INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Capstone Capital Markets LLC (the "LLC") as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of operations and changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The LLC is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the LLC's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Capstone Capital Markets LLC as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of computation of net capital under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Significant Accounting Policies:

Reporting Entity: Capstone Capital Markets LLC (the "LLC"), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Capstone Partners LLC (the "Parent"), was formed on April 8, 2004, as a Delaware limited liability company. The LLC was registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as a broker/dealer on April 29, 2005. The LLC provides private placement services for companies located throughout the United States.

Accounting Standards Codification: During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company adopted the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC"). The ASC became the single official source of authoritative accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") recognized by the FASB, other than guidance issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The adoption of the ASC did not have a material impact on the Partnership's financial statements. However, the adoption of the ASC changed the Partnership's references to GAAP in its financial statements.

Revenue Recognition: The LLC recognizes private placement fees at the time the placement is completed and the income is reasonably determinable. Initial nonrefundable retainer fees are recognized as the services are performed over the term of the contract.

Deferred Revenue: Deferred revenue represents retainer fees for which the above mentioned revenue recognition criteria have not been met.

Cash and Equivalents: The LLC maintains cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed the federally insured limits. The Company has a cash management program, which provides for investments of excess cash balances primarily in money market accounts. The Company considers such highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. The value, liquidity and related income of these investments are sensitive to changes in economic conditions, and may be adversely affected by shifts in the market and changes in interest rates.

Income Taxes: No provision for federal or state income taxes is presented in these financial statements, as Capstone Capital Markets LLC is a limited liability company under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, which is taxed as a partnership and, accordingly, its taxable income is allocated to its member for federal and state income tax reporting purposes.

Uses of Estimates: Management has used estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in its preparation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results experienced by the LLC may differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events: In May of 2009, the FASB issued ASC No. 855-10 [Prior Authoritative Guidance: SFAS No. 165, Subsequent Events] (ASC 855-10), which establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date, but before the financial statements are issued or available to be issued. This guidance is effective for annual financial periods ending after June 15, 2009, and has been applied prospectively. In accordance with ASC 855-10, management has evaluated subsequent events spanning the period from December 31, 2009 through February 24, 2010, the latter representing the issuance date of this report.

2. Related Party Transactions:

The expenses of the LLC are directly allocated from the Parent to the LLC for those expenses solely pertaining to the LLC. Certain other overhead expenses are allocated to the LLC based on management's estimate of the LLC's usage of the related expenses. Such overhead expenses for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 included certain payroll and related expenses and office expenses amounting to $157,146 and $74,619, respectively.

3. Net Capital:

The LLC is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of not less than the greater of 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or $5,000. As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the LLC's net capital amounted to $446,772 and $10,943, respectively.

Rule 15c3-1 also requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The LLC's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio amounted to 0.30 to 1 and 2.36 to 1 as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

4. Economic Dependency:

During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, 100% of the LLC's revenue was derived from two customers, respectively.

Other Information:

Computation for Determination of the Reserve Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC:
The LLC operates under the exemptive provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3.

Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC:
The LLC is subject to the exemptive requirements of SEC Rule 15c3-3 and did not maintain possession or control of any customer funds or securities as of December 31, 2009.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Control Structure Required by SEC Rule 17a - 5

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Capstone Capital Markets LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the LLC's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the LLC's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the LLC's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the LLC including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the LLC does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the LLC in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verification, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13, and
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the LLC is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the LLC has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

To the Member and Managers
Capstone Capital Markets LLC
Page Two

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those responsible for oversight of the LLC's financial reporting.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the LLC's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the LLC's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
