of notices notified under article 161.3;
- (c) the said advertisements, if not published on the same day, shall have been published within thirty days of each other; and
- (d) during the further period of three months following the date of publication of the said advertisements (or, if published on different dates, the later or latest thereof) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale the company has not received any communication in respect of such share from the member or person entitled by transmission.

82.2 To give effect to any sale of shares pursuant to this article the board may authorise some person to transfer the shares in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred shares in the register notwithstanding the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect thereof and may issue a new certificate to the transferee. An instrument of transfer executed by (or a dematerialised instruction given by) that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed or effected by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase moneys, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

82.3 If during the period of twelve years referred to in article 82.1, or during any period ending on the date when all the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied, any additional shares have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of, or previously so issued during, any such period and all the requirements of paragraphs (b) to (d) of article 82.1 have been satisfied in regard to such additional shares, the company shall also be entitled to sell the additional shares.

83 Application of proceeds of sale

The company shall account to the member or other person entitled to such share for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all moneys in respect thereof to a separate account. The company shall be deemed to be a debtor to, and not a trustee for, such member or other person in respect of such moneys. Moneys carried to such separate account may either be employed in the business of the company or invested in such investments as the board may from time to time think fit. No interest shall be payable to such member or other person in respect of such moneys and the company shall not be required to account for any money earned on them.

APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

84 Number of directors

Unless and until otherwise determined by the company by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than any alternate directors) shall be not more than fifteen nor less than three.

85 Power of company to appoint directors

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles.

86 Power of board to appoint directors

Without prejudice to the power of the company to appoint any person to be a director pursuant to these articles, the board shall have power at any time to appoint any person who is willing to act as a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing board, but the total number of directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these articles. Any director so appointed shall retire at the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment and shall not be taken into account in determining the number of directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

87 Appointment of executive directors

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may from time to time appoint one or more of its body to hold any employment or executive office (including that of executive chairman, chief executive or managing director) for such term (subject to the provisions of CA 2006) and subject to such other conditions as the board thinks fit in accordance with article 111. The board may revoke or terminate any such appointment without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of contract between the director and the company.

88 Eligibility for appointment as a director

No person, other than a director retiring (by rotation or otherwise), shall be appointed or re-appointed a director at any general meeting unless:

- (a) he is recommended by the board; or
- (b) not less than seven nor more than forty-two clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice duly executed or authenticated by a member (other than the person to be proposed) qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the company of the intention to propose that person for appointment or re-appointment, stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the company's register of directors, together with notice executed or authenticated by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed, is lodged at the office.

89 Share qualification

A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the company.

90 Resolution for appointment

A resolution for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall be void unless an ordinary resolution that it shall be so proposed has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

91 Retirement at intervals of one year and three years

91.1 A director (not being a director holding any employment or executive office pursuant to article 87) shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at each annual general meeting if, at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, he has served as a director for a continuous period of nine years or more, and for the purpose of this article 91.1 the retirement and re-appointment of a director at the same general meeting, whether pursuant to these articles or otherwise, shall not constitute an interruption to that director's period of continuous service.

91.2 A director shall retire from office, and may offer himself for re-appointment, at the third annual general meeting following his appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting.

92 Directors to retire by rotation

92.1 Any director who is or will be required to retire at an annual general meeting pursuant to article 86 or article 91.1 shall not be taken into account in determining the number or the identity of the directors to retire by rotation at that meeting pursuant to this article 92.

92.2 The directors to retire by rotation at an annual general meeting pursuant to this article 92 shall be determined, both as to number and identity, by the composition of the board at the start of business on the date of the notice convening that annual general meeting, notwithstanding any change in the number or the identity of the directors after that time and before the conclusion of that annual general meeting.

92.3 At each annual general meeting, one third of the directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for re-appointment. Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the directors to retire by rotation pursuant to this article 92 shall be, first, any director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, any director who is or will be required to retire pursuant to article 91.2, and thirdly that director or those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting. As between two or more directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting, the director or directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

93 Retirement of directors by rotation: Transitional article

93.1 Article 92.3 (Directors to retire by rotation) shall not apply to the company's first two annual general meetings, to be held in 2009 and 2010, but shall apply to all subsequent annual general meetings.

93.2 At the annual general meeting to be held in 2009, one third of the directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for reappointment. Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the directors to retire by rotation at the 2009 annual general meeting, pursuant to this article 93 shall be, first, any director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, any director who held office at the two preceding annual general meetings of United Utilities PLC (company no: 2366616) and who did not retire at either of them and thirdly, that director or those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting of United Utilities PLC or the company. As between two or more directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting of United Utilities PLC or the company, the director or directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

93.3 At the annual general meeting to be held in 2010, one third of directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number which is nearest to but does not exceed one third, shall retire from office and may offer themselves for reappointment. Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the directors to retire by rotation at the 2010 annual general meeting, pursuant to this article 93 shall be, first, any director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-appointment, secondly, any director who held office at the annual general meeting of United Utilities PLC (company no: 2366616) held in 2008 and the annual general meeting of the company held in 2009 and who did not retire at either of them, and thirdly that director or those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment or last re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting of United Utilities PLC or the company. As between two or more directors who have been in office an equal length of time since their last appointment or re-appointment by shareholders at a general meeting of United Utilities PLC or the company, the director or directors to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot.

94 Position of retiring director

A director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he is not re-appointed or deemed to have been re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

95 Deemed re-appointment

At any annual general meeting at which a director retires by rotation the company may fill the vacancy and, if it does not do so, the retiring director shall, if willing, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

96 No retirement on account of age

No person shall be or become incapable of being appointed a director by reason of his having attained the age of seventy or any other age, nor shall any special notice be required in connection with the appointment or the approval of the appointment of such person. No director shall vacate his office at any time by reason of the fact that he has attained the age of seventy or any other age.

97 Removal by ordinary resolution

In addition to any power of removal conferred by the statutes, the company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract of service between him and the company, and may (subject to these articles) by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a director in his place. Any person so appointed shall be treated, for the purposes of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire, as if he had become a director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or re-appointed a director.

98 Vacation of office by director

Without prejudice to the provisions for retirement (by rotation or otherwise) contained in these articles, the office of a director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he resigns by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office or tendered at a board meeting;
- (b) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the statutes, is removed from office pursuant to these articles or the statutes or becomes prohibited by law from being a director;
- (c) he becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him, makes any arrangement or compounds with his creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that Act;
- (d) an order is made by any court of competent jurisdiction on the ground (howsoever formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or receiver or other person to exercise powers with respect to his affairs or he is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under the Mental Health Act 1983 or, in Scotland, under the Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984 and the board resolves that his office be vacated;

- (e) both he and his alternate director appointed pursuant to the provisions of these articles (if any) are absent, without the permission of the board, from board meetings for six consecutive months and the board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (f) he is removed from office by notice in writing signed by all the other directors (without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract between him and the company) and, for this purpose, a set of like notices each signed by one or more of the directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of directors; or
- (g) in the case of any director who holds any executive office with the company, his appointment as such is terminated or expires and the directors resolve that his office be vacated.

99 Resolution as to vacancy conclusive

A resolution of the board declaring a director to have vacated office under the terms of article 98 shall be conclusive as to the fact and grounds of vacation stated in the resolution.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

100 Appointment

- 100.1 Each director (other than an alternate director) may, by notice in writing delivered to, or if in electronic form, received by the secretary at the office, or in any other manner approved by the board, appoint any other director or any person approved for that purpose by the board and willing to act, to be his alternate.
- 100.2 No appointment of an alternate director who is not already a director shall be effective until his consent to act as a director in the form prescribed by the statutes has been received at the office.
- 100.3 An alternate director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum or minimum number of directors allowed by these articles.

101 Participation in board meetings

Every alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the board and all committees of the board of which his appointor is a member and, in the absence from such meetings of his appointor, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor. A director acting as alternate director shall have a separate vote at board meetings for each director for whom he acts as alternate director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

102 Alternate director responsible for own acts

Every person acting as an alternate director shall be an officer of the company, shall alone be responsible to the company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing him.

103 Interests of alternate director

An alternate director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements with the company and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a director. However, he shall not be entitled to receive from the company any fees for his services as alternate, except only such part (if any) of the fee payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the company direct. Subject to this article, the company shall pay to an alternate director such expenses as might properly have been paid to him if he had been a director.

104 Revocation of appointment

An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director:

- (a) if his appointor revokes his appointment; or
- (b) if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director, provided that if any director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to be re-appointed at the same meeting, any valid appointment of an alternate director which was in force immediately before his retirement shall remain in force; or
- (c) if any event happens in relation to him which, if he were a director otherwise appointed, would cause him to vacate office.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND PENSIONS

105 Directors' fees

The directors (other than alternate directors) shall be entitled to receive by way of fees for their services as directors such sum as the board may, from time to time, determine (not exceeding, in aggregate, £1,000,000 per annum or such other sum as the company in general meeting by ordinary resolution shall, from time to time, determine). Such sum (unless otherwise directed by the resolution of the company by which it is voted) shall be divided among the directors in such proportions and in such manner as the board may determine or, in default of such determination, equally (except that in such event any director holding office for less than the whole of the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall only rank in such division in proportion to the time during such period for which he holds office). Any fees payable pursuant to this article shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration, expenses or other amounts payable to a director pursuant to any other provisions of these articles and shall accrue from day to day.

106 Expenses

Each director shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties as director, including any expenses incurred in attending meetings of the board or any committee of the board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company. If in the opinion of the directors it is desirable that any of their number should go or reside abroad or make any special journeys or perform any special services on behalf of the company or its business, such director or directors may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise and expenses therefore as the directors may from time to time determine.

107 Remuneration of executive directors

The salary or remuneration of any director appointed to hold any employment or executive office in accordance with the provisions of these articles may be either a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by business done or profits made or otherwise determined by the board, and may be in addition to or in lieu of any fee payable to him for his services as director pursuant to these articles.

108 Pensions and other benefits

The board may exercise all the powers of the company to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability benefits or other allowances or gratuities (whether by insurance or otherwise) for, or to institute and maintain any institution, association, society, club, trust, other establishment or profit-sharing, share incentive, share purchase or employees' share scheme calculated to advance the interests of the company or to benefit, any person who is or has at any time been a director or employee of the company or any company which is a holding company or a subsidiary undertaking of or allied to or associated with the company or any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking or any predecessor in business of the company or of any such holding company or subsidiary undertaking, and for any member of his family (including a spouse or former spouse) and any person who is or was dependent on him. For such purpose the board may establish, maintain, subscribe and contribute to any scheme, institution, association, club, trust or fund and pay premiums and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, lend money or make payments to, guarantee or give an indemnity in respect of, or give any financial or other assistance in connection with any of the aforesaid matters. The board may procure any of such matters to be done by the company either alone or in conjunction with any other person. Any director or former director shall be entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided under this article and shall not be obliged to account for it to the company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

109 Powers of the board

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the memorandum of association of the company and these articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the company, the business of the company shall be managed by the board, which may exercise all the powers of the company, whether relating to the management of the business or not. No alteration of the memorandum of association or of these articles and no such direction given by the company shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. Provisions contained elsewhere in these articles as to any specific power of the board shall not be deemed to limit the general powers given by this article.

110 Powers of directors being less than minimum number

If the number of directors is less than the minimum for the time being prescribed by these articles, the remaining director or directors shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional director or directors to make up such minimum or of convening a general meeting of the company for the purpose of making such appointment. If there are no director or directors able or willing to act, any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors. Subject to the provisions of these articles, any additional director so appointed shall hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting.

111 Powers of executive directors

The board may from time to time:

- (a) delegate or entrust to and confer on any director holding executive office (including a chief executive or managing director) such of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit; and
- (b) revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

112 Delegation to committees

112.1 The board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) for such time on such terms and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to any committee consisting of one or more directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons, provided that:

- (a) a majority of the members of a committee shall be directors; and
- (b) no resolution of a committee shall be effective unless a majority of those present when it is passed are directors or alternate directors.

112.2 The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers and discharge any such committee in whole or in part. Insofar as any power, authority or discretion is so delegated, any reference in these articles to the exercise by the board of such power, authority or discretion shall be construed as if it were a reference to the exercise of such power, authority or discretion by such committee.

113 Local management

The board may establish any local or divisional boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the company in any specified locality, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be members of such local or divisional board, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration. The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent so appointed any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local or divisional board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies; and any such appointment or delegation may be made for such time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the board may think fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. Subject to any terms and conditions expressly imposed by the board, the proceedings of any local or divisional board or agency with two or more members shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board, so far as they are capable of applying.

114 Power of attorney

The board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person or persons to be the agent of the company and may delegate to any such person or persons any of its powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate), in each case for such purposes and for such time, on such terms (including as to remuneration) and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit. The board may confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the board in that respect and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary any of such powers.

115 Use of the title "director"

The board may appoint any person (not being a director) to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the company such designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that such person is, or is deemed to be, or is empowered in any respect to act as, a director for any of the purposes of the statutes or these articles.

116 Exercise of voting power

The board may exercise or cause to be exercised the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the company, or any power of appointment to be exercised by the company, in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit (including the exercise of the voting power or power of appointment in favour of the appointment of any director as a director or other officer or employee of such company or in favour of the payment of remuneration to the directors, officers or employees of such company).

117 Provision for employees

The board may exercise any power conferred on the company by the statutes to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (or any member of his family or any person who is dependent on him) in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary undertaking.

118 Overseas registers

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may exercise the powers conferred on the company with regard to the keeping of an overseas branch, local or other register and may make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

119 Borrowing powers

119.1 The board may exercise all the powers of the company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, to create and issue debenture and other loan stock and debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.

119.2 The board shall restrict the borrowings of the company and exercise all voting and other rights and powers of control exercisable by the company in respect of its subsidiary undertakings so as to procure (as regards its subsidiary undertakings in so far as it can procure by such exercise) that the aggregate principal amount at any one time outstanding in respect of moneys borrowed by the group (exclusive of moneys borrowed by one group company from another and after deducting cash deposited) shall not at any time, without the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of the company exceed an amount equal to two and a half (2½) times the adjusted capital and reserves.

119.3 For the purposes only of this article 119:

(a) adjusted capital and reserves means a sum equal to the aggregate from time to time of:

- (i) the amount paid up (or credited as paid up) on the allotted or issued share capital of the company (including any shares held as treasury shares); and
- (ii) the amount standing to the credit of the reserves of the company, whether or not distributable (including, without limitation, any revaluation reserve, merger reserve, share premium account or capital redemption reserve), after adding thereto or deducting therefrom any balance standing to the credit or debit of the income statement;

all as shown in the relevant balance sheet, but after:

- (iii) making such adjustments as may be appropriate to reflect:
 - (A) any variation in the amount of the paid up share capital and the amount standing to the credit of any of such reserves since the date of the relevant balance sheet and so that for the purpose of making such adjustments, if any proposed allotment of shares by the company for cash has been underwritten, then such shares shall be deemed to have been allotted and the amount (including the premium) of the subscription monies payable in respect thereof (not being monies payable later than six months after the date of allotment) shall be deemed to have been paid up to the extent so underwritten on the date when the issue of such shares was underwritten (or, if such underwriting was conditional, the date on which it became unconditional);
 - (B) any variation since the date of the relevant balance sheet of the companies comprising the group;
- (iv) excluding (so far as not already excluded):
 - (A) amounts attributable to the proportion of the issued equity share capital of any subsidiary undertaking which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;
 - (B) any sum set aside for taxation (other than deferred taxation);
 - (C) the effect on the reserves of the company of any surplus or any deficit in the funding of any retirement benefit scheme which would otherwise be reflected in accordance with any applicable accounting standards;
- (v) deducting:
 - (A) sums equivalent to the book values of goodwill and other intangible assets shown in the relevant balance sheet; and
 - (B) the amount of any distribution declared, recommended or made by any group company to a person other than a group company out of profits accrued up to and including the date of (and not provided for in) the relevant balance sheet;

- (b) cash deposited means an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts beneficially owned by group companies which are deposited for the time being with any bank or other person (not being a group company) and which are repayable to any group company on demand or within three months of such demand, subject, in the case of amounts deposited by a partly-owned subsidiary undertaking, to the exclusion of a proportion thereof equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital which is not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;
- (c) group means the company and its subsidiary undertakings from time to time;
- (d) group company means any company in the group;
- (e) moneys borrowed include not only moneys borrowed but also the following except in so far as otherwise taken into account:
- (i) the nominal amount of any issued share capital, and the principal amount of any debenture or borrowings of, any person, the beneficial interest in which or right to repayment to which is not for the time being owned by a group company but the payment or repayment of which is the subject of a guarantee or indemnity by a group company or is secured on the assets of a group company;
 - (ii) the principal amount raised by any group company by acceptances or under any acceptance credit opened on its behalf by any bank or acceptance house (not being a group company) other than acceptances and acceptance credits relating to the purchase of goods or services in the ordinary course of trading and outstanding for six months or less;
 - (iii) the principal amount of any debenture (whether secured or unsecured) of any group company owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (iv) the principal amount of any preference share capital of any subsidiary undertaking owned otherwise than by a group company;
 - (v) any fixed or minimum premium payable on final repayment of any borrowing or deemed borrowing (but any premium payable on final repayment of an amount not to be taken into account as moneys borrowed shall not be taken into account); and

but do not include:

- (vi) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of repaying, within six months of being first borrowed, the whole or any part of any moneys borrowed and then outstanding (including any premium payable on final repayment) of that or any other group company pending their application for such purpose within that period;
- (vii) moneys borrowed by any group company for the purpose of financing any contract in respect of which any part of the price receivable under the contract by that or any other group company is guaranteed or insured, up to an amount equal to that part of the price receivable under the contract which is so guaranteed or insured;

- (viii) an amount equal to the moneys borrowed of any company outstanding immediately after it becomes a group company, provided that it became a group company during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (ix) an amount equal to the amount secured on an asset immediately after it was acquired by a group company, provided that it was acquired during the six months preceding the calculation;
- (x) notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (i) to (v) above, the proportion of moneys borrowed by a group company (and not owing to another group company) which is equal to the proportion of its issued equity share capital not attributable, directly or indirectly, to the company;

and in sub-paragraphs (vi) to (x) above references to amounts of moneys borrowed include references to amounts which, but for the exclusion under those sub-paragraphs, would fall to be included;

- (f) relevant balance sheet means the latest published audited consolidated balance sheet of the group but, where the company has no subsidiary undertakings, it means the balance sheet and income statement of the company and, where the company has subsidiary undertakings but there are no consolidated accounts of the group, it means the respective balance sheets of the companies comprising the group;
- (g) subsidiary undertaking means a subsidiary undertaking (within the meaning of CA 2006) of the company (except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation by virtue of the provisions of section 229 CA 1985 or section 405 CA 2006); and group and group company and references to any company which becomes a group company or to companies comprising the group shall, in such a case, be construed so as to include subsidiary undertakings except a subsidiary undertaking which is excluded from consolidation as aforesaid and equity share capital shall be construed in relation to a subsidiary undertaking without a share capital in the same manner as shares are defined in relation to an undertaking without a share capital under section 259(2)(b) and (c) CA 1985 or section 1161(2) CA 2006.

119.4 When the aggregate amount of moneys borrowed required to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 119 on any particular day is being ascertained, any of such moneys denominated or repayable in a currency other than sterling shall be converted for the purpose of calculating the sterling equivalent either:

- (a) at the rate of exchange used for the conversion of that currency in the relevant balance sheet; or
- (b) if no rate was so used, at the middle market rate of exchange prevailing at the close of business in London on the date of that balance sheet; or
- (c) where the repayment of such moneys is expressly covered by a forward purchase contract, currency option, back-to-back loan, swap or other arrangements taken out and entered into to reduce the risk associated with fluctuations in exchange rates, at the rate of exchange specified in that document

but if the amount in sterling resulting from conversion at that rate would be greater than that resulting from conversion at the middle market rate prevailing in London at the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day on which the calculation falls to be made, the latter rate shall apply instead.

119.5 Where requested by the company, a report or certificate of the auditors as to the amount of the adjusted capital and reserves or the amount of moneys borrowed falling to be taken into account for the purposes of this article 119 or to the effect that the limit imposed by this article 119 has not been or will not be exceeded at any particular time or times or as a result of any particular transaction or transactions shall be conclusive evidence of the amount or of that fact.

119.6 No debt incurred or security given in respect of moneys borrowed in excess of the limit imposed by this article 119 shall be invalid or ineffectual, except in the case of express notice to the lender or recipient of the security at the time when the debt was incurred or security given that the limit had been or would thereby be exceeded, but no lender or other person dealing with the company shall be concerned to see or enquire whether such limit is observed.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

120 Board meetings

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the board may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

121 Notice of board meetings

One director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, summon a board meeting at any time on reasonable notice. Notice of a board meeting shall be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to him at his last known address or any other address given by him to the company for that purpose. A director may waive the requirement that notice be given to him of any board meeting, either prospectively or retrospectively. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a board meeting to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom unless he has requested the board in writing that notices of board meetings shall during his absence be given to him at any address in the United Kingdom notified to the company for this purpose, but he shall not, in such event, be entitled to a longer period of notice than if he had been present in the United Kingdom at that address.

122 Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business may be determined by the board and until otherwise determined shall be two directors. A duly convened meeting of the board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board.

123 Chairman of the board

The board may appoint one or more of its body chairman or joint chairman and one or more of its body deputy chairman of its meetings and may determine the period for which he is or they are to hold office and may at any time remove him or them from office. If no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected, or if at any meeting neither a chairman nor a deputy chairman is present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting. Any chairman or deputy chairman may also hold executive office under the company.

124 Voting

Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman of that meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

125 Participation by telephone or video conference

125.1 Any director or his alternate may validly participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board through the medium of conference telephone, video conferencing link or any other form of communications equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting, or by a series of telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting.

125.2 A person so participating by being present or being in telephone or video conference or any other form of communication with those in the meeting or with the chairman of the meeting shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall accordingly be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no group which is larger than any other group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

125.3 A resolution passed at any meeting held in the above manner, and signed by the chairman of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be) duly convened and held.

126 Resolution of the directors in writing

A resolution in writing signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a board meeting and not being less than a quorum, or by all the members of a committee of the board for the time being entitled to receive notice of such committee meeting and not being less than a quorum of that committee, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the board (or committee, as the case may be). Such a resolution:

- (a) may consist of several copies of a document (each signed by one or more of the directors or members of the relevant committee, including signatures evidenced by means of facsimile transmission), which copies may be transmitted by electronic means, in which event, subject to any terms and conditions determined from time to time by the board, no signatures shall be required;
- (b) need not be signed by an alternate director if it is signed by the director who appointed him;
- (c) if signed by an alternate director, need not also be signed by his appointor;
- (d) to be effective, need not be signed by a director who is prohibited by these articles from voting thereon, or by his alternate.

127 Proceedings of committees

All committees of the board shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated to them and in the transaction of business, conform with any mode of proceedings and regulations which the board may prescribe and subject thereto shall be governed by such of these articles as regulate the proceedings of the board as are capable of applying.

128 Minutes of proceedings

128.1 The board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose of recording:

- (a) all appointments of officers and committees made by the board; and

- (b) the names of directors present at every meeting of the board, of a committee of the board, of the company or of the holders of any class of shares or debentures of the company, and all orders, resolutions and proceedings of such meetings.

128.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting or the secretary, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in such minutes without any further proof.

129 Validity of proceedings

All acts done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee of the board, or by any person acting as a director, alternate director or member of a committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any person or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were or was disqualified from holding office or not entitled to vote, or had in any way vacated their or his office, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was duly qualified and had continued to be a director, alternate director or member of a committee and entitled to vote.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

130 Directors' power to authorise conflict situations

130.1 For the purposes of section 175 of CA 2006, the directors shall have the power to authorise, on such terms (including as regards duration and revocation), and subject to such limits or conditions, if any, as they may determine, any matter proposed to them in accordance with these articles which would or might, if not so authorised, constitute or give rise to a situation (a Relevant Situation) in which a director (an Interested Director) has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company (including, without limitation, in relation to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity, whether or not the company could take advantage of it). Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation pursuant to this article 130 shall extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Relevant Situation so authorised.

130.2 Where directors give authority under article 130.1:

- (a) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (b) the directors may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

130.3 Any such authorisation will be effective only if:

- (a) at the meeting of the directors at which the Relevant Situation is considered any requirement as to quorum is met without counting the Interested Director; and
- (b) the authorisation was agreed to without any Interested Director voting, or would have been agreed to if the votes of all Interested Directors had not been counted.

130.4 Subject to article 130.3(b), any proposal made to the directors and any authorisation by the directors in relation to a Relevant Situation shall be dealt with in the same way as that in which any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors.

130.5 For the purposes of this article 130, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

130.6 An Interested Director shall be obliged:

- (a) to disclose to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in any Relevant Situation, such disclosure to be made as soon as reasonably practicable; and
- (b) to act in accordance with any terms, limits or conditions determined by the directors under article 130.1.

130.7 Any authorisation of a Relevant Situation given by the directors under article 130.1 may provide that:

- (a) where the Interested Director obtains (other than through his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, he will not be obliged to disclose it to the company or to use it in relation to the company's affairs in circumstances where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (b) where the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest in a matter which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, he may absent himself from the discussion of such matter at any meeting of the directors and be excused from reviewing papers prepared by or for the directors to the extent that they relate to that matter; and
- (c) the Interested Director be excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at directors' meetings or otherwise) related to the matter which the Interested Director has a direct or indirect interest which conflicts, or may conflict, with the interests of the company, and anything done (or omitted to be done) by the Interested Director in accordance with any such provision (or otherwise in accordance with the terms of any authorisation given under Article 130.1) will not constitute a breach by him of his duties under sections 172 to 174 CA 2006.

131 Director may have interests

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and provided that article 132 is complied with, a director, notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may enter into or otherwise be interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested, either in regard to his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (b) may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (except that of auditor or of auditor of a subsidiary of the company) in conjunction with the office of director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the company, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the board may arrange, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration provided for by any other article;
- (c) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested or as regards which the company has any powers of appointment; and

- (d) shall not be liable to account to the company for any profit, remuneration or other benefit which he derives from:
 - (i) any such office, employment, contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal; or
 - (ii) from any office or employment or from any transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any body corporate the acceptance, entry into or existence of which has been authorised by the directors pursuant to article 130 (subject, in any such case, to any terms, limits or conditions to which such authorisation was subject), and no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal as is referred to in this article 131 shall be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit and the receipt by a director of any such remuneration or other benefit shall not constitute a breach of his duties under section 176 CA 2006.

132 Disclosure of interests to board

132.1 A director who, to his knowledge, is in any way (directly or indirectly) interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the company shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the board at which the question of entering into the contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal is first considered, if he knows his interest then exists or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the board after he knows that he is or has become so interested.

132.2 For the purposes of this article and article 130:

- (a) a general notice given to the board by a director that he is to be regarded as having an interest (of the nature and extent specified in the notice) in any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure under this article in relation to such contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal; and
- (b) an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

132.3 A director need not declare an interest pursuant to article 132.1, or in order to take advantage of article 130, if:

- (a) it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- (b) if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
- (c) if, or to the extent that, it concerns terms of his service contract that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors or by a committee of the directors appointed for the purpose under the company's constitution.

133 Interested director not to vote or count for quorum

Save as provided in this article, a director shall not vote on, or be counted in the quorum in relation to, any resolution of the board or of a committee of the board concerning any contract, arrangement, transaction or any other proposal whatsoever to which the company is or is to be a party and in which he has an interest which (together with any interest of any person connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) is to his knowledge a material interest otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of or otherwise in or through the company, unless the resolution concerns any of the following matters:

- (a) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) the giving of any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (c) any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;
- (d) any proposal concerning any other body corporate in which he (together with persons connected with him within the meaning of section 252 CA 2006) does not to his knowledge have an interest in one per cent or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of such body corporate;
- (e) any proposal relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates; or
- (f) any proposal concerning insurance which the company proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors; and
- (g) any proposal concerning any arrangement to be entered into by the company for the provision of any indemnity in favour of any other current or former director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings in respect of liabilities incurred by any such person in the course of his office or employment with the company or any such subsidiary undertaking (notwithstanding the fact that such director may also be provided with an indemnity on equivalent terms).

134 Director's interest in own appointment

A director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the board or committee of the board concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of his appointment or its termination) as the holder of any office or place of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment or its termination) of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the company or any company in which the company is interested, such proposals may be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each director. In such case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under these articles) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

135 Chairman's ruling conclusive on director's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of a director's interest (other than the chairman's interest) or as to the entitlement of any director (other than the chairman) to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The chairman's ruling in relation to the director concerned shall be final and conclusive.

136 Directors' resolution conclusive on chairman's interest

If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of the chairman's interest or as to the entitlement of the chairman to vote or be counted in a quorum, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be decided by resolution of the directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the chairman), whose majority vote shall be final and conclusive.

137 Connected persons

For the purposes of articles 130 to 136 (which shall apply equally to alternate directors) an interest of a person who is for the purposes of the statutes connected (which word shall have the meaning given to it by section 252 CA 2006) with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director.

SÉALS

138 Safe custody

The board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, the securities seal and of any other seal of the company.

139 Application of seals

139.1 The seal shall be used only by the authority of a resolution of the board or of a committee of the board so authorised, which resolution may include a resolution for the giving of a general authority to any director, the secretary, an assistant secretary or other officer of the company to affix the seal from time to time. The board may determine whether any instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed and, if it is to be signed, who shall sign it and by what means. The board may also determine, either generally or in a particular case, that a signature may be dispensed with or affixed by mechanical, electronic or other means.

139.2 Every certificate or share warrant shall be issued either:

- (a) by affixing the securities seal to it, by mechanical, electronic or other means;
- (b) by printing a representation of the securities seal on it, by mechanical, electronic or other means, including laser printing; or
- (c) in such other manner as the board, having regard to the statutes and the regulations of the London Stock Exchange, may authorise.

140 Official seal for use abroad

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may have an official seal for use in any place abroad.

THE SECRETARY

141 The secretary

- 141.1 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board shall appoint a secretary or joint secretaries and shall have power to appoint one or more persons to be an assistant or deputy secretary at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and any such person so appointed may be removed by the board.
- 141.2 If the office of secretary is vacant, or if for any reason the secretary is incapable of acting, anything required or authorised by the statutes or these articles to be done by the secretary may be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary, or if there is no assistant or deputy secretary, by any officer of the company authorised either generally or specifically by the board in that regard.
- 141.3 Any provision of the statutes or of these articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

142 Power to authenticate

Any director or the secretary or any person appointed for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the company and any resolutions passed by the company or the directors or any committee of the directors, and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts. Where any books, records, documents or accounts are elsewhere than at the office the local manager or other officer of the company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the directors as aforesaid. A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution, or an extract from the minutes of a meeting, of the company or of the directors or any committee of the directors which is certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that such minutes or extract is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

143 Declaration of dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes and of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends to be paid to members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits of the company. However, no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board and no dividend shall be paid in respect of any shares held by the company as treasury shares.

144 Interim dividends

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the board may declare and pay such interim dividends (including any dividend payable at a fixed rate) as appear to the board to be justified by the profits of the company available for distribution. If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into different classes, the board may pay such interim dividends to the holders of shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrear. Provided that the board acts in good faith, it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by the lawful payment of any interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights.

145 Entitlement to dividends

Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the shares on which the dividend is paid. Subject as aforesaid, all dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

146 Calls or debts may be deducted from dividends

The board may deduct from any dividend or other money payable to any person on or in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.

147 Distribution in specie

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company, direct that payment of any dividend declared may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular, the board may:

- (a) issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions);
- (b) fix the value for distribution of such assets or any part thereof and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (c) vest any such assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

148 Dividends not to bear interest

Unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share, no dividend or other moneys payable by the company or in respect of a share shall bear interest as against the company.

149 Method of payment

149.1 The company may pay any dividend, interest or other sum payable in respect of a share in cash or by direct debit, bank transfer, cheque, dividend warrant, or money order, by any method provided by the rules of a relevant system, or by any other method (including by electronic media) as the board may consider appropriate and may send the same by post or other delivery service (or by such other means offered by the company as the member or persons entitled to it may agree in writing) to the registered address (or in the case of a depository, subject to the approval of the board, such persons and addresses as the depository may require) of the member or person entitled to it (or, if two or more persons are holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the member or otherwise by operation of law, to the registered address of such of those persons as is first named in the register) or to such person and such address as such member or person or persons may direct in writing.

149.2 Every cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented by it, shall (where relevant) be crossed in accordance with the Cheques Act 1992 and shall be made payable to the person or persons entitled, or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may direct in writing. Payment of the cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment shall be a good discharge to the company. If any such cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment has or shall be alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the board may, at the request of the person entitled thereto, issue a replacement cheque or warrant or order or make payment in some other form, subject to compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the company in connection with the request as the board may think fit.

149.3 Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share may give an effective receipt for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of such share.

149.4 The board may, at its discretion, make provisions to enable a depositary and/or any member as the board shall from time to time determine to receive duly declared dividends in a currency or currencies other than sterling. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be such rate or rates and the payment thereof shall be on such terms and conditions as the board may in its absolute discretion determine.

150 Uncashed dividends

If cheques, warrants or orders for dividends or other sums payable in respect of a share sent by the company to the person entitled thereto are returned to the company or left uncashed on two consecutive occasions or, following one occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address to be used for the purpose, the company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of that share due to that person until he notifies the company of an address to be used for the purpose.

151 Unclaimed dividends

All dividends, interest or other sum payable and unclaimed for twelve months after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the board for the benefit of the company until claimed and the company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for a period of twelve years after having been declared or become due for payment shall (if the board so resolves) be forfeited and shall cease to remain owing by the company.

152 Payment of share dividends

The board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution of the company and subject to such terms and conditions as the board may determine, offer to any holders of ordinary shares (excluding any ordinary share held as a treasury share) the right to elect to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The following provisions shall apply:

- (a) the said resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period or periods;
- (b) the entitlement of each holder of ordinary shares to new ordinary shares shall be such that the relevant value of the entitlement shall be as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that such holder would have received by way of dividend. For this purpose "relevant value" shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the ordinary shares on the London Stock Exchange, as derived from the Daily Official List, for the day on which the ordinary shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in such other manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution. A certificate or report by the auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount;

- (c) no fractions of a share shall be allotted. The board may make such provisions as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlements including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, the benefit thereof accrues to the company and/or under which fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained and in each case accumulated on behalf of any member and such accruals or retentions are applied to the allotment by way of bonus to or cash subscription on behalf of such member of fully paid ordinary shares and/or provisions whereby cash payments may be made to members in respect of their fractional entitlements;
- (d) the board shall, after determining the basis of allotment, notify the holders of ordinary shares in writing of the right of election offered to them, and specify the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections must be lodged in order to be effective;
- (e) the board may exclude from any offer any holders of ordinary shares or any ordinary shares held by a depository or any ordinary shares on which dividends are payable in foreign currency where the board considers that the making of the offer to them or in respect of such shares would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them or in respect of such shares;
- (f) the board may establish or vary from time to time a procedure for election mandates in respect of future rights of election and may determine that every duly effected election in respect of any ordinary shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the holder thereof;
- (g) the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on ordinary shares in respect of which an election has been duly made (the elected ordinary shares) and instead additional ordinary shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose the board may capitalise, out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve) or of any of the profits which could otherwise have been applied in paying dividends in cash as the board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on that basis. A board resolution capitalising any part of such reserve or fund or profits shall have the same effect as if such capitalisation had been declared by ordinary resolution of the company in accordance with article 154 and in relation to any such capitalisation the board may exercise all the powers conferred on them by article 154 without need of such ordinary resolution;
- (h) the additional ordinary shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with each other and with the fully paid ordinary shares in issue on the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered, except that they will not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement which has been declared, paid or made by reference to such record date; and

- (i) the board may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive ordinary shares in lieu of any cash dividend at any time and generally may implement any share dividend scheme on such terms and conditions as the board may from time to time determine and take such other action as the board may deem necessary or desirable from time to time in respect of any such scheme.

153 Reserves

The board may, before recommending any dividend (whether preferential or otherwise), carry to reserve out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit. All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time, at the discretion of the board, for any purpose to which the profits of the company may properly be applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments as the board thinks fit. The board may divide the reserve into such special funds as it thinks fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as it thinks fit. Any sum which the board may carry to reserve out of the unrealised profits of the company shall not be mixed with any reserve to which profits available for distribution have been carried. The board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute.

154 Capitalisation of reserves

The board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the company:

- (a) subject as provided in this article, resolve to capitalise any undivided profits of the company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the company which is available for distribution or standing to the credit of share premium account or capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve;
- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the holders of shares in proportion to the nominal amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were then distributable and were distributed by way of dividend, and unless the relevant resolution specifies otherwise, if on the relevant record date the company holds as treasury shares any shares of the same class as those whose holders would be entitled to receive such notional distribution, then the company is to be treated as if it were entitled to receive such distribution in respect of those treasury shares as would have been payable if a person other than the company had held those treasury shares;
- (c) apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those holders of shares or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that:
 - (i) the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, any other undistributable reserve and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this article, only be applied in paying up unissued shares to be allotted to holders of shares credited as fully paid; and

- (ii) in a case where any sum is applied in paying amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares of the company or in paying up in full debentures of the company, the amount of the net assets of the company at that time is not less than the aggregate of the called up share capital of the company and its undistributable reserves as shown in the latest audited accounts of the company or such other accounts as may be relevant and would not be reduced below that aggregate by the payment thereof;
- (d) resolve that any shares so allotted to any member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as such shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that such partly paid shares rank for dividends;
- (e) make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates (or by ignoring fractions or by accruing the benefit thereof to the company rather than to the holders of shares concerned) or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions;
- (f) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the holders of ordinary shares concerned into an agreement with the company providing for either:
 - (i) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares or debentures to which they may be entitled on such capitalisation; or
 - (ii) the payment up by the company on behalf of such holders by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares(any agreement made under such authority being effective and binding on all such holders); and
- (g) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution.

155 Record dates

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles but without prejudice to the rights attached to any shares and subject always to the statutes the company or the board may by resolution specify any date (the record date) as the date at the close of business (or such other time as the board may determine) on which persons registered as the holders of shares or other securities shall be entitled to receipt of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment, issue, notice, information, document or circular and such record date may be on or at any time before the date on which the same is paid, made, given or served or (in the case of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment or issue) at any time after the same is recommended, resolved, declared or announced but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of the same of transferors and transferees of any such shares or other securities. No change in the register of such holders after the record date shall invalidate the same.

ACCOUNTS

156 Accounting records

The board shall cause accounting records to be kept in accordance with the statutes.

157 Inspection of records

No member (other than a director) shall have any right to inspect any accounting record or other document of the company unless he is authorised to do so by statute, by order of the court, by the board or by ordinary resolution of the company.

158 Accounts to be sent to members

Except as provided in article 159, a printed copy of the directors' and auditors' reports accompanied by printed copies of the annual accounts shall, not less than twenty one clear days before the general meeting before which they are to be laid, be delivered or sent by post to every member and holder of debentures of the company and to the auditors and to every other person who is entitled to receive notice of general meetings. However, this article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person who under the provisions of these articles is not entitled to receive notices from the company or of whose address the company is unaware or to any holder of debentures of whose address the company is unaware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures. If and to the extent permitted by the statutes, all or any of such documents may be delivered to a member by electronic means or be made available on a website. If all or any of the shares in or debentures of the company are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, there shall at the same time be forwarded to the secretary of that stock exchange such number of copies of each of those documents as the regulations of that stock exchange may require.

159 Summary financial statements

The company may, in accordance with section 426 CA 2006 and any regulations made under it, send (including, to the extent permitted by the statutes, by electronic means) a summary financial statement to any member instead of or in addition to the documents referred to in article 158. Where it does so, the statement shall be delivered or sent by post to the member not less than twenty one clear days before the annual general meeting before which those documents are to be laid.

NOTICES

160 Notices to be in writing

Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to these articles shall be in writing, except that a notice convening a board or board committee meeting need not be in writing.

161 Service of notice on members

161.1 The company may give any notice, document or information to a member:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post or other delivery service in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address or by any other means, authorised in writing by the member concerned;
- (c) by electronic means to an address authorised in writing by the member concerned; or
- (d) by making it available on a website provided that the company has notified such member that the notice, document or information is so available by giving notice in the manner specified in any of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this article 161.1.

In the case of a member registered on an overseas branch register any such, document or information which is posted may be posted either in the United Kingdom or in the territory in which such branch register is maintained.

- 161.2 In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices or documents shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders. Where there are joint holders of a share, anything which needs to be agreed or specified in relation to any notice, document or other information to be sent or supplied to them can be agreed or specified by any one of the joint holders. The agreement or specification of the joint holder whose name stands earliest in the register will be accepted to the exclusion of the agreement or specification of any other joint holder(s) whose name(s) stand later in the register.
- 161.3 Where a member (or, in the case of joint holders, the person first named in the register) has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has notified the company of an address within the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to him, he shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address or, where applicable, to be notified at that address of the availability of the notice, documents or other information on a website. Alternatively, a member whose registered address is outside the United Kingdom can give the company an address for the purposes of communications in electronic form. If he does, notices, documents or other information may (at the company's absolute discretion), subject to these articles, be sent or supplied to him at that address. Otherwise, no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice or document from the company.
- 161.4 If on three consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any member at his registered address or his address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such member shall not thereafter be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the company until he shall have communicated with the company and supplied in writing a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom for the service of notices.
- 161.5 The provisions of this article 161 and of articles 162 to 166 do not affect any provision of the statutes or these articles requiring notices or documents to be delivered in a particular manner.
- 161.6 Where a member authorises the company to serve notices, documents or information on that member by electronic means, if the company receives an immediate electronic notification that such electronic mail address has ceased to be maintained, the company shall serve such notices, documents or information on the shareholder by such other means as may be permitted in accordance with article 161.1.

162 Notice in case of death, bankruptcy or mental disorder

The company may give notice to the person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law, by sending or delivering it in any manner authorised by these articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to that person by name, or by the title of representative of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt or representative by operation of law or by any like description, at the address (if any) within the United Kingdom supplied for the purpose by the person claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been so supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy or operation of law had not occurred.

163 Evidence of service

- 163.1 Any member present, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the company or of the holders of any class of shares of the company shall be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting, and, where requisite, of the purposes for which such meeting was called.
- 163.2 Any notice, certificate or other document, addressed to a member at his registered address or address for service in the United Kingdom shall, if sent by post, be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day after the day when it was put in the post (or, where second class mail is employed, on the second day after the day when it was put in the post). Proof that an envelope containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post as a pre-paid letter shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Any notice, certificate or other document not sent by post but delivered or left at a registered address, or address for service in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day on which it was so delivered or left. Any notice, document or information sent by electronic means shall be deemed to be delivered on the day it was sent even if the company subsequently sends a hard copy of such notice, document or other information by post. Any notice, document or information made available on a website shall be treated as being delivered when the material was first made available on the website, or if later, when the recipient received (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.
- 163.3 In calculating the number of days referred to in article 163.2 for deemed receipt of a notice, certificate or other document, non working days shall be included within the relevant time period.

164 Notice binding on transferees

Every person who, by operation of law, transfers or by any other means becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share (other than a notice given by the company under section 793 CA 2006) which, before his name is entered in the register, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title.

165 Notice by advertisement

Any notice to be given by the company to the members or any of them, and not otherwise provided for by these articles, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement first appears.

166 Suspension of postal services

If at any time by reason of the suspension, interruption or curtailment of postal services or electronic form of communications or threat thereof within the United Kingdom the company is or would be unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post or by electronic means, a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised in at least one national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and, where the company keeps an overseas branch register, in at least one daily newspaper published in the territory in which such register is maintained. Such notice shall be deemed to have been duly served on all members entitled thereto at noon on the day on which the first of such advertisements appears. In any such case the company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice by post or by electronic means if, at least seven days prior to the meeting, the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom or, as the case may be, the sending of such notices by electronic means again becomes practicable.

167 Service of notices on the company

Subject to the statutes, articles 161.1 and 163.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the service by members of notices and documents on the company, save that any notice, certificate (but not a share certificate) or document sent by electronic means to the company shall be deemed to have been served or delivered at the time it is actually received by the company.

WINDING UP

168 Division of assets

If the company is wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. Any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members, but if any division is resolved otherwise than in accordance with such rights, the members shall have the same right of dissent and consequential rights as if such resolution were a special resolution passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees on such trusts for the benefit of the members as he with the like sanction shall determine, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets on which there is a liability.

169 Transfer or sale under section 110 Insolvency Act 1986

A special resolution sanctioning a transfer or sale to another company duly passed pursuant to section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986 may in the like manner authorise the distribution of any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidator among the members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights, and any such determination shall be binding on all the members, subject to the right of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the said section.

INDEMNITY

170 Indemnity and insurance

170.1 As far as the statutes allow this, the company:

- (a) can indemnify any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company against any liability; and
- (b) can purchase and maintain insurance against any liability for any person who is or was at any time a director, alternate director, company secretary, officer or employee of the company or of any associated company.

170.2 A director of the company or of any associated company will not be accountable to the company or the shareholders for any benefit provided pursuant to this article 170. Anyone receiving such a benefit will not be disqualified from being or becoming a director of the company.

RECEIVED

2008 JUL 24 A 9 24

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

7. The preliminary results announcement of United Utilities for the year ended March 31, 2008

3 June 2008

STRONG OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
CAPITAL PROGRAMME ON TRACK

Preliminary results¹ for the year ended 31 March 2008

£m (except dividends)	Year ended		% Change
	31 March 2008	31 March 2007
Operating profit from continuing operations	663.2	642.1	+3%
Underlying operating profit from continuing operations ²	677.2	630.6	+7%
Profit before tax from continuing operations	478.3	502.3	-5%
Underlying profit before tax from continuing operations ²	475.6	407.5	+17%
Total dividends per ordinary share (pence)	46.67	44.93	+3.9%

Basic earnings per share (pence)	Year ended
	31 March 2008	31 March 2007
Continuing operations	47.3	40.9
Continuing and discontinued operations	103.3	49.4

¹ Contribution from United Utilities Electricity, facilities management operations, industrial liquid waste operations and telecoms and the profits or losses on disposal of each of these operations are treated as discontinued operations in these results. Results from continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2007 have therefore been re-presented

² Underlying operating profit from continuing operations and underlying profit before tax from continuing operations are defined in the underlying profit measure table on page 14

- Underlying operating profit² up 7% to £677 million
- Completed sale of United Utilities Electricity for a substantial premium to its regulatory asset value
- Proposed £1.5 billion return of value to shareholders scheduled for August
- Capital expenditure in regulated activities up 45% to £826 million and in line with regulatory assumptions
- Focus on core skills delivers operational improvements: outperformed tougher leakage target
- Enhanced liquidity: pre-funded for capital investment programmes through to 2010
- Extended major outsourcing contracts with Southern Water and British Gas Trading

Commenting, Philip Green, Chief Executive, said:

“We have had a successful year. We sold United Utilities Electricity for a substantial premium to its regulatory asset value, addressed the portfolio and capital structure of the group and announced a new dividend policy. We remain on course to return £1.5 billion to shareholders and I am pleased to report another good set of financial results.

“We are on track to deliver our regulatory capital programme and have spent £826 million on our infrastructure during the year. Our focus on improving operational performance is delivering results. We have improved the level of customer service we are providing and for the second year running have achieved Ofwat’s leakage target.

“We are confident of delivering a strong financial performance over the remainder of this regulatory period and continued investment in our assets will help to raise environmental standards further and improve the service we offer to customers.”

For further information on the day, please contact:

Philip Green - Chief Executive	+44 (0) 20 7307 0300
Tim Weller - Chief Financial Officer	+44 (0) 20 7307 0300
Gaynor Kenyon - Communications Director	+44 (0) 7753 622282
Darren Jameson - Head of Investor Relations	+44 (0) 7733 127707
Dominic Fry / Tom Murray - Tulchan Communications	+44 (0) 20 7353 4200

A presentation to investors and analysts starts at 9.00 am on Tuesday 3 June 2008, at the Auditorium, Deutsche Bank, Winchester House, 1 Great Winchester Street, London, EC2N 2DB. The presentation can be accessed via a one-way listen in conference call facility by dialling: +44 (0) 20 7162 0025. A recording of the call will be available for seven days following 3 June 2008 on +44 (0) 20 7031 4064, access code 795933.

The presentation, with further information on United Utilities, will be available at 9.00 am on the day at: <http://www.unitedutilities.com>.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REVIEW

Financial performance

United Utilities has delivered a good financial performance in the year ended 31 March 2008. Underlying profit before tax² increased by 17% to £476 million and underlying operating profit² was up by 7% to £677 million.

The group is pre-funded for its capital investment programme through to 2010. We recently improved our liquidity position by enhancing our committed medium-term bank facilities. This provides us with increased flexibility in terms of when and how we raise further debt finance.

Our regulated activities have delivered strong growth in the period with operating profit up 5%, an increase of 8% on an underlying basis². This growth primarily reflects the regulated price increase which supports high levels of essential investment in our infrastructure. This investment enables us to deliver better service for customers and make environmental improvements.

Capital investment in our regulated water and wastewater operations, including infrastructure renewals expenditure, amounted to £826 million during the year. This is 45% higher than last year as we are now in the peak phase of our current capital expenditure programme. We have agreed a new strategy with Ofwat for processing and disposing of sewage sludge, based on increasing capacity at an existing site rather than developing a new site. Our capital investment programme has been re-profiled to reflect this agreement and we are now broadly in line with regulatory assumptions. This new strategy will reduce our carbon footprint compared with the original solution.

Our business improvement initiatives are delivering cost savings and we remain confident of delivering our regulatory outputs and meeting our efficiency targets across this price review period.

In our non-regulated activities, underlying operating profit² was slightly higher than the prior year reflecting the first time inclusion of the results of the outsourcing contract with Electricity North West. We have a strong order book worth over £6 billion in revenue and we were pleased to announce recently that we have extended the contract with Southern Water through to March 2015. In January we also agreed an 18 month extension to our metering contract with British Gas Trading to June 2010. In addition, we have recently been selected as preferred bidder by Townsville City Council in Australia to undertake its water supply upgrade project.

Sale of United Utilities Electricity, capital structure and £1.5 billion return to shareholders

Following the sale of United Utilities Electricity (UUE) and the review of the group's capital structure, as outlined in our half year results published on 29 November 2007, the Board intends to return to shareholders a total of £1.5 billion or 170 pence per share. We expect to issue a circular that contains further details of the corporate restructuring and the proposed £1.5 billion return on 6 June. The return of value to shareholders is scheduled for August 2008. The Board is targeting a credit rating of A3 for United Utilities Water PLC and, following the return of value, is anticipating a group net debt to regulatory capital value gearing level towards the upper end of Ofwat's range (55% to 65% for the 2005-10 price control period) by 2010.

Operational performance

Improving operational performance is an integral part of our vision to be a world class operator of utility infrastructure. We continue to make good progress. The business outperformed its 2007/08 leakage target of 465 megalitres per day, a tougher target than the previous year, underlining our commitment to higher performance. We are also pleased to report a 60% reduction in the number of serious pollution incidents compared with two years ago. We have continued to remove properties from our sewer flooding register and have now achieved a net reduction of 32% over the last two years and remain on course to achieve our medium term target of a 50% reduction.

Since 2005, we have closed the operational efficiency gap to the most efficient water companies and this has been reflected in Ofwat's recent relative efficiency assessments. Improving customer service is a key area for us and since 2005 we have markedly improved customer satisfaction levels from below 50% to 73%. We believe there are more improvements to come.

Climate change and sustainability

United Utilities takes a long-term view of its operations and we see mitigation of and adaptation to climate change as key elements of our future plans. We were pleased to note Ofwat's increased focus on climate change and sustainability in its recently published methodology document relating to the next price review.

Our carbon action plan is progressing well through schemes which, in addition to helping the environment, also contribute to improving the efficiency of the group. These schemes include increasing the efficiency of our pumping stations and using our wastewater processes to generate electricity and heat.

Adaptation to climate change and flooding risk is now of increasing importance and will influence investment in the water industry in both the short and long term. We are actively involved in deliberations with our regulators ahead of the next price review and would expect significant levels of capital investment to continue beyond 2010.

Outlook

We are building on the performance improvements already achieved supported by our focus on core skills. The key elements of our strategy are to continue to improve operational performance, successfully execute our capital investment programme and meet our efficiency targets, prepare for the next water price review and deliver our non-regulated growth strategy. The Board expects United Utilities to continue to deliver a strong financial performance over the remainder of this regulatory period, underpinned by allowed price rises to fund substantial investment in our networks.

OPERATING PERFORMANCE

REGULATED ACTIVITIES

Financial highlights

- Regulated revenue increased by 7% to £1,416 million
- Regulated operating profit increased by 5% to £612 million, with underlying operating profit² up 8%

Revenue from regulated activities increased by 7% to £1,416 million, principally as a result of an allowed price increase of 8.3% (including inflation), offset to a small extent by lower water consumption and trade effluent volumes and retrospective claims by unmetered customers. The increase in price supports the investment of significant sums in improving the company's infrastructure which provides vital clean water and wastewater services to customers.

Reported operating profit for the year increased by 5%. After adjusting for a number of one-off items in the current and prior years (as outlined in the underlying profit measures table on page 14), underlying operating profit² for the year increased by 8% to £614 million. This growth in underlying profit primarily reflects the allowed price increase offset by a higher depreciation expense as a consequence of increased capital spend and growth in infrastructure renewals expenditure which was 19% higher than the prior year, in line with the planned profile of the renewals programme.

Capital investment in the period, including £120 million of infrastructure renewals expenditure, was £826 million. This represents a 45% increase in expenditure compared with the prior year and reflects the peak phase of the company's 2005-10 investment programme. A revised strategy on processing and disposing of sewage sludge has recently been agreed with Ofwat. After adjusting for this strategy, cumulative capital expenditure on water and wastewater assets was broadly in line with regulatory assumptions as at 31 March 2008. The business remains on course to meet its regulatory efficiency targets and deliver its outputs across the 2005-10 period.

It is likely that there will be additional investment, mainly in respect of unsatisfactory intermittent discharge (UID) projects that were not part of United Utilities' 2005-10 regulatory contract. A large proportion of this investment, if endorsed by Defra and Ofwat, is expected to fall into the 2010-15 period and be considered as part of the forthcoming price review. United Utilities estimates that the additional funding likely to be required to complete this UID programme, which is designed to meet statutory obligations and deliver environmental benefits, could be in the order of £700 million.

Operational performance

United Utilities has a vision to be a world class operator of utility infrastructure and is targeting an upper quartile position among UK water companies on key operational measures in the medium term. The business continues to upgrade its infrastructure and replaced 650 kilometres of water mains during 2007/08. The company supplies a high quality of drinking water, with a mean zonal compliance water quality performance of 99.94% for the year. United Utilities was ranked first among the UK's water and sewerage companies in 2006/07 by Ofwat for both water and sewerage in its most recent asset serviceability assessment, reflecting the company's long-term stewardship of its assets.

United Utilities is making good progress against its key performance indicators and remains on course to meet its targets:

- Relative efficiency – United Utilities has closed the operational efficiency gap to the most efficient water companies over the last two years. For the water service, the company has narrowed the gap from 16% to 12% and for the wastewater service from 27% to 18% (based on United Utilities' internal estimates). This is reflected in Ofwat's 2006/07 assessment of United Utilities as band B for the water service and band C for the wastewater service and represents a one band improvement for both services over the two-year period.

- Security of water supply – United Utilities outperformed the tougher economic level of leakage rolling target of 465 megalitres per day, as set by Ofwat for 2007/08. This is the second consecutive year that United Utilities has met or outperformed its leakage target. In addition, there were no water restrictions on customers during the year.
- Pollution – one water and eight wastewater Category 1&2 incidents were recorded in 2007 compared with the base position of two water and 21 wastewater incidents in 2005. The business has again outperformed its target of a 50% reduction in the medium term.
- Sewer flooding – United Utilities continues to remove properties from the sewer flooding register. It has set a medium term target of reducing the number of properties on this register by 50% compared with a start point of 641 properties in 2005/06. This target is based on properties at risk of experiencing at least one sewer flooding incident in ten years. Further progress has been made in 2007/08 with 434 properties now on the register. This represents a 32% reduction over the last two years and the business remains on track to meet its medium term target.
- Overall customer satisfaction – Good progress was made in 2007/08 and 73% of United Utilities' water and wastewater customers surveyed who had made an enquiry were satisfied with the overall service they received. This compares with a start point satisfaction level of less than 50% in 2005. These satisfaction levels are based on a comprehensive independent survey conducted on behalf of United Utilities each month. Going forward, the business has a strong focus on resolving customer queries on the first contact which should improve customer satisfaction and lower the cost of service.

Although United Utilities has delivered real progress, there is more to do in improving operational performance. During 2007/08 there was a higher level of sewer flooding incidents influenced by adverse weather conditions. This together with environmental underperformance at our Fleetwood wastewater treatment works will lead to a lower Overall Performance Assessment (OPA) score from Ofwat for 2007/08, compared with the prior year.

Efficiency initiatives

United Utilities is confident of meeting its regulatory efficiency targets despite increasing cost pressures in areas such as power and property rates.

The company's principal efficiency initiatives include an integrated performance management project, which increases remote operational site management and optimises chemical and power usage, and its asset improvement programme which is improving the efficiency of operational pumps. These schemes are key elements of United Utilities' plan to mitigate its carbon emissions, alongside its combined heat and power assets which recycle energy generated from wastewater treatment processes.

Other key initiatives include a workforce management project, which is designed to improve data systems, deliver more efficient field operations and enhance customer service, and supply chain management which has now been centralised and is delivering procurement economies. There is a strong drive to improve customer service and the business is focusing on reducing the number of customer queries, improving staff productivity, implementing improved cash collection procedures and enhancing the overall customer experience.

Regulatory developments

Strategic Direction Statement

Consistent with its approach to longer term asset planning, in December 2007 United Utilities published its strategic direction statement (SDS) which considers the needs of the North West region out to 2035. The SDS enables the company to set its plans for the next price review period (2010-15) in this longer term context, develop sustainable solutions and respond to future challenges.

The six key elements identified in the SDS are:

- Responsible long-term stewardship of networks. This includes protecting health and the environment, improving the company's understanding of network performance and investing in research and new technology with clear efficiency and service benefits.
- Listening and responding to the views of customers and other stakeholders. Ensuring that the company's plans meet the changing needs and priorities of customers and other stakeholders and provide good value for money. United Utilities recently undertook a substantial customer survey which identified key areas where customers are willing to pay for improvements including supply interruptions, sewer flooding, odour and reductions in greenhouse gas emissions. Customer priorities can help shape future investment programmes, aligning expenditure to those areas that customers consider most important.
- Making water resources more sustainable and resilient. This means improving both our own and customers' water efficiency, ensuring the company enhances and protects its network and developing water resources to help address increasing drought risk and meet supply and demand requirements.
- An integrated approach to drainage to reduce flooding risk. Storm water volumes entering the sewer system need to be reduced and the government's proposal to transfer responsibility for private sewers from householders to water companies will facilitate a more integrated approach to this challenge.
- Reduce the group's carbon impact. The company aims to halve its greenhouse gases by 2035, supported by achieving energy neutrality for its wastewater operations.
- Bills to rise, on average, no faster than incomes. United Utilities believes that the water and wastewater services it provides are already of good value, but there will be future upward pressure on costs.

The implications of climate change on drought and flood risk are set to feature strongly in United Utilities' plans for decades to come and these implications will be incorporated in the company's forthcoming price review submission. The importance of this is recognised by the government which intends to publish a draft Floods and Water Bill for consultation later in the year.

2009 water price review

United Utilities' preparations for the forthcoming price review are well advanced and the company is in active deliberations with its regulators and other key stakeholders. In March 2008, Ofwat published its methodology for the 2009 water price review which will set price limits for the five year period starting 1 April 2010. In many respects, the methodology is similar to that used in previous price reviews but United Utilities is pleased to note the increased focus on the issues of climate change and sustainability.

Following the outcome of the group's recent capital structure review, the Board announced that it will be targeting an A3 credit rating for United Utilities Water PLC which it believes best mirrors Ofwat's assumptions for the 2005-10 regulatory period. The Board believes this to be an appropriate investment grade rating to allow the company to raise finance to fund its substantial capital investment programmes.

United Utilities believes that Ofwat should ensure that companies can at least maintain an A3 rating and should consider recent developments in the credit markets. The raising of debt finance is particularly important given the likely scale of investment that is still required in the water industry to replace and refurbish ageing infrastructure, address flooding risk and climate change and deliver further statutory environmental obligations and customer priorities. United Utilities believes significant investment will be required during the next price review period (2010-15) and beyond.

United Utilities has been consistent in its approach that the regulator should consider both short and long term economic data in the price review. Sub-prime debt problems and US recession fears have seen higher risk premiums on the cost of debt and difficulties experienced by the monoline credit insurance industry have implications for the raising of further index-linked debt.

NON-REGULATED ACTIVITIES

Financial highlights

- Non-regulated revenue increased by 30% to £949 million
- Non-regulated underlying operating profit² marginally increased to £62 million

Non-regulated revenue in the year increased by 30% to £949 million compared with the prior year, reflecting the contribution from the first year of the electricity distribution outsourcing contract. Underlying operating profit² was slightly higher than last year. This reflects the first time inclusion of contribution from the group's electricity outsourcing activities, partly offset by the expected reduction in contribution from the Southern Water contract where the investment profile peaked in 2006/07. Reported operating profit was down 19% compared with 2006/07 reflecting £12 million of restructuring costs, principally relating to the company's planned efficiency delivery in its gas and electricity outsourcing activities.

Business update

The non-regulated business incorporates the former United Utilities Contract Solutions' activities and applies the core utility skills of the regulated business through outsourcing contracts. United Utilities holds major water and wastewater utility outsourcing contracts, working on behalf of Dwr Cymru Welsh Water, Southern Water and Scottish Water and is the leading utility infrastructure outsourcing company in the UK. United Utilities also has three Scottish PFI operations and currently operates in Bulgaria, Estonia, Poland, the Philippines and Australia.

United Utilities holds the only outsourced contracts to operate electricity and gas distribution networks in the UK, working on behalf of Electricity North West and Northern Gas Networks (NGN). United Utilities' electricity outsourcing contract extends through to 2015 and is projected to generate revenues of around £1.5 billion over the eight-year period, with the potential for the contract to be extended by a further five years to 2020. United Utilities also has a 15% stake in NGN, which provides a steady income stream.

In addition, United Utilities has a meter installation contract with British Gas Trading which was extended to 30 June 2010 earlier this year, building on a good performance on the contract to date. Furthermore, this provides an enhanced revenue stream to United Utilities through rental income from meter ownership. Last month, the group was also awarded a three-year contract to provide the Greater Manchester Waste Disposal Authority with water, electricity and gas connections to 27 sites across the Manchester region. Whilst this is a relatively small contract, it is a useful addition to the contract portfolio.

United Utilities has a strong order book worth over £6 billion in revenue which secures long-term income streams for the group. This was further enhanced through the recent extension of the contract with Southern Water, which now runs through to 31 March 2015. Overall, the business is pleased with its performance across the contract portfolio, reinforced by positive feedback received from its customers during the year.

The group continues to seek opportunities to grow its non-regulated business by applying its core skills where it identifies opportunities to generate additional shareholder value with little impact on the risk profile of the group. In addition to the UK utility outsourcing market, United Utilities is currently focusing business development resources on specific opportunities in the UK municipal solid waste treatment market, Australia and the fast-developing Gulf region.

In line with its business development strategy, United Utilities was recently named preferred bidder for the water supply upgrade project in Townsville, Australia. The project involves upgrading the water facilities in Townsville and designing, building and operating two water treatment plants. Facilities are due to be completed and operational by mid-2010 and upon award, United Utilities expects to hold a 20-year operations and maintenance contract with a minimal equity investment requirement. The project forms part of a AUD$300 million water and sewerage infrastructure programme in Townsville.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Operating profit from other activities for the year ended 31 March 2008 was £1 million. This segment includes central costs and the contribution from United Utilities Property Solutions (UUPS). UUPS is the property sales and management business of United Utilities PLC and it made an operating profit of £19 million in the year. It owns a land and property portfolio and is expected to continue to deliver a positive contribution for the next few years, although due to the nature of the business, profits may not follow a smooth profile.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

Revenue and operating profit from continuing operations

Revenue from continuing operations rose 19% to £2,363 million, reflecting the allowed price rise in the regulated business and the first year of the electricity distribution outsourcing contract in the non-regulated business.

Group operating profit from continuing operations increased by 3% to £663 million, with group underlying operating profit from continuing operations² up by 7%. This increase was underpinned by a strong performance in the regulated business.

Investment income and finance expense

Finance expense of £332 million was £74 million higher than in the prior year. This expense included a £43 million fair value loss on debt and derivative instruments, whereas the prior year included a £26 million fair value gain. This volatility in financing expense reflects the fact that, in order to hedge the interest cost implicit in the regulatory contracts, the group fixes interest rates for the duration of each five-year review period for the majority of its debt using interest rate swaps. IAS 39 limits the use of hedge accounting for these commercial hedges, thereby increasing the potential volatility of the income statement. In addition, the impact of changes in credit spread on debt accounted for at fair value through profit or loss can result in significant additional volatility. However, this volatility has no cash flow impact. Interest expense on swaps (on a pre-IAS 39 basis) and debt under the fair value option was £42 million, £16 million lower than the prior year.

Investment income was £147 million, compared with £118 million in the prior year partly reflecting the higher level of cash held following the sale of UUE. The underlying cost of net borrowing for continuing operations of £207 million is lower than the prior year and reflects a lower average net debt and a reduction in the group's average net borrowing rate from around 6.3% to 5.8%. The group redeemed a £1 billion 6.625% bond in November 2007 which has served to reduce the underlying cost of net borrowings, partly offset by the impact of higher inflation on the index-linked debt. However, the higher inflation rates will result in increased allowed revenues and growth in the regulatory capital value of United Utilities Water since both of these are linked to the UK retail price index (RPI).

Profit before taxation

Profit before taxation decreased by 5% to £478 million. Adjusting for the impact of restructuring costs, other one-off items, fair value movements in respect of debt and derivative instruments and the expected short-term interest benefit associated with the cash proceeds from the sale of UUE, underlying profit before taxation² was £476 million, 17% ahead of the year ended 31 March 2007.

Taxation

The current tax charge relating to continuing operations is £89 million and the current tax effective rate is 19% compared with 11% in the prior year. The increase in current tax primarily relates to the fair value movement in derivatives, and is matched by an equal and opposite movement in deferred tax, resulting in no net impact on the total effective rate. Deferred tax has been calculated after taking into account the reduction in the corporation tax rate from 30% to 28% with effect from April 2008. The deferred tax credit on continuing operations arising from the restatement of the opening deferred tax liability is £82 million. The overall deferred tax credit relating to continuing operations is £27 million compared with a deferred tax charge in the prior year of £90 million.

Excluding the impact of the change in corporation tax rate, the total tax charge relating to continuing operations would be £144 million or 30%, compared with a £144 million charge or 29% in the prior year. A total tax charge of £62 million relating to continuing operations has been recognised for the year ended 31 March 2008.

The company is forecasting a one-off deferred tax charge in 2008/09 relating to the abolition of industrial buildings allowances. This one-off adjustment is anticipated to be over £200 million and is likely to result in a significant increase in the effective tax rate for the year ended 31 March 2009; however the cash impact will be spread over a period of approximately 20 years.

Discontinued operations

UUE, which principally comprised the group's electricity distribution assets, is treated as a discontinued operation in the results for the year ended 31 March 2008. In the period 1 April 2007 to 19 December 2007, profit after tax generated from UUE was £122 million compared with £119 million for the year ended 31 March 2007. The profit on disposal of UUE amounted to £371 million.

United Utilities had previously announced its intention to dispose of its industrial liquid waste operations and facilities management operations in line with its strategy to focus on its core skills. The contribution from these operations has therefore also been treated as discontinued. In 2007/08, the group completed the disposal of its industrial liquid waste operations to Group Tradebe, the parent company of Advanced Waste Solutions Limited, and its facilities management operations were sold to Europa Facility Holdings Limited. In the period 1 April 2007 to 26 October 2007, a loss after tax of £0.1 million was recorded from the group's industrial liquid waste operations compared with a profit after tax of £1.7 million for the year ended 31 March 2007. The facilities management operations made a profit after tax of £1.3 million for the period 1 April 2007 to 22 February 2008 compared with a profit after tax of £3.4 million for the year ended 31 March 2007. These results have all been included within discontinued operations in the consolidated income statement.

United Utilities sold its 22.63% stake in THUS Group plc earlier in the financial year, which completed its exit from the telecoms sector. The £10 million loss on disposal of the stake in THUS Group plc is treated as an adjustment to the consideration arising on the disposal of Your Communications and so both the loss and the group's share of THUS' results prior to disposal are disclosed as discontinued operations.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share relating to continuing operations increased by 16% to 47.3 pence.

Dividends per share and future dividend policy

The Board is proposing a final dividend of 31.47 pence per ordinary share in respect of the year ended 31 March 2008. Taken together with the interim dividend of 15.20 pence per ordinary share, the total proposed dividend for 2007/08 is 46.67 pence per ordinary share. This is an increase of 3.87%, consistent with the group's previous policy of growing dividends in line with inflation (based on the issued share capital prior to the share reduction associated with the £1.5 billion proposed return of value to shareholders, as summarised on page 15 of this announcement). The inflationary increase is based on the RPI element included within the allowed regulated price increase in United Utilities Water for the 2007/08 financial year (i.e. the movement in RPI between November 2005 and November 2006).

The proposed final dividend is expected to be paid on 8 August 2008 to shareholders on the register at the close of business on 27 June 2008. The ex-dividend date for the final dividend is 25 June 2008.

As announced at the group's half year results on 29 November 2007, the Board has outlined a new dividend policy which will apply from 2008/09 to reflect the revised composition and earnings profile of the group. In light of the sale of UUE and the proposed £1.5 billion return of value to shareholders, the dividend per share from 2008/09 will be reduced by 30% compared with the proposed 2007/08 dividend per share. Thereafter, the group's revised dividend policy is intended to target a sustainable and growing level of dividends. The new target real growth rate of RPI+2% will be applied from 2009/10 to the 2008/09 dividend per share.

Cashflow

Cash generated from the group's continuing operations for the year ended 31 March 2008 was £877 million compared with £811 million in the prior year. High levels of capital expenditure continue, principally in the regulated water and wastewater investment programmes. The group's net capital expenditure on property, plant and equipment for 2007/08 was £630 million, excluding infrastructure renewals expenditure which is included as an operating cost in the income statement under IFRS.

Cash and short-term deposits at 31 March 2008 amounted to £1,811 million which, inclusive of medium term committed bank facilities and net of short-term debt, results in total available liquidity of £2,494 million. During the year United Utilities redeemed a €1 billion 6.625% bond from existing cash resources primarily generated from issuances of index-linked debt.

The group retains an excellent pre-funded position for its capital investment programmes through to 2010 and enhanced its liquidity further by arranging or extending the maturity dates of £500 million of committed medium-term bank credit facilities since 30 September 2007. Furthermore, the group is in discussions with the European Investment Bank, with which it has a long-standing relationship, regarding a new £400 million term loan for United Utilities Water PLC.

Net debt, including derivatives at 31 March 2008 was £2,903 million, a decrease of £741 million compared with 31 March 2007 (after adjusting for £482 million of net debt relating to discontinued operations which has exited the group). This movement principally reflects the receipt of cash proceeds from the sales of UUE and the group's stake in THUS Group plc, plus cashflow from operating activities, offset by expenditure on the regulated water and wastewater capital investment programmes and payments of interest, tax and dividends. This reduction in net borrowings is expected to be short-term since the group intends to return £1.5 billion to shareholders, as outlined in its 2007/08 half year results announced on 29 November 2007. Details of the return will be published in the circular scheduled to be issued on 6 June, with the return of value expected in August 2008.

Gearing (net borrowings divided by the regulatory capital value) decreased to 39% at 31 March 2008, compared with 52% at 31 March 2007. Following the proposed £1.5 billion return to shareholders, gearing will increase and is expected to move United Utilities towards the upper end of Ofwat's assumed range of 55% to 65% by the end of this regulatory review period. The Board will continue to target an A3 credit rating for United Utilities Water PLC.

In the year ended 31 March 2008, the group issued a total of £185 million of long-term, index-linked notes through its multi-issuer euro medium-term note programme. This comprised a £50 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.702% with a 50.5 year maturity, a £100 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.585% with a 50 year maturity and a £35 million issue at a real interest rate of 1.66% with a 30 year maturity.

United Utilities now has index-linked funding totalling approximately £1.5 billion, including indexation of the principal. However as a result of the current economic climate and the uncertainty in the monoline insurance sector, the group sees limited opportunity for further index-linked debt issuance.

The principal amount of the index-linked borrowings is adjusted to track movements in RPI. This form of liability is a good match for the group's regulated assets, which are also linked to RPI, and delivers a cashflow benefit to United Utilities since compensation for inflationary risk is provided via adjustment to the principal rather than through regular cash payments.

Underlying profit

In considering the results for the year, the directors have adjusted the group's statutory measures for fair value movements on debt and derivative instruments and those significant items identified as non-recurring. Operating profit and profit before taxation from continuing operations are reconciled to underlying operating profit from continuing operations and underlying profit before taxation from continuing operations as follows:

Continuing operations	Regulated	Non-regulated	Other	Total
Operating profit for the year ended 31 March 2008	£m	£m	£m	£m
Operating profit per published results	611.6	50.6	1.0	663.2
Restructuring costs	2.6	11.6	(0.2)	14.0
Underlying operating profit	614.2	62.2	0.8	677.2
Continuing operations	Regulated	Non-regulated	Other	Total
Operating profit for the year ended 31 March 2007 (Re-presented)	£m	£m	£m	£m
Operating profit per published results	581.0	62.6	(1.5)	642.1
Restructuring costs	5.3	0.3	5.0	10.6
Settlement claims ³	(27.6)	(3.0)	-	(30.6)
Ofwat transfer pricing fine	8.5	-	-	8.5
Total adjustments	(13.8)	(2.7)	5.0	(11.5)
Underlying operating profit	567.2	59.9	3.5	630.6
Continuing operations				Re-presented
Profit before taxation			Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007
			£m	£m
Profit before taxation per published results			478.3	502.3
Operating profit adjustments (see above)			14.0	(11.5)
Fair value losses / (gains) on debt and derivative instruments			42.7	(26.0)
Interest on swaps and interest on debt under fair value option			(41.7)	(57.3)
Interest associated with cash proceeds from UUE sale ⁴			(17.7)	-
Underlying profit before taxation			475.6	407.5

Notes

³ During the prior year, the group's regulated and non-regulated activities benefited from one-off credits worth £27.6 million and £3.0 million respectively. These credits were in respect of settlement of claims made by the group against contractors and the end of the statutory period of potential claims against the group. Although such claims are a regular occurrence in the ongoing business of United Utilities, these particular claims were unusual in size.

⁴ The interest associated with the cash proceeds from the sale of UUE has been deducted to provide a more representative view of underlying performance. Since the group intends to return £1.5 billion to shareholders later in the year, the cash proceeds from the sale are expected to result in a short-term net debt and interest reduction.

£1.5 billion return of value to shareholders

As a result of the sale of UUE and the review of the group's capital structure, outlined in its half year results published on 29 November 2007, the Board intends to return to shareholders a total of £1.5 billion or 170 pence per share. This substantial total return is analysed in the table below.

Proposed return of value to shareholders	£m	Pence per share*
Net equity proceeds from sale	1,050	119
Additional return to create more efficient capital structure	450	51
Total proposed return via B share scheme	1,500	170

* Based on 880 million ordinary shares in issue at the time the sale was agreed

 £1,782 million sale price less UUE net debt of £686 million at fair value at the date of disposal, including United Utilities' group debt apportioned to the electricity business, and transaction costs of £46 million

The proposed return of value will be in the form of a redeemable B share scheme providing shareholders (other than shareholders in certain overseas jurisdictions) with a choice of receiving the return as capital or income and the option to spread the return over two financial years.

In order to implement the B share scheme and increase the group's distributable reserves, the company intends to propose a change to its corporate structure. The proposed change, which is subject to court and shareholder approval, involves a scheme of arrangement to introduce a new parent company above United Utilities PLC. The reserves created by the implementation of the new structure will be available for the proposed return of value and the declaration of future dividends.

The scheme of arrangement will involve the new parent company acquiring all of the shares in United Utilities PLC and issuing new shares. This will comprise the issue of new ordinary shares and redeemable B shares to facilitate the return of value. The number of new ordinary shares issued will be reduced from the existing number of ordinary shares, commensurate with the return of value, with a view to aiding comparability of share price and earnings per share before and after the return of value. Following the implementation of the new structure, United Utilities' shareholders will hold shares in the new parent company equivalent to their previous percentage holding in United Utilities PLC. The new structure will be implemented at the same time as the return of value.

The necessary steps to achieve the above corporate restructuring are expected to be completed during the summer, enabling the return of value to take place in August 2008.

Indicative return timetable

6 June 2008	Circular expected to be posted to shareholders
June/July 2008	Court meeting and general meeting for scheme of arrangement to create new parent company
25 July 2008	Annual general meeting (AGM)
July/August 2008	Issue of redeemable B shares, listing of new parent company and issue of new parent company ordinary shares
8 August 2008	Payment of 2007/08 final dividend under current policy
August 2008	Return of value – first option to redeem B shares
February 2009	Payment of 2008/09 interim dividend under new policy
April 2009	Return of value – all remaining B shares redeemed

The circular, which will detail the process and timetable for the return of value and the creation of the new parent company, is expected to be issued on 6 June. The creation of the new parent company will require court approval and shareholder approval at a general meeting. Details of the general meeting will be contained in the circular.

Consolidated income statement

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Continuing operations
Revenue	2,362.9	1,986.7
Other income	21.3	8.9
Employee benefits expense	(317.5)	(254.1)
Depreciation and amortisation expense	(248.2)	(221.3)
Infrastructure renewals expenditure	(120.1)	(101.2)
Other operating costs	(1,035.2)	(776.9)
Total operating expenses	(1,699.7)	(1,344.6)
Operating profit	663.2	642.1
Investment income (note 2)	146.7	118.3
Finance expense (note 3)	(331.6)	(258.1)
Investment income and finance expense	(184.9)	(139.8)
Profit before taxation	478.3	502.3
Taxation (note 4)	(62.0)	(143.9)
Profit for the year from continuing operations	416.3	358.4
Discontinued operations
Profit for the period from discontinued operations (note 5)	492.9	75.1
Profit for the year	909.2	433.5
Earnings per share from continuing and discontinued operations (note 6)
Basic	103.3p	49.4p
Diluted	103.2p	49.2p
Earnings per share from continuing operations (note 6)
Basic	47.3p	40.9p
Diluted	47.3p	40.7p
Dividend per ordinary share (note 7)	46.67p	44.93p

Consolidated balance sheet	31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented 31 March 2007 £m
ASSETS
Non-current assets
Property, plant and equipment	7,591.8	8,894.6
Goodwill	2.3	5.0
Other intangible assets	85.3	115.5
Investments	155.5	202.4
Trade and other receivables	28.2	21.6
Retirement benefit surplus	-	61.3
Derivative financial instruments	44.3	15.2
	7,907.4	9,315.6
Current assets
Inventories	63.3	62.8
Trade and other receivables	456.2	418.2
Cash and short-term deposits	1,810.5	2,403.3
Derivative financial instruments	99.0	61.0
	2,429.0	2,945.3
Total assets	10,336.4	12,260.9
LIABILITIES
Non-current liabilities
Trade and other payables	(125.5)	(414.3)
Borrowings	(3,788.9)	(4,854.9)
Retirement benefit obligations	(101.2)	-
Deferred tax liabilities	(1,164.0)	(1,550.5)
Provisions	(18.7)	(30.4)
Derivative financial instruments	(53.2)	(173.5)
	(5,251.5)	(7,023.6)
Current liabilities
Trade and other payables	(771.9)	(749.2)
Borrowings	(878.4)	(1,509.5)
Current income tax liabilities	(66.9)	(168.0)
Provisions	(21.0)	(8.5)
Derivative financial instruments	(136.7)	(67.3)
	(1,874.9)	(2,502.5)
Total liabilities	(7,126.4)	(9,526.1)
Total net assets	3,210.0	2,734.8
EQUITY
Capital and reserves attributable to equity holders of the company
Share capital	881.6	879.8
Share premium account	1,429.3	1,421.9
Revaluation reserve	158.8	158.8
Treasury shares	(0.3)	(0.3)
Cumulative exchange reserve	7.6	(4.2)
Other reserves	58.1	24.3
Retained earnings	674.9	254.5
	3,210.0	2,734.8
Shareholders' equity	3,210.0	2,734.8

Consolidated cashflow statement

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Operating activities
Cash generated from operations	876.9	810.8
Interest paid	(299.9)	(341.8)
Interest received and similar income	119.1	99.8
Tax paid	(98.6)	(17.8)
Net cash generated from operating activities (continuing operations)	597.5	551.0
Net cash generated from operating activities (discontinued operations)	99.5	204.3
	697.0	755.3
Investing activities
Disposal of investments	0.6	-
Disposal of associated company	75.8	-
Disposal of subsidiaries	1,152.7	206.4
Net cash outflow from group reorganisation	(15.0)	-
Purchase of property, plant and equipment	(644.5)	(548.5)
Purchase of other intangible assets	(25.3)	(5.0)
Proceeds from sale of property, plant and equipment	15.0	27.0
Net cash generated from/(used in) investing activities (continuing operations)	559.3	(320.1)
Net cash used in investing activities (discontinued operations)	(161.0)	(125.1)
	398.3	(445.2)
Financing activities
Proceeds from issue of ordinary shares	9.2	18.5
Cash (used in)/proceeds from structured financing	(170.1)	81.4
Proceeds from borrowings	1,068.9	1,600.8
Repayment of borrowings	(2,297.2)	(821.0)
Dividends paid to equity holders of the company	(400.4)	(387.3)
Dividends received from discontinued operations	100.0	36.0
Net cash (used in)/generated from financing activities (continuing operations)	(1,689.6)	528.4
Net cash (used in)/generated from financing activities (discontinued operations)	(190.1)	51.9
	(1,879.7)	580.3
Effects of exchange rate changes (continuing operations)	148.9	6.4
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents (continuing operations)	(383.9)	765.7
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents (discontinued operations)	(251.6)	131.1
	(635.5)	896.8
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of the year	2,340.7	1,443.9
Cash and cash equivalents at end of the year	1,705.2	2,340.7

Consolidated statement of recognised income and expense	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Actuarial (losses)/gains on defined benefit pension schemes	(126.4)	46.5
Revaluation of investments	34.9	8.9
Fair value (losses)/gains on cashflow hedges	(1.5)	2.8
Foreign exchange adjustments	11.8	(6.4)
Tax on items taken directly to equity	35.8	(14.8)
Net (expense)/income recognised directly in equity	(45.4)	37.0
Profit for the year	909.2	433.5
Total recognised income and expense for the year	863.8	470.5

Reconciliation of movements in consolidated equity	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Total net income recognised for the year	863.8	470.5
Dividends	(400.4)	(387.3)
New share capital issued	9.2	18.5
Other movements	2.6	2.2
Net increase in equity for the year	475.2	103.9
Opening equity attributable to equity holders of the company ⁵	2,734.8	2,630.9
Closing equity attributable to equity holders of the company	3,210.0	2,734.8

⁵ £2,630.9 million in respect of the opening balance for the year ended 31 March 2007 includes £1.7 million in relation to minority interests

Cash generated from continuing operations

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Profit before taxation from continuing operations	478.3	502.3
Adjustment for investment income and finance expense	184.9	139.8
Operating profit from continuing operations	663.2	642.1
Adjustments for:
Depreciation of property, plant and equipment	226.0	213.8
Amortisation of other intangible assets	22.2	7.5
Profit on disposal of property, plant and equipment	(5.7)	(3.4)
Equity-settled share-based payments charge	2.6	3.9
Other non-cash movements	3.9	-
Changes in working capital:
(Increase)/decrease in inventories	(4.1)	4.0
Increase in trade and other receivables	(81.3)	(66.6)
Increase in provisions and payables	50.1	9.5
Cash generated from continuing operations	876.9	810.8

Segmental analysis by class of business

Continuing operations

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Revenue
Regulated activities	1,416.3	1,320.8
Non-regulated activities	949.2	729.2
Other activities	41.3	53.0
	<hr/> 2,406.8	<hr/> 2,103.0
Inter-segment revenue	(43.9)	(116.3)
External revenue	<hr/> 2,362.9	<hr/> 1,986.7

Continuing operations

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Operating profit/(loss)
Regulated activities	611.6	581.0
Non-regulated activities	50.6	62.6
Other activities	1.0	(1.5)
	<hr/> 663.2	<hr/> 642.1

For management purposes, the group is organised into two principal operating divisions, being regulated and non-regulated activities. These divisions form the basis on which the above primary segment information is reported.

The regulated activities segment previously included the results of United Utilities Electricity (UUE). Following the sale of UUE, which principally comprised the group's electricity distribution assets, on 19 December 2007, the results of this business are treated as discontinued and are not included in the continuing operations regulated activities segment (see note 5). The regulated segment therefore only includes the regulated results of United Utilities Water PLC.

The non-regulated activities segment previously included the contribution from the group's industrial liquid waste and facilities management operations. Following the sale of these operations on 26 October 2007 and 22 February 2008 respectively, these non-regulated activities are also treated as discontinued (see note 5). The non-regulated continuing operations segment therefore relates to the group's utility outsourcing contracts in the United Kingdom and overseas.

In April 2007, the operations and maintenance of UUE's assets was outsourced under an Asset Services Agreement to United Utilities Electricity Services Limited (UUES), a newly incorporated group company. UUES' results from this date are reported within continuing operations as part of the non-regulated activities segment. The results of UUE, including those for the year ended 31 March 2007, when UUE operated its own assets, have been reported in full as discontinued.

In addition, the other activities segment previously included some residual activities associated with UUE, but not related to regulated electricity distribution. These residual activities were sold, along with UUE, and hence have been treated as discontinued and are no longer included in the continuing operations other activities segment. The other activities segment therefore includes the results of United Utilities Property Solutions Limited, the parent company and other group holding companies.

NOTES

1. Basis of preparation

The results for the year ended 31 March 2008 have been prepared on the basis of accounting policies consistent with those set out in the annual report to shareholders for the year ended 31 March 2007.

The financial information set out in this statement relating to the year ended 31 March 2008 does not constitute statutory accounts for that period as defined in section 240 of the Companies Act 1985. Statutory accounts for 2008 will be delivered to the Registrar of Companies following the company's annual general meeting. The auditors have reported on those accounts; their report is unqualified and does not contain a statement under either section 237(2) or (3) of the Companies Act 1985.

The financial information set out in this statement relating to the year ended 31 March 2007 does not constitute statutory accounts for that period. Full statutory accounts of United Utilities PLC in respect of that financial period which received an unqualified audit opinion and did not contain a statement under either section 237(2) or (3) of the Companies Act 1985, have been delivered to the Registrar of Companies.

The group adopted IFRS 7 'Financial Instruments: Disclosures' during the year ended 31 March 2008 and accordingly the comparative results for the year ended 31 March 2007 have been re-presented to reflect the revised disclosure requirements.

The comparative results for the year ended 31 March 2007 have been re-presented to reflect the disclosure of United Utilities Electricity, the group's industrial liquid waste and facilities management operations and its associate within discontinued operations (see note 5).

The comparatives for the year ended 31 March 2007 have also been re-presented to reflect the removal of the category for current asset investments from the balance sheet. Properties previously held as current asset investments are now classified as inventories as the directors' believe this provides a fairer presentation of the nature of these assets.

The comparatives for the year ended 31 March 2007 have also been re-presented to incorporate within equity a category for other reserves to include revaluation of investments and fair value gains/(losses) on cash flow hedges and the associated tax on these items. The amounts were previously disclosed within retained earnings but are now classified within other reserves as the directors believe this provides a fairer presentation of these items.

The comparatives have been re-presented for retirement benefits to reflect the group's participation in the Northern Gas Networks Pension scheme. The group recorded a related deferred tax asset and investment offsetting the impact on net assets at 31 March 2007 to £nil.

2. Investment income

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Interest receivable on short-term bank deposits held at amortised cost	67.8	69.8
Foreign exchange gains on forward contracts	55.4	30.9
	<hr/> 123.2	<hr/> 100.7
Expected return on pension schemes' assets	128.6	92.5
Interest cost on pension schemes' obligations	(105.1)	(74.9)
	<hr/> 23.5	<hr/> 17.6
Net pension interest income	<hr/> 146.7	<hr/> 118.3

3. Finance expense

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Interest payable	(288.9)	(284.1)
Fair value (losses)/gains on debt and derivative instruments	(42.7)	26.0
	(331.6)	(258.1)

As previously reported, the group follows a policy of economic hedging its interest rate and currency exposures, with particular regard to the five-year regulatory period. Including the interest element of swaps and interest on debt under the fair value option within interest payable, as opposed to within fair value (losses)/gains, and adjusting for the reclassification of interest income and expenditure associated with the group's defined benefit pension schemes, would give an economic underlying cost of net borrowings of £207.4 million (2007: £240.7 million):

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Finance expense	(331.6)	(258.1)
Fair value losses/(gains)	42.7	(26.0)
Add back interest on swaps and debt under fair value option	(41.7)	(57.3)
Underlying interest payable	(330.6)	(341.4)
Investment income	146.7	118.3
Adjustment for net pension interest income	(23.5)	(17.6)
Underlying cost of net borrowings	(207.4)	(240.7)

4. Taxation

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Current taxation:
UK corporation tax	(108.9)	(84.6)
Foreign tax	(2.7)	(3.1)
Prior year adjustments	23.0	34.1
	(88.6)	(53.6)
Deferred taxation:
Current year	(37.5)	(73.0)
Prior year adjustments	(17.6)	(17.3)
Change in taxation rate	81.7	-
	26.6	(90.3)
	(62.0)	(143.9)

5. Discontinued operations

In line with its declared strategy of concentrating on its core skills of managing water, wastewater, electricity and gas networks, the group completed the disposal of United Utilities Electricity (UUE) to North West Electricity Networks Limited on 19 December 2007 for a total enterprise value of £1,782 million.

The group continues to seek opportunities to grow its non-regulated business by applying its core skills where it identifies opportunities to generate additional shareholder value with little impact on the risk profile of the group. In addition to the UK utility outsourcing market, United Utilities is currently focusing business development resources on specific opportunities in the UK municipal solid waste treatment market, Australia and the fast-developing Gulf region. In line with this strategy, the group sold its industrial liquid waste and facilities management operations and made its final exit from the telecoms sector during the year. On 26 October 2007, the group sold its industrial liquid waste operations to Group Tradebe for consideration of £3.7 million and on 22 February 2008, the group completed the sale of its facilities management operations to Europa Facility Holdings Limited for consideration of £9.0 million.

5. Discontinued operations (continued)

The group sold its 22.63 per cent stake in THUS Group plc on 19 June 2007 for consideration of £75.8 million, which completed United Utilities' exit from the telecoms sector. The sale is treated as an adjustment to consideration arising on the disposal of Your Communications and, as such, both the loss on disposal and the group's share of THUS' results prior to the disposal are disclosed within discontinued operations.

On 26 March 2007, the group sold the Vertex business to a consortium of US-based private equity firms.

The results of UUE, the group's industrial liquid waste and facilities management operations and its share of results from its associate have been disclosed, along with the profit/(loss) on disposal, as discontinued operations in the group's financial statements. The detailed trading results and the profit/(loss) on disposal of each discontinued operation are shown below. Cashflows in relation to discontinued operations are separately disclosed in the group's cashflow statement.

There is no tax charged on the profits resulting from the disposal of the discontinued operations during the year ended 31 March 2008 as these were tax exempt sales of shares.

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Year ended 31 March 2007
	£m	£m
United Utilities Electricity	493.0	118.5
Industrial liquid waste	(5.0)	1.7
Facilities management	10.4	3.4
Telecoms (including loss on disposal of THUS Group plc shares of £10.0 million)	(5.5)	18.7
Vertex	-	(67.2)
Profit for the year from discontinued operations	492.9	75.1

United Utilities Electricity

	Period ended 19 December 2007	Year ended 31 March 2007
	£m	£m
Total external revenue	223.7	315.4
Depreciation and amortisation	(10.0)	(64.2)
Other operating expenses	(60.4)	(72.3)
Operating profit	153.3	178.9
Investment income and finance expense	(17.1)	(31.2)
Profit before taxation	136.2	147.7
Taxation on profit	(14.4)	(29.2)
Profit for the period/year from discontinued operations	121.8	118.5
Profit on disposal of discontinued operations	371.2
Total profit for the period from discontinued operations	493.0

5. Discontinued operations (continued)

Industrial liquid waste

	Period ended 26 October 2007 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Total external revenue	5.3	16.0
Depreciation and amortisation	(0.2)	(2.4)
Other operating expenses	(5.2)	(11.5)
Operating (loss)/profit	(0.1)	2.1
Investment income and finance expense	-	0.3
(Loss)/profit before taxation	(0.1)	2.4
Taxation on (loss)/profit	-	(0.7)
(Loss)/profit for the period/year from discontinued operations	(0.1)	1.7
Loss on disposal of discontinued operations	(4.9)
Total loss for the period from discontinued operations	(5.0)

Facilities management

	Period ended 22 February 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Revenue
External sales	5.7	4.9
Intra-group sales	21.6	38.4
Total revenue	27.3	43.3
Depreciation and amortisation	(0.1)	(0.6)
Other operating expenses	(26.4)	(38.3)
Operating profit	0.8	4.4
Investment income and finance expense	0.5	0.5
Profit before taxation*	1.3	4.9
Taxation on profit	-	(1.5)
Profit for the period/year from discontinued operations	1.3	3.4
Profit on disposal of discontinued operations	9.1
Total profit for the period from discontinued operations	10.4

* Profit before taxation includes profit generated from intercompany trading of £0.2 million in the period ended 22 February 2008 and £4.1 million in the year ended 31 March 2007.

Vertex

	Period ended 26 March 2007 £m
Revenue
External sales	303.4
Intra-group sales	89.5
Total revenue	392.9
Depreciation and amortisation	(14.2)
Other operating expenses	(363.7)
Operating profit	15.0
Investment income and finance expense	4.2
Profit before taxation*	19.2
Taxation on profit	(5.9)
Profit for the period from discontinued operations	13.3
Loss on disposal of discontinued operations before taxation and assumption of deferred contingent consideration	(65.1)
Assumption of deferred contingent consideration	(13.5)
Loss on disposal of discontinued operations before taxation	(78.6)
Taxation on loss on disposal of discontinued operations	(1.9)
Total loss for the period from discontinued operations	(67.2)

5. Discontinued operations (continued)

* Profit before taxation for the period ended 26 March 2007 includes profit generated from intercompany trading of £8.7 million.

6. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share have been calculated by dividing profit for the year by the following weighted average number of shares in issue:

	Basic million	Diluted Million
Year ended 31 March 2008	880.4	880.6
Year ended 31 March 2007	876.8	880.6

The difference between the weighted average number of shares used in the basic and the diluted earnings per share calculations represents those ordinary shares deemed to have been issued for no consideration on the conversion of all potential dilutive ordinary shares in accordance with IAS 33 'Earnings per Share'.

The basic and diluted earnings per share for the year are as follows:

	Year ended 31 March 2008	Re-presented Year ended 31 March 2007
From continuing and discontinued operations
Basic	103.3p	49.4p
Diluted	103.2p	49.2p
From continuing operations
Basic	47.3p	40.9p
Diluted	47.3p	40.7p

7. Dividends

	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Dividends relating to the year comprise:
Interim dividend	133.8	128.3
Final dividend	277.4	266.6
	411.2	394.9
	Year ended 31 March 2008 £m	Year ended 31 March 2007 £m
Dividends deducted from shareholders' equity:
Final dividend	266.6	259.0
Interim dividend	133.8	128.3
	400.4	387.3

The final dividend of 31.47 pence per ordinary share (2007: final dividend of 30.30 pence per ordinary share) will be paid on 8 August 2008 to shareholders on the register at the close of business on 27 June 2008. The ex-dividend date for the final dividend is 25 June 2008.

The interim dividend of 15.20 pence per ordinary share (2007: interim dividend of 14.63 pence per ordinary share) was paid on 11 February 2008 to shareholders on the register at the close of business on 21 December 2007.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This preliminary results statement contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the operations, performance and financial condition of the group. By their nature, these statements involve uncertainty since future events and circumstances can cause results and developments to differ materially from those anticipated. The forward-looking statements reflect knowledge and information available at the date of preparation of this preliminary results statement and the company undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements. Nothing in this preliminary results statement should be construed as a profit forecast.

Certain regulatory performance data contained in this announcement is subject to regulatory audit.

RECEIVED

2003 JUL 24 A 9:24

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

8. The Directors' service contracts and letters of appointment referred to in sections 8.1 and 8.2 of Part X of the Prospectus

United Utilities PLC

Service Contract

Date of Contract:

Employee: Philip Green

Address: Marchfield
Flowers Hill
Pangbourne
Berkshire
RG8 7BD

Job Title: Chief Executive Officer

Company: United Utilities PLC (we,us)

Address: Dawson House, Great Sankey, Warrington, Cheshire WA5 3LW

REMOVED

2008 JUL 24 A 9:24

Part one - General information

1 The contract

This contract sets out the terms of your employment with us. By signing this contract you agree to keep to these terms. The contract will be interpreted and governed by English law. You warrant that by virtue of entering into this Agreement you will not be in breach of any express or implied terms of any contract with or any other obligation to any third party binding upon you.

2 Duties

a We are a member of the United Utilities Group of companies. In this contract and schedule, Group means United Utilities PLC and any subsidiary or holding company as defined by section 736 of the Companies Act 1985.

b You are employed to do the job described in the job title above. However, we may require you to carry out work or hold offices for other companies within the Group either on a temporary or a permanent basis without any additional remuneration.

- c The name or office of the person you report to under this contract is shown in the schedule. Our reporting structures may change but you will be responsible to our board of directors which includes any committee of the board of directors (the Board).

3 Start date of your contract

The start date of this contract and the date your continuous employment starts with us are shown in the schedule.

4 Place of work

- a Your main place of work is shown in the schedule.
- b During the course of your job, you agree to travel to allow you to do your work. We will pay any reasonable expenses involved.
- c We may permanently change your place of work subject to your agreement. If we change it to a place which in our reasonable opinion is too far to travel by way of daily commute without jeopardising your ability to carry out your duties satisfactorily, we will pay reasonable expenses to move you under our relocation policy. If we require you to move we will try to take your wishes into account.

5 Hours

We cannot give you fixed hours of work due to your responsibilities and duties. You must work any hours necessary to allow you to fulfil your duties under this contract. You are exempt from the Working Time Regulations 1998 provisions relating to the maximum weekly working time.

Part two - Benefits

6 Pay

- a We will pay you the salary shown in the schedule. We will pay your salary directly into your bank account on or about the 15th day of each month. This amount will cover that calendar month.
- b You will not be entitled to extra pay for any overtime.
- c We will review your salary and benefits each year and any change will be effective from 1 September. We may increase your salary following a review but we do not have to do so.
- d The pay package shown in the schedule will add up from day to day and will include any fees which you may be entitled to as a director of any company in the Group.

7 Incentive arrangements

Each year, you will take part in our incentive arrangements for directors and senior management. Details of the incentive awards we intend to give you at the start of this contract are shown in the schedule. We do not count the value of incentive awards when we calculate your pensionable earnings.

8 Company car/car allowance

- a At your discretion, we will either provide you with a car or pay you a car allowance. If you select the use of a car, we will agree with you the type of car you can have. We will pay the expenses of running the car, including fuel used on business and private journeys, and replace it from time to time.
- b The value of the car allowance is shown in the schedule. We do not count this allowance when we calculate your pensionable earnings. If we pay you an allowance we will also pay you the fuel costs for business and private journeys.

You are responsible for all other costs and ensuring proper insurance cover is in place for using the car for business. You must obtain our agreement to the suitability of your vehicle for business use.

9 Expenses

We will pay you any travelling, hotel, entertainment and out-of-pocket expenses you have had to pay to carry out your duties, provided they are reasonable. You must provide, where available, receipts or other evidence we ask for when you claim for expenses.

10 Holidays and holiday pay

- a Your yearly entitlement to holidays is 30 days with the holiday year running from 1 April to the following 31 March.
- b Your entitlement to holidays accrues at the beginning of each holiday year except in the holiday year in which your employment with us begins or ends. In this case, your entitlement to holidays accrues at 1/12 of your yearly entitlement for each complete month of service you carry out.
- c In each holiday year you will be entitled to all statutory or public holidays with pay. If we ask you to work on statutory or public holidays we will give you other days off instead.
- d You can carry forward up to five days holiday from one holiday year to another as long as you take these within 2 months of the end of the previous holiday year.
- e We must approve all holidays. If we give you extra holidays in any one holiday year, it does not mean you are entitled to them in future years.
- f If your employment ends for any reason part way through a holiday year you will receive payment for holidays due to you but which you have not taken. If you have taken holidays before you are actually entitled to them you must repay us the cost of those days. We may deduct this amount from any amounts we owe you.

g We may require you to take accrued unused holiday during any period of notice.

11 Sickness, injury and medical examinations

a If you cannot carry out your duties under this contract because you are ill or injured, you will be eligible to receive sick pay from us under our sick pay scheme.

b When you have used up all of your eligibility, we will not pay any further sick pay (other than any entitlement you may still have to statutory sick pay) until you return to work.

c We will take the amount of statutory benefits which you are entitled to under the statutory sick pay scheme from any sick pay we pay you.

d We may ask you to have a medical examination at any time. We will pay the cost of the examination and will choose the doctor concerned who will send a written report to our occupational health adviser. If we ask you and you refuse to have a medical examination when we are paying you sick pay, we may decide not to pay you any further sick pay.

e If your sickness or injury appears to be caused by negligence of a third party and damages may be recoverable, you must tell us straight away. You must also tell us straight away if any claim, compromise, settlement or judgment is made or awarded. You must give us information we may reasonably require. If we require, you must repay to us any damages recovered relating to loss of earnings for the period of the incapacity, provided that the amount you repay is not more than the amount of damages or compensation you recover by you less any costs you have to pay for the recovery of those damages and or compensation. Any refund will not be more than the total remuneration we pay you for the period of absence.

f If you are absent through ill health for 6 consecutive months or more we may appoint another person to your job title to act jointly with you whilst you are incapacitated, and any such appointment shall not constitute any breach of this agreement.

12 Health screening

We will give you the opportunity to have regular medical screening at our expense. You will receive a report from the doctor.

13 Private health cover

- a. We will include you, your spouse and dependent children, free of charge, in our private health scheme in accordance with the rules of the plan, unless you tell us within one month of receiving this contract that you do not want to be included. We may change the rules of the plan from time to time. The scheme is a taxable benefit under HM Revenue & Customs regulations.
- b. We will include you, free of charge, in our group income protection scheme subject to the rules of the scheme as amended from time to time. We reserve the right to change the provider at any time. We will not assume any liability for any payments that any insurer shall decline to make to you.

14 Retirement age and pension

Details of your retirement age and your pension arrangements are given in the schedule.

15 Cover against risk of death or injury

You are covered, free of charge, by our personal accident insurance scheme. The benefits include a payment of up to five times your annual gross salary if you die or become seriously disabled. This will depend on the terms and conditions of the scheme, which may change, and is in addition to any benefit provided under your pension arrangements.

16 Directors' and officers' liability insurance

We will provide directors' and officers' liability insurance to cover you, within the limits of the scheme, against any liability claim you may have to defend in civil or criminal proceedings.

17 Professional institutions and societies

We will repay the cost of a professional subscription you may pay to an institution or society which we agree is relevant to your employment, as long as you provide written evidence of payment.

18 Telephone charges and equipment

We will pay some costs and provide you with equipment as detailed in the schedule.

Part three - your obligations as an employee and director

19 Competition and shareholdings

- a Subject to the following terms of this clause, you must spend all of your time and attention during working hours on our business. You must not be involved in any way with any other person firm or company whatever its trade or business unless we agree in writing. This means that you must not own shares or make investments in companies or partnerships or work for or offer advice or help to another business. However, you may hold investment-only shares, debentures or other securities in a company whose capital is traded on a recognised stock exchange. You can only do this if your interest, together with that of your spouse and your children is not more than 5% of the issued value of the class of shares in question. Subject to the approval of the board (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) you will be able to take on the commitment of one non-executive directorship and shall in any event be entitled to maintain your current charitable commitments.

- b You may become aware of unpublished price-sensitive information about us or the Group. Under Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 it is a crime to deal in securities while you have price-sensitive information. To protect you and us the Group has adopted the London Stock Exchange Model Code for directors' dealings and you must keep to the terms of the code whether or not you are a director of any companies in the Group. You may get a copy of the code from the Company Secretary's office.

- c You are required to build up and retain a shareholding in United Utilities PLC equal in value to your yearly salary. We will provide you with a copy of our shareholding policy which details what counts towards and the period over which you would be expected to reach your target shareholding.

20 Conduct

You shall at all times during the period of this Agreement;

- i) faithfully and diligently perform those duties and exercise such powers consistent with them which are from time to time assigned to or vested in you;

- ii) follow all lawful and reasonable directions of the Board;
- iii) use your best endeavours to promote and protect the Group's interests;
- iv) keep the Board promptly and fully informed (in writing if so requested) of your conduct of the business or affairs of us and any other Group company and provide such explanations in connection therewith as the Board may require;
- v) not at any time wilfully make any untrue or misleading statement relating to the Group;
- vi) inform the Chairman promptly if you receive a solicitation from a competitor or potential competitor either on a personal or business basis which could be prejudicial to our best interests or those of any Group companies;
- vii) comply with all fiduciary duties;
- viii) comply with all of our codes of ethics and all requirements, codes, recommendations or regulations of the London Stock Exchange plc and of all regulatory authorities relevant to us and any Group company, and in this respect it is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with all applicable matters;
- ix) not enter into any arrangement on behalf of the Group which is outside of its normal course of business or your normal duties.;
- x) report any negligence or misconduct of any director of us or any Group company of which you are aware to the Board without delay;
- xi) disclose to the Board without delay any matters relating to your spouse (or partner), your children, stepchildren, parents, or any trust or body whose affairs or actions you control, which if they applied to you, would contravene clause 19a or b above.
- xii) not resign from any office which you hold with the Group or any trusteeship which you hold as a result of this appointment (without the prior written approval of the Board which shall not unreasonably be withheld)

21 Confidentiality

In this clause "Confidential Information" includes but is not limited to any trade secrets, names and contact details of customers and prospective customers, purchasing and sales agents, suppliers, prices charged to or charged by us and/or any Group company, financial and budget information, and any other information of a confidential nature relating to us or any Group company or information which has been given to us or any Group company by a third party under a duty of confidence where such a duty has been made known to you and which information is not in the public domain provided always that this restriction does apply to information which is in the public domain as a result of a breach of your duties of confidentiality to us and any Group company.

In this clause "Marketing Information" includes all and any information (whether or not recorded in documentary form or on computer disc or tape) relating to the marketing or sales of any product or service of us or any Group company including without limitation sales targets and statistics, market share and pricing statistics, marketing surveys and plans, market research reports, sales techniques, price lists, discount structures, advertising and promotional material, the names, addresses, telephone numbers, contact names and identities of customers and potential customers of and suppliers and potential suppliers to us or any Group company and the nature of their business operations, their requirements for any product or service sold to or purchased by us or any Group company and all confidential aspects of their business relationship with us and/or any Group company.

- a You acknowledge that we and our Group companies possess or will possess a valuable body of Confidential Information and Marketing Information and that you have access to Confidential Information and Marketing Information in order that you may carry out the duties of your employment.

- b You acknowledge that you owe a duty of trust and confidence and a duty to act at all times in the best interests of us and any Group company. You also acknowledge that the disclosure of any Confidential Information and/or Marketing Information to any competitor of ours or of any Group company or to other third parties would place us or any Group company at a serious competitive disadvantage and would cause serious financial and other damage to their businesses.

- c You agree not to, other than in the course of properly carrying out your duties, make use of or disclose (either during the period of your employment by the Company or at any time after its termination) any Confidential Information or Marketing Information.
- d You agree not to obtain or seek to obtain any financial advantage from the disclosure of any Confidential Information or Marketing Information acquired by you in the course of your employment with the Company.
- e You must not make any comment (orally or in writing) about us or the Group or about your job to the media which includes any reporter or other representative of any radio or television station or any newspaper or any other media entity whatsoever, save as in the proper performance of your duties. Any comment to the media will be made in a responsible manner with due regard to its possible effect on your reputation and that of the Group, its officers, employees and associates.
- f You shall not whilst employed by us or any Group company either directly or indirectly publish (verbally or in writing) any opinion, fact or material on any matter within the scope of our business or that of any Group company (whether confidential or not), save as required by law or in the proper performance of your duties.
- g During the term of your employment you shall not make (other than for the benefit of us or any Group company) any record (whether on paper, computer memory, disc or otherwise) relating to any matter within the scope of the business of us or any Group company or their employees or officers or customers or suppliers or concerning our or their dealings or affairs or (either during the term of your employment or afterwards) use such records (or allow them to be used) other than for the benefit of us or any Group company. All such records (and any copies of them) shall belong to us or the relevant Group company and shall be handed over to the Chairman by you on the termination of your employment or at any time during the employment at the request of the Board.

- h Nothing in this clause shall prevent you from making a disclosure pursuant to the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 provided that you make such disclosure in the appropriate way to the appropriate person having regard to the provisions of that Act and you have first fully complied with our procedures relating to such disclosures (or those of any Group company as relevant).

22 Intellectual property

In this clause "Intellectual Property" means any concept, discovery, invention, process, procedure, development or improvement in process or procedure; data, design, formula, model, plans, drawings, documentation, database, computer program or software (including related preparatory and design materials) whether registrable or not and whether or not copyright or design rights subsist in it; idea, method, information or know-how, and in the case of any of the above which is made, discovered, created or generated by you whether alone or with others and whether or not in the course of your employment which relates to or affects the Group's business or which is capable of being used or adapted for use in connection with the Group.

- a Without prejudice to the provisions of the Patents Act 1977, the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 and any other applicable legislation you must immediately disclose to us full details of any Intellectual Property and if the rights in the Intellectual Property belong to us or are capable of doing so, you will act as trustee for us in relation to them, and if requested by the Board whether during your employment or after its termination you will at our expense do everything necessary (including executing documents) to:

- i) protect all current and future rights in the Intellectual Property (by applying for letters patent or other appropriate form of protection) in the United Kingdom or any other part of the world;
- ii) vest, transfer or assign such protection or right as the case may be to us or our nominee with full title guarantee and the right to sue for past infringement and recover damages; and
- iii) provide all reasonable assistance as we may require to obtain, maintain or enforce rights to the Intellectual Property;

b You hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive in favour of us the moral rights conferred on you by the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 in respect of any Intellectual Property right in which the copyright is vested in us under this clause or otherwise and you hereby irrevocably authorise us to appoint a person to execute any documents and to do everything necessary to effect you obligations under this clause on your behalf.

Part four – Ending your contract

23 Ending your employment

- a Either you or we may end your employment by giving the period of notice in writing set out in the schedule.
- b We can dismiss you without notice if you:
- i) commit any act of gross misconduct;
 - ii) repeat or continue any other serious breach of your obligations under this contract after being given a written warning of termination in the event that such a breach was repeated or continued ; or
 - iii) are guilty of any conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Board brings or is likely to bring you or the Group into disrepute; or
 - iv) are convicted of any criminal offence which in the reasonable opinion of the Board affects your position under this contract; or
 - v) commit any act of dishonesty whether relating to any Group company, employee or otherwise; or
 - vi) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors generally; or
 - vii) in the reasonable opinion of the Board become incompetent to perform your duties by reason of mental health; or
 - viii) become prohibited by law from being a director of a company or if you cease to be a director of Group company without the consent or concurrence of the Board; or
 - ix) corruptly give or accept or agree to give or accept a gift or payment as a reward for doing or not doing any act to do with our business ; or
 - x) you are away from work because of illness or injury for 260 working days or more in any eighteen-month period provided that such dismissal does not prejudice your right to receive benefits under any permanent health insurance scheme in place from time to time.

24 Garden Leave

a During any period of notice given by us to you or by you to us or if you seek to or indicate an intention to resign as a director of us or any Group company or to terminate your employment without notice, provided that you continue to be paid and enjoy your full contractual benefits until your employment terminates in accordance with the terms of this agreement, the Board may in its absolute discretion without breaking the terms of this agreement or giving rise to any claim against us or any Group company for all or part of the notice period required under the Schedule up to a maximum of 6 months;

- i) exclude you from our premises and those of any Group company;
- ii) require you to carry out specified duties (consistent with your status, role and experience) for us and any Group company or to carry out no duties;
- iii) suspend your authority to act on our behalf or on behalf of any Group company
- iv) announce to employees, suppliers and customers that you have been given notice of termination or have resigned (as the case may be);
- v) instruct you not to communicate orally or in writing with suppliers, customers, employees, agents or representatives of us or any Group company until your employment has terminated;
- vi) appoint another person or persons to take on your job title and role without any requirement for consent from you;
- vii) require you to resign from all offices with us or any Group company forthwith upon request from the Board;
- viii) require you to deliver up to us all property belonging to us or any Group company in accordance with clause 25

b For the avoidance of doubt, your duties and obligations under this contract continue to apply during any period of exclusion pursuant to this clause. During any period of garden leave we may require you to take any untaken holiday entitlement accrued or likely to accrue up to the termination date during the period of garden leave.

25 Delivery of Documents and Property

On termination of your employment for any reason (or earlier if requested) you will immediately deliver up to us or the relevant Group company all property (including but not limited to documents and software, credit cards, mobile telephone, computer equipment, facsimile machine, keys and security passes) belonging to us or any Group company in your possession or under your control. Documents and software include (but are not limited to) correspondence, diaries, address books, databases, files, reports, minutes, plans, records, documentation or any other medium for storing information. Your obligations under this clause include the return of all copies, drafts, reproductions, notes, extracts or summaries (however stored or made) of all documents and software, and all documents referred to at clause 21g above.

26 Directorship

- a During the period of your employment will be a director of the Company. Without prejudice to the other terms of this contract you are required to resign as a director of us and any Group company and from all other offices and trusteeships with us or any Group company or any other organisation with which you have had dealings as a consequence of your employment with us or any Group company, without any claim for compensation:
- within seven days from the end of your employment with us for whatever reason or
 - if we ask, at any time during any period of notice.

If you do not comply with a request to resign under this clause, you agree that the Company Secretary has authority to effect your resignation on your behalf.

- b The termination by the Company of any office of director held by you in the Company (including failure to be re-elected to the office following retirement by rotation) shall automatically terminate your employment, but if the termination of the office is without your consent, concurrence or complicity then such termination shall amount to a breach of this agreement and shall be without prejudice to your right to claim damages in respect of the termination of your employment.

27 Paying your final salary

- a Any final salary due to you on termination of this contract will not be due for payment unless all items referred to within clauses 21g and 25 above have been returned to us and where relevant they are in a satisfactory condition.

Part five – Restrictions

28 Restrictions

- a Following the end of your employment for a period of 12 months (less any period spent on garden leave in accordance with clause 24 above), unless we agree in writing:
- You cannot be employed, involved or interested in any business in competition with us or any Group company in any area for which you had direct management responsibilities or had direct dealings in the course of your employment during the 12 months immediately before the end of your employment. Business includes any business of researching into, developing, manufacturing, distributing, selling, supplying or otherwise dealing with goods or services we or any Group company distribute, sell or supply.
 - You cannot, in competition with us or any Group company, try to get business from or deal with any firm, person or company you had contact with during the 12 months immediately before your employment ended who was a customer or supplier of us or any Group company.
 - You must not try to encourage away from us or the Group any person who works for it who has confidential or sensitive information about the Group's business.
- b If any of the obligations under this clause cannot be enforced it will not affect any of the other clauses in this contract.
- c The obligations of clause 28a apply equally during your employment.
- d You agree that you will not at any time:
- Carry out any trade or business or be associated with any company engaged in any trade or business using any brand names as long as those names are connected with the Group; or
 - After your employment ends, represent or claim you are associated with any company or division within the Group.

- e Each of the restrictions in this clause 28 is considered by the parties to be reasonable in all the circumstances but if any restriction shall be held by any Court to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of us and Group companies, the said restriction shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to render it valid and effective.

- f We reserve the right to update any of the clauses in this clause 28 when circumstances dictate to reflect the changing nature of the business and protectable interests of the Group.

Part six - Grievance and Disciplinary procedure

29 Grievance and discipline

- a If you have a grievance relating to your employment you should refer it to the Chairman.

- b If we take disciplinary action against you, we will tell you at the relevant time the procedure to be followed and in particular to whom you should address any appeal.

30 Suspension

We may suspend you on full pay while we investigate a disciplinary matter. You must co-operate in any investigation and give us any help we ask for.

Part seven - Miscellaneous

31 Data Protection

We will treat your personal data confidentially and will not give it to third parties unless we have to for purposes connected with your employment or you have given your consent.

You agree to us processing personal data about you for purposes connected with your employment and to inform you of goods and services from businesses within, or promoted by, our Group of companies. In addition you expressly agree to us processing sensitive personal data concerning your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or other beliefs, trade union membership, health, sex and criminal offences, where this is relevant for purposes connected with your employment, is otherwise permitted by law, or you have given your consent.

You agree that we may record your telephone conversations from and to our property or that of any Group company and may also review any emails that you send or receive at your workplace or using our property or that of any Group company, for the purposes of audit, staff training and evaluation or other legitimate purposes.

You understand that the authority given to you to access the Group's computers or other electronic systems, and to use and disclose personal data contained in them, is limited to that which is permitted under data protection laws and our other relevant policies published from time to time.

32 Deductions

We are permitted under this contract to make deductions at any time from any monies due to you (including basic pay, bonus, sick pay, holiday pay or any other sums) in respect of any amounts owed by you to us or any Group company.

33 Reconstruction and Amalgamation

Without prejudice to the termination provision of this contract generally if your employment is terminated at any time in connection with any reconstruction or amalgamation of us or any Group company whether by winding up or otherwise and you receive an offer of employment on terms which (considered in their entirety) are no less favourable to any material extent than the terms of this agreement from an undertaking involved in or resulting from such reconstruction or amalgamation you shall have no claim whatsoever against us or any such undertaking arising out of or connected with such termination.

34 Entire Agreement

- a You agree with us that this contract constitutes the entire and only agreement between you and any Group company regarding your employment and that neither you nor any Group company has been induced to enter into this contract upon, nor has any party been given, any warranty, representation, statement, assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, indemnity or commitment of any nature whatsoever other than as are expressly set out in this contract and, to the extent that any of them has been, we (acting in this respect also for all Group companies) and you unconditionally and irrevocably waive any claims, rights or remedies which any of them might otherwise have had.

- b Nothing in clause 34a shall exclude any liability or any rights that you, us or any Group company may have in respect of any statements made fraudulently prior to the execution of this contract or any rights existing in respect of fraudulent concealment by you or us or any Group company.

35 Collective Agreement

There is no collective agreement applicable to your employment.

36 Construction

- a The headings in this contract are inserted for convenience only.

- b Any reference to any statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to any statutory modification or re-enactment of the provision for the time being in force (whether before or after the date of this contract).

- c No modification, variation or amendment to this contract shall be effective unless such modification, variation or amendment is in writing and has been signed by or on behalf of both parties.
- d Any notice required under this contract shall be given in writing.

Schedule

Start date

This contract begins on 13 February 2006.

The start date for calculating your continuous employment is 13 February 2006.

Place of work

Your main place of work will be 55 Grosvenor Street, London W1K 3LJ.

Who you will report to

You will report to the Chairman.

Basic salary

Your salary at the start of this contract will be £675,000 a year.

Incentive arrangements

(i) Annual bonus plan

You will be entitled to participate in an annual bonus plan. This will provide for the ability to earn an annual bonus of up to 75% of your basic earnings in the financial year 2006/2007. We will give you details of how the annual bonus plan works which you will also be able to access on our intranet. The level of payment will normally be based on achieving corporate targets and/or personal objectives.

Your first participation in the annual bonus plan relating to this appointment will be for the 2006/07 financial year.

You will be able to participate in an annual bonus plan in subsequent years. We will tell you the measures and targets on which the plan is based from year to year. We may change how the scheme works. If we do we will tell you.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we calculate your pensionable earnings.

(ii) Performance share plan

You will also be entitled to participate in the Group's performance share plan from year to year. This provides for discretionary awards. They are normally in the form of an option over company shares to the value of a percentage of your salary on the date of the award. The number of shares you will receive will depend on the extent to which the performance conditions attached to the award have been satisfied. This is normally measured over a three year period beginning at the start of the financial year in which we make the award to you. You will not have to pay anything to receive your shares.

We will make an award to you for the 2005/06 financial year equal to 80% of your salary. The extent to which the award vests will depend upon performance over the three financial years ending 31 March 2008. We will tell you the amount and the performance conditions for the vesting of future awards at the time they are awarded.

We will give you a copy of the rules and a guide to the operation of the plan when you are granted your award. We may change how the scheme works in relation to future awards. If we do, we will tell you.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we calculate your pensionable earnings.

(iii) Share matching plan

We intend to introduce a share matching plan, subject to obtaining the appropriate approvals, including that of shareholders at the 2006 AGM.

You will be included in the plan, the basic outline of which is that 20% of your annual bonus actually payable will be converted automatically into shares. These "converted shares" will be matched by the company on the basis of two matching shares for every one converted share. The number of matching shares to which you will become entitled will depend on the extent to which corporate performance targets are met over the following 3 years. It is intended that the usual "good leaver" provisions will apply to the matching shares; the converted shares will not be subject to performance conditions nor forfeiture.

There will be a facility for you to increase voluntarily the number of converted shares from 20% up to a total value of 50% of bonus payable. The additional shares converted will be matched on a one for one basis. The vesting of these further matching shares will be subject to the same conditions as for the original matching shares.

It is intended that the first awards under this plan will apply to the 2006/07 annual bonus. We will give you full details and a copy of the rules when they have been formulated and approved.

(iv) Matched investment arrangement

We will put in place a matched investment arrangement.

When you join us, you will invest in United Utilities shares worth 1 x your gross annual salary at the start of this contract. We will match this investment on a 1 for 1 basis. After 5 years, the matched shares will transfer to you provided (a) you have maintained throughout the 5 years a shareholding of at least the number of shares bought initially and (b) you have been employed by UU for the whole of the period. The number of matched shares to transfer to you will be increased by the notional reinvestment of dividends payable on the matched shares in the 5 year period.

Special arrangements will apply for the transfer of matched shares in the event of:

- (a) within the first 3 years, a change of control or your leaving because of ill health and
- (b) during years 4 and 5, a change of control or your leaving because of ill health or dismissal without cause (i.e. dismissal by us for any reason other than those referred to at clause 23 of this agreement)

so that a pro-rata number of shares and the notional reinvestment of dividends payable during the relevant period will be transferred to you relating to the proportion of the 5 year period that you work. 'Change of control' for these purposes will include (1) the Company becoming a subsidiary within the meaning of Section 736 Companies Act 1985 of any other company; or (2) over half the business, assets or undertakings (by revenue) of the Company becoming owned by any person, firm or company other than a company currently within the Group.

Retirement age

You will retire when you are 65 years of age unless we agree that you may continue to work after your 65th birthday.

Pension Scheme

We will include you in the United Utilities Pension Scheme – Defined Contribution section (the Pension Scheme) from the date you join us, unless you tell us that you do not want to join. The scheme is explained in the enclosed Member's Guide. You can pay a regular contribution of up to 7% of your pensionable earnings each month to your pension fund. If you pay 7%, we will pay a further 25%. However, if you pay lower regular contribution rate, we will match it on a two for one basis.

As an alternative, if you do not wish to join our pension scheme we will be prepared to make a contribution equal to 25% of your salary to a private pension arrangement. This would be paid in monthly instalments.

Whether or not you join the Pension Scheme you will not be contracted-out of the State Second Pension Scheme and you will pay the full rate of National Insurance Contributions.

Company car

We will provide you with a company car. We will agree with you an appropriate vehicle. We will cover the costs of its maintenance, tax and your insurance. You may instead choose to have a cash payment which is currently £14,000 a year. If you decide to take the cash payment, we will pay to you one twelfth of the yearly amount each month with your salary. The payment is taxable. We do not count it when working out your pensionable earnings.

We will provide fuel for business and private mileage whether you chose to take the company car or the cash alternative. The fuel you use for private mileage is a taxable benefit. If you choose to receive the cash alternative, the car fuel benefit charge, based on carbon dioxide emissions, does not apply. The tax payable for your private fuel will be assessed on the actual value of the fuel used for private journeys.

Telephone charges and equipment

We will provide and pay the costs associated with a business telephone and fax line and modem equipment installed in your home.

We will provide a mobile telephone for your business use and will pay for all rental and call charges.

Accommodation

We will pay the reasonable costs of managed rented accommodation for you for a period of up to 6 months from the commencement of employment.

Notice

The period of notice we will give you initially to end this contract is 24 months. After one year's service this will reduce to a rolling 12 months' notice.

The period of notice you must give us to end this contract is 6 months.

This contract has been signed on

Signed as a deed)

by the company)

.....

Director

.....

Director or Secretary

Signed as a deed)

by)

.....

Name

in the presence of the following

Witness's signature

Name

Address.....

.....

.....

.....

United Utilities PLC

Service Contract

Date of Contract: 10 April 2006

Employee: Tim Weller

Address: 9 Spencer Road
East Molesey
Surrey
KT8 0SP

Job Title: Chief Financial Officer

Company: United Utilities PLC (we,us)

Address: Dawson House, Great Sankey, Warrington, Cheshire WA5 3LW

Part one - General information

1 The contract

This contract sets out the terms of your employment with us. By signing this contract you agree to keep to these terms. The contract will be interpreted and governed by English law. You warrant that by virtue of entering into this Agreement you will not be in breach of any express or implied terms of any contract with or any other obligation to any third party binding upon you.

2 Duties

a We are a member of the United Utilities Group of companies. In this contract and schedule, Group means United Utilities PLC and any subsidiary or holding company as defined by section 736 of the Companies Act 1985.

b You are employed to do the job described in the job title above. However, we may require you to carry out work or hold offices for other companies within the Group either on a temporary or a permanent basis without any additional remuneration.

- c The name or office of the person you report to under this contract is shown in the schedule. Our reporting structures may change but you will be responsible to our board of directors which includes any committee of the board of directors (the Board).

3 Start date of your contract

The start date of this contract and the date your continuous employment starts with us are shown in the schedule.

4 Place of work

- a Your main place of work is shown in the schedule.
- b During the course of your job, you agree to travel to allow you to do your work. We will pay any reasonable expenses involved.
- c We may permanently change your place of work subject to your agreement. If we change it to a place which in our reasonable opinion is too far to travel by way of daily commute without jeopardising your ability to carry out your duties satisfactorily, we will pay reasonable expenses to move you under our relocation policy. If we require you to move we will try to take your wishes into account.

5 Hours

We cannot give you fixed hours of work due to your responsibilities and duties. You must work any hours necessary to allow you to fulfil your duties under this contract. You are exempt from the Working Time Regulations 1998 provisions relating to the maximum weekly working time.

Part two - Benefits

6 Pay

- a We will pay you the salary shown in the schedule. We will pay your salary directly into your bank account on or about the 15th day of each month. This amount will cover that calendar month.
- b You will not be entitled to extra pay for any overtime.
- c We will review your salary and benefits each year and any change will be effective from 1 September. We may increase your salary following a review but we do not have to do so.
- d The pay package shown in the schedule will add up from day to day and will include any fees which you may be entitled to as a director of any company in the Group.

7 Incentive arrangements

Each year, you will take part in our incentive arrangements for directors and senior management. Details of the incentive awards we intend to give you at the start of this contract are shown in the schedule. We do not count the value of incentive awards when we calculate your pensionable earnings.

8 Company car/car allowance

- a At your discretion, we will either provide you with a car or pay you a car allowance. If you select the use of a car, we will agree with you the type of car you can have. We will pay the expenses of running the car, including fuel used on business and private journeys, and replace it from time to time.
- b The value of the car allowance is shown in the schedule. We do not count this allowance when we calculate your pensionable earnings. If we pay you an allowance we will also pay you the fuel costs for business and private journeys.

You are responsible for all other costs and ensuring proper insurance cover is in place for using the car for business. You must obtain our agreement to the suitability of your vehicle for business use.

9 Expenses

We will pay you any travelling, hotel, entertainment and out-of-pocket expenses you have had to pay to carry out your duties, provided they are reasonable. You must provide, where available, receipts or other evidence we ask for when you claim for expenses.

10 Holidays and holiday pay

- a Your yearly entitlement to holidays is 30 days with the holiday year running from 1 April to the following 31 March.
- b Your entitlement to holidays accrues at the beginning of each holiday year except in the holiday year in which your employment with us begins or ends. In this case, your entitlement to holidays accrues at 1/12 of your yearly entitlement for each complete month of service you carry out.
- c In each holiday year you will be entitled to all statutory or public holidays with pay. If we ask you to work on statutory or public holidays we will give you other days off instead.
- d You can carry forward up to five days holiday from one holiday year to another as long as you take these within 2 months of the end of the previous holiday year.
- e We must approve all holidays. If we give you extra holidays in any one holiday year, it does not mean you are entitled to them in future years.
- f If your employment ends for any reason part way through a holiday year you will receive payment for holidays due to you but which you have not taken. If you have taken holidays before you are actually entitled to them you must repay us the cost of those days. We may deduct this amount from any amounts we owe you.

g We may require you to take accrued unused holiday during any period of notice.

11 Sickness, injury and medical examinations

a If you cannot carry out your duties under this contract because you are ill or injured, you will be eligible to receive up to six months' full and six months' half pay from us under our sick pay scheme.

b When you have used up all of your eligibility, we will not pay any further sick pay (other than any entitlement you may still have to statutory sick pay) until you return to work.

c We will take the amount of statutory benefits which you are entitled to under the statutory sick pay scheme from any sick pay we pay you.

d We may ask you to have a medical examination at any time. We will pay the cost of the examination and will choose the doctor concerned who will send a written report to our occupational health adviser. If we ask you and you refuse to have a medical examination when we are paying you sick pay, we may decide not to pay you any further sick pay.

e If your sickness or injury appears to be caused by negligence of a third party and damages may be recoverable, you must tell us straight away. You must also tell us straight away if any claim, compromise, settlement or judgment is made or awarded. You must give us information we may reasonably require. If we require, you must repay to us any damages recovered relating to loss of earnings for the period of the incapacity, provided that the amount you repay is not more than the amount of damages or compensation you recover by you less any costs you have to pay for the recovery of those damages and or compensation. Any refund will not be more than the total remuneration we pay you for the period of absence.

f If you are absent through ill health for 6 consecutive months or more we may appoint another person to your job title to act jointly with you whilst you are incapacitated, and any such appointment shall not constitute any breach of this agreement.

12 Health screening

We will give you the opportunity to have regular medical screening at our expense. You will receive a report from the doctor.

13 Private health cover

- a. We will include you, your spouse and dependent children, free of charge, in our private health scheme in accordance with the rules of the plan, unless you tell us within one month of receiving this contract that you do not want to be included. We may change the rules of the plan from time to time. The scheme is a taxable benefit under HM Revenue & Customs regulations.
- b. We will include you, free of charge, in our group income protection scheme subject to the rules of the scheme as amended from time to time. We reserve the right to change the provider at any time. We will not assume any liability for any payments that any insurer shall decline to make to you.

14 Retirement age and pension

Details of your retirement age and your pension arrangements are given in the schedule.

15 Cover against risk of death or injury

You are covered, free of charge, by our personal accident insurance scheme. The benefits include a payment of up to five times your annual gross salary if you die or become seriously disabled. This will depend on the terms and conditions of the scheme, which may change, and is in addition to any benefit provided under your pension arrangements.

16 Directors' and officers' liability insurance

We will provide directors' and officers' liability insurance to cover you, within the limits of the scheme, against any liability claim you may have to defend in civil or criminal proceedings.

17 Professional institutions and societies

We will repay the cost of a professional subscription you may pay to an institution or society which we agree is relevant to your employment, as long as you provide written evidence of payment.

18 Telephone charges and equipment

We will pay some costs and provide you with equipment as detailed in the schedule.

Part three - your obligations as an employee and director

19 Competition and shareholdings

- a Subject to the following terms of this clause, you must spend all of your time and attention during working hours on our business. You must not be involved in any way with any other person firm or company whatever its trade or business unless we agree in writing. This means that you must not own shares or make investments in companies or partnerships or work for or offer advice or help to another business. However, you may hold investment-only shares, debentures or other securities in a company whose capital is traded on a recognised stock exchange. You can only do this if your interest, together with that of your spouse and your children is not more than 5% of the issued value of the class of shares in question. Subject to the approval of the board (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) you will be able to take on the commitment of one non-executive directorship and shall in any event be entitled to maintain your current charitable commitments.

- b You may become aware of unpublished price-sensitive information about us or the Group. Under Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 it is a crime to deal in securities while you have price-sensitive information. To protect you and us the Group has adopted the London Stock Exchange Model Code for directors' dealings and you must keep to the terms of the code whether or not you are a director of any companies in the Group. You may get a copy of the code from the Company Secretary's office.

- c You are expected to build up and retain a shareholding in United Utilities PLC equal in value to your yearly salary. We will provide you with a copy of our shareholding policy which details what counts towards and the period over which you would be expected to reach your target shareholding.

20 Conduct

You shall at all times during the period of this Agreement;

- i) faithfully and diligently perform those duties and exercise such

- powers consistent with them which are from time to time assigned to or vested in you;
- ii) follow all lawful and reasonable directions of the Board;
 - iii) use your best endeavours to promote and protect the Group's interests;
 - iv) keep the Board promptly and fully informed (in writing if so requested) of your conduct of the business or affairs of us and any other Group company and provide such explanations in connection therewith as the Board may require;
 - v) not at any time wilfully make any untrue or misleading statement relating to the Group;
 - vi) inform the Chief Executive promptly if you receive a solicitation from a competitor or potential competitor either on a personal or business basis which could be prejudicial to our best interests or those of any Group companies;
 - vii) comply with all fiduciary duties;
 - viii) comply with all of our codes of ethics and all requirements, codes, recommendations or regulations of the London Stock Exchange plc and of all regulatory authorities relevant to us and any Group company, and in this respect it is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with all applicable matters;
 - ix) not enter into any arrangement on behalf of the Group which is outside of its normal course of business or your normal duties.;
 - x) report any negligence or misconduct of any director of us or any Group company of which you are aware to the Board without delay;
 - xi) disclose to the Board without delay any matters relating to your spouse (or partner), your children, stepchildren, parents, or any trust or body whose affairs or actions you control, which if they applied to you, would contravene clause 19a or b above.
 - xii) not resign from any office which you hold with the Group or any trusteeship which you hold as a result of this appointment (without the prior written approval of the Board which shall not unreasonably be withheld)

21 Confidentiality

In this clause "Confidential Information" includes but is not limited to any trade secrets, names and contact details of customers and prospective customers, purchasing and sales agents, suppliers, prices charged to or charged by us and/or any Group company, financial and budget information, and any other information of a confidential nature relating to us or any Group company or information which has been given to us or any Group company by a third party under a duty of confidence where such a duty has been made known to you and which information is not in the public domain provided always that this restriction does apply to information which is in the public domain as a result of a breach of your duties of confidentiality to us and any Group company.

In this clause "Marketing Information" includes all and any information (whether or not recorded in documentary form or on computer disc or tape) relating to the marketing or sales of any product or service of us or any Group company including without limitation sales targets and statistics, market share and pricing statistics, marketing surveys and plans, market research reports, sales techniques, price lists, discount structures, advertising and promotional material, the names, addresses, telephone numbers, contact names and identities of customers and potential customers of and suppliers and potential suppliers to us or any Group company and the nature of their business operations, their requirements for any product or service sold to or purchased by us or any Group company and all confidential aspects of their business relationship with us and/or any Group company.

- a You acknowledge that we and our Group companies possess or will possess a valuable body of Confidential Information and Marketing Information and that you have access to Confidential Information and Marketing Information in order that you may carry out the duties of your employment.

- b You acknowledge that you owe a duty of trust and confidence and a duty to act at all times in the best interests of us and any Group company. You also acknowledge that the disclosure of any Confidential Information and/or Marketing Information to any competitor of ours or of any Group company or to other third parties would place us or any Group company at a serious competitive disadvantage and would cause serious financial and other damage to their businesses.

- c You agree not to, other than in the course of properly carrying out your duties, make use of or disclose (either during the period of your employment by the Company or at any time after its termination) any Confidential Information or Marketing Information.
- d You agree not to obtain or seek to obtain any financial advantage from the disclosure of any Confidential Information or Marketing Information acquired by you in the course of your employment with the Company.
- e You must not make any comment (orally or in writing) about us or the Group or about your job to the media which includes any reporter or other representative of any radio or television station or any newspaper or any other media entity whatsoever, save as in the proper performance of your duties. Any comment to the media will be made in a responsible manner with due regard to its possible effect on your reputation and that of the Group, its officers, employees and associates.
- f You shall not whilst employed by us or any Group company either directly or indirectly publish (verbally or in writing) any opinion, fact or material on any matter within the scope of our business or that of any Group company (whether confidential or not), save as required by law or in the proper performance of your duties.
- g During the term of your employment you shall not make (other than for the benefit of us or any Group company) any record (whether on paper, computer memory, disc or otherwise) relating to any matter within the scope of the business of us or any Group company or their employees or officers or customers or suppliers or concerning our or their dealings or affairs or (either during the term of your employment or afterwards) use such records (or allow them to be used) other than for the benefit of us or any Group company. All such records (and any copies of them) shall belong to us or the relevant Group company and shall be handed over to the Chief Executive by you on the termination of your employment or at any time during the employment at the request of the Board.

- h Nothing in this clause shall prevent you from making a disclosure pursuant to the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 provided that you make such disclosure in the appropriate way to the appropriate person having regard to the provisions of that Act and you have first fully complied with our procedures relating to such disclosures (or those of any Group company as relevant).

22 Intellectual property

In this clause "Intellectual Property" means any concept, discovery, invention, process, procedure, development or improvement in process or procedure; data, design, formula, model, plans, drawings, documentation, database, computer program or software (including related preparatory and design materials) whether registrable or not and whether or not copyright or design rights subsist in it; idea, method, information or know-how, and in the case of any of the above which is made, discovered, created or generated by you whether alone or with others and whether or not in the course of your employment which relates to or affects the Group's business or which is capable of being used or adapted for use in connection with the Group.

- a Without prejudice to the provisions of the Patents Act 1977, the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 and any other applicable legislation you must immediately disclose to us full details of any Intellectual Property and if the rights in the Intellectual Property belong to us or are capable of doing so, you will act as trustee for us in relation to them, and if requested by the Board whether during your employment or after its termination you will at our expense do everything necessary (including executing documents) to:

- i) protect all current and future rights in the Intellectual Property (by applying for letters patent or other appropriate form of protection) in the United Kingdom or any other part of the world;
- ii) vest, transfer or assign such protection or right as the case may be to us or our nominee with full title guarantee and the right to sue for past infringement and recover damages; and
- iii) provide all reasonable assistance as we may require to obtain, maintain or enforce rights to the Intellectual Property;

- b You hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive in favour of us the moral rights conferred on you by the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 in respect of any Intellectual Property right in which the copyright is vested in us under this clause or otherwise and you hereby irrevocably authorise us to appoint a person to execute any documents and to do everything necessary to effect your obligations under this clause on your behalf.

Part four – Ending your contract

23 Ending your employment

- a Either you or we may end your employment by giving the period of notice in writing set out in the schedule.
- b We can dismiss you without notice if you:
- i) commit any act of gross misconduct; or
 - ii) repeat or continue any other serious breach of your obligations under this contract after being given a written warning of termination in the event that such a breach was repeated or continued ; or
 - iii) are guilty of any conduct which in the reasonable opinion of the Board brings or is likely to bring you or the Group into disrepute; or
 - iv) are convicted of any criminal offence which in the reasonable opinion of the Board affects your position under this contract; or
 - v) commit any act of dishonesty whether relating to any Group company, employee or otherwise; or
 - vi) become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with your creditors generally; or
 - vii) in the reasonable opinion of the Board become incompetent to perform your duties by reason of mental health; or
 - viii) become prohibited by law from being a director of a company or if you cease to be a director of Group company without the consent or concurrence of the Board; or
 - ix) corruptly give or accept or agree to give or accept a gift or payment as a reward for doing or not doing any act to do with our business ; or
 - x) you are away from work because of illness or injury for 260 working days or more in any eighteen-month period provided that such dismissal does not prejudice your right to receive benefits under any permanent health insurance scheme in place from time to time.

24 Garden Leave

- a During any period of notice given by us to you or by you to us or if you seek to or indicate an intention to resign as a director of us or any Group company or to terminate your employment without notice, provided that you continue to be paid and enjoy your full contractual benefits until your employment terminates in accordance with the terms of this agreement, the Board may in its absolute discretion without breaking the terms of this agreement or giving rise to any claim against us or any Group company for all or part of the notice period required under the Schedule up to a maximum of 6 months;
- i) exclude you from our premises and those of any Group company;
 - ii) require you to carry out specified duties (consistent with your status, role and experience) for us and any Group company or to carry out no duties;
 - iii) suspend your authority to act on our behalf or on behalf of any Group company
 - iv) announce to employees, suppliers and customers that you have been given notice of termination or have resigned (as the case may be);
 - v) instruct you not to communicate orally or in writing with suppliers, customers, employees, agents or representatives of us or any Group company until your employment has terminated;
 - vi) appoint another person or persons to take on your job title and role without any requirement for consent from you;
 - vii) require you to resign from all offices with us or any Group company forthwith upon request from the Board;
 - viii) require you to deliver up to us all property belonging to us or any Group company in accordance with clause 25
- b For the avoidance of doubt, your duties and obligations under this contract continue to apply during any period of exclusion pursuant to this clause. During any period of garden leave we may require you to take any untaken holiday entitlement accrued or likely to accrue up to the termination date during the period of garden leave.

25 Delivery of Documents and Property

On termination of your employment for any reason (or earlier if requested) you will immediately deliver up to us or the relevant Group company all property (including but not limited to documents and software, credit cards, mobile telephone, computer equipment, facsimile machine, keys and security passes) belonging to us or any Group company in your possession or under your control. Documents and software include (but are not limited to) correspondence, diaries, address books, databases, files, reports, minutes, plans, records, documentation or any other medium for storing information. Your obligations under this clause include the return of all copies, drafts, reproductions, notes, extracts or summaries (however stored or made) of all documents and software, and all documents referred to at clause 21g above.

26 Directorship

a During the period of your employment you will be a director of the Company. Without prejudice to the other terms of this contract you are required to resign as a director of us and any Group company and from all other offices and trusteeships with us or any Group company or any other organisation with which you have had dealings as a consequence of your employment with us or any Group company, without any claim for compensation:

- within seven days from the end of your employment with us for whatever reason or
- if we ask, at any time during any period of notice.

If you do not comply with a request to resign under this clause, you agree that the Company Secretary has authority to effect your resignation on your behalf.

b The termination by the Company of any office of director held by you in the Company (including failure to be re-elected to the office following retirement by rotation) shall automatically terminate your employment, but if the termination of the office is without your consent, concurrence or complicity then such termination shall amount to a breach of this agreement and shall be without prejudice to your right to claim damages in respect of the termination of your employment.

27 Paying your final salary

- a Any final salary due to you on termination of this contract will not be due for payment unless all items referred to within clauses 21g and 25 above have been returned to us and where relevant they are in a satisfactory condition.

Part five – Restrictions

28 Restrictions

a Following the end of your employment for a period of 6 months (less any period spent on garden leave in accordance with clause 24 above), unless we agree in writing:

- You cannot be employed, involved or interested in any business in competition with us or any Group company in any area for which you had direct management responsibilities or had direct dealings in the course of your employment during the 12 months immediately before the end of your employment. Business includes any business of researching into, developing, manufacturing, distributing, selling, supplying or otherwise dealing with goods or services we or any Group company distribute, sell or supply.
- You cannot, in competition with us or any Group company, try to get business from or deal with any firm, person or company you had contact with during the 12 months immediately before your employment ended who was a customer or supplier of us or any Group company.
- You must not try to encourage away from us or the Group any person who works for it who has confidential or sensitive information about the Group's business.

b If any of the obligations under this clause cannot be enforced it will not affect any of the other clauses in this contract.

c The obligations of clause 28a apply equally during your employment.

d You agree that you will not at any time:

- Carry out any trade or business or be associated with any company engaged in any trade or business using any brand names as long as those names are connected with the Group; or
- After your employment ends, represent or claim you are associated with any company or division within the Group.

- e Each of the restrictions in this clause 28 is considered by the parties to be reasonable in all the circumstances but if any restriction shall be held by any Court to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of us and Group companies, the said restriction shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to render it valid and effective.
- f We reserve the right to update any of the clauses in this clause 28 when circumstances dictate to reflect the changing nature of the business and protectable interests of the Group.

Part six - Grievance and Disciplinary procedure

29 Grievance and discipline

- a If you have a grievance relating to your employment you should refer it to the Chairman.
- b If we take disciplinary action against you, we will tell you at the relevant time the procedure to be followed and in particular to whom you should address any appeal.

30 Suspension

We may suspend you on full pay while we investigate a disciplinary matter. You must co-operate in any investigation and give us any help we ask for.

Part seven - Miscellaneous

31 Data Protection

We will treat your personal data confidentially and will not give it to third parties unless we have to for purposes connected with your employment or you have given your consent.

You agree to our processing personal data about you for purposes connected with your employment and to inform you of goods and services from businesses within, or promoted by, our Group of companies. In addition you expressly agree to us processing sensitive personal data concerning your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or other beliefs, trade union membership, health, sex and criminal offences, where this is relevant for purposes connected with your employment, is otherwise permitted by law, or you have given your consent.

You agree that we may record your telephone conversations from and to our property or that of any Group company and may also review any emails that you send or receive at your workplace or using our property or that of any Group company, for the purposes of audit, staff training and evaluation or other legitimate purposes.

You understand that the authority given to you to access the Group's computers or other electronic systems, and to use and disclose personal data contained in them, is limited to that which is permitted under data protection laws and our other relevant policies published from time to time.

32 Deductions

We are permitted under this contract to make deductions at any time from any monies due to you (including basic pay, bonus, sick pay, holiday pay or any other sums) in respect of any amounts owed by you to us or any Group company.

33 Reconstruction and Amalgamation

Without prejudice to the termination provision of this contract generally if your employment is terminated at any time in connection with any reconstruction or amalgamation of us or any Group company whether by winding up or otherwise and you receive an offer of employment on terms which (considered in their entirety) are no less favourable to any material extent than the terms of this agreement from an undertaking involved in or resulting from such reconstruction or amalgamation you shall have no claim whatsoever against us or any such undertaking arising out of or connected with such termination.

34 Entire Agreement

- a You agree with us that this contract constitutes the entire and only agreement between you and any Group company regarding your employment and that neither you nor any Group company has been induced to enter into this contract upon, nor has any party been given, any warranty, representation, statement, assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, indemnity or commitment of any nature whatsoever other than as are expressly set out in this contract and, to the extent that any of them has been, we (acting in this respect also for all Group companies) and you unconditionally and irrevocably waive any claims, rights or remedies which any of them might otherwise have had.

- b Nothing in clause 34a shall exclude any liability or any rights that you, us or any Group company may have in respect of any statements made fraudulently prior to the execution of this contract or any rights existing in respect of fraudulent concealment by you or us or any Group company.

35 Collective Agreement

There is no collective agreement applicable to your employment.

36 Construction

- a The headings in this contract are inserted for convenience only.

- b Any reference to any statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to any statutory modification or re-enactment of the provision for the time being in force (whether before or after the date of this contract).

- c No modification, variation or amendment to this contract shall be effective unless such modification, variation or amendment is in writing and has been signed by or on behalf of both parties.
- d Any notice required under this contract shall be given in writing.

Schedule

Start date

This contract begins on 1 July 2006.

The start date for calculating your continuous employment is 1 July 2006.

Place of work

Your main place of work will be Dawson House, Warrington.

Who you will report to

You will report to the Chief Executive.

Basic salary

Your salary at the start of this contract will be £400,000 a year. Your next review will be in September 2007.

Incentive arrangements

(i) Annual bonus plan

You will be entitled to participate in an annual bonus plan. This will provide for the ability to earn an annual bonus of up to 75% of your basic earnings in the financial year 2006/2007. We will give you details of how the annual bonus plan works which you will also be able to access on our intranet. The level of payment will normally be based on achieving corporate targets and/or personal objectives.

Your first participation in the annual bonus plan relating to this appointment will be for the 2006/07 financial year.

You will be able to participate in an annual bonus plan in subsequent years. We will tell you the measures and targets on which the plan is based from year to year. We may change how the scheme works. If we do we will tell you.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we work out our or your regular pension contributions.

(ii) Performance share plan

You will also be entitled to participate in the Group's performance share plan from year to year. This provides for discretionary awards. They are normally in the form of an option over company shares to the value of a percentage of your salary on the date of the award. The number of shares you will receive will depend on the extent to which the performance conditions attached to the award have been satisfied. This is normally measured over a three year period beginning at the start of the financial year in which we make the award to you. You will not have to pay anything to receive your shares.

Your first award will be for the 2006/07 financial year and be worth 80% of your salary at the date of grant. The extent to which the award vests will depend upon performance over the three financial years ending 31 March 2009. We will tell you the amount and the performance conditions for the vesting of future awards at the time they are awarded.

We will give you a copy of the rules and a guide to the operation of the plan when you are granted your award. We may change how the scheme works in relation to future awards. If we do, we will tell you.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we work out our or your regular pension contributions.

(iii) Share matching plan

We intend to introduce a share matching plan, subject to obtaining the appropriate approvals, including that of shareholders at the 2006 AGM.

You will be included in the plan, the basic outline of which is that 20% of your annual bonus actually payable will be converted automatically into shares. These "deemed investment shares" will be matched by the company on the basis of two matching shares for every one deemed investment share. The number of matching shares to which you will become entitled will depend on the extent to which corporate performance targets are met over the following 3 years. It is intended that the usual "good leaver" provisions will apply to the matching shares; the deemed investment shares will not be subject to performance conditions or forfeiture.

There will be a facility for you to increase voluntarily the number of deemed investment shares from 20% up to a total value of 50% of bonus payable. The additional deemed investment shares will be matched on a one for one basis. The vesting of these further matching shares will be subject to the same conditions as for the original matching shares.

It is intended that the first awards under this plan will apply to the outcome of the 2006/07 annual bonus. We will give you full details and a copy of the rules when they have been formulated and approved.

(iv) Matched investment arrangement

We will put in place a matched investment arrangement.

When you join us, you will invest in United Utilities shares to the value of £250,000 at the start of this contract. We will match this investment on a 1 for 1 basis. After 5 years, the matched shares will transfer to you provided (a) you have maintained throughout the 5 years a shareholding of at least the number of shares bought initially and (b) you have been employed by UU for the whole of the period. The number of matched shares to transfer to you will be increased by the notional reinvestment of dividends payable on the matched shares in the 5 year period.

Special arrangements will apply for the transfer of matched shares in the event of:

- (a) within the first 3 years, a change of control or your leaving because of ill health and
- (b) during years 4 and 5, a change of control or your leaving because of ill health or dismissal without cause (i.e. dismissal by us for any reason other than those referred to at clause 23 of this agreement)

so that a pro-rata number of shares and the notional reinvestment of dividends payable during the relevant period will be transferred to you relating to the proportion of the 5 year period that you work. "Change of control" for these purposes will include (1) the Company becoming a subsidiary within the meaning of Section 736 Companies Act 1985 of any other company; or (2) over half the business, assets or undertakings (by revenue) of the Company becoming owned by any person, firm or company other than a company currently within the Group.

Retirement age

You will retire when you are 65 years of age unless we agree that you may continue to work after your 65th birthday.

Pension Scheme

We will include you in the United Utilities Pension Scheme – Defined Contribution section (the Pension Scheme) from the date you join us, unless you tell us that you do not want to join. The scheme is explained in the enclosed Member's Guide. You can pay a regular contribution of between 3% and 7% of your pensionable earnings to your pension fund. Your pensionable earnings are the basic pay you earn each year. If you pay 7%, we will pay a further 25%. However, if you pay a lower regular contribution rate, we will match it on a two for one basis. Your contributions will be taken from your pay each month.

Whether or not you join the Pension Scheme you will not be contracted-out of the State Second Pension Scheme and you will pay the full rate of National Insurance Contributions.

Company car

We will provide you with a company car. We will agree with you an appropriate vehicle. We will cover the costs of its maintenance, tax and your insurance. You may instead choose to have a cash payment which is currently £14,000 a year. If you decide to take the cash payment, we will pay to you one twelfth of the yearly amount each month with your salary. The payment is taxable. We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we work out our or your regular pension contributions.

We will provide fuel for business and private mileage whether you chose to take the company car or the cash alternative. The fuel you use for private mileage is a taxable benefit. If you choose to receive the cash alternative, the car fuel benefit charge, based on carbon dioxide emissions, does not apply. The tax payable for your private fuel will be assessed on the actual value of the fuel used for private journeys.

Telephone charges and equipment

We will provide and pay the costs associated with a business telephone and fax line and modem equipment installed in your home.

We will provide a mobile telephone for your business use and will pay for all rental and call charges.

Relocation

It will be necessary for you to relocate in taking up this appointment. We will repay costs reasonably incurred by you in moving home up to a maximum of £100,000 in accordance with our policy on relocation. This amount excludes the cost of grossing up reimbursements to account for tax payable.

Notice

The period of notice we will give you to end this contract is 12 months.

The period of notice you must give us to end this contract is 6 months.

This contract has been signed on

Signed as a deed)

by the company)

.....

Director

.....

Director or Secretary

Signed as a deed)

by)

.....

Name

in the presence of the following

Witness's signature

Name

Address.....

.....

.....

.....

Management and Professional group - Band A1

Schedule to service contract - Charles Cornish

Start date

This contract begins on a date to be agreed.

The start date for calculating your continuous employment will be the date this contract begins.

Place of work

Your main place of work will be Dawson House, Warrington.

Who you will report to

You will report to the Chief Executive.

Basic salary

Your salary at the start of this contract will be £235,000 a year. We will also pay you a salary supplement of £18,500 a year. This supplement will not be included in your pay when we calculate your pension.

Incentive arrangements

(i) Annual bonus plan

Each year we may include you in the annual bonus plan but we do not have to. If we do, we may pay you up to 60% of your basic salary. The level of payment may be based on achieving performance targets and personal objectives. We may pay you a bonus if you work for less than one year but for at least three months. If we do it will be based on the period you worked.

If this contract begins on or before 5 January 2004, your first bonus payment will be for 2003/04 and will be made in June 2004, if we achieve the targets. If this contract begins after 5 January 2004, your first bonus award will be for the 2004/05 financial year.

We may change how the bonus scheme works. If we do we will tell you.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we calculate your pension.

(ii) Performance share plan

Each year, at our discretion, we may also invite you to participate in the group's performance share plan. There is an award each year which currently is in the form of an option over a number of shares to the value of a percentage of your salary, based the market value of a share on the date of the award. The actual number of shares over which an option may be exercised is determined by United Utilities' performance, measured over a three year period beginning at the start of the financial year in which the award of options was made. Options may be exercised after the end of the performance period once our performance is known.

Special rules apply when you first join the plan and when you leave it.

If this contract begins on or before 5 January 2004, your first award under this plan will be for the 2003/04 financial year. We will recommend to the plan's trustee that the maximum value of your award for this year is 80% of your salary. The extent to which the award vests will depend upon our performance over the three financial years ending 31 March 2006. If this contract begins after 5 January 2004, your first award will be for the 2004/05 financial year.

We will give you a copy of the rules and a guide to the operation of the plan after you have started work with us.

We do not count the value of awards made under this plan when we calculate your pension.

Retirement age

You will retire when you are 65 years of age unless we agree that you may continue to work after your 65th birthday.

Pension Scheme

You can join the Company's Pension Scheme, subject to the provisions of the Scheme from time to time in force.

A summary of the Scheme's provisions and an application form are attached. Please write to the Group Pensions Manager if you would like comprehensive details of the Scheme, a copy of the trust deed and rules. We will send you a Pension Scheme Handbook if you join the Scheme.

We will assume you wish to join the Scheme unless you tell us that you do not. If you do wish to join, you must complete the application form and return it to the Group Pensions Manager, preferably before you start work with us, telling us your preferred level of contribution and chosen investment options. If we do not receive your completed form before you start work with us, we will deduct pension scheme contributions at the rate of 3% from your basic salary. The amount will be invested in the BGI Deposit Fund. If we do not receive a completed application form within 1 month of your first contribution, any contributions you have paid will be automatically refunded to you with interest and you will cease to be a member of the Pension Scheme.

As a member of the Scheme, you will be contracted-in to SERPS and will pay National Insurance contributions at the contracted-in rate.

If you do not wish to join the Pension Scheme, you should tell the Group Pensions Manager immediately to ensure that no contributions are deducted when you begin work with us.

Company car allowance

We will pay you a cash allowance of £14,000 per year. We will pay you one twelfth of the yearly amount each month. The payment is taxable. We do not count it when working out your pension.

We will provide fuel for business and private mileage. The fuel you use for private mileage is a taxable benefit. As we are not providing you with a company car, the Inland Revenue's car fuel benefit charge, based on carbon dioxide emissions, does not apply. The tax payable for your private fuel will be assessed on the actual value of the fuel used for private journeys.

Telephone charges, communications and computer equipment

We will provide and pay the costs associated with a business telephone and fax line and modem equipment installed in your home.

We will provide a mobile telephone for your use.

We will provide a lap top computer, (including base unit and external monitor) and a combined fax, printer, scanner and photocopier.

Relocation

We consider your present home is not within reasonable daily travelling distance and time from Warrington. We will pay reasonable expenses to move you. These may include removal expenses, legal expenses, estate agent's fees, a disturbance allowance of up to £8,000 and the reasonable cost of temporary accommodation or a bridging loan. We may also offer you the use of a specialist relocation agent to tell you about the area. We will agree with the agent how much we will pay them.

We will pay any tax you may be charged on the expenses we pay you.

You must move within one year of starting to work with us. However, in special circumstances, we may agree to vary this time limit.

If you leave us within two years of appointment we reserve the right to reclaim some or all of the monies paid to you for your relocation.

Notice

The period of notice we will give you to end this contract is 12 months.

The period of notice you must give us to end this contract is 12 months.

United Utilities PLC

Service Contract

Date of Contract:

Employee: Charles Cornish

Address: 14 Hazel Grove
Kingwood
Henley on Thames
Oxon
RG9 5NH

Job Title: Managing Director, United Utilities Service Delivery

Company: United Utilities PLC (we/us)

Address: Dawson House, Great Sankey, Warrington, Cheshire WA5 3LW

Part one - General information

1 The contract

This contract sets out the terms of your employment with us. By signing this contract you agree to keep to these terms. The contract will be interpreted and governed by English law.

2 Job description

- a We are a member of the United Utilities group of companies. In this contract and schedule, group means United Utilities PLC and any company of which United Utilities PLC holds more than 20% of the share capital as defined by Section 744 of the Companies Act 1985.
- b You are employed to do the job described in the job title above. However we may ask you to do other work or carry out work for another company within the group either on a temporary or a permanent basis.

- c The name or office of the person you report to each day when you start work under this contract is shown in the schedule. Our reporting structures may change but you will be responsible to our board of directors (the board).
- d You must keep to all rules, procedures, practices and guidelines we approve.

3 Start date of your contract

The start date of this contract and the date your continuous employment starts with us are shown in the schedule.

4 Place of work

- a Your main place of work is shown in the schedule. You must live within reasonable daily travelling distance and time from your main place of work.
- b We may ask you to work outside the United Kingdom on a temporary basis for periods of up to 12 months. If we send you overseas we will continue to pay you in pounds sterling and we will give you any allowances we think are necessary.
- c You must agree to travel to allow you to do your work. We will pay any reasonable expenses involved.
- d We may ask you to work anywhere in the United Kingdom. If your place of work is permanently changed to a place which is too far to travel to, we may agree to pay reasonable expenses to move you. These expenses may include removal expenses, legal expenses, estate agent's fees, a disturbance allowance of up to £5,000, the reasonable cost of temporary accommodation or interest charges on a bridging loan. If we ask you to move we will try to take your wishes into account.

5 Hours

We cannot give you fixed hours of work due to your responsibilities and duties. You must work any hours we feel are necessary to allow you to fulfil your duties under this contract. You are exempt from the Working Time Regulations 1998 provisions relating to the maximum weekly working time.

Part 2 - Benefits

6 Pay

- a We will pay you the salary shown in the schedule. We will pay your salary directly into your bank account on or about the 15th day of each month. This amount will cover part of the month just passed and part of the month to come.
- b You will not be entitled to extra pay for any overtime.
- c We will review your salary and benefits each year on 1 July. Each review will take account of changes in the cost of living, how we are doing and your contribution to that performance. We may increase your salary following a review but we do not have to.
- d The pay package shown in the schedule will add up from day to day and will include any fees which you may be entitled to as a director of the company or any other company in the group.

7 Incentive arrangements

Each year, at our discretion, we may invite you to take part in our incentive arrangements. Participation in any incentive plan and the terms of your participation are not part of your employment contract. If we invite you to participate in any one year, it does not mean you are entitled to participate in future years. We may amend, replace or withdraw incentive arrangements at any time but we will tell you if we do so. Details of the awards you may receive are shown in the schedule.

8 Car allowance/Company car

We will pay you an allowance instead of providing you with a company car. The amount is shown in the schedule. We do not count this allowance when we calculate your pension. We may choose to provide you with a car. If we do, we will send you a list of the type of car you can have. You may use the car for private journeys.

9 Expenses

We will pay you any travelling, hotel, entertainment and out-of-pocket expenses you have had to pay to carry out your duties, provided we think they are reasonable. You must provide, where available, receipts or other evidence we ask for.

10 Holidays and holiday pay

a. Unless we say otherwise in the schedule:

- your yearly entitlement is 26 days
- at the start of each holiday year, your entitlement will increase by one day for each completed holiday year you have worked for us until, after 4 completed holiday years, you have a yearly entitlement of 30 days.
- the holiday year runs from 1 April to the following 31 March.

b Your entitlement to holidays adds up at the beginning of each holiday year except in the holiday year in which your employment with us begins or ends. In this case, your entitlement to holidays adds up at 1/12 of your yearly entitlement for each complete month of service you carry out.

c In each holiday year you will be entitled to all statutory or public holidays with pay. If we ask you to work on statutory or public holidays we will give you other days off instead.

d You can carry forward up to five days holiday from one year as long as you take these within 2 months of the end of the previous holiday year. You must take all other holidays during the holiday year and may not carry them forward to the following holiday year.

e We must approve all holidays. If we give you extra holidays in any one holiday year, it does not mean you are entitled to them in future years.

- f If we end your employment for any reason part way through a holiday year you will receive payment for days of holiday due to you but which you have not taken yet. If you have taken holidays before you are actually entitled to them you must repay us the cost of those days. We may take this amount from any amounts we owe you.

11 Sickness, injury and medical examinations

- a If you cannot carry out your duties under this contract because you are ill or injured, you will be eligible to receive sick pay from us. Your eligibility is related to your period of continuous service. In any 12-month period you will receive up to the following payments:-

Continuous service	Full basic pay (months)	Half basic pay (months)
Up to four months	1	0
four months to one year	1	2
one year to two years	2	2
two years to three years	3	3
three years to four years	4	4
four years to five years	5	5
five years and over	6	6

If you have received any sick pay in the 12 months immediately before a period you are off through illness, we will reduce your eligibility for further sick pay by the amount of sick pay you will already have received in the last 12 months.

- b When you have used up all of your eligibility, we will not pay any further sick pay (other than any entitlement you may still have to statutory sick pay) until you return to work.
- c We will take the amount of statutory benefits which you are entitled to under the statutory sick pay scheme from any sick pay we pay you.
- d We use the five qualifying days of Monday to Friday when we work out payments under the statutory sick pay scheme.

- e We may ask you to have a medical examination at any time. We will pay the cost of the examination and will choose the doctor concerned who will send a written report to our occupational health adviser. If we ask you and you refuse to have a medical examination when we are paying you sick pay, we may not pay any further sick pay.

12 Health screening

We will give you the opportunity to have regular medical screening (usually every two years) at our expense. You will receive a report from the doctor.

13 Private health cover

We will include you, your spouse and children, free of charge, in our private health scheme unless you tell us within one month of receiving this contract that you do not want to be included. The scheme is a taxable benefit under Inland Revenue regulations.

14 Retirement age and pension

Details of your retirement age and our pension scheme are given in the schedule.

15 Cover against risk of death or injury

You are covered, free of charge, by our personal accident insurance scheme. The benefits include a payment of up to five times your salary if you die or become seriously disabled. This will depend on the terms and conditions of the scheme, which may change, and is on top of any benefit provided under your pension arrangements.

16 Directors' and officers' liability insurance

We will provide directors' and officers' liability insurance to cover you against any liability which you have in defending any civil or criminal proceedings.

17 Professional institutions and societies

We will repay the cost of any professional subscription you may pay to an institution or society we agree is relevant to your employment as long as you provide evidence we ask for.

18 Telephone charges, communications and computer equipment

We will pay some costs and provide you with equipment as detailed in the schedule.

Part three - your obligations as an employee

19 Competition and shareholdings

- a You must spend all of your time and attention during working hours on our business. You must not be involved in any way with any other person, firm or company, whatever its trade or business unless you get our written permission. This means that you must not own shares or make investments in companies or partnerships or work for or offer advice or help to another business. However you may hold investment-only shares, debentures or other securities in a company whose capital is traded on a recognised stock exchange. You can only do this if your interest, together with that of your spouse and your children is not more than 5% of the issued value of the class of shares and so on in question.

- b You may receive or have unpublished price-sensitive information about us or the group. Under Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 it is a crime to deal in securities while you have price-sensitive information. To protect you and us the group has adopted the London Stock Exchange Model Code for directors' dealings and you must keep to the terms of the code whether or not you are a director of the company. You may get a copy of the code from the Company Secretary's office.

20 Confidentiality

- a You must not give anyone or use at any time any trade secret or confidential information, unless you have to do this as part of your job. We have defined confidential information in para 20c below. This applies during your employment and after the end of your employment with us.

- b You must not make any comment about the group or about your job to any reporter or other representative of any radio or television station or any newspaper, unless you have to do this when carrying out your duties.

- c Confidential information is information which you learn during your employment about the activities of the group anywhere in the world, which you could not have got elsewhere and which the group has not published.

- d All records (including records stored in any electronically-readable form), drawings and documents and copies of records, drawings and documents relating to our activities or the activities of the group are the property of the group. You must keep them safe and must give them to us immediately if we ask. You must return all the records, drawings and documents and all the copies you have to us if you leave the Company.

21 Intellectual property

- a In this clause the following terms will have the following meaning:

- Intellectual property means patents, trade marks, service marks, rights (whether registered or unregistered) in any designs, trade or business names, copyright work and designs and know how and any other rights of a similar nature together with applications for and the right to apply for any of these.
- Invention means any improvement, invention or discovery.
- Company invention means any invention made by you which is our property.

- b You must protect and promote our interests relating to intellectual property taking account of particular policy statements the group issues.

- c If at any time while you are employed under this contract you make or discover or take part in making or discovering any invention relating to our business you must immediately give us full details so we can decide whether or not it is a company invention. We call details that you must tell us about "development information".

- d If the invention is a company invention:

- It will be our property and we may deal with it and the development information in any way we choose; and
- We can ask you to give us any information, data, drawings and help we need to use the invention to the best advantage.

e If you make or discover or take part in making or discovering any invention while you are employed under this contract and this is not a company invention we will have the right to receive your rights in the invention within three months after you have told us about it. Fair and reasonable terms will be agreed or settled by an arbitrator.

f You must agree to the following:

- You must promptly give us all work and designs you or others think of, develop or make. You must hold them in trust for us until we have all rights to them. This does not apply to any work or designs you think of, develop or make outside your normal working hours.
- You must transfer to us all copyright, design right and other rights (if any) for all work and designs you think of, develop or make while you are employed by us. This does not apply to work or designs you think of, develop or make outside your normal working hours if they are not connected with your job.

The conditions of the Patents Act 1977 also apply to inventions and our rights under the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988.

g You must also do everything possible to:

- Give us all the rights to all intellectual property in any company invention, the development information and any work;
- Apply for, get and maintain all patents, copyright, design rights, registered designs, trade marks or other protection for any company invention and the work in parts of the world we specify;
- Resist any objection or opposition to getting any petitions or applications for revocation of any such rights and protection referred to in this clause; and
- Bring any legal action affecting the rights and protection referred to in this clause.

- h You will not use your rights to any work or company invention against us.
- i You must appoint us as your attorney to do anything and generally to use your name for the purpose of giving us the full benefit of the conditions of this paragraph 21. A written certificate signed by any director or the secretary of the company will be proof that we may act as your attorney.
- j Rights and obligations relating to inventions under this paragraph will continue after your employment ends.
- k Nothing in this clause will affect our or your rights under Sections 39 to 43 of the Patents Act 1977.

Part four – Ending your contract

22 Ending your employment

- a Either you or we may end your employment by giving the period of notice in writing set out in the schedule.
- b We can dismiss you without notice if you seriously break your obligations to us. The following list gives some examples of serious breaks:
- Dishonesty.
 - Corruptly giving or accepting or agreeing to give or accept a gift or payment as a reward for doing or not doing any act to do with the business.
 - If you neglect your duties under this contract.
- c We may also dismiss you immediately by notice in writing if:
- in our reasonable opinion, you do not do your work competently; or
 - you are away from work because of illness or injury for 260 working days or more in any eighteen-month period; or
 - you are prevented by law from being a Director; or
 - you cannot work because of a mental disorder; or
 - you become bankrupt or make any arrangement with people you owe money to.

23 Garden Leave

During any period of notice given by us to you or by you to us, we may:

- require you not to do work for us
- require you not to attend our offices; and
- suspend your authority to act on behalf of us without otherwise affecting your duties to us under this contract and without affecting your entitlement to receive the pay and benefits due to you under this contract.

24 Suspension

We may suspend you while we investigate a disciplinary matter. You must co-operate in any investigation and give us any help we ask for.

25 Resigning as a director

You must agree that you will resign as a director:

- Within seven days from the end of your employment with us for whatever reason or
- If we ask at any time during any period of notice.

If you do not do this, the Company Secretary will give your resignation on your behalf.

26 Returning your company car

If you have a company car when your employment ends you must deliver it back to us.

27 Paying your final salary

- a We will pay you any amounts we owe when we receive the items listed below if we end your employment:

- A company vehicle;
- Any of the records referred to in paragraph 20d above; or
- Any of our other property such as a mobile telephone and company computer.

You must return all these items in a satisfactory condition.

b. We can take any amounts you owe us for the following from any amounts we owe you if we end your employment:

- Any amount we give you in advance or overpayment of salary, commission or expenses or for any loan of any kind we make to you.
- Any amount you owe us for a company car upgrade or accessories.
- Any loss we have suffered due to fraud, other dishonesty or your neglect.

Part five - Restrictions

28 Restrictions

a Following the end of your employment for a period equal to the number of months' notice we must give you to end your employment, you must not do the following unless you have our written permission.

- You cannot be employed, involved or interested in any business in competition with the group in any area for which you had direct management responsibilities or had direct dealings in the course of your employment during the 12 months immediately before the end of your employment. Business includes any business of researching into, developing, manufacturing, distributing, selling, supplying or otherwise dealing with goods or services we distribute, sell or supply.
- You cannot be in competition with the group, try to get business from or deal with any firm, person or company who during the 12 months immediately before your employment ended was a customer or supplier of the group you had contact with.
- You must not try to encourage away from the group any person who works for the group who has confidential or sensitive information about our business.

b If any of the obligations under this clause cannot be enforced it will not affect any of the other clauses in this agreement.

- c The obligations of clause 28a apply equally during your employment.
- d You must agree that you will not at any time:
- Carry out any trade or business or be associated with any company engaged in any trade or business using any brand names as long as those names are connected with us; or
 - After your employment ends, represent or claim you are associated with any company or division within the group.
- e If these clauses are judged to be unreasonable we may amend them and they will still be valid.

Part six - Procedures and policies

29 Grievance procedure

If you have a grievance relating to your employment you should refer it to the Chief Executive, whose decision will be final.

30 No smoking policy

We aim to provide a smoke-free environment for all our employees. You must not smoke at any time while on our premises.

This agreement has been signed on

.....17.11.03.....

Signed as a deed)

by the company)

Director

~~Director or Secretary~~

Signed as a deed)

by)

Name CHARLES T. CORNISH

in the presence of the following

Witness's signature A J Steadman

Name A J STEADMAN

Address 18 HAZEL GROVE

KINGWOOD

HENLEY RG9 5NH

RECEIVED

2008 JUL 24 A 9:25

FILED

United Utilities Group Plc
12g3-2(b) Application Documents

9. The material contracts referred to in section 15 of Part X of the Prospectus

DATED 13 JANUARY 2007

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

and

VTX BIDCO LIMITED

Agreement relating to the sale and purchase of shares in
VERTEX DATA SCIENCE LIMITED

Slaughter and May
One Bunhill Row
London EC1Y 8YY
(PWHB/DJW)

RECEIVED

CONTENTS 2008 JUL 24 A 9:25

	Page
1. Interpretation	1
2. Sale and purchase	12
3. Consideration	12
4. Condition	13
5. Completion	14
6. No Leakage Undertakings	15
7. Effect of Completion	17
8. Conduct of business before Completion	17
9. Pensions	22
10. Insurance Arrangements	23
11. Seller's Warranties	24
12. Purchaser's warranties and undertakings	25
13. Restrictions on Seller's business activities	27
14. Purchaser's remedies and Seller's limitations on liability	28
15. Remedies and waivers	28
16. Access	29
17. Assignment	30
18. Entire agreement	30
19. Further Assurance	31

20.	Notices	31
21.	Announcements	31
22.	Confidentiality	32
23.	Costs and expenses	33
24.	Counterparts	34
25.	Time of essence	34
26.	Invalidity	34
27.	Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999	34
28.	Choice of governing law	34
29.	Jurisdiction	34
30.	Transitional Services	35
31.	Property	35

SCHEDULES

Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements)	36
Schedule 2 (Warranties)	39
Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability)	56
Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company)	64
Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries)	66
Schedule 6	80
Part I (Business Properties)	80
Schedule 7 (Pensions)	100

Annex A: (The Actuary's letter)	113
Schedule 8 (Tax Covenant)	133
Schedule 9: (Transitional Services)	164
Schedule 10 (Trade Mark Assignment)	174

THIS AGREEMENT is made: 13 January 2007

BETWEEN:

1. UNITED UTILITIES PLC of Dawson House, Great Sankey, Warrington, Cheshire WA5 3LW (registered in England No. 02366616) (the "Seller");

AND

2. VTX BIDCO LIMITED of the Seventh Floor, 90 High Holborn, London WC1V 6XX (registered in England No. 6048945) (the "Purchaser").

WHEREAS:

- (A) The Seller is the legal and beneficial owner of the Shares (as defined in this agreement).
- (B) The Seller has agreed to sell and the Purchaser has agreed to purchase and pay for the Shares (as defined in this agreement) in each case on the terms set out in this agreement.
- (C) Particulars of each member of the Group (as defined in this agreement) are set out in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company) and Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries).

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED as follows:

1. Interpretation

1.1 In this agreement and the Schedules to it:

- | | |
|---|--|
| "1st Software" | means 1 st Software Group Limited, a company registered in England with number 5455415; |
| "1st Software Purchase Agreement" | means the agreement entered into between the Seller and the Company on 22 November 2006 in relation to the purchase of shares in 1 st Software by the Company; |
| "1993 Act" | means the Pension Schemes Act 1993; |
| "Accounts" | means the consolidated profit and loss account, balance sheet, consolidated cash flow statement, statement of total recognised gains and losses, reconciliations of movements in shareholders' funds, reconciliation of net cash flow to movements in net funds and related notes of the Company prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985, for the accounting reference period ended on the Accounts Date, and audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP; |

"Accounts Date"	means 31 March, 2006;
"Additional Consideration"	has the meaning it is given in clause 3.2 ;
"A Shares"	means all the issued A ordinary shares with a par value of £50/71 in the capital of the Company;
"Assurance"	means any assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, security, guarantee, indemnity or other commitment given or undertaken direct or contingent by or binding upon the Seller or any other member of the Retained Group in respect of any obligation or liability of any member of the Group or, for the purposes of clauses 12.6 and 12.7 ; means any assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, security, guarantee, indemnity or other commitment given or undertaken direct or contingent by or binding upon the Company or any member of the Group in respect of any obligation or liability of any member of the Retained Group;
"Bank Account"	means the Seller's bank account with IBAN reference number GB51 LOYD 3000 0201 3195 98;
"Books and Records"	means all notices, correspondence, orders, inquiries, drawings, plans, books of account and other documents and all computer disks or tapes or other machine legible programs or other records (excluding software) proprietary to any member of the Group (or, for the purposes of clause 16.4, 16.5 or 16.6 the Retained Group);
"Business"	means the provision of business process outsourcing services as carried on by the Group at the Completion Date;
"Business Day"	means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday or a public holiday) on which banks are open for business in London;
"Business Properties"	means the Properties owned by the Group short particulars of which are set out in Schedule 6 (Business Properties);
"Companies Act"	means the Companies Act 1985 (as amended);
"Company or VDSL"	means Vertex Data Science Limited, basic information concerning which is set out in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company);
"Company Payables"	means £100,000,000 plus the Group Loan plus the Working Capital Loan Interest;

"Competing Business"	means any business carried on in a manner which competes with the Business, other than any Retained Businesses;
"Completion"	means completion of the sale and purchase of the Shares under this agreement;
"Completion Date"	has the meaning it is given in clause 5.1 ;
"Condition"	has the meaning it is given in clause 4.1 ;
"Consideration"	means the Purchase Price and, if applicable, any Additional Consideration;
"Data Room"	means the electronic data room, the index for which is annexed to the Disclosure Letter, made available to the Purchaser by the Seller prior to the date of this Agreement containing information relating to the business carried on by the Company and the other members of the Group;
"Disclosure Letter"	means the letter dated the date of this agreement written by the Seller to the Purchaser for the purposes of sub-clause 14.2 (Purchaser's remedies and Seller's limitations on liability) and delivered to the Purchaser's Solicitors before the execution of this agreement;
"Employee"	means an employee of any member of the Group;
"FM Services"	means the facilities management services performed at the Completion Date by UUCS or contemplated in bidding activity of UUCS current at the Completion Date, any other similar facilities management services carried on by UUCS in the 12 months prior to the Completion Date and any business process activities carried on by UUCS in the 12 months prior to the Completion Date ancillary to contracts for metering, connections, utility asset management and utility operations and maintenance, in respect of any of the foregoing for any member of the Retained Group or third parties;
"FSA"	means the Financial Services Authority;
"FSMA"	means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
"GPP Arrangements"	means the group personal pension arrangements entered into by members of the Group;
"Group"	means the Company and all of the Subsidiaries;

- "Group Loan" means £7,417,827;
- "Group Recharges" means, at any time and from time to time, the aggregate accrued but unpaid charges invoiced monthly by the Seller (or any other member of the Retained Group) to the Company in respect of central corporate management costs apportioned to the Group on a customary basis, which include but are not limited to the group management charge (of £275,000 per month, pro rated for any part of a month), audit fees, insurance recharges, sponsorship recharges, actuarial, legal and consultancy costs, pension administration costs, private health care costs, SIP costs, costs relating to Microsoft licences and any other third party professional fees relating to the Group;
- "Group Relief" has the meaning it is given in the Tax Covenant;
- "ICTA 1988" means the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988;
- "Information Memorandum" means the information memorandum relating to the Company dated August 2006 and prepared by Merrill Lynch International;
- "Information Technology" means computer hardware, software, networks and other information technology;
- "Intellectual Property" means patents, supplementary protection certificates, trade marks, database rights, rights in designs and copyrights (whether or not any of these rights are registered, and including applications and rights to apply for registration of any such rights) and all rights and forms of protection of a similar nature or having equivalent or similar effect to any of these which may subsist anywhere in the world, in each case for their full term, and together with any renewals or extensions;
- "Interest Rate" means the Lloyds TSB Bank plc base rate from time to time plus 1 per cent.;
- "Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items" means, at any time and from time to time, all amounts owed, outstanding or accrued in respect of inter-company trading activity and the provision of services and property arrangements and facilities (including foreign exchange swap transactions and SAP system charges but excluding those matters in respect of which Group Recharges apply) and property arrangements between any member of the Retained Group and any member of the Group as a result of arrangements entered into in the ordinary course and on terms of business not materially different to those forming the basis of such arrangements entered into in the previous 12 months;

"ITFM Agreement"

means the ITFM Shared Services Agreement between United Utilities Water PLC and the Company, also referred to as the Magellan Agreement;

"IT Variation Contract"

means an agreement relating to Information Technology (including licences of software) which restricts the use of the relevant Information Technology in such a way that Completion will make the current use made by any member of the Group (or by the Seller or any of its subsidiaries or subsidiary undertakings) unlawful, in breach of or inconsistent with the terms of the agreement; and "Variation" means a variation of such agreement which avoids such unlawfulness, breach or inconsistency;

"Key Employee"

means an Employee earning more than £100,000 per annum (excluding benefits in kind, pensions and bonuses) or the local currency equivalent;

"Local Government Pension Schemes" means the arrangements between members of the Group and Essex and the West Midlands local authorities respectively in relation to the provision of retirement benefits;

"London Stock Exchange"

means the London Stock Exchange plc;

"Long Stop Date"

means the date that is four months after the date of this Agreement;

"Management Accounts"

means the unaudited consolidated balance sheet as at the Management Accounts Date and the consolidated profit and loss account of the Group for the period from the Accounts Date to the Management Accounts Date;

"Management Accounts Date"

means 30 September, 2006;

"No Leakage Undertaking"

has the meaning it is given in clause 6.1;

"Ordinary Shares"

means all the issued ordinary shares with a par value of £21/71 each in the capital of the Company;

"Overseas Schemes"

means the defined benefit arrangement operated by Group members in Canada; the post-retirement medical benefits promise made by members of the Group in the US; the provident fund operated by members of the Group in India and the 401(K) plans operated by members of the Group in the US;

"Panel"

means The Panel on Takeovers and Mergers;

"Pension Schemes"

means the JUESPS, the UUPS, the Overseas Schemes, the GPP Arrangements, the Local Government Pension Schemes;

"Permitted Leakage"

means:

- (i) payments in respect of any assets acquired or disposed of for the benefit of any member of the Retained Group by any member of the Group on an arm's length basis and in the ordinary and usual course of business of any member of the Group not exceeding, in aggregate £250,000;
- (ii) any payments in respect of salary, bonus, expenses and fees made by any member of the Group to the directors, officers, consultants or employees of any member of the Retained Group in respect of services rendered to any member of the Group in the ordinary course of business of the Group not exceeding, in aggregate £250,000;
- (iii) any payment to the Retained Group of Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items, or a part thereof, in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group;
- (iv) any payment to the Retained Group of Group Recharges, or a part thereof, in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group;
- (v) any payment of Tax or an amount in respect of Tax made in the ordinary and usual course of business;
- (vi) any surrender of Group Relief by any member of the Group to any member of the Retained Group and any payments made by any member of the Group to any member of the Retained Group in respect of any Group Relief surrendered to that member of the Group;
- (vii) any repayment of the Company Payables pursuant to Part B of Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements);
- (viii) any payment specifically accrued or provided for in the Management Accounts;

- (ix) any payment to the Retained Group by a member of the Group of amounts attributable to, or incurred in connection with, the occupation of or relocation from a Shared Property (as defined in Schedule 6 (Property)) on the terms set out in Schedule 6;
- (x) liabilities incurred in connection with the grant of any lease of a Shared Property to the relevant Occupier (in each case as defined in Schedule 6 (Property)), on the terms contained or referred to in Schedule 6; and
- (xi) any payment by the Company to the Seller of the £260,000 charge owed by the Company to the Seller in relation to occupation of UU Property under the ITFM Agreement for non-ITFM Agreement purposes, which will be invoiced for payment prior to Completion;

"Planning Legislation"

means all legislation intended to control or regulate the construction, demolition, alteration or use of land or buildings or to preserve or protect the national heritage and any orders, bye laws or regulations made or granted under any of them;

"Proceedings"

means any proceeding, suit or action arising out of or in connection with this agreement;

"Property" or "Properties" means freehold or leasehold property in any part of the world;

"Property Services"

means any property management services, property or planning consultancy services, property trading activities (including acquisitions and disposals from and on behalf of customers), and property development partnerships carried on by UU Property at any time;

"Purchase Price"

has the meaning it is given in Clause 3.1;

"Purchaser's Group"

means the Purchaser, its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings, any holding company of the Purchaser and all other subsidiaries of any such holding company from time to time;

"Purchaser's Solicitors"

means Olswang;

"Relevant Contracts"

means the (i) Subcontracting Agreement between Cap Gemini Ernst & Young UK plc and the Company, (ii) Agreement between DB UK Bank Limited and Vertex Mortgage Services

Limited, (iii) Agreement between Egg Banking plc and Marlborough Sterling Mortgage Services Limited (iv) Subcontracting Agreement between Inergi LP and Vertex Customer Management (Canada) Limited, and (v) Agreement between the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry and the Company, and a 'Relevant Contract' shall mean any one of them as the context requires;

- "Relevant IT Contract" means an agreement relating to Information Technology (including licences of software) to which either (a) any member of the Group is a party but which relate in whole or part, and need to be wholly or partially novated or assigned to, the Seller or any of its subsidiaries or subsidiary undertakings, or (b) to which the Seller or any of its subsidiaries or subsidiary undertakings is a party but which relate in whole or part, and need to be wholly or partly novated or assigned to, any member of the Group;
- "Retained Businesses" means FM Services and Property Services;
- "Retained Group" means the Seller and its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings from time to time (excluding the Company and the other members of the Group);
- "Seller's Solicitors" means Slaughter and May;
- "Service Document" means a claim form, application notice, order or judgment or other document relating to any Proceedings;
- "Shares" means the entire issued share capital of the Company being, at the date of this agreement, the Ordinary Shares and the A Shares;
- "Share Purchase Documents" means this agreement, the Disclosure Letter, the Tax Covenant and the Trade Mark Assignment;
- "Subsidiaries" means the subsidiaries of the Company referred to in Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries) with the exception of Aspect Online AG (section 39 of Schedule 5) if that company is transferred to an entity other than another subsidiary of the Company before Completion, basic information of which is set out in that Schedule and "Subsidiary" shall mean any one of them as the context may require;
- "Tax" has the meaning it is given in the Tax Covenant;

"Tax Authority"	has the meaning it is given in the Tax Covenant;
"Tax Covenant"	means the tax covenant in the agreed form referred to in Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) and set out in Schedule 8 (Tax Covenant) ;
"Tax Warranties"	means the warranties set out in paragraphs 24 to 33 of Schedule 2 (Warranties) ;
"Territory"	means each of the United Kingdom, the United States of America and Canada;
"Trade Mark Assignment"	means the assignment in the agreed form set out in Schedule 10 (Trade Mark Assignment) to be delivered at Completion in respect of such Trade Marks as are the subject of a registration or an application for registration, in accordance with clauses 1 and 9 of Schedule 1 (Completion Arrangements) ;
"Trade Marks"	means those trade marks related to the Group and described in Schedule 10 (Trade Mark Assignment) that are owned by the Seller at the date of this agreement and are registered or subject to applications for registration;
"Transitional Services"	means those services to be provided following Completion as described in Schedule 9 (Transitional Services) ;
"TUPE"	means the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2005;
"UK Employees"	means employees of any member of the Group who are situated in the United Kingdom;
"UK Listing Authority"	means the FSA acting in its capacity as the competent authority for the purposes of Part VI of FSMA, including where the context so permits, any committee, employee, officer or servant to whom any function of the UK Listing Authority may for the time being be delegated;
"UK Pension Schemes"	means the UUESPS, the UUPS, the GPP Arrangements and the Local Government Pension Schemes;
"UUESPS"	means the United Utilities Group of the Electricity Supply Pension Scheme constituted by trust deed and rules dated 20 January 1983 as subsequently amended;

"UUCS"	means United Utilities Contract Solutions Holdings Limited a company registered in England with registered number 02381766 and its subsidiaries, subsidiary undertakings and associates from time to time;
"UU Property"	means United Utilities Property Solutions Limited a company registered in England with number 02380021 and its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings from time to time;
"UUPS"	means the United Utilities Pension Scheme constituted by trust deed and rules dated 13 March 2005 as subsequently amended;
"Variation"	has the meaning given in the definition of "IT Variation Contract";
"VAT"	means value added tax as provided for in VATA 1994 and any other tax of a similar nature which is introduced in substitution for or in addition to such tax;
"VATA 1994"	means the Value Added Tax Act 1994;
"VAT Group"	means the group of companies of which the Seller is the representative member for VAT purposes;
"VDSL" or "Company"	means Vertex Data Science Limited, basic information concerning which is set out in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company);
"VFSH"	means Vertex Financial Services Holdings Limited, basic information concerning which is set out in Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries);
"VFSL"	means Vertex Financial Services Limited, basic information concerning which is set out in Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries);
"Vendor Due Diligence Report"	means the due diligence report into the affairs of the Purchaser prepared for the Seller by KPMG;
"Warranties"	means the warranties set out in Schedule 2 (Warranties) given by the Seller and "Warranty" shall be construed accordingly;
"Workers"	means workers or officers of the Company or of any member of the Group;
"Working Capital Loan"	means interest on £21,833,000 to accrue from 30 September

Interest 2006 until the principal amount is repaid at the Interest Rate;
and

"Working Hours" means 9.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. on a Business Day.

1.2 In this agreement, unless otherwise specified:

- (A) references to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs and Schedules are to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs of, and Schedules to, this agreement;
- (B) a reference to any statute or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the same as it may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, modified or re-enacted, except to the extent that any amendment or modification made after the date of this agreement would increase or alter the liability of the Seller under this agreement;
- (C) references to a "company" shall be construed so as to include any company, corporation or other body corporate, wherever and however incorporated or established;
- (D) references to a "person" shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, government, state or agency of a state or any joint venture, association or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);
- (E) references to a document being in "agreed form" means a document in a form agreed by the parties and either entered into on the date of this agreement by the relevant parties or initialled by the parties or on their behalf, in the latter case with such amendments as they may subsequently agree;
- (F) use of any genders includes the other genders;
- (G) the expressions "accounting reference date", "accounting reference period", "allotment", "body corporate", "current assets", "debentures", "holding company", "paid up", "profit and loss account", "subsidiary", "subsidiary undertaking" and "wholly-owned subsidiary" shall have the meaning given in the Companies Acts;
- (H) the expression "associate" means any company which is in relation to another company, its holding company or its subsidiary or a subsidiary of its holding company or its joint venture partner (whether alone or on a consortium basis) from time to time;
- (I) "including" means "including, without limitation";
- (J) a person shall be deemed to be connected with another if that person is connected with another within the meaning of section 839 ICTA 1988;

- (K) references to writing shall include any modes of reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form, excluding electronic mail;
- (L) references to times of the day are to London time;
- (M) headings to clauses and Schedules are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of this agreement;
- (N) the Schedules (but not the Tax Covenant) form part of this agreement and shall have the same force and effect as if expressly set out in the body of this agreement, and any reference to this agreement shall include the Schedules; and
- (O) references to the knowledge, belief or awareness of the Seller (or similar phrases) shall be limited to the actual knowledge of Tom Drury, Andy Hunt, Andrew Warren, John Gittins, Phil Holden, Sharon Willis, Mike Porter and Tom O'Brien.

2. Sale and purchase

- 2.1 The Seller shall sell with full title guarantee and the Purchaser shall purchase the Shares free from all mortgages, pledges, claims, charges, liens, encumbrances, equities, rights of pre-emption or other third party rights or claims of any nature in respect of the Shares, together with all rights attached or accruing to them at Completion.
- 2.2 The Purchaser shall be entitled to exercise all rights attached or accruing to the Shares including the right to receive all dividends, distributions or any return of capital declared, paid or made by the Company on or after Completion.
- 2.3 The Seller waives all rights of pre-emption over any of the Shares conferred upon it by the articles of association of the Company or in any other way and undertakes to ensure that any rights of pre-emption over any of the Shares are waived at the cost and expense of the Seller.

3. Consideration

- 3.1 The total consideration for the sale of the Shares shall be the payment by the Purchaser to the Seller of the sum of £98,800,000 (the "Purchase Price").
- 3.2 In addition to the Purchase Price, if the Completion Date is more than 60 Business Days after the date of this agreement, the Purchaser shall pay to the Seller an amount equivalent to interest on the Purchase Price to accrue at the Interest Rate each calendar day from and excluding the date 60 Business Days after the date of this agreement to and excluding the Completion Date (the "Additional Consideration").
- 3.3 The Consideration shall be payable in cash in accordance with terms of clause 5 (Completion).

4. Condition

- 4.1 The sale and purchase of the Shares pursuant to this agreement is in all respects conditional upon the FSA (i) giving written notice under Section 184(1) of FSMA of its approval of the Purchaser and any other person who it treats for the purposes of Section 179 of FSMA as acquiring control over the Company, Vertex Administration Limited, Vertex Mortgage Services Limited and Exchange FS Limited pursuant to this agreement or (ii) being treated as having given its approval of the foregoing by virtue of Section 184(2) of FSMA (the "Condition").
- 4.2 The Purchaser shall use all reasonable endeavours to fulfil or procure the fulfilment of the Condition as soon as possible and in any event before the Long Stop Date.
- 4.3 The Seller shall use all reasonable endeavours to assist the Purchaser in fulfilling or procuring the fulfilment of the Condition in response to reasonable requests from the Purchaser.
- 4.4 The Purchaser undertakes to keep the Seller informed as to progress towards fulfilment of the Condition and, in particular, to:
- (A) notify the Seller of any material communications from or to, or any material developments in respect of, the FSA or other person in relation to the Condition where such communications have not been independently or simultaneously supplied to the Seller; and
 - (B) where time and circumstance permits, consult with the Seller regarding submissions and communications to the regulatory bodies or other persons in relation to fulfilling the Condition.
- 4.5 The Purchaser undertakes to disclose in writing to the Seller anything which will or which it believes may prevent the Condition from being fulfilled on or prior to the Long Stop Date as soon as practicable after it coming to its notice.
- 4.6 If the Condition is not fulfilled on or before 5.30 p.m. on the Long Stop Date then, subject to clause 4.7, this agreement shall automatically terminate.
- 4.7 If the FSA require the Purchaser to resubmit the application for a change of controller it makes pursuant to clause 4.3, the Purchaser shall be obliged to resubmit such application as soon as practicable thereafter.
- 4.8 If this agreement terminates in accordance with clause 4.6 then, without limiting either party's right to claim damages or any other appropriate remedy, all obligations of the parties under this agreement shall automatically end except for the provisions of clause 22 (Announcements), clause 22 (Confidentiality), clause 28 (Choice of governing law) and clause 29 (Jurisdiction) but, for the avoidance of doubt, all rights and liabilities of the parties which have accrued before termination or thereafter in relation to the provisions of clause 22 (Announcements), clause 22 (Confidentiality), clause 28 (Choice of governing law) and clause 29 (Jurisdiction) shall continue to exist.

5. Completion

5.1 Completion shall take place on the 15th March, 2007 or such earlier date as the parties may agree, provided that, if the Condition is not fulfilled before the 1st March, 2007 Completion shall take place 10 Business Days after the Condition is fulfilled but no later than the Long Stop Date (the "Completion Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, at the request of the Purchaser the Completion Date may be postponed by up to 16 days (but not beyond 30th March 2007) if the Purchaser certifies in writing to the Seller that the additional time is necessary to allow one of its investors to call additional capital in order to cover any shortfall caused by the failure of any other investor or lender to provide funds necessary to facilitate Completion.

5.2 At Completion, the Seller shall do those things listed in Part A (Seller's obligations) of Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements), the Purchaser shall do those things listed in Part B (Purchaser's obligations) of Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements). Completion of the transfer of the Shares shall be deemed to take place simultaneously with all the Consideration and Company Payables being received in the Bank Account.

5.3 If the respective obligations of the Seller and/or the Purchaser under clause 5.2 and Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) are not complied with on the Completion Date, the Purchaser and/or the Seller, as the case may be, may:

- (A) defer Completion so that the provisions of this clause 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis to Completion as so deferred, provided that such deferral does not extend beyond the Long Stop Date (or such other date as may be agreed in writing between the parties); or
- (B) proceed to Completion on that date, to the extent that each party is ready, willing and able to do so (without limiting its rights under this agreement) and specify a later date on which each party shall be obliged to complete its outstanding obligations.

Where Completion is deferred in accordance with clause 5.3(A) and the respective obligations of the Seller and/or the Purchaser under clause 5.2 and Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) are not complied with on the Completion Date as so deferred, the Purchaser (in the case of non-compliance by the Seller) or the Seller (in the case of non-compliance by the Purchaser) may then terminate this agreement by notice in writing to the other party.

5.4 If the agreement is terminated in accordance with sub-clause 5.3 then, without limiting either party's right to claim damages or any other appropriate remedy, all obligations of the parties under this agreement shall automatically terminate except for the provisions of clause 21 (Announcements), clause 22 (Confidentiality), clause 28 (Choice of governing law) and clause 29 (Jurisdiction) but, for the avoidance of doubt, all rights and liabilities of the parties which have accrued before termination or thereafter in relation to the provisions of clause 21 (Announcements), clause 22 (Confidentiality), clause 28 (Choice of governing law) and clause 29 (Jurisdiction) shall continue to exist.

- 5.5. Without limiting clause 15 (Remedies and waivers), any party's right to terminate this agreement in accordance with sub-clause 5.3 is not exclusive of any right, powers and remedies provided by law.
- 5.6. The parties agree that any insurance policies operated by any member of the Retained Group for the benefit of any member of the Group shall terminate insofar as they relate to the Group with effect from Completion.
- 5.7. Following the satisfaction of the parties' obligations in clause 5.2 and 5.9, no further amount shall be due, owing or payable or considered as due, owing or payable between any member of the Retained Group and any member of the Group (or vice versa) in respect of arrangements between them as at the Completion Date, aside from the Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items, liabilities accrued which are Permitted Leakage or otherwise as permitted by or contemplated by this agreement and the Tax Covenant, including pursuant to Schedule 6 (Business Properties) and Schedule 9 (Transitional Services), and the Seller (for itself and for and on behalf of each member of the Retained Group) and the Purchaser (for itself and for and on behalf of each member of the Group) hereby waives any amount that would, but for this waiver, be due, owing or payable.
- 5.8. The Seller and the Purchaser agree to procure that the Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items will be settled when they fall due in accordance with the normal practice between the companies concerned.
- 5.9. To the extent not invoiced and paid prior to Completion, the Purchaser agrees to procure that on Completion the Company shall pay any unpaid Group Recharges which have accrued from the first day of the month in which Completion falls to and including the Completion Date on a pro rata basis.

6. No Leakage Undertakings

- 6.1 The Seller undertakes to the Purchaser that in the period from and including the Management Accounts Date to and including the Completion Date:
- (A) (i) the Retained Group has not received and will not receive any dividend or distribution or other return of capital (whether by reduction of capital or redemption or purchase of shares or other securities) declared, paid or made by any member of the Group;
- (ii) no other business or assets have been, or will be, acquired or disposed of, and no liabilities have been, or will be, assumed, indemnified or incurred for the benefit of any member of the Retained Group by any member of the Group;
- (iii) no payments (including management charges or compensation payments) have been made or agreed to be made or will be made or agreed to be made by any member of the Group to or on behalf of the Retained Group;

- (iv) neither the Company nor any member of the Group has incurred or paid, or will incur or pay any amount to any person as fees or bonus in connection with the sale and purchase of the Shares contemplated by this agreement;
- (v) no member of the Group has amended or will amend a contract or arrangement with any member of the Retained Group which constitutes an Intra-Group Ordinary Course Item in such a way as to increase the cost to the Group other than on an arm's length basis; and
- (vi) no agreement to do any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) has been, or will be, entered into;

- (B) neither the Company nor any member of the Group has granted, or will grant, a waiver in favour of any member of the Retained Group in respect of any sums due by that member of the Retained Group to that member of the Group;

(together, the "No Leakage Undertakings"); and

- (C) if there is a breach of any of the No Leakage Undertakings, the Seller will pay (on any after-tax basis) to the Purchaser (or, if so directed by the Purchaser, to a member of the Group) promptly on demand, by way of an adjustment to the Consideration, in immediately available funds a sum equal to the amount which, if received by a member of the Group, would be necessary to put it into the financial position which would have existed had there been no breach of the No Leakage Undertakings.

6.2 The No Leakage Undertakings do not apply to any Permitted Leakage and the obligations of the Seller under clause 6.1(C), shall not apply to any such Permitted Leakage.

6.3 If any breach of the No Leakage Undertakings arises by reason of some liability of a member of the Group which is contingent only or constitutes a deferred payment obligation or is otherwise not capable of being quantified, then the Seller shall not be under any obligation to make any payment in respect of such breach by virtue of clause 6.1(C) unless and until such liability ceases to be contingent or the payment obligation has fallen due or becomes capable of being quantified, provided that if the Seller has been notified of the potential claim for breach of the No Leakage Undertakings pursuant to paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 the time period (specified in that paragraph) in which a claim must be brought is extended until such time as the liability ceases to be contingent or the payment obligation falls due or becomes capable of being quantified.

6.4 If the Purchaser cannot identify in the books and records of the Group a transaction or payment between the Group and the Seller's Group which the Purchaser reasonably believes requires to be taken into account in the above No Leakage Undertakings, the Seller will provide upon the written request of the Purchaser such information in relation to the transaction or payment as is required to establish the existence and terms of such transaction or payment.

the agreed form in respect of any share certificates required to be delivered by this paragraph 1(H) that cannot be found).

2. retain at the offices of the relevant member of the Group for the Purchaser:
 - (A) the Books and Records of the Group;
 - (B) the statutory books of each member of the Group that is not registered in England and Wales (which shall be written up to but not including the date on which Completion takes place), the certificate of incorporation (and any certificate of incorporation on change of name) and common seal (if any) of each member of the Group that is not registered in England and Wales and share certificates in respect of all the issued share capital of each Subsidiary which is owned directly or indirectly by the Company and not registered in England and Wales;
 - (C) the title deeds currently in the Company's possession relating to each Business Property;
3. procure the present directors and secretary of each member of the Group (other than any director or secretary whom the Purchaser may wish to continue in office) to resign their offices and each of the persons tendering their resignations shall deliver to the relevant member of the Group an acknowledgement executed as a deed that he has no claim against any member of the Group for breach of contract, compensation for loss of office, redundancy or unfair dismissal or on any other account whatsoever and that no agreement or arrangement is outstanding under which any member of the Group has or could have any obligation to him;
4. if required by the Purchaser, procure the present auditors of each member of the Group to resign their office as such, and to deposit at the registered office of the Company a letter notifying their resignation and containing a statement pursuant to section 394(1) Companies Act 1985 that there are no circumstances connected with their ceasing to hold office which they consider should be brought to the attention of any members or creditors;
5. procure a board meeting of the Company and each subsidiary registered in England and Wales to be held at which:
 - (A) in the case of the Company, it shall be resolved that, conditional upon Completion taking place, the transfer forms relating to the transfer of the Shares pursuant to this agreement shall be approved for registration and (subject only to the transfers being duly stamped) the Purchaser registered as the holder of the Shares in the register of members;
 - (B) each of the persons nominated by the Purchaser shall be appointed directors and/or secretary, as the Purchaser shall direct such appointments to take effect immediately after Completion; and
 - (C) if and to the extent the Purchaser gives notice of relevant changes at least two business days prior to Completion, existing instructions to banks shall be revoked and new instructions to such banks (to be provided by the Purchaser) shall be approved in accordance with the aforementioned notice.

- (D) the resignations of the auditors referred to in paragraph 4 of this Schedule and the resignations of directors and secretaries referred to in paragraph 3 of this Schedule shall be tendered and accepted so as to take effect at the close of the meeting;

In respect of board meetings of subsidiaries of the Company not registered in England and Wales, the Seller will so far as it is able assist the Purchaser in holding board meetings to cover the above matters as soon as practicable after Completion.

6. procure that minutes of each such duly held board meeting, certified as correct by the secretary of the relevant company, and the resignations and acknowledgements referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 are delivered to the Purchaser's Solicitors; and
7. deliver to the Purchaser executed assignments of all rights if or any other member of the Retained Group may have pursuant to any confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement entered into with any person in relation to the prospective purchase of the Company.

Part B (Purchaser's obligations)

At Completion the Purchaser shall:

7. pay to the Bank Account by way of telegraphic transfer (using the CHAPS system) the total Consideration;
8. procure that the Company pays to the Bank Account by way of telegraphic transfer (using the CHAPS system) the total Company Payables and any unpaid Group Recharges which have accrued and are unpaid including those accrued from the first day of the month in which Completion falls to and including the Completion Date;
9. deliver to the Seller's Solicitors, duly executed by the Purchaser, a counterpart original of:
 - (A) the Trade Mark Assignment; and
 - (B) the Tax Covenant;
10. deliver to the Seller a copy (certified by the secretary of the Purchaser to be a true copy of a resolution in force at Completion) of the resolution of the directors of the Purchaser which authorised the purchase of the Shares for the Consideration and procurement of the payment of the Company Payables and any Group Recharges upon the terms set out in this agreement and the execution by the Purchaser of the Share Purchase Documents.
12. As from Completion, the Company shall owe the amount of the Company Payables to the Purchaser.

Schedule 2
(Warranties)

1. Ownership of the Shares:

- 1.1 The Seller is the sole legal and beneficial owner of the Shares.
- 1.2 The shareholders of each member of the Group listed in Schedule 4 are the legal and beneficial owners of the Shares set out against their names.
- 1.3 There is no option, right to acquire, mortgage, charge, pledge, lien or other form of security or encumbrance or equity on, over or affecting the Shares or the shares or other securities of any member of the Group and there is no agreement or commitment to give or create any and no written claim has been received from any person to be entitled to any.

2. Capacity of the Seller

- 2.1 The Seller has the requisite power and authority to enter into and perform this agreement and the other Share Purchase Documents to which it is a party.
- 2.2 This agreement constitutes and the other Share Purchase Documents will when executed, constitute binding and enforceable obligations of the Seller in accordance with their respective terms.
- 2.3 The execution and delivery of, and the performance by the Seller of its obligations under, this agreement and the other Share Purchase Documents will not
- (A) result in a breach of any provision of the memorandum or articles of association of the Seller;
 - (B) result in a breach of, or constitute a default under, any instrument to which the Seller is a party or by which the Seller is bound;
 - (C) result in a breach of any order, judgment or decree of any court or governmental agency to which the Seller is a party or by which the Seller is bound; or
 - (D) require the consent of its shareholders; or
 - (E) require the consent of any third party.

3. Group structure and corporate matters.

- 3.1 Each member of the Group is an entity duly incorporated or organised and validly subsisting under the laws of its country of incorporation and has the requisite corporate or similar power and authority to own, lease and operate its assets and to carry on its business as now conducted.

- 3.2 The Shares have been validly issued and allotted and are fully paid up, and constitute the entire issued share capital of the Company.
- 3.3 There is no agreement or commitment outstanding which calls for the allotment or issue of, or accords to any person the right to call for the allotment or issue of, any shares (including the Shares) or any debentures in or securities of any member of the Group nor is there any agreement or commitment (other than as contained in the Share Purchase Documents) relating to the sale or transfer of the Shares or any shares in any member of the Group.
- 3.4 Schedule 5 (Basic Information about the Subsidiaries) lists all the Subsidiaries of the Company and no member of the Group has any interest in any other body corporate or undertaking which is not a member of the Group and so listed.
- 3.5 The information given in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company) and Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries) is true and accurate in all material respects.
- 3.6 The Data Room contains complete copies of the memorandum and articles of association of each member of the Group which have attached to them copies of all resolutions and other documents required by law to be so attached. There are no rights and restrictions attaching to each class of share capital of the members of the Group other than set out in these memorandum and articles of association and their respective attachments.
- 3.7 The statutory books and registers and all other records required to be kept by each member of the Group under the Companies Act 1985 or other applicable legislation, have been properly kept and contain a record which is accurate and complete in all material respects and no notice or allegation that any of them is incorrect or should be rectified has been received.
- 3.8 All of the statutory books and registers and all other records required to be kept by each member of the Group under the Companies Act 1985 or other applicable legislation are in the possession or under the control of a member of the Group.
- 3.9 All returns, particulars, resolutions and other documents required by law to be delivered to the Registrar of Companies by each member of the Group have been properly prepared and delivered.

4. Accounts

4.1 The Accounts:

- (A) were prepared in accordance with accounting practices generally accepted in the United Kingdom at the time they were audited and the Companies Act 1985; and
- (B) show a true and fair view of the assets and liabilities of the Company and of the Group as a whole, at the Accounts Date and of the profits or losses of the Company for the accounting period ended on that date.

- 4.2 So far as the Seller is aware, at the Accounts Date no member of the Group had any material liability (whether actual, contingent, unqualified or disputed) or material outstanding capital commitment which was not disclosed, provided for or noted in the Accounts, in each case to the extent required to comply with the relevant accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom at the time the Accounts were audited.
- 4.3 The Management Accounts have been prepared in accordance with IFRS and the Accounts have been prepared under UK GAAP. Save for differences of accounting policy between IFRS and UK GAAP, for which the Company's management accounts are adjusted to prepare statutory accounts, the Management Accounts apply in all material respects the same accounting policies and practices as were applied in preparation of the Accounts.
- 4.4 The Management Accounts have been prepared in good faith and with due care and fairly represent the state of affairs of the Group as a whole as at the end of the period to which they relate and are not misleading in any material respect.

5. Debt

- 5.1 As at the date of this agreement the Group does not have any liabilities in respect of loan capital, bank borrowings, debenture or financial facilities other than in respect of the purchase of assets or services on credit in the normal course of business and other than the Company Payables.
- 5.2 No member of the Group has factored or discounted any debts owing to it, or has agreed to do so, or has engaged in any financing which is not disclosed in the Accounts or the Management Accounts.

6. Bank Accounts

The Data Room contains the account details of all current, deposit and foreign currency accounts of each member of the Group.

7. Events since the Management Accounts Date

Since the Management Accounts Date:

- (A) the business of the Group as a whole has been carried on in the ordinary and usual course;
- (B) no increase or reduction has been made to the authorised, allotted or issued share or loan capital of the members of the Group nor any reduction made to the share premium account, capital redemption reserve or any uncalled liability in respect of partly paid shares of any member of the Group;
- (C) no member of the Group has created, issued or allotted any securities of whatsoever nature that are convertible into shares (except to another member of the Group or which are otherwise to be sold under this agreement) or agreed so to do;

- (D) no member of the Group has acquired or disposed of, or agreed to acquire or dispose of, any one or more assets in a single transaction or series of connection transactions, where the value of such assets exceeds £1 million;
- (E) no member of the Group has sold, purchased, redeemed or repurchased any of its own share or loan capital or other issued securities or agreed so to do;
- (F) no option has been offered or granted by any member of the Group over the whole or any part of its share or loan capital or other securities, whether issued or unissued;
- (G) no third party right has been created (and no agreement has been entered into to create a third party right) over the shares of any member of the Group or assets of any member of the Group;
- (H) any instalment premium payments due in respect of any of the Group's in force insurance policies have been paid when due;
- (I) no member of the Group has instituted or settled any litigation or insurance claim where that action or insurance claim is likely to result in a payment to or by a member of the Group of £300,000 or more (other than for debt collection in the ordinary course of trading);
- (J) all material marketing, advertising and promotion has been carried out by the Group in the ordinary and usual course;
- (K) otherwise than as disclosed in the Data Room, no resolution in general meeting or written resolution of the shareholders of any member of the Group has been passed, other than resolutions relating to the routine business of annual general meetings; and
- (L) no change in the accounting reference period of the any member of the Group has been made.

8. Compliance with applicable laws

So far as the Seller is aware, each member of the Group has carried out its business and all transactions in accordance with all material applicable laws and regulations and no such transactions have constituted a transfer at an undervalue or an unlawful distribution or unlawful financial assistance by or to any member of the Group.

9. Contracts and commitments

9.1 No member of the Group is a party to:

- (A) any agency, distributorship, joint venture or management agreement, other than in the ordinary course of business;

- (B) any contract or arrangement which materially restricts its freedom to carry on its business in any part of the world in such manner as it may think fit, or
- (C) so far as the Seller are aware, any contract which cannot readily be fulfilled or performed by a member of the Group on time, other than those on an arms length basis.

9.2 The Seller has not received written notice threatening termination of any contract to which any member of the Group is a party which if so terminated would have a material adverse effect on the business of the Group as a whole.

9.3 No member of the Group is in default or breach in any material respect under any agreement or arrangement to which it is a party which is material to the Group taken as a whole and, so far as the Seller is aware, there are no circumstances (excluding circumstances arising out of the change of control of any member of the Group) likely to give rise to such default or breach. So far as the Seller is aware, no party with whom any member of the Group has entered into any material agreement or arrangement is in default or breach in any material respect under it and there are no circumstances likely to give rise to such a default or breach.

9.4 The ten most valuable contracts entered into by members of the Group in terms of the Company's estimate of revenue for financial year 2007 are included in the Data Room and all material terms (including as affected by changes subsequent to the date of the contract) of each of them are fairly disclosed in the Data Room. Except as referred to in the Data Room there is no subsisting material dispute between any member of the Group and a customer relating to any of these contracts and no member of the Group has received notice terminating any of these contracts. All material terms (including as affected by changes subsequent to date of the contract) of all other contracts with customers included in the Data Room are fairly disclosed.

10. Powers of attorney

No member of the Group has given any power of attorney or other written authority relating to the business of the Group which is still outstanding or effective to any person to enter into any contract or commitment on its behalf (other than to its directors, officers and employees to enter into routine trading contracts in the normal course of their duties).

11. Insolvency

11.1 No order has been made and, so far as the Seller is aware, no petition for such order has been presented nor meeting convened nor resolution passed nor step, legal proceeding or other proceeding taken by any person for the winding up of the Seller or any member of the Group, or for the appointment of any provisional liquidator, administrator or receiver (including administrative receivers) or in relation to any other process whereby the business is terminated and the assets of the Group company concerned are distributed amongst the creditors and/or shareholders or other contributors.

- 11.2 Neither the Seller nor, as far as the Seller is aware, any members of the Group have taken any step with a view to a suspension of payments or a moratorium of any indebtedness or made or proposed any voluntary arrangement with any of their creditors.
- 11.3 Neither the Seller nor any member of the Group is insolvent, or unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986, or has stopped paying its debts as they fall due.
- 11.4 So far as the Seller is aware, no distress, distraint, charging order, garnishee order, execution or other process has been levied or applied for in respect of any of the assets owned by the Group.
- 11.5 So far as the Seller is aware, all material charges in favour of each member of the Group required to be registered have been so registered to comply with all necessary formalities as to registration or otherwise in any applicable jurisdiction.

12. Licences

So far as the Seller is aware:

- (A) all licences, consents and other permissions and approvals (the absence of which would have a material adverse effect on the business of the Group taken as a whole and ignoring any change of control arising from this agreement) required for or in connection with the carrying on of the business now being carried on by each member of the Group are in full force and effect;
- (B) the Group has carried out its business in accordance with the terms of the licences, consents and other permissions and approvals described in paragraph (A) above; and
- (C) no written notice has been received by any member of the Group that any such licence, consent, permission or approval is likely to be revoked.

13. Litigation

- 13.1 No member of the Group is engaged in any material litigation, arbitration or other dispute resolution process, or administrative or criminal proceedings, whether as claimant, defendant or otherwise, likely to result in a payment by or to that member of the Group of £300,000 or more (other than debt recovery proceedings in the ordinary course of business).
- 13.2 So far as the Seller is aware, no litigation, arbitration or other dispute resolution process, or administrative or criminal proceedings by or against any member of the Group likely to result in a payment by or to that member of the Group of £300,000 or more is pending, threatened or expected.

14. Data protection

14.1 Complete and up-to-date copies of the screen prints from the FSA website identifying the registrations of each member of the Group under the Data Protection Act 1998 are included in the Data Room and these are valid and subsisting entries on the register maintained by the Information Commissioner. So far as the Seller is aware, each member of the Group has complied with its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 in all material respects.

14.2 So far as the Seller is aware:

- (A) no member of the Group has received a notice (including, without limitation, any enforcement notice), letter or complaint from the Information Commissioner alleging breach by it of the Data Protection Act 1984 or the Data Protection Act 1998;
- (B) no individual has been awarded compensation from any member of the Group under the Data Protection Act 1984 or the Data Protection Act 1998;
- (C) no order has been made against any member of the Group for the rectification, blocking, erasure or destruction of any data under the Data Protection Act 1984 or the Data Protection Act 1998; and
- (D) no warrant has been issued under Schedule 4 of the Data Protection Act 1984 or Schedule 9 of the Data Protection Act 1998 authorising the Information Commissioner (or any of his or her officers or servants) to enter any of the premises of any member of the Group.

15. Competition

15.1 So far as the Seller is aware, no member of the Group is a party to any agreement which:

- (A) infringes Article 81 or 82 of the EC Treaty; or
- (B) infringes section 2 or section 18 of the Competition Act 1998; or
- (C) otherwise infringes the competition or anti-trust law of any country in the Territory.

15.2 No member of the Group has given an undertaking to, or is subject to any order of or, so far as the Seller is aware, investigation by, or has received any request for information from the Office of Fair Trading, the Competition Commission or the Commission of the European Community under English or EC competition legislation where such undertaking, order, investigation or request for information is likely to cause a material loss or liability to the Company.

16. Ownership and condition of assets

16.1 Each of the material assets included in the Management Accounts or acquired by any member of the Group since the Management Accounts Date (other than current assets sold, realised or applied in the normal course of trading) is owned both legally and beneficially by a member of the Group and each of those assets capable of possession is in the possession of a member of the Group (save where in the possession of a third party in the normal course of business).

- 16.2 No option, right to acquire, mortgage, charge, pledge, lien (other than a lien arising by operation of law or in the ordinary course of trading) or other form of security or encumbrance or equity on, over or affecting the whole or any part of the undertaking or assets of any member of the Group (including any investment in any other member of the Group) (each a "Security Interest") has been granted and is outstanding and there is no agreement or commitment to give or create any Security Interest and no claim has been made by any person to be entitled to any Security Interest.
- 16.3 All material plant and machinery (including fixed plant and machinery), vehicles and significant office equipment used by any member of the Group in connection with its business are capable of being efficiently and properly used in connection with the business of the relevant member of the Group.

17. Insurance

- 17.1 Each member of the Group maintains, and has at all material times maintained what has been in the Seller's reasonable opinion adequate insurance in respect of assets of an insurable nature against fire, accident, theft and damages, third party loss (including by way of employers liability and public liability insurance), business interruption and all other risks required by applicable law or regulation to be covered by insurance or normally insured against by companies carrying on the same business.
- 17.2 All premiums due on the subsisting insurance policies of each member of the Group have been duly paid and, so far as the Seller is aware, all other conditions of those policies have been performed and observed.
- 17.3 The Data Room contains complete and up-to-date copies of all insurance policies in effect for the period expiring 31 March 2007 of each member of the Group registered in England and Wales and, other than claims predating the Seller's acquisition of Marlborough Stirling plc in respect of companies owned by Marlborough Stirling plc at the date of its acquisition by the Seller, details of all insurance claims made by (i.e. the "loss runs" of) each member of the Group in the three years to the date of this Agreement.

18 Intellectual Property

- 18.1 Up-to-date details of all registered Intellectual Property owned by any member of the Group are included in the Data Room and all renewal fees due as at the date of this agreement in respect of the maintenance of those rights have been paid.
- 18.2 Members of the Group own free from encumbrances other than licences or are licensed to use the Intellectual Property and confidential information which is currently used by the Group in connection with the Business (the "Business Intellectual Property"). This warranty shall not be construed as giving any representation or warranty that the operations of any member of the Group do not infringe any Intellectual Property owned by, or make unauthorised use of any information confidential to, any third party.

- 18.3 The Seller is the sole proprietor of the Trade Marks.
- 18.4 So far as the Seller is aware, none of (i) the registered intellectual Property owned by any member of the Group or (ii) the Trade Marks are likely to be revoked or invalidated during the period of 12 months starting on the date of this Agreement.
- 18.5 An up-to-date list of all material licences of Intellectual Property and/or confidential information (including without limitation any material licences or grant of rights over Business Intellectual Property) granted to or by any member of the Group is included in the Data Room and, so far as the Seller is aware, no member of the Group nor any other party is in material breach of any of those licences.
- 18.6 An up-to-date list of all material licences granted by the Seller in relation to the Trade Marks is included in the Data Room and, so far as the Seller is aware, neither the Seller nor any other party is in material breach of any of those licences.
- 18.7 So far as the Seller is aware, no third party has in the 24 months preceding the date of this agreement infringed any of the Trade Marks or Intellectual Property owned by, or made unauthorised use of information confidential to, any member of the Group nor, so far as the Seller is aware, is there any current or threatened infringement by a third party of any of the Trade Marks or Intellectual Property owned by or threatened unauthorised use of any information confidential to any member of the Group.
- 18.8 So far as the Seller is aware, the activities of the Group have not in the 24 months preceding the date of this agreement infringed any Intellectual Property owned by any third party nor, so far as the Seller is aware, is there any current or threatened infringement of the Intellectual Property or threatened unauthorised use of any information confidential to any third party.
- 19. Information Technology
- 19.1 Up-to-date details of all material Information Technology used or owned by any member of the Group are included in the Data Room.
- 19.2 So far as the Seller is aware, each member of the Group owns or is permitted to use the computer software and communications hardware and systems forming a part of the Information Technology used or owned by any member of the Group.
- 19.3 All Information Technology used or owned by any member of the Group is (taking into account its age and value in the books of the relevant member of the Group) capable of performing and does substantially perform the functions which it is intended to perform and has been maintained in accordance with industry practice in the United Kingdom.
- 19.4 Except as provided in the Data Room, no member of the Group uses any Information Technology material to the Business. Except (i) as provided for in the Data Room and (ii) in relation to Information Technology used in connection with the Transitional Services no member of the Group uses material Information Technology owned by the Seller or any member of the Seller's Group.

- 19.5 Details of all agreements and arrangements relating to Information Technology, which is material to the Group taken as a whole, entered into by a member of the Group are included in the Data Room.
- 19.6 So far as the Seller is aware, no member of the Group and no other party is in material breach of any agreement or arrangement disclosed under paragraph 19.4.
- 19.7 Reasonable steps have been taken by the Group in accordance with good industry practice to put into place measures to protect its Information Technology against viruses or bugs or similar destructive code.
- 19.8 Reasonable steps have been taken by the Group in accordance with good industry practice to put into place measures to protect its Information Technology (and any information held on it) from unauthorised third party access.
- 19.9 There has been no material disruption to the commercial activities of the Group (taken as a whole) in the 18 months prior to the date of this Agreement which has been caused by any failure or breakdown of any material Information Technology used by the Group.
- 19.10 So far as the Seller is aware, none of the Information Technology or domain names used in the business of the Group are the subject of any litigation or other dispute or claim and so far as the Seller is aware no litigation, dispute or claim is expected or likely in relation to any domain name used in the Business.
- 19.11 Details of all domain names used in the business of the Group are included in the Data Room.

20. Business Properties

- 20.1 The Business Properties are the only Properties owned, used or occupied by any member of the Group for the purposes of its business.
- 20.2 Each member of the Group is the legal and beneficial owner of the Business Property against which its name appears in Schedule 6 (Business Properties).
- 20.3 The interests held by members of the Group in the Business Properties are free from any mortgages or charges (whether fixed or floating) securing the payment of money and no person has or claims a lien over such interests.
- 20.4 There are no outstanding options or rights of pre-emption or similar rights in favour of third parties in, over or affecting the interest held by any member of the Group in the Business Properties and there are no agreements to give or create any of the foregoing.
- 20.5 No Business Property is subject to any agreement for sale or disposal.

- 20.6 Rents and other sums due and payable under the lease of each Business Property have been paid to the last rent day prior to the date of this agreement and no member of the Group has received written notice alleging non-compliance on the part of the tenant with the terms of any such lease which remains outstanding at the date of this agreement.
- 20.7 No member of the Group has received any written notice alleging non-compliance with any legal requirement relating to the Business Properties which remains outstanding.
- 20.8 The information set out in Part I of Schedule 6 (Business Properties) is accurate in all material respects.
- 20.9 So far as the Seller is aware having made reasonable enquiries, but without having made any searches or enquiries of any local or other competent authority or statutory undertakers, no member of the Group has received written notification that any of the Business Properties is subject to an order, resolution or proposal for compulsory acquisition.
- 20.10 So far as the Seller is aware having made reasonable enquiries, but without having made any searches or enquiries of any local or other competent authority or statutory undertakers, no member of the Group has received written notification that any Business Property does not comply with Planning Legislation.
- 20.11 The Business Properties are not subject to outgoings other than business and water rates and, in the case of leasehold properties, rent, insurance premiums and service charges.
- 20.12 So far as the Seller is aware having made reasonable enquiries, but without having made any searches or enquiries of any local or other competent authority or statutory undertakers, no member of the Group has received any written notices or complaints have been issued or made by any competent authority or undertaking in relation to the Business Properties or their use.

21. Environmental matters

21.1 In this paragraph 21:

"Environment" means all or any part of the air (including, without limitation, the air within buildings and the air within other natural or man-made structures above or below ground), water and land; and

"Environmental Laws" means all applicable statutes and other laws, insofar as they relate to the protection, prevention of pollution, or remediation, of the Environment (but excluding any of the foregoing insofar as they relate to town and country planning) and are in force and binding on the relevant member of the Group at or before the date of this agreement.

21.2 No member of the Group has received any written notice from any relevant authority or third party under Environmental Laws that such member of the Group is in breach of Environmental Laws, nor is any member of the Group currently involved in any formal claim under Environmental Laws.

22. Employment

22.1 The Data Room contains:

- (A) accurate details of the names, dates of commencement of employment, engagement or appointment to office, notice periods and basic annual salaries or fees of all Key Employees;
- (B) details of all contracts for Key Employees;
- (C) the current standard terms and conditions of employment for each grade of Employee;
- (D) a summary of the benefits which are payable/provided as of right to UK Employees, including any payable/provided on redundancy or involuntary severance (other than those payable under relevant statute) and any established practices applicable to UK Employees in respect of such benefits;
- (E) the terms of all share incentive schemes and share option schemes (including details of any awards outstanding granted to Employees under such schemes), and material profit sharing, bonus or other incentive schemes applicable to any of the Employees; and
- (F) complete and accurate details of any outstanding offer of employment or engagement with annual remuneration in excess of £100,000 made to any individual by any member of the Group, and details of any individual who has accepted an offer of employment or engagement by any member of the Group with annual remuneration in excess of £100,000 who has not yet started their employment or engagement.

22.2 So far as the Seller is aware, each member of the Group has, in relation to each of the Employees employed by it, complied in all material respects with all material obligations owed in respect of such Employees under legislation, regulations, collective agreements and terms and conditions of employment and has complied in all material respects with all its obligations concerning the health and safety at work of each of such Employees.

22.3 No Key Employee has given notice of termination of his contract of employment or is under notice of dismissal.

22.4 Other than season ticket loans, the Company has not made any loan or advance to any Key Employee or former Key Employee that is still outstanding.

22.5 There are no current or proposed collective bargaining agreements or union recognition agreements to which any member of the Group is a party nor have any written requests for recognition, or arrangements for collective information and consultation been received by any member of the Group, nor are there any works councils, staff associations and/or negotiated agreements with employee representatives in place.

- 22.6 There are no material outstanding or so far as the Seller is aware threatened court or employment tribunal claims brought by or on behalf of any Employee, former Employee, Worker or former Worker (or any trade union, appropriate representative or other body representing any Employee, former Employee, Worker or former Worker against any member of the Group arising from or in connection with their employment.
- 22.7 No proposal, assurance or commitment has been communicated to any Employee of any member of the Group regarding any change to their terms of employment which has not been implemented.
- 22.8 During the year ending on the date of this agreement, no member of the Group has:
- (A) given or been required to give notice of any redundancies to the relevant Secretary of State; or
 - (B) undertaken consultation with any trade union or employee representatives nor failed to comply with any obligation under Chapter II, Part IV of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

23. Pensions

- 23.1 The Data Room contains true and complete copies of the following:
- (A) copies of the latest (plus subsequent amending documents) trust deed and rules (or other governing documents) in respect of the UK Pension Schemes and latest members' explanatory booklet for each scheme;
 - (B) details of the current rates of, and basis for, employer contributions to the UK Pension Schemes;
 - (C) a list of Employees who are, or are eligible to become, or are in a waiting period to become members of the UUESPS and UUPS as at the date of this Agreement;
 - (D) a schedule of contributions or payment schedule (within the meaning of the Pensions Act 1995) for the UK Pension Schemes;
 - (E) details of all amendments (if any) to the UK Pension Schemes which have been announced but which have not yet formally been made;
 - (F) details of all established practices as to the exercise of discretions in relation to Retirement Benefits under the UK Pension Schemes; and
 - (G) details of the benefits provided under the Overseas Schemes.

23.2 Other than in respect of the Pension Schemes, no member of the Group is a participating employer in relation to:

- (A) any occupational pension scheme (as defined in the 1993 Act); or
- (B) any scheme, agreement or arrangement for the provision or funding of pension, retirement or death benefits for any Employee, or for any dependant or any such person, under or in connection with which any member of the Group has or may have any liability (actual or contingent, past or future). No member of the Group has given any undertaking or assurance as to the continuation, introduction, improvement or increase of any of the benefits of any kind described in (A) or (B) above or as to the rights of any person to receive such benefits.

23.3 Each UK Pension Scheme is a registered scheme within the meaning of chapter 2 part 4 of the Finance Act 2004 and there is so far as the Seller is aware no reason why such registration might be withdrawn or might cease to apply.

23.4 Neither the UK Pension Schemes (nor so far as the Seller is aware the Overseas Schemes) nor any member of the Group is party to any proceedings which relate to or are in connection with the participation of any member of the Group in the Pension Schemes or which relate to the benefits in respect of any Employee or former Employee of any member of the Group thereunder, and, so far as the Seller is aware, no such proceedings are pending or threatened and so far as the Seller is aware there are no facts likely to give rise to any such proceedings. In this paragraph 23.4, "proceedings" includes any litigation or arbitration and also includes any investigation or determination by the Pensions Ombudsman, the Pensions Advisory Service or the Pensions Regulator or any complaint under any internal dispute resolution procedure established in connection with the Pension Schemes which has been notified to any member of the Group or the Pension Schemes.

23.5 So far as the Seller is aware, each Pension Scheme has, in relation to the participation of any member of the Group, at all times been administered in all material respects in accordance with the trusts powers and provisions of its governing documentation and has in all material respects been administered in accordance with and complies with all applicable legislation and the general requirements of trust law and other applicable laws regulations or requirements (including those of HM Revenue and Customs).

23.6 No member of the Group has in relation to the UK Pension Schemes been issued with a contribution notice or financial support direction and so far as the Seller is aware, no facts or circumstances exist under which the Pensions Regulator could impose one, under Section 38 or 43 of the Pensions Act 2004.

24. The Accounts and Tax

24.1 No member of the Group has any material liability in respect of Taxation for any of the periods ended on or before the Accounts Date (whether actual or contingent) that is not fully disclosed or provided for in the Accounts.

25. Tax events

25.1 Since the Management Accounts Date:

- (A) no accounting period of any member of the Group has ended;
- (B) no member of the Group has paid or become liable to pay any interest or penalty in connection with any Tax, has otherwise paid any Tax after its due date for payment or owes any Tax the due date for payment of which has passed or will arise in the 30 days after the date of this agreement; and
- (C) no transaction in respect of which any tax clearance provided for by statute was required or sought from any Tax Authority has been entered into or carried out by any member of the Group without such clearance having first been properly obtained. Any transaction for which such clearance was obtained has been carried out only in accordance with all material terms of such clearance and the application on which such clearance was based was valid and effective in all material aspects.

26. Tax returns, disputes, records and claims, etc.

- 26.1 Each member of the Group (excluding the group of companies acquired by the Company pursuant to a scheme of arrangement effected on 12 May 2005 (the "MS Companies")) has made or caused to be made, and, so far as the Seller is aware, each MS Company has made or caused to be made, all proper returns required to be made, and has supplied or caused to be supplied all information and notices required to be supplied, to any Tax Authority within the last six years and all such returns were when submitted and remain true, accurate and complete in all material respects.
- 26.2 There has not been within the last six years and is not outstanding any material dispute or disagreement nor, so far as the Seller is aware, is any material dispute contemplated at the date of this agreement with any Tax Authority regarding liability or potential liability to any Tax that is or may be recoverable from any member of the Group or regarding the availability of any relief from Tax to any member of the Group and, so far as the Seller is aware, there are no circumstances which make it likely that any such dispute or disagreement will arise.
- 26.3 So far as the Seller is aware, the amount of Tax chargeable on each member of the Group during any accounting period ending on or within six years before the Accounts Date has not, to any material extent, depended on any concession, agreement or other formal or informal arrangement with any Tax Authority and no such concession, agreement or arrangement with a Tax Authority is in existence.

27. Value added tax

- 27.1 Each member of the Group (excluding the MS Companies) has complied, and, so far as the Seller is aware, each MS Company has complied, with any obligations to register for the purposes of VAT and has complied in all material respects with its obligations under any Tax legislation relating to VAT.
- 27.2 The Disclosure Letter sets out (i) the details of the method, if any, by which exempt input tax has been attributed to supplies made by each member of the Group and (ii) any properties in respect of which an election to waive exemption has been made, and/or which constitute capital goods for VAT purposes.

- 27.3 So far as the Seller is aware, with respect to each member of the Group, full, complete, correct and up-to-date records, invoices and other documents appropriate or required for the purposes of any Tax legislation relating to VAT have been made, given, obtained and kept.

28. Deductions and withholdings

Each member of the Group has made all deductions in respect, or on account, of any Tax from any payments made by it which it is obliged or entitled to make and has accounted in full to the appropriate Tax Authority for all amounts so deducted.

29. Tax Presence

The country which is given in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company) or Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries) as the tax residence of each member of the Group is the only country in which that member of the Group is liable to Tax and is the only country whose Tax Authorities seek to charge Tax on the worldwide profits or gains of that member of the Group and no member of the Group has ever paid or is or has been liable to pay Tax on income profits or gains to any Tax Authority in any other country except that mentioned in respect of that member of the Group in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company) or Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries).

30. Duties, etc.

So far as the Seller is aware, all customs duties and VAT payable to any Tax Authority upon the importation of any of the assets owned or used by any member of the Group (any such asset being a "Relevant Asset") and all excise duties payable to any Tax Authority in respect of any of the Relevant Assets have been paid in full, and none of the Relevant Assets are liable to confiscation or forfeiture (whether by virtue of non-payment or underpayment of any Tax or duty or by virtue of non-compliance with any legislation or regulation relating to any Tax or duty or otherwise howsoever).

31. Tax Records

So far as the Seller is aware, each member of the Group has maintained accurate and up to date records of its Tax affairs that enable it in all material respects to accurately calculate its liabilities to, or to account for, Tax and to complete accurate and correct returns for Tax purposes and to make all payments of Tax for which it is liable.

32. Share Schemes

No member of the Group operates any employee share option, or share incentive scheme or profit sharing arrangement.

33. Tax Avoidance

The Company has not entered into any transaction or series of transactions in relation to which an obligation to disclose, or use a reference number assigned to, an arrangement arose under the provisions of Part 7 Finance Act 2004.

Schedule 3
(Limitations on the Seller's liability)

1. Limitation on quantum and general

- (A) The Purchaser shall not be entitled to damages or other payment in respect of any claim or claims under any of the Warranties or the Tax Covenant in respect of any individual claim (or series of related claims with respect to related facts or circumstances):
- (i) for less than £50,000; or
 - (ii) unless and until the aggregate amount of all such claims for which the Seller is liable under paragraph (D) below (taking no account of those referred to in (i) above) exceeds £1,000,000, but once the aggregate amount of all such claims has exceeded such sum, the Seller shall be liable under the Warranties or the Tax Covenant in respect of the amount by which such sum is exceeded.
- (B) The total aggregate liability of the Seller under the Warranties and the Tax Covenant and the indemnities in clauses 11.7 and paragraph 12.2 of Schedule 7 of this agreement (including all legal and other costs and expenses) shall not in any event exceed an amount equal to £144,463,370.
- (C) The Purchaser shall not be entitled to claim for any loss of profit or indirect or consequential loss.
- (D) The Seller shall only be liable in respect of any claim or payment obligation under this agreement or the Tax Covenant and the Purchaser shall only exercise any right of counter-claim against or otherwise withhold payment of any sums stated to be payable by the Purchaser to the Seller or under any other agreement subsisting between them if and to the extent that such claim or payment is agreed between the Seller and the Purchaser or admitted or adjudged payable in legal or arbitral proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction or determined by an independent accountant, barrister or alternate dispute resolution procedure, in each case as has been previously agreed between the Seller and the Purchaser, unless expressly provided for under this agreement or the Tax Covenant.
- (E) Each provision of this Schedule shall be read and construed without prejudice to each of the other provisions of this Schedule.
- (F) The Purchaser agrees and undertakes that (in the absence of fraud) it has no rights against and shall not make any claim against any employee, director, agent, officer or (other than in relation to the Vendor Due Diligence Report) adviser of the Seller, the Retained Group or any member of the Group on whom it may have relied in agreeing to any term of this agreement and any other agreement or document entered into pursuant to this agreement or entering into this agreement or any such other agreement.

(G) The only Warranties given:

- (i) in respect of the Accounts are those contained in paragraphs 4.1 and 4.2 (Accounts) and 5.2 (Debt) and paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of the Accounts and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to the Accounts;
- (ii) in respect of the Management Accounts is that contained in paragraphs 4.3 and 4.4 (Accounts) and 5.2 (Debt) and paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of the Management Accounts and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to the Management Accounts;
- (iii) in respect of Property are those contained in paragraph 20 (Business Properties) and paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of Property and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to Property;
- (iv) in respect of Intellectual Property are those contained in and paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws) and paragraph 18 (Intellectual Property) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of Intellectual Property and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to Intellectual Property;
- (v) in respect of environmental matters and health and safety are those contained in paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws) and paragraph 21 (Environmental matters) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a warranty in respect of environmental matters and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to environmental matters;
- (vi) in respect of pensions and employment matters are those contained in paragraph 8 (Compliance with applicable laws), paragraph 13 (Litigation), paragraph 22 (Employment) and paragraph 23 (Pensions) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of pensions and employment matters and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to pensions and employment matters; and
- (vii) in respect of Tax are those contained in paragraphs 24 to 33 (Tax) of Schedule 2 (Warranties), none of the other Warranties shall or shall be deemed to be, whether directly or indirectly, a Warranty in respect of Tax and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller makes no other warranty as to Tax.

- (H) As regards the Tax Covenant the provisions of this Schedule shall operate to limit the liability of the Seller in so far as any provision in this Schedule is expressed to be applicable to the Tax Covenant and the provisions of the Tax Covenant shall further operate to limit the liability of the Seller in respect of any claim thereunder.
- (I) Without prejudice to clause 18 (Entire agreement) the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Seller does not give or make any warranty as to the accuracy of the forecasts, estimates, projections, statements of intent or statements of honestly expressed opinion provided to the Purchaser (however so provided) on or prior to the date of this agreement, including, in the Information Memorandum, Vendor Due Diligence Report, Disclosure Letter or the information supplied to or made available to the Purchaser during its due diligence exercise. The Purchaser also acknowledges and agrees that the Seller does not give or make any warranty as to the accuracy or completeness of the information and documentation contained in the Data Room or the Information Memorandum or the Vendor Due Diligence Report, save as expressly set out in the Warranties.
- (J) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Schedule 3, no claim shall lie against the Seller under the Warranties in respect of any event, circumstance, act or omission occurring after the sale by the Purchaser of the Shares or all or a substantial part of the business outside the Purchaser's Group (without prejudice to any rights subsisting at that time under the Warranties).
- (K) No claim shall lie against the Seller under the Warranties to the extent that within 30 days following receipt of notification thereof under paragraph 2 of this Schedule 3 the matter giving rise to such claim is remedied to the reasonable satisfaction of the Purchaser without cost or disruption to the Purchaser's Group.
- (L) Nothing in this agreement shall or shall be deemed to relieve or abrogate the Purchaser of any common law duty to mitigate any loss or damage including, enforcing against any person (other than the Seller) any rights any member of the Purchaser's Group has or may have in respect of the fact, matter or circumstance giving rise to the claim.
- (M) The Purchaser shall procure that the Seller is given access to all such information and documentation within the possession or control of the Purchaser's Group as the Seller may reasonably require to enable it to satisfy itself as to whether any breach of the No Leakage Undertakings notified pursuant to paragraph 2 of this Schedule 3 below shall have occurred.
- (N) References to the Warranties in paragraphs 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of this Schedule shall not include the Tax Warranties and the provisions of clauses 3, 6, 7 and 8 of the Tax Covenant shall operate to limit the liability of the Seller and to govern the claims procedure in respect of any claim under the Tax Warranties in respect of a liability for Taxation as if such claim had been a claim for a Tax Liability under the Tax Covenant.
- (O) As regards any claim for breach of the No Leakage Undertakings in respect of a liability for Taxation, the provisions of clauses 3 and 6 of the Tax Covenant shall operate to limit the liability of the Seller to the extent provided therein.

2. Time limits for bringing claims

No claim shall be brought against the Seller in respect of any of the Warranties or No Leakage Undertakings or the Tax Covenant unless the Purchaser shall have given (or procured that there is given) to the Seller: (a) in respect of claims other than pursuant to the Tax Covenant, written notice of such claim specifying (in reasonable detail) the matter which gives rise to the claim, the nature of the claim and the amount claimed in respect thereof (detailing, if practicable, the Purchaser's good faith calculation of the loss thereby alleged to have been suffered by it or the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group) as soon as reasonably practicable following the Purchaser becoming aware of the claim (having had time to gather the facts required to conclude there is or may be a claim); and (b) in respect of claims made pursuant to the Tax Covenant, notice of the relevant Tax Assessment (as defined in the Tax Covenant) in accordance with clause 8 of the Tax Covenant or a claim under clause 10.1(ii) of the Tax Covenant (including where the Purchaser procures that the Seller receives such notice), and in any event:

- (i) subject to ~~sub-paragraph (ii)~~, on or before 12 noon on the date that is eighteen months after the Completion Date; or
- (ii) in respect of any claims under the Tax Warranties or the Tax Covenant or the environmental warranties set out in paragraph 21 of Schedule 2 (Warranties), not later than 30 Business Days after the date that falls six calendar years after the end of the accounting period in which Completion occurs,

Subject to paragraph 3 of this Schedule, the liability of the Seller in respect of such claim (other than a claim under the Tax Covenant) shall absolutely determine (if such claim has not been previously satisfied, settled or withdrawn) if legal proceedings in respect of such claim shall not have been commenced within six months of the service of such notice and for this purpose proceedings shall not be deemed to have been commenced unless they shall have been properly issued and validly served upon the Seller.

3. No Liability for contingent or non-quantifiable claims

If any breach of the Warranties arises by reason of some liability of a member of the Group which, at the time such breach or claim is notified to the Seller, is contingent only or otherwise not capable of being quantified, then the Seller shall not be under any obligation to make any payment in respect of such breach or claim unless and until such liability ceases to be contingent or becomes capable of being quantified, and the Seller's liability in respect of such claim shall not be determined pursuant to the last sentence of paragraph 2 of this Schedule 3, provided that if the Seller has been notified of the potential claim pursuant to paragraph 2 of this Schedule 3 the period for bringing a claim is extended so long as proceedings are commenced within six months of the liability becoming an actual liability or capable of being quantified. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 3 is not intended to apply to (i) any portion of any damage claim that is or becomes noncontingent or capable of quantification, or (ii) damages that are merely difficult to calculate (as opposed to incapable of calculation).

4. Third party claims

- (A) Upon the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group becoming aware of any claim, action or demand against it by a third party likely to give rise to any claim in respect of any of the Warranties (a "Third Party Claim") the Purchaser shall and shall procure that the appropriate member of the Purchaser's Group shall:
- (i) as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter notify the Seller of the Third Party Claim;
 - (ii) subject to the Seller indemnifying the Purchaser or the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser against any liability, cost, damage or expense which may be incurred thereby (but without thereby implying any admission of liability on the part of the Seller), promptly take such action and give such information and access to personnel, premises, chattels, documents and records (which the Purchaser shall procure are preserved) to the Seller and its professional advisers as the Seller may reasonably request and the Seller shall be entitled to require the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group to take such action and give such information and assistance in order to avoid, dispute, resist, mitigate, settle, compromise, defend or appeal any Third Party Claim or adjudication with respect thereto;
 - (iii) at the request of the Seller, subject as provided in sub-paragraph (A)(ii) above, allow the Seller to take the sole conduct of such actions as the Seller may, acting reasonably, deem appropriate in connection with any such assessment or claim in the name of the Purchaser or any relevant member of the Purchaser's Group and in that connection the Purchaser shall give or cause to be given to the Seller all such assistance as it may reasonably require in avoiding, disputing, resisting, settling, compromising, defending or appealing any such Third Party Claim and shall instruct such solicitors or other professional advisors as the Seller may nominate to act on behalf of the Purchaser or any relevant member of the Purchaser's Group, as appropriate, but to act in accordance with the Seller's instructions;
 - (iv) make no admission of liability, agreement, settlement or compromise with any third party in relation to any such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Seller (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and
 - (v) take all reasonable action to mitigate any loss suffered by it or any member of the Purchaser's Group in respect of any Third Party Claim.
- (B) The Seller shall be entitled at any stage and at its absolute discretion and at its costs to settle any such Third Party Claim but will where practicable provide information as to the terms of such settlement to the Purchaser in advance of the settlement being made and consider any reasonable representations from the Purchaser in respect thereof, subject to the Seller indemnifying the Purchaser or the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser against any liability, cost, damage or expenses which may be incurred thereby as a result of the Seller settling any Third Party Claim.

5. No liability if loss is otherwise compensated for

- (A) No liability shall attach to the Seller by reason of any breach of any of the Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings or under the Tax Covenant to the extent that the same loss has been recovered by the Purchaser under any other Warranty or No Leakage Undertaking or under the Tax Covenant or other term of this agreement or any other document entered into pursuant hereto and accordingly the Purchaser may only recover once in respect of the same loss.
- (B) The Seller shall not be liable for breach of any of the Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings or in respect of any claim under the Tax Covenant to the extent that the subject of the claim has been or is made good or is otherwise compensated for without cost to the Purchaser or any other member of the Purchaser's Group.

6. Recovery from insurers and other third parties

- (A) If, in respect of any matter which would give rise to a claim under the Warranties, any member of the Purchaser's Group is entitled to claim under any policy of insurance then, no such matter shall be the subject of a claim under the Warranties unless and until the appropriate member of the Purchaser's Group shall have made a claim against its insurers and used all reasonable endeavours to pursue such claim and any such insurance claim shall then extinguish or reduce by the amount so recovered (net of costs and expenses of recovery and Taxation payable thereon) any such claims under the Warranties.
- (B) Where the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group is at any time entitled to recover from some other person (other than an insurer under an insurance policy referred to under sub-paragraph 6(A)) any sum in respect of any matter giving rise to a claim under the Warranties the Purchaser shall, and shall procure that the member of the Purchaser's Group concerned shall take all reasonable steps to enforce such recovery prior to taking action against the Seller (other than to notify the Seller of the claim against the Seller). If the Purchaser is unable to enforce such recovery and provided the Seller has been notified of the potential claim pursuant to paragraph 2 of this schedule 3, the period for bringing a claim is extended so long as proceedings are commenced within six months of the Purchaser notifying the Seller that it has been unable to enforce such recovery. In the event that the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group shall recover any amount from such other person, the amount of the claim against the Seller shall be reduced by the amount so recovered (net of costs and expenses of recovery and Taxation payable thereon).
- (C) If the Seller pays at any time to the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group an amount pursuant to a claim in respect of the Warranties and the Purchaser or the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group subsequently becomes entitled to recover from some other person any sum in respect of any matter giving rise to such claim, the Purchaser shall, and shall procure that the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group shall take all reasonable steps to enforce recovery and shall, following receipt of the payment under such recovery, repay to the Seller the lesser of (i) the amount paid by the Seller to the Purchaser or relevant member of the Purchaser's Group and (ii) the sum (including interest (if any)) recoverable from such other person (net of costs and expenses of recovery and Taxation payable thereon).

- (D) If any amount is repaid to the Seller by the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group pursuant to sub-paragraph (C) above, an amount equal to the amount so repaid shall be deemed never to have been paid by the Seller to the Purchaser for the purposes of calculating the Seller's total aggregate liability under paragraph 1(B) above.

7. Acts of the Purchaser

- (A) No claim shall lie against the Seller under or in relation to the Warranties to the extent that such claim is attributable to (i) any voluntary act, omission, transaction, or arrangement carried out at the written request of or with the written consent of the Purchaser before Completion or under the terms of this agreement or any other agreement contemplated by it.
- (B) No claim shall lie against the Seller under or in relation to the No Leakage Undertakings to the extent that such claim is attributable to any voluntary act, omission, transaction, or arrangement carried out before Completion at the written request or consent of the Purchaser but only if such request or consent includes a written acknowledgment from the Purchaser that such act, omission, transaction or arrangement would constitute a breach of the No Leakage Undertakings.
- (C) The Seller shall not be liable for any breach of any Warranty which would not have arisen but for any reorganisation (including a cessation of the whole or part of any trade) or change in ownership of any member of the Purchaser's Group after Completion or change in any accounting basis on which any member of the Purchaser's Group values its assets or any accounting basis, method, policy or practice of any member of the Purchaser's Group which is different from that adopted or used in the preparation of the Accounts (save where any change is necessary to comply with GAAP).

8. The Management Accounts

No matter shall be the subject of a claim under the Warranties to the extent that specific allowance, provision or reserve in respect of such matter shall have been made in the Management Accounts or it has been included in the constituent balance of the creditors in the Management Accounts.

9. Future legislation

No liability shall arise in respect of any breach of any of the Warranties to the extent that liability for such breach occurs or is increased directly or indirectly as a result of:

- (A) any legislation not in force on or prior to the date of this agreement;
- (B) the withdrawal of any extra-statutory concession or other agreement or arrangement currently granted by or made with any governmental authority or Tax authority (whether or not having the force of law); or

- (C) any publicised change after the date of this agreement of any generally accepted interpretation or application of any legislation or publicised in the enforcement policy or practice or rules or regulations of the relevant authorities.

10. Disclosure

The Purchaser shall not be entitled to claim that any fact, matter or circumstance causes any of the Warranties to be breached if it is fairly disclosed (meaning for the purpose of this Schedule 2 and 3 disclosed in such manner and with sufficient detail so as to enable the Purchaser to identify the fact, matter or circumstance disclosed) in the Disclosure Letter or in any document referred to in the Disclosure Letter and delivered or deemed to be delivered with it, including the Data Room, the Information Memorandum and the Vendor Due Diligence Report.

11. Purchaser's knowledge

Without prejudice to paragraph 10 above, the Seller shall not be liable under the Warranties in relation to any matter forming the basis of a claim of which the Purchaser knew on or before the date of this agreement and were aware would or may constitute a claim under the Warranties. For this purpose, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have knowledge of those matters which are fairly disclosed in the Data Room, the Disclosure Letter, the Vendor Due Diligence Report and any information or documents attached thereto (provided that, subject to Schedule 2 (Warranties), no warranty is given or shall be implied as to the accuracy or completeness of the contents of any of the foregoing).

12. Claim to be reduction of Consideration

Any payment made by the Seller or any other person in respect of any claim under the Warranties or No Leakage Undertakings or the Tax Covenant shall be deemed to be a reduction of the Consideration.

13. Single recovery

The Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover damages or otherwise obtain reimbursement or restitution under the Warranties, No Leakage Undertakings or Tax Covenant more than once in respect of the same loss.

Schedule 4
(Basic information about the Company)

1.	Registered number	:	03153391
2.	Date of incorporation	:	31 January 1996
3.	Place of incorporation	:	England and Wales
4.	Address of registered office	:	Pegasus House Kings Business Park Liverpool Road Prescot Merseyside L34 1PJ
5.	Class of company	:	Private company limited by shares
6.	Authorised share capital	:	142,000,000 A £50/71 200,000,000 Ordinary £21/71
7.	Issued share capital	:	£149,182,761.45
8.	Loan capital	:	Nil
9.	Directors:
	Full name	Usual residential address	Nationality
	Thomas Waterworth Drury	Legh Cottage, Legh Road, Knutsford, Cheshire WA16 8LS	British
	John Anthony Gittins	East Wing, Leighton House, Leighton Road, Neston, Wirral, Merseyside CH64 3SW	British
	Andrew James Hunt	Millswood, Old Neighbouring Chalford, Gloucester GL6 8AA	British
	John McLeod	389 East 89 th Street, New York, NY 10128, USA	British
	Andrew Curtis Warren	14 Liston Road, London SW4 0DF	British

Thomas Norman O'Brien	3 Lea Bank Close Chester Road Macclesfield Cheshire SK11 8PU	British
Sharon Willis	New Trees, Windmill Hill, Rough Close, Stoke on Trent ST3 7PQ	British
10. Secretary: Full name	Usual residential address
Timothy Michael Rayner	Dicklow Cob Farm Lower Withington Cheshire SK11 9EA
11. Accounting reference date	:	31 March
12. Auditors	:	Deloitte & Touche
13. Tax residence:	:	United Kingdom
14. Business activities	:	Outsourcing services including call centre activities

Schedule 5
(Basic Information about the Subsidiaries)

1. 1st Software Group Limited
 1. Registered number : 05455415
 2. Date of incorporation : 18/05/2005
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
 5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

2. Independent Specialist Technology (UK) Limited
 1. Registered number : 2958430
 2. Date of incorporation : 12/08/1994
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
 5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

3. Independent Specialist Technology (UK) EBT Trustee Limited
 1. Registered number : 4161473
 2. Date of incorporation : 15/02/2001
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park

Liverpool Road,
 Prescot
 Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

4. 1st Software Limited

1. Registered number : 4427043

2. Date of incorporation : 29/04/2002

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
 Kings Business Park
 Liverpool Road
 Prescot
 Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

5. Ecompass Limited

1. Registered number : 3786110

2. Date of incorporation : 10/06/1999

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
 Kings Business Park
 Liverpool Road
 Prescot
 Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

6. TRM Investments Limited

1. Registered number : 4597513

2. Date of incorporation : 21/11/2002
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot,
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 7. Vertex Financial Services Holdings Limited
1. Registered number : 03008820
2. Date of incorporation : 11/01/1995
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 8. Marlborough Stirling UK Limited
1. Registered number : 04809107
2. Date of incorporation : 24/06/2003
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

9. Exchange FS Limited

1. Registered number : 02596452
2. Date of incorporation : 28/03/1991
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

10. Crisp Computing Limited

1. Registered number : 01547979
2. Date of incorporation : 02/03/1981
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

11. JM Deane 1999 Settlement Trustees Limited

1. Registered number : 03775921
2. Date of incorporation : 24/05/1999
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot

Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

12. Vertex Administration Limited

1. Registered number : 02138853

2. Date of incorporation : 08/06/1987

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

13. Otter Risk Solutions Limited

1. Registered number : 04498921

2. Date of incorporation : 30/07/2002

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

14. Vertex Life and Pensions Limited

1. Registered number : 02831043

2. Date of incorporation : 28/06/1993

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 15. Jessop Fund Managers Limited
1. Registered number : 5768993
2. Date of incorporation : 04/04/06
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 16. Marlborough Stirling Canada Limited
1. Registered number : 621608
2. Date of incorporation : 31/3/03
3. Place of incorporation : British Columbia, Canada
4. Address of registered office : 2100-1075 West Georgia St.
Vancouver BC V6E 3G2
5. Tax residence : Canada
- 17. Vertex Financial Services Limited

1. Registered number : 01855353
 2. Date of incorporation : 15/10/1984
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
 5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 18. The Exchange Holdings Limited
1. Registered number : 3714713
 2. Date of incorporation : 11/02/99
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
 5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 19. Exchange FS International Holdings Limited
1. Registered number : 3789058
 2. Date of incorporation : 14/06/99
 3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
 4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 20. S.L. Marlborough Stirling España
1. Registered number : C.I.F.B. - 82590019 Commercial Registry of Madrid Vol 1537:7, book 0, Sector 8, - Sheet M-256914
2. Date of incorporation : 19 March 2000
3. Place of incorporation : Madrid, Spain
4. Address of registered office : C/Gran Vía, No. 62, 10izq 28013, Madrid.
5. Tax residence : Spain
- 21. S.L. Marlborough Stirling Italia S.P.A.
1. Registered number : Fiscal code 03348400965
2. Date of incorporation : 6/12/01
3. Place of incorporation : Milan, Italy
4. Address of registered office : Via Vittor Pisani 16, 20124, Milan, Italy.
5. Tax residence : Italy
- 22. Marlborough Stirling Switzerland AG
1. Registered number : CH-514.3.028.411-0
2. Date of incorporation : 23/08/04
3. Place of incorporation : Switzerland
4. Address of registered office : Vicolo Nassetta 2 c/o Fiduciaria Mega SA
Succursale di Lugano
6901 Lugano
Svizzera

5. Tax residence : Switzerland

23. Marlborough Stirling Switzerland AG – Liechtenstein Branch Office

1. Registered number : FL-0002.114.027-1

2. Date of incorporation : 22/10/04

3. Place of incorporation : Liechtenstein

4. Address of registered office : Landstrasse 38
FL-9494 Schaan
Liechtenstein

5. Tax residence : Liechtenstein

24. Ingleby (1045) Limited

1. Registered number : 03485429

2. Date of incorporation : 24/12/1997

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

25. FS Connexions UK Limited

1. Registered number : 02599270

2. Date of incorporation : 08/04/1991

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot

Merseyside L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

26. Exchange FS International AG

1. Registered number : HRB2056

2. Date of incorporation : 17/7/2000

3. Place of incorporation : Germany

4. Address of registered office : Senefelder Strasse 23
86368 Gersthofen
Germany

5. Tax residence : Germany

27. Vertex Mortgage Services Limited

1. Registered number : 02042968

2. Date of incorporation : 01/08/1986

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom

4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside
L34 1PJ

5. Tax residence : United Kingdom

28. Marlborough Stirling (SA) Pty Limited

1. Registered number : 99005938

2. Date of incorporation : 19/03/1999

3. Place of incorporation : South Africa

4. Address of registered office : 1 Waterhouse Place,
Century City
7441

PO Box 2799
Cape Town.
8000
5. Tax residence : South Africa
- 29. Vertex Canada Holdings Limited
1. Registered number : 1566926
2. Date of incorporation : 24/3/03
3. Place of incorporation : Ontario, Canada
4. Address of registered office : 79 Wellington St West, Suite 3000, Toronto - Dominion Centre, Toronto.
MJK 1N2
5. Tax residence : Canada
- 30. Vertex Customer Management (Canada) Limited
1. Registered number : 1510128
2. Date of incorporation : 11/1/02
3. Place of incorporation : Ontario
4. Address of registered office : 185 Clegg Road, Markham. L6G
1B7
5. Tax residence : Canada
- 31. Vertex Customer Management Limited
1. Registered number : 04542729
2. Date of incorporation : 23/09/2002

3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 32. First Revenue Assurance UK Limited
1. Registered number : 3325275
2. Date of incorporation : 27/2/97
3. Place of incorporation : England
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House, Kings Business
Park, Liverpool Road, Prescot,
Merseyside, L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 33. Vertex India Limited
1. Registered number : 04361020
2. Date of incorporation : 25/01/2002
3. Place of incorporation : United Kingdom
4. Address of registered office : Pegasus House
Kings Business Park
Liverpool Road
Prescot
Merseyside L34 1PJ
5. Tax residence : United Kingdom
- 34. Vertex Customer Services India Private Limited
1. Registered number : 123222

2. Date of incorporation : 25/11/2003
3. Place of incorporation : India
4. Address of registered office : 1st Floor Gopal Das Bhawan
28 Barakhamba Road
New Delhi
Delhi 110001
India
5. Tax residence : India
- 35. United Utilities US Holding GP
1. Registered number : N/A
2. Date of establishment : 30/1/06
3. Place of incorporation : Delaware
4. Address of registered office : 1105 North Mkt St., Suite 1150
Wilmington, 19803.
5. Tax residence : USA
- 36. Vertex Outsourcing Holdings LLC
1. Organisation ID : 4090879
2. Date of incorporation : 09/01/2006
3. Place of incorporation : Delaware
4. Address of registered office : 1105 North Market St. Suite 1150,
Wilmington, Delaware 19803.
5. Tax residence : USA
- 37. Vertex Outsourcing LLC
1. Organisation ID : 4090885
2. Date of incorporation : 09/01/2006

3. Place of incorporation : Delaware
4. Address of registered office : 1105 North Market St. Suite 1150,
Wilmington, Delaware 19803.
5. Tax residence : USA
- 38. First Revenue Assurance LLC
1. Organisation ID : 4090881
2. Date of incorporation : 09/01/2006
3. Place of incorporation : Delaware
4. Address of registered office : 1105, North Market St. Suite 1150
Wilmington, Delaware 19803.
5. Tax residence : USA
- 39. Aspect Online AG
6. Registered number : HRB2024
7. Date of incorporation : 09/12/1999
8. Place of incorporation : Germany
9. Address of registered office : Beim Glaspalast 7, 86153 Augsburg
Germany
10. Tax residence : Germany

Schedule 6Part I
(Business Properties)

UK Properties

Data room reference	Address of Property	Tenure	Tenant	Use	Lease expiry date
9.01	First Floor, BHO, Basingstoke	Leasehold	Vertex Life and Pensions Limited	Offices	28 February 2017
9.02	3rd & Pt 4th Floor, B.H.O. Basing View, Matrix House, Basingstoke	Leasehold	Vertex Life and Pensions Limited	Offices	28 February 2017
9.03	Unit G, West Ham Ind Est, Worthing Road, Basingstoke	Licence to Occupy	Vertex Life and Pensions Limited	Warehouse	As for Lease at 9.02 above or earlier on notice
9.04	Suites 11 & 12, First floor, Waterlinks House, Richard Street, Birmingham	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	5 April 2012 (VDSL have served notice to terminate with effect from 5 April 2007)

9.05	Suites 14 - 17, First floor, Waterlinks House, Richard Street, Birmingham	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	5 April 2012 (VDSL have served notice to terminate lease with effect from 5 April 2007.)
9.06	18 Osprey Court, Whitchurch, Bristol	Leasehold	Otter Risk Solutions Limited	Offices	10 August 2008
9.07	2 Archipelago, Lyon Way, Frimley Road, Camberly	Leasehold	VFSL	Offices	10 June 2009
9.08	Ground & First Floor Festival House (formerly known as Allen Jones House), Jessop Avenue, Cheltenham	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices	31 December 2011
9.09	Jessop House, Jessop Avenue, Cheltenham	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices	10 January 2022
9.10	Jessop Car Park, Cheltenham	Leasehold	VFSH	Land for car parking	31 December 2024
9.11	Spa Court, 10-12 Bath St, & Car Park at 19 Wellington St Cheltenham	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices / Land for car parking	4 November 2022

9.12	Montell House, Chester Business Park, Chester	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices	12 March 2016
9.13	Munro House, Portsmouth Road Cobham, Surrey	Leasehold	VFSL	Offices	8 February 2015
9.14	9 Fodderty Way, Dingwall	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	12 October 2010
9.15	First Floor North & South Wings, Point North, Brierley Hill, Dudley	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices	25 December 2009 (Landlord has served notice to break with effect from 20 June 2006. Please refer to 9.15.09 in the Data Room)
9.16	Westwood House, Gorgie Road, Edinburgh	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	29 December 2012
9.17	Strathcona House, Forres Enterprise Park, Forres, Scotland	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	13 October 2005
9.18	28-30 High Street, Grays, Essex	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	14 February 2010
9.19	Victoria House, Clarence Road,	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	31 July 2015

	Grays Essex
9.20	First Floor, Keynes House, The Priory, Hitchen	Leasehold	Vertex Administration Limited	Office	Not stated in draft
9.21	Pegasus House, Kings Business Park, Knowsley, Merseyside	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	1 January 2011
9.22	Land adjacent to Pegasus House, Kings Business Park, Knowsley, Merseyside	Leasehold	VDSL	Land for car parking	31 January 2009
9.23	[Phoenix House] ¹ , 1 Moorgate Road Kilby, Merseyside	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	11 May 2009
9.24	Part 4th Floor, 33 Grosvenor Place, London	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	31 July 2007
9.25	Vertex House, Hale Court Phase 2 Greencourts Styal Road,	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	20 December 2011

¹ Title documents do not refer to this property as Phoenix House.

	Wythenshawe, Manchester Airport
9.26	Gemini 6/62 Europa Boulevard West Business Park, Warrington	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices / Warehouse	24 March 2022
9.27	Ground Floor Unit 1, Kingmaker Court, Gallows Hill, Warwick	Leasehold	Independent Specialist Technology (UK) Ltd	Offices	3 July 2013
9.28	Sir Christopher, Harding House, Northshore Road, Whitehaven, Cumbria	Leasehold	VDSL	Offices	4 November 2011
9.29	2nd & 3rd Floor, Britannia Wharf, Woking	Leasehold	Exchange FS Limited	Offices	23 June 2016
9.46	43 Timber Court, Grays, Essex RM17 6PW	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	15 December 2006
9.47	44 Timber Court, Grays, Essex RM17 6PW	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.48	54 Timber Court, Columbia Wharf, Grays, Essex	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	23 February 2007

	RM17 6PW
9.49	66 Timber Court, Grays, Essex RM17 6PW	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	15 December 2006
9.50	71 Timber Court, Grays, Essex RM17 6PW	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.51	35 Grenville Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BG	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	3 January 2007
9.52	37 Grenville Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BG	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.53	52 Grenville Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BG	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	15 December 2006
9.54	81 Grenville Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BG	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	15 December 2006

9.55	101 Grenville Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BG	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.56	5 Coal Court, Grays, Essex RM16 6BE	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.57	40 Coal Court, Grays, Essex RM17 6PN	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	15 December 2006
9.58	89 Plymouth Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BL	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.59	8 Galleon Road, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6BD	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	3 January 2007
9.60	127 Sachfield Drive, Chafford Hundred, Grays, Essex RM16 6QW	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling house	16 January 2007
9.61	3rd Floor, Southern Cross, Basingstoke	Leasehold	Vertex Life and Pensions Limited	Offices	31 December 2005

9.78	17 Foreland Close, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LB	Residential leasehold	Vertex	Dwelling House	7 May 2007
9.79	36 California Close, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 2RP	Residential leasehold	VDSL	Dwelling House	2 April 2007

Overseas Properties

Data room reference	Address of Property	Tenure	Tenant	Use	Lease expiry date
9.30	Part 8th Floor, 185 The West Mall, Etobikoke, Toronto	Leasehold	Marlborough Stirling Canada Limited	Offices	31 December 2012
9.31	15th Floor, 2 Bentall Centre, 555 Burrard St, Vancouver	Leasehold	Marlborough Stirling Canada Limited	Offices	30 June 2009
9.32	2nd Floor, Centre Court, Gurgaon, Haryana, India	Leasehold	VFSL	Offices	30 April 2007

9.33	3 rd & 4 th Floors, Centre Court, Gurgaon, Haryana, India	Leasehold	VFSL	Offices	30 April 2007
9.34	Unitech Centre, Haryana, India (tranche 1)	Leasehold	Vertex Customer Services India Private Limited	Offices	5 February 2008
9.35	Unitech Centre, Haryana, India (tranche 2)	Leasehold	Vertex Customer Services India Private Limited	Offices	5 February 2008
9.80	Eldeco Mansions, Sector 48, Sohna Road, Gurgaon, Haryana, India	Residential leasehold	Vertex Customer Services India Private Limited	Dwelling House	30 September 2006
9.36	3rd Floor Verschoyle House, 28 - 30 Lower Mount St, Dublin	Leasehold	VFSH	Offices	22 July 2026

9.37	Part 5th Floor, St Georges Court Hill St, Douglas, Isle Of Man	Leasehold	Vertex Webtech Limited	Offices	5 October 2022
9.38	3rd and 4th Floor, Cherry Creek Corporate Centre, Colorado	Leasehold	First Revenue Assurance LLC	Offices	30 May 2010
9.39	Fay Penn Building, 100 Laurel View Drive, Smithfield, Pennsylvania	Leasehold	Vertex Outsourcing LLC	Offices	30 September 2015
9.40	Fay Penn Building, 100 Laurel View Drive, Smithfield, Pennsylvania	Leasehold	Vertex Outsourcing LLC	Offices	30 September 2015
9.41	7701 South Stennons, Corinth, Texas	Leasehold	First Revenue Assurance LLC	Offices	30 June 2010

Key to Parties
VDSL: Vertex Data Science Limited
VFSH: Vertex Financial Services Holdings Limited
VFSL: Vertex Financial Services Limited

Part II

For the purposes of this Part II of Schedule 6, the following definitions shall apply:

"General Conditions"	means the Standard Commercial Property Conditions of Sale (Second Edition);
"Heads of Terms"	means the heads of terms or memorandum of terms of occupation drawn up in relation to the grant of a Lease, which are contained in the Data Room with the reference numbers shown in Column 4 of Table 2;
"Lease"	means the lease, underlease or licence agreement to be granted by each Owner of a Shared Property to the relevant Occupier in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement;
"Occupier"	means, in relation to any Shared Property, the relevant Occupier listed in Column 3 of Table 1 or Table 2;
"Owner"	means, in relation to any Shared Property, the relevant Owner listed in Column 2 of Table 1 or Table 2 or their successors in title;
"Property Consent"	means the consent of any landlord or other third party required for the letting of any Vertex Shared Property to the relevant Occupier, and for the purposes of this definition any Vertex Shared Property held (wholly or in part) under a lease which contains an absolute prohibition on letting shall be treated as a Vertex Shared Property which requires a landlord's consent for letting;
"Shared Properties"	means the UU Shared Properties and the Vertex Shared Properties taken together (each a "Shared Property");
"Standard Lease"	means each of the forms of lease contained in the Data Room with the reference numbers shown in column 4 of Table 1;
"Table 1"	means the table labelled 'Table 1' contained in Part III of Schedule 6 ;
"Table 2"	means the table labelled 'Table 2' contained in Part III of Schedule 6 ;
"UU Shared Properties"	means the properties of which a brief description is shown in Column 1 of Table 1 (each a "UU Shared Property"); and
"Vertex Shared Properties"	means the Properties of which a brief description is shown in Column 1 of Table 2 (each a "Vertex Shared Property").

1. Application and Agreement for Lease

- 1.1. The Seller shall use all reasonable endeavours to procure that each Owner of a Shared Property will, prior to the Completion Date, grant to the relevant Occupier a Lease on the terms contemplated by the provisions of this Part II of Schedule 6.
- 1.2. Save as provided in sub-paragraph 1.1 above and paragraph 4 below, this Part II of Schedule 6 applies to the extent that Leases have not been granted by each of the Owners of the Shared Properties to the relevant Occupiers prior to the Completion Date and incorporates the General Conditions to the extent that they are not expressly varied or otherwise inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.
- 1.3. The Seller shall procure that each Owner of the UU Shared Properties will grant to the relevant Occupier a Lease in the form of the applicable Standard Lease within 3 months following the Completion Date.
- 1.4. No loss or damage to any of the UU Shared Properties nor any deterioration in their state of repair or condition is the responsibility of the Seller or the relevant Owner or is to annul this agreement or give rise to any abatement in rent, any claim to compensation or damages or entitle the Purchaser or the relevant Occupier to delay completion or to rescind.
- 1.5. Subject to obtaining any requisite Property Consent, the Purchaser shall procure that each Owner of the Vertex Shared Properties will grant to the relevant Occupier a Lease upon the terms evidenced in the applicable Heads of Terms and otherwise as set out in this Schedule 6 within 12 months following the Completion Date.
- 1.6. No loss or damage to any of the Vertex Shared Properties nor any deterioration in their state of repair or condition is the responsibility of the Purchaser or the relevant Owner or is to annul this agreement or give rise to any abatement in rent, any claim to compensation or damages or entitle the Seller or the relevant Occupier to delay completion or to rescind.

2. Matters to which the sale is subject

Each Shared Property is to be let subject to and (where appropriate) with the benefit of the following matters:

- (A) matters contained or referred to in the applicable Heads of Terms or Standard Lease (as the case may be);
- (B) matters discoverable by inspection of the relevant Shared Property at the date of this Agreement;
- (C) matters the Seller or the relevant Owner does not know about at the date of this Agreement;

- (D) matters disclosed or which would have been disclosed by the searches and enquiries which a prudent tenant would have made before entering into this Agreement;
- (E) unregistered interests of the kind referred to in Schedule 1 or Schedule 3 of the Land Registration Act 2002;
- (F) entries made in any public register (including those maintained by the Land Registry or its Land Charges Department or by Companies House) at the date of this Agreement or on the Completion Date other than any in respect of charges created by the Seller or the relevant Owner to secure the repayment of money;
- (G) all local land charges and all matters capable of registration as local land charges;
- (H) all notices served and orders, demands, proposals or requirements made by any local or other competent authority; and
- (I) all exceptions and reservations of whatever nature, all rights of way, water, light, air or other rights, easements, quasi-easements, servitudes and wayleaves (whether constituted in the title deeds or otherwise).

3. Title

The Seller (in relation to the Vertex Shared Properties) and the Purchaser (in relation to the UU Shared Properties) accept each Owner's title to the relevant Shared Property and shall not, and shall procure that the relevant Occupier will not, raise any further enquiry or requisition in relation to it.

4. Property consents

- 4.1 This paragraph applies to those Vertex Shared Properties in relation to which a Property Consent is required and where such Property Consent remains to be obtained as at the Completion Date, and this paragraph shall continue to apply until the relevant Property Consent shall have been obtained or until this Agreement shall cease to apply to such Vertex Shared Properties in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 4.2 The Purchaser shall use all reasonable endeavours to obtain the Property Consents. Subject to paragraph 4.5 below, neither the Seller nor the relevant Occupier shall be obliged to pay any moneys to any landlord nor to provide any guarantees by the Seller's or relevant Occupier's bankers or directors, or to lodge moneys by way of deposit, or provide any other form of security other than a direct covenant by the relevant Occupier with any landlord relating to the observance and performance of the terms of the relevant lease in such form as the relevant landlord is entitled to require. For the avoidance of doubt, and subject to sub-paragraph 4.5 below, the Purchaser shall not be obliged to pay any moneys to any landlord nor to provide any guarantees or security to any landlord.

- 4.3 The Seller shall procure that the relevant Occupier will promptly supply all references and other evidence and information reasonably required by any landlord in order to obtain the Property Consents.
- 4.4 The Seller shall procure that the relevant Occupier will promptly enter into any deed or document in favour of a third party required pursuant to an encumbrance or lease affecting the relevant Owner's title to a Vertex Shared Property where such encumbrance or lease prescribes that the delivery of such deed or document is a condition to any subletting of that Vertex Shared Property being permitted.
- 4.5 The professional and other fees of any landlord incurred in connection with any application for a Property Consent shall be borne equally by the Purchaser (or the relevant Owner) and the Seller (or the relevant Occupier).
- 5. Delayed legal completion
- 5.1 If a Property Consent has not been obtained by the Completion Date then (subject to subparagraph 5.9 below) the date for legal completion of the letting of the relevant Vertex Shared Property shall be postponed to the tenth Business Day after reasonable evidence is provided to the relevant Occupier that the Property Consent has been obtained.
- 5.2 Pending legal completion of the Lease of a UU Shared Property, and with effect from the Completion Date, the Seller shall procure that the relevant Owner will:
- (A) permit the relevant Occupier (with all persons authorised by it) to continue to occupy the area of that UU Shared Property used for the purposes of its business as at the date of this Agreement; and
 - (B) procure that no contract is entered into disposing of any interest in that UU Shared Property otherwise than to a member of the same group of companies as the relevant Owner, within the meaning of section 42 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954.
- 5.3 Pending legal completion of a Lease of a Vertex Shared Property, and with effect from the Completion Date, the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant Owner will:
- (A) permit the relevant Occupier (with all persons authorised by it) to continue to occupy the area of that Vertex Shared Property used for the purposes of its business as at the date of this Agreement;
 - (B) procure that no contract is entered into disposing of any interest in that Vertex Shared Property otherwise than to a member of the same group of companies as the relevant Owner, within the meaning of section 42 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954; and
 - (C) procure that the rents, service charges and other sums reserved by the Owner's lease of that Vertex Shared Property are paid and the covenants and conditions on the part of the lessee contained in the relevant lease are observed and performed.

- 5.4 Pending legal completion of a Lease and as from the Completion Date, the Seller shall procure that each Occupier of a Vertex Shared Property (i) will pay to the relevant Owner a fee, or a proportionate part thereof, at the same rate as the principal yearly rent specified in the applicable Heads of Terms (as shown in Column 5 of Table 2; subject to review as provided for in the applicable Heads of Terms) as if a lease reserving such rent had been granted to the Occupier on the Completion Date (ii) will pay, if applicable, by way of contribution to the service charge, rates and other outgoings payable pursuant to the Owner's lease of the relevant Vertex Shared Property, a fee of an amount equal to the proportion of such charges as are allocated to the business of that Occupier as at the date of this Agreement or, if there is no such allocation, an amount that is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances; (iii) will observe and perform the applicable covenants and conditions on the part of the lessee in the relevant Owner's lease of that Vertex Shared Property; (iv) will not infringe any statutory requirement relating to that Vertex Shared Property; and (v) will indemnify the relevant Owner in respect of all losses, liabilities and costs incurred by the relevant Owner as a result of any act, neglect, default or omission on the part of the relevant Occupier to perform or comply with such covenants and conditions.
- 5.5 Pending legal completion of a Lease and as from the Completion Date, the Purchaser shall procure that each Occupier of a UU Shared Property (i) will pay to the relevant Owner a fee, or a proportionate part thereof, at the same rate as the principal rent specified in the applicable Standard Lease (as shown in Column 5 of Table 1, subject to review in accordance with the terms of the applicable Standard Lease), as if a lease in the form of the applicable Standard Lease had been granted to the Occupier on the Completion Date; (ii) will pay, if applicable, by way of contribution to the rates, property taxes and all other outgoings payable by the Owner in respect of the relevant UU Shared Property, a fee of an amount equal to the proportion of such charges as are allocated to the business of that Occupier as at the date of this Agreement or, if there is no such allocation, an amount that is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances; (iv) will observe and perform the covenants and obligations on the part of the lessee contained in the applicable Standard Lease, as if a lease in the form of the applicable Standard Lease had been granted to the Occupier on the Completion Date; and (v) will not infringe any statutory requirement relating to that UU Shared Property.
- 5.6 If the relevant landlord or any other person interested in a Vertex Shared Property commences proceedings, raises any objection or takes any other action in connection with an Occupier's occupation of a Vertex Shared Property pending the obtaining of a Property Consent, the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant Owner shall forthwith at its own expense take such reasonable steps as the Seller (or the relevant Occupier) and the Purchaser (or the relevant Owner), each acting reasonably, consider appropriate with a view to securing the relevant Occupier's continued occupation of the relevant Vertex Shared Property in accordance with this Agreement.
- 5.7 An Occupier's permission to occupy a Vertex Shared Property will come to an end on legal completion of the relevant Lease.

- 5.8 The Seller and the Purchaser agree that if (i) a Property Consent is not obtained within 12 months following the Completion Date, or (ii) the Owner and the relevant Occupier of a Vertex Shared Property, acting reasonably and having complied, if applicable, with sub-paragraph 5.6 above, agree that there is no reasonable prospect of obtaining such Property Consent within that time, then that Occupier shall vacate the Vertex Shared Property which it occupies as soon as is reasonably practicable, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any applicable Heads of Terms.
- 5.9 The Seller and the Purchaser agree that if any action of the kind specified in sub-paragraph 5.6 above is taken by any landlord or other person interested in a Vertex Shared Property, then, subject to compliance with the obligations set out in that sub-paragraph, the relevant Occupier shall vacate that Vertex Shared Property as soon as is reasonably practicable following receipt by that Occupier of written notification that such action has been taken.
- 5.10 In the event that the relevant Occupier is obliged to vacate the premises at Westwood House, Gorgie Road, Edinburgh in accordance with sub-paragraphs 5.8 or 5.9 above, then the Seller shall, or shall procure that the relevant Owner will, pay to the relevant Occupier that Occupier's Relocation Costs (as defined in the Heads of Terms relating to this property contained in the Data Room at 9.16.04).

6. The Lease

- 6.1 In respect of each UU Shared Property, on legal completion of a Lease the Seller shall procure that the relevant Owner will deliver a duly executed Lease to the relevant Occupier and the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant Occupier will accept the Lease and will deliver a duly executed counterpart to the relevant Owner.
- 6.2 In respect of each Vertex Shared Property, on legal completion of a Lease the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant Owner will deliver a duly executed Lease to the relevant Occupier and the Seller shall procure that the relevant Occupier will accept the Lease and will deliver a duly executed counterpart to the relevant Owner.
- 6.3 The Lease of each of the UU Shared Properties shall be in the form of the applicable Standard Lease, with only such variations as the Seller and the Purchaser may agree.
- 6.4 The terms of each Lease in respect of each of the Vertex Shared Properties shall be as follows (with such variations the Seller and the Purchaser may agree, acting reasonably):
- (A) the Lease shall be granted on the terms and conditions specified in the applicable Heads of Terms;
 - (B) the demise shall be such area as is occupied by the relevant Occupier as at the date of this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed between the Seller and the Purchaser (both parties acting reasonably);
 - (C) the commencement date for the rents reserved under the Lease shall be the Completion Date;

- (D) the terms of any termination rights on the part of a superior landlord in any headlease shall be incorporated so as to provide the relevant Occupier with corresponding rights to terminate the Lease; and
- (E) the Lease (in respect of Shared Property situated in England) shall include an agreement between the parties that the provisions of sections 24-28 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 are excluded in relation to the tenancy created by the Lease and the parties shall take all such steps as are necessary validly to exclude those provisions.

7. Standard Conditions

In the General Conditions:

- (A) "clearing bank" means Barclays Bank PLC, HBOS plc, HSBC Bank plc, Lloyds TSB Bank PLC, National Westminster Bank PLC or The Royal Bank of Scotland PLC;
- (B) the "contract rate" means 3 per centum per annum over the base lending rate from time to time of Barclays Bank PLC;
- (C) General Conditions 3.1, 6.1, 6.2, 6.3:1, 6.4.2, 7.1.2, 7.1.3, 7.1.4(b), 10.2.4, 10.2.5 and 10.3 shall not apply; and
- (D) at the end of General Condition 1.3.1 shall be added "which for this purpose does not include e-mail."

8. Further Assurance

The Seller and the Purchaser agree that they shall from time to time on request by the other party, do or procure the doing of all acts and/or execute or procure the execution of all documents in a form satisfactory to the other party which the other party may consider reasonably necessary for giving full effect to this Schedule 6 and securing to each party the full benefit of the rights, powers and remedies conferred in this Schedule 6.

Part III

Table 1 – UU Shared Properties

Column 1 (Property)	Column 2 (Owner)	Column 3 (Occupier)	Column 4 (Data Room reference)	Column 5 (Rent)
4 th Floor, Linley House, Dickinson Street, Manchester	United Utilities Electricity PLC	Vertex Data Science Limited	9.61.03	£342,300 per annum
Areas D&E of the former Depot Building, Manchester Road, Bolton	United Utilities Property Solutions Limited	Vertex Data Science Limited	9.62.02	£108,143 (for the period 1 August 2006 – 31 March 2007)
Area F of the former Depot Building, Manchester Road, Bolton	United Utilities Property Solutions Limited	Vertex Data Science Limited	9.63.02	£28,930 (for the period 1 November 2006 – 31 March 2007)
Area H of the former Depot Building, Manchester Road, Bolton	United Utilities Property Solutions Limited	Vertex Data Science Limited	9.65.02	£160,350 per annum
Area K of the former Depot Building, Manchester Road, Bolton	United Utilities Property Solutions Limited	Vertex Data Science Limited	9.66.02	£8,809 (for the period 1 November 2006 – 31 December 2006)

Table 2 – Vertex Shared Properties

Column 1 (Property)	Column 2 (Owner)	Column 3 (Occupier)	Column 4 (Data Room reference)	Column 5 (Rent)
First Floor offices, Sir Christopher Harding House, Whitehaven, Cumbria	Vertex Data Science Limited	United Utilities Water plc	9.28.03	£153,862 per annum

Part Ground Floor, Phase II Warrington Phase 6 / 62 Europa Boulevard, Gemini West Business Park, Warrington	Vertex Data Science Limited	United Utilities Water plc	9.26.05	£112,332 per annum
Westwood House, Gorgie Road, Edinburgh	Vertex Data Science Limited	United Utilities Networks Limited	9.16.04	£410,000 per annum

Schedule 7
(Pensions)

1. Definitions

1.1 For the purposes of this Schedule the following expressions shall have the following meanings:-

- "Active Members" means those Employees who are active members of the Seller's Scheme immediately prior to the Completion Date.
- "Actuarial Assumptions" means the actuarial method and assumptions specified in the Actuary's Letter.
- "Actuary" means a person who is a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries or a Fellow of the Faculty of Actuaries in Scotland.
- "Actuary's Letter" means the letter from the Seller's Actuary to the Purchaser's Actuary in relation to the Seller's Scheme, a copy of which is attached as Annex A.
- "Agreed Interest Rate" means the base rate from time to time prescribed by Lloyds TSB Group plc plus 2%.
- "Payment Date" means, in relation to each Seller's Scheme, 20 Business Days after the date on which the Pension Liabilities are determined and agreed in accordance with paragraph 4.1 (or, where paragraph 8 applies, 20 Business Days after the Pension Liabilities are certified pursuant to that paragraph).
- "Pension Liabilities" has the same meaning as under the Actuary's Letter.
- "Protected Member" means an Active Member who participates in the UJESPS and who is a Protected Person (as defined in the Protected Person Regulations).
- "Protected Person Regulations" means the Electricity (Protected Persons) (England and Wales) Pension Regulations 1990.
- "Purchaser's Actuary" means the Actuary or firm of Actuaries appointed by the Purchaser for the purposes of this Schedule.

"Purchaser's Scheme"

means the retirement benefits scheme or schemes (or, if the context so requires, the trustees of the relevant scheme) nominated by the Purchaser pursuant to paragraph 3.1(A) provided that the Purchaser may nominate no more than one scheme in relation to the Transferring Members of each Seller's Scheme.

"Retirement Benefit" means all or any of any pension, lump sum or other like benefit provided or to be provided:

- on or after retirement;
- on death;
- on or after termination of employment;
- on or in connection with permanent disability, but excluding any benefit provided under an arrangement the sole purpose of which is to provide benefits on injury or death by accident occurring whilst an Employee.

"Seller's Actuary" means the Actuary or firm of Actuaries appointed by the Seller for the purposes of this Schedule.

"Seller's Scheme"

means:

- (i) the United Utilities Pension Scheme currently constituted by a trust deed dated 13 March 2005 (as subsequently amended) or, if the context so requires, the trustees of that scheme ("UUPS"); and/or
- (ii) the United Utilities Group of the Electricity Supply Pension Scheme currently constituted and established by a trust deed dated 20 January 1983 (as subsequently amended) or, if the context so requires, the trustees of that scheme ("UUESPS").

"Timing Adjustment"

has the same meaning as under the Actuary's Letter.

"Transfer Amount" has the same meaning as under the Actuary's Letter.

"Transferring Members" means those Active Members:

- (i) who elect or consent, by at least 2 business days before the Payment Date, in such form as the Seller may reasonably require (such form to include a discharge and indemnity in favour of the Seller's Scheme for any liability to or in respect of the Transferring Members to provide any further benefits in respect of their accrued rights (other than their accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions where the liability for these is retained by the Seller's Scheme)) to a payment (in cash or in other assets) being made by the Seller's Scheme to the Purchaser's Scheme in lieu of their accrued rights (or, where the Purchaser's Scheme is not a contracted-out scheme, in lieu of their accrued rights other than their accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions) under the Seller's Scheme; and
- (ii) who do not withdraw that election or consent.

- (B) The provisions of this Schedule shall apply separately to each Seller's Scheme and references to "Seller's Scheme" shall be construed accordingly.
- (C) References in this Schedule to employees include directors.
- (D) References in this Schedule to paragraphs are references to paragraphs of this Schedule.
- (E) If any index used for the purposes of this Schedule (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Actuary's Letter) is not compiled or ceases to exist it shall be replaced by such index as is agreed between the Seller's Actuary and the Purchaser's Actuary or, in default of agreement, as is determined under paragraph 8.

2. Matters Relating to the Seller's Scheme

2.1 Submission of notices for Seller's approval

The Purchaser undertakes to procure that the notices to be issued pursuant to paragraphs 3.1(B) and 7.2 will be submitted in advance of their issue to the Seller and will not be issued until the Seller has approved them, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

2.2 Parties to do everything necessary to comply with contracting-out requirements

The Seller and the Purchaser shall take, and the Purchaser shall procure that the Company takes, such steps as may reasonably be required of them, including the completion of any notices and elections, to procure that the Company and the Seller's Scheme complies with all relevant contracting-out requirements including without limitation that the Company ceases to hold or be named in a contracting-out certificate by reference to the Seller's Scheme with effect from the Completion Date.

3. The Purchaser's Scheme

3.1 The Purchaser to nominate a pension scheme and offer membership

The Purchaser shall procure that

- (A) before the Completion Date it will nominate a retirement benefits scheme:
 - (i) which the Company will have established (or become a party to) with effect from a date no later than the Completion Date;
 - (ii) which is approved or is capable of approval as a registered pension scheme;
 - (iii) to which the Seller's Scheme can make a transfer payment without prejudicing the status of the Seller's Scheme as a registered pension scheme; and
 - (iv) which is contracted out on a reference scheme basis;
- (B) the Active Members will be offered membership of the Purchaser's Scheme with effect from the Completion Date in terms complying with paragraph 3.4;
- (C) the Purchaser's Scheme will be a relevant scheme or alternative scheme (as those terms are defined in the Protected Persons Regulations) in accordance with the Protected Persons Regulations for the purposes of the Protected Members;
- (D) the benefits for future service provided by the Purchaser's Scheme to the Protected Members as at the Completion Date comply with the relevant requirements of the Protected Persons Regulations; and
- (E) it shall and it shall procure that the Purchaser's Scheme shall comply with all relevant requirements of the Seller's Scheme under its trust deed and rules in order that the Seller's Scheme may transfer the Transfer Amount and the benefits in respect of the Transferring Members to the Purchaser's Scheme.

3.2 Tax and contracting-out matters relating to the Purchaser's Scheme

The Purchaser shall use best endeavours to procure by the Payment Date:

- (A) that the Purchaser's Scheme is a registered scheme; and
- (B) insofar as any part of the Transfer Amount would represent amounts in respect of accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions or rights relating to contracted out employment after 5th April, 1997, that the Company holds or is named in a current contracting-out certificate in relation to the Purchaser's Scheme.

3.3 Compliance with statute and schedule by Purchaser and financial matters relating to the Purchaser's Scheme

The Purchaser shall procure by the Payment Date that

- (A) the Purchaser's Scheme delivers to the Seller's Scheme an undertaking under which the Purchaser's Scheme;
 - (i) agrees to accept the Transfer Amount in full and final settlement of all claims against the Seller's Scheme in respect of the Transferring Members;
 - (ii) agrees to provide benefits to the Transferring Members in accordance with paragraph 7 and the announcement made to the Transferring Members under paragraph 7.2; and
 - (iii) agrees to comply with the applicable requirements of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, the relevant preservation requirements of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and contracting-out requirements of that Act and the relevant provisions of the trust deed and rules of the Seller's Scheme; and
- (B) where the Purchaser's Scheme had any liabilities before the Payment Date the Purchaser's Actuary delivers a certificate to the Seller and to the Seller's Scheme confirming that, in his opinion, were an actuarial valuation of the Purchaser's Scheme to be carried out immediately before the Payment Date using the Actuarial Assumptions that valuation would show the Purchaser's Scheme to be in balance or surplus; and
- (C) a copy of the most recent (if any) audited accounts of the Purchaser's Scheme has been supplied to the Seller.

3.4 Future service benefits to be of equal actuarial value

- (A) Subject to the remaining provisions of this paragraph 3.4, the Purchaser shall procure that the benefits to be offered under the Purchaser's Scheme to and in respect of each Active Member other than a Defined Contribution Member (see paragraph 3.4(C)) in respect of service for the period of 12 months from and including the Completion Date (the "Future Benefits") and valued as at the Completion Date are of equivalent actuarial value overall (on the basis of the Actuarial Assumptions) to the value of the benefits to and in respect of that Active Member which would have been provided in respect of his service after the Completion Date under the Seller's Scheme as in force at the date of this Agreement but for the sale provided for in this Agreement but subject to the powers of amendment and discontinuance in the Purchaser's Scheme provided such powers shall not be exercised with effect from a date prior to expiry of 12 months from and including the Completion Date provided that any change made to benefits of the UUESPS and which are adopted by the Purchaser's Scheme in relation to Protected Members shall not be treated as a breach of this paragraph 3.4(A) by the Purchaser.

- (B) In determining whether the Future Benefits are of equivalent actuarial value overall to those of the Seller's Scheme for the purposes of (A), due account shall be taken of any difference in the levels of members' contributions between the Purchaser's Scheme and the Seller's Scheme.
- (C) Subject to the remaining provisions of this paragraph 3.4(C), the Purchaser shall procure that the benefits (including the employer and employee contribution obligations and options) to be offered under the Purchaser's Scheme to and in respect of each Active Member who participates in the defined contribution sections of the UUPS ("Defined Contribution Members"), in respect of service for the period of 12 months from and including the Completion Date (the "Future Benefits") are identical to the benefits (including the employer and employee contribution obligations and options) payable to, and in respect of that Active Member which would have been provided in respect of his service after the Completion Date under the Seller's Scheme as in force at the date of this Agreement but for the sale provided for in this Agreement.
- (D) A certificate from the Purchaser's Actuary as agreed by the Seller's Actuary (and in default of agreement as to the certificate, the disagreement shall be resolved in accordance with paragraph 8) addressed to the Seller and the Purchaser and dated on or before the Completion Date that the benefits offered to the Active Members comply with the preceding provisions of this paragraph 3.4 shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- (E) The Purchaser's obligations in this paragraph 3.4 shall be without prejudice to any obligation imposed on the Purchaser, any member of the Group or any member of the Purchaser's Group under any provision of legislation, statutory instrument or contract.
- (F) This paragraph 3.4 does not apply to Retirement Benefits (whether contractual or otherwise) which are provided under the Seller's Scheme on the death, disability or involuntary termination of employment of an Employee – see paragraph 3.5.
- (G) The principles of this paragraph 3.4 shall also apply, mutatis mutandis, to benefits under the UK Schemes other than the Seller's Scheme and under the Overseas Schemes except in each case as the Seller and Purchaser may otherwise agree.

3.5 Benefits on involuntary termination of employment, disability and death

- (A) This paragraph 3.5 applies where Retirement Benefits (whether contractual or otherwise) are provided under the Seller's Scheme or by a member of the Group (in each case, as in force at the date of this Agreement) on the death, disability or involuntary termination of employment of an Employee. If the death, disability or notice of involuntary termination of employment of an Employee or, to the extent applicable his spouse, child or dependent, takes place in the period of 12 months immediately following the Completion Date, Retirement Benefits must be provided on such events which are payable in circumstances and under conditions which are not materially less favourable to the beneficiary concerned as those which would have applied had the death, disability or involuntary termination of employment occurred whilst the beneficiary was a beneficiary of the Seller's Scheme in question under the provisions of that Seller's Scheme or employed by a member of the Group (in each case, as in force at the date of this Agreement), and there must be no material reduction in the value of such Retirement Benefits, calculated on the basis of the Actuarial Assumptions;

- (B) Such Retirement Benefits must be awarded and calculated as if the Employee had continued to be in service for the purposes of the Seller's Scheme or other benefit in question;
- (C) The value of the Retirement Benefits to be provided under this paragraph 3.5 shall be reduced by either:
- the amount (if any) of any benefit which the Seller's Scheme in fact pays to or in respect of an Employee on the relevant event referred to in paragraph 3.5 (A) occurring; or
 - an amount agreed by the Seller and the Purchaser either before or after that event occurs to represent the value of the benefits so payable or paid by the Seller's Scheme.
- (D) The principles of this paragraph 3.5 shall also apply, mutatis mutandis, to benefits under the UK Schemes other than the Seller's Scheme and under the Overseas Schemes except in each case as the Seller and Purchaser may otherwise agree.

3.6 Assistance

The Seller shall provide to the Purchaser, in the period between the date of this Agreement and the Completion Date, reasonable assistance in answering queries in connection with the Seller's Scheme.

4. Determination of Pension Liabilities and Other Matters

4.1 Pension Liabilities

Immediately after the Completion Date the Seller and the Purchaser shall respectively instruct the Seller's Actuary and the Purchaser's Actuary to consult with a view to the Seller's Actuary determining and the Purchaser's Actuary agreeing the Pension Liabilities within 90 days after the Completion Date.

4.2 Accuracy of information to be provided to the Actuaries by the Seller

- (A) The Seller shall procure that all such information in its possession, custody or control as the Seller's Actuary or the Purchaser's Actuary may reasonably request for the purpose of calculating the Pension Liabilities and the Transfer Amount shall be made available promptly to such Actuary.
- (B) The Seller hereby warrants to the Purchaser that all such information shall be true, complete and accurate in all material respects as at the date the information is required for the purpose of this Schedule and shall contain no omission material to the calculation of the Transfer Amount or material to any other calculation or determination for the purposes of this Schedule.

4.3 Accuracy of information to be provided to the Actuaries by the Purchaser

- (A) The Purchaser shall procure that all such information in its or the Company's possession, custody or control as the Seller's Actuary or the Purchaser's Actuary may reasonably request for the purpose of calculating the Pension Liabilities and the Transfer Amount shall be made available promptly to such Actuary.
- (B) The Purchaser hereby warrants to the Seller that all such information shall be true, complete and accurate in all material respects as at the date the information is required for the purpose of this Schedule and shall contain no omission material to the calculation of the Transfer Amount or material to any other calculation or determination for the purposes of this Schedule.

5. Payment of Transfer Amounts and Excess Payment

5.1 Seller's obligations conditional upon Purchaser's obligations being duly performed

The Seller's obligations in this paragraph 5 are conditional upon the Purchaser's obligations in paragraphs 2, 3 and 9.2(A) being duly performed before the Payment Date

5.2 Payment of Transfer Amount

- (A) Subject to paragraph 5.1, the Seller shall use its reasonable endeavours to procure that on the Payment Date or, at the Seller's discretion, before the Payment Date, the Seller's Scheme (to the extent that it can lawfully make such payment) shall pay the Transfer Amount to the Purchaser's Scheme.
- (B) The payment of the Transfer Amount shall be satisfied by the transfer of a reasonable cross-section of the assets of the Seller's Scheme (as agreed by the Seller's Scheme and the Purchaser's Scheme) having a mid-market value on the day before the Payment Date equal to the Transfer Amount.

- (C) If the Seller's Scheme and the Purchaser's Scheme are unable to agree some or all of the particular assets to be transferred or the mid-market value of any such assets, the payment of the Transfer Amount (or the appropriate part of it) shall be satisfied by the Seller's Scheme transferring cash equal to that part of the Transfer Amount in respect of which there has been no agreement as to the assets to be transferred.

5.3 Shortfall

- (A) Subject to paragraph 5.1, if the amount which has been actually transferred (if any) by the Seller's Scheme to the Purchaser's Scheme on or before the Payment Date in respect of the Transferring Members is less than the Transfer Amount, then the Seller shall pay to the Purchaser (or as the Purchaser directs) within 20 Business Days after the Payment Date, so far as possible by way of repayment of the consideration payable for the Shares pursuant to this Agreement, a sum in cash (the "Shortfall") calculated according to the formula:

$$(A - B + C)$$

where:

- A = the Transfer Amount;
- B = the amount actually transferred on or before the Payment Date multiplied by the Timing Adjustment for the period from and including the date or dates on which such amount was transferred to and excluding the Payment Date;
- C = the amount representing interest at the Agreed Interest Rate on an amount equal to A - B for the period from and including the Payment Date to and excluding the date on which payment is made under this subparagraph; and the Purchaser shall then pay to the Purchaser's Scheme a sum in cash equal to (A - B + C).

The amount of the Shortfall shall be determined by the Seller's Actuary and agreed by the Purchaser's Actuary or, in default of agreement, be determined under paragraph 8.

5.4 Retained Benefits

If, after the Payment Date, the Seller's Scheme makes any payment to the Purchaser's Scheme in respect of any benefits retained by the Seller's Scheme in respect of any Transferring Member the Purchaser shall pay within 20 Business Days to the Seller by way of an adjustment of the consideration payable for the Shares pursuant to this Agreement a sum equal to that payment plus interest at the Agreed Interest Rate on the amount due from and including the date on which the payment was made by the Seller's Scheme to and excluding the date on which payment actually is made by the Purchaser.

6. Voluntary Fund

6.1 Meaning of "Voluntary Fund"

In this paragraph 6, the expression "Voluntary Fund" means a fund comprising those voluntary contributions, or the investments or moneys representing them and any income derived from them, in respect of which the entitlements of the members who have paid them are not related to earnings (however defined) but are based on the respective parts of such Voluntary Fund which are attributable to them.

6.2 Voluntary Fund to be disregarded for calculations

Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Schedule, if within the Seller's Scheme there is a Voluntary Fund, the Voluntary Fund, the benefits payable from it, the contributions payable to it and any transfer payment made from it shall be disregarded for all the preceding provisions of this Schedule except paragraph 3.4.

6.3 Transfer of Voluntary Fund

The Seller shall nevertheless use its reasonable endeavours to procure that the part of the Voluntary Fund attributable to the Transferring Members in accordance with the provisions of the Seller's Scheme is transferred to the Purchaser's Scheme on the Payment Date.

6.4 Money Purchase Fund

- (i) If within the Seller's Scheme there is a Money Purchase Fund the provisions of paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3 shall apply to such Money Purchase Fund as if it were a Voluntary Fund.
- (ii) In this paragraph 6, the expression "Money Purchase Fund" means a fund, other than a Voluntary Fund, comprising contributions, or the investments or moneys representing them and any income derived from them, in respect of which the entitlements of members to whom they relate are not related to earnings (however defined) but are based on the respective parts of such Money Purchase Fund which are attributable to them.

7. Transfer Amounts to Purchase Benefits for Transferring Members

7.1 Benefits for Transferring Members

Subject to receipt in full of the Transfer Amount by the Purchaser's Scheme (or, as the case may be, the payment of the Shortfall by the Seller under paragraph 5.3), the Purchaser shall procure that the Purchaser's Scheme shall provide benefits in respect of the pensionable service (including transfer credits) of each Transferring Member in the Seller's Scheme before Completion which are of equal actuarial value on the basis of the Actuarial Assumptions to the benefits applying in the Seller's Scheme (as in force on the date of this Agreement) in relation to such service.

7.2 Communication of paragraph 7.1 to Transferring Members

The Purchaser shall notify the Transferring Members of the benefits to be provided by the Purchaser's Scheme in relation to their accrued rights in accordance with paragraph 7.1.

8. Disputes

8.1 Referral to an independent Actuary

- (A) Any dispute between the Seller's Actuary and the Purchaser's Actuary concerning the determination or agreement of the Transfer Amount or of any other matters to be determined or agreed by them for the purposes of this Schedule shall, in the absence of agreement between them, be referred to an independent Actuary.
- (B) The independent Actuary shall be nominated jointly by the Seller and the Purchaser or, failing such nomination, shall be nominated by, and his terms of appointment agreed by, the President for the time being of The Institute of Actuaries at the instance of the party first applying to him.

8.2 Independent Actuary to act as expert and direct payment of costs

The independent Actuary so appointed shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator. His decision shall be final and binding. His costs shall be borne between the Seller of the one part and the Purchaser of the other part as the independent Actuary may direct.

9. No Assistance to be given by the Purchaser

9.1 No assistance to be given which would result in an amount larger than the Transfer Amount being payable

- (A) The Purchaser undertakes neither to take any action nor to assist, whether directly or indirectly, any person in any manner which would result in the Seller's Scheme having to pay a larger amount than the Transfer Amount to the Purchaser's Scheme.
- (B) The Purchaser agrees that this undertaking extends to the Purchaser and any member of the Purchaser's Group.

9.2 Purchaser's Scheme trust deed and rules to require Purchaser to approve acceptance of transfer payment

The Purchaser undertakes to the Seller:

- (A) that with effect from the Completion Date the trust deed and rules of the Purchaser's Scheme will require that the principal employer of the Purchaser's Scheme must approve the acceptance of any transfer payment to be made by the Seller's Scheme to the Purchaser's Scheme; and
- (B) that it will not give such approval to the extent that the total payment proposed to be made to the Purchaser's Scheme by the Seller's Scheme exceeds the Transfer Amount.

10. Calculation of Liability

In quantifying any liability which either party may incur or sustain arising out of or in connection with the breach by the other of any of the provisions of this Schedule, the parties agree that the Actuarial Assumptions shall be applied as nearly as may be and in default of agreement as to how they should apply, the disagreement shall be resolved in accordance with paragraph 8.

11. Third party rights

- 11.1 The provisions of paragraphs 2 to 8 inclusive of this Schedule confer a benefit on the persons specifically referred to in that provision (each a "Third Party") and, subject to paragraph 11.2, are intended to be enforceable by each Third Party by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 11.2 Notwithstanding paragraph 11.1, this Agreement may be rescinded or varied in any way and at any time by the parties to this Agreement without the consent of any Third Party.

12. Indemnities

- 12.1 The Purchaser undertakes to the Seller that it will comply, and will procure that the Company and each member of the Group complies, with the provisions of the Protected Person Regulations in relation to the Employees (and their spouses and dependants) who are members of the UUESPS immediately prior to Completion and agrees with the Seller (for itself and as agent and/or trustee for each member of the Seller's Group) that it will indemnify the Seller and each member of the Seller's Group (on an after tax basis) against any Liability brought or made against or incurred by the Seller or any member of the Seller's Group to the extent that Liability would not have been so brought, made against or incurred if the Purchaser, any member of the Purchaser's Group or any member of the Group had complied with the Protected Person Regulations.
- 12.2 The Seller undertakes to the Purchaser to pay to the Purchaser an amount equal to, and agrees with the Purchaser (for itself and as agent and/or trustee for each member of the Group and the Purchaser's Group) to indemnify the Purchaser, the Group and each member of the Purchaser's Group against any of the following to the extent incurred on or after the Completion Date:
 - (A) a sum equal to the amount of any contribution to the Seller's Scheme under section 75 or section 75 A of the Pensions Act 1995; and/or

- (B) any Liability to the Seller's Scheme in respect of any order, direction or notice (including contribution notices and financial support directions) made by the pensions regulator;
- (C) any Liability to make a payment to or contribution to the Seller's Scheme after Completion; and/or
- (D) any Liability in respect of any unapproved or unregistered unfunded retirement benefit payable to or in respect of Tom Drury to the extent such benefit relates to any period of service prior to the Completion Date.

12.3 For the purpose of this paragraph 12, "Liability" means all actions, proceedings, costs, claims, damages and expenses.

Annex A:
(The Actuary's letters)

1 Whitehall, Whitehall Road
 Leeds LS1 4HR
 0113 394 7602 Fax 0113 394 7699
 richard.giles@mercator.com www.mercator.com

[] January 2006
 Mr R Jones
 Punter Southall
 126 Jermyn Street
 London
 SW1Y 4UJ

Private and Confidential

Our ref. LICJV-UUPS:actuary's letter Edge.

Subject:
United Utilities Pension Scheme (the "UUPS")

Dear Richard

This is the Actuary's Letter referred to in Schedule 7 (Pensions) of the Agreement between VTX Bidco Limited and United Utilities PLC (the "Schedule").

This letter and its attaching appendices set out the method of determination of the Transfer Amount referred to in the above mentioned Schedule. In this letter the terms Completion Date, Seller's Scheme, Transferring Members and Actuarial Assumptions, have the meanings ascribed to them under the above mentioned Schedule.

Pension Liabilities

These shall be determined as the actuarial value (calculated in accordance with the Actuarial Assumptions) at the Completion Date of the aggregate of the benefits, whether prospective or contingent payable under the Seller's Scheme including the spouse's pension payable on death in service to or in respect of each of the Transferring Members by reference to his Pensionable Service credited under the Seller's Scheme before the Completion Date. For the purpose of the calculation of the Transfer Amount, benefits are those applying prior to the Completion Date and do not allow for any future changes to benefits after the Completion Date. Benefits exclude lump sum payments on death in service but the value of a return of a member's contributions will be included in the value of Pension Liabilities where this benefit applies.

Pension Liabilities include an allowance on the basis of the Actuarial Assumptions for projected increases in the rate of Pensionable Earnings of each of the Transferring Members from the Completion Date to Normal Pension Age under the Seller's Scheme or the assumed date of earlier death, withdrawal or retirement (ill-health and/or early and normal) and for increases in pensions when in payment and in deferred benefits before they come into payment.

For the avoidance of doubt:

- 1) when calculating the Pension Liabilities, no element of prospective or notional Pensionable Service after the date of calculation will be included in any event;
- 2) when calculating the Pension Liabilities, no allowance will be included for the enhanced terms available on severance;
- 3) Transferring Members is as defined in the Agreement and includes all active members within UUPS associated with the Company;
- 4) the calculation of Pension Liabilities for active members who have worked, or currently work, part time will be calculated using full time equivalent Pensionable Earnings and the proportion of full time hours actually worked;
- 5) when calculating Pension Liabilities no allowance for equalisation of GMPs will be included; and
- 6) terms that are not defined in this Actuary's Letter or the Schedule are, as defined in the clauses and rules of the UUPS.

The Actuarial Assumptions and other relevant details to be used in the calculation of the Pension Liabilities are described in Appendix A and Appendix B respectively.

Transfer Amount

The Transfer Amount means the sum of the Pension Liabilities in respect of each of the Transferring Members.

The Transfer Amount will be adjusted from the Completion Date up to the Payment Date by multiplication by the Timing Adjustment.

Timing Adjustment

The Timing Adjustment will be equal to the factor $(1+r1)$ where:

$r1$ is the return on the notional portfolio set out below between close of business on the working day immediately preceding the day following the Completion Date and the close of business on the working day immediately preceding the Payment Date.

100% in the iBoxx AA corporate bond over 15 years Index (total return).

Yours sincerely

Signed

Richard Giles FIA
Principal

Counter signed by

Signed

Richard Jones FIA

Copy : Sean Duxbury, United Utilities PLC

Appendix A – Actuarial Assumptions

Set out below are the Actuarial Assumptions to be used to determine the Transfer Amount referred to in the Actuary's Letter dated 13 January 2007. All decrements are independent rates.

- 1) Rate of interest
The gross annualised redemption yield at close of business on the last working day immediately preceding the day following the Completion Date on the iBoxx AA corporate bond over 15 years index.
- 2) Rate of price inflation
The rate of price inflation is calculated as $100 \times [(100 + N) / (100 + R) - 1.001]$ where N is the gross annualised redemption yield on the FTSE UK Gilts 20 year fixed interest index, and R is expressed as a percentage and derived by interpolation to obtain inflation 3% of the inflation 0% and the inflation 5% annualised real yields to redemption on the FTSE Actuaries UK Gilts index-linked over 5 years real yield indices at close of business on the last working day immediately preceding the day following the Completion Date.
- 3) Rate of inflationary salary increase to retirement, earlier death or withdrawal
Assumed rate of price inflation plus 1.0% per annum compound (see Note 1)
- 4) Rate of future Section 148 increase to retirement, earlier death or withdrawal
Assumed rate of price inflation plus 1.0% per annum compound (see Note 1)
- 5) Promotional scale (in addition to inflationary salary increases)
In accordance with the table in Appendix B
- 6) Rate of increase in Section 52A Orders
In line with the assumed rate of price inflation
- 7) Rate of annual increase of pension in payment in excess of the GMP in payment
In line with the assumed rate of price inflation.

"Tax Assessment"	means any assessment, demand, determination or other similar formal notice of a Tax Liability issued by or on behalf of any Tax Authority by virtue of which the Company, any of the Subsidiaries or any other person (including, in the context of clause 13 (Counter Covenant), the Covenantor or any of its subsidiaries) either is liable to make a payment of Tax or will, with the passing of time, become so liable (in the absence of any successful application to postpone any such payment) and shall also mean any self-assessment made by the Company, any of the Subsidiaries or any other person (including, in the context of clause 13 (Counter Covenant), the Covenantor or any of its subsidiaries) in respect of any amount of Tax which any of them either considers that it is liable to pay or considers that it will, with the passing of time, become liable to pay;
"Tax Authority"	means any taxing or other authority (whether within or outside the United Kingdom) competent to impose any Tax Liability;
"Tax Liability"	has the meaning given in sub-clause (ii)(a) of this clause 1 ;
"Tax Warranties"	means the Warranties set out in paragraphs 24 to 33 of Schedule 2 to the Agreement;
"United Utilities Group"	means United Utilities PLC and all of its subsidiaries (but excluding the Company and the Subsidiaries);
"VAT"	means value added tax as provided for in VATA 1994 and any other tax of a similar nature which is introduced in substitution for or in addition to such tax;
"VATA 1994"	means the Value Added Tax Act 1994;
"VAT Group"	means the group of companies of which the Covenantor is the representative member for VAT purposes; and
"Vertex Loan"	means the £100 million loan from the Covenantor to the Company advanced on 2 October 2006; and means the Warranties set out in Schedule 2 to the Agreement;

"Warranties"

- (ii) (a) references to any "Tax Liability" of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries shall mean, both liabilities of the Company or that Subsidiary to make actual or increased payments of Tax (or amounts in respect of Tax), regardless of whether any such liability shall have been discharged in whole or in part on or before Completion, and, subject to sub-cause 6.4(ii), shall also mean:-
- (1) the loss, or the setting off against Income, Profits or Gains or against any Tax otherwise chargeable, of any Relief (excluding the Pre-Management Accounts Date Losses) which would (were it not for the said loss or setting off) have been available to the Company or the relevant Subsidiary and which has been taken into account in computing (and so reducing) any provision for Tax which appears in the Management Accounts (or which, but for the presumed availability of such Relief, would have appeared in the Management Accounts) or has been treated as an asset of the Company or the relevant Subsidiary in preparing the Management Accounts;
 - (2) the loss, of a right to repayment of Tax which has been treated as, or been taken into account in computing, an asset of the Company or the relevant Subsidiary in preparing the Management Accounts or the use or setting off of any such right to repayment of Tax against any actual Tax Liability in respect of which the Purchaser would, but for that use or setting off, have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed;
 - (3) the use or setting off against Income, Profits or Gains which were earned, accrued or received on or before the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period ended on or before the Management Accounts Date or against any Tax otherwise chargeable in respect of an Event occurring (or deemed to occur) on or before the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period ended on or before the Management Accounts Date of any Relief which arises as a consequence of or by reference to an Event occurring (or deemed to occur) after the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period commencing after the Management Accounts Date and not as a consequence of or by reference to any Event occurring (or deemed to occur) on or before the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period ended on or before the Management Accounts Date in circumstances where, but for such use or setting off, the Company or the relevant Subsidiary would have had an actual Tax Liability in respect of which the Purchaser would have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed or would, in the absence of the limitations set out in sub-paragraph 1(A) of Schedule 3, have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed; and

(4) the use or setting off against any Tax otherwise chargeable in respect of an Event of the type referred to in sub-clause 2(ii) occurring (or deemed to occur) between the Management Accounts Date and Completion (inclusive) of any Relief which arises as a consequence of or by reference to an Event that is not of the type referred to in sub-clause 2(ii) occurring (or deemed to occur) after the Management Accounts Date in circumstances where, but for such use setting off, the Company or the relevant Subsidiary would have had an actual Tax Liability in respect of which the Purchaser would have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under sub-clause 2(ii) of this deed or would, in the absence of the limitations set out in sub-paragraph 1(A) of Schedule 3, have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed; and

(b) In any case falling within any of sub-paragraphs (ii)(a)(1), (ii)(a)(2), (ii)(a)(3) or (ii)(a)(4) of this paragraph, the amount that is to be treated for the purposes of this deed as a Tax Liability of the Company or the relevant Subsidiary (the "Deemed Tax Liability") shall be determined as follows:-

- (1) in a case which falls within sub-paragraph (ii)(a)(2) of this paragraph, the Deemed Tax Liability shall be the amount of the repayment that would have been obtained but for the loss or setting off mentioned in that sub-paragraph;
- (2) in a case which falls within sub-paragraph (ii)(a)(1), (ii)(a)(3) or (ii)(a)(4) of this paragraph and where the Relief that was the subject of the loss, use or setting off mentioned in that sub-paragraph was a deduction from or offset against Tax, the Deemed Tax Liability shall be the amount of that Relief; and
- (3) in a case which falls within sub-paragraph (ii)(a)(3) or (ii)(a)(4) of this paragraph and where the Relief that was the subject of the loss, use or setting off mentioned in that sub-paragraph was a deduction from or offset against Income, Profits or Gains, the Deemed Tax Liability shall be:
 - (x) if the Relief was the subject of such a loss, the amount of Tax which would, on the basis of the rates of Tax current at the date of the loss, have been saved but for the loss (or, if the Relief never existed, the date of Completion); or,
 - (y) if the Relief was the subject of such a setting off, the amount of Tax which has been saved in consequence of the setting off;
- (4) in a case which falls within sub-paragraph (ii)(a)(1) of this paragraph, and where the Relief that was the subject of the loss, use or setting off mentioned in that sub-paragraph was a deduction from or offset against Income, Profits or Gains; the Deemed Tax Liability shall be 10% of the Relief so lost, used or set off;

(iii) references to:-

- (a) "Income, Profits or Gains" shall include development value and any other standard or measure for the purposes of any Tax and shall also include any income, profits or gains which are deemed to be or treated as having been earned, accrued or received for the purposes of any Tax;
- (b) Income, Profits or Gains (as defined in sub-clause (iii) Error! Reference source not found. of this clause) as being earned, accrued or received on or before a particular date or in respect of a particular period shall mean Income, Profits or Gains which are regarded as having been, or are deemed to have been, earned, accrued or received on or before that date or in respect of that period for the purposes of any Tax;
- (c) any "Distribution" shall include anything which is, or is deemed to be, a dividend or distribution for the purposes of any Tax and shall also include any other Event which gives rise to an obligation to account for advance corporation tax or amounts corresponding to or similar to advance corporation tax;
- (d) any Distribution as occurring on or before a particular date shall include any Distribution which has fallen due to be made on or before that date for the purposes of any Tax; and
- (e) any "subsidiary of the Covenantor" shall mean any company of which the Covenantor has control for the purposes of section 416 ICTA; and

(iv) unless otherwise specified:-

- (a) references to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs and sub-paragraphs are to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs and sub-paragraphs of this deed;
- (b) a reference to any statute or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the same as it may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, modified or re-enacted, except to the extent that any amendment or modification made after the date of the Agreement would increase the liability of the Covenantor under this deed;
- (c) references to a "person" shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, government, state or agency of a state or any joint venture, association or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);

- (d) references to a "company" shall be construed so as to include any company, corporation or other body corporate, wherever and however incorporated or established;
- (e) the expression "body corporate" shall have the meaning given in the Companies Act 1985;
- (f) references to writing shall include any modes of reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form;
- (g) references to times of the day are to London time;
- (h) headings to clauses are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of this deed;
- (i) references to any English legal term for any action, remedy, method of judicial proceeding, legal document, legal status, court, official, or any legal concept or thing shall in respect of any jurisdiction other than England be deemed to include what most nearly approximates in that jurisdiction to the English legal term;
- (j) the rule known as the ejusdem generis rule shall not apply and accordingly general words introduced by the word "other" shall not be given a restrictive meaning by reason of the fact that they are preceded by words indicating a particular class of acts, matters or things;
- (k) general words shall not be given a restrictive meaning by reason of the fact that they are followed by particular examples intended to be embraced by the general words;
- (l) references to any specific form of Tax or Relief which exists in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to include a reference to any equivalent or substantially equivalent Tax or Relief in any other jurisdiction; and
- (m) references to a loss of a Relief shall include any loss, non-availability, reduction, disallowance, cancellation or other event by which a Relief ceases to be available in full to be used by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries.

2. Covenant

Subject to the provisions of clause 3 (Limits on Clause 2) and clause 4 (Exclusions), the Covenantor hereby covenants with the Purchaser to pay to the Purchaser (so far as possible by way of repayment of the consideration payable under the Agreement for the Shares) an amount equal to any of the following:-

- (i) any Tax Liability of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries arising:-

- (a) as a consequence of or by reference to any Event which occurred on or before the Management Accounts Date or was deemed to occur on or before the Management Accounts Date for the purposes of any Tax; or
 - (b) in respect of or by reference to any Income, Profits or Gains which were earned, accrued or received on or before the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period ended on or before the Management Accounts Date; or
 - (c) in consequence of any person other than the Company, any of the Subsidiaries, the Purchaser or any person who controls, or is controlled by, the Purchaser ("control" having the meaning ascribed to it in section 840 ICTA) making a payment after Completion (otherwise than where directed to do so by, or with the express written agreement of, the Purchaser or the Company) to any person to the extent that, and in circumstances where, such payment can reasonably be taken to constitute remuneration for acts undertaken for, or service rendered to, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries by any current or former officer or employee of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries during any period ending on or prior to Completion; or
- (ii) any Tax Liability of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries arising as a consequence of or by reference to any of the following occurring or being deemed to occur on or before Completion:-
- (a) any Distribution; or
 - (b) the disposal or acquisition of any asset (including trading stock) or the supply or receipt of any service or business facility of any kind (including a loan of money or the letting, hiring or licensing of any tangible or intangible property) in circumstances where the consideration actually received (if any) for such disposal or supply is more or less than the consideration deemed to have been provided or received for the purposes of any Tax; or
 - (c) the Company or any of the Subsidiaries ceasing, or being deemed to cease, to be a member of any group of companies or associated with any other company for the purposes of any Tax; or
 - (d) any Event or the earning of any Income, Profits or Gains which results in the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries becoming liable to pay or bear a Tax Liability chargeable directly or primarily against or attributable directly or primarily to another person (not being the Company or any of the Subsidiaries); or
 - (e) any other Event which gives rise to a Tax Liability on deemed (as opposed to actual) Income, Profits or Gains (any liability of the Covenantor to make a payment in respect of a Tax Liability under this sub-clause 2(ii)(e) may be reduced or extinguished by the Covenantor procuring that a balancing payment pursuant to paragraph 7A of Schedule 28AA ICTA is made to the Company or a relevant Subsidiary (or, alternatively, any balancing payment that the Purchaser is required to procure under sub-clause 6.4 may be reduced by an amount equal to such Tax Liability, and any such reduction shall have the effect of reducing or extinguishing any Liability of the Covenantor to make a payment under this sub-clause 2(ii)(e)), but only, in the case of any Event referred to in sub-clause 2(ii)(b), to the extent that the Tax Liability is attributable to the difference between the consideration referred to in that paragraph as being actually received and the consideration so referred to as being deemed to have been received for the purposes of any Tax;

(iii) any Tax Liability of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries arising as a consequence of or by reference to any of the following occurring or being deemed to occur at any time after Completion:-

- (a) the disposal by any Relevant Company of any asset or of any interest in or right over any asset; or
- (b) the making by any Relevant Company of any such payment or deemed payment as constitutes a chargeable payment for the purposes of section 214 ICTA; or
- (c) any Relevant Company ceasing to be resident in the United Kingdom for the purposes of any Tax; or
- (d) any Relevant Company failing to pay the whole of the Tax charged by any Tax Assessment made in respect of that Relevant Company within six months of the date of that Tax Assessment, and, for the purposes of this sub-clause, the term "Relevant Company" shall mean any company, other than the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, that may be treated for the purposes of any Tax as being, or as having at any time been, either a member of the same group of companies as the Covenantor or otherwise associated with the Covenantor; or

- (iv) any liability of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries to make a payment, or a refund of a previous payment, to any member of the United Utilities Group in respect of any Group Relief that has been surrendered to it, other than any payments or refunds to which clause 12 (Group Relief) applies; or
- (v) any reasonable out-of-pocket legal and accounting costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the Purchaser, the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries in connection either with any such Tax Liability as is mentioned in sub-clauses 2(i) to 2(iv) or with any Claim therefore or in taking or defending any action under this deed.

3. Limits on Clause 2

3.1 The covenant given in clause 2 (Covenant) shall not cover any Tax Liability of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries and no liability shall arise under the Tax Warranties:-

- (i) to the extent that provision or reserve in respect of that Tax Liability was made in the Management Accounts or has been included in calculating creditors or deducted in calculating debtors in the Management Accounts or has otherwise been taken specifically account of or reflected in the Management Accounts (including when the discharge of such Tax Liability has been taken into account in the Management Accounts); or
- (ii) to the extent that that Tax Liability arises or is increased as a result only of any increase in rates of Tax or any change in law or practice or any withdrawal of any extra-statutory concession by a Tax Authority or any change in accountancy practice or principles, being an increase, withdrawal or change made, in any such case, after Completion with retrospective effect; or
- (iii) to the extent that that Tax Liability would not have arisen but for a voluntary transaction, action or omission carried out or effected by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries at any time after Completion, other than any such transaction, action or omission:-
 - (a) carried out or effected under a legally binding commitment created on or before Completion; or
 - (b) carried out or effected in the ordinary course of the trade carried on by the Company or the relevant Subsidiary as at Completion;
- (iv) to the extent that that Tax Liability would not have arisen or would have been reduced but for a failure or omission on the part of the Purchaser, the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries after Completion to make any election or claim any Relief, the making or claiming of which was taken into account in computing the provision or reserve for Tax in the Management Accounts full details of which are clear from those Management Accounts or have been included in the Disclosure Letter or otherwise notified in writing to the Purchaser by the Covenantor at least ten Business Days prior to the statutory time limit for submitting such claim or election expires; or
- (v) to the extent that that Tax Liability arises by reason of a voluntary disclaimer by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries after Completion of the whole or part of any allowance to which any of them is entitled under Part II of the Capital Allowances Act 1990 or under Part 2 of the Capital Allowances Act 2001 or by reason of the revocation by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries after Completion of any claim for Relief made (whether provisionally or otherwise) by any of them prior to Completion save where contemplated by the Management Accounts; or

- (vi) to the extent that that Tax Liability has been made good by insurers or otherwise compensated for without cost or loss to the Purchaser, the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries;
- (vii) to the extent that that Tax Liability arises as a result of any changes after Completion in the bases, methods or policies of accounting of the Purchaser, the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries, except where such change is necessary in order to comply with generally accepted accounting principles current at Completion in circumstances where the relevant accounts did not meet such standards; or
- (viii) to the extent that any Income, Profits or Gains to which that Tax Liability is attributable were actually earned or received by or actually accrued to the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries but were not (in either such case) reflected in the Management Accounts and remained at the disposal of the relevant Company or Subsidiary at Completion; or
- (ix) to the extent that that Tax Liability arises or is increased as a direct consequence of any failure by the Purchaser, the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries to comply with any of their respective obligations under clauses 5 (Mitigation), 8 (Claims Procedure), 9 (Tax Returns), 12 (Surrender of Group Relief) or 13 (Counter Covenant), save where the Covenantor has otherwise been fully compensated for such failure; or
- (x) to the extent that that Tax Liability is a liability to pay stamp duty.

3.2 No liability shall arise to the Covenantor in respect of any liability to Tax arising out of a breach of the No Leakage Undertakings to the extent that sub-clauses 3.1(iii) and 3.1(vi) would apply to limit the liability of the Covenantor had such liability been a Tax Liability for the purposes of this deed.

4. Exclusions

The provisions of Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's Liability) to the Agreement shall apply to claims under this deed to the extent expressly stated in that Schedule and not otherwise.

5. Mitigation

The Purchaser shall, at the expense and direction in writing of the Covenantor and without prejudice to the Purchaser's right to make a consequential claim under this deed in respect of a Deemed Tax Liability, procure that the Company and/or the Subsidiaries take all such reasonable steps as the Covenantor may require to:-

- (i) use in the manner hereinafter mentioned all such Reliefs arising as a consequence of or by reference to any Event occurring (or deemed to occur) on or before the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period ended on or before the Management Accounts Date and not as a consequence of or by reference to an Event occurring (or deemed for Tax purposes to occur) after the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period commencing after the Management Accounts Date as are available to the Company and/or the Subsidiaries to reduce or eliminate any Tax Liability in respect of which the Purchaser would have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed (such Reliefs including, without limitation, Reliefs made available to a company by means of a surrender from another company, other than the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries), the said use being to effect the reduction or elimination of any such Tax Liability to the extent permitted by law, and to provide to the Covenantor, at the Covenantor's expense, a certificate from the auditors (for the time being) of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries confirming that any such Reliefs have been so used;

- (ii) make all such claims and elections specified by the Covenantor in respect of any accounting period of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries commencing before the Management Accounts Date as have the effect of reducing or eliminating any such Tax Liability as is mentioned in paragraph (i), provided that no such claim or election, shall require the Company or any of the Subsidiaries to use any Relief which arises solely as a consequence of or by reference to an Event occurring (or deemed for Tax purposes to occur) after the Management Accounts Date or in respect of a period commencing after the Management Accounts Date, and provided further that where more than one claim or election could possibly be made which, in each case, would give rise to the same result for the Covenantor, the Purchaser may determine at its absolute discretion which of those claims or elections should ultimately be made;
- (iii) allow the Covenantor to reduce or eliminate any such Tax Liability as is mentioned in paragraph (i) by surrendering, or procuring the surrender by any company other than the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, of Group Relief or advance corporation tax to the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries to the extent permitted by law but without any liability arising on the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries to provide any consideration to the United Utilities Group for such surrender; and
- (iv) allow the Covenantor to reduce or eliminate any such Tax Liability as is mentioned in paragraph (i) by joining in a valid election under section 171A or 179A Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 with any member of the United Utilities Group specified by the Covenantor to the extent such an election is permitted by law but without any liability arising on the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries to provide any consideration to the United Utilities Group for such election.

6. Over-Provisions, Reliefs, Balancing Payments Etc

- 6.1 If the auditors for the time being of the Company shall certify (at the request and expense of the Covenantor) that any provision for Tax in the Management Accounts (excluding any provision for deferred Tax) has proved to be an over-provision, then the amount of such over-provision shall be dealt with in accordance with sub-clause 6.3.
- 6.2 If the auditors for the time being of the Company shall certify (at the request and expense of the Covenantor) that any Tax Liability which has resulted in a payment having been made or becoming due from the Covenantor under this deed or pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties or No Leakage Undertakings has given rise to a Relief for the Company or any of the Subsidiaries which has been utilised by the Company or a relevant Subsidiary (on the assumption that such Relief is used in priority to all other available Reliefs with which it is fungible) and which would not otherwise have arisen, then the amount of that Relief shall be dealt with in accordance with sub-clause 6.3; provided that if the Relief in question is a deduction from or offset against Income, Profits or Gains, the amount to be so dealt with shall be a sum equal to the amount of Tax that has been saved through the use of that Relief.

6.3 Where it is provided under sub-clause 6.1 or 6.2 that any amount (the "Relevant Amount") is to be dealt with in accordance with this sub-clause:-

- (i) the Relevant Amount shall first be set off against any payment then due from the Covenantor under this deed or pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings; and
- (ii) to the extent there is an excess and such excess relates to a Relief referred to in sub-clause 6.2, a refund shall be made as soon as practicable to the Covenantor of any previous payment or payments made by the Covenantor under this deed or pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings and not previously refunded under this clause up to the amount of such excess; and
- (iii) to the extent that a Relevant Amount referred to in paragraph (i) of this sub-clause that relates to an over-provision referred to in sub-clause 6.1 or an excess referred to in paragraph (ii) of this sub-clause is not exhausted under those paragraphs, the remainder of such Relevant Amount or excess shall be carried forward and set off against any future payment or payments which become due from the Covenantor under this deed or pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings.

6.4 If, following consultation between the Covenantor and the Purchaser pursuant to sub-clause 9.4 regarding the Tax returns of the Company for the accounting period current at Completion, the Covenantor submits its Tax return for the accounting period current at Completion on the basis that the Covenantor suffers (or would, but for the utilisation of any Relief, suffer) an increased liability to Tax by reason of an adjustment being made to a provision of the Vertex Loan or the Group Loan under Schedule 28AA ICTA in circumstances where any liability to Tax of the Company (other than any liability to make an actual payment of Tax in respect of which the Purchaser would have otherwise been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed or in respect of the Tax Warranties) has been reduced or extinguished, or any Relief for the Company has arisen or increased (and such Relief has not been surrendered by way of Group Relief to a member of the United Utilities Group), in each case as a result of such adjustment and assuming that the Company has made a claim under paragraph 6 Schedule 28AA ICTA for its profits and losses in respect of the Vertex Loan or the Group Loan to be computed for tax purposes on an arm's length basis, then the Purchaser shall procure that the Company shall (within five Business Days prior to the date on which the Covenantor would (or would but for the availability of a Relief) be liable to pay the Tax in question) either:

- (i) to the extent that the liability to Tax for the Company has been reduced as a result of the adjustment, pay an amount equal to the amount by which the liability to Tax of the Company is reduced as a result of the adjustment, to the Covenantor by way of a balancing payment pursuant to paragraph 7A of Schedule 28AA ICTA; or
- (ii) where a Relief has arisen to the Company as a result of the adjustment, surrender that Relief to the Covenantor (or at its discretion, any member of the United Utilities Group) to the extent permissible by law, or to the extent that such Relief cannot be lawfully surrendered to any member of the United Utilities Group, procure that the Company or any Subsidiary lawfully surrenders Reliefs to the Covenantor (or, at its discretion, any member of the United Utilities Group), in each case in accordance with clause 12, and without giving rise to a Deemed Tax Liability for the purposes of this deed, with the effect that the Tax saved by the United Utilities Group is equal to the unrelieved proportion of the Tax borne by the Covenantor as a result of such adjustment.

6.5 Where any such certification as is mentioned in sub-clause 6.1 or 6.2 has been made, the Covenantor or the Purchaser or the Company may request the auditors for the time being of the Company (at the expense of the company making the request) to review such certification in the light of all relevant circumstances, including any facts which have become known only since such certification, and to certify whether such certification remains correct or whether, in the light of those circumstances, the amount that was the subject of such certification should be amended.

6.6 If any adjustment referred to in clause 6.4 is subsequently amended by a Tax Authority, or the auditors certify under sub-clause 6.5 that an amount previously certified should be amended, that amended amount shall (as appropriate) be either:-

- (i) substituted for the purposes of sub-clause 6.3 as the Relevant Amount in respect of the certification in question in place of the amount originally certified; or
- (ii) substituted for the purposes of sub-clause 6.4 as the amount of the liability to Tax, or the Relief, in respect of which the balancing payment should be made, and such adjusting payment (if any) as may be required by virtue of the above-mentioned substitution shall be made as soon as practicable by the Covenantor or (as the case may be) to the Covenantor.

6.7 For the purposes of sub-clause 6.2, neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries shall be regarded as utilising a Relief until the last date upon which the relevant Company or Subsidiary would have been obliged to make an actual payment of Tax which it would otherwise have had to have paid but for the Relief.

7. Recovery from Other Persons

If, in the event of any payment becoming due from the Covenantor to the Purchaser under clause 2 (Covenant) or pursuant to any breach of the Tax Warranties, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries either is immediately entitled at the due date for the making of that payment to recover from any person (not being the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries (or any officer or employee of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries) but including any Tax Authority) any sum in respect of the Tax Liability that has resulted in that payment becoming due from the Covenantor, or at some subsequent date becomes entitled to make such a recovery, then the Purchaser shall procure that the Company or the Subsidiary entitled to make that recovery shall promptly notify the Covenantor of its entitlement and shall, if so required by the Covenantor and if the Covenantor indemnifies and secures the Purchaser to the Purchaser's satisfaction against the relevant Tax Liability, any interest or penalties in relation to that Tax Liability, and all reasonable costs and expenses which the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries incur as a result of such action and at the Covenantor's sole expense, take all reasonable steps to enforce that recovery (keeping the Covenantor fully and promptly informed of the progress of any action taken); and if the Covenantor has made a payment under clause 2 (Covenant) or pursuant to any breach of the Tax Warranties in respect of the Tax Liability in question, the Purchaser shall account to the Covenantor for whichever is the lesser of:-

- (i) any sum so recovered by the Company or the relevant Subsidiary in respect of that Tax Liability including any interest or repayment supplement paid by the Tax Authority, or other person on or in respect thereof but less any Tax chargeable on the Company or the relevant Subsidiary in respect of that recovery and/or that interest and less any costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the Purchaser, the Company or the relevant Subsidiary in obtaining such recovery; and
- (ii) the amount paid by the Covenantor under clause 2 (Covenant), pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties in respect of that Tax Liability save to the extent that such amount constitutes a reimbursement of costs and/or expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries in obtaining such amounts from the Covenantor.

8. Claims Procedure

- 8.1 Upon the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries becoming aware, or upon the date when the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries ought reasonably to have become aware, of a Claim relevant for the purposes of this deed or of any claim, action or demand against the Company or the Subsidiary which has or is likely to give rise to any claim to be made by the Purchaser under this deed or pursuant to a breach of the Tax Warranties or the No Leakage Undertakings (any such Claim, claim, action or demand being a "Relevant Claim") then the Purchaser shall, or, as the case may be, shall procure that the Company or the relevant Subsidiary shall forthwith (and, in any event within ten Business Days) give written notice of the Relevant Claim and a copy of any relevant Tax Assessment to the Covenantor; provided that the giving of such notice within the time limit referred to above shall not be a condition precedent to the Covenantor being liable to make a payment in respect of such a Relevant Claim under this deed.
- 8.2 Subject to sub-clause 8.3 and 8.5 below, the Purchaser shall procure that the Company and/or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries take (subject to the Company and/or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries being indemnified to their reasonable satisfaction by the Covenantor against all reasonable losses, out-of-pocket costs, damages and expenses, including interest on overdue Tax and penalties, which are or may be incurred thereby) such reasonable action and give such information and assistance as is reasonably necessary in connection with the affairs of the Company and/or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries as the Covenantor may reasonably by written notice request, following consultation with the Purchaser and having taken into account any reasonable comments of the Purchaser (having regard to the Covenantor's liability under this deed and any material effect on the quantum of the future liability to Tax for any member of the United Utilities Group or for the Purchaser, the Company and/or the Subsidiaries), to avoid, resist, appeal or compromise the Relevant Claim; PROVIDED THAT the Purchaser shall not be obliged to procure that either the Company or any of the Subsidiaries appeal against any Tax Assessment beyond the first appellate body unless the Covenantor, within 30 Business Days of the judgment of the relevant body against which it wishes to appeal, delivers to the Purchaser written instructions to appeal, together with an opinion from leading Tax Counsel who has been approved by the Purchaser (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and who has specialised in Tax matters, for a minimum of ten years; that the appeal will, on the balance of probabilities, be successful and PROVIDED FURTHER that the Purchaser shall not be obliged to procure that either the Company or any of the Subsidiaries make any settlement or compromise of the relevant Tax Liability on terms that are materially inconsistent with what, in the opinion of leading Tax Counsel (approved by the Purchaser on the terms outlined above), would be the natural outcome of the dispute in question and/or normal industry practice, in circumstances where such settlement or compromise is likely to materially increase the quantum of the future liability to Tax of the Purchaser, the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, provided that the Purchaser shall procure that either the Company or any of the Subsidiaries shall be obliged to make such settlement or compromise in circumstances where they are indemnified by the Covenantor to the Purchaser's reasonable satisfaction against such future increased liability.

- 8.3. The actions which the Covenantor may reasonably request under sub-clause 8.2 shall include (without limitation) the Company and/or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries applying to postpone (so far as legally possible) the payment of any Tax and/or allowing the Covenantor to take on or take over at its own expense (in addition to the indemnity referred to in sub-clause 2 above) the conduct of all or any proceedings of whatsoever nature arising in connection with the Relevant Claim and; if the Covenantor takes on or takes over the conduct of proceedings, the Purchaser shall provide and shall procure that the Company and/or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries provide such information and assistance as the Covenantor may reasonably require in connection with the preparation for and conduct of those proceedings, but such assistance shall not include more than two employees or directors of the Company or Subsidiary dedicating more than 5 hours of their time (per employee or director) to the proceedings or the employees or directors of such Company or Subsidiary dedicating more than 50 hours of their time (in aggregate) to the proceedings, without the Covenantor making suitable payment to the Purchaser for the time dedicated in excess of such limits at such hourly rate to be agreed between the Covenantor and the Purchaser, acting in good faith, in advance and in writing.
- 8.4 Each party shall keep the other promptly informed of any relevant developments and all material correspondence with the relevant Tax Authority in respect of any appeal or other action taken pursuant to sub-clause 8.2, and shall not send any material correspondence to such relevant Tax Authority without first sending it to the other, and before sending such correspondence to the relevant Tax Authority shall consider in good faith all reasonable comments of the other party relating to such correspondence provided that such comments are made promptly and in any case within 10 Business Days of receiving such draft correspondence from the other party.

8.5 If the Covenantor elects to have control of a Claim or claim, action or demand pursuant to sub-clause 8.2 above:

- (i) the Covenantor shall use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that proceedings are progressed in a timely fashion; and
- (ii) the Covenantor shall make no settlement or compromise of the relevant Tax Liability which is likely to materially adversely affect any future Tax Liability of the Purchaser, other than on the terms referred to in sub-clause 8.2.

8.6 Notwithstanding any request made by the Covenantor pursuant to sub-clause 8.2, the Purchaser or the Company shall be entitled to admit, compromise, settle, discharge or otherwise deal with any Relevant Claim without reference to the Covenantor and on such terms as it may, in its absolute discretion, think fit and without prejudice to any right or remedy it may have under this deed.

- (i) If written notice is served on the Company or the Purchaser by the Covenantor to the effect that it considers that the Relevant Claim should no longer be resisted;
- (ii) if, prior to the earlier of (a) 15 Business Days from the Purchaser issuing a notice pursuant to sub-clause 8.1, and (b) 6 Business Days prior to the last date on which an appeal may be made against the Tax Liability to which the Relevant Claim relates (provided that the Covenantor has had the notice pursuant to sub-clause 8.1 before the date that is ten Business Days before the last date for making the appeal referred to earlier), the Covenantor has not made a valid request pursuant to sub-clause 8.2;
- (iii) upon the expiry of any period prescribed by applicable legislation for the making of an appeal against either the Relevant Claim or the decision of any court or tribunal in respect of any such Relevant Claim;
- (iv) if, within 15 Business Days of the Purchaser issuing a written notice to the Covenantor requiring the Covenantor to clarify or explain the terms of any request made by the Covenantor under sub-clause 8.2, written clarification or explanation reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser has not been provided;
- (v) if a Tax Authority issues an assessment to a Group Company on the basis that while the relevant Group Company was under the control of the Covenantor, there was any fraudulent act or failure to act by that Group Company or the Covenantor in connection with a Tax Liability;
- (vi) if the Covenantor commits any material irremediable breach of its obligations referred to in sub-clauses 8.3 or 8.4; or

- (vii) if the Covenantor commits any material remediable breach of its obligations referred to in sub-clauses 8.3 or 8.4 and fails to remedy such breach within 15 Business Days following the service on the Covenantor of a written notice by the Purchaser specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied.

9. Tax Returns

- 9.1 The Covenantor or its duly authorised agent shall, at its expense and as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, at least 15 Business Days in advance of the deadline for the submission of such Tax returns without incurring penalties and/or interest, prepare the Tax returns of the Company and the Subsidiaries for all accounting periods ended on or prior to Completion, to the extent that the same shall not have been prepared before Completion.
- 9.2 The Purchaser shall procure that the Company and the Subsidiaries shall cause the returns mentioned in sub-clause 9.1 to be authorised, signed and submitted to the appropriate authority without amendment or with such amendments as the Purchaser reasonably considers necessary and to which the Covenantor agrees (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and the Purchaser shall give the Covenantor or its agent all such assistance as may be required to agree those returns with the appropriate Tax Authorities;

PROVIDED THAT the Purchaser shall not be obliged to procure that either the Company or any of the Subsidiaries take any such action as is mentioned in this sub-clause in relation to any Tax return that is not true, correct and accurate in all material respects.

- 9.3 The Covenantor or its duly authorised agent, shall prepare all documentation and deal with all matters (including correspondence) relating to the Tax returns of the Company and the Subsidiaries for all accounting periods ended on or prior to Completion; in each case as soon as reasonably practicable, shall keep the Purchaser fully and promptly informed of all developments relevant to those returns, documents or matters and the Purchaser shall procure that the Company and the Subsidiaries shall afford the Covenantor, at its expense, such reasonable access on reasonable prior notice and within business hours to their books, accounts and records as are relevant for such purpose as is necessary and reasonable to enable the Covenantor or its duly authorised agent to prepare those returns and conduct matters relating thereto in accordance with the Covenantor's rights under this clause 9.
- 9.4 The Purchaser or its duly authorised agent shall prepare all documentation and deal with all matters (including correspondence) relating to the Tax returns of the Company and the Subsidiaries for all accounting periods ending after Completion;

PROVIDED THAT, in relation only to the corporation Tax affairs of the relevant Company or Subsidiary for the accounting period current at Completion, the Purchaser or its duly authorised agent shall prepare any Tax returns and related computations in advance of the deadline for the submission of such Tax returns and computations without incurring penalties and/or interest, and:-

- (i) to the extent that the Covenantor has notified the Purchaser reasonably in advance of the Purchaser or its duly authorised agent preparing any documentation or correspondence under this sub-clause 9.4, make all such claims and elections specified by the Covenantor that have the effect of increasing the amount of Group Relief available to be surrendered by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to clause 12 (Surrender of Group Relief);
- (ii) regardless of whether the Covenantor has notified the Purchaser pursuant to sub-clause (i) above, provide to the Covenantor, not less than 15 Business Days before the date of intended submission, a copy of any Tax returns and related computations (together with a copy of any supporting material and material correspondence received) and any relevant material correspondence which it is proposed be submitted after Completion to any Tax Authority, together with details of the date on which the same is intended to be submitted (such date to be before the deadline for the submission of such Tax returns and computations without incurring penalties and/or interest);
- (iii) consider and take into account any reasonable comments made no later than five Business Days prior to the date of intended submission by or on behalf of the Covenantor in relation to any such return, computation or correspondence mentioned in sub-clause (ii) above before submission to the Tax Authority; and
- (iv) without prejudice to the generality of sub-clause (iii) above, make any such reasonable amendments to any such return, computation or correspondence mentioned in sub-clause (ii) above as the Covenantor may reasonably request to the extent that such amendments relate to:
- (a) any matter that is relevant in determining the availability and/or quantum of Group Relief that may be surrendered by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to clause 12 (Surrender of Group Relief); or
 - (b) the Vertex Loan or the Group Loan, provided that the Purchaser shall not be obliged to make any amendment to a Tax Return that is not in the Purchaser's reasonable opinion, true and accurate in all material respects.

9.5 Nothing done by the Company or by any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to this clause shall in any respect restrict or reduce any rights the Purchaser may have to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed in respect of any such Tax Liability as is mentioned in clause 2 (Covenant).

9.6 If, in the course of the preparation of the returns mentioned in sub-clause 9.1, or in correspondence pertaining to one or more such returns, the Covenantor becomes aware that a Relevant Claim may arise or has arisen for which the Covenantor may be liable pursuant to this deed, the Covenantor shall promptly notify the Purchaser of that actual or potential Tax Liability and from that time, the provisions of sub-clauses 8.2 to 8.5 (and not this clause 9) shall apply to any further correspondence, returns or proceedings relating to that or those returns.

9.7 If the Covenantor is in material breach of its obligations under this clause 9 (other than a delay in submitting corporation tax returns and related computations arising as a result of the absence of relevant signed accounts), which is not rectified within 15 Business Days of the delivery of written notice of the breach by the Purchaser to the Covenantor, the Purchaser may, at the Covenantor's expense, take control of the preparation of any relevant returns or the correspondence relating to those returns.

9.8 If there is a delay in the Purchaser submitting corporation tax returns and related computations for the period referred to in sub-clause 9.4 which prejudices the Covenantor's ability to extract Reliefs from the Company or any of the Subsidiaries by way of Group Relief pursuant to clause 12, the Covenantor may, at the Purchaser's expense, take control of the preparation of any Tax returns related to the accounting period current at Completion or the correspondence relating to those returns at such time as is reasonably required in order to ensure that the relevant surrenders of Group Relief are validly made.

10. Due Date of Payment

10.1 Where the Covenantor becomes liable to make any payment under clause 2 (Covenant) the due date for the making of that payment shall be:-

- (i) in a case that involves an actual payment of Tax by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries, the later of:-
- (a) the date following five Business Days after the date on which the Covenantor receives written notice of such Tax Liability from the Purchaser, the Company or a Subsidiary; and
 - (b) the date that is three Business Days before the last date on which the Company or the relevant Subsidiary would have had to have paid to the appropriate Tax Authority the Tax that has given rise to the Covenantor's liability under this deed in order to avoid incurring a liability to interest or a charge or penalty in respect of that Tax Liability; or
- (ii) in a case falling within either of sub-paragraphs (1), (a)(2), (a)(3) or (a)(4) of sub-clause (ii) of clause 1 (Interpretation) the later of:-
- (a) the date falling five Business Days after the date when the Covenantor has been notified by the Company or the Purchaser that a claim has been issued in respect of the Relief lost, used or set off or the auditors for the time being of the Company have certified, at the request of the Purchaser or the Company, that the Covenantor has a liability for a determinable amount under clause 2 (Covenant); and shall apply to any further correspondence, returns or proceedings relating to that or those returns.

11/10/20

- 9.7 If the Covenantor is in material breach of its obligations under this clause 9 (other than a delay in submitting corporation tax returns and related computations arising as a result of the absence of relevant signed accounts), which is not rectified within 15 Business Days of the delivery of written notice of the breach by the Purchaser to the Covenantor, the Purchaser may, at the Covenantor's expense, take control of the preparation of any relevant returns or the correspondence relating to those returns.
- 9.8 If there is a delay in the Purchaser submitting corporation tax returns and related computations for the period referred to in sub-clause 9.4 which prejudices the Covenantor's ability to extract Reliefs from the Company or any of the Subsidiaries by way of Group Relief pursuant to clause 12, the Covenantor may, at the Purchaser's expense, take control of the preparation of any Tax returns related to the accounting period current at Completion or the correspondence relating to those returns at such time as is reasonably required in order to ensure that the relevant surrenders of Group Relief are validly made.

10. Due Date of Payment

- 10.1 Where the Covenantor becomes liable to make any payment under clause 2 (Covenant) the due date for the making of that payment shall be:-
- (i) In a case that involves an actual payment of Tax by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries, the later of:-
- (a) the date following five Business Days after the date on which the Covenantor receives written notice of such Tax Liability from the Purchaser, the Company or a Subsidiary; and
 - (b) the date that is three Business Days before the last date on which the Company or the relevant Subsidiary would have had to have paid to the appropriate Tax Authority the Tax that has given rise to the Covenantor's liability under this deed in order to avoid incurring a liability to interest or a charge or penalty in respect of that Tax Liability; or
- (ii) in a case falling within either of sub-paragraphs (a)(1), (a)(2), (a)(3) or (a)(4) of sub-clause (ii) of clause 1 (Interpretation) the later of:-
- (a) the date falling five Business Days after the date when the Covenantor has been notified by the Company or the Purchaser that a claim has been issued in respect of the Relief lost, used or set off or the auditors for the time being of the Company have certified, at the request of the Purchaser or the Company, that the Covenantor has a liability for a determinable amount under clause 2 (Covenant); and

- (b) the last date on which the Company or the Relevant Subsidiary would have had to have paid to the appropriate Tax Authority Tax for the period in which the relevant Relief was lost, used or set off, or, in the case of a Relief that never existed, the date of Completion (assuming that the relevant Company or Subsidiary has Tax capacity for these purposes).
- 10.2 If any payment required to be made by the Covenantor under this deed is not made by the due date for the making thereof, then, except such part of the Covenantor's payment in respect of a liability under clause 2 (Covenant) that compensates the Purchaser for the late payment by virtue of its extending to interest and penalties, that payment shall carry interest from that due date until the date when the payment is actually made at a rate one per cent. above the base rate from time to time of Lloyds TSB Bank plc.
- 11. Deductions from Payments, Etc.
- 11.1 All sums payable by the Covenantor to the Purchaser under this deed shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever, save only as may be required by law.
- 11.2 If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any of the sums payable as mentioned in sub-clause 11.1, the Covenantor shall be obliged to pay to the Purchaser such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave the Purchaser with the same amount as it would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.
- 11.3 If any sum payable by the Covenantor to the Purchaser under this deed (other than interest under clause 10 (Due Date of Payment)) shall be subject to a Tax Liability in the hands of the Purchaser, the Covenantor shall be under the same obligation to make an increased payment in relation to that Tax Liability as if the Tax Liability were a deduction or withholding required by law.
- 12. Surrender of Group Relief
- 12.1 The Purchaser shall procure that the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries shall (as the Purchaser may specify to the extent that the amounts of Group Relief lawfully available for surrender is in excess of the amounts requested by the Covenantor and where such amounts are available to be surrendered by more than one of the Company and/or the Subsidiaries for the period in question) surrender to the Covenantor or to any member of the United Utilities Group (as the Covenantor may specify) all amounts of Group Relief as the Covenantor may at its sole discretion direct in writing (subject to such Group Relief being, in the reasonable opinion of the Covenantor, legally available) in respect of any accounting period of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries ended on or before the end of the accounting period in which Completion took place.
- 12.2 The Purchaser hereby undertakes that it shall, and shall procure that the Company and each of the Subsidiaries will, use all reasonable endeavours to procure that full effect is given to the surrenders to be made under sub-clause 12.1 and that such surrenders are allowed in full by HMRC and (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the Purchaser shall procure that the Company and each of the Subsidiaries shall sign and submit to HMRC all such notices of consent to surrender (including any reasonable provisional or protective notices of consent in cases where any relevant Tax computation has not yet been agreed) and all such other documents and returns as may be reasonably necessary to secure that full effect is given to this clause.

- 12.3. In consideration of each of the surrenders to be made under sub-clause 12.1, the Covenantor shall pay to such of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries as is the surrendering company in respect of the surrender in question or, as the case may be, shall procure that the relevant member of the United Utilities Group shall pay to that surrendering company a sum equal to the amount of corporation Tax from which the company that is the claimant company in respect of such surrender has been relieved by virtue of that surrender being validly and effectively made; PROVIDED THAT the provisions of this sub-clause shall not have effect if and to the extent that payment in respect of any such surrender has been made on the basis specified in the foregoing provisions of this sub-clause on or before the date of this deed.
- 12.4 Any sum payable under sub-clause 12.3 shall be paid on the date on which any corporation Tax chargeable on the taxable profits of the company that is the claimant company in respect of the surrender in question for the accounting period of its to which that surrender relates becomes due and payable (or would have become due and payable had the claimant company incurred any liability to corporation Tax in respect of that accounting period).
- 12.5 In the event that any payment is made in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause in respect of any surrender of Group Relief made under sub-clause 12.1 or any payment is made by the Covenantor to such of the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries as is the surrendering company in respect of the surrender of the Pre-Management Accounts Date Losses, and corporation Tax falls nevertheless to be charged in respect of the taxable profits that the relevant surrender was intended to relieve from such Tax (whether as a result of HMRC refusing to allow Group Relief or subsequently withdrawing Group Relief in respect of the relevant surrender or for any other reason whatsoever), the Purchaser shall procure that the Company or the relevant Subsidiary or Subsidiaries shall forthwith repay to the Covenantor or to the relevant member of the United Utilities Group either the sum previously paid in respect of the relevant surrender in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause or, as the case may be, such part of that sum as is attributable to the element of the surrender that did not have the effect of relieving from corporation Tax the taxable profits intended to be relieved by virtue of that surrender.
- 12.6 (i) The Purchaser shall pay to the Covenantor by way of an adjustment to the consideration payable under the Agreement for the Shares:-
- (a) in relation to a surrender of Group Relief which is a Relief referred to in sub-clause 6.4(ii) or a surrender of Pre-Management Accounts Date Losses, an amount equal to the payment required to be made by the Covenantor or other member of the United Utilities Group pursuant to sub-clause 12.3 on the same date that such payment is made; and

- (b) in relation to any other surrender of Group Relief, an amount equal to 90% of the payment required to be made by the Covenantor or other member of the United Utilities Group pursuant to sub-clause 12.3 on the same date that such payment is made.
- (ii) The Covenantor shall pay to the Purchaser by way of an adjustment to the Consideration payable under this Agreement for the Shares:-
 - (a) in relation to surrender of Group Relief which is a Relief referred to in sub-clause 6.4(ii) or a surrender of Pre-Management Accounts Date Losses, an amount equal to the payment required to be made by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to sub-clause 12.5 on the same date that such payment is made; and
 - (b) in relation to any other surrender of Group Relief, an amount equal to 90% of the payment required to be made by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to sub-clause 12.5 on the same date that such payment is made.

13. Counter Covenant

13.1 The Purchaser hereby covenants with the Covenantor to pay to the Covenantor an amount equal to any of the following:-

- (i) any liability or increased liability to Tax of any member of the United Utilities Group which arises as a result of or by reference to any reduction or disallowance of Group Relief that has been claimed by the relevant member of the United Utilities Group, where and to the extent that such reduction or disallowance occurs as a result of or by reference to:-
 - (a) any total or partial withdrawal effected by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries after Completion of any surrender of Group Relief that was properly submitted by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries to HMRC on or before Completion, or after Completion pursuant to the terms of clause 12, in respect of any accounting period ended on or before Completion and was legally available, save to the extent that the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries received any payment for the Group Relief and such payment has been returned in full; or
 - (b) any total or partial disclaimer made by the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries after Completion of any capital allowances available to the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries in respect of any accounting period ended on or before Completion, save where any such withdrawal or disclaimer is made at the express written request of the Covenantor or was assumed or otherwise reflected in the Management Accounts;

(ii) any liability or increased liability to Tax of the Covenantor or any member of the United Utilities Group which arises as a consequence of or by reference to any of the following occurring or being deemed to occur at any time after Completion:-

- (a) the disposal by any Company of any asset or of any interest in or right over any asset;
- (b) the making by any Relevant Company of any such payment or deemed payment as constitutes a chargeable payment for the purposes of section 214 ICTA;
- (c) any Relevant Company ceasing to be resident in the United Kingdom for the purposes of any Tax, or
- (d) any Relevant Company failing to pay the whole of the Tax charged by any Tax Assessment made in respect of that Relevant Company within six months of the date of that Tax Assessment where (and to the extent that) the liability for that Tax arises in circumstances such that the Purchaser would not have been entitled to make a claim against the Covenantor under clause 2 (Covenant) of this deed in respect of that Tax had it been paid by the Relevant Company, provided that the Covenantor has not already recovered that Tax from any Relevant Company under statutory rights of indemnity and the Covenantor shall procure that no such recovery is sought to the extent payment is made under this sub-clause.

and for the purposes of this sub-clause, the term "Relevant Company" shall mean the Company, any of the Subsidiaries and any other company which is, or has at any time been, treated for the purposes of any Tax as being a member of the same group of companies as the Purchaser or as being associated with the Purchaser, and

- (iii) any reasonable out-of-pocket legal and accounting costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by any member of the United Utilities Group in connection with any such liability or increased liability to Tax (or Claim therefore) or in successfully taking any action under this clause.
- 13.2 (i) Upon the Covenantor becoming aware, or upon the date when the Covenantor ought reasonably to have become aware, of a Claim relevant for the purposes of sub-clause 13.1, the Covenantor shall forthwith (and, in any event, within ten Business Days) give written notice of that Claim to the Purchaser, and the Covenantor shall or, as the case may be, shall procure that the relevant member of the United Utilities Group will (if the Purchaser shall indemnify the Covenantor and/or the relevant member of the United Utilities Group to the Covenantor's reasonable satisfaction against all reasonable losses, out-of-pocket costs, damages and expenses, including interest on overdue Tax and penalties, which may be incurred thereby) take such reasonable action and give such information and assistance as is reasonably necessary in connection with the affairs of the Covenantor and/or the relevant member of the United Utilities Group as the Purchaser may reasonably and promptly by written notice request, following consultation with the Covenantor and having taken into account any reasonable comments of the Covenantor (having regard to the Purchaser's liability for the purposes of sub-clause 13.1 and any material effect on the quantum of the future liability to Tax for any member of the Purchaser's Group or for the Covenantor or any member of the United Utilities Group) to avoid, resist, appeal or compromise the Claim; PROVIDED THAT the Covenantor shall not be obliged to appeal against any Tax Assessment or to procure that any member of the United Utilities Group appeals against any Tax Assessment if, the Purchaser having been given written notice of the receipt of that Tax Assessment in accordance with the preceding provisions of this sub-clause, the Covenantor or the relevant member of the United Utilities Group has not prior to the earlier of (a) 15 Business Days from the Covenantor issuing a notice pursuant to this sub-clause and (b) 6 Business Days prior to the last date on which an appeal may be made against the Tax Liability to which the Relevant Claim relates (provided that the Purchaser has had notice from the Covenantor pursuant to this sub-clause before the date that is ten Business Days before the last date for making the appeal referred to earlier), received instructions in writing from the Purchaser in accordance with the preceding provisions of this sub-clause, to make that appeal.

- (ii) The actions which the Purchaser may reasonably request under sub-clause 13.2 shall include (without limitation) the Covenantor, and/or the relevant member of the United Utilities Group applying to postpone (so far as legally possible) the payment of any Tax and/or allowing the Purchaser to take on or take over at its own expense the conduct of all or any proceedings of whatsoever nature arising in connection with the Claim in question, and, if the Purchaser takes on or takes over the conduct of proceedings, the Covenantor shall provide and/or shall procure that the relevant member of the United Utilities Group shall provide such information and assistance as the Purchaser may reasonably require in connection with the preparation for and conduct of those proceedings.
- 13.3 (i) Where the Purchaser becomes liable to make any payment under this clause 13, the due date for the making of that payment shall be the later of:-
- (a) the date following five Business Days after the date on which the Purchaser receives written notice of such liability from the Covenantor; and
 - (b) the date that is three Business Days before the last date on which the Covenantor or, as the case may be, the relevant member of the United Utilities Group would have had to have paid to the appropriate Tax Authority the Tax that has given rise to the Purchaser's liability under this clause 13 in order to avoid incurring a liability to interest or a charge or penalty in respect of that amount of Tax.
- (ii) If any payment required to be made by the Purchaser under this clause 13 is not made by the due date for the making thereof, then, except to the extent that the Purchaser's liability under this clause 13 compensates the Covenantor for the late payment by virtue of its extending to interest and penalties, that payment shall carry interest from that due date until the date when the payment is actually made at a rate determined by the Covenantor to be one per cent. above the base rate from time to time of Lloyds TSB Bank plc.

- 13.4 (i) All sums payable by the Purchaser to the Covenantor under this clause shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings whatsoever, save only as may be required by law.
- (ii) If any deductions or withholdings are required by law to be made from any of the sums payable as mentioned in sub-clause 13.4(i), the Purchaser shall be obliged to pay to the Covenantor such sum as will, after the deduction or withholding has been made, leave the Covenantor with the same amount as they would have been entitled to receive in the absence of any such requirement to make a deduction or withholding.
- (iii) If any sum payable by the Purchaser to the Covenantor under this clause (other than interest under sub-clause 13.3(ii)) shall be subject to a liability to Tax in the hands of the Covenantor, the Purchaser shall be under the same obligation to make an increased payment in relation to that liability to Tax as if the liability were a deduction or withholding required by law.

14. Value Added Tax

- 14.1 The Purchaser shall or shall procure that the Company and each Subsidiary which is a member of the VAT Group contributes to the Covenantor (the "representative member") such proportion of any VAT for which the representative member is accountable as is properly attributable to supplies, acquisitions and importations ("supplies") made by the Company and each such Subsidiary whilst a member of the VAT Group (less such amount of deductible input tax as is properly attributable to such supplies), such contribution to be made in cleared funds on the day which is the later of five Business Days after demand is made therefor, and five Business Days before the day on which the representative member is required to account for such VAT to HMRC; provided that no such contribution shall be made to the extent that:
- (i) such contribution was made prior to or on Completion;
- (ii) such contribution was taken into account in determining the Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items or Company Payables; or
- (iii) the Purchaser would otherwise have been able to make a claim against the Covenantor under this deed (ignoring for these purposes the application of clause 4 (Exclusions)) in respect of that tax or that contribution (and no such claim shall be made to the extent that such tax or such contribution is borne and discharged by the Covenantor in its capacity as the representative member).
- 14.2 The Covenantor shall pay, or shall procure that there is paid, to the Company (on behalf of itself and each Subsidiary) an amount equivalent to such proportion of any repayment of VAT received by the representative member from HMRC or of any credit obtained by reference to an excess of deductible input tax over output tax that is properly attributable to supplies made to and by the Company and the Subsidiaries whilst a member of the VAT Group, within five Business Days of its receipt by, or offset against a liability of, the representative member, provided that no such payment is made to the extent that

- (i) such payment was made before Completion;
- (ii) such payment was taken into account in determining the Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items or Company Payables; or
- (iii) the auditors certify that any amount which the representative member is or has been accountable for and which is attributable to supplies made to and by the Company and the Subsidiaries whilst a member of the VAT Group is in excess of the amounts actually contributed by the Company or the Subsidiaries in respect of such supplies; in which case any payment due from the Covenantor under this sub-clause 14.2 shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess.

14.3 The Purchaser shall pay, or shall procure that there is paid, to the Covenantor an amount equivalent to any repayment of VAT (or any interest received in respect of any such amount) received by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries from HMRC that is attributable to supplies made before Completion, within five Business Days of its receipt by the Company or, as the case may be, a Subsidiary or Subsidiaries, provided that no such payment is made to the extent that

- (i) such payment was made before Completion; or
- (ii) such payment was taken into account in determining the Intra-Group Ordinary Course Items or Company Payables.

14.4 The Covenantor shall procure that the representative member shall use reasonable endeavours to secure any repayment referred to in sub-clause 14.2 above as quickly as possible following Completion.

14.5 The Purchaser shall provide such information as may be required to enable the representative member to make the returns and provide the information required to be provided for VAT purposes.

14.6 If the Company and/or any of the Subsidiaries are still a member of the VAT Group at Completion, the Covenantor and the Purchaser shall cooperate with each other to procure that as soon as practical after Completion, an application is made pursuant to section 43 of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 for the relevant Company and/or Subsidiaries to be excluded from the VAT Group with effect from Completion or such later date as the relevant Tax Authority may allow.

15. Stamp Duty

The Covenantor warrants to the Purchaser that all documents forming part of the title to any asset of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries or which the Company or any of the Subsidiaries may wish to enforce or to produce in evidence are physically located in the United Kingdom (to the extent such documents are stampable in the United Kingdom) and, where stampable, are duly stamped and have where appropriate been adjudicated. If this warranty is untrue with respect to any document and it is necessary to procure stamping of such document for a Required Reason, then provided that the Purchaser, the Company and/or the Subsidiary (as the case may be) shall at the expense of Covenantor have made a reasonable attempt to prevent any such document being required, including (but not limited to) attempting to satisfy such requirement by the production of certified copies of any such document, and without prejudice to the Purchaser's right to claim damages for breach of this warranty, the Covenantor shall procure the stamping of such document within 10 Business Days of the Purchaser's written request to do so.

16. Choice of Governing Law

This deed shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

17. Payments by Purchaser and Covenantor

17.1 Any payment made by the Purchaser under the deed shall (as far as possible) be treated as being made by way of an increase in the Consideration paid or payable by the Purchaser under the Agreement to the Covenantor for the Shares.

17.2 Any payment made by the Covenantor under the deed shall (as far as possible) be treated as being made by way of a reduction in the Consideration paid or payable by the Purchaser under the Agreement to the Covenantor for the Shares.

18. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

18.1 The provisions of clause 12 (Surrender of Group Relief) and clause 13 (Counter Covenant) are intended to confer benefit on the members of the United Utilities Group and, subject to the remaining provisions of this clause, are intended to be enforceable by each member of the United Utilities Group by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

18.2 The parties to this deed do not intend that any other terms of this deed, other than that specifically referred to in sub-clause 18.1 of this clause 18, should be enforceable, by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, by any person who is not a party to this deed.

18.3 Notwithstanding sub-clause 18.1 of this clause 18, this deed may be varied in any way and at any time by the parties to the deed without the consent of any member of the United Utilities Group who is not a party to the deed.

19. Incorporation of Provisions from the Agreement

The provisions of clauses 15 (Remedies and Waivers), 17 (Assignment), 19 (Further Assurance), 20 (Notices), 22 (Announcements), 22 (Confidentiality), 24 (Counterparts), 26 (Invalidity) and 29 (Jurisdiction) of the Agreement shall apply to this deed except to the extent inconsistent with this deed as if the same had been set out here save the references to the Seller, its address, facsimile number and the Agreement shall be construed as references to the Covenantor, its address, facsimile number and this deed.

Signed as a deed by) [name of individual attorney]) as attorney for UNITED UTILITIES PLC) (Signature of attorney) in the presence of:)

Witness's signature:

Name (print):

Occupation:

Address:

Signed as a deed by) [name of individual attorney]) as attorney for VTX BIDCO LIMITED) (Signature of attorney)
in the presence of:)

Witness's signature:

Name (print):

Occupation:

Address:

Schedule 9
(Transitional Services)

1. In this Schedule unless the context requires otherwise:

"CEDR" has the meaning set out in paragraph 9(C);

"Commencement Date" means the first Business Day after Completion;

"Contract Month" means a period starting on one day in a calendar month and ending on the day before the numerically corresponding day in the next calendar month, except that, if there is no numerically corresponding day in the month in which that period ends, that period shall end on the last day in that calendar month, and the first such period shall start in the Business Day after Commencement Date;

"Dispute Resolution" means the dispute resolution procedure set out in paragraph 11 of this Schedule;

"Force Majeure" means in relation to any party, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of that party (including, without limitation, any strike, lockout or other form of industrial action) relating to the provision of any of the Services;

"Service Charges" means the sums set out in Annexure 1; and

"Services" means the services described in Annexure 1.

2. Services to be provided

With effect from the Commencement Date, the Seller shall, or shall procure that any member of the Retained Group shall, provide to the Group the Services in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule. The Seller warrants that, so far as it is aware, it is entitled to provide the Services.

3. Consideration

3.1 The Purchaser shall procure that the Company pays the Services Charges in respect of each of the Services.

3.2 Payment of the Services Charges shall, unless the subject of a bona fide dispute, be made in accordance with the terms of Annexure 1. Where payment terms for Service Charges are not specified in Annexure 1, payment shall be paid within 30 days of the date of receipt of the Seller's invoice.

3.3 Payment of the Service Charges shall be made in pounds sterling (£).

3.4 Neither party shall be entitled to set off or reduce payments by any amounts that it claims are owed to it by the other party under this agreement.

3.5 Payment of the Service Charges shall in each case be exclusive of any amounts in respect of VAT and the Company shall pay to the Seller an amount equal to any amounts in respect of VAT properly chargeable in respect of any supply for which the payment in question is consideration for VAT purposes upon presentation of a valid VAT invoice.

4. Manner in which Services are provided

The Seller shall:

- (A) in respect of Services carried out prior to the Commencement Date, provide the Services in all material respects to the standard of service which such Services have been provided in the twelve months immediately prior to the Commencement Date, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Schedule;
- (B) employ the same personnel who have provided the Services in the three months immediately prior to Completion, if available; or otherwise employ suitably qualified personnel, with appropriate knowledge and expertise, where reasonable and practicable, of the historic provision of such Services, to provide the Services;
- (C) comply at all times with the requirements of any applicable law, regulation or directive affecting the provision of the Services.

5. Data Protection

To the extent the Services involve the processing of any personal data within the meaning of the Data Protection Act 1998 (the "DPA") in respect of which any member of the Group is the data controller:

- (A) the Seller shall act in accordance with the Company's reasonable written instructions in processing such personal data;
- (B) the Seller shall take appropriate technical and organisational measures against unauthorised or unlawful processing of such personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, such personal data;
- (C) the Seller shall at all times take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of those of its employees who have access to the personal data held on behalf of the Group and shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure their compliance with the obligations set out in this clause; and
- (D) the Seller shall promptly provide at no charge such assistance as the Group may reasonably require in order for the Group to deal with any request for subject access under section 7 of the DPA.

6. Duration

The provisions of this Schedule shall come into effect on the Commencement Date and shall continue in force for the various periods set out in Annexure 1. The Company may, by notice in writing, terminate the provision of any or all of the Services in whole or in part at any time in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.

7. Effect of Termination

- 7.1 Immediately upon termination being notified to the Seller by the Company, the Seller shall return or deliver to the Company all books, records (including machine readable records) and documents in its possession or under its control and which either relate exclusively to the provision of the Services hereunder or the creation of which was solely due to the provision of the Services hereunder.
- 7.2 The Seller shall be entitled to retain such copies as are required in order to comply with any relevant law or regulations or in connection with the preparation and agreement of any accounting or other records, provided that the Seller informs the Company of the copies made for these purposes and subject to the terms of confidentiality in clause 23.
- 7.3 The Company shall be entitled to retain the original documentation which is delivered under paragraph 7.1 above.

8. Exclusions and Liability

- 8.1 The parties agree that they shall not make claims against one another or any member of the other's Group or any of the other's directors, officers or employees to recover any losses, costs or expenses which they, or any other person, may suffer or incur by reason of, arising out of, or otherwise in connection with, the provision of the Services or the carrying out of any other obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule except that either party shall have the right to claim against the other for loss or damage it suffers arising out of any material or persistent breach of the obligations set out in this Schedule in which case the liability of the party concerned, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty or in any other way, shall not exceed the relevant Service Charges paid or payable up to the date the liability was incurred excluding any amounts applicable to loss of profit or indirect or consequential loss.
- 8.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 8.1 above, liability of the parties for death or personal injury due to negligence, and for fraud or bad faith shall not be excluded.

9. Provision of Information

- 9.1 Each party shall provide, free of charge, reasonable access to the other party's employees or duly authorised representatives upon reasonable notice in order to inspect information, books, documents or records relating to the provision of Services which are held by, or are under the control of, the relevant party and which are necessary to enable any other party to perform its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule properly.
- 9.2 Each party shall use all reasonable endeavours to respond promptly to any reasonable requests for guidance, instruction or information made by any other party to enable such other party to perform its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule properly and for the Group itself to assume responsibility for the provision of the Services.

9.3 Each party shall take such reasonable steps as may be necessary to ensure the safety of any of the personnel of any other party who (with the consent of such party) visit any of the sites or properties at which such party carries on business.

9.4 Each party shall co-operate as far as is reasonably practicable in providing any information reasonably requested by any other party, provided that such information is:

- (A) reasonably necessary for the provision of the Services;
- (B) reasonably necessary to enable the Company to determine whether the Seller is providing the relevant Service to the appropriate standard in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule;
- (C) reasonably necessary to calculate the payments of the provision of the Services; or
- (D) reasonably necessary to comply with any relevant law or regulation.

10. Force Majeure

10.1 If any party is affected by Force Majeure it shall promptly notify the other party of the nature and extent of the relevant circumstances.

10.2 The party affected by Force Majeure will use all reasonable endeavours to perform its obligations in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.

11. Dispute Resolution

If any dispute or disagreement arises between the Seller and the Company, as to any matter referred to or in connection with this Schedule the Seller and the Purchaser agree that:

11.1 subject to paragraph 11.2, as soon as reasonably practicable after they are aware of such dispute or disagreement, both the Company and the Seller shall discuss the issue giving rise to the dispute or disagreement and negotiate in good faith with a view to reaching an amicable and reasonable solution for a period of up to 10 Business Days;

11.2 if discussions and negotiations fail to resolve such dispute or disagreement or if the issue involved requires in the reasonable opinion of either party more urgent attention, such matter shall be referred to the Seller's chief executive (for the time being) and the Company's chief executive (for the time being) (or such other senior executive as the Seller or the Purchaser shall nominate) who shall discuss such dispute or disagreement in good faith with a view to reaching an amicable and reasonable solution for a further period of up to 5 Business Days (or such longer period as the parties may agree) from the date on which such dispute or disagreement is referred to the chief executives;

11.3 if the chief executives are unable to resolve such dispute or disagreement within the period referred to in paragraph 11.2, the matter will then be referred to mediation in accordance with

- the model procedure of the Centre for Dispute Resolution, London ("CEDR"), such mediation to be completed within 30 Business Days of signature of the CEDR mediation agreement; and
- 11.4 if the dispute or disagreement is not settled as a result of (and within the time specified under) the mediation process referred to in paragraph 11.3 above, the parties shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts in respect of such dispute or disagreement.
- 12. Assignment and Subcontracting
- 12.1 The Seller may not assign or otherwise dispose of its obligations to provide the Services, at law or in equity, including by way of security or declaration of trust except to members of the Retained Group or otherwise with the prior written consent of the Purchaser not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Any purported assignment in breach of this clause shall confer no rights on the purported assignee. The Seller may not subcontract any of its obligations to provide the Services without the prior written consent of the Purchaser not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 12.2 The restriction on sub-contracting in paragraph 12.1 shall not apply to any Services, the performance of which was sub-contracted to a third party before the Commencement Date and nothing shall prevent any member of the Retained Group from seeking any advice or support from a third party adviser in connection with the provision of the Services.
- 13. Performance governance
- The Seller agrees to perform the obligations set out in Annexure 2 to this Schedule 9 and the Purchaser agrees to procure the Group performs its obligation set out in Annexure 2 to this Schedule 9.

Annexure 1
Services to be provided by the Seller

Services	Service Description	Fees	Termination	Key Obligations	Key Parties
Tax	Services provided by the Seller through its Group Tax department as needed and on a consultative basis including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o UK Corporation tax compliance support o UK VAT compliance support o Ad hoc corporation tax planning advice o High level overview of international tax compliance position NB - Both parties shall use best endeavours in providing any support and advice in delivering the service	£10,000 per month (Any Professional Fees will be based on a "pass through" basis)	Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company.	Develop own capability in an urgent and timely manner.	John Hardy (the Seller) Tim Birkett (the Company)
Pensions	Administration of the Group consenting acting members within the UU Pension Schemes including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Running pension schemes o Servicing Company and Trustees o Appoint and monitor advisors etc. 	£700 per day or £100 per hour (the Seller shall make available 1 person per day per week for Service Terms as required by the Company)	Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.	Develop own capability in an urgent and timely manner.  liaise with administration teams re: transfers, leavers, salary deductions, entry and ill health retirements, redundancy/leaveance, bid support and advice. Additional support as required by specific solution around transfer of active member past service	Allan Heron (the Seller) Tim Birkett (the Company)

Services	Service Description	Price	Termination	Capacity Obligations	Key Person or Representative
SAP IT Systems	Use of SAP IT systems and network NE - Both parties shall work together to mitigate any costs incurred or likely to be incurred	£84,170 per month This is broken down as follows: £12,800 per month (SAP Licence to Group) £61,370 per month (Infrastructure to Group)	Infrastructure: Twelve (12) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company in respect of systems and network. SAP Licence: Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company in respect of SAP IT. The Seller shall use all reasonable endeavours to extend the Service Term in respect of SAP IT to twelve (12) months (subject to termination earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company and in accordance with the terms of any extension) with the agreement of its third party supplier (SAP). The Company will meet any additional charges made by SAP for the extension.		Neal Summers (the Seller) Paul Cavanagh (the Company)
IS Data Centre	Occupation of Data Centres at Lingley Mere and Dawson House for the Group's own systems NE This Service line may be superseded by and be subject to a separate Rental Agreement to be entered into between the Seller and the Company.	£21,870 per month	Continuing subject to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 12 months notice by either party if the Group is to vacate one of the data centres. 15 months notice by either party if the Group is to vacate both data centres at the same time or within 3 months of each other. 	None	Neal Summers (the Seller) Paul Cavanagh (the Company)

Services	Services provided by UNWV finance department e.g.	Payroll	Termination	Continuity of Service	Supplier
Financial services including payroll, invoices and cheque processing and supplier care.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Updating Payroll systems with employee information o Production & issue pay slips o Dealing with payroll queries o Inputting vendor invoices o Dealing with Vendor Queries o Drafting & Issuing Cheques 	Payroll £22,170 per month Cheque Processing/Supplier Care £26,380 per month	Twelve (12) months unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.	Develop own capability in an urgent and timely manner. Liaise with administrative teams re: starters, leavers, payroll changes, deductions, early and health retirements, redundancy/saveramps etc.	Payroll - Carole Alderson (the Seller) Cheque Processing/Supplier Care - Norma Tidswell (the Seller) Paul Cavanagh (the Company)
Telephony	Provision of Telephony services to Group employees occupying Dawson House and Lintley House e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Fixed line network and maintenance NB This telephony Service may be superseded by a separate Property Services Agreement which may or may not be in force already	Existing arrangements will continue.	Twelve (12) months unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.	Continue to use IMAC and other management processes as necessary	Paul Deehan (the Seller) Paul Cavanagh (the Company)

Service	SAP Job Description	Purchase Cards/Fuel/Lodge Cards	Termination	SAP Job Description	Seller
Procurement	Provision of Procurement support for the following services: Purchase Cards/Fuel Cards/Lodge Cards e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Provide cards o Training to cardholders o Management of Card data NB - All future payments must be processed through Company's own Bank Accounts SAP Master Database Management e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Set-up vendors on SAP o Block vendors on SAP o Delivery Address Management 	Purchase Cards/Fuel/Lodge Cards: £4,200 per month SAP Master Database Management: £1,600 per month	Twelve (12) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.	Develop own capability in an urgent and timely manner	Norman Davies (the Seller) John Berrington (the Company)
Company Secretariat (board secretary required for legal compliance)	Company secretariat services previously provided to the Group by the Seller	No charge - handoff exercise. The Seller will need to inform temp or hire of role and history. Provide to the Group database of history and/or provide electronic copy/CD-ROM of Group Companies' statutory records on 'Blue Print' (the Company to purchase own licence)	Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.		Paul Davies (the Seller) Rachael Vickery (the Company)
HR director services	HR director services to be provided by former HR director of the Company who has joined the Seller, up to 40% of weekly time	Reimbursement of pro rata salary, bonus and all reasonable expenses	Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.		Linda Booth (the Seller)

Service	Services Description	Supplier	Rate	Term	Other	Comments
Other Services	These services provided by the Supplier immediately prior to Completion other than any service agreement referred to in the SPA, required to ensure that the Group can continue its business and operations in the same way as during the preceding 12 months.	Reasonable daily rate to be agreed between the parties based on current practice.	Six (6) months, unless terminated earlier on 30 days written notice by the Company. Term extendable by mutual agreement, which shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.	As reasonably required

Annexure 2Performance governance*1. DAY TO DAY MANAGEMENT

The provision of the Services shall be managed at a project level on a day to day basis by the key service representatives from the Seller and the Group named in Annexure 1 who shall identify any performance issues as they occur and shall seek in good faith to resolve them in a timely manner.

2. OPERATIONAL SERVICE REVIEW

A service review will be carried out on a monthly basis for all the Services by a joint operational group consisting of one representative of the Seller and one representative of the Group which shall meet at the end of every calendar month whilst the Services are being provided and seek in good faith to understand and resolve any underperformance or other performance issues which have not been resolved under paragraph 1 above.

3. SENIOR MANAGEMENT REVIEW

If the joint operational group identifies performance issues which the joint operational group is not able to resolve to the satisfaction of the Seller and the Group within a reasonable period taking into account the nature of the issue (up to a maximum of 15 days from the date the issue is identified by the group), then the issue will be referred for resolution to a senior manager from the Seller and a senior manager from the Group who shall each be operational managers below divisional managing director level with appropriate levels of authority. These senior managers shall act in good faith.

4. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

If the senior management review referred to in paragraph 3 above is not able to resolve the performance issue to the satisfaction of the Seller and the Group within a period of fifteen (15) days from the reference to the two senior managers, then the matter shall be referred for resolution to the Dispute Resolution procedure set out in paragraph 11.1 of Schedule 9.

Schedule 10
(Trade Mark Assignment)

THIS ASSIGNMENT is made the _____ of _____, 2006.

BETWEEN:

(1) UNITED UTILITIES PLC (registered in England and Wales with number 02366616) of Dawson House, Great Sankey, Warrington, Cheshire WA5 3LW ("Assignor"); and

(2) [_____] (registered in [_____] with number [_____]) of [_____] ("Assignee").

WHEREAS:

- (A) Assignor is the registered proprietor of the trade marks and applicant for registration of the trade mark applications details of which are set out in Part A of the Annex to this Assignment (the "Trade Marks"); Assignor may also own unregistered common law trade mark rights in the brands (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding rights to the individual words forming such brands, where such brands are ordinary English words), set out in Part B of the Annex to this Assignment (the "Unregistered Rights").
- (B) The entire issued share capital of Assignor has been purchased by Assignee pursuant to a sale and purchase agreement dated [] 2006 (the "SPA").
- (C) Assignor has agreed to assign the Trade Marks to Assignee in accordance with the obligations created under the SPA.

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. ASSIGNMENT

- 1.1 In consideration of the payment of £1 from Assignee to Assignor (receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by Assignor), Assignor hereby assigns to Assignee (i) all its right, title and interest (if any) in and to the Unregistered Rights, and (ii) all its right, title and interest in and to the Trade Marks together with the goodwill owned by the Assignor in the Unregistered Rights and Trade Marks, its common law rights associated with the Trade Marks, and all its associated rights, privileges and advantages, in each case including, without limitation, the right to take proceedings and recover damages and obtain any other remedy in respect of past and future infringements of the Unregistered Rights and the Trade Marks.
- 1.2 The foregoing assignment shall include any rights which Assignor has to apply for registration anywhere in the world of the Unregistered Rights.

2. FURTHER ASSURANCE

- 2.1 Assignor shall, at the request and cost of Assignee, execute any further documents that may be necessary to secure the vesting in Assignee of the Trade Marks and to assist the Assignee in the recordal of the Assignee as proprietor of the Trade Marks at the relevant trade marks registry.
- 2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, all costs in respect of recording this Assignment shall be borne by Assignee.

3. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 3.1 This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.
- 3.2 The courts of England and Wales are to have jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Assignment. Any proceeding, suit or action arising out of or in connection with this Assignment ("Proceedings") may therefore be brought in the English courts. Each party agrees that this jurisdiction agreement is irrevocable and that it is for the benefit of the other party.
- 3.3 Each party waives (and irrevocably agrees not to raise) any objection, on the ground of forum non conveniens or on any other ground, to the taking of Proceedings in the English Courts. Each party also irrevocably agrees that a judgment against it in Proceedings brought in the English courts shall be conclusive and binding upon it and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction.

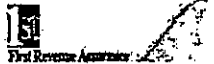

IN WITNESS OF WHICH this Assignment has been executed by or on behalf of the parties on the date first above written.

Signed by)
 for and on behalf of)
 UNITED UTILITIES PLC)

Signed by)
 for and on behalf of) [ASSIGNEE])

Annex

Part A: Trade Marks

Mark	Type	Country	Status	Classes	Owner	Renewal Date	Ref
VERTEX	WO	UK	Registered	41	UU	02/2016	2056497
		UK	Registered	35 36 42	UU	01/2016	2050688
		UK	Registered	35	UU	04/2013	2330792
		India	Pending application	9	UU		1203796
	DO	UK	Registered	35 36 41 42	UU	04/2011	2266382
		EU	Registered	35 35 40 41 42	UU	08/2011	2356855
		UK	Registered	9 35 36 42	UU	04/2013	2330800
		India	Pending application	9	UU		1203794
VERTEX INDIA	WO	India	Pending application	9	UU		1203798
CITIZEN FIRST	WO	UK	Registered	35 41 42	UU	08/2012	2308020
	DO	UK	Registered	35 41 42	UU	11/2013	2349750
USERVE	WO	UK	Registered	35 36 37 38 42	UU	04/2014	2361894
BEYOND THE TRANSACTION	WO	UK	Registered	41	UU	06/2010	2237080
VCRM	WO	UK	Registered	35	UU	03/2010	2226242
FIRST REVENUE ASSURANCE	WO	UK	Registered	36	UU	10/2014	2375928
		USA	Pending application	36	UU		76629048
		Canada	Registered	36	UU	08/2021	TMA668076
FRA	WO	UK	Registered	36	UU	10/2014	2375929
		Canada	Pending application	36	UU		1234097
	DW	UK	Registered	36	UU	10/2014	2375927
		USA	Pending application	36	UU		76628847
		Canada	Registered	36	UU	09/2021	TMA673212
VERTEX OUTSOURCING	WO	USA	Pending application	35	UU		78316444
		Canada	Registered	35	UU	04/2021	TMA663208
Vertex Financial Services	WO	Australia	Pending application	9	UU		1106411
		New Zealand	Pending application	9	UU		745408
LAMDA	WO	Australia	Pending application	9	UU		1106408
		New Zealand	Pending application	9	UU		745407

Part B: the Unregistered Rights

- Thetar
- Columbus
- Amber
- Straight-Through Licensing (STP)
- Genesis Life
- The virtual life company
- Alpha+
- Alpha+calculations engine
- Alpha Calcs
- ACE
- IPSIS
- IDS
- DTV
- Virtual Advice
- E-GPR Service
- Vertigo
- Instruct By Net
- IBNet
- E-KFI
- Common Trading Platform (Exchange)
- Exweb
- Cortex
- Sapphire
- AdviserNet WebBuilder

Signatures

In witness whereof this agreement has been duly executed by or on behalf of the parties hereto on the date first stated above.

Signed by

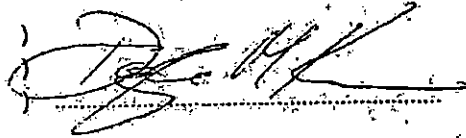

for and on behalf of

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke, positioned above a dotted line.

UNITED UTILITIES PLC

Signed by

for and on behalf of

A handwritten signature in black ink, featuring a large, stylized initial 'V' followed by several loops and a long horizontal stroke, positioned above a dotted line.

VTX BIDCO LIMITED

DATE 23 November 2007

UNITED UTILITIES NORTH WEST PLC

and

NORTH WEST ELECTRICITY NETWORKS LIMITED

Agreement relating to the sale and purchase of shares in
UNITED UTILITIES ELECTRICITY LIMITED

Slaughter and May
One Bunhill Row
London EC1Y 8YY
(PWHB/RAWS)

TP073270006

CONTENTS

	Page
1. Interpretation	1
2. Sale and purchase	14
3. Consideration	14
4. Completion	14
5. No Leakage Undertakings	15
6. Effect of Completion	17
7. Seller's warranties and undertakings	17
8. Purchaser's warranties and undertakings	21
9. Deliberately left blank	27
10. Non-solicitation	27
11. Purchaser's remedies and Seller's limitations on liability	27
12. Remedies and waivers	28
13. Access	28
14. Transitional Services	29
15. Pensions	29
16. Assignment	29
17. Entire agreement	30
18. Further Assurance	30
19. Notices	30
20. Announcements	31
21. Confidentiality	32
22. Costs and expenses	33

24.	Time of essence	33
25.	Invalidity	33
26.	Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999	34
27.	Choice of governing law	34
28.	Jurisdiction	34
	Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements)	35
	Schedule 2 (Warranties)	38
	Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability)	52
	Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company)	61
	Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries)	63
	Schedule 6 (Properties)	69
	Schedule 7 (Pensions)	70
	Part 1	70
	(United Utilities Pension Scheme)	70
	Schedule 8 (Transitional Services)	91
	Schedule 9 (Key Employees)	100
	Schedule 10 (Redundancy Terms)	101
	Schedule 11 (Group IT Contracts)	102

THIS AGREEMENT is made 23 November 2007

BETWEEN:

1. UNITED UTILITIES NORTH WEST PLC of Haweswater House, Lingley Mere Business Park, Lingley Green Avenue, Great Sankey, Warrington WA5 3LP (registered in England and Wales, No. 04146378 (the "Seller");

AND

2. NORTH WEST ELECTRICITY NETWORKS LIMITED of Level 3, 30 Cannon Street, London EC4M 6YQ (registered in England and Wales, No. 06428375) (the "Purchaser").

WHEREAS:

- (A) The Seller is the legal and beneficial owner of the Shares (as defined in this agreement).
- (B) The Seller has agreed to sell and the Purchaser has agreed to purchase and pay for the Shares (as defined in this agreement); in each case on the terms set out in this agreement.
- (C) Particulars of each member of the Group (as defined in this agreement) are set out in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company) and Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries).

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED as follows:

1. Interpretation

1.1 In this agreement and the Schedules to it

"1993 Act" means the Pension Schemes Act 1993;

"Accounts" means the statutory accounts consisting of a consolidated income statement, balance sheet, cash flow statement, statement of recognised income and expense and related notes of the Company prepared in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and International Financial Reporting Standards, for the accounting reference period ended on the Accounts Date and audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP;

"Accounts Date" means 31 March 2007;

"Agreed Rate" means 8.5 per cent.;

- "Agreement Obligations" has the meaning given to it in sub-clause 8.2(E);
- "ASA" means the Asset Services Agreement dated 9 March 2007 between the Company and UUES (as amended), a copy of which appears in the Data Room;
- "AO Fund" has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
- "ASP Fund" has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
- "A Shares" means the four issued A shares with a par value of 50 pence each in the capital of the Company;
- "Assets" means any and all assets and equipment whether situated at, in, on or under the Properties or otherwise, including without limitation substations, cables, pylons and machinery which are necessary for the Business;
- "Assurance" means any assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, security, guarantee, indemnity or other commitment given or undertaken direct or contingent by or binding upon the Seller or any other member of the Retained Group in respect of any obligation or liability of any member of the Group or, for the purposes of sub-clauses 7.2 and 7.3, means any assurance, covenant, agreement, undertaking, security, guarantee, indemnity (but excluding the EASL Indemnity) or other commitment given or undertaken direct or contingent by or binding upon the Company or any member of the Group in respect of any obligation or liability of any member of the Retained Group;
- "Bank Account" means the bank account to be notified to the Purchaser by the Seller not less than three Business Days prior to Completion;
- "Books and Records" means all notices, correspondence, orders, inquiries, drawings, plans, books of account and other documents and all computer disks or tapes or other machine legible programs or other records (excluding software) proprietary to any member of the Group (or for the purposes of sub-clauses 13.4, 13.5 or 13.6, the Retained Group);
- "Business" means the electricity distribution business as carried on by the Group at the Completion Date;

"Certain Funds Letter"	means the letter in the agreed form relating to the Purchaser's capacity to meet its financial obligations under this agreement;
"CIO Agreement"	means the CIO, Data Centre Hosting and Shared System Service Agreement between the Company and United Utilities PLC dated 16 November 2007 (as amended);
"Companies Acts"	means the Companies Act 1985, the Companies Consolidation (Consequential Provisions) Act 1985, the Companies Act 1989, the Companies Act 2006 and Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993;
"Company" or "UUE"	means United Utilities Electricity Limited, basic information concerning which is set out in Schedule 4 (Basic information about the Company);
"Completion"	means completion of the sale and purchase of the Shares under this agreement;
"Completion Date"	means 19 December 2007 (or such other date as may be agreed in writing between the parties);
"Completion Date L/C Amount"	has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
"Consideration"	has the meaning given to it in sub-clause 3.1 ;
"Data Room"	means the electronic data room, the index for which is annexed to the Disclosure Letter, made available to the Purchaser by the Seller prior to the date of this agreement containing information relating to the business carried on by the Company and the other members of the Group;
"Disclosure Letter"	means the letter dated the date of this agreement written by the Seller to the Purchaser and delivered to the Purchaser's Solicitors before the execution of this agreement;
"EASL"	means Electricity Association Services Limited;
"EASL Agreements"	means (i) the members deed of contribution between EASL and certain contributors, including United Utilities PLC, dated 29 July 2003; (ii) the pensions deed of contribution between EASL and certain contributors, including United Utilities PLC, dated 3 September 2003; and (iii) the supplemental members deed of contribution between EASL and certain contributors, including United

"EASL Indemnity"	means the deed of indemnity between the Company and United Utilities PLC dated 9 November 2007 pursuant to which the Company indemnifies United Utilities PLC in respect of liabilities arising out of or in connection with the EASL Agreements;
"Eligible L/C Providers"	has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
"Employee"	means an employee of any member of the Group;
"Encumbrance"	means any mortgage, charge (fixed or floating), pledge, lien, hypothecation, trust, right of set off or other third party right or interest (legal or equitable) including any right of pre-emption, assignment by way of security, reservation of title or any other security interest of any kind however created or arising or any other agreement or arrangement (including a sale and repurchase arrangement) having similar effect;
"Environment"	means any and all living organisms (including man), ecosystems, property and the media of air (including air within buildings, natural or man-made structures, below or above ground), water (including as defined in section 104(1) of the Water Resources Act 1991 and within drains and sewers) and land (including under any water as described above and whether above or below surface);
"Environmental Laws"	means all international, EU, national or local statutes, bylaws, orders, regulations or other law or subordinate legislation or common law, all orders, ordinances, decrees or regulatory codes of practice, circulars, guidance notes, legal agreements with regulators and equivalent controls concerning the protection of human health or which have as a purpose or effect the protection or prevention of harm to the Environment or health and safety insofar as they are in force and legally binding on the relevant member of the Group at or before the date of this agreement in relation to the UUE Properties, the Assets and/or the Business;
"Funding Resources"	has the meaning given to it in sub-clause 8.2(E) ;
"GPP Arrangements"	means the group personal pension arrangements entered into by members of the Group;
"Group"	means the Company and all of the Subsidiaries;

"Group Recharges"	means, at any time and from time to time, the aggregate accrued but unpaid charges invoiced or remaining to be invoiced by United Utilities PLC (or any other member of the Retained Group) to the Company or any other member of the Group in respect of central corporate management costs apportioned to the Group on a customary basis, which include but are not limited to audit fees, insurance recharges, sponsorship recharges, actuarial, legal and consultancy costs, pension administration costs, private health care costs, SIP (share incentive plan) costs, costs relating to software licences and any other third party professional fees relating to the Group;
"Group Relief"	has the meaning it is given in the Tax Covenant;
"ICTA 1988"	means the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988;
"Information Memorandum"	means the information memorandum relating to the Group dated August 2007 and prepared by Deutsche Bank AG London;
"Information Technology"	means computer hardware, software and networks;
"Intellectual Property"	means all rights in or in relation to any right and all patents, utility models, trade marks, rights in designs, copyrights, topography rights, rights in inventions, Knowhow, trade secrets and other confidential information, rights in databases and all other intellectual property rights of a similar or corresponding character which may now or in the future subsist in any part of the world and any rights to receive any remuneration in respect of such rights (whether or not any of the foregoing is registered and including applications for registration of any such thing (except in respect of Warranty 17.4));
"Intra-Group Trading Items"	means, at any time and from time to time, all amounts owed, outstanding or accrued in respect of inter-company trading activity and the provision of services (including SAP system and other charges but excluding those matters in respect of which Group Recharges apply) and property arrangements between any member of the Retained Group and any member of the Group;
"Key Employee"	means those employees listed in Schedule 9 (Key Employees);

"Knowhow"	means confidential information and techniques in any form (including paper, electronically stored data, magnetic media, files and microfilm) including, without limitation, drawings, data relating to inventions, formulae, test results, reports, research reports, project reports and testing procedures, shop practices, instruction and training manuals, market forecasts, specifications, quotations, lists and particulars of customers and suppliers, marketing methods and procedures, show-how and advertising copy;
"Letters of Credit"	has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
"London Stock Exchange"	means the London Stock Exchange plc;
"Longstop Date"	means 31 January 2008;
"Management Accounts"	means the unaudited consolidated (except in the case of UUES which has been accounted for as an investment) balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement for the Group as at the Management Accounts Date for the period from the Accounts Date to the Management Accounts Date;
"Management Accounts Date"	means 26 August 2007;
"Management Certificate"	has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
"Network"	means the physical network of assets constituting the distribution network of overhead lines, underground cables, substations, transformers and the UUE Points of Presence (but not including the Thus Points of Presence) used by the Company for the distribution of electricity from grid supply points or generation sets or other entry points to its customers and any electrical plant, meters and metering equipment owned by the Company in connection with the distribution of electricity;
"New Trustee"	has the meaning given to it in the New UUE Group Agreement;
"New UUE Group Agreement"	means the agreement between the Company and the United Utilities (ESPS) Trustee Pensions Trustee Limited as trustee for the United Utilities group of the Electricity Supply Pension Scheme dated 16 October 2007;

"New UUEESPS"	means the United Utilities Electricity Group of the Electricity Supply Pension Scheme constituted by trust deed and rules dated 20 January 1983 as subsequently amended;
"No Leakage Undertaking"	has the meaning given to it in sub clause 5.1 ;
"Office Properties"	means the properties listed as such in Schedule 6 (Properties) ;
"OFGEM"	means the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority referred to in section 1 of the Utilities Act 2000 or any successor body or authority;
"Ordinary Shares"	means the 476,821,341 issued ordinary shares with a par value of 50 pence each in the capital of the Company;
"Panel"	means The Panel on Takeovers and Mergers;
"Payment"	means the amount payable pursuant to a Payment Obligation;
"Payment Obligation"	means any indemnity or covenant to pay;
"Pension Schemes"	means the UUESPS, the New UUEESPS, the UUPS and the GPP Arrangements;
"Permission"	means any planning permission, approval or other equivalent consent, authorisation or licence given or deemed to be given pursuant to planning legislation and includes all conditions attached to it;
"Permitted Leakage"	means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) payments in respect of any business or assets or Property acquired from, or any business or assets or Property disposed of to, any member of the Retained Group, or liabilities assumed, indemnified or incurred for the benefit of any member of the Retained Group by any member of the Group, in each case on an arm's length basis between a willing seller and a willing buyer and not exceeding in aggregate £1,000,000; (ii) any payment to the Retained Group of Intra-Group Trading Items, or a part thereof, in the ordinary course of business of the Group in accordance with the normal practice between the

- (iii) any payment to the Retained Group of Group Recharges, or a part thereof, in the ordinary course of business of the Group and not exceeding £175,000 each calendar month;
- (iv) any payment of Tax to HM Revenue & Customs or an amount in respect of Tax in relation to the business of any member of the Group under clauses 15 (Value Added Tax) and 16 (Group Payment Arrangements) of the Tax Covenant (or in accordance with the principles outlined in those clauses) which Tax would not give rise to a claim under the Tax Warranties or the Tax Covenant disregarding the financial limitations thereunder;
- (v) any payments made to, or liabilities assumed for the benefit of, the Retained Group by any member of the Group strictly in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the ASA or the CIO Agreement;
- (vi) any payments made by or on behalf of any member of the Group to any member of the Retained Group in respect of any Group Relief surrendered to that member of the Group in accordance with clause 13 of the Tax Covenant to the extent such payment is provided for in the Management Accounts;
- (vii) any payment accrued or provided for in the Management Accounts to the extent only that any such accrual or provision is owed to any member of the Retained Group;
- (viii) the transfer of UUES to a member of the Retained Group for £45 million provided that the entire consideration is settled in cash upon such transfer;
- (ix) payment of sums due and payable under the leases between any member of the Retained Group and any member of the Group in each case on an arm's length basis and on the terms referred to in Schedule 6 (Properties) or any other lease to be entered into prior to Completion between a member of the Retained Group and a member of the Group pursuant to the terms of this

- (x) any payments made to, or liabilities assumed for the benefit of, the Retained Group by any member of the Group strictly in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the EASL Indemnity;

"Planning Legislation"	means all legislation intended to control or regulate the construction, demolition, alteration or use of land or buildings or to preserve or protect the national heritage and any orders, bye laws or regulations made or granted under any of them;
"Proceedings"	means any proceeding, suit or action arising out of or in connection with this agreement;
"Property" or "Properties"	means freehold, leasehold or other immovable property; and "Properties" shall have a corresponding meaning;
"Purchaser's Group"	means the Purchaser, its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings, any holding company of the Purchaser and all other subsidiaries of any such holding company from time to time;
"Purchaser's Solicitors"	means Ashurst LLP of Broadwalk House, 5 Appold Street, London EC2A 2HA;
"Redundant Employee"	has the meaning given to it in sub-clause 8.19 ;
"Redundancy Payment"	has the meaning given to it in Schedule 10 (Redundancy Terms);
"Relevant IT Contracts"	means the contracts set out in Schedule 11 (Group IT Contracts), in each case solely to the extent that the benefit of the contract is used by the Group;
"Retained Group"	means the Seller and its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings, any holding company of the Seller and all other subsidiaries of any such holding company in each case from time to time (excluding the Company and the other members of the Group);
"Retained Marks"	means:

- (i) the name "United Utilities";
- (ii) any associated logo or device and similar name or mark owned by any member of the Retained Group; and
- (iii) any name or mark owned by any member of the Retained Group which includes any of the foregoing;

"Seller's Solicitors"	means Slaughter and May;
"Service Document"	means a claim form, application notice, order or judgment or other document relating to any Proceedings;
"Shares"	means the entire issued share capital of the Company being Ordinary Shares and the A Shares;
"Share Purchase Documents"	means this agreement, the Disclosure Letter and the Tax Covenant;
"Statutory Agreement"	means any agreement or planning obligation under Section 18 of the Public Health Act 1936, Section 52 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, Section 38 and Section 278 of the Highways Act, 1980, Section 33 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, Section 106 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, Section 104 of the Water Industry Act 1991 or any provision in legislation of a similar nature;
"Subsidiaries"	means the subsidiaries of the Company referred to in Schedule 5 (Basic information about the Subsidiaries), basic information of which is set out in that Schedule and "Subsidiary" shall mean any one of them as the context may require;
"SWS Lease"	has the meaning given to it in sub-clause 8.14 ;
"Tax/tax"	has the meaning given to it in the Tax Covenant;
"Tax Authority"	has the meaning given to it in the Tax Covenant;
"Tax Covenant"	means the tax covenant in the agreed form referred to in Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements);
"Tax Saving"	means any Tax credit, repayment or other Tax benefit including any deduction from the computation of taxable

"Tax Warranties"	means the warranties set out in paragraphs 23 to 31 of Schedule 2 (Warranties) ;
"Thus Points of Presence"	means those points of presence and all related equipment retained, replaced and maintained by Thus Group plc or its successors for the purpose of running the Electronic Communications Networks and Electronic Communications Services both as defined in Section 32 of the Communications Act 2003 and where the context so admits similar services under the Telecommunications Act 1984;
"Transitional Services"	means those services to be provided following Completion as described in Schedule 8 (Transitional Services) ;
"UK Listing Authority"	means the Financial Services Authority acting in its capacity as the competent authority for the purposes of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, including where the context so permits, any committee, employee, officer or servant to whom any function of the UK Listing Authority may for the time being be delegated;
"UUE" or "Company"	means United Utilities Electricity Limited;
"UUE Database"	means the databases comprising details of substations, offices, depots, freehold properties, leases, licences, wayleaves, easements, interests and other property arrangements which the Purchaser has been invited to inspect;
"UUES"	means United Utilities Electricity Services Limited;
"UUESPS"	means the United Utilities Group of the Electricity Supply Pension Scheme constituted by trust deed and rules dated 20 January 1983 as subsequently amended;
"UUE Points of Presence"	means those points of presence and all related equipment retained, replaced and maintained by UUE for the purpose of running the Electronic Communications Networks and Electronic Communications Services both as defined in Section 32 of the Communications Act 2003 and where the context so admits similar services under the Telecommunications Act 1984;
"UUE Property or Properties"	means the properties listed as such in Schedule 6 (Properties) ;

"UUPS"	means the United Utilities Pension Scheme constituted by trust deed and rules dated 18 March 2005 as subsequently amended;
"UW"	means United Utilities Water PLC;
"VAT"	means value added tax as provided for in VATA 1994 and any other tax of a similar nature which is introduced in substitution for or in addition to such tax;
"VATA 1994"	means the Value Added Tax Act 1994;
"Vendor Due Diligence Report"	means the due diligence report into the affairs of the Group dated 20 September 2007 prepared for United Utilities PLC by Deloitte & Touche LLP and any supplements or additions thereto;
"Warranties"	means the warranties set out in Schedule 2 (Warranties) given by the Seller and "Warranty" shall be construed accordingly; and
"Working Hours"	means 9.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. on a Business Day.

1.2 In this agreement, unless otherwise specified:

- (A) references to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs and Schedules are to clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs, sub-paragraphs of, and Schedules to, this agreement;
- (B) a reference to any statute or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the same as it may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, modified or re-enacted;
- (C) references to a "company" shall be construed so as to include any company, corporation or other body corporate, wherever and however incorporated or established;
- (D) references to a "person" shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, government, state or agency of a state or any joint venture, association or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);
- (E) references to any document being in "agreed form" means the document in a form agreed by the parties to the agreement and initialled for the purposes of identification by the Purchaser and the Seller;
- (F) use of any genders includes the other genders;

company, "paid up", "subsidiary" and "subsidiary undertaking" shall have the meaning given in the Companies Acts;

- (H) "including" means "including, without limitation";
- (I) a person shall be deemed to be connected with another if that person is connected with another within the meaning of section 839 ICTA 1988;
- (J) references to writing shall include any modes of reproducing words in a legible and non transitory form;
- (K) references to times of the day are to London time;
- (L) headings to clauses and Schedules are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of this agreement;
- (M) the Schedules form part of this agreement and shall have the same force and effect as if expressly set out in the body of this agreement, and any reference to this agreement shall include the Schedules;
- (N) references to the knowledge, belief or awareness of the Seller (or similar phrases) shall be limited to the actual knowledge of Martin Beesley, Paul Bircham, Mike Boxall, Eóin Cooke, Charles Cornish, Andrew Cowan, Mike Kay, Michael McCallion, Malcolm Sugden, Paul Taylor, Tim Weller, Phil Aspin, Andy Bedford, Jonathan Booth, Martin Cawson, Steve Cox, Sean Duxbury, John Hardy, Frances Healey, Eddie Hamilton and Chris Wright;
- (O) references to "costs" and/or "expenses" incurred by a person shall not include any amount in respect of VAT comprised in such costs or expenses for which either that person or, if relevant, any other member of the VAT group to which that person belongs is entitled to credit as input tax;
- (P) any Payment Obligation that is expressed to be given on an "After-Tax Basis" shall take into account
 - (i) any amount in respect of Tax required to be deducted or withheld from the relevant Payment and the Tax chargeable on the recipient of the relevant Payment (including on any increased amount paid to give effect to this clause); and
 - (ii) any Tax Saving which is available to the indemnified party or the recipient of the Payment (or, if different, the relevant party that is the subject of such indemnity) to the extent that it arises as a result of the matter giving rise to the Payment Obligation or as a result of receiving the Payment, such that the recipient of the Payment (or, if different, the relevant party that is the subject of such indemnity) is in the same position as it would have been in if

2. Sale and purchase

- 2.1 The Purchaser shall purchase and the Seller shall sell with full title guarantee or procure the sale of the Shares free from all mortgages, pledges, claims, charges, liens, Encumbrances, equities or other third party rights or claims of any nature in respect of the Shares, together with all rights attached or accruing to them at Completion.
- 2.2 The Purchaser shall be entitled to exercise all rights attached or accruing to the Shares including the right to receive all dividends, distributions or any return of capital declared, paid or made by the Company in respect of periods commencing on or after Completion.
- 2.3 The Seller waives all rights of pre-emption over any of the Shares conferred upon it by the articles of association of the Company or in any other way and undertakes to ensure that any rights of pre-emption over any of the Shares are waived at the cost and expense of the Seller.

3. Consideration

- 3.1 The total consideration for the sale of the Shares shall be the payment by the Purchaser to the Seller of an amount equal to the sum of £1,140,000,000 (the "Consideration").
- 3.2 Any payment made by any party under this agreement or the Tax Covenant shall (so far as possible) be treated as an adjustment to the Consideration.
- 3.3 The Consideration shall be payable in cash in accordance with the terms of clause 4 (Completion).

4. Completion

- 4.1 Completion shall, subject to clause 4.3 take place on the Completion Date at the offices of the Seller's Solicitors at One Bunhill Row, London EC1Y 8YY.
- 4.2 At Completion the Seller shall do those things listed in Part A (Seller's obligations) of Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) and the Purchaser shall do those things listed in Part B (Purchaser's obligations) of Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements). Completion of the transfer of the Shares shall take place simultaneously with all the Consideration being received in the Bank Account in cleared funds. The Purchaser shall not be obliged to complete the purchase of any of the Shares unless the Seller completes the sale of all the Shares simultaneously, but completion of the purchase of some Shares shall not affect the rights of the Purchaser with respect to its rights to the other Shares.
- 4.3 If the respective obligations of the Seller and/or the Purchaser under sub-clause 4.2 and Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) are not complied with on the Completion Date, the Purchaser and/or the Seller, as the case may be, may:

- (A) defer Completion so that the provisions of this clause 4 shall apply mutatis

- (B) proceed to Completion on that date, to the extent that each party is ready, willing and able to do so (without limiting its rights under this agreement) and specify a later date on which each party shall be obliged to complete its outstanding obligations.

Where Completion is deferred in accordance with sub-clause 4.3(A) and the respective obligations of the Seller and/or the Purchaser under sub-clause 4.2 and Schedule 1 (Completion arrangements) are not complied with on the Completion Date as so deferred, the Purchaser (in the case of non-compliance by the Seller) or the Seller (in the case of non-compliance by the Purchaser) may then terminate this agreement by notice in writing to the other party.

- 4.4 ~~Where Completion is deferred by the Seller in accordance with sub-clause 4.3(A) as a result of the Purchaser failing to comply with its obligations under sub-clause 4.2 and Schedule 1 (Completion Arrangements) at the Completion Date, the Purchaser shall pay to the Seller an amount equal to the amount of interest at the Agreed Rate that would accrue on a deposit of the Consideration from (and including) the date on which Completion is deferred up to (but excluding) the Completion Date.~~
- 4.5 If the agreement is terminated in accordance with sub-clause 4.3 then, without limiting any party's right to claim damages or any other appropriate remedy, all obligations of the parties under this agreement shall automatically terminate except for the provisions of clause 20 (Announcements) and clause 21 (Confidentiality) but, for the avoidance of doubt, all rights and liabilities of the parties which have accrued before termination or thereafter in relation to the provisions of clause 20 (Announcements) and clause 21 (Confidentiality) shall continue to exist.
- 4.6 Without limiting clause 12 (Remedies and waivers), any party's right to terminate this agreement in accordance with sub-clause 4.3 is not exclusive of any right, powers and remedies provided by law.
- 4.7 The parties agree that any insurance policies operated by any member of the Retained Group for the benefit of any member of the Group shall remain in full force and effect insofar as they relate to the Group (including, for the avoidance of doubt, United Utilities Electricity (ESPS) Pensions Trustee Limited) up to and including the date of Completion whereupon such arrangements shall terminate.
- 4.8 The Seller and the Purchaser agree to procure that the Intra-Group Trading Items will be settled in accordance with the normal practice between the companies concerned.
- 4.9 To the extent not invoiced and paid prior to Completion, the Purchaser agrees to procure that on Completion the Company shall pay any unpaid Group Recharges which have accrued from the first day of the month in which Completion falls to and including the Completion Date on a pro-rata basis.

5. No Leakage Undertakings

- 5.1 The Seller undertakes to the Purchaser that in the period from and including the

- (A) (i) the Retained Group has not received and will not receive any dividend or distribution or other return of capital (whether by reduction of capital or redemption or purchase of shares or other securities) declared, paid or made by any member of the Group;
- (ii) no other business or assets have been, or will be, acquired or disposed of, and no liabilities have been, or will be, assumed, indemnified or incurred for the benefit of, any member of the Retained Group by any member of the Group other than on an arm's length basis;
- (iii) no payments (including management charges or compensation payments) have been made or agreed to be made or will be agreed to be made by any member of the Group to or on behalf of the Retained Group;
- (iv) neither the Company nor any member of the Group has incurred or paid, or will incur or pay any amount to any person as fees or bonus in connection with the sale and purchase of the Shares contemplated by this agreement;
- (v) neither the Company nor any member of the Group has granted, or will grant, a waiver or release in favour of any member of the Retained Group in respect of any sums or obligation due by that member of the Retained Group to that member of the Group other than on an arm's length basis;
- (vi) no member of the Group has amended or will amend a contract or arrangement with any member of the Retained Group which constitutes or gives rise to an Intra-Group Trading Item in such a way as to increase the cost to the Group other than on an arm's length basis; and
- (vii) no agreement to do any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii), (iv) (v) and (vi) has been, or will be, entered into,

(together, the "No Leakage Undertakings"); and

- (B) subject to sub-clause 5.2 and Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability), if there is a breach of any of the No Leakage Undertakings, the Seller will pay to the Purchaser, by way of an adjustment to the Consideration, in immediately available funds, a sum equal to the amount which, if received by a member of the Group, would be necessary to put it into the financial position which would have existed had there been no breach of the No Leakage Undertakings. The Purchaser shall not be entitled to any remedy for breach of sub-clause 5.1(A) other than payment pursuant to this sub-clause 5.1(B).

5.2 The No Leakage Undertakings do not apply to any Permitted Leakage and the obligations of the Seller under sub-clause 5.1(B), shall not apply to any such Permitted

6. Effect of Completion

Subject to any express provision to the contrary in this agreement, any provision of this agreement (or any provision of any other document referred to in this agreement) which is capable of being performed after but which has not been performed at or before Completion and all Warranties, covenants and other undertakings and obligations contained in or entered into in accordance with this agreement shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding Completion.

7. Seller's warranties and undertakings

- 7.1 Subject to sub-clauses 11.1 and 11.2 (Purchaser's remedies and Seller's limitations on liability), the Seller warrants to the Purchaser in the terms of the Warranties at the date of this agreement.
- 7.2 The Seller shall use reasonable endeavours to procure the release of the Company and any other member of the Group from each Assurance (to the extent the Company notifies the Seller in relation to any such Assurance), if any, and, without prejudice to the foregoing, the Seller shall, and shall, so far it is able, procure that any member of the Retained Group, execute and deliver all such instruments of assumption and acknowledgements and take all such other action as the Purchaser may reasonably request in order to effect the release and discharge in full of any Assurance.
- 7.3 The Seller undertakes to the Purchaser to assume and pay and discharge when due, indemnify (on an After-Tax Basis) and to keep indemnified (on an After-Tax Basis) the relevant member of the Group from and against all actions, claims, proceedings, liability, loss, damages, payments and costs and expenses suffered or incurred by the relevant member of the Group in relation to or arising out of any Assurance in respect of any event, matter or thing arising after the Management Accounts Date pending such release referred to in sub-clause 7.2, or if such release cannot be obtained.
- 7.4 The Seller will promptly account to the Purchaser for, and pay over to the relevant member of the Group, any amounts recovered by the Seller (or any other member of the Retained Group) (less the reasonable costs and expenses of recovery) after the Completion Date out of any policy of insurance arising from claims for loss or damage suffered by any member of the Group in the period up to Completion.
- 7.5 The Seller shall (and shall procure that members of the Retained Group), at the request of the Purchaser, and at the Purchaser's cost, provide such reasonable assistance as may be reasonably necessary to pursue and seek recovery of any insurance claim made or arising in respect of events on or prior to the Completion Date under those group insurance policies in existence prior to Completion which benefit any member of the Group, its assets or employees.

7.6 Share Plans

(A) In this sub-clause 7.6:

- (i) "Employees" means persons employed or formerly employed by a member of the Group at the date of this agreement and "Employee" means any one of them;
- (ii) "Employee Taxation" means the amount for which a member of the Group becomes liable to account to HMRC under the Pay as You Earn scheme in respect of income tax chargeable in respect of a Share Gain and primary Class 1 National Insurance contributions for which a member of the Group is so liable to account in respect of earnings or remuneration represented by a Share Gain or similar amounts for which a member of the Group becomes liable under any jurisdiction other than the UK;
- (iii) "Employer NICs" means secondary Class 1 National Insurance contributions (or equivalent liabilities in any jurisdiction outside the UK) which a member of the Group is liable to pay to HMRC (or equivalent tax authority in any jurisdiction outside the UK) in respect of earnings or remuneration represented by a Share Gain;
- (iv) "HMRC" means HM Revenue & Customs;
- (v) "Relevant Award" means an option or award granted under any of the Schemes to an Employee and any purchase of shares by an Employee;
- (vi) "Schemes" means together the United Utilities Executive Share Option Scheme, the United Utilities PLC Approved Company Share Option Plan 1999, the United Utilities PLC Unapproved Executive Share Option Scheme, the United Utilities PLC Unapproved Company Share Option Plan 1999, the United Utilities PLC Performance Share Plan, the United Utilities PLC Savings-Related Share Option Scheme 1999, the United Utilities PLC share incentive plan and any other share option and share incentive arrangements operated by any member of the Retained Group in which any Employee is eligible to participate; and
- (vii) "Share Gain" means the taxable amount which counts as employment income of the Employee in relation to the Relevant Award.

(B) The provisions of this sub-clause 7.6 shall have effect in the event that any Employee realises a Share Gain and as a consequence any member of the Group is obliged to account for any Employee Taxation or to pay any Employer NICs arising in respect of the Share Gain.

(C) If a member of the Retained Group (1) receives a valid notice from an event occurs in relation to a Relevant Award (including, without limitation, the vesting of a Relevant Award) as a result of which Employee Taxation is triggered:

- (i) the Seller will procure that such member of the Retained Group will, within 5 Business Days from the date of such notice or as the case may be, on the date on which it becomes aware of such event, notify the relevant member of the Group of:
- (a) the fact of the exercise, assignment or release or other event which triggers Employee Taxation;
 - (b) the number of shares to which the Employee is entitled;
 - (c) the amount of the Share Gain;
 - (d) the identity of the holder of the Relevant Award; and
 - (e) the date of grant of the Relevant Award or, if applicable, the date of the purchase of the shares by the Employee;
- (ii) the Purchaser will procure that the relevant member of the Group will within 5 Business Days of the receipt of any notice from such member of the Retained Group as referred to in sub-clause 7.6(C)(i) provide the relevant member of the Retained Group with all such information as that member of the Retained Group shall reasonably require for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of Employee Taxation and Employer NICs due to be accounted for in respect of the Share Gain;
- (iii) subject to the Seller having received all the information set out in sub-clause 7.6(C)(i), the Seller will procure that the relevant member of the Retained Group will exercise and enforce all of its rights under the rules of the Schemes to recover an amount equal to all Employee Taxation (and, if applicable, Employer NICs) in respect of the Share Gain and will procure that such amount so recovered (together with any amount not so recovered) will be paid to the relevant member of the Group within 5 Business Days thereof; and
- (iv) the Seller shall pay to the Purchaser an amount equal to any Employer NICs for which the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group becomes liable as a result of the participation by any Employee in any of the Schemes, other than any amounts as are dealt with in sub-clause 7.6(C)(iii) above, in a timely manner (and in any event no later than 5 Business Days before the date on which the Purchaser or the relevant member of the Purchaser's Group is obliged to account for such amount to HMRC).

the trustee of any employee benefit trust any amount in connection with the participation by any Employee in any Scheme.

- (E) The relevant member of the Retained Group will provide to the relevant member of the Group all information that such member of the Group is required to notify to HMRC in respect of the exercise, assignment or release of Relevant Awards or other event triggering Employee Taxation by the earlier of:
- (i) 28 Business Days following a request for such information by the relevant member of the Group; or
 - (ii) the date that is 28 Business Days prior to the date of the relevant HMRC deadline, to the extent that such information is not otherwise in the possession of the relevant member of the Group or any other member of the Group.

- (F) Subject to the relevant member of the Group having received all the information set out in clause 7.6(C)(i) if any member of the Group achieves any reduction in profits for corporation tax purposes of that member of the Group which would not have been achieved but for the Relevant Awards in respect of which amounts are paid to HMRC under this sub-clause 7.6, the Purchaser shall pay to the Seller an amount equal to the corporation tax which would otherwise have been paid in respect of such reduced amount of profits for corporation tax of the relevant member of the Group for that accounting period, on or as soon as practicable after the date of such payment would otherwise have been made but for the reduction.

7.7 Subject to sub-clause 7.8, below, the Seller hereby assigns, with effect from the Completion Date, the benefit of each of the Relevant IT Contracts to the Purchaser.

7.8 Where any consent or agreement of any third party is required to enable the Purchaser to perform any Relevant IT Contract after the Completion Date or to transfer the benefit or burden of any Relevant IT Contract to the Purchaser or to put in place some other arrangement whereby the relevant part of any Relevant IT Contract which relates to the Group shall be severed and transferred, then the following provisions shall apply:

- (i) this agreement shall not constitute an assignment or an attempted assignment of the Relevant IT Contract if or to the extent that such an assignment or attempted assignment would constitute a breach of such Relevant IT Contract;
- (ii) the Seller and the Purchaser shall (at the expense of the Purchaser) use their respective reasonable endeavours to obtain the consent or agreement of the other party to whatever assignment, transfer, novation or other arrangement is necessary (the "necessary consent") to enable the Purchaser to perform such Relevant IT Contract after Completion or as the case may be to transfer the benefit and burden of such Relevant IT Contract (or the relevant part thereof) to

- (iii) until the necessary consent is obtained, the Purchaser shall, unless the Relevant IT Contract prohibits it, perform all the obligations of the Seller under such Relevant IT Contract as agent for or sub-contractor to the Seller or, if the Relevant IT Contract does prohibit the Purchaser from so acting as agent and/or sub-contractor, the Seller shall, at the cost of the Purchaser, provide for the Purchaser (to the extent permitted) the benefits, subject to the burdens, of the Relevant IT Contract (or the relevant part thereof).

7.9 Until such time as the necessary consent is obtained:

- (i) the Seller shall be deemed to hold the benefit of the Relevant IT Contract (excluding any licence of third party Intellectual Property) on trust for the Purchaser;
- (ii) in respect of any licence of third party Intellectual Property in a Relevant IT Contract, the Seller shall procure that the relevant member of the Retained Group shall, to the extent permitted under that Relevant IT Contract, sub-license the relevant Intellectual Property to the Purchaser; and
- (iii) the Purchaser shall indemnify the Seller from and against any and all liabilities, losses, charges, costs, claims and demands which the Seller may suffer or incur arising out of any act or omission of the Purchaser to perform or comply with any obligation of the relevant Seller which fails to be performed or complied with under the Relevant IT Contract after the Completion Date.

7.10 The Seller shall be responsible for, and shall indemnify the Purchaser or any member of the Purchaser's Group, in respect of any retention payments or bonuses which are payable at or after Completion in connection with the sale of the Shares under this agreement by the Company or any member of the Group to any Employees in respect of an entitlement which has accrued in the period prior to Completion.

7.11 Pending Completion the Seller undertakes to procure that:

- (A) the business of the Group continues to be operated in the ordinary course and not to discontinue or cease to operate all or a material part of the business of the Group; and
- (B) no amendment is made to the ASA without the prior written consent of the Purchaser (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

7.12 The Seller shall procure that between the date of this agreement and the Completion Date the Purchaser has reasonable access to the senior management of the Company and access to such information as the Purchaser may reasonably request.

7.13 In the event that any member of the Group is proposing to submit any Tax returns ^{for} before Completion the principles in clause 9 of the Tax Covenant shall apply in relation to such returns.

- 8.1 On the date of this agreement, the Purchaser shall deliver to the Seller the Certain Funds Letter, duly executed.
- 8.2 The Purchaser warrants to the Seller that
- (A) having made due and careful enquiry, the Purchaser has the requisite power and authority to enter into and perform this agreement;
 - (B) this agreement constitutes, and the other Share Purchase Documents to be executed by the Purchaser and delivered at Completion will, when executed, constitute binding obligations of the Purchaser in accordance with their respective terms;
 - (C) the execution and delivery of, and the performance by the Purchaser of its obligations under, this agreement and the other Share Purchase Documents will not
 - (i) result in a material breach of any provision of the constitutional documents of the Purchaser;
 - (ii) result in a breach of, or constitute a default under, any instrument to which the Purchaser is a party or by which the Purchaser is bound;
 - (iii) result in a breach of any order, judgment or decree of any court or governmental agency to which the Purchaser is a party or by which the Purchaser is bound; or
 - (iv) require the consent of its shareholders or of any other person which has not been obtained in writing at the date of this agreement;
 - (D) the Purchaser is not insolvent, or unable to pay its debts within the meaning of any relevant insolvency legislation, nor has the Purchaser stopped paying its debts as they fall due;
 - (E) the Purchaser has the necessary funding resources (the "Funding Resources") to enable it to meet its obligations under, or in connection with, this agreement on the terms set out in this agreement (including, but not limited to, paying (in cash) all amounts due to be paid to the Seller under this agreement or by way of damages for any breach of this agreement) (the "Agreement Obligations");
 - (F) the Purchaser has disclosed to the Seller all material terms of, or relating to, that part of the Funding Resources represented by debt finance (the "Debt Funding Resources") and evidence of the execution and delivery of the loan and equity agreements giving rise to the Debt Funding Resources and there is no other agreement or arrangement which might prejudice its ability to draw down on the Debt Funding Resources; become unconditional and the Purchaser will be able to draw down on the Funding Resources;

- (H) the Purchaser will take all steps necessary to enforce and exercise its rights under the Funding Resources (including complying with any obligations) in order to allow it to draw down immediately available funding sufficient to discharge the Agreement Obligations;
- (I) the Purchaser will apply sufficient funds received by way of the Funding Resources in order to discharge the Agreement Obligations;
- (J) the Purchaser shall not amend or agree to amend the terms of or waive any of its rights under the Funding Resources in a way which might prejudice its ability to draw down sufficient immediately available funds in order to discharge the Agreement Obligations; and
- (K) the Purchaser is owned in equal shares by:
 - (i) IIF Int'l Holding GP Ltd. for and on behalf of IIF Int'l Holding L.P.; and
 - (ii) Commonwealth Bank of Australia.

8.3 In the event that the Seller, at any time after the date of this agreement, should wish to take out insurance against liability under this agreement, the Purchaser undertakes, provided that the Purchaser's costs (including management time and administrative expenses) are borne by the Seller, to provide such information as the prospective insurer may reasonably require before effecting such insurance.

8.4 The Purchaser shall use reasonable endeavours to procure the release of the Seller and any other member of the Retained Group from each Assurance (to the extent the Seller notifies the Purchaser in relation to any such Assurance), if any, and, without prejudice to the foregoing, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver, and shall procure that any member of the Group shall execute and deliver all such instruments of assumption and acknowledgements and take all such other action as the Seller may reasonably request in order to effect the release and discharge in full of any Assurance.

8.5 The Purchaser undertakes to the Seller to assume and pay and discharge when due, indemnify (on an After-Tax Basis) and to keep indemnified (on an After-Tax Basis) the Seller and any relevant member of the Retained Group from and against all actions, claims, proceedings, liability, loss, damage, payments and costs and expenses suffered or incurred by the Seller or the relevant member of the Retained Group in relation to or arising out of any Assurance in respect of any event, matter or thing arising after the Completion Date pending such release referred to in sub-clause 8.4 or if such release cannot be obtained.

8.6 Following Completion the Purchaser agrees to procure that the Company pays and discharges promptly (on an After-Tax Basis) when due and invoiced to the relevant:

relation to or arising out of any Assurance in respect of any event, matter or thing arising after the Management Accounts Date but before the Completion Date.

- 8.7 As soon as reasonably practicable following Completion, and in any event by the date falling three Business Days after Completion, the Purchaser shall:
- (A) procure that (i) the Company, and (ii) United Utilities Electricity (ESPS) Pensions Trustee Limited, respectively, convene meetings of its members and of its directors to consider such resolutions as may be necessary to change the corporate name of the Company and United Utilities Electricity (ESPS) Pensions Trustee Limited, respectively, to a name that does not include "United Utilities" or any name intended or likely to be confused or associated with the United Utilities' name or suggesting a connection to United Utilities PLC or any member of the Retained Group;
 - (B) procure that the Clauses and Rules of the New UUEESPS are amended so as to change the name of the New UUEESPS to a name that does not include "United Utilities" or any name intended or likely to be confused or associated with the United Utilities' name or suggesting a connection to United Utilities PLC or any member of the Retained Group;
 - (C) vote (or procure that the members of such company vote) in favour of all such resolutions at those meetings referred to in (A) above;
 - (C) procure the registration of the name referred to in (A) above with the Registrar of Companies promptly thereafter (using the same day service); and
 - (D) take all such steps as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to a change to the corporate name of the Company and United Utilities Electricity (ESPS) Pensions Trustee Limited and to a change to the name of the New UUEESPS.
- 8.8 Upon receipt of confirmation from the Registrar of Companies that the name changes referred to in sub-clause 8.7 above have been effected, the Purchaser shall provide to the Seller written proof that such name changes have been effected.
- 8.9 The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this agreement shall transfer or license, or shall operate as an agreement to transfer or license, any right, title or interest in or to the Retained Marks. Following Completion, the Purchaser shall not, and shall procure that no member of the Purchaser's Group shall, hold itself out as being part of the Retained Group.
- 8.10 The Purchaser shall procure that each member of the Group shall as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event by the date falling six months after Completion, destroy or delete from all sales literature, stationery and other corporate documentation, invoices, business cards, internet sites, buildings and signage (save as permitted by sub-clause 8.11) and vehicles used by or belonging to the Group, the Retained Marks.

- 8.12 On Completion, the Purchaser shall procure that the Company (to the extent that it has not already done so) procures the provision by one or more Eligible L/C Providers of Letters of Credit for each of the ASP Fund and AO Fund in an aggregate amount equal to the Completion Date L/C Amount in accordance with clause 4.2 and clause 8 of the New UUE Group Agreement.
- 8.13 No later than 5 Business Days after Completion, the Purchaser shall procure that the Company:
- (A) submits to the New Trustee a Management Certificate in accordance with clause 6.1 of the New UUE Group Agreement; and
 - (B) if required under the New UUE Group Agreement and only to the extent that it has not already done so, procures the provision by one or more Eligible L/C Providers of such Letters of Credit that may then be required to be provided under the New UUE Group Agreement.
- 8.14 To the extent that, following Completion, the lease in respect of Unit 2, Imperial Way, Swansea to be assigned from South West Stores Limited to the Company as set out in Schedule 6 (the "SWS Lease") has not been entered into, the Seller shall procure that the relevant member of the Retained Group and the Purchaser shall procure that the Company shall as soon as possible after Completion take all such further actions necessary to execute and complete the assignment at the Seller's cost. The Purchaser shall further procure that the Company shall enter into direct covenants with the landlord of such property to pay the rents reserved by and otherwise observe and perform the covenants of the lessee under such lease, and shall provide similar covenants by way of indemnity in such assignment in favour of the relevant member of the Retained Group.
- 8.15 Until such time as the assignment of the SWS Lease referred to in sub-clause 8.14 above is completed, the Purchaser shall indemnify (on an After-Tax Basis) and keep indemnified (on an After-Tax Basis) the relevant member of the Retained Group in respect of all actions, claims, proceedings, losses, damage, payments and costs or expenses incurred by that member of the Retained Group arising in respect of or in relation to the SWS Lease and the Seller undertakes to deal with such property in such lawful manner as the Purchaser acting in its reasonable discretion shall direct in writing at its reasonable cost, subject to sub-clause 8.14 in respect of the assignment of the SWS Lease.
- 8.16 Save in respect of claims for fraud, the Seller undertakes (if any claim is made against it in connection with the sale of the Shares to the Purchaser) not to make any claim against any member of the Group or any director or employee of any member of the Group on whom it may have relied in connection with the preparation and contents of the Share Purchase Documents.
- 8.17 To the extent that title to any Intellectual Property which was not used exclusively in the Business at the Completion Date is acquired by the Purchaser's Group under this

- 8.18 The Seller hereby grants a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable (save to any member of the Group), royalty-free, worldwide licence to the Purchaser of any Intellectual Property transferred pursuant to sub-clause 8.17 above which was used by the any member of the Group in the twelve months prior to the date of this agreement, to the extent that any such Intellectual Property was so used.
- 8.19 The Purchaser shall procure that the Company applies the redundancy terms set out in Schedule 10 (Redundancy Terms) to any person who (i) is an employee of the Company on the Completion Date, and (ii) has received during the twelve month period following Completion a notice of termination of employment by reason of redundancy from the Company (the "Redundant Employee"). If HM Revenue & Customs disallow the income tax relief (in 2007/2008 £30,000 exempt from income tax) normally available in respect of the Redundancy Payment then the Purchaser shall procure that the Company pay to the Redundant Employee, in addition to the Redundancy Payment, an additional payment on a grossed up basis to reflect any lost income tax exemptions that would normally have been due to the Redundant Employee at the point of termination of employment.
- 8.20 The Purchaser agrees to procure that any bonus payment in respect of the financial year in which the Redundant Employee's employment ends will be calculated and paid to the Redundant Employee by the Company pro-rata reflecting any unexpired period of notice.
- 8.21 Subject to sub-clause 8.23, to the extent that on the Completion Date, the leases and/or licences to be granted to any member of the Retained Group as set out in Schedule 6 (Properties) have not been entered into, the Purchaser will procure that the relevant member of the Group will as soon as possible after the Completion Date take all such reasonable further actions necessary to grant the leases and/or licences in accordance with the heads of terms which appear at 07.16.05 in the Data Room, the template leases and/or licences which appear at 07.16.01 to 07.16.04 and 07.16.06 in the Data Room and the schedule which appears at 07.16.07 (without prejudice to the provisions of the ASA) (subject to such amendments as may reasonably be required by any third party landlord whose consent is required in order to effect the lawful grant of such leases and/or licences) and the Seller shall procure that the relevant member of the Retained Group will accept the leases and/or licences.
- 8.22 Subject to sub-clause 8.23, to the extent that on the Completion Date, the leases and/or licences to be granted to the Group as set out in Schedule 6 (Properties) have not been entered into, the Seller will use its best endeavours to procure that the relevant member of the Retained Group will as soon as possible after the Completion Date take all such further actions necessary to grant the leases and/or licences in accordance with the heads of terms which appear at 07.16.05 in the Data Room, the template leases and/or licences which appear at 07.16.01 to 07.16.04 and 07.16.06 in the Data Room and the schedule which appears at 07.16.07 (without prejudice to the provisions of the ASA) (subject to such amendments as may reasonably be required by any third party landlord whose consent is required in order to effect the lawful grant of such leases and/or licences) and the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant member of the Group will

8.23 In respect of those Properties where any third party landlord consent is required in order to effect the transactions referred to in sub-clauses 8.21 and 8.22, if such third party consent remains to be obtained at the Completion Date, the Purchaser and the relevant member of the Retained Group will each use their best endeavours to obtain the relevant third party consents and complete the relevant lease/licence immediately thereafter.

8.24 To the extent that, on the Completion Date, the leases and/or licences to be granted to any member of the Retained Group or the Company as set out in Schedule 6 (Properties) have not been entered into, the Purchaser and the relevant member of the Retained Group will procure that the relevant party (i) is permitted to have unrestricted use and occupation of the whole or such parts of the relevant Properties as are not subject to any lettings (ii) will pay the licence fee, rent, service charge and all other outgoings payable under the leases/licences as if the relevant lease/licence had been granted and (iii) will observe and perform the covenants and conditions on the part of the lessee/licensee in the relevant lease/licence as if the relevant lease/licence had been granted.

8.25 Subject to sub-clause 8.23 above, in respect of any lease and/or licence to be granted by any member of the Retained Group to the Group as referred to in sub-clause 8.21 above, the relevant lease and/or licence shall

~~(A)~~ permit the sub-underletting and/or sub-licensing referred to in Schedule 6 (Properties) and

~~(B)~~ permit sub-underletting and/or sub-licensing of the relevant properties to third parties on broadly similar terms to those referred to in clause 8.22 above (as appropriate) subject to obtaining Landlord's prior written consent (which is not to be unreasonably withheld).

9. Deliberately left blank

10. Non-solicitation

The Seller undertakes that it will not (and will procure that no member of the Retained Group will) on or before 31 March 2010 solicit or entice away from the employment of the Group any Key Employee except those who are approached when they are no longer employed by the Group.

11. Purchaser's remedies and Seller's limitations on liability

11.1 No liability shall attach to the Seller in respect of claims under the Warranties or No Leakage Undertakings or the Tax Covenant if and to the extent that the limitations set out in Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability) apply.

11.2 This agreement will only terminate in the circumstances set out in sub-clause 4.3. If, following Completion, the Purchaser becomes aware that there has been any breach of the Warranties or any other term of this agreement, the Purchaser shall not be entitled

12. Remedies and waivers

- 12.1 Except as provided in Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability), no delay or omission by any party to this agreement in exercising any right, power or remedy provided by law or under this agreement or any other documents referred to in it shall:
- (A) affect that right, power or remedy; or
 - (B) operate as a waiver of it.
- 12.2 Except as provided in Schedule 3 (Limitations on the Seller's liability), the single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy provided by law or under this agreement shall not preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.
- 12.3 Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, the rights, powers and remedies provided in this agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers and remedies provided by law.
- 12.4 None of the provisions of this agreement shall limit the liability of the parties in respect of fraud or fraudulent concealment.

13. Access

- 13.1 The Purchaser shall, at the Seller's expense, make available to the Seller such Books and Records of any member of the Group (or, if practicable, the relevant parts of those Books and Records), which are required by the Seller for the purpose of (a) dealing with its Tax affairs or with the Tax affairs of any member of the Retained Group; or (b) for the purpose of preparing the Retained Group's statutory accounts, regulatory accounts or (c) pursuant to any other regulatory requirement or (d) pursuant to any reasonable request and, accordingly, the Purchaser shall, upon being given reasonable notice by the Seller, procure that such Books and Records are made available to the Seller for inspection (during Working Hours) and copying (at the Seller's expense) for and only to the extent necessary for such purpose and for a period of seven years from Completion.
- 13.2 The Seller shall and shall procure so far as it is able that each member of the Retained Group shall keep all information contained in any Books and Records provided to the Seller for the purposes of sub-clause 13.1 strictly confidential.
- 13.3 The Purchaser shall not, and shall procure so far as it is able that the Company and each of the other members of the Group shall not, destroy any of the Books and Records of any member of the Group that are disclosable under sub-clause 13.1(a) to (c) (inclusive) for a minimum period of seven years from Completion.
