Dear Ms. Warner:

This is in regard to your letter dated January 7, 2015 concerning the shareholder proposal submitted by United Church Funds, Andra AP-fonden (Second Swedish National Pension Fund - AP2), Tredje AP-fonden (Third Swedish National Pension Fund - AP3) and Fjärde AP-fonden (Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund) for inclusion in Motorola Solutions' proxy materials for its upcoming annual meeting of security holders. Your letter indicates that the proponents have withdrawn the proposal and that Motorola Solutions therefore withdraws its December 22, 2014 request for a no-action letter from the Division. Because the matter is now moot, we will have no further comment.

Copies of all of the correspondence related to this matter will be made available on our website at <http://www.sec.gov/divisions/corpfin/cf-noaction/14a-8.shtml>. For your reference, a brief discussion of the Division's informal procedures regarding shareholder proposals is also available at the same website address.

Shareholder Proposal of United Church Funds, and co-filers

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am writing on behalf of Motorola Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), with regard to our letter dated December 22, 2014 (the "No-Action Request") concerning the shareholder proposal and statement in support thereof (the "Proposal") submitted by United Church Funds, with co-filers Andra AP-fonden (Second Swedish National Pension Fund – AP2), Tredje AP-fonden (Third Swedish National Pension Fund – AP3), and Fjarde AP-fonden (Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund) (collectively, the "Proponent") which requested confirmation that the staff (the "Staff") of the Division of Corporation Finance of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") would not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if, in reliance on Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company omitted the Proposal from the Company's proxy materials for its 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

The Proponent has withdrawn the Proposal by letter dated January 7, 2015 (attached as Exhibit A to this letter). In reliance on the Proponent's letter, the Company is withdrawing the No-Action Request.

SENT VIA EMAIL

Dear Ms. Warner,

On behalf of United Church Funds and all co-filing organizations, which have previously delegated authority to United Church Funds, I withdraw the shareholder proposal on human rights policy filed with the company on November 13, 2014. Pursuant to your communication of December 22, 2014, we have been advised that this proposal may be omitted by the company according to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and therefore will not seek to have it included in the materials for the 2015 annual meeting.

United Church Funds continues to be concerned with the way our company's policies guide its operations in international zones of conflict, and we would welcome the opportunity to discuss this matter in an engagement format.

Should you wish to engage in such a dialog, do not hesitate to contact me at 212.729.2608.

Re: Motorola Solutions, Inc.
Shareholder Proposal of United Church Funds, with co-filers [list]

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We submit this letter on behalf of Motorola Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), which requests confirmation that the staff (the "Staff") of the Division of Corporation Finance of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") will not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if, in reliance on Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), the Company omits the enclosed shareholder proposal (the "Proposal") and supporting statement (the "Supporting Statement") submitted by United Church Funds, with co-filers Andra AP-Fonden (Second Swedish National Pension Fund – AP2), Tredje AP-fonden (Third Swedish National Pension Fund – AP3), and Fjarde AP-fonden (Fourth Swedish National Pension Fund) (collectively, the "Proponent") from the Company's proxy materials for its 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "2015 Proxy Materials").

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j) under the Exchange Act, we have:

- filed this letter with the Commission no later than eighty (80) calendar days before the Company intends to file its definitive 2015 Proxy Materials with the Commission; and
- concurrently sent copies of this correspondence to the Proponent.

Copies of the Proposal, the Supporting Statement and the Proponent's cover letter submitting the Proposal are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Pursuant to the guidance provided in Section F of Staff Legal Bulletin 14F (Oct. 18, 2011), we ask that the Staff provide its response to this request to Michelle Warner, on behalf of the Company, via email at M.Warner@motorolasolutions.com.

I. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSAL

On November 17, 2014, the Company received a letter from the Proponent containing the Proposal for inclusion in the Company's 2015 Proxy Materials. The Proposal reads as follows:

Resolved, shareholders request the Board to review and amend, where applicable, within ten months of the 2015 Annual Meeting, Motorola Solutions' policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards.

II. EXCLUSION OF THE PROPOSAL

A. Basis for Exclusion of the Proposal

As discussed more fully below, the Company believes that it may properly omit the Proposal from its 2015 Proxy Materials in reliance on paragraph (i)(12)(iii) of Rule 14a-8, as the proposal deals with substantially the same subject matter as three previously submitted shareholder proposals that were included in the Company's 2010, 2011 and 2014 proxy materials, and the most recently submitted of those proposals did not receive the support necessary for resubmission.

B. The Proposal May Be Excluded in Reliance on Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii) as It Relates to Substantially the Same Subject Matter as Three Shareholder Proposals that Were Included in the Company's Proxy Materials in the Last Five Years, and the Most Recently Submitted of Those Proposals Did Not Receive the Support Necessary for Resubmission

Under Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii), a shareholder proposal dealing with "substantially the same subject matter as another proposal or proposals that has or have been previously included in the company's proxy materials within the preceding 5 calendar years" may be excluded from proxy materials "for any meeting held within 3 calendar years of the last time it was included if the proposal received ... [l]ess than 10% of the vote on its last submission to shareholders if proposed three times or more previously within the preceding 5 calendar years."

1. The Proposal Deals with Exactly the Same Subject Matter as Three Shareholder Proposals that were Included in the Company's Proxy Materials within the Last Five Years

The Proposal is virtually identical to three previously submitted proposals and deals with exactly the same subject matter (collectively, the "Previous Proposals"). The Previous Proposals were submitted by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) with various co-filers, as follows:

- (i) First, the Company included a shareholder proposal in its 2010 proxy materials for the annual meeting held on May 3, 2010 (the "2010 Proposal," attached as Exhibit B);
- (ii) Second, the Company included a shareholder proposal in its 2011 proxy materials for the annual meeting held on May 2, 2011 (the "2011 Proposal") attached as Exhibit C);
and
- (iii) Third, the Company included a shareholder proposal in its 2014 proxy materials for the annual meeting held on May 5, 2014 (the "2014 Proposal") attached as Exhibit D).

As noted above, under Rule 14a-8(i)(12), a company may exclude a shareholder proposal from its proxy materials if such proposal "deals with substantially the same subject matter" as other proposals that the company "previously included in [its] proxy materials within the preceding 5 calendar years."

The Proposal deals with the same subject matter—reviewing and amending the Company's policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards --as the Previous Proposals. The resolved clauses of the 2010, 2011 and 2014 Proposals are virtually identical to that of the Proposal. The only differences between the Proposal and the Previous Proposals are related to (i) the year of annual meeting referenced in the clause and (ii) the name of the Company (the 2010 and 2011 Proposals reference to the Company's predecessor name). As noted above, Rule 14a-8(i)(12) permits a proposal to be excluded if it is substantially the same as prior proposals. It does not require the proposal to be identical to prior proposals. See Exchange Act Release 34-20091 (August 16, 1983).

In addition to the language of the proposal itself, the Proposal and each of the Previous Proposals include supporting statements that are substantially similar, as they all present the proponent's statements regarding the views of investors on the subject matter of the proposal and the Company's ability to amend a human-rights policy. The 2010 Proposal and the 2011 Proposal supporting statements are identical; there is some minor wording variation in the supporting statement for the 2014 Proposal as compared to the 2010 and 2011 Proposals, however, the supporting statement in the 2014 Proposal is identical to the supporting statement in the current Proposal. In ConocoPhillips (Mar. 5, 2009), the Staff clarified that variations in supporting statements did not impact the applicability of Rule 14a-8(i)(12). Based upon the Staff's exclusion in ConocoPhillips the minor variations in the supporting statements are not significant to the determination that the proposals share the same substantive concerns.

Based upon the virtually identical proposals, the substantially similar supporting statements in the Previous Proposals and the supporting statement in the Proposal, it is the Company's view that the Proposal and the Previous Proposals deal with "substantially the same subject matter" for purposes of Rule 14a-8(i)(12).

2. The Proposal is Excludable Because the Most Recently Submitted of the Previous Proposals Did Not Receive the Support Necessary for Resubmission

When a previous proposal (or proposals) addressed substantially the same subject matter as a current proposal, Rule 14a-8(i)(12) establishes thresholds with respect to the percentage of shareholder votes cast for the most recent previous proposal that was included in the Company's proxy materials. The most recently submitted of the Previous Proposals, the 2014 Proposal, was included in the Company's 2014 proxy materials. Consistent with the Staff guidance in Staff Legal Bulletin 14 (Jul. 13, 2001) ("Staff Legal Bulletin 14"), (1) the Company has "previously included a proposal or proposals dealing with substantially the same subject matter" in its proxy materials within the past three calendar years; and (2) the Company has included such a proposal three times "over the preceding five calendar years." Accordingly, as described in Staff Legal Bulletin 14, "the company may exclude a proposal from this year's proxy materials under rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii) if it received less than 10% of the vote the last time that it was voted on." The voting calculation under Rule 14a-8(i)(12) requires consideration of votes for and votes against a proposal; abstentions and broker non-votes are not included. See Staff Legal Bulletin 14. According to the Company's Form 8-K filed on May 7, 2014 (attached as Exhibit E), there were 11,631,551 votes cast in favor of, and 171,832,048 votes cast against, the 2014 Proposal. Staff Legal Bulletin 14 states that the calculation is to be made as follows: $\text{Votes for the Proposal} / (\text{Votes against the Proposal} + \text{Votes for the Proposal}) = \text{Voting Percentage}$. Using the votes cast with regard to the proposal at the annual meeting of shareholders at which the identical proposal was submitted to a vote of shareholders, the 2014 Proposal received 6.33% of the vote: $11,631,551 / (11,631,551 + 171,832,048) = 11,631,551 / 183,463,599 = 0.0633$.

Thus, the 2014 Proposal failed to receive 10% of the vote, for purposes of Rule 14a-8(i)(12), at the Company's 2014 annual meeting of shareholders. As Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii) provides that a company may exclude a proposal that deals with substantially the same subject matter as previously submitted proposals if the proposal received "less than 10% of the vote on its last submission to shareholders if proposed three times or more previously within the preceding 5 calendar years," it is the Company's view that it may exclude the Proposal in reliance on Rule 14a-8(i)(12)(iii).

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above, the Company believes that it may properly omit the Proposal and Supporting Statement from its 2015 Proxy Materials in reliance on Rule 14a-8. As such, we respectfully request that the Staff concur with the Company's view and not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if the Company omits the Proposal and Supporting Statement from its 2015 Proxy Materials. If we can be of further assistance in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at (847) 538-5476.

A Century of Service

November 13, 2014

Mr. Gregory Q. Brown, Chairman, President and CEO
Motorola Solutions, Inc.
1303 East Algonquin Road
Schaumburg, IL 60196

Dear Mr. Brown:

United Church Funds has been a shareholder of Motorola Solutions, Inc. since the company's inception. We continue to be concerned that our company's human rights policies are not sufficient to ensure that our company's practices will conform to all relevant international human rights and humanitarian standards, especially in international zones of conflict. As a socially responsible investor, we believe that our company can avoid undue risks in reviewing and amending these policies where applicable.

Consistent with this belief, United Church Funds hereby files the enclosed resolution and supporting statement for consideration and action at your 2015 Annual Meeting. In brief, the proposal requests Motorola Solutions to review and amend, where applicable, its policies related to human rights that guide international and U.S. operations, extending policies to include licensees and agents that market, distribute or sell its products, to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards, and that a summary of this review be posted on the company's website within ten months of the Annual Meeting.

As required by SEC Regulation 14A-8, United Church Funds has held Motorola Solutions, Inc. common stock valued over $2,000 continually for a period of one year prior to the date of this filing letter. United Church Funds will hold the SEC-required ownership position through the 2015 Annual Meeting, and will have the shares represented at the Annual Meeting. Attestation of our beneficial ownership of shares in Motorola Solutions, Inc., as stated by our custodian BNY Mellon, is enclosed.

We hope Motorola Solutions will respond positively to this resolution by accepting dialogue with the filers and any co-filers. Should you wish to engage in such a dialogue, please do not hesitate to contact me at 212.729.2608.

Sincerely,

Kathryn McCloskey

2015 Motorola Solutions Shareholder Resolution on Human Rights Policy

Whereas, Motorola Solutions faces increasingly complex problems as the international, social, and cultural context within which it operates changes.

Companies confront ethical and legal challenges arising from diverse cultural, political and economic contexts or operating in regions of conflict. Today, management must address issues that include human rights, workers' right to organize and bargain collectively, non-discrimination in the workplace, environmental protection and sustainable community development. Motorola Solutions does business in countries with human rights challenges including China, Malaysia, Russia, Colombia and Israel and the Occupied Palestinian territories, for example.

Several international conventions, declarations and treaties set forth internationally recognized standards designed to protect human rights that should be reflected in the policies of Motorola Solutions. These include the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Fourth Geneva Convention, the Hague Conventions, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the core labor standards of the ILO and the International Covenant on Economic, Cultural and Social Rights. We believe these documents can inform a revision of our company's human rights policies. Also, United Nations resolutions and country reports of special rapporteurs, and "Norms on the Responsibilities of Transnational Corporations and Other Business Enterprises with Regard to Human Rights," adopted by the United Nations Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights in 2003 are helpful, as are the comprehensive human rights policies designed for global companies found in "Principles for Global Corporate Responsibility: Bench Marks for Measuring Business Performance," developed by an international group of religious investors.

We believe companies with comprehensive policies may accrue significant commercial advantages through enhanced corporate reputation, improved employee recruitment and retention, improved community and stakeholder relations and reduced risk of adverse publicity, consumer boycotts, divestment campaigns and lawsuits.

Resolved, shareholders request the Board to review and amend, where applicable, within ten months of the 2015 Annual Meeting, Motorola Solutions' policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards.

Supporting Statement

We believe our company's current human rights policies are limited in scope, and provide little or no guidance for determining business relationships where our products or services could entangle the company in human rights violations. Although we do not recommend inclusion of any specific provision of the above-named documents, we believe our company's policies should reflect a more comprehensive understanding of human rights.

Our company should be able to assure shareholders that employees are treated fairly and with dignity wherever they work in the global economy. Equally important, Motorola Solutions should also provide similar assurance that its products and services are not used in human rights violations. One element of ensuring compliance is utilization of independent monitors composed of respected local human rights, religious and non-governmental organizations that know local culture and conditions. We believe the adoption of a more comprehensive human rights policy, coupled with implementation, enforcement, independent monitoring, and transparent, comprehensive reporting will assure shareholders of our company's global leadership.

In brief, the proposal requests Motorola Solutions to review and amend, where applicable, its policies related to human rights that guide international and U.S. operations, extending policies to include licensees and agents that market, distribute or sell its products, to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards, and that a summary of this review be posted on the company's website within ten months from the Annual Meeting.

Consistent with SEC Regulation 14A-8, the Fund has held Motorola Solutions, Inc. common stock valued over $2,000 continually for a period of one year prior to the date of this filing letter. The Fund will hold the SEC-required ownership position through the 2015 Annual Meeting, and will have the shares represented at the Annual Meeting. Enclosed is a verification of ownership from our custodian, Northern Trust.

We hope Motorola Solutions will respond positively to this resolution by accepting dialogue with the filers, us as co-filers and any other co-filers. Should you wish to engage in such a dialogue, please do not hesitate to contact, Arne Lööv, Head of Corporate Governance, at arne.loov@ap4.se or the General Secretary of the Ethical Council John Howchin at john.howchin@ethicalcouncil.com or Kathryn McCloskey at United Church Funds at 212-729-2608.

2015 Motorola Solutions Shareholder Resolution on Human Rights Policy

Whereas, Motorola Solutions faces increasingly complex problems as the international, social, and cultural context within which it operates changes.

Companies confront ethical and legal challenges arising from diverse cultural, political and economic contexts or operating in regions of conflict. Today, management must address issues that include human rights, workers' right to organize and bargain collectively, non-discrimination in the workplace, environmental protection and sustainable community development. Motorola Solutions does business in countries with human rights challenges including China, Malaysia, Russia, Colombia and Israel and the Occupied Palestinian territories, for example.

Several international conventions, declarations and treaties set forth internationally recognized standards designed to protect human rights that should be reflected in the policies of Motorola Solutions. These include the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Fourth Geneva Convention, the Hague Conventions, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the core labor standards of the ILO and the International Covenant on Economic, Cultural and Social Rights. We believe these documents can inform a revision of our company's human rights policies. Also, United Nations resolutions and country reports of special rapporteurs, and "Norms on the Responsibilities of Transnational Corporations and Other Business Enterprises with Regard to Human Rights," adopted by the United Nations Subcommission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights in 2003 are helpful, as are the comprehensive human rights policies designed for global companies found in "Principles for Global Corporate Responsibility: Bench Marks for Measuring Business Performance," developed by an international group of religious investors.

We believe companies with comprehensive policies may accrue significant commercial advantages through enhanced corporate reputation, improved employee recruitment and retention, improved community and stakeholder relations and reduced risk of adverse publicity, consumer boycotts, divestment campaigns and lawsuits.

Resolved, shareholders request the Board to review and amend, where applicable, within ten months of the 2015 Annual Meeting, Motorola Solutions' policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards.

Supporting Statement

We believe our company's current human rights policies are limited in scope, and provide little or no guidance for determining business relationships where our products or services could entangle the company in human rights violations. Although we do not recommend inclusion of any specific provision of the above-named documents, we believe our company's policies should reflect a more comprehensive understanding of human rights.

Our company should be able to assure shareholders that employees are treated fairly and with dignity wherever they work in the global economy. Equally important, Motorola Solutions should also provide similar assurance that its products and services are not used in human rights violations. One element of ensuring compliance is utilization of independent monitors composed of respected local human rights, religious and non-governmental organizations that know local culture and conditions. We believe the adoption of a more comprehensive human rights policy, coupled with implementation, enforcement, independent monitoring, and transparent, comprehensive reporting will assure shareholders of our company's global leadership.

PROPOSAL NO. 4SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL RE: "SHAREHOLDER RESOLUTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY"

The Company has been advised that the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the beneficial owner of 750 shares intends to submit the following proposal for consideration at the 2010 Annual Meeting. The following proposal has also been co-filed by The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Mercy Investment Program.

2010 Motorola Shareholder Resolution on Human Rights Policy

Whereas, Motorola, as a global corporation, faces increasingly complex problems as the international social, and cultural context within which Motorola operates changes.

Companies are faced with ethical and legal challenges arising from diverse cultures and political and economic contexts. Today, management must address issues that include human rights, workers' right to organize and bargain collectively, non-discrimination in the workplace, protection of the environment and sustainable community development. Motorola does business in countries with human rights challenges including China, Malaysia, Russia, and Israel and the occupied Palestinian territories.

Several international conventions, declarations and treaties set forth internationally recognized standards designed to protect human rights—civil, political, social environmental, cultural and economic—that should be reflected in Motorola's policies. These include the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Fourth Geneva Convention, the Hague Conventions, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the core labor standards of the International Labor Organization, and the International Covenant on Economic, Cultural and Social Rights. We believe that these documents will help inform Motorola's revision of its human rights policy. Also, United Nations resolutions and reports of the special rapporteurs on countries where Motorola does business, and "Norms on the Responsibilities of Transnational Corporations and Other Business Enterprises with Regard to Human Rights," adopted by the United Nations Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights in August 2003 are helpful, as are the comprehensive human rights policies developed for global companies found in "Principles for Global Corporate Responsibility: Bench Marks for Measuring Business Performance," developed by an international group of religious investors.

As companies formulate comprehensive policies, we believe significant commercial advantages may accrue through enhanced corporate reputation, improved employee recruitment and retention, improved community and stakeholder relations and reduced risk of adverse publicity, consumer boycotts, divestment campaigns and lawsuits.

RESOLVED, shareholders request the Board to amend, where applicable, within ten months of the 2010 Annual Meeting, Motorola's policies related to human rights that guide its international and U.S. operations to conform more fully with international human rights and humanitarian standards.

Supporting Statement

We believe Motorola's current human rights policies are limited in scope, and provide little or no guidance for determining business relationships where our products or services could entangle the company in human rights violations. Although we are not recommending any specific provision of the above-named documents be included in the revised policy, we believe that our company's policies should reflect a more comprehensive understanding of human rights.

Motorola should be able to assure shareholders that employees are treated fairly and with dignity wherever they work in the global economy. Going beyond internal practices, however, Motorola should be able to provide similar assurance that its products and services are not used in human rights violations. One element of ensuring compliance is utilization of independent monitors composed of respected local human rights, religious and non-governmental organizations that know local culture and conditions. We believe the adoption of a more comprehensive human rights policy, coupled with implementation, enforcement and independent monitoring, will assure shareholders of Motorola's global leadership.
