Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Economy Securities, Incorporated
Evansville, Indiana

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Economy Securities, Incorporated (the Company) as of December 31, 2009, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Economy Securities, Incorporated at December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information on pages 11 to 14 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE A – NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Economy Securities, Incorporated (Company) operates as a fully-disclosed introducing broker in trading and investment securities. The Company's customer base is primarily individual investors located in Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Economy Acquisition Corp.

Cash

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash on hand, bank checking accounts, and money market accounts to be cash.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable consists of fees and commissions receivable from broker-dealers and Southwest Securities, Inc. (Clearing Organization) and is considered fully collectible. Therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been provided.

Revenue and Expenses

Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a settlement-date basis. There were no significant transactions at December 31, 2009 that would require reconciliation with trade-date basis accounting.

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising production costs as they are incurred and advertising communication costs the first time the advertising takes place. Advertising expense was $7,435 for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Income Taxes

The Company is a qualified subchapter S subsidiary and is not treated as a separate corporation for income tax purposes. The Company's assets, liabilities and items of income and loss are treated as assets, liabilities, and items of income and loss of its parent company, which has elected to be classified as an S corporation for income tax purposes. As such, the items of income or loss of the parent company are allocated to its stockholders in accordance with their respective equity interests and reported on their individual federal and state income tax returns. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company implemented new accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The parent company files federal and Indiana state income tax returns and those returns filed for tax years ended on or after December 31, 2006 are subject to examination by the relevant taxing authorities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B – CASH DEPOSIT WITH CLEARING ORGANIZATION

At December 31, 2009, the Company had an interest-bearing deposit of $15,760 with the Clearing Organization.

NOTE C – COMMON STOCK

At December 31, 2009, the authorized capital of the Company consists of 10,000 shares of no par value common stock and 700 shares were issued and outstanding at a stated value of $100 per share.

NOTE D – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company leases office space from Weinzapfel & Co., LLC, a related entity under common control, under an operating lease with an initial one-year term that is renewable annually. Total rent paid under this lease for the year ended December 31, 2009 was $26,400.

The Company leases employees from WH Benefits, Inc., a related entity under common control. Reimbursement of such costs, including compensation and benefits, under this arrangement for the year ended December 31, 2009 was $112,599, and $2,029 was payable to this related entity at December 31, 2009.

DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE E – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's (Commission) uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2009, the Company had net capital of $49,292, which was $44,292 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. At December 31, 2009, the Company's net capital ratio was 0.14 to 1.

NOTE F – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated whether any subsequent events that require recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements and related notes thereto have taken place through February 24, 2010, the date these financial statements were issued. The Company has determined that there are no such subsequent events.

Board of Directors
Economy Securities, Incorporated
Evansville, Indiana

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary schedules of Economy Securities, Incorporated (the Company), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of pursuing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
