To: The President

The Stock Exchange of Thailand

As the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) has required Shin Corporation Plc (the "Company") to report the progress made in rectifying its inadequate free-float of minority shareholders until the Company meets the free-float requirements.

We would like to inform you that the present economic crisis has had an impact on both global and domestic investment and distribution of shares to minority shareholders. When the Company has made more progress in rectifying this situation, we will inform you further.
