INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Consultant Robert J. Montague, CPA

Board of Directors First Illinois Securities, Inc. 22 Heritage Bourbonnais, IL 60914

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of First Illinois Securities, Inc. (an Illinois Corporation) as of December 31, 2009, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the management of First Illinois Securities, Inc. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. These standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of First Illinois Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the statements taken as a whole. The computation of net capital, computation of basic net capital requirement, computation of aggregate indebtedness, and exemptive provision under Rule 15c3-3 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements, but are supplemental information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

FIRST ILLINOIS SECURITIES, INC. (AN ILLINOIS CORPORATION) NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE 1-NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES Significant Accounting Policies

The summary of significant accounting policies of First Illinois Securities, Inc. is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Nature of Operations

The financial statements of First Illinois Securities, Inc. include all operations of the Company. The Company was organized on November 19, 1986 as an Illinois Corporation for purposes of operating as a broker/dealer. In 1994, the Company changed its name from Dearborn Securities, Inc. to First Illinois Securities, Inc. On August 6, 1987, the Company was approved as a National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD) member established to sell Direct Participating Programs Limited Partnerships and not to hold customer funds or safekeep customer securities.

Basis of Accounting

The basis of accounting determines when transactions are recorded in the financial records and reported on the financial statements. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, wherein expenses are recognized as incurred and revenues are recognized at the time of sale.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include amounts in demand deposits, as well as certificates of deposit with maturities of three months or less. The Company may, on occasion, maintain bank balances in excess of federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in these accounts. Management does not feel this exposes the Company to significant credit risk.

Investments

Inventments consist of certificates of deposit with original maturities in excess of three months.

Prepaid Assets

Payments made to vendors for services that will benefit periods beyond December 31, 2009 are recorded as prepaid items.

Accounts Receivable

The Company uses the direct write-off method of recognizing uncollectible receivables. As of December 31, 2009, there were no accounts receivable for which the ultimate collection was considered to be in doubt.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

FIRST ILLINOIS SECURITIES, INC. (AN ILLINOIS CORPORATION) NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE 2-RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has entered into a variety of transactions with its shareholder and an entity controlled by its shareholder. Certain expenses of the Company are to a related company. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL Members R. Burke, CPA REQUIRED BY RULE 17a-5 Jodi K. Gill, CPA

Board of Directors First Illinois Securities, Inc. Bourbonnais IL 60914

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of First Illinois Securities, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2009, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company (i) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recording of differences required by Rule 17a-13, or (ii) in complying with the requirement for prompt payment for securities of Section 4(c) of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure of the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of the changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level, the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, that we would consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures at December 31, 2009, meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
