REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Member Channel Capital Group LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Channel Capital Group LLC (the "Company") at December 31, 2009, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations, and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Note 1 – Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Channel Capital Group LLC (the "Company"), is a Delaware limited liability company, organized on July 13, 2001. The Company is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"), and an introducing broker on a fully disclosed basis, registered with the National Futures Association (the "NFA") and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "CFTC"), until November 11, 2009, when its request to withdraw from NFA and CFTC was approved. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Channel Capital Group Inc. (the "Parent").

The Company generates its revenue through marketing and by introducing accredited investors to hedge funds and private equity funds (collectively "Investment Funds") through its sales staff and the Parent's website.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid assets having a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company has entered into agreements with various hedge funds through which the Company earns management and incentive fees for introducing clients that invest in those hedge funds. The Company has also entered into agreements with investment advisors through which the Company earns referral fees for referring investors.

Management fees earned by the Company under these agreements are calculated as a specified percentage of the management fees earned by the hedge fund attributable to Company-referred investors. Also, under these agreements the Company may receive a specified percentage of any incentive fees that the hedge fund may earn on Company-introduced investors. Management and incentive fees are recorded as they are earned. In determining the amount of management and incentive fees earned, the Company relies, in part, on the various hedge funds to inform the Company of the total amount of capital placed with the hedge funds through this introduction process. Effective January 31, 2010, the Company's hedge fund introduction business was sold by its Parent to an unrelated broker/dealer (see Note 7).

Note 1 – Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

During 2009, the Company entered into an agreement to assist in capital-raising for a private company. The Company earns an agreed-upon monthly non-refundable retainer fee for executive time and due diligence. This contract has been extended through December 31, 2009, and verbally into 2010 on a month to month basis.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains all cash in financial institutions, which deposits at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced a loss in such accounts.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and accounts payable approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these items.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member limited liability company. For income tax purposes, the Company is treated as a disregarded entity under Federal and State income tax regulations. As such, the Company's revenues and expenses are included on the tax returns filed by the Parent, and no provision or liability for federal or state tax is included in these financial statements.

Note 2 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15c3-1"), under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2009, the Company had net capital of $108,808, which was in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 84% in 2009.

Note 3 – Reserve Requirements

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under Section (k)(2)(ii) and, therefore, is not required to make the periodic computation for determination of reserve requirements and information relating to the possession and control requirements under Rule 15c3-3.

Note 4 - Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

As discussed in Note 1, the Company's customers' securities transactions are introduced on a fully disclosed basis with its clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers of the Company and is responsible for execution, collection of and payment of funds and receipts and delivery of securities relative to customer transactions. Off-balance-sheet risk exists with respect to these transactions due to the possibility that customers may be unable to fulfill their contractual commitments, wherein, the clearing broker/dealer may charge any losses it incurs to the Company. The Company seeks to minimize this risk through procedures designed to monitor the credit worthiness of its customers and that customer transactions are executed properly by the clearing broker/dealer.

Management and incentive fees earned from two hedge funds represented approximately 46%, in the aggregate, of total management and incentives fees recognized during the year ended December 31, 2009. The amounts due from these hedge funds at December 31, 2009, represented approximately 74% of total fees receivable.

Note 5 – Related party transactions

Administrative expense-sharing agreement

In December 1, 2003, In accordance with guidelines established by FINRA in its "Notice to Members" dated October 2003, regarding expense-sharing agreements, the Company and its Parent signed an expense-sharing agreement wherein the Parent provides certain accounting and administrative services to the Company. The Parent allocates expenses on a reasonable allocation basis directly based upon prorated usage by the Company of the Parent's property, personnel, rent and other services. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company was charged $1,285,723. Included therein are salaries and related expenses amounting to approximately $708,992, commissions of approximately $126,907, and other administrative expenses of approximately $449,824. As of December 31, 2009, $36,797 was included in accounts payable at December 31, 2009.

License agreements

In October 2007, the Company entered into an Intellectual Property License Agreement (the "IPLA") with the Parent, granting the Company, as licensee, the rights to access certain customer data owned by the Parent and the Parent's Internet website. The IPLA expires in October 2010. The fee payable to the Parent under the IPLA is based upon the number of salespersons employed by the Company, as defined in the IPLA. In accordance with the IPLA, the Company is required to pay to the Parent a minimum fee of $150,000, up to a maximum fee of $400,000 annually. Fees are payable monthly. For the year ended December 31, 2009, total fees under this agreement totaled $191,667.

Note 6 - Employee Benefit and Compensation Plans

All of the Company's employees are eligible to participate in the Parent's qualified defined contribution 401(k) plan. Subject to certain limitations, annual contributions are at the discretion of the Parent. The Company did not make any matching contributions during the year ended December 31, 2009.

Note 7 - Subsequent Events

Effective January 31, 2010, Channel Capital Group Inc, the Company's Parent and sole member, consummated an agreement with an unrelated broker/dealer (the "purchasing broker/dealer"), whereby the Company's hedge fund introduction business was sold by its Parent to this entity. In connection with the sale, three of the Company's employees became employees of the purchasing broker/dealer. None of the Company's assets were sold to, nor any liabilities assumed by the purchasing broker/dealer. This will have a future effect on the Company's revenues, as the majority of its present revenues have been generated by the introduction of accredited investors to various hedge funds.

Management of the Company has evaluated all subsequent transactions through February 20, 2010, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. It has been determined that there are no subsequent events that require disclosure.

Channel Capital Group LLC Schedule III – Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to the Possession and Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 December 31, 2009

Channel Capital Group LLC, operates pursuant to the Section K(2)(ii) exemption provision of the Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3, of the customer protection rules, and does not hold customer funds or securities. Therefore, there are no reserve requirements and no possession and control requirements.

STARK • WINTER • SCHENKEIN

To the Member of Channel Capital Group LLC

In planning and performing the audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Channel Capital Group LLC (the "Company"), for the year ended December 31, 2009, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), In the following: making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in the following:

- 1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
- Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
- 3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to In the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives, Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's Internal control.

Our consideration of Internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in Internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purpose in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicates a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the members, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than those specified parties.

REPORT ON THE SIPC ANNUAL ASSESSEMENT REQUIRED UNDER SEC RULE 17a-5(e)(4)

AS OF AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009

STARK • WINTER • SCHENKEIN

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SIPC ANNUAL ASSESSMENT REQUIRED UNDER SEC RULE 17a-5(e)(4)

To the Member Channel Capital Group LLC

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have performed the following procedures with respect to the accompanying schedule of Securities Investor Protection Corporation assessments and payments (Form SIPC-7T) of Channel Capital Group LLC, for the year ended December 31, 2009. These procedures were performed solely to assist in complying with Rule 17a-5(e)(4), and the report is not to be used for any other purpose. The procedures that were performed are as follows:

- 1. Compared listed assessment payments with respective cash disbursements record entries;
- 2. Compared amounts reported on Form X-17a-5 with the amounts reported in the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7T) for the twelve months ended December 31, 2009;
- 3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7T with supporting schedules and working papers;
- 4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7T and in the related schedules and working papers supporting adjustments; and
- 5. Compare the amount of any overpayment applied with the Form SIPC-7T on which it was compared.

Because the above procedures do not constitute an audit made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we do not express an opinion on the schedule referred to above. In connection with the procedures referred to above, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the amounts shown on Form SIPC-7T were not determined in accordance with the applicable instructions and forms.

This report relates only to the schedule referred to above and does not extend to any financial statements of Channel Capital Group LLC, taken as a whole.
