NEXT FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations and Basis of Presentation

NEXT Financial Group, Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is a Virginia corporation. The Company operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), whereby a clearing broker-dealer performs clearing functions for all broker-dealer transactions with customers and brokers and dealers on a fully disclosed basis. The Company also has agreements for clearing functions with other various mutual funds and variable annuity brokers. The Company receives commissions on trades that are facilitated through the clearing broker-dealer and other brokers. The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and to general practices within the securities industry.

The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of NEXT Financial Holdings, Inc. ("Holdings").

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than ninety days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Receivable from Broker-Dealers and Clearing Organizations

Receivables from broker-dealers and clearing organizations are generally collected in full in the month following their accrual. As such, management has not recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts on these. The Company advances funds to its registered representatives as determined necessary by management. The advances consist of pass through expenses, which are generally recouped upon the following commission payment cycle, and loans which are repaid with interest over periods of up to three years. Interest earned on the loans is recorded on a monthly basis. Loans receivable are generally repaid through the following commission payment cycles and are generally considered past due upon termination of the registered representative. Management records an allowance for bad debts based on a collectability review of specific accounts. Any receivables deemed uncollectible are written off against the allowance.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The costs of leasehold improvements are capitalized and such costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or lease term, as applicable.

Other Assets

Other assets consist primarily of prepaid expenses and other receivables. Prepaid expenses are carried at cost and are expensed over the period of time to which they relate, generally less than one year. Other receivables consist mostly of advances to employee and registered representatives that are generally collected within less than three months. As of December 31, 2015, the Company had recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $89,634 against these receivables.

NEXT FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued

Investments

Marketable securities and securities sold, not yet purchased are carried at fair market value in accordance with the Fair Value Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification ("FASB ASC"). Increases or decreases in net unrealized appreciation or depreciation of investments are credited or charged to operations. The fair values of marketable securities are based on publicly available, unadjusted quoted prices in active markets (Level 1 inputs as defined in the Fair Value Topic of the FASB ASC).

Revenue Recognition

Security transactions (and related commission revenue and expense) are recorded on a trade date basis. Commission revenue and related expenses from the sale of mutual funds are recorded on a trade date basis.

Investment advisory and management fees are generally recognized as services are provided. Generally, fees are billed on a quarterly basis based on the account's asset value at the end of a quarter. Advance payments, if received, are deferred and recognized during the periods for which services are provided.

Compensated Absences

Compensated absences have not been accrued because the amount cannot be reasonably estimated.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising costs incurred for the year ended December 31, 2015 were $16,327 and are reflected in promotional costs.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the Income Taxes Topic of the FASB ASC. Deferred tax assets and liabilities arising from temporary differences between book and tax basis are recognized using the enacted statutory tax rates and laws that will be in effect when such differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future years. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for temporary differences that will result in taxable income in future years. In the case of deferred tax assets, a reduction in deferred tax assets is recorded if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. Any interest or penalties associated with income taxes would be included as a component of income tax expense in the period in which the assessment arises.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NEXT FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital of approximately $3,569,303 and net capital requirements of $340,143. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.43 to 1. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits a ratio of no greater than 15 to 1.

Note 3 - Possession or Control Requirements

The Company does not have any possession or control of customer funds or securities. There were no material inadequacies in the procedures followed in adhering to the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) by promptly transmitting all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker who carries the customer accounts.

Note 4 - Property and Equipment

The classes of property and equipment are as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	$ 514,663
Computer equipment and software	4,808,224
Leasehold improvements	30,045
	5,352,932
Less: accumulated depreciation and amortization	(5,049,312)
	$ 303,620

Depreciation and amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2015 was $227,158 and is reflected in occupancy and equipment costs.

Note 5 - Loans Receivable – Salesmen

The Company has 43 unsecured promissory notes receivable from its registered representatives. The notes are generally payable within a year in equal monthly installments of principal plus interest at annual interest rates ranging from 0% to 7.5%. All of the outstanding notes mature at various times through 2017. As of December 31, 2015, the Company had recorded $30,000 as an allowance for doubtful accounts against loans receivable – salesmen.

Note 6 - Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes consists of the following:

Current tax expense	$ 969,086
Deferred tax expense (benefit)	31,300
Total income tax expense	$ 1,000,386

The Company is a member of a group that files a consolidated federal tax return. Accordingly, income taxes payable to (refundable from) the tax authority is recognized on the financial statements of the parent company who is the taxpayer for income tax purposes. The members of the consolidated group allocate payments to any member of the group for the income tax reduction resulting from the member's inclusion in the consolidated return, or the member makes payments to the parent company for its allocated share of the consolidated income tax liability. This allocation approximates the amounts that would be reported if the Company was separately filing its tax return. As of December 31, 2015, there were $216,580 in tax-related balances payable to Holdings.

The expected income tax expense from applying statutory rates to net income before income taxes differs from actual income tax expense due to state income taxes net of federal tax benefit, permanent differences related to meals and entertainment, and adjustments from the prior year's estimates to actual prior year income tax return amounts.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and in various state and local jurisdictions. The Company's federal income tax returns generally remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for three years from the date the return is due, including extensions. The Company's state and local income tax returns are subject to examination by the respective state and local authorities over various statutes of limitations, most ranging from three to five years from the date of filing.

Note 7 - Operating Leases

The Company leases office space in Houston, Texas. Rental expense is calculated on a straight-line basis. The lease began in August 2008, for a six-year term, with renewal options for two additional five-year terms. In January 2014, the Company amended its lease agreement to extend the lease term through August 31, 2020. The renewal provisions of the original lease remain in effect.

The following is a schedule by years of future minimum rental payments required under operating leases that have initial or remaining noncancelable lease terms in excess of one year:

Year Ending December 31,
2016	$ 656,808
2017	673,093
2018	689,377
2019	705,662
Thereafter	477,679
	$ 3,202,619

Rental expense for the year ended December 31, 2015, was $637,157 and is reflected in occupancy and equipment costs.

NEXT FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Note 8 - Employee Benefits

The Company has a 401(k) savings plan for all employees who have completed one month of service. The plan allows the Company to make discretionary matching contributions, as well as additional discretionary contributions. The Company made matching contributions of $132,037 to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2015.

Note 9 - Concentration Risk

At December 31, 2015, and at various other times during the year then ended, the Company had cash balances in excess of federally insured limits.

Note 10 - Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has been named, along with other defendants, in proceedings and lawsuits incidental to its securities business. As of December 31, 2015, customers in these proceedings are seeking damages of approximately $4.4 million. The Company has also been named, along with other defendants, in proceedings instituted by a former employee and a former independent contractor, respectively, of the Company who seek damages of approximately $22.6 million. Management intends to present a vigorous defense. The ultimate outcome of these proceedings and lawsuits cannot presently be determined. As of December 31, 2015, the Company has accrued approximately $865,000 related to these proceedings and lawsuits based on the analysis conducted by the Company and/or their attorneys as to the Company's potential exposure.

Included in the Company's clearing agreement with its clearing broker-dealer is an indemnification clause. This clause relates to instances where the Company's customers fail to settle security transactions. In the event this occurs, the Company will indemnify the clearing broker-dealer to the extent of the net loss on any unsettled trades. At December 31, 2015, management of the Company had not been notified by the clearing broker-dealer, nor were they otherwise aware, of any potential losses relating to this indemnification.

Note 11 - Related Party Transactions

The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings. At December 31, 2015, the Company had a receivable from Holdings of $10,063,681 and a payable of $216,580 as reflected on the Statement of Financial Condition. The Company and Holdings are under common control and the existence of that control may create operating results and financial position different than if the companies were autonomous.

Note 12 - Recent Pronouncement

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", which provides guidance for revenue recognition. This ASU's core principal is that a Company will recognize revenue when it transfers promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services. This ASU also requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments, and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. ASU No. 2014-09 allows for either full retrospective or modified retrospective adoption. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-14, which deferred the effective date of ASU 2014-09 one additional year. ASU 2014-09, including the deferral in ASU 2015-14, will be effective commencing with Company's year ending December 31, 2018.

(the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (b) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the year ended December 31, 2015 without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Independent Auditor's Report

On Internal Control

Required By SEC Rule 17a-5

Year Ended

December 31, 2015

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM
ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Board of Directors
NEXT Financial Group, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental information of NEXT Financial Group, Inc. (the "Company"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

As required by Regulation 1.16 of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding firm assets. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Regulation 1.16 in making the period computations of minimum financial requirements pursuant to Regulation 1.17.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs and to access the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the CFTC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provided management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Regulation 1.16(d)(2) list additional objectives of the practices and procedure listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraph and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding firm assets that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the CFTC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance and the Commodity Exchange Act, and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of the report, were adequate at December 31, 2015, to meet the CFTC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and uses of the members, management the CFTC, the National Futures Association, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Regulation 1.16 of the CFTC in their regulation of registered brokers-dealers and introducing brokers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
