2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2015, there were no cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as an S-Corporation for Income tax purposes. Therefore, the Company's income and expenses are included in the individual income tax returns of the Company's stockholder. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

To the Stockholder of
C.E. Hutchison & Company (d/b/a The Hutchison Company)

We have reviewed management's statements, included in C.E. Hutchison & Company (d/b/a The Hutchison Company) Annual Exemption Report, in which (1) The Hutchison Company identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which The Hutchison Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: k(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) The Hutchison Company stated that The Hutchison Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Hutchison Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about The Hutchison Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
