These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

GTECH INTERNATIONAL RESOURCES LIMITED

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEARS ENDED APRIL 30, 2010 AND 2009

1. Nature and continuance of operations

The Company was incorporated under the laws of the Yukon Territory and is registered extra-provincially in the Province of British Columbia, Canada.

Previously, the Company was in the process of exploring its mineral properties and had not determined whether these properties contained ore reserves that were economically recoverable. The Company has written-off all amounts shown for mineral properties and their related deferred costs. The Company is currently investigating other business opportunities.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles on a going concern basis which presumes the realization of assets and liabilities in the normal course of operations for the foreseeable future. The Company has incurred losses since its inception and, as at April 30, 2010, has an accumulated operating deficit in excess of $4.5 million. These financial statements reflect no adjustments which would become necessary in the event that the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

2. Significant accounting policies

(a) Mineral properties and deferred costs

The Company has written-off all of its mineral property interests and retains a residual royalty entitlement in respect of its Aurex exploration property (refer Note 6).

(b) Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate their fair value due to their short-term nature.

The Company classifies financial instruments as either held-to-maturity, available-for-sale, held-for-trading, loans and receivables or other financial liabilities. Financial instruments classified as held-for-trading are measured at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recognized in operating results. Financial instruments classified as available for sale are measured at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recognized in other comprehensive income. Financial instruments classified as held-to-maturity, loans and receivables or other financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost. Upon adoption of these new standards, the Company has designated its cash and cash equivalents as held-for-trading, which are measured at fair value. Accounts receivable are classified as loans and receivables, which are measured at amortized cost. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as other liabilities, which are measured at amortized cost. During the year ended April 30, 2010, the Company had neither available for sale nor held-to-maturity financial instruments.

(c) Stock-based compensation

The Company grants options to purchase common shares to its directors and employees from time to time. The Company accounts for its stock-based compensation plan using the fair value method. Compensation costs, equal to the fair value of the options on the date of grant, are recognized in operations, with an offsetting credit to contributed surplus over the period during which the related options vest. Consideration paid upon exercise of stock options, along with the applicable amount of contributed surplus is credited to share capital.

(d) Share capital

Common shares issued for non-monetary consideration are recorded at their fair market value based upon the date of share issuance. Costs incurred to issue common shares are deducted from share capital.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEARS ENDED APRIL 30, 2010 AND 2009

2. Significant accounting policies (cont.)

(e) Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the liability method of accounting. Temporary differences arising from the difference between the tax basis of an asset or liability and its carrying amount on the balance sheet are used to calculate future income tax liabilities or assets. These standards also require that the future income tax liabilities or assets are measured using tax rates and laws expected to apply in the periods that the temporary differences are expected to reverse. The Company has currently provided for a full valuation allowance against any potential tax assets.

(f) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

3. Accounting policies not yet adopted

The following pronouncement recently issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") will likely impact the Company's future accounting policies:

(a) International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS")

In February 2008, the Canadian Accounting Standards Board announced 2011 as the changeover date for publicly-listed companies to use IFRS, replacing Canada's own generally accepted accounting principles. The specific implementation is set for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. The transition date of January 1, 2011 will require restatement for comparative purposes of amounts reported by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2010. While the Company has begun assessing the adoption of IFRS for 2011, the financial reporting impact of the transition to IFRS cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

(b) Consolidated financial statements and non-controlling interests

In January 2009, the CICA issued the new handbook Section 1601, "Consolidated Financial Statements", and Section 1602, "Non-controlling Interests", effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Either adoption of these recommendations is permitted. These pronouncements further align Canadian GAAP with US GAAP and IFRS. Sections 1601 and 1602 change the accounting and reporting for ownership interest in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent. Non-controlling interests are to be presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity but separate from the parent's equity. The amount of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the non-controlling interest is to be clearly identified and presented on the face of the consolidated statement of income. In addition, these pronouncements establish standards for a change in a parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary and the valuation of retained non-controlling equity investments when a subsidiary is deconsolidated. They also establish reporting requirements for providing sufficient disclosures that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent and the interests of the non-controlling owners. The Company is currently considering the impact of adopting these pronouncements on its consolidated financial statements in fiscal 2011 in connection with the conversion to IFRS.

3. Accounting policies not yet adopted (cont.)

(c) Business combinations

In January 2009, the CICA issued the new handbook Section 1582, "Business Combinations" effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Earlier adoption of Section 1582 is permitted. This pronouncement further aligns Canadian GAAP with US GAAP and IFRS and changes the accounting for business combinations in a number of areas. It establishes principles and requirements governing how an acquiring company recognizes and measures in its financial statements identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed, any non-controlling interest in the acquire, and goodwill acquired. The section also establishes disclosure requirements that will enable users of the acquiring company's financial statements to evaluate the nature and financial effects of its business combinations. Although the Company is considering the impact of adopting this pronouncement on the financial statements, it will be limited to any future acquisitions beginning in fiscal 2011.

4. Change in accounting policies

In June 2009, the CICA Handbook Section 3862 was amended to include additional disclosure requirements about fair value measurements of financial instruments and to enhance liquidity risk disclosure, applicable to the Company for the year ended April 30, 2010. The additional fair value measurement disclosures include classification of financial instrument fair values in a fair value hierarchy comprising of three levels reflecting the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements, described as follows:

Level 1: Valuations based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2: Valuations based on directly or indirectly observable inputs in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted interest or currency exchange rates; and

Level 3: Valuations based on significant inputs that are not derived from observable market data, such as discounted cash flow methodologies based on internal cash flow forecasts.

5. Financial instruments

The Company's risk exposures and the potential impact on the Company's financial results are summarized below:

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with a counterparty's inability to fulfil its payment obligations. The Company believes that it has no significant credit risk.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquid funds available to meet its liabilities as, and when, they fall due. As at April 30, 2010, the Company had a cash balance of $354,399 to settle current liabilities of $14,778. The Company's financial liabilities generally have contractual maturities of 30 days and are subject to normal terms of trade.

(c) Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates and equity prices.

5. Financial instruments (cont.)

(d) Interest rate risk

The Company currently holds its cash balances at the Bank of Montreal. The Company's current policy is to invest its excess cash in investment-grade savings accounts managed by the Bank. The Company periodically monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit rating of its Bank.

(e) Foreign currency risk

The Company believes that it currently has no significant foreign exchange risk.

(f) Price risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to equity prices. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Company's earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the level of the stock market. The Company closely monitors individual equity movements and the stock market to determine appropriate courses of action to be taken by the Company.

The Company currently holds cash which is considered a Level 1 financial instrument fair value disclosure.

6. Exploration agreements

Aurex Property - Mayo Mining District

The Company had a 100% interest in this property which consisted of 155 mineral claims. In August 2001, the Company accepted 600,000 common shares in Yukon Zinc as final settlement for the sale of the property. The property was subsequently sold to Stratagold Corporation. The Company retains a 1.5% royalty on the project which Stratagold Corporation may purchase for $1,000,000.

Revenue Creek Area - Whitehorse Mining District

The Company owned 69 mineral claims which it sold to ATAC Resources Limited ("ATAC") in January 2002. The Company accepted 200,000 common shares in ATAC and a cash payment of $5,000 in final settlement for the transfer of the project. The Company retains a 2% net smelter royalty which ATAC may purchase for $600,000.

7. Related party transactions

The Company is a subsidiary of Genetic Technologies Limited ("GTG"), a public company listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (code: GTG) and NASDAQ Global Market (ticker: GENE). As at April 30, 2009, GTG owned 3,918,499 shares of the Company, representing approximately 75.82% of the Company's issued shares.

During the year ended April 30, 2010, GTG paid certain minor invoices in the amount of $3,820 on behalf of the Company which were subsequently repaid in full. Accordingly, as at April 30, 2010, there were no amounts owing to GTG.

During the year ended April 30, 2006, the Company granted stock options to certain Directors to acquire up to an aggregate of 200,000 common shares at an exercise prices of $0.45 per share with a fair value of $48,600, of which $16,200 has been recorded as an expense in the financial statements for that year. During the year ended April 30, 2007, the remaining expense of $32,400 was recorded as an expense.

The fair value of stock options used to calculate compensation expense is estimated using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model with the following assumptions: a risk-free interest rate of 3.54%; expected life of 5 years, an expected volatility of 60%, and no expectation for the payment of dividends.

Option pricing models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, particularly as to the expected price volatility of the stock. Changes in these assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and therefore it is Management's view that the existing models do not necessarily provide a single reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock option grants.

9. Loss per share

Loss per share is calculated using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Fully-diluted loss per share is not disclosed as it is anti-dilutive.
