INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors ThomasLloyd Capital LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ThomasLloyd Capital LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2015. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ThomasLloyd Capital LLC as of December 31, 2015, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

ThomasLloyd Capital LLC Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015

1. ORGANIZATION

ThomasLloyd Capital LLC ("the Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of ThomasLloyd Global Asset Management (Americas), LLC (the Parent), is a broker-dealer. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company has agreed to limit its business to corporate finance and investment banking activities. The Company does receive trail commissions from mutual fund products. The Company is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities and changes in interest rates, which have an impact on the Company's liquidity. The Company is organized as a limited liability company in the State of Delaware.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and Cash Equivalents - At times during the year, the Company's cash accounts exceeded the related amount of federal depository insurance. The Company has not experienced any loss in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

The Company considers financial instruments with a maturity of less than 90 days to be cash equivalents.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Investment Banking Revenue - Investment banking revenue is recorded upon the close of the related transaction. Any receivable for such transaction is evaluated monthly by management for collectability.

Concentration of Credit Risk - The Company is engaged in various investment banking activities. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each of its counterparties.

Income Taxes - The Company is a Delaware limited liability company and has elected to be treated as a partnership as defined in the Internal Revenue Code. Under this election, the taxable income or loss is taxed directly to the member. Accordingly, the Company records no provision for federal income taxes.

The Company recognizes and discloses uncertain tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). As of, and during the year ended December 31, 2015 the Company did not have liability for unrecognized tax benefits.

Accounting Estimates - Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenue and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Translation of Foreign Currencies – Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at year-end rates of exchange, whereas the income statement accounts are translated at average rates of exchange for the year. Gains or losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in net income.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through February 23, 2016, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring disclosure in these financial statements. Except for the matter disclosed in note 7.

3. RELATED PARTY

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with the Parent, whereby the Parent or an affiliate of the Company pay the operating expenses of the Company. All operating expenses paid by the Parent or an affiliate that are attributable to the Company which are not reflected in the Company's financial statements will be recorded by the Company on a separate schedule of costs and maintained pursuant to SEC Rule 17a-4.

4. INVESTMENT

During 2014, the Company made an investment in an affiliated company ThomasLloyd Capital Partners S.à r.l. ThomasLloyd Capital Partners S.à r.l. is the General Partner to the Thomas Lloyd SICAV-SIF, a Luxembourg investment company with variable capital, a specialized investment fund governed by Luxembourg laws and incorporated under the legal form of a common limited partnership.

5. NET CAPITAL PROVISION OF RULE 15c3-1

The Company is a member of the FINRA and is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2015, the Company's net capital was $46,140 which was $41,140 in excess of its minimum requirement of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 39.90 to 1.

6. COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIRMENTS

The Company will operate in accordance with the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. The Company has no customer accounts.

7. LITIGATION

The Company has been named a respondent in a FINRA Dispute Resolution Arbitration. After consultation with outside counsel, the Company has vigorously denied the claims.
