UNITED STATES TAXATION

United States Internal Revenue Service Circular 230 Notice: To ensure compliance with Internal Revenue Service Circular 230, prospective investors are hereby notified that: (a) any discussion of United States federal tax issues contained or referred to in this final terms or any document referred to herein is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by prospective investors for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on them under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code; (b) such discussion is written for use in connection with the promotion or marketing of the transactions or matters addressed herein; and (c) prospective investors should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

The Notes are intended to be issued in a “qualified reopening” for United States federal income tax purposes and therefore International Finance Corporation will treat the Notes as being part of the same issue and as having the same issue date and issue price as the notes issued by International Finance Corporation on August 1, 2013.

A portion of the purchase price of the Notes is attributable to interest accrued for the period starting from and including the Interest Commencement Date to but excluding the Issue Date. A portion of the interest received on the First Interest Payment Date equal to such accrued interest should not be taxable when received but should instead reduce the holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Note by a corresponding amount.

The following paragraphs supplement the discussion under “Tax Matters” in the Prospectus dated as of June 3, 2008, and reflects recently enacted legislation.

Capital gain of a non-corporate U.S. Holder is generally taxed at preferential rates where the property is held for more than one year.

A U.S. Holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust that does not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (1) the U.S. Holder’s “net investment income” for the relevant taxable year and (2) the excess of the U.S. Holder’s modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of individuals is between $125,000 and $250,000, depending on the individual’s circumstances). A holder’s net investment income generally includes its interest income and its net gains from the disposition of notes, unless such interest income or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the conduct of a trade or business (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). If you are a U.S. Holder that is an individual, estate or trust, you are urged to consult your tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to your income and gains in respect of your investment in the notes.

Owners of "specified foreign financial assets" with an aggregate value in excess of $50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to file an information report with respect to such assets with their tax returns. "Specified foreign financial assets" may include financial accounts maintained by foreign financial institutions, as well as the following, but only if they are held for investment and not held in accounts maintained by financial institutions: (i) stocks and securities issued by non-United States persons, (ii) financial instruments and contracts that have non-United States issuers or counterparties, and (iii) interests in foreign entities. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the application of this reporting requirement to their ownership of the notes.

In so purchasing the Notes, each of the undersigned understands and agrees that it is not acting as an agent of the Corporation in the sale of the Notes.
- 2 When used herein and in the Standard Provisions as so incorporated, the term "Notes" refers to the Notes as defined herein, the term "Time of Sale" refers to November 14, 2013, 9:35 a.m. New York time and the term "Dealers" refers to the undersigned. All other terms defined in the Prospectus, the Final Terms relating to the Notes and the Standard Provisions shall have the same meaning when used herein.
- 3 The Corporation represents and warrants to the undersigned that the representations, warranties and agreements of the Corporation set forth in Clause 2 of the Standard Provisions (with the term "Prospectus" revised to read the "Prospectus as amended and supplemented with respect to Notes at the date hereof") are true and correct on the date hereof.
- 4 The obligation of each of the undersigned to purchase Notes hereunder is subject to the accuracy, on the date hereof and on the Settlement Date, of the Corporation's representations and warranties contained in Clause 2 of the Standard Provisions and to the Corporation's performance and observance of all applicable covenants and agreements contained therein, in each case with respect to the Notes. The obligation of each of the undersigned to purchase Notes hereunder is further subject to the receipt by the undersigned of an officer's certificate of the Corporation substantially in the form referred to in Clause 6.1 of the Standard Provisions, dated as of the Settlement Date.

5 The obligation of each of the undersigned to purchase Notes hereunder is further subject to the receipt by the undersigned of a letter from Sullivan & Cromwell LLP addressed to the undersigned and giving the undersigned full benefit of the existing validity opinion of such firm in respect of the Corporation's Global Medium-Term Note Program as of the respective date of such existing validity opinion.

6 The Corporation agrees that it will issue the Notes and each of the undersigned severally and not jointly agree to purchase the Notes at the purchase price specified above (being equal to the issue price of 100.001 per cent. of the nominal amount plus U.S. $20,888.89 representing 20 days of accrued interest).

The respective nominal amounts of the Notes that each of the undersigned commits to underwrite are set forth opposite their names below in Schedule I hereto.

8 The Corporation hereby appoints each of the undersigned as a Dealer under the Standard Provisions solely for the purpose of the issue of Notes to which this Terms Agreement relates. Each of the undersigned accepts such appointment, whereupon it shall be vested, solely with respect to this issue of Notes, with all authority, rights and powers of a Dealer purchasing Notes as principal set out in the Standard Provisions, a copy of which it acknowledges it has received.

9 In consideration of the Corporation appointing each of the undersigned as a Dealer under the Standard Provisions solely with respect to this issue of Notes, each of the undersigned hereby undertakes for the benefit of the Corporation and each of the other Dealers, that, in relation to this issue of Notes, it will perform and comply with all of the duties and obligations expressed to be assumed by a Dealer under the Standard Provisions.

10 Each of the undersigned acknowledges that such appointment is limited to this particular issue of Notes and is not for any other issue of Notes of the Corporation and that such appointment will terminate upon issue of the relevant Notes, but without prejudice to any rights (including, without limitation, any indemnification rights), duties or obligations of each of the undersigned which have arisen prior to such termination.

11 For purposes hereof, the notice details of each of the undersigned are set out in Schedule II hereto.

All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be transmitted in accordance with Clause 10 of the Standard Provisions.

12 If a default occurs with respect to one or more of the several underwriting commitments to purchase any Notes under this Agreement, Dealers who have not defaulted with respect to
